GALLOW AND BROTHERCROSS HUNDREDS.

THESE two hundreds were (as I take it) possessed by the Crown, till King Henry I. gave them to William Earl Warren and Surrey, to be held of the castle of Norwich, paying 2 marks per annum.

It appears by the book of Domesday, that the towns of these hundreds are now strangely intermixed; many that were then in Brothercross hundred, are now in Gallow, viz. Rainham, the most southern town, at this time in Gallow, was then in Brothercross hundred; and Burnham Thorp, with both the Crekes, which are at this time in Brothercross, were in Gallow hundred.

In the 35th of Henry III. the King directed his writ to the sheriff of this county, reciting, that whereas by inquisition it was found that the land of John Earl Warren, et nova terra, (by which I understand lands granted, or purchased since the time of the Conqueror,) were always free in the time of William Earl Warren, his father, and his ancestors, of the common amerciements of the county; and of murder, when it happened out of any of those lands which were his; but that the iters of the justices, the King hath amerciements of all pleas there moved of all the Earl's lands, as well new, as all other his lands, or demesnes; and if any murder happen on any of those lands, then they were not quit thereof, &c.—Therefore the King ordered that the Earl should have all the liberties and quittances, which his father had enjoyed. Dated July 22d.

It appears that the Earl Warren paid 2 marks per annum to the King for them in his 52d year, and that they were worth 20l. per ann.

JOHN EARL WARREN, in the 4th of Edward II. claimed a right to all whales east on the shores here; and in the 12th of that King, conveyed by fine to Thomas Earl of Lancaster the said hundreds; and Henry Duke of Lancaster died possessed of them in the 35th of Edward III.; but John Earl Warren held them at his death in the 21st of Edward III.<sup>2</sup> who inherited them in right of his wife; to whom the King granted many royal privileges herein, and they descended to his son, Henry Duke of Lancaster. (as part of the duchy of Lancaster,) who became King of England, by the name of Henry IV. and in the 5th year of his reign (as Duke of Lancaster and lord of these hundreds,) had a sheriff's turn, held by the high steward of his duchy of Lancaster, at Fakenham-Dam. It remained thus in the possession of King Henry V. and VI. as Dukes of Lancaster, till King Edward IV. in his first year, by act of parliament on the attainder of King Henry VI incorporated the aforesaid duchy with the Crown, November 4th, and after settled them on Elizabeth his Queen for life; who, in the 7th, year of the said King, November 24, demised to John Wode, Esq. these hundreds, with that of North Greenhow, for three years, with all the courts leete, hundred courts, sheriff's aid, wrecks, weifs, strays, &c.; licenses of concord, royal liberties, free customs, writs, felons goods, deodands, &c. King Henry VII. separated again these hundreds from the Crown, and they are now parts of the duchy of Lancaster, and belonging to the Crown.

HENRY Duke of Lancaster, by Isabel his wife, daughter of Henry Lord Beaumont, left two daughters and coheirs; Maud, the eldest, married, first, Ralph son of Ralph Lord Stafford, and afterwards William Duke of Zealand, &c. styled also Earl of Leicester, and died without issue; Blanch, the youngest, married John of Gaunt Earl of Richmond, and after, Duke of Lancaster, 4th son to King Edward III.

In 1623, these hundreds were let by the Earl of Arundel for 14*l.* per annum, as appears from the receipt of Mr. Jeremiah Alexander, receiver of the rents to the said Earl.

The hundred court for Gallow hundred might be anciently held at a place that gave name to it: I find Philip, son of Richard de Doketon, to grant, by deed sans date, to Richard de Dunton three pieces of land, in the fields of Dunton, at Galehow; and in the 6th of Edward II. Hugh de Dunton had lands at Galehoges, in Dunton field.

In the 5th of Henry IV. it was held, as I have observed, at Fakenham-Dam, which place might probably have been called Galestow; that is, a hill at the water: in the 3d and 10th of Elizabeth, the hundred court was held at Longfield Stone, but in what town is not mentioned.

Brothercross seems to take its name from a cross placed at the ford or pass over the river at Burnham; which river, in the Saxon age, might be called the Brother, as Brotherton, a town in Yorkshire; and thus Broughton, a town on a brook.

B A R M E R E,

Called Benemare, in Domesday book, when it was the lordship of William Earl Warren, and held of him by Ralf. It was a bernite to Rudham: four socmen held then sixty acres of land, and three bordarers had one carucate and an half, and a church belonged to it.<sup>3</sup>

COXFORD PRIORY MANOR.

Ralph abovementioned was the ancestor of the family of de Caineto, or Cheyney, (of whom see in Rudham), and a younger branch of that family being enfeoffed of this town, assumed, according to the custom of that age, the name (as I presume) of de Barmere. Nicholas de Barmere gave to the priory thirty acres of land here, in the time of Henry III. and in the said reign, the prior held here, in Rudham and Sydes-tern, one knight's fee, and an half, of the Earl Warren, when the aid was granted on the marriage of the King's sister to the Emperor.

The temporalities of the priory, in 1428, were valued at 4*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*; at the Dissolution, King Henry VIII. on May 9, in his 29th year, granted it to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, with the advowson, all its liberties, courts leete, and view of frank pledge, foldcourse, &c. for 1000 years; and the Duke of Norfolk granted it to Robert Bozoun, Esq. of Stodey, ao. 9 Elizabeth, a pepper corn per annum, if demanded: Bozoun conveyed it to Roger Townsend, Esq. January 8, in the 12th of Elizabeth, with lands in Berwick, in exchange for lands in Wyssingset, in which family it remains, the right honourable George Lord Viscount Townsend being lord.

CASTLEACRE PRIORY MANOR.

In the 4th of King John, a fine was levied between John de Mateluske and Edith his wife, John de Bermere, and Emme his wife, of lands here conveyed to John de Bermere. It appears from the Register of Castleacre, that Martin, son and heir of John de Bermere, gave to that priory several services of his tenants, and several yearly rents, confirming also the grants of Richard de Bermere his brother:† he also gave the moiety of his heath, called Whinberghe, the moiety of his foldcourse, a croft, called Bruecroft, four acres of land, called Bochrendale, with view of frank-pledge, assise of bread and beer, and free bull and boar, sans date; but in the reign of King John, he also gave them four acres, three acres, and five roods of land, and the yearly rent of 14*d.* which Sir Osbert de Stratesete paid him for land here.

In the 20th of Edward III. the prior held a quarter of a fee here, and his temporalities were valued at 18*s.* 7*d.*

At the Dissolution it was granted, May 9, in the 29th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Duke of Norfolk; and Thomas Duke of Norfolk granted it, in the 9th of Elizabeth, to Robert Bozoun, Esq. who conveyed it to Roger Townsend, Esq. as is above observed, &c.; from the family of Townsend it came to Sir —— Chaplin, Bart. and from him to Mr. Edward Glover, the present lord, 1757.

The manor of Berwick extended into this town in the 20th of Edward III. William de Calthorp held the fourth part of a fee here of the heirs of the Lord Tateshall, which Reginald de Calthorp, and Richard his brother formerly held; and Sir William Calthorp of Calthorp, Knt.

† Reg. Castl. fol. 46.

died possessed of it; in the 9th of Henry VI. Sir Philip Calthorp was lord, as appears by his will, dated March 27, 1532. Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir Philip, brought it by marriage to Sir Henry Parker, lord also of Berwick and Stanhow; and Sir Philip Parker had livery of it about the 20th of Elizabeth. Soon after this it came to the *Townsend*s, and so was united to the other lordships.

The tenths were 2*l.* 13*s.*—Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*—Lete fee 12*d.* to the lord of the hundred.—Concealed lands here were granted September 22, 17 Elizabeth, to John Herbert and Andrew Palmer.

The Church is a little pile; stands on a hill, and is covered with tiles: the chancel and the north isle are in ruins; it is dedicated to All-Saints, and has a round tower or steeple.

It was a rectory, valued at ten marks, with the portions, and in the patronage of Coxford priory, appropriated thereto by Walter Bishop of Norwich, and again by William Bishop of Norwich, 14 Cal. September, 1326. Peter-pence 12*d.*

The spiritualities of Bynham priory, in 1428 were 6*s.*; a knight of the Lord Valoins, whose manor of Rudman North-hall extended here, gave two parts of his tithes to the priory on its foundation; the temporalities of Bukenham priory 3*s.* 11*d.* ob. and of Walsingham 6*d.*

In 1302, Andrew de Cutun, presented by the prior, &c. of Cokesfield.

In 1326, on the second appropriation, a vicar was ordained, who was to have tithes of all the fruits and obventions belonging to the said church, corn excepted; the vicar was to pay procurations and synodals, and the Bishop had a pension of two marks per annum.

1327, Thomas Hancock. Ditto

1335, Thomas Spanye. Ditto.

1341, William de Melton. Ditto.

1349, John Peggon. Ditto.

1353, John de Southgate. Ditto.

1387, Thomas Penchrigge. Ditto.

1389, Richard Willing. Ditto.

1404, John Willys. Ditto.

I find no institutions after this, and is held of a curacy in the patronage of the Earl of Orford.

In Domesday Book, this village is wrote Benemara; Bene sets forth its site on a rivulet or stream, called Ben, as Benington in Hertfordshire, Benford in Warwickshire, &c. and Mara, by some mere, or standing water. Barmere, by a hill and a mere.

BRUNSTHORP,

So called, as seated by a BURN, or BOURN. This village was given (as I take it) to the abbey of Ely, by Ethelwold Bishop of Winchester, in the reign of the Saxon King Edgar. At the survey it was in the tenure, and accounted for as the lands, of St. Audrey, or Adeldrede, the foundress of that monastery. There was a socman and 8 bordarers, with one carucate of land, one carucate in demean, and one amongst the men, three acres of meadow, and a mill, valued at 3l. per annum.<sup>5</sup>

In the reign of King Henry II. Warine Fitz-Gerold held it of the Bishop of Ely; he was grandson of Robert Fitz-Gerold, who lived in the time of the Conqueror, and held many lordships in several counties. Warine was the King's chamberlain, and the family of Pinkeney held it under the Fitz-Gerolds.

ROBERT DE PINKENEI released to William his brother half a knight's fee here, in the 10th of Richard I. who regranted it by fine to Robert and Alice his wife in tail, except thirteen acres of land, granted by him to the canons of Rudham, for which he gave other lands in exchange. Hamo de Pinkeney held the moiety of a fee in the reign of Henry III. with Alice, his wife, and died seized of it in the 33d of that King; held, as then said, of the honour of Albemarle. Margaret, daughter and heir of Warine, son of Warine Fitz-Gerold, and Alice de Curci his wife, married, 1st, Baldwin de Redvers Earl of Devonshire, and held it in capite; but in the 24th of the said King, it was found that Sir Robert de Insula, or de L'Isle, was lord of it by the marriage of Alice, daughter and heir of Henry Fitz-Gerold, brother of Warine. John de Pinkeney, son of Hamo, held under them.

In the 9th of Edward III. James de Pinkeney granted to Thomas his brother a messuage, with lands here; and in the 19th of that King, James de Pinkeney of Taterset, and Joan his wife, settled this lordship on themselves for life, remainder on Hugh, their son, and Isabel his wife; and in the 42d of that King, Robert de Insula, or L'Isle, son and heir of John, granted to the King certain knight's fees, and courts held by him in Brunsthorp, Intwood, Mundeford, Holt, Cley, Sniterley, Thorley, Bayfield, Letheringsset, Hempstead, and Bretenham, in Norfolk.

The heirs of Hugh de Pinkeney were found to hold it, in the first year of Henry IV. and in the sixth of the said reign, John Drew held half a knight's fee, as was found, of the dutchy of Lancaster, and paid then 10s. He was one of the executors of Sir Robert Knollys, Knt. whose manor of Taterset extended herein.

In the 10th of Henry VII. John Dyane was found to hold the manor of Taterset, and 300 acres of land, in Taterset and Brunsthorp, by knight's service, and Robert was his son and heir, who conveyed it to Sir William Farmer, whose nephew, Thomas Farmer, Esq. sold this lordship, in or about 1570, to Thomas Cocket, Esq. who married Anne, daughter of John Butler, Gent. of Droitwich in Worcestershire, in 1564, descended from John Cocket, senior, of Ampton, in Suffolk, who died in the 2d of Richard III. whose son John died about the 10th of Henry VII. and was father of John Cocket, lord of Ampton in Suffolk, and of Appleton in Norfolk, who married, and had issue, as the following pedigree shows.

It appears by this pedigree, that Abigail, daughter and heir of Froximere Cocket, Esq. brought this lordship by marriage to John Walpole, Esq. second son of Calibut Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, who dying December 8, 1654, was buried at Tattersete, and left three daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth, who married to Edward Pepys, Esq. had one daughter, who died in 1665, and her husband in 1663; and the said Elizabeth dying September 10, 1668, was buried by her husband and daughter in the church of Tattersete. By her will, she gave her right in this lordship to her two sisters, Bridget and Susan. John Hare, Esq. purchasing Bridget's right in 1669, became sole lord, and left it to his son, John Hare, Esq. Richmond Herald, who in 1698 sold it to Philip Bedingfield, Esq. who married his sister Elizabeth. Philip was son of Edmund Bedingfield, rector of Bishop's Cleeve in Gloucestershire, son of Robert, and brother to Sir Thomas Bedingfield of Darsham, in Suffolk; and on December 24, 1615, it was sold by the aforesaid Philip to Colonel Horace Walpole, a younger son of Sir Edward Walpole, Knt. of the Bath, for 2200*l.* and an annuity of 60*l.* clear, for life.

Here is only the manor-house now remaining, which the Colonel died seized of, October 17, 1717, and the Earl of Orford is now lord.

The lete fee, to the lord of the hundred, was 12*d.*

Here is no church, and it appears to have been destroyed before the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

In the reign of Edward I. the prior of Symplingham, or Sempringham, held this church, appropriated to the convent, and had a grange only; it was valued at four marks, Peter-pence, 7*d.* In 1428, the temporalities of Corford priory here, and in Taterset, valued at 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

In 1481, John Croome was instituted on the presentation of the prior and convent aforesaid.

1529, John Mendham, collated by the Bishop, a lapse.

In 1532, August 17th, it was appropriated, on the resignation of Mendham, to Cocksford priory, and served by one of their canons; after that the parishioners had license to go to East Rudham church, from William Bishop of Norwich, 1536.

1608, Thomas Huson, presented by the King. The appropriated rectory was granted May 9th, Ao. 29th Henry VIII. to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

Here was the gild of St. John, to whom the church was probably dedicated.

BURNHAM DEPEDALE,

So called from its site (called also Deepden) in a great valley; the principal lordship was, we find, at the time of the survey, in the abbey of Ramsey, who held it in King Edward's reign.<sup>7</sup>—One freeman held then of that monastery, half a carucate of land, 18 bordarers, half a carucate, there were two carucates in demean, valued at 10*s.* and Roger Bigot was infeoffed of this by the abbot.

BRANCASTER-HALL.

Wulgina, wife of Ailwin Duke of the East-Angles, gave this manor, with Brancaster, &c. to the abbot of Ramsey on his founding the said monastery in 969, and King Edgar, and Edward the Confessor confirmed the said grant with many privileges, as may be seen in Brancaster.

REINALD, or Reginald, abbot, by his deed sans date, but in the reign of Henry I. grants to Boseline and Alfna his wife, the land of Ulf, in Depedene (now called Depedale) on this condition, that they become the abbot's liege people.

Reinaldus Dei gratia abbas Ramesiæ præposito et hominibus de Brancestre et omnibus vicinis Francis et Anglis salut.—Sciatis me dedisse terram Ulf in Depedene (hodie Depedale) huic Boselino et uxori ejus Alfna ita bene sicut homines de Brancestre illum testificant verum habuisse, cā conditione quod effecti sunt homines liges.

This shows that lords of manors had their lieges, who were bound and sworn to pay allegiance to them.

The family of Brancestre seems to have held it of the abbot. Herbert de Brancestre lived in the 34th of Henry III. and was succeeded by Ralph his son, and the bailiff of the abbot in the said reign took a penny toll of every cart, or carriage, coming to or from Depedale, and Thomas de Brancestre held a quarter of a fee in this town in the said reign.

Adam de Brancestre held it in the 3d of Edward I. and one of the same name had the same tenure, (as appears from the inquisitions in the 20th of Edward III.) which Thomas de Brancestre formerly held, and Thomas de Brancestre held it in the 3d of Henry IV.

On the dissolution of monasteries, it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. May 5th, in his 37th year, (in consideration of the manor of Haynsford, &c. conveyed by Sir Richard Southwell to the King,) granted to Sir Richard the lordship of Brancaster-hall, with a portion of tithes, belonging to Ramsey abbey, dated May 5th; and in the 19th of Elizabeth, June 20th, Thomas Southwell of Horsham St. Faith's, covenanted with Catherine Audley his sister, and Robert her son, in things related to this manor, and Henry Southwell, son of Sir Richard, was lord in the 12th of James I.

DEPEDALE MANOR.

Another lordship in this town was possessed by Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk of that name, by a grant of the Conqueror, out of which Rochagana, who was lord of it in King Edward's time, had been ejected, and Humphrey de Cuelai, held it under Bigot, containing 1 carucate of land, 2 villains, 10 bordarers, 2 servi, 1 carucate in demean, and 2 amongst the tenants, or men, &c. valued formerly at 20s. per ann. at the survey at 16s.<sup>9</sup>

In the 34th of Henry III. Ralph de Depedale passed, by fine, land, here to Odo, son of Ede de Depedale; and in the 53d of that Kings Roger de Toftes was patent in a fine, and Henry, son of William de Depedale, was tenant of 1 carucate of land, in Depedale and Burnham, with all the homages, rents, wards, &c. granted to Roger and his heirs, paying to Henry for life 7*l.* per annum. This Roger had a quarter of a knight's fee, and in the 55th of the said reign, the abbot of Ramsey recovered a free tencement against Henry de Depedale, and Roger de Toftes, of which they had unjustly disseized him, being possessed of it for an 100 years past, by the gelt of the ancestors of Roger de Toftes. In the 15th of Edward I. Roger de Toftes claimed free warren in his demean lands here, and settled on Richard de Toftes this manor, in the 33d of that King, by fine, who in the 17th of Edward II. held it (as it is said) by the fourth part of a fee, of Sir John de Thorp; this Richard settled by fine on Thomas de Chamberlayne, and Elizabeth his wife, intail, this lordship, with 200 acres of land, 100 of marsh, and 40*s.* in this town, Burnham Sutton, Westgate, Norton, Ulp, &c. in the 2d of Edward III. which Roger de Ormesby and Alice his wife held in dower, and Thomas Chamberlayn held it by a quarter of a fee in the 20th of that King. After this, John, son of Simon Chamberlayn, and the daughters of the said Simon, conveyed it to John Leche of Egmere, clerk.

Sir John de Vernon and Catherine his wife conveyed by fine, to Sir Ralph de Pooley, Knt. Robert Aleyu of Stokesby, and Symon de Bermere, this manor, with 2 carucates of land, 100 acres of marsh, and 9*s.* rent here, &c. settled on Sir Ralph and his heirs; and John de Holcham by his will, dated on the feast of St. Stephen, 1384, and proved October 23d following, appears to die possessed of it. In the 14th of Henry 6th, Thomas Charles, Esq. and Alice his wife, passed it by fine to George Holkham, with 200 acres of land, 200 of marsh, 40*s.* per ann. in this town, Burnham Norton, Westgate, Sutton, Ulp, and Brancaster.

Thomas Shouldham, Esq. by his will, dated in 1467, gives it to Margaret his wife for life, and afterwards to be sold.<sup>1</sup>

In the 33d of Henry VIII. John Finham, Esq. was found to die possessed of it, as appears from the eschaet-rolls, and William Fincham his grandson died lord in the 14th of Elizabeth. After this it was possessed by Charles Cornwallis, Esq. who married the sister and heir of William. This Charles Cornwallis was second son of Sir Thomas Cornwallis, of Brome-hall, in Suffolk, privy counsellor to Queen Mary.

In Trinity term, the 13th of James I. a fine was levied between Henry Davy and Christopher Hyrne, plaintiffs, Henry Southwell deforciant of the manors of Burnham Depedale, and that of Brancaster, Helmingham, and Morton, 20 messuages, 20 tofts, 1 windmill, 5 dove-houses, 20 gardens, 1000 acres of heath, 10 of alder, 40*s.* a rent, a free fishing, and liberty of 2 foldages, &c.; and on Monday, February 22d, in the year 1617, it appears from the Council book,<sup>2</sup> that Sir Henry

Southwell, Knt gentleman of the privy chamber in ordinary, claimed the rents of the manor of Depedale, retained from him by Sir Charles Cornwallays, and belonging to him.

After this it was purchased by Stephen Soame, Esq. who was a knight, and Lord Mayor of London, in 1598, and John Soame, Esq. was lord in 1656; from the Soames it came to John Harris, Esq. who presented to the church in 1686, and Elizabeth Money in 1749.

Roger Bigot had also another manor held of him by Turstan, son of Wido, consisting of one carucate of land; which 2 freemen owned, in King Edward's reign, 10 bordarers, 1 carucate in demean, 1 amongst the men, 2 parts of a mill, 5 acres of meadow, valued then at 8s. at the survey at 18s per annum; and in the same village 2 freemen had half a carucate of land, with 2 bordarers, &c. valued at 2s. at the survey at 12*d.* And in Depedale, Turstan held of Bigot half a carucate, which a freeman possessed, and 3 bordarers, with one carucate, valued at 20s. at the survey at 10s.

Turstan seems to have been the ancestor of the family of De Creke, lords of North Creke and of Depedale, from whom it came to the Thorps, as may be there seen at large.

In the 35th of Edward I. Sir John de Thorp and his parceners held in Creyk, Depedale, Quarles, &c. 13 fees of Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, and in the 23d of Edward III. John, son of Sir Robert de Thorp, was lord of this fee

The tenths of this town were 45s.—Deducted 8s. 4*d.*—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred, 2s. 1*d.*

The Church is dedicated to St. Mary, and is a rectory valued at 11*l.*; the ancient valor was 10 marks, and in the patronage of the abbot of Ramsay, and out of it the sacrist had a pension valued at 1 mark, the prior of Wymund a portion, valued at half a mark, and the prior of Castleacre one, valued at 7s. in 1428. Peter-pence 12*d.*

There was a controversy between William, abbot of Ramsay, and Godfrey the priest, concerning this church, terminated by Gilbert Foliot Bishop of London, in the reign of Henry II. Godfrey pleading, that one Sir Walter de Grisomonte presented him, but he publicly before the Bishop acknowledged the right to be for ever in the abbey; and resigned all his right therein, to the abbot.

The church has a nave, a north isle, and a chancel covered with lead; in a window the arms of Calthorp, impaling gules, three cups argent, Argenton. Here is an old font, standing on five pillasters, a round tower, with one bell.

BURNHAM THORP.

THERE are several towns here adjoining of the name of Burnham, so called from a neighbouring stream, or brook. Toke, a great Saxon thane, was lord of it in the reign of the Confessor, and was, at the conquest, deprived of it, and many more considerable lordships, when this was granted to William Earl Warren, and is placed in Domesday

 in Yorkshire, and deprived 1554.

book, under the hundred of Gallow, and not in Brothercross. Walter then was infeoffed of it, by the aforesaid Earl.

In Toke's time it contained 2 carucates of land, 10 villains, and 29 bordarers, with 3 servi; there were 2 carucates in demean, 5 amongst the tenants, &c. 1 acre of meadow, the 3d part of a mill, 2 runce, 1 ass, 4 cows, &c. and 345 sheep: 9 socmen belonged to it, with one carucate of land, &c. a church, then endowed with 80 acres, the whole then valued at 60s. at the survey at 4*l.* per annum, was 1 leuca long and an half, and 1 leuca broad, and paid 3s. to a 20s. gelt, whoever may possess it.<sup>5</sup>

WALTER, who held it at the survey, under the Earl, seems to be the ancestor of the family of de Burnham; Philip de Burnham was lord, in the reign of King Stephen,<sup>6</sup> and had 2 sons, William and Reginald; William had a son Philip, who was lord in the 30th of Henry II. and one of the same name in Richard I.; but William de Burnham dying without issue in the reign of Henry III. this lordship came to Sir William de Calthorp, by the marriage of his sister and heir, Cecilia, as may be seen in Harpley.

Some make the Burnhams to descend from a cousin-german of Hamelin Plantaginet Earl Warren and Surry, but as that Earl lived in the reign of Henry II. and Richard I. and as the Burnhams were lords long before their reigns, it is more probable that Walter was their ancestor.

In the 55th of Henry III. Sir William de Calthorp and Cecilia his wife had a charter for a fair at Burnham, on the vigil, the day, and the day after, of St. Peter ad vincula, and a weekly mercate on Saturday, dated at Westminster, July 24th. William de Grancourt had also an interest here, and in the 45th of the aforesaid King, released by fine to Sir William de Calthorp, and Cecilia, 2 carucates of land, and to the abbot of Creke, his right in 15 acres, and 2 parts of a mill, and in the 14th of Edward I. Walter, son of William de Grancourt, confirmed the same.

In the Calthorp family it remained till Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Philip, and sister and heir to Philip Calthorp, Esq. brought it, by marriage, to Sir Henry Parker of Erwarton in Suffolk, who had livery of it, in the 3d of Edward VI. and Sir Calthorp Parker dying seized of it in the 13th of James I. Philip was found his son and heir, aged 17, and Sir Philip Parker presented to the church, as lord, in 1681, and Peter Lombard, Esq. in 1715.

On the death of Peter Lombard, Esq. it came to the honourable Horace Walpole, Esq. by the marriage of ———, one of the daughters and coheirs of the said Peter, and is called Burnham Thorpe manor, cum membris, viz. Coldham's and Hayward's.

WINDHAM MANOR PRIORY.

In the 18th of Edward I. the prior impleaded William de Calthorpe, for breaking his fold, when it was found that he had no liberty of foldage, from the middle of March to the feast of St. John Baptist.

This, on the dissolution of that house, came to the Crown, and was granted, February 12, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, to John Cajus, doctor of physick, who gave it to Cajus college of Cambridge, of which he was master, and in this society it remains.

The tenths were 3*l.* 10*s.*—Deducted 1*l.*—Burnham Thorp lete fee to the lord of the hundred, was 2*s.*

WILLIAM, son of Philip de Candos, confirmed by deed sans date,<sup>7</sup> all the gifts which Philip his father made to the monks of Castleacre, and in particular the land that William Pulchard held here.

VIRLEY'S MANOR.

Another lordship in this town was, at the survey, in the possession of Robert de Verley, held by Godwin in King Edward's time, and after, by Ralph Earl of Norfolk, who on his rebellion in the reign of the Conqueror, had forfeited it: one carucate of land belonged to it, eight bordarers, and one servus; there was then one carucate in demean, and one among the men, &c. two freemen resided on this carucate, valued then at 40*s.* at the survey at 30*s. per annum*.<sup>8</sup>

ROBERT DE VERLEY held also at the survey a manor at West Herling, in the hundred of Gileross, Dalling manor in North Greenhow hundred, and Tunstal in the hundred of Walesham.

From Robert de Verley this lordship came to the Earl Warren, and by a branch of that family to the Bardolfs; Robert gave by deed, sans dated, to the monks of Castleacre, the whole fee and service, which spring in hold of him, in Burnham.

WILLIAM DE RISEBY held half a fee here, when an aid was granted in the reign of King Henry III. on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor of Germany, of the honour of Wirmegey; and Robert Crow was possessed then of half a fee of the heirs of Virley, held of the Earl Warren, as it is said.

By the eschaet rolls in the 3d of Edward III. Philip Virley appears to have died seized of two fees in this town, Euston, Herling, &c. belonging to the Lord Bardolf; James de Pinkeney had the moiety of a fee in the 20th of Edward III. and at the same time William, de Calthorp held half a fee, lately held by Robert Crowe, of the heirs of Virley, and they of the honour of Wirmegey; and that of the Earl Warren; and Sir William Calthorpe was lord of a whole fee in the 1st of Henry IV. held as before-mentioned; so that this lordship became united to that of Burnham Thorp, and passed with that, as is there mentioned.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and is a rectory; the present valor is 19*l.* 10*s.*—It contains a chancel, nave with two isles, covered with lead, and a tower with one bell.

In the middle of the church lies a grave-stone ornamented with a rim of brass, thus inscribed,

Will. Calthorp Miles, quondam Dnus. Manerii et Patronus Ecclic. de Brunham omn. Scor. Com. Norff. filius Oliveri Calthorp Militis, et Sibille Uxoris ejus filie ----- sub hoc marmore in Ecclia. predicta requiescent obiit xx. quarto die Decembris Anno Dni. M.CCCC.XX. quor. animabus propitiatur Deus, Amen.

At the upper end of the said stone, are (in two shields) the arms of Calthorpe, and St. Omer;—azure, a fess between six crosslets, or. The arms of Sibilla, his 2d wife, daughter and heir of Sir Edmund de St. Omer; under each shield is a bird standing on a mount with this label, Pensey de Emyer; below is the effigies of Sir William in armour, between two fillets of brass; on that on his right side,—Quisquis eris qui transieris, sta, p. lege, p. lora. The fillet on the left side is reaved, whereon, no doubt was, Sum quod eris, fueramq; quod es, pro me precor ora.—A grave stone in memory of Frances Paston, daughter of Sir William Cornwalleys the younger, by his wife Catherine, daughter of Sir Philip Parker, the relict of Thomas Paston, Esq. and 2d son of Sir Edmund Paston, Knt. who died November 6, in her 73d year, and in 1675, with the arms of Paston impaling Cornwalleys. Also,

This on a stone with a brass plate.

One in memory of Peter Lombard, son of Peter, who died January 1, 1717, aged 19. Here are two penons with the arms of Lombard, argent a chevron between three lions heads erased, azure.

A grave-stone in memory of Francis, wife of Samuel Richardson, clerk, daughter of Thomas Cornwalleys, Esq. who died January 24, 1684; and one for Catherine Hoo, daughter of Philip Russel, Gent. who died March 9, 1604, wife of Clement Hoo, Gent.

It appears, that in the reign of Edward I. there was also another church in Burnham Thorp, dedicated to St. Peter, but at that time consolidated to Burnham All-Saints.—Walter de Grancourt gave to the monks of Lewes these two churches; and in 1229, sentence was given in favour of that prior, for an annual pension of 20*s.* to be paid by the rector of All-Saints, formerly called St. Mary's: the said Walter also gave them a chapel, which stood before his court or house.

PHILIP DE CANDOS gave to the monks of Castleacre the tithes of his lordship here. In the 9th of King Stephen, Walter, son of Philip, presented. In the 9th of Richard I. Philip de Burnham recovered his right of patronage against the prior of Lewes, it being found that Walter, son of Philip de Burnham, presented in the time of King Stephen.

It was anciently valued at thirty marks, *Pcter-pence 1*l.* ob.*

BURNHAM NORTON,

So called from its site, being north of the other BURNHAMS.

POLSTED-HALL MANOR

(Of which see at large in BURNHAM WESTGATE) extended into this town, and took its name from the Polsteds, lords of it; Sir Hugh de Polstede married Hawisia, daughter and coheir of Hugh de Candois, lord of Burnham, by Anselina his wife, daughter and coheir of William de Grandcourt; Juliana, the other daughter and coheir of Hugh, having married, first, William Jernegan, and afterwards Sir William de Gyvingham.

In the 20th of Henry III. Sir Hugh de Polsted paid ten marks fine for his son Hugh's transgression, Gilbert Bosevil and Alan Basset being his pledges; and in the 14th of Edward I. the sheriff of Norfolk had a precept to make a just division of the Polsted estate, between Ralph de Hemenhale, and Emme his wife and John de Gyvingham, in Burnham Norton.

John Muriel, parson of Wortham, &c. conveyed to Sir Robert, son of Sir Ralph de Hemenhale, and to Joan his wife, this manor, with the advowsons of the churches of St. Mary, St. Margaret and All-Saints in Burnham, settled on them and their heirs, in the 4th of Richard II.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir Reginald Braybrook held it, in right of the Lady Joan, his wife, of the honour of Dover, by one knight's fee, as did Sir John Oldcastle, in the 9th of that King, with the advowsons of St. Mary, St. Margaret, and All-Saints, in Burnham, and on his attainder was granted to Sir John Rothenhale, then to Sir Lewes Robsart, after to John Fenys.

On February 14, in the 35th of Henry VIII. Edward Warner had a reversionary grant of Polsted-hall, with the advowson of the church thereto belonging, in the tenure of Thomas Fynes, and his wife, for life; and on October 14, in the first of Queen Mary, confirmed to him and his heirs male.

Polsted-hall manor, with six appertences, and other lands, &c. in Burnham Westgate, Norton, Sutton, Depedale, &c. bought by Sir Stephen Soame, Knt. &c. of Charles Cornwallis, &c. December 6, in the 14th of King James I.

The manor of Reynham, or Lexham's and after in the Southwells, as in Burnham Westgate, extended here.

The tenths of this town were 8l. 4s.—Deducted 34s.

The canons of Walsingham had a lodship in this township, in the 34th of Henry III. when that convent was impleaded on account of raising a ditch here, which was found not to be to the injury, or detriment of the free tenement, of the parson of the church of Burnham Norton.

Lete fee to the lordship of the hundred, 4s. 2d. ob.

To the church of Burnham Norton belonged two medietyes or rec-tories: in the reign of Edward I. the heirs of Polsted were patrons of one; the rector of this had then a manse, and forty acres of land, called Robert's mediety; the other was in the patronage of Wendling abbey, and was the mediety of William; each was valued at twenty marks, and they paid Peter-pence 20d. ob. In 1249, Robert occurs rector, and about the said time, William de Gimmingham.—The present valor of this, with that of St. Albert, and Burnham All-Saints, is 17l. 10s.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret, and stands on an hill, about a mile distant from the town, has a nave, a north and south isle (the church is decayed) covered with lead, and, in a round tower, there is one bell, on which, Virginis Egregie vocor Campana Marie.

On the pulpit are painted the four Doctors (as they were called) of the church, viz. St. Augustine, St. Ambrose, St. Gregory, and St. Jerome, also the portraitures of John Goldale, and Katherine his wife, and under them, Orate p.----Johannis Goldale et Katerine Uxoris sue ----fecerunt fieri.

On the screen Orate p. aiab; Willi. Groom, et Johanne Consortis sue qui istam fabricam fecerunt depingi in honore----- Anno Dni. Millo. cccc.lviii. quor. aiab; propit. ----. Underneath are the portraitures of eight saints, and over the heads of St. Ethelbert, and the Virgin Mary,—

Rex Ethelberte, mereamur calica p. Te, Nos eum prole piâ benedicat Virgo Maria.

In the south isle is a gravestone in memory of Lydia Thurlow, wife of John Thurlow, Gent. who died May 31, 1676. One in memory of John Thurlow, Gent. born December 24, 1619, died March 22, 1634; also for Mr. William Thurlow, uncle to the said John, who died in 1630, and Bridget Thurlow, aunt to John, who died 1653, lineally descended of the Thurlows of Burnham Ulp.—In the north isle a gravestone for Mary wife of Richard Flight, who died October 4, 1680.

In the churchyard an altar tomb of free stone, in memory of Ann Huntley, wife of Robert Huntley, who died July 28 1667, and for Robert Huntley, who died Nov. 23, 1686, aged 62.

In the upper windows, round the church, are the arms of Calthorp and Bacon, quarterly, also in the church those of Hemenhale, De La Pole, Lord Scales impaling Morley.

 1724, Thomas Grome, to Burnham St. Mary, and the mediety of St. Margaret, and All-Saints, by Thomas Harris, Esq. on Spurling's death.
 1729, Thomas Smithson, to the medietyes aforesaid.

1755, Edmund Nelson, on Smithson's death, by Horace Walpole, Esq.

In this church were the guilds of St. Margaret and St. Nicholas.

In this town was a priory of Carmelites or White friars, dedicated to the blessed Virgin Mary, and founded by Sir William Calthorp, and Sir Ralph Hemenhale, in 1241, Ao. 26 Henry III;<sup>2</sup> but it is more probable in the beginning of the reign of King Edward I. in the 26th of that King, they had a patent granted them.

In the 27th of Edward III. the prior had a patent for three acres to enlarge their manse, or house. Robert Bale, the famous historian, was prior of this house; and dying in the reign of Henry VII. was here buried.

At the Dissolution, it was valued but 2*l.* 5*s.* 4*d.* per annum as Dugdale, and 1*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.* ob. as Speed. King Henry VIII. in his 33d year, gave to William Lord Cobham, and Edward Warner, the site of this house, &c. to be held of the King in capite, with certain messuages about it.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. license was granted to Joan, widow of Sir _____ to alien the site of this priory to William Blenerhasset; and in the fourth of Elizabeth, license granted to John Blenerhasset, to alien all the site and priorate to William Bromfield and Thomas Pepys. In the 19th of that Queen, November 28, two acres of concealed lands in Burnham Norton, in the tenure of Francis Cobb, belonging to the Carmelite friars there, were granted to Edward Grymston.

BURNHAM OVEREY;

That is, over the WATER or RIVER.

VEWTRE'S MANOR.

THIS was a beruite, or part of the lordship of Burnham Westgate, which was in the Crown, and farmed by Godrie at the time of the compiling of Domesday-book, and granted by King William II. to William de Albini, his butler, ancestor to the Earls of Arundel.<sup>3</sup> William le Vextre seems to be the principal lord of it; who gave in the reign of King Henry II. the rectory of the church of St. Clements of Burnham, to the canons of Walsingham, with its churchyard, containing five roods of land; and one of the same name was a witness to the grant of William de Albini, the King's butler, in the reign of Henry I. of the manor of Hopesburgh, to the monks of Wymondham, on his foundation of that priory; and by the name of William le

Feutre of Burnham, gave also six acres to it; and by the register of Wymondham, had a son Matthew. In the 3d of Richard I. William de Feutre owed 114*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.* for his lands in Burnham;* this William left two daughters and coheirs; Margery, married to Richard de Snetterton; and Maud, the other daughter and coheir married Matthew Babstan, and had a daughter Agatha, who married to Rodland, son of Fabian, who enfeoffed the prior of Walsingham in his right or part. Ralph de Snetterton was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and was then found to have wreck at sea in Burnham. Sir Thomas de Snetterton was his son and heir, who, in the 15th of that King, claimed a weekly mercate in Burnham; a fair on the vigil, day, and the day after the feast of St. Margaret, every year, and free warren in his demean lands.

But, though a principal part of this manor was dismembered, and came to Snetterton and Rodland as above-mentioned, yet the family of Feutre being not extinct, had some interest therein. Peter le Feutre, of Burnham, lived about the 20th of Edward I. and Latitia, his widow, in the 31st of that King; and William le Feutre was witness to a deed in the 32d of the said reign. Robert, son of Peter le Feutre, had a messuage and lands given him by Sir Thomas de Snetterton, and after this, Roger Breton, and Alice his wife, John de Bintre, and Maud his wife, the prior of Walsingham, &c. held here, &c. three fees of the Lord Tateshale, as heir to the Earl of Arundel, which Thomas de Snetterton and his parceners formerly held. John le Feutre occurs 20th Edward III. and Simon Feutre was living in the reign of Richard II. and Richard Feutre, and Oliva his wife in the 3d of Henry V. and had an interest herein.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir Robert Knolls, Sir William Calthorp, Simon Feutre, the prior of Walsingham, and John Leche, &c. held in Burnham, Holkham, Wighton, &c. three fees of the honour of Tateshale.

In the reign of Edward IV. Thomas Giggs was lord of Feutre's manor; and Margaret his widow, by her will dated August 13, 1473, bequeaths her body to be buried in the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, by her husband, in the church of St. Clement of Burnham;<sup>5</sup> mentions therein John her son, and Thomas, and Alice, wife of John Giggs: and Thomas Gegges, as appears by his will, dated December 1, 1505, died lord of it, and mentions Oliva his wife, his son John, Alianore, Agnes, and Joan, his daughters, and was proved February 6, in the said year.<sup>6</sup>

By a deed, dated February 28, in the 16th of Henry VIII. John Gyggs, Gent. of Burnham St. Clements conveys in trust to Richard Hoo, Gent. the manor of Feesters, with its appertenaunces in Burnham, St. Clements, St. Andrew, Ulpe, Sutton, Norton, Depedale, St. Edmunds, Westgate, Holkham, Wighton, and Warham; John to have it for life, and after to Agnes his wife, an annuity of 10*l.* per annum for her life. This Richard Hoo married ———, sister of John Gygges, which John died March 30, in the 6th of Edward VI. and had, by Agnes his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Barry, Susan his daughter and heir, married to Humphrey Dene of Wigenhale, whose daughter and heir, Anne, became wife to Thomas Hoo, (son of Richard Hoo above-mentioned, of Scarning, where a pedigree of this family may be seen,) and the said Anne dying without issue, her husband, Thomas, enjoyed by deed of settlement this lordship; and by Margaret his second wife, daughter of Clement Palgrave of Northwood Berningham, had Richard Hoo, Esq. his son and heir, aged nine years on his father's death, in the 13th of Elizabeth. About this time there belonged to this lordship six messuages, six gardens, as many orchards, 300 acres of land, twenty of meadow eighty of pasture, fifty of furze and heath, 40s. rent per ann. free warren, and liberty of fold-course, in Burnham, Overy, Sutton, Norton, Westgate, and Ulpe; the aforesaid Richard died seized of it in the ——— of King Charles.

Peter Lombard, Esq. was lord in 1740: on whose death it came, by the marriage of Mary his daughter and coheir, to the honourable Horace Walpole, Esq. after, Lord Wolterton.

The site of this manor was in the south part of Overy-street, alias Church-gate, or East-gate, beginning at the several fishery of Vewter's, was well built, enclosed with a stone wall, and contained about three acres, and a several fishery belonged to it.

POMFRET'S MANOR

Was formerly a part of the manor of Vewter's, and taken out of it on the division of it; Sir Robert Knolles, Kat. settled it by a fine, levied on the 6th of Henry IV. on John Drew, clerk, his trustee, with Sculthorp, and other manors; and in the 10th of that king it was settled by Drew on John Stedman, the master, and the chaplains of the college of the Holy Trinity of Pontifract in Yorkshire, from whence it took its name;<sup>7</sup> called also Knolle's alms-house, being founded by him.

On its dissolution it came to the Crown, and was granted May 17, Ao. 4to. Edward VI. to Sir William Fermer, and Sir Richard Fulmerston.

John Ladyman was lord of it in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, and in a roll then dated, Edward Martyndale was living in the site of it, with the marsh against it, and he is called late lord of Ponfret's.

Sir Philip Parker was lord of it in the 7th of Charles I. and one of the same name had livery of it about the 20th of Elizabeth.—The late fee of this manor to the lord of the hundred was 9d.

Peter Lombard, Esq. in 1740, and the honourable Horace Walpole, Esq. is the present lord, 1750.

HALL-CLOSE MANOR.

The Calthorps had an interest or lordship in this town, in the reign of Henry III. and in the 14th of Edward I. a precept was directed to the sheriff of Norfolk, to make division between the manors of Sir Ralph Nemenhale, and Emme his wife, and John de Gyvingham, in Burnham Norton, and the manor of Sir William Calthorp, and Cecilia his wife, in Burnham St. Clements, William and Cecilia having appropriated 110 acres of marsh of their inheritance; and in the 35th of that King, Sir Walter de Calthorp was found, and Roger Breton, John de Bintre, &c. to hold in Burnham, &c. fees of the heirs of the Lords Tateshale, who held in capite; in this family it remained, till Edward Calthorp of Kirby Cane, Esq. son and heir of Edward Calthorp, Esq. second son of Sir William Calthorp, by his second wife Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Sir Miles Stapleton, Knt. of Ingham, in Norfolk, sold the reversion of several lands, parcel of this manor, held for life by Elizabeth, daughter of John Berney of Redeham, Esq. wife of William Calthorp, Esq. second son of Sir William aforesaid, by Elizabeth his first wife, daughter of the Lord Grey of Ruthyn; and in the 36th of that King, on May 1st, for 203*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* he sold to Robert Jenyson of Burnham Westgate, Gent. his manors of Halclose and Gamcs, with the advowsons of churches, courts, letes, six messuages, 140 acres of land, twelve of meadow, ten of pasture, two of wood, twelve of heath, forty of marsh, and 120*s.* rent, with a water-mill, called Flud's mill, in Burnham Overey, Thorp, Sutton, Westgate, Norton, Depedale, &c. all which Elizabeth Calthorp, widow of William Calthorp, Esq. deceased, held for life.

On the 30th of March, in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, Robert Jenyson, Gent. sold to Thomas Hoo, lord of Vexters, the site of the manor of Halclose lying next the garden of the said Thomas Hoo.

Peter Lombard, Esq. was lord in 1740, and it came, on his death, to the honourable Horace Walpole, by the marriage of his daughter and coheir.

WALSINGHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Hubert Brisworth lived in King John's time, and gave lands and tenements to this priory; and William de Brisworth occurs in the 10th of Richard I. and had lands here.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior held 40 acres, with the church of Burnham St. Clements of the fee of the Earl of Arundel, also 4 acres in Burnham, of the gift of Ralph de Loges, and in the 34th and 35th of that King, there was a controversy between Thomas, son of Richard de Snetterton, and others, for disseizing him of his free tenement in this town: Thomas says, that Matthew Balstan formerly held a messuage of William le Vextre, (lord of the town,) his ancestor, who left Maud and Margery, his daughters and coheirs; Maud, by Balstan had Agatha, married to Rodland, son of Fabian, who infeoffed the prior of his part, and Margery had issue, the said Thomas de Snetterton, and the prior recovered his right; at the same time the right of advowson of the vicarage, of the church of St. Clement's of Burnham, was contested, and the King directed his writ of prohibition to the official of the Bishop of Norwich, to hinder him from giving judgment about it in the ecclesiastical court; for that determining the right of advowsons of churches belonged to the King's crown and dignity; and the jury find that the vicarage was of the yearly value of 24 marks.

In the 3d of Edward III. the prior was to do homage to Symon de Felbrigge, for lands and tenements in Burnham, (called Brysworth's fee,) at Hingoldon, and to pay to him 6d. per ann. also homage to the Lord Cromwell, and to pay relief for lands held of Fewtry's manor, 11s. 1d. The family of Underburgh held lands of the prior, as appears by an action brought against Julian, widow of Robert Underburgh, for the wardship of John, his son and heir; and in the 19th of Richard II. the prior held here the fourth part of a fee of Sir Constant. de Clifton; and in the 3d of Henry IV. three fees in Burnham, of the heirs of Robert Fitz-John belonging to Thomas Mowbray, Earl-Marshal; and, in 1428, the temporalities of the priory in this town were valued at 6l. 14s. 11d. q.

In the reign of Philip and Mary, this, with the great close, and rectory thereto belonging, and the manor of Lathes, in Burnham, was in the Crown: this I take to be the manor called Leches, which Sir Richard de Walsingham passed by fine, in the 19th of Edward III. to Henry Chamberlayne of Landbeach in Cambridgeshire, with two messuages, and several lands in this town, Burnham-Sutton, Westgate, &c. which John de Arches, and Agnes his wife, held in dower; and in the 43d of that King, was conveyed by John Leche of Egmere, clerk; and John, son of Simon Chamberlayne, conveyed the 4th part of two messuages, 160 acres of land, four of meadow, four of marsh, and 40s. rent, in Burnham, &c. which Margaret, widow of John Reynald, held for life, to John Leche of Egmere, clerk, who, in the said year, purchased the other three parts of Edmund Creed, and Alice his wife, and Maud, daughter of Simon Chamberlain.

At the Dissolution it came to the Crown; John Watts farmed it, with the rectory of St. Clements, at 10l. per ann. in 1590; and in the reign of King Charles I. the fee farm rent of it was 16l. 19s. 11d. q. besides 1l. 17s. 3¼d. profits of court per ann.

The manor of Burnham Lathes was in Thomas Thurlow, with the rectory of the church of St. Clements.

PETERSTON PRIORY OR HOSPITAL.

This priory was in the parish of St. Clements, of Burnham Overey. Robert, son of Arnold de Munteny, granted, by fine, in the 54th of Henry III. to Jeffry, the prior of Peterston, five roods of meadow, and 20d. rent, with a moiety of the advowson of the church of Beeston. Roger de Somerton, and Margaret his wife, daughter of Agnes le Moyne, sued the prior for an acre of land here, in the 34th of Henry III. In the 29th of Edward I. a patent was granted to the priors of Petrison and Westacre, for an exchange of lands; and by a patent granted in the 11th of Edward II. we learn, that the priory was for canons of the order of St. Augustin.

It appears, that there was a controversy between the canons of Walsingham, who had the church of St. Clement's of Burnham appropriated to them, and Thomas, prior of the hospital of St. Peter de Petra in Burnham; that whereas the prior and convent of Walsingham had granted to the master and brothers of the hospital a free chantry in their chapel, or oratory, at Burnham, with right of burial in their churchyard, within the parish of Burnham St. Clement's, for the brotherhood, for which they were to pay a mark of silver yearly to the prior: on the refusal of the payment, it was recovered, with the arrears thereof, against the master and brethren aforesaid. The lands belonging to the prior of Walsingham, called Grab-hall lands, were to pay 25s. in the name of a relief, and the prior to do homage for them to the Earl of Arundel, containing eighty acres, valued at 26s. 8d. and were bought, or given to them by Sir Edmund de Reynham, Knt.

Roger occurs prior in 1299, as appears from an agreement then made between him and John, the prior of Castleacre. See in West-Lexham.

In the 16th of Richard II. Simon Barret, &c. alienated to the prior, one messuage, twenty-six acres, and a rood of land, in this town, Burnham Thorpe, and Holkham.

Dionysius was prior of the church of St. Peter of Petryston, as appears by his letters of attorney, to deliver to Oliver Groos, Richard Boson, Esq. and John, rector of the church of Bayfield, lands in West-Lexham, dated at Petryston, in the chapter-house, January 5, in the 7th year of Henry VI.

PRIORS of PETERSTON.

Simon occurs prior in the 32d of Henry III.
Godfrey, or Geffrey, in the 54th of that King.
Roger, in the 56th.

1308, Eust. de Barsham, admitted prior.

1314, Warinc de Kepps.

1324, Thomas de Warham.

1339, Thomas de Warham.

1349, John de Holkham.

Roger de Briningham.

1365, John Massingham.

1376, John de Duntton.

1393, William Bryght.

1396, Dionys. de Warham.

1433, Richard Hulme.

Before the year 1200, here was a house of canons of the order of St. Austin, under the patronage of St. Peter, subordinate to the monastery of Walsingham; the founder is unknown, but was probably one of the ancestors of the Cheneys, which family had the patronage of it, and came from them to the Claverings Lord Dacres, &c.

The temporalities of this priory in Burnham St. Clement's, in rent of land, a mill, &c. were valued in 1128, at 4*l.* 4*s.* 1*d.* q. all their temporalities were valued in the said year, at 20*l.* 10*s.* 10*d.* and all their spiritualities, at 27*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.* q. William de Westacre, chancellor of Norwich, on his death, in 1418, gave to the repair of St. Peter's chapel here, 20*s.*

In the 28th of Henry VI. the prior of Walsingham had a grant of the site, or place of the priory, or hospital of Peterston, in Burnham St. Clement's, so that it was united to the aforesaid priory, by a grant of the King, and confirmed by the Bishop of Norwich.

Peterston seems to have been an hamlet to Burnham St. Clement's, and was charged separately for its tenths, at 2*l.* 4*s.* out of which 14*s.* were deducted.

At the general dissolution of religious houses, it came to the Crown, and was granted April 11th, in the 4th year of Edward VI. to Thomas Bishop of Norwich and his successors, and is held of that see by lease.

It belonged, as Spleman says,<sup>9</sup> about the end of Queen Elizabeth's reign, to Richard Manser, Gent. who had much suit and quarrel with Firmine Gray, about a lease of it, and died without issue, disposing of it by will, to Roger Manser, his brother, who was deprived of it by — Armiger, of North Creak, who married Richard Manser's sister, and left it to William Armiger, his son and heir, who sold it, to secure the title, to the Lord Chief Justice Coke.

When this priory was united to Walsingham, in the 28th of Henry VI. the Bishop of Norwich reserved to himself and successors all churches belonging to the said priory, the Bishop paying to the King his tenths, when they should happen, and Walsingham to pay tenths for the temporalities of that priory.

WINDHAM PRIORY MANOR.

William le Feutre, lord of Burnham, granted to this monastery 6 acres of land and an half, for the soul's health of King Henry I. and of William his butler, and of William Earl of Arundel,<sup>1</sup> his lord, with the homages of his men; and Mathew, son of William de Burnham, gave them lands, and a portion of tithe: the church of St. Clement's belonged to them, valued in 1428, at 9 marks per annum.

Concealed lands here, lately belonging to this priory, granted in the 13th of Elizabeth, to Richard Hill and Robert Dunne, on June 11th, in fee farm at 35*l.* 10*s.* 4*d.* ob. per annum with the portion of tithes of 9 marks, in the tenure of William Pepys; and February 19th, in the 16th of Elizabeth, granted to Christopher Fenton and Bernard Gylpyn.

JOHN THURLOWE, Gent. of this parish, had an estate herein, and dying July 7th, 1583, left by Ania his wife, Thomas his son and heir, who dying April 10th, 1618, left by Dinah, his wife, (afterwards remarried to Nicholas Smith,) John Thurlow, Gent. who by an inquisition taken at Norwich, July 23d, in the 7th of Charles I. was found to die seized of 2 messuages and 34 acres of land, in this town, August the 10th, 1631, held of Sir Philip Parker, of his manor of Pomfrets, by fealty, of 19 acres of marsh land, held of the King, in capite, and of 2 messuages and 30 acres in Burnham, Burnham Thorp, &c. John was found to be his son and heir, then an infant, by Anne his wife, daughter of — Salter.

On the 19th of November, 1664, Sir Edward Byshe granted a patent to John Thurlow, of Burnham Overy, a great traveller many years, in several parts of Europe, America, Africa, &c. for these arms: — azure, a Jacob's staff between three stars, or; crest, an anchor erect, gules, the cable or.

The portion of tithes abovementioned came afterwards to Nicholas

The CHURCH of Burnham Overey is dedicated to St. Clement; churches so dedicated may be observed for the most part to be always seated near some water, river, or sea; it was formerly a rectory valued at 30 marks and 10s. and being granted by William Feætre, lord of the manor of that name, to the priory of Walsingham, was thereto appropriated, and a vicarage settled, valued at 6 marks and an half; the present valor being 8*l.*

BURNHAM SUTTON,

So called from its site, lying south of the other towns. The manor of Virleys, held at the survey by Robert de Virli, of which see in Burnham Thorp, extended into this town.

In the reign of Henry III. Robert Crow held half a fee of the heirs of Virley, they of the heirs of Hugh Bardolf, who held of the Earl Warren, and the Earl of the King, in capite.

John de Arches and Agnes his wife, and Henry Neel, held half a fee, in the 20th of Edward III. which Richard de Walsingham, formerly was seized of, and Christian his wife.

In the 22d of Henry VIII. Sir Henry Sacheverell, Knt. conveyed by fine, to Sir John Heydon, &c. the manor of Donnellys, or Davellis, with 4 messuages, and lands in this town, Burnham Norton, Westgate, Ulp, &c.

FRANCIS COBBE had a præcipe, in the 7th of Elizabeth, to render to Jeff. Cobbe, the manor of Donnel; and by an inquisition taken at Fakenham, October 8th, in the 24th of the said reign, Francis Cobb, Gent. of Burnham Norton, was found to die seized of the manor of Donnel, or Dangels, held of the lordship of Burnham Thorp in free soccage; of divers lands in Burnham Norton, Westgate, Depevale, &c. held of the manor of Polstead-hall, in free soccage; the lordship of

The manor of Polstede-hall, of which see in Burnham Westgate, extended into this town; of the lords of it, see a full account there, as did the manor of Reynham, and Lexham's.

The priory of Walsingham had a lordship here, Crab-hall, which was granted on the 30th of July, in the 9th of Elizabeth, to Sir Thomas Heneye, and Ann his wife, in consideration of the manor of Legborne, with the rectory, and the site of the priory of Legborne, conveyed by them to the Queen; the fee farm rent of it was in Sir Charles Corwallis, in 1603.

This manor of Crab-hall was afterwards in the Thurlows.

BURNHAM ULP, ALL-SAINTS.

THIS town takes the additional name of Ulf or Ulpe from its site, near the river, as Ulferton, or Wolferton, in Frebridge hundred, of which see there, and not from Ulfus, who was lord of a manor in Burnham Westgate, which lordship was in the King, at the survey, and afterwards in the Albins family, Earls of Arundel; but this was of a different fee and tenure; Hugh de Montfort had the grant of it, on the expulsion of Bond, a Saxon thane, and was a member, or part of Polstede-hall, and had the same lords; of whom I have treated at large in Burnham Westgate

Edmund de Kemseck and Petronella, his wife, granted to Emma, daughter of Robert le Moque, a moiety of this church, or the patronage, in the 12th of Edward I.

Here is no steeple, a little bell hangs without the church, at the west end.

The manor of Reynham or Lexham, as in Burnham Westgate, extended here.

To this church of All-Saints belonged two medieties; the abbot of Wendling was patron of one mediety, the rector of which had a manse, with 30 acres of land; Hugh de Polstede was patron of the other, and the rector had also a manse, and 30 acres; each moiety was valued at 7 marks; the one was called Ralph's mediety, the other Thomas's. Peter-pence 6d.

BURNHAM WESTGATE.

HUGH DE MONTFORT was lord of a considerable manor, in Burnham, at the survey, (which I take to be that abovementioned) which Bond, a Saxon thane, held in King Edward's reign; and Hugh was infeoffed of it, by Hugh de Montfort. It contained, in Bond's time, 2 carucates of land, 14 bordarers, 2 carucates in demean, one amongst the men, &c. 1 acre of meadow, a mill, a salt-pit, &c. and 7 soemen had 60 acres of land, and 1 carucate, valued then at 4*l.* and the same at the survey: it pays 3*s.* gelt in this hundred, and is measured in another.<sup>2</sup>

POLSTEDE-HALL

Stood in a close, which retains its name at this time. It took its name from the lords of it. Sir Hugh de Polstede married Hawys, daughter of Hugh de Candois, lord of Burnham-Mercate, and coheir, by Anselina his wife, daughter and coheir of William de Grandcourt: Julian, the other daughter and coheir, married William de Gyvingham, and in the 7th of King John, they recovered one carucate of land, as heirs to William de Grandcourt, against Walter de Grandcourt: this Sir Hugh gave, by deed sans date, to the monks of Castleacre, for the soul of Hawys his wife, a piece of land in St. Margaret's parish, at Beresmere, by Depedale; witnesses, Sir Thomas de Suter-ton, Sir William de Gyvingham, &c.

Sir Hugh de Polsted and Sir William de Gyvingham were found to hold two fees of the honour of Haughley, when an aid was granted on the marriage of King Henry the Third's sister to the Emperor of Germany; and in the 20th of Henry III. gave 25*l.* relief, for 5 knights fees, which he held of the King; and in the 26th of that King, paid 5 marks fine, for not attending the King into Gascoyn; he was son of Sir Hugh, by Hawys aforesaid, against whom Walter de Grandcourt brought an action in the 1st year of King John, for making Julian, his wife's sister and coheir, a nun, (she being in his custody,) that so he might enjoy the inheritance of the said Julian; but it appears, that she afterward married William Jernegan, and in the 10th of that King, Hugh de Polstede and Hawys his wife, William Jernegan and Julian his wife, divided the estate, which came to them, as heirs to the Grandcourts, and the said Julian was remarried to Sir William de Gyvingham.

In the 34th of Henry III. John de Polsted, and Edmund, son of William de Gyvingham, were lords; and in his 50th year, Hugh de Polsted died, seized of a lordship here, containing 166 acres of land in demean, the medieties of the advowsons of two churches; and Hawisia aged 22, Petronilla 18, and Roesia 14 years old, were his heirs: this Hugh granted to the monks of Waverley in Surry, his manor of Compton, in 1260; witnesses, Sir William Branche, Sir Hugh de Ross, Knts. Stephen, prior of the convent of Christ's church in London, granted to Hugh de Polsted, by deed sans date, their land near the Thames, which William the priest held of them, who conveyed it to Hugh, for 19 marks, and the said Hugh gave the prior 2*s.* and the convent one sextary of London measure (num sextarium Londinensem) of wine; and in the 51st of the said King, Petronell and Rose, daughters and heirs of Hugh de Polsted, had a right in the patronage of the church of Burnham All-Saints, and in that of Polstede in Suffolk.

In the 12th of Edward I. Edmund de Kemesek and Petronella his wife, daughter and coheir abovementioned, grant to Emme, daughter of Robert le Moyne and Roesia his wife, sister of Petronella, the moiety of the church of All-Saints, in Burnham, for that turn; Hawise, the other sister and coheir, was married to Thomas de Lambourn, by whom he had James his son; and in the 14th of that King, the sheriff of Norfolk had a præcipe, to deliver to Sir Ralph de Hemenhale, and Emme his wife, his right, or part, in this manor; the said Emme being daughter and heir of Roesia, by Robert le Moyne; and the said Sir Ralph, and Emme, and John de Gimingham,<sup>3</sup> appear to be lords in the 17th of that King.

Lambourn, who married Hawise, the eldest daughter and coheir of Polsted, resigned, as it seems, his right in this manor, for that of Polsted, in Suffolk; for in the 43d of Edward III. William de Cheyne, who married Joan, sister and heir of William de Lambourn, was lord of it. Petronella de Kemesek, by her deed, dated May 23 in the 1st of Edward II. conveyed her part, or right, in the manor of Polsted, in Suffolk, to Sir James de Lambourn and Mary his wife; her seal is of red wax, the impress being a woman bearing in her right hand an escutcheon, argent, fretty sable, and in her left, a chief indented, the first being the arms of Polsted, the other probably that of Kemesek.

In the 4th of Edward III. Adam de Cockfeld, and Isabel his wife, conveyed by fine several messuages and lands in Burnham Westgate, and Depedale, with the services of certain tenants, to Robert de Scaffham and Christian his wife; and in the 21st of that King, John de Hemenhale, son of Ralph, had a lordship, and Ralph de Hemenhale, son of John, was found, in the 44th of the said reign, to pay 20s. per ann. castle-guard to Dover, for his lordship held of the honour of Haughley. Sir Robert, son of Sir Ralph Hemenhale and Joan his wife, held it in the 3d of Richard II. she was daughter of Sir John Delapole, Knt. (son of Richard, son and heir of William Delapole, merchant of Hull, in Yorkshire) by Joan his wife, daughter and sole heir to John Lord Cobham; in the 5d of Henry IV. she was the wife of John Reginald Braybrook, who in right of his wife was lord, as was Sir John Oldcastle, in the 3d of Henry V. (her fourth husband) on the death of Sir Nicholas Hawbeke, her 3d husband.<sup>4</sup> Ralph de Hemenhale, Esq. cousin and heir of Sir Robert, having granted to Sir John Oldcastle, (called Lord Cobham.) and Joan his wife, this manor of Polsted-hall, in the 9th of Henry IV. the said Ralph was son of Thomas, brother of Ralph, who was father of Sir Robert de Hemenhale, husband of Joan.

In the 4th of Henry V. a proclamation was issued, that whoever should take Sir John Oldcastle, late Lord Cobham, (then attainted,) should be paid by the King, 1000 marks, and have 20l. per ann. for life; and if any corporation took him, an exemption from tenths and fifteenths through the kingdom; and on the 28th of April in the next year, this manor of Polstede-hall was granted by the King to Sir John Rothenhale, on whose death, about the 8th of the said King, it was granted to Sir Lewis Robsart, Knt. of the Garter, for life.

King Edward IV. in his 12th year, gave it to Thomas Ashe, for life, and on February 22d, in his 21st year, confirmed to John Fenys, and Anne his wife, for their lives. John had a prior grant in the 25th of that King.

In the 35th of Henry VIII. February 14, Edward Warner had a reversionary grant of it, and Sir Edward Warner died seized of it in the 8th of Elizabeth, when it descended to his brother Robert, who had a license, in the 16th of that Queen, to alien it to his son, Henry Warner of Mildenhall, Esq. and in the following year conveyed part of it to Francis Cobbe; and in the 44th of the said reign, Thomas Rouse, Esq. had a præcipe to render the manor of Polsted-hall to Hen. Cornwallis, and Robert Drury, Esq.

By an indenture dated, December 6, in the 14th of King James, Sir Stephen Soame, Knt. &c. purchased of Charles Cornwallis, &c. Polsted-hall manor, with its appurtenances

Thomas Harris, Esq. lord in 1724. Pentney Wilkinson, Esq. is the present lord, and a justice of the peace.

In the 17th of Elizabeth, license was granted to Henry Warner, for alienating to Robert Jenyson, of this town, and his heirs, 200 acres of land, 60 of pasture, and a foldage in Burnham Westgate; and by an inquisition taken April 9, in the 25th of Elizabeth, on the death of Robert Jenyson, who died in the 22d of that Queen, it was found that he was possessed then of a capital messuage in this town, called Jenyson's house, held of the manor of Carbrook in free soccage; of 124 acres of land, formerly Heyward's, held of the manor of Thorp, in free soccage; of a fold course, called Tariff, and pasturage, called Breccles Lynge, and all the lands, late Warner's, held of the King in capite, and 50 acres called Pomfret's, held of that manor in free socage; and Thomas was his son and heir, aged 46.

The Earl Warren's manor of Burnham Thorp extended into this town, and was held of the Burnhams, lords of that town: <sup>5</sup> Ralph, son of John de Burnham, released by deed sans date, to the monks of Castleacre, a capital messuage which he had of them, with the homages, rents, services, &c. in Burnham. This descended to the Calthorps, by the marriage of Sir William de Calthorp, with Cecilia, sister and heir of William de Burnham.

In the 55th of Henry III. Sir William and Cecilia had a grant of an annual fair (in this town, as I take it,) on St. Peter's day, the vigil, and day after; also free warren, which seems to be only a confirmation of a prior grant to the Burnhams; for in the 41st of that King, Hugh de Polsted and Juliana de Gyvingham took stallage, in the market of Burnham; and Juliana was a widow, in the King's donation, holding lands in capite of 12*l. per ann.*

In the 3d of Edward I. the said Sir William and Cecilia, were found to have a Saturday mercate, assize of bread and beer, and had, with Richard de Snetteton, wreck of sea at Burnham, and paid 20*s. per ann.* for it, to the Earl Warren; and in the 15th of that King, Sir William and Cecilia, Ralph de Hemenhale and Emme his wife, and John de Gyvingham, were found by a pleading to have a weekly mercate, to take stallage, and toll of every cart passing over the causey of Burnham.

In the family of Calthorp it remained till Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Philip, brought it by marriage to Sir Henry Parker.

BRECCLES MANOR.

The family of Breccles held also of the Earl of Arundel a lordship, which (as I conceive) was held, or farmed, at the survey, under the King, by Godric; Ulf, who was lord of it in the reign of King Edward, being deprived of it.<sup>6</sup> It contained three carucates of land, twenty bordarers, twelve servi, three carucates in demean, one among the men, &c. two mills, with the moiety of another, seven runc. &c. 600 sheep, a salt-pit, and one beruite belonged to it, with one carucate of land, &c. and thirty soemen belonged to it then, with two carucates. The whole then valued at 8l. per annum, and after, when Ralph, the Earl of Norfolk, possessed it, at 23l. and 12s. at the survey; it paid in tail 20l. and in the same village, Ketel, a freeman, had 20 acres, and another freeman, Oia, 30 acres.

On the forfeiture of this lordship, by Ralph, the Earl of Norfolk, the Conqueror being seized of it, and being in the Crown, and held by Godric, it remained so till King William II. gave it to William de Albiny, ancestor to the Earls of Arundel, of whom see in Rising.

John Benedict de Breccles died possessed of this manor, and the advowson of a moiety of the church of Burnham Westgate, St. Mary, with the manor of Grimston, (as may be seen under that township,) in the reign of Edward II. and John Breccles, his son and heir, was lord in the 20th of Edward III. but in the 15th of Richard II. Sir Robert Hemenhale was found to die seized of it; and Ralph Hemenhale, his nephew, released to Sir John Oldcastle, and Joan his wife, the manor of Breccles, and the advowson of the churches of St. Mary the Virgin, St. Margaret the Virgin, and All-Saints, in Burnham, in the 10th of Henry IV.

REYNHAM'S OR LEXHAM'S MANOR.

The ancient family of de Rainham gave name to a lordship in this town, held of the honour of Clare; and by the eschaet rolls, in the 46th of Edward III. Humphrey de Bohun Earl of Hereford and Essex, was found to die seized in capite, of the 8th part of a fee, held by the heirs of Ralph Hemenhale, formerly by Sir Edmund de Reynham.

Thomas Langton, and Agnes his wife, were deforciant, and Mr. William Yelverton, &c. querents, in a fine of the manor of Reynham, in Burnham Westgate, Burnham Norton, Burnham Sutton, St. Andrew's, Ulp, St. Edmund's, &c. when an annuity was settled on Agnes for life; and in the 15th of Henry VII. William Lexham, Esq. died possessed of it; and, by an inquisition taken April 15, in the 9th of

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and consisted of two portions; that of St. Mary, belonged to the priory of Coxford, and that of St. Edmund, each valued at 12 marks. The prior of Coxford's moiety was appropriated, and had a manse with 30 acres. James de Thorp was patron of the other mediety: Peter-pence, 17d.—The prior of Castleacre had a portion of title out of the demean land, valued at 7s. per annum. Hubert de Britheworth claimed, in the 15th year of King John, the right of presentation to the church of St. Mary, against the prior of Coxford; and the jury, on the case, find that Hubert, grandfather to the present Hubert, had impleaded Ralph Belle, on account of the said right; and Ralph's right was allowed, (and he presented Thomas de la Folie to the vicarage,) as the prior's was at this time.

The church has a nave, a north and south isle, with a chancel.

The steeple is at the west end of the church, and embattled, and under the battlements is the old cipher, or name of the Virgin, and several small figures in niches; and four bells.

BAGTHORPE,

Called Bachesthorp; that is, a thorp, by a ba-ches, a fine winding stream, or river; and was (as we learn from Domesday Book) a beruite to the lordship of Rudham, and placed under Brothercross hundred, a lordship of the Earl of Warren, held by Toka, in King Edward's reign: this beruite contained one carucate of land, and three bordarers, with another carucate, two runci, three cows, &c.<sup>3</sup>

CASTLEACRE PRIORY MANOR.

The family of de Frevil was very early enfeoffed of this manor, by the Earl Warren. Robert de Frevile, by his deed sans date, gave to the priory a moiety of his manor of Baghestorp, both in land and in men, except the tenement wherein William de Sarcells dwelt, &c. with the convent of the Earl Warren, and Rainald his brother. Witnesses, Richard Capell, William de Ernevill, &c. Emma de Frevill, Maud, her sister, &c.<sup>9</sup>

Ralph de Frevill, son of Robert, confirmed this gift. Witnesses, Henry Capell, Ralph de Frevill, his nephew, Ralph de Wanci, &c.; and by another deed, sans date, the said Ralph gave the other moiety of this manor, with the church of of Baggthorp, to the said priory; witnesses, Walter de Ernevill, &c.

Gerard de Carvilla confirmed the aforesaid grants of Robert and Ralph de Frevill; and Osbert Giffard, with the consent of Isabel his wife, granted to the monks of St. Mary of Acra, the whole village of Baggethorpe, with the homages, &c. and the church, &c. according to the grants of Robert and Ralph de Frevill; witnesses, Adam de Kailli, Ralph de Baruse, Roger de Frevill, &c.

William Lupell gave Hubert de Bagthorp, and his children.

William, son of Alared de Docking, released to the prior, &c. his right in a tenement, which Albert his uncle held of him in Baggethorp. Witnesses, William de Bellem, Philip de Pavli, Reginald de St.

Martin, Gode, provost (præposito) of the hundred, William de Stanhoe, &c. Asseline, daughter of Gode, gave half an acre, and half a rood of land here.

Milo, son of William de Baggethorp, released to Robert the prior, a tenement, with 24 acres of land here.

By a fine taken at Norwich on Sunday, next after the feast of St. Hilary, in the 10th of King John, before William de Huntingfield, master Eustace de Fauconberg, justices, &c. William de Newman conveyed 22 acres of land, in Bagthorpe, to Philip, the prior, &c.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prior of Castleacre held here, and in West Rudham, half a fee of the Earl of Arundel, in pure alms, as parcel of the honor of Castleacre; their temporalities here valued at 7*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.* in 1428. On the dissolution of this priory, it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. on the 22d of December, in his 29th year, granted this lordship to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, to be held by knight's service: Thomas, the prior of Castleacre, &c. had surrendered it to the King, by fine, in Michaelmas term preceding, and in the first of Queen Elizabeth, license was granted to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, to alien it to Nicholas Dannock, and his heirs; and Thomas Dannock was found to die possessed of it in the 18th of that Queen, and Michael was his son and heir.

By an inquisition taken at King's Lynn, May 24, in the fourth year of King Charles I. Thomas Goddard, Gent. was found to be lord of this manor, December 3d, last past; and of two messuages, 140 acres of land in east and west Rudham, held of the manor of East Rudham, in East Rudham; and Thomas Goddard, by Mary his wife, dying before him, October 28, 1613, left by Mary his wife, daughter of William Guibon, Esq. a son and heir, Guybon Goddard, aged sixteen years, on the death of his grandfather, and his heir, who was afterwards recorder of Lynn, and serjeant at law; and being receiver of the excise, or taxes, for this county, in the reign of King Charles II. &c. his manor and estate here was seized for a debt to the King, and ——— Billingsley possessed it under that title.

Mr. Stringer was lord and patron in 1740.

The tenths were 2*l.* 2*s.* The lete fee to the hundred was 12*d.*

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Mary, and is a very little, mean edifice, without any monument, &c. and the prior of Castleacre had a portion of tithe, valued at 7*s.* and the patronage; the vicar of Stoke Neyland had also one, valued at six marks. Peter-pence 3*d.* ob.

The present valor is 5*l.* 10*s.* and is discharged of first fruits and tenths.

Robert de Frixilla, or Frevill, gave one moiety of this town to the monks of Castleacre; his son Ralph confirmed that grant, and gave the church to them, with the other moiety of the town; which gifts were confirmed by Gerard de Camvill, Osbert Giffard, and Isabel his wife.

In 1305, Robert de Suthwalsham, presented by the prior and convent of Castleacre.

James Smartwait succeeded Houshorne.

After Steed, Thomas Goddard, Gent. of Rudham, was patron, and lord of the manor.

William Brown, rector, died in 1736, and

WEST-BARSHAM.

THERE are three towns of the name of Barsham, that is a ham by a bar, that is, on or by the hills. In Domesday book they are not distinguished by the appellation of East, West, and North, but included under the general name of Barsham. Hugo held then a manor of the Earl Warren; Toke, who was lord of it in the Confessor's time, being deprived of it. It then contained four carucates of land, ten villains, and twenty-six bordarers, with four servi, four carucates in demean, and five amongst the men, &c. three acres of meadow, 4 mills, &c. six socmen had half a carucate, and three bordarers, with two carucates, and a church endowed with 100 acres; this part was valued at 4*l* at the survey 6*l*. and was half a leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid sixpence gelt.<sup>2</sup>

This I take to be West-Barsham; Hugo, above-mentioned, held this with the lordship of Thrextone, &c. of the Earl Warren; his surname was de Wauci, and ancestor of that family: from this Hugh, who was lord at the survey, descended Sir Ralph de Wauci, lord; and father of Hugh de Wauci, who by deed, sans date, confirmed to the priory of Castleacre his laud of West-Barsham, and all he had therein, with the church of that village, and all the appertinances in pure alms, as Osmod, his aunt (sister of his father Ralph) had granted to them.<sup>3</sup> This Osmod, or Esmond, married Philip de Vealtre, who had with her this in marriage, &c. and, on her death, she gave it to the aforesaid priory ; but Hugh had entered on it, and now confirmed, or granted it for the soul of Ralph his father, and Osmod his aunt ; the convent giving him five marks, and two marks to his wife, on quitting claim to all the cattle, which he took from the aforesaid land, valued at four marks, which Osmod, his aunt, had left them for her soul, &c. Witnesses, Hugh de Gurnasi, Roger de Stoteville, Ralph de Roseto, &c. Walter de Wauci confirmed to them the gifts of his father Hugh, and gave them four acres, with liberty of a fold course for nine score sheep ; and that they might take of their men (in the town of West Barsham) customary aid, as they took of their other men, in other places ; and, by another deed, confirmed to them the mill, called Bridge-mill, in the said town with the customs thereto belonging. William de Wauci, son and heir of Sir Hugh, lived in the reign of Henry III. and had Sir William de Wauci, who had assise ; and Giles de Wauci granted to Sir William de Wauci, for life, his manor of West Barsham and Depeden, the remainder to William, son of Sir William, and his heirs, remainder to Walter, Edward, Thomas, Nicholas, Robert and Hugh, sons of Sir William, sans date. He bore gules, six dexter hands erect, argent.

In the 14th of Edward I. William de Waucy claimed a fair here, to be held yearly on the decollation of St. John Baptist (August 29) and in the 20th of Edward III. Sir William de Wauci held here one fee of the Earl Warren. Edmund de Wauci was lord in the 30th of the said King, and had the King's protection, being in his service in Gascoign in France, and died in the 46th of Edward III. leaving by Joan his wife, Edmund, his son and heir, aged 7 years ; this Edmund died soon after, (as I take it) on whose death this lordship came to Edmund Gurney, by the marriage of Catherine daughter of Sir William, and sister and heir of Sir Edmund de Waucy.

In the 41st of Edward III. a fine was levied between Edmund Gurney, and Katherine his wife, querents, Thomas de Beeston, trustees, &c. deforcients of the moiety of the manor of West-Barsham, settled on Edmund and Katherine, in tail.

The will of this Edmund is dated at West-Barsham, on Thursday, the feast of the Ascension of our Lord in 1387. He bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin in this town, and 8*l.* to be distributed to the poor here, on his burial day ;<sup>4</sup> Katherine his wife to have all her dower, and all his utensils in his house, and her part of all his other goods ; appoints Osbert de Mundeford, and Thomas Kempe, his executors. Witnesses, William de Mildenhall, vicar of West-Barsham, Nicholas de Barsham, &c. ; and was proved in the same year. John de Gourney was his son and heir by Catherine, who, in the 3d of Henry IV. held one fee here of the Earl Warren. In the 6th and 7th of that King, he sued the dutchy of Lancaster for the common, called South Lings, to have free warren there, as his separate soil, and part of his lordship of this town, and that his father Edmund was possessed of it ; this cause was put off by the King's letters, because this John was one of the knights of the shire, in the parliament held at Coventry, in the said sixth year, for the county of Norfolk ; but in the seventh year it was adjudged against Gourney, the said common of South Lings being in the point of South Creke parish, and belonging to the dutchy of Lancaster; and John Gourney, Esq. was bound to the King in 500 marks, not to claim any right there hereafter, and not being within the lete of his manor of West-Barsham. He died in the 9th of Henry IV. seized of the manors of West and North Barsham, Harpley, Denver, Depeden, &c. He married Alice, widow of Richard Bavent, who survived him: Thomas Gourney was probably his son and heir. Thomas Gurnay, Esq. was a feoffee for the manor of Wolterton, in East-Barsham, in the 15th of Henry VI. and was living in the 18th of that King. Thomas Gurnay, senior, Esq. by his will, dated March 18th, in the 9th of Edward IV. appoints his body to be buried in the chancel of St. Laurence the Martyr, of Harple, if he dies there;<sup>5</sup> and if at Norwich, in the Friar-minors church, to whom he gives 40s. to the Austin-friars, Friars-preachers, and Carmes there, 20s. each; to the manors of Walsingham 40s.; to the chapel of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin at Walsingham his gold ring, with a precious jewel set in it, called a turkeys; to Margaret his wife all his utensils, and then to William his son, after her death; appoints his wife, John Jerningham, and Edmund Bokenham, Esq. his executors; and John Heydon, supervisor; his sons, John and Edmund, to whom he confirms all grants made to them out of his manor of Depeden; to the prior of Walsingham 10*l.* towards a new work there, on condition they remember him and his wife in their beadroll, as brother and sister of that priory; all his manor, or tenement, called Swathyns, in Hardingham, which he bought of Catherine Sturmer, and all his tenements in Norwich to be sold to William his son for 80 marks. This house was in St. Gregory's parish at Norwich, and John Bernard, a minor of Norwich, was his confessor. This will was proved July 27, 1471. William Gurnay, Esq. was lord, and succeeded on his father's death. In the year 1455 he styled himself William Gurnay, Esq. senior; and in the 13th of Henry VII. William Gurnay, senior, Esq. &c. infeoft William Gurnay, junior, Esq. &c. of lands in Duntou. He married Ann, daughter of William Calthorpe, Esq. was a knight eschaetor for Norfolk, in the reign of Edward IV. He had also a son Walter, living in the 11th of Henry VII. to whom he then granted lands.

In the 14th of Henry VII. William Gournay, junior, and Thomas Sefoule, Esq. had a grant of the custody of the manors and lands of Roger Wood of East-Barsham, son and heir of John Wood, from John Earl of Oxford, to whom King Henry VII. had granted the custody of the person and lands of William Viscount Beaumont, by deed then dated.

Anthony Gournay, Esq. was lord in 1514; he married Margaret, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Robert Lovell, cousin and coheir of Sir Thomas Lovell, privy counsellor to King Henry VII. and Henry VIII. and Knight of the Garter; and died January 4, 1555, leaving Henry, his grandson and heir, aged twenty-one years.

Frances Gournay, Esq. was son of Anthony; he died before his father, and by Helen, daughter of Robert Holdich, of Ranworth, Esq. left Henry Gurney, Esq. his son and heir, who was lord of this town in 1572, (held by one fee of the manor of Castleacre,<sup>6</sup>) he married, and had Edmund Gurney, Esq. his son and heir, who (as by an inquisition taken at East-Dereham, October 13th in the 17th of Charles I.) died August 6th, in 1641, seized of this manor, and that of North-Barsham, Lingham-Magna, &c. and left by Frances his wife, daughter of Richard Hovell, Esq. Henry, his son and heir, aged nine years, &c.<sup>7</sup> who sold this lordship to the family of Calthorpe, and Sir L'Estrange Calthorpe was lord in 1645; from them it came to Charles Morley, M. D. lord in 1720, and his son, Charles Morley, Esq. died in 176-.

This family of de Gourney was of great antiquity, and lords of Harpley.<sup>8</sup> Matthew de Gourney lived in the reign of Henry II. and married Rose, daughter and heir of Reginald de Burnham. William de Gourney was his son and heir, and had Sir John de Gourney, who was in arms against King Henry III.; and one of the same name was lord in the beginning, and 27th of Edward I. and John de Gourney was rector, patron, and lord also, of Harpley, in the 31st of the said King; and in the 9th of Edward II. settled on John de Gourney, his nephew (son of Catherine) and Jane his wife, the manor of Harpley, remainder to William and Edmund, brothers of John. This Edmund was, as I conceive, the said Edmund, who, by the marriage of Catherine, daughter of Sir William, and sister and heir of Sir Edmund de Waucy, brought (as I have above observed) this lordship of West-Barsham into the Gourney family.

The arms of Gourney were argent, a cross ingrailed gules, and impaled the arms of Waucy, gules, three dexter hands erect, argent; also Calthorp, Heydon, Lovell, Holdick, Blennerhasset, and Lewknor, ———; also they impaled Jernegan, and sable, a chevron between three leopards heads, &c. probably Wentworth.

WILKIN'S MANOR.

Ralph, or Robert, son of Robert Wilkin, and his tenants, held in the reign of Henry III. one knight's fee of the Earl Warren, in this town.

In the 8th of Henry VI. Richard Selling, Esq. and Alice his wife, late widow of Sir John Wiltshire, conveyed to Peter Neylond, clerk, John Hamond, and Nicholas Hill, chaplains, this lordship, which Alice held for life.

Thomas Fermour possessed it, with messuages and lands in West and East Barsham, with the advowson of the church of this town, in the 12th of Elizabeth; and on the 16th of April, 1603, John Kemp of Antingham, St. Mary, in Norfolk, Esq. released to Thomas Fermor, Esq. and William Fermor, Esq. all his right in it; William Fermor, Esq. son of Thomas, was lord of it in 1627; and a pardon of alienation of it was granted, 17th November, 8th of King Charles I. to Henry Calthorp, Esq. and Valentine Pell, Esq. for taking it from William Fermor, by fine, levied in Hillary term, in the 3d of Charles I.

Sir L'Estrange Calthorp, Knt. and serjeant at law, was lord in 1675, son of Philip Calthorp, of Gressenhale, Esq. and Elizabeth his wife, who by Anne his wife, daughter of Arthur Turner, of Parndon Magna, in Essex, serjeant at law, had James Calthorp, Esq. drowned at sea, in 1691; and left by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of James Cooper, and sister of Sir William Cooper of London, Elizabeth, daughter and heir, married to Charles Morley, M. D. whose son, Charles Morley, Esq. is the present lord, who married ———, daughter of Richard Dashwood, Esq. of Cockley Cley, and died s. p.

CASTLEACRE PRIORY MANOR.

The foundation of this was owing to Hugh de Waucy, and others of that family, who, as I have shown, were great benefactors to it. In the 14th of Edward I. William de Waucy impleaded the prior, on account of 20 marks due to him, on his confirming to the priory the advowson of this church, &c. when the prior was amerced.

These temporalities, in 1428, were valued at 9*l.* 19*s.*

Thomas Molling, prior, held his first court on Wednesday, the annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, in the 11th of Henry VIII. and Thomas, the prior, conveyed it by fine to that King, with the advowson of the church, in his 29th year; the King, on the 22d of December, granted it to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

Temporalities of Fakenham (or Hempdon,) priory were 13*s.* 4*d.*

The tenths were 5*l.* 14*s.*—Deduct 20*s.* Lete fee to the lord of the hundred 1*s.* 6*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to ———; the rectory was appropriated to Castleacre priory, valued at 26 marks, and a vicarage was settled, valued at 40*s.* the rectory had a manse, and one carucate of land; and the vicar a manse with 5 acres: Peter-pence 15*d.*

NORTH-BARSHAM.

IN the same village (Barsham) Hugo had of the Earl Warren a carucate of land, held by a freeman in King Edward's reign, for a manor, and was so delivered to him. Twenty-one bordarers belonged to it, and one servus, and two halls; there were two carucates amongst the men, or tenants, and two acres of meadow, two mills, and a moiety of another, &c. and six socmen, with six acres of land, &c. one church endowed with twelve acres, valued all in King Edward's time, at 43s. per ann. at the survey at 30s. and paid 10d. gelt, and was accounted for, as to its measure, in West-Barham.<sup>9</sup>

WAUNCY'S MANOR, OR SOUTHALL.

Hugh, who was lord of West-Barsham, was ancestor of the family of de Wauci, and held this lordship at the survey under the Earl Warren; and having treated at large of them, under that town, I must refer the reader thereto.

It is probable that the family of Suthale had some interest herein, under the Wauci; William de Suthale lived in the 31st of Edward I.

and Richard de Suthale, of North Barsham, was witness to a deed in the 8th and 14th of Edward II.; after this, in the reign of Edward III. it came to Edmund Gurney by the marriage of Catherine, daughter of Sir William, and sister of Sir Edward Wauci, and remained in that family.

BRANCH'S MANOR.

This was the principal manor, and held by a family that gave name to it, under the Waucis; Ralph Branch was lord, as appears from the Register of Walsingham, and Richard was his son, but sans date.<sup>1</sup>

In the 26th of Henry III. a fine was levied between William Braunche and Joan his wife, impedients, Thomas Trivet and Alianore his wife, querents, of the moiety of a knight's fee, and advowson of the church of North Barsham, passed to Thomas, &c.; this Thomas was in arms in the barons wars, against King Henry III. and his lands here given to Henry de Lucy; but in the second year of Edward I. the King directed his writ to the Barons of the Exchequer, to discharge Thomas Trivet from 20s. 1d. ob. charged on him, for the issues of this manor, during the time of its being seized into the hands of King Henry III. the Archbishop of York, and Robert Walerand, testifying, that he constantly adhered to that King, during those wars, though all his lands were seized on a sinister suspicion, after the battle of Exesham; this Thomas is said to have been a knight, one of the King's justices, and father of Nicholas Trivet, the historian, who wrote the reigns of several Kings of England. In the 57th of Henry III. he was a judge of Norwich, and in the 7th of Edward I. a commissioner to enquire after the authors of the quarrel between the monks and citizens of Norwich, which begun in King Henry's time; but still it appears that the family of Branch had an interest in it.

Nicholas Braunch held half a fee in the reign of Henry III. and in the 8th of Edward I. Nicholas, son and heir of Joan, paid relief for lands which he held in capite.

In the 29th of Edward I. Henry Hamond impleaded Nicholas, son of John Braunch, &c. for the flinging down his fold in this town, who pleaded it to be an innovation; and in the 32d of that King, Reginald de Pavely, and John de Higham, settled by fine a messuage, one carucate of land, and a mark rent, here, with the advowson of the church in tail, on Nicholas Braunch, and Robriga his wife; and in the 7th of Edward II. the lordship and hundred of Frome in Somersetshire were settled on Sir Nicholas Branch<sup>2</sup> and his wife Robergia.

Andrew Braunch was lord, and Joan his wife, in the 14th of that King, and in the 16th of Edward III. Sir Andrew Braunch granted to Mr. Hervey de Stanton, parson of Elm, in the Isle of Ely, and Henry, son of Aungier de Staunton, for the life of Mr. Harvey, this lordship and advowson. Hervey held it for life, being of the inheritance of Thomas, son of Andrew Braunch, who was under age, and in the King's custody, held of the Earl of Arundel, as of the honour of Castlecacre.

Thomas Braunch died lord about the year 1361, and Mary his wife remarried John Giffard, as appears from the clause-rolls in the 44th of Edward III.; she was daughter of Walter Whitehorse, and in the 34th of the said King, Stephen Winslade assigned to her this manor for life, in full dower. Stephen was son and heir Alianore, by her husband Richard de Winslade, and sister of Sir Andrew Braunch, to whom this inheritance came.

In the 45th of the said reign, Sir John Minsterworth granted to John de Kingsfeld, and Joan, or Isabel his wife, and heirs of Joan, this lordship and advowson; there being a fine sued in the 40th of that King, when John Giffard, and Mary his wife, conveyed one-third part of the manor of Branches to John de Kingfeld, &c.

Thomas Eldrich and Alice his wife, sold to Nicholas Turford of London, two parts of the manor and advowson of the church of North Barsham, in the 5th of Richard II. and in the 11th of Henry IV. Edward Attehale released to John Warncamp, and to Isabel his wife, daughter of John Attefeld, and the heirs of Isabel, the 3d part of the manors of North Barsham, and Erning, in Suffolk, and in all the lands and tenements, lately John Kingfeld's. This John Attefeld, Esq. was of Stynfold in Sussex; and in the 10th of Henry IV. left, as appears from the eschaets rolls, 3 daughters and coheirs; Alice, wife of Thomas Gosden; Isabel, wife of John Warncamp; and Ellen.

It appears by the will of George Sefoule of Waterden, dated August 5, 1469, that he died seized of this manor, and was proved November 19, 1469; in this family it continued till Thomas Sefoule, Esq. sold it, with the warren of conies, &c. in 1571, to Richard Perry, of North Barsham, yeoman; and Richard, in the 26th of Elizabeth, passed by fine to Edmund Russel, the manors of North Barsham, Branches, Caley's, and Churche's.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, April 1, in the 16th of James I. Philip Russel, Esq. was found to die possessed of this manor December 26, last past, called the manors of Braunch's, Caley's, and that of Churche's, with the advowson of the church, and of lands and tenements here, late part of the possessions of Hempton priory; and Edmund was his son and heir, (by Catherine his wife,) aged 17. Thomas Russel, Gent. of this town was living in 1638; this Thomas is said to have sold the lordship to James Ward of Hindringham, counsellor at law, and dying in the King's Bench prison, left 3 sisters, Jemima, married to ——— Britiffe of Wighton; Hannah, married to Charles Hastings; and Elizabeth.

This family is derived from Thomas Russel of Littleport, in the isle of Ely, whose son William had Henry Russel of West Rudham, in Norfolk. Gent. who by Margaret, his wife, daughter and heir, of John Bachelor, of West Rudham, and Isabel his wife, daughter and heir, of Thomas Ferrers, of the said town, left Henry, his son and heir, who by Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Wallis, had William Russell, of West Rudham, Gent. and by Agnes his wife, daughter of Thomas Walpole, of Houghton, Esq. he had Thomas Russell, his son and heir, William, and Edmund, which Edmund died September 13, 1589, and by Catherine his wife, daughter of Nicholas Bowry of Stone in Hertfordshire, was father of Thomas, his son and heir, who died without issue, and of Philip Russel, Esq. above-mentioned, who died in 1617, and was buried (as his elder brother, Thomas, was) in the church of North Barsham, leaving by Catherine his wife, daughter of John Walpole, of Houghton, Esq. Thomas aforesaid, who died without issue.

William Rootley, Esq. who was high sheriff of Norfolk in 1722, and his son, sold it to the Honourable Horace Walpole, Esq. and his son, the Lord Walpole, now possesses it.

Lete fee to the lord of the hundred, was 2s. ob.

CHURCHIE'S MANOR.

Godfrey de Lavingdale of East Barsham, by deed sans date, gave lands to Maud Atte Church, and to John her son, in the fields of Barsham; and in the 34th of Edward I. Maud, widow of Henry Attechurch, settled on John, messuages and lands here. Henry Attechurch lived in the 9th of Edward II. William Attechurch in the 45th of Edward III. and the 10th of Richard II. Nicholas Attechurch, in the 19th of Richard II. and 3d of Henry IV. John, son of Nicholas, and John Atfeld, with their parceners, held half a fee here, and John Gurney, half a fee of the honour of Castleacre; after this it was in the Sejourns, and so united to Branch's manor.

In North Barsham also, Herold held in King Edward's time, (afterwards King of England) 2 freemen, with one carucate belonging to his lordship of Fakenham; at the survey, William Earl Warren possessed it, but his men knew not how he came by it; but the hundred witnessed that the Earl was seized of it, and it was left to the King to judge of it, as it belonged to his manor of Fakenham.<sup>3</sup>

CALEY'S MANOR.

William de Gunthorp, rector of Fakenham, confirmed to Robert de Holm, clerk, and Robert Chamberlayn, all his lands, tenements, rents, and services of freemen and villains in North Barsham, and East Barsham, September 21, in the 7th of Richard II. William Caley was living, in the 10th of Richard II. and in the 19th. Edmund Caley, in the 6th of Henry IV. held a quarter of a fee, and William Caley was living in Edward the Fourth's time. Thomas Sejoule, by his will in 4th of Elizabeth, appears to be possessed of it; Richard Percy, soon after, held it, and so was united to Braunch's manor.

In the 20th of Edward III. Roger Sire, and others, held the sixth part of a fee, and in the 40th of that King, Hamond de Barsham, and

Anastasia his wife, conveyed by fine, to Roger de Ouston, and Roger Sire, 3 messuages, 144 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 3 foldcourses, and 6s. rent, in North and East Barsham, Waterden, &c. who granted for life an annuity, to Hamoud and his wife.

Mr. John Borage of North Barsham, Gent. gave by will, dated October 27, 1636, to the master, fellows, and scholars of Clare-Hall, in Cambridge, where he was sometime a scholar, a rent charge of 35*l.* per ann. out of his messuages, lands, and tenements, in North and West Barsham, towards the maintenance of a fellow, to be held only until the non regency, or five years after the said fellow's commencing master of arts; capable of being elected, when he shall be sophister of 2 years standing in the said hall; to be chose out of the founder's name and kindred, in that hall, or in any other college in Cambridge, as shall be found capable thereof, and for want thereof, any Norfolk, or Norwich man may be elected.

The prior and convent of Norwich used to receive out of mind 3*s.* per ann. to the use of the cellarer, out of a mill, and a close, given by Gilbert Passelewe, who, with the consent of Maud, his wife, Simon, and his other sons and daughters, gave the tenth penny rent of his mill in Barsham, to the cellarer of Norwich, by deed sans date: Wit-nesses, Hamonde Passelewe, John de Marsham, &c.<sup>4</sup>

The temporalities of Walsingham priory here, were 21*s.* 8*d.*—Of Petreston, 10*s.* 6*d.*—Coxford priory, 6*d.*—Creke priory, 4*s.* 8*d.* and Castleacre priory, 3*s.* 6*d.*

The church is a rectory, dedicated to All-Saints, in the patronage of the Braunchs, lords in the reign of Edward I. when the rector had a manse, with 30 acres of land, and was valued at 12 marks, and the prior of Castleacre had a portion valued at 5 marks, Peter-pence 12*d.* Symon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to them 2 parts of the tithes of the demesns of William Branch, and of the lands, late Hoel de Waterden's.

EAST BARSHAM.

In the same village, (Barsham,) as we are informed from Doomesday book, Reiner held of the Earl Warren a lordship, which belonged to Toke in King Edward's reign, consisting of a carucate of land, 3 villains, 7 bordarers, and 2 servi, and there was one carucate in demer, with one among the men, one carucate, and 3 acres of meadow, 3 mills, with the moiety of another, &c. and 15 soemen had half a carucate of land, with a carucate, and an acre of meadow, and 2 bordarers, with a carucate and one acre of meadow, a church endowed with 8 acres and an half of meadow.<sup>5</sup>

WOLTERTON'S MANOR.

Reiner, who held this lordship under the Earl Warren at the survey, was probably Reiner de Grancourt, who gave to the priory of Castleacre, the patronage of this church, when Herbert was Bishop of Norwich; his descendants either took the name of De Barsham, or a family of that name held it soon after.

Maurice de Barsham, in the 31st of Henry II. was fined 40*l.* because he gave his daughter in marriage to William de Bellomonte,<sup>6</sup> and William was also fined 23*l.* 6*s.* 2*d.* because he married against the agreement that he had made to marry the daughter of Ralph de Gedding. This Maurice began his journey or pilgrimage to St. James of Compostella in Spain, on the feast of St. Dunstan, and gave to the priory of Castleacre, for the prosperity of his journey, all his corn in his granges of East Barsham, and West Barsham, 64 sheep in his foldcourse of East, and 16 in that of West Barsham, with all his tenements which he held of them, if he should not return again; he also confirmed to them the gifts of his ancestors in lands, meadows, mills, homages, and gave them the churches of East Barsham, and Taterset, with 2 men in Taterset, his villains; and William de Bellomonte and Joan his wife (daughter, as I take it, of Maurice) confirmed the same.<sup>7</sup>

William, son of Ralph de Barsham, gave to them all the land which Aylward Barsham held of him, for 23*s.* paid down.

In the 2d of Richard I. on Sunday after the feast of St. John Port Latine, before William Bishop of Ely, legate of the apostolick see, the Lord Roger, the chancellor, William Mareschall, Roger Fitz

And in the 4th of Henry III. Agnes, widow of Thomas de Barsham, claimed dower of Reginald de Barsham, of lands held here in capite.

After this it was possessed by Roger de Wolterton, who, with Alice his wife, conveyed by fine, in the 4th of Edward I. to John de Albinde o, and Joan his wife, a messuage, mill, and lands here. Roger sealed with, quarterly, or and azure, a bend gules.

In the 36th of Henry III. it was covenanted between Roger de Wolterton, on one part, John de Byrston and Henry de Berney, on the other; that whereas the said Roger is obliged to them in 60*l.* they agree, that if Roger would convey to John and Henry, an estate for 8 years, of all lands, tenements, and hereditaments in East Barsham, then in the possession of John de Wolterton, rector of Snoring Parva, they should enjoy it quietly for 8 years, and then the obligation to be void. And in the following year Roger enfeoffed John de Briston and Maud his wife, and Henry de Berney, of all his lands, rents, services, &c. in this town, and it was agreed that Roger and his heirs, should have an annuity of 20*l. per ann.* issuing out of the same, to commence after the date thereof, which was at Wolterton, Saturday after the feast of St. Faith the virgin.

Thomas Gournay, Esq. and John Hunt, son of William Hunt, of East-Barsham, confirmed to John Wode, of Briston, Esq. and his heirs, &c. the manor of East-Barsham, formerly Roger de Wolterton's, with all the lands, foldcourses, rents, &c. which John Hunt, of East-Barsham, grandfather of the said John, and William Hunt, his father, held; except a close called Grene's-yard, then in the tenure of Catherine Hunt, mother of the said John, by deed dated April 10, in the 13th of Henry VI. and John de Bryston, of Bryston, Esq. son and heir of John de Bryston, Esq. deceased, released to John Wode aforesaid, all his right in this manor, April 2, in the 18th of Henry VI. and Catherine, widow of William Hunt, released to him all her right.

This John Wode farmed the hundred of Gallow and Brotherton, of Elizabeth, Queen Consort of King Edward IV. in the 7th of that King; he died in 1470, and was buried in East-Barsham church, according to his will, dated November 12, and proved December 10, following, leaving Margery his widow.

In the 17th of the said King, Robert Wode, brother and heir of John, confirmed to Sir Hugh Hastings, and William Stather, clerk, the manors of Wolterton and Waldgraves in this town, by deed dated August 1; and they by deed dated November 4, in the following year, confirmed them to John Wode, son of Robert and Margaret his wife; and Margery Wode, by her deed dated November 6, in the 19th of Edward IV. grants to John Wode, her son,<sup>8</sup> (by Robert) of Colton, all her goods, moveable and immoveable; this John seems to have

Speaker of the House of Commons in died in the 11th of Henry VII. for in his 14th year William Gurney, junior, and Thomas Sefoule, Esq. had a grant of the custody of the manors of Roger his son, then a minor, and the custody of his person, in the 11th of that King.

Roger Wode, Esq. was son and heir of John Wode, and Margarct, his wife, who being remarried to Henry Fermor, Esq. (afterwards a knight) the said Henry holding by courtesey of England, the manors of Wolterton and Waldgraves, and minding the advancement of the said Roger, confirmed to him November 6, in the 5th of Henry VIII. all the said manors, lands, &c. excepting to him the said Henry, the site of the manor called Wolterton's, wherein he dwelt, with the orchard, barns, yards Berningham's close, a garden ground, liberty of foldage, common for sheep, &c.

Roger Wode, Esq. by his last will dated April 2, 1518, bequeaths the manors of Wolterton, Berningham, East-hull, and Child's, to William Fermor, his brother-in-law, son of Henry, but to remain in the hands of his executors; at this time he went a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and died therein, (as I conceive,) and bequeaths his body to some holy place, either on this side the sea, or beyond, where-ever he should happen to die; to the high altar of East Barsham, 12*d.* to the reparation of the church 20*s.* a cowcher to be bought by his executors of the price of 8*l.* in discharging of John Wode, my uncle's, Margery Wode's, and my father's soul; to every one of his sisters 40*s.* his executors to keep his obit, as soon as they had notice of his death in England, or beyond sea; and to give then 5 marks, to priests, to sing, &c. and so to keep it for 5 years after, giving 13*s.* 4*d.* per annum to priests, &c.; to Henry Farmer and John Fendham, priest, his executors, each 20*s.* and it was proved at Walsingham Parva, June 15, 1520, before John Bishop ——— Coludiensi Episc.

Thomas Earl of Surrey, and Thomas Lovell, treasurer of the household to the King, on September 14, in the 11th of Henry VIII. made an award between Sir James Boleyn, Knt. and Elizabeth his wife, one of the sisters and heirs of the aforesaid Roger, and Michael Makerel, of London, broderer, and Alice his wife, another of the sisters and heirs, and Henry Fermor, Gent. concerning the title of the aforesaid manors, and all other the lands, &c. late John or Roger Wode's; whereby Henry was to have all his lands in Norfolk, for ever, with all evidences; they to release to him and his heirs; Henry to pay to Sir James and his wife 35*l.* and the same sum to Michael and his wife. And in the following year, on August 12, William Whyte, of Title-shale, Gent. and Dorothy his wife, another sister and coheir, for 35*l.* consideration, released all their right to Henry.

In the 24th of the said King, he was high sheriff of Norfolk, and a knight, and on April 8, in the said year, made his will; bequeathing his body to be buried in the church of All-Saints, of East Barsham, or elsewhere, as his executors shall think fit, to the high altar 13*s.* 4*d.* for tithes forgot, 20*l.* to the reparation of it, to the mother church of Norwich 6*s.* 8*d.* to every order of friars in Norwich, Walsingham, Lynn, Blakeney, and Burnham 6*s.* 8*d.*; Cokesford and Hempton abbies, each 20*s.* and to every chanon there 12*d.*; gives all his manors, lands, &c. in Norfolk, to William his son, and his heirs, remainder to Thomas his son; Dame Winifred his wife, to have an annuity of 40 marks, out of his manors, and her lodging in the east end of the house, during her widowhood, with 20*l.* towards hanging the same, and trimming the chamber; a bason and ewer of silver, a nest of gilt goblets; a dozen of silver spoons, two goblets, two salts, and a pleane peece for her life, with meat and drink for her self, 2 maids and a man, at the charges of his son William, during her widowhood, and apparel, implements, and stuff of her body, except a chain which his daughter Catherine was to have, the residue of all her cheyns and jewels, after her decease, to Thomas his son; also 4 beds, with all the apparel thereto belonging, a garnish of pewter pots, and pans, candle-sticks, &c. convenient for her chamber, or else 20*l.* sterling, all after to remain to Thomas; to Amy his daughter 400 marks, &c.

The said Sir Henry died (as I take it) in the following year; it appears that he had two wives, Margaret, relict of John Wode, Esq. by whom he had William, his son and heir, and Thomas, also Amy, who married William Yelverton Esq. of Rougham, and Susan, who married — Berney, Esq. of Ganton. He was a person of great worth and dignity, and in the 19th of Henry VII. Feb. 14th, Thomas Earl of Arundel constituted him his feodary in the county of Norfolk; his second wife, Winefride, was relict of Henry Dyuue, of Heydon, and daughter of Thomas Cause, alderman of Norwich.

The first mention of the name of Fermor or Frayermore, is in the 18th of Richard II. when William Fermor, vicar of West Barsham, purchased lands in Sculthorp, of John Boys, vicar of Faversham, in Kent, late parson of Sculthorp. Thomas Farmor was witness to a deed of lands in Taterset in the 7th of Henry IV. Henry Fermor of Taterset was living in the 6th of Henry V. and 5th of Henry VI. and Thomas Farmor, of the said town, was living in the reign of Henry VI. and Edward IV. and probably father of Sir Henry abovementioned, to whom John, prior of the house of the blessed Mary, and the convent of Hempton, for the good and wholesome advice given to them, by him, granted by other letters patents, dated in their chapter-house, October 12, Ao. 17th of Henry VII. an annuity of 20*s.* sterling, issuing out of their manor of Tofts, for his life.

The Lady Winefrede, relict of Sir Henry, in the 26th of Henry VIII. remarried Sir John Tendal of Hockwold in Norfolk.

By an indenture dated November 20, in the 18th of Henry VIII. between Thomas Duke of Norfolk, treasurer, of the one part, and Henry Fermor, of East Barsham, Esq. of the other part, it was agreed that William Fermor, son and heir apparent of Henry, shall, before the feast of All Saints following, marry Catherine Knevett, one of the daughters of Sir Thomas Knevett, deceased; her portion of 200*l.* to be paid to Henry Fermour, on a settlement made by him. This William was high sheriff in the 32d of Henry VIII. and a knight; by his will dated August 4th, 1557, and proved January 12, 1558, he gives his body to be buried where it shall please God to call him; to the repair of East Barsham church 10*l.* to that of Pudding Norton 20*s.* to every house of East Barsham, and Pudding Norton 11*d.* to the pore men's boxe, of every town, where I have a flock of shepe going, 10*s.* Sir William dying without issue, Thomas, his nephew, was found to be his heir, son of Thomas Fermor, Esq. his brother,<sup>9</sup> and Ann his wife, daughter of Christopher Coote of Blownorton. Catherine, relict of Sir William, was remarried to Nicholzs Mynne of East Barsham, Esq.

Thomas Fermor, Esq. son of Thomas, held his first court about Michaelmas, in the 1st of Elizabeth, with the lete; he was living in the 6th of James, and had by Mary his wife, daughter of — Fronond, of Cheame, in Surrey, Esq. a son and heir, William. Nicholas Fermor, Esq. brother of this Thomas, was attainted for treasonable practices in coining in the 19th of Elizabeth he married Elizabeth Waters, (but died without issue,) and was (as is said) soon after drowned in the Thames.

Thomas Fermor, Esq. wasted in a great degree his estate, and sold many lordships.

William Fermor, Esq. son and heir of Thomas, held his first court in the 17th of James I. on March 25, and married Anne, daughter of Robert Brook, alderman of London, and sister of Sir Robert Brook of Blyburgh, in Suffolk, by whom he had a daughter and heiress, Mary, who by marriage, brought the manors abovementioned to James Calthorp, Esq.; about the 3d of King Charles I. by the marriage articles dated then, January 17, it was entailed on the said James and Mary, and their heirs, and for default, on the heirs of James Calthorp.

By the said Mary, he had issue, who died before her; his second wife was Catherine, daughter of Sir Edward Lewkner of Denham, in Suffolk, by whom he had Sir Christopher Calthorp, Knt. of the Bath, lord of this town, who by Dorothy his wife, daughter of Sir William Spring, of Pakenham, in Suffolk, Knt. father of Christopher Calthorp, Esq. who died in 1713, (before his father, who died in 171, February 7.) leaving by Ann Maria, daughter of William de Grey, Esq. of Merton, Christopher Calthorp, who died aged 13 years, in November 1720.

On the death of this youth, his two aunts, Elizabeth and Anne, daughters of Sir Christopher Calthorp, inherited the estate; Ann, being the wife of Sir Thomas le Strange, had a moiety of it in her right, and Elizabeth, who was single, at her death, gave her part to the said Sir Thomas, on whose death it came to Sir Henry le Strange, Knt. of Hunstanton.

The Calthorps of this town, are descended from Sir William Calthorp of Burnham Thorp, &c. by Elizabeth his 2d wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Miles Stapleton of Ingham, in Norfolk, as is here shewn :

Sir William Fermor built on this manor of Wolterton, (as I take it,) a very large and stately manor-house, or hall, of brick, in the reign of king Henry VIII. now very much decayed, and ruinous; some years past, I found these remains of antiquity: over the great gate-house, leading into the court-yard, on the outside, are the King's arms of France and England, quarterly, supported by a lion and a griffin;† on the right side of it, the arms of Fermor;—argent, on a saltire sable, between four lions heads erased, gules, a martlet of the first between four bezants, on a chief azure, an anchor between two pallets, or, impaling argent, three pallets gules—— and on the left, Fermor impaling, argent, a lion rampant, sable, Stapleton.

Below these, are two wild men, or giants, in two niches, one on each side of the gate, as janitors, armed with clubs.—Over the door of the porch, leading into the hall, are the arms of France and England, with a griffin and a greyhound supporters, king Henry VIIIth's arms, and Fermor, impaling.

In the bow window of the hall, this motto, on several scrolls:—Audaces Fortuna Juvat.—Howard Duke of Norfolk, quartering Brotherton Earl Warren, and Mowbray, in a garter.—Percy Earl of Northumberland, with his quarterings.—Lucy Poyings, Eitzpayne, Bryan, &c. in a garter.—Knevet quartering Cromwell, Tatteshale, Clifton, Basset, &c. also, argent, on a pale sable, a conger's head, or Lucies, or Gascoine; and here is this date in the window, 1538, in which year, it is probable, the house was built. Also barry of six argent and gules.

† The arms of King Henry VIII.

In the great parlour window.— Farmor impaling, argent, a saltire between four staples, sable, Wood.—The arms of the old lords of this manor;—Farmor impaling Stapleton, Berney impaling Farmor.—Yelverton.—Farmor impaling Knevet with his quarterings on the chimney-piece;<sup>2</sup> also impaling Coot, &c. and this motto; Fortior est qui se, quàm qui fortissima vincit.—On a piece of oak, in the centre of the ceiling, are the Quinque vulnera carved, and round it The passion of God help me.

In a room, called the Nursery, and above stairs, are several antique heads of men and women, in antique dresses, on the waincoat; under the heads of one man and woman, the arms of Farmor and Wood; under others, Farmor and Knevet, Yelverton and Farmor, and Berney and Farmor.

ROCHFORD'S MANOR.

In the 28th of Edward III. Sir Jaer de Rochford of Stiveky conveyed, by fine, to Ralph de Rochford, his son, and Maud, his wife, a lordship here, with lands, &c. in Hindringham, Kettleston, Geyst, &c. by a deed, dated at Walsingham Parva, on Tuesday after the feast of St. Mark the Evangelist, in 41st of the said King, Robert Lacock of Walsingham Magna, chaplain, &c. grant to Sir Ralph Rochford, and Maud his wife, all their tenements, messuages, lands, rents, services, homages, wardships, freemen and villains, in East-Barsham; and Alice, daughter of Adam Snethe of Warsham, released to them all her right therein: Sir Ralph occurs lord in the 2d of Richard II. and in the 3d of Henry IV. and the 3d of Henry VI. Sir Henry Rochford.

Sir Ralph Rochford of Walpole confirmed, in the 26th of Henry VI. to Thomas Lord Scales, Edward Clere, lands, &c.

Joan Welby of Moulton, in Lincolnshire, widow, settled it September 10, in the 8th of Edward IV. on Elizabeth, her daughter-in-law, (as a jointure,) and her son, Richard Welby; which Elizabeth was daughter of Sir William Calthorp, of Ludham, in Norfolk.

In the 22d of Henry VII. George Kirkham held a court here, on Friday after the feast of St. George, who had the custody of the lands, &c. of Thomas Welby, lord, and under age; and in the 32d of Henry VIII. Richard Welby, and Dorothy his wife, convey it, with Kettleston, Hindringham, &c. to Edmund Fraymyngham; and in the 22d of the said King, John Hall, of Hulstede, in Lincolnshire, Gent. probably as guardian to the said Richard, granted a lease of this manor, and that of Kettleston, to John Howlet, for seven years, at 6*l.* rent per annum payable at Lincoln, with 6*s.* 6*d.* allowance; and covenants that Howlet should deliver to him yearly copies of the court rolls, and true rentals of all particular lands, whereout he had received any rent; where the lands lay, and who paid the rents; a method, indeed, worthy of being followed to prevent the loss of copy-holders, and free rents due to the lords of a manor.

Nicholas Mynne, Esq. and Catherine his wife, granted it by fine, in the 4th of Elizabeth, to William Mynne, Gent. quit of the heirs of Catherine; and on May 26th, in the 13th of Elizabeth, Nicholas

ST. MARTIN'S, OR EAST-HALL MANOR.

Richard de St. Martin, with the consent of Juliana his wife, and Reginald his son, gave to the monks of Castleacre 4s. rent out of his mill here, called Gielp;<sup>3</sup> and Reginald, his son, gave the moiety of that mill, with the suit, of his men in East Barsham, with liberty to have the mill-dam, as it was in his father's time.—Witnesses, Richard and Bartholomew, his brothers, and heirs, Peter, dean of Fakenham, &c.

Richard de Snoring, with the consent of Mabil his wife, gave to the said monks a house and lands, which Reginald de St. Martin, confirmed, being held of him. This Reginald held, in the 3d of Henry III. in this town, Waterden and Hempton, a knight's fee of the Earl Warren: Roger de St. Martin was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and had the assise of bread, beer, &c.; and, in the 31st of that King Robert de Burghulion conveyed by fine to Sir Roger de St. Martin, and Alice his wife, several messuages, 181 acres of land, 5 of meadow, &c. 2s. 5d. rent, with that of 7 hens, in East and North Barsham.

In the 14th of Edward III. it was possessed by Sir John de Bardolf, of Maple-Durham, held by him of the Lord Bardolf, and he of the honour of Castleacre, by a quarter of a fee; and the Lady Amicia Bardolf, was infeoft of it in the 3d of Henry V. by Thomas Wollaston, clerk; and on June 3d. in the said year, by a deed dated in her house, in Cosyn-laue, London, made James Lynde, and John Lexham, &c. her attornies, to take seisin: but in the 5th of that King, Edward Long, by deed dated July 13th. confirmed to John Dabridgecourt, lord of Stratfield, Say (Hampshire) Stephen Lynde, &c. this manor, with lands in Tirington, which he had of the gift of John Cook, of Wykham. After several other conveyances in trust, William Staverton, Esq. executor of the testament of James Lynde, a trustee, confirms it also to Sir John Tudenham, Knt. John Heydon, Esq. &c. and they on November 16th. in the 25th of that King, confirm to John Wode, and Margery his wife, this manor, by the name of East-hall; and thus it became united to Wolterton's manor, and passed as is there mentioned.

Besides the lordships above-mentioned, part of this town was a beruite, at the survey to the Conqueror's manor of Fakenham, which was held by Herold the King of England, who was slain in battle; there were here, and in Snoring, 3 freemen, who held amongst them three acres of land, and a carucate, valued and measured together with Fakenham.<sup>4</sup>

BERNINGHAM'S MANOR ; OR KNOLLE'S AND WALDGRAVE'S

John de Berningham, and Walter his son, were living in the 31st of Edward I. This John was lord of this fee, as I take it.

In the 13th of Edward II. the aforesaid Walter, by his deed, dated at Sculthorp, on Friday after the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, granted to Sir Walter de Norwich, for 6 marks, the homages and services of several who held tenements of him in this town ;<sup>5</sup> and Sir John de Norwich, Knt. and Thomas Waldgrave, who was in the custody of the said Sir John, his guardian, held half a fee in the 20th of Edward III.

Sir Richard Waldgrave, by deed dated at Bures, in Suffolk, on January 1st, in the 11th of Richard II. sold and confirmed it to Augustine Keling, &c. and Augustine, in the following year, May 3d, confirmed to John Hunt, of East-Barsham, his manor here bought of Sir Richard Waldgrave, with a messuage, fifty acres of land, two of meadow, and certain rents. Keling's seal is, a chevron, componied between three cinquefoils.—After this, it was in Sir Robert Knoll's ; and on the 24th of January, in the 6th of Henry V. John Hunt infeoft John Drew and Henry Says, clerks, William Shelton and Edmund Winter, Esqrs. &c. and Edmund Winter, &c. infeoft William Hunt and his heirs, in the 11th of that King ; and in the said year, William Hunt, October 30, confirmed it to Sir Thomas Kerdeston, Sir William Oldhall, &c. Hunt sealed with, a bend, between six mullets, pierced. This, in the 6th of Henry IV. had, by the King's license, been conveyed by John Seymour, citizen of London, to William Hunt, of East Barsham, and Catherine his wife, &c. with 24 messuages, 4 tofts, 80 acres of land, 5 of meadow, 15s. and 2d. per ann. rent, and was called sometimes Knoll's manor, as belonging to Sir Robert Knolls, who, in the 3d of Henry IV. held half a fee here of the King in capite ; and John Hunt is said to hold it then of Sir Robert.

In the 25th of Henry VI. March 3d, John Hunt of Swaffham, in Norfolk, sells to John Wode the manor of Berningham for 50 marks ; and, on the 10th of the said month, Robert Mompynson of Wisbech, and Catherine his wife, late wife of William Hunt of East-Barsham, infeoft John Wode of Honyngham, and Margery his wife, &c. in 4 messuages, 4 tofts, &c. called Barningham's, in this town, and Snoring, with the reversion of other messuages, held by John Lynge for life ; and, at the said time, appointed Thomas Carnay, Esq. their attorney, to deliver seisin to John Wode and Margery, and to Robert, son of the said John and Margery ; and on the 10th of May, in the same year, John Hunt, of Swaffham market, son and heir of William Hunt, released to John Wode the said premises.

On the 28th of June, in the 30th of the said King, Sir Thomas Kerdeston, &c. infeoft John Wode, &c. of the manor of Waldgrave ; and on the 6th of March, in the 33d of that King, John Latham, master or custos of the hospital of the Holy Trinity of Pontefract, called Knolles alms-house, in Yorkshire, released to John Wode all his right in the manor Berninghams, and thus Berningham's and Waldgrave's manor were united to that of Wolterton.

CHILD'S MANOR.

This seems to have been a part of Waldgrave's manor. In the 14th of Richard II. Richard Palmer of Walsingham Magna, and Roger Dye, of Waterden, confirmed to Thomas Chyld of this town, a messuage, and lands, &c. formerly Waldgrave's, and other lands.

It came, as is said, to Thomas, by descent from Thomas Child, of Walsingham Magna; and Thomas Leyre was lord in the 4th of Henry V. and then settled it on Edmund Oldhall, John Lexham, &c. in trust, and it was released in the 7th of Henry VI. to William Leyre, bastard son of Thomas, who confirmed to Hunfrey Duke of Gloucester, and Alianora his wife, and William Perkins, Esq. this lordship, October 6th, in the 11th of Henry VI. and the said William, by his deed, dated October 20th, in the said year, released all his right herein to the said Duke; and sealed with or, a fess dauncette, between eight billets ermin.

Robert Merryman of Hempton, executor of William Layer, grants it to Sir Thomas Tudenham, Sir Miles Stapleton, &c. in the 29th of the said King, and William Jeney, serjeant at law, a feoffee, confirmed it on the last of July, in the 17th of Edward IV. to Margery Wode, widow of John Wode, Esq.; and in the 12th of Henry VIII. William Wayte, and Dorothy his wife, convey, by fine, the third part of the manor of Chylds to Henry Fermor; so that this was also united to that of Wolterton, and passed as is there observed.

William Wake of Holkham confirmed to Richard Wake his brother, and Catherine his wife, all his tenement which he had of the gift of Sir John Daubenys, with the lands, foldages, mills, services, customs of freemen and villains, dated at East Barsham, on Thursday after the feast of St Ambrose the Bishop, in the 13th of Edward II.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory were, in 1428, 18s. 8d.

Those of Coxford priory 5l. 10s. 10d. (these were demised to Henry Fermor in the 7th of Henry VIII.) and those of Walsingham at 14d.

The tenths were 3l. 2s.—Deduct 18s.—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred 2s. 6d. ob.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and was appropriated to the priory of Castleacre, valued at 15 marks by John Bishop of Oxford, to take place on the death of Stephen, then parson of the church, saving an honest livelihood to the vicar, and obedience to the see of Norwich.<sup>6</sup> This, probably, was only when a pension was settled on the priory, and seems not to be appropriated till the 15th of Richard II. The rector had a manse, and 12 acres of land; the prior of Castlecre had also a portion, valued at 5 marks. Pcterpence 2s.

On the appropriation, the vicarage was taxed at 5 marks, and the prior for the appropriated rectory at 10 marks.

The present valor of the vicarage is 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

On the north side of the church, at the west end, is the steeple, with one bell, dedicated to St. Thomas, the church is covered with lead. Here were formerly several bells, which being taken out of the church, and put on ship board, were lost (as is said) on Hunstanton sands. Against the north wall is a small mural monument:

In memory of Simon Lombe, A. M. for 43 years God's faithful minister of this parish, who died May 4th, 1689; and of Margaret his wife, daughter of Mr Thomas Seggeswick, merchant of Norwich, both interred in the middle alley of this church. Erected by C. C. M. B.

On the pavement of the chancel are several black marble grave-stones.

In memory of James Calthorpe, Esq; late of East-Barsham; here interred, who died April 19, 1652, aged 48.—with the arms of Calthorpe, impaling Fermor, and Calthorp impaling Lewkner.

Against the south wall of the present chancel, which is taken out of the nave of the church, is a very sumptuous monument of alabaster, black marble, &c. with the effigies of a woman in her winding sheet, as raising herself with her left hand out of her coffin, her right hand and eyes elevated in a posture of adoration, and on the coffin, Come Lord Jesu quickly. Over her are two arches, supported by pillars of the Dorick order; in one of them is an angel offering her a crown of glory, and in the other an angel offering her a crown of laurel; and, above these, an angel as sounding the last trumpet. On the cornish of the monument are two effigies, one representing Wisdom or Knowledge, with the sun, the other with a dove, representing Innocency. On the basis of the monument, the arms of Calthorpe, and,

Reiner de Grancourt gave to the priory of Castleacre, this church, in the time of Herbert Bishop of Norwich.

John 1st bishop of Norwich, instituted Stephen de Martiniaco into all the profits of this church, which Henry Decanus held in the said church, on the presentation of the prior and convent of Norwich, saving a pension of 20s. to the priory. William de Turbe Bishop of Norwich, is said to have appropriated it to that convent, and John de Norwich, Bishop, is said to have granted it to the said priory, on the death of Stephen, the rector aforesaid, on a proper maintenance for a vicar, but not appropriated till 1393, by Henry Bishop of Norwich, who had a pension of 10s. and one of 3s to the cathedral church.

NORTH CREAK,

Now accounted a part of the hundred of Brothercross, was at the time of the grand survey, a member of the hundred of Gallow, under which we find these particulars of it: Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earl of Norfolk, of that name, was lord of it, and Turstan, son of Guido, held under him 4 carucates of land, which Kochaga possessed in the reign of the Confessor; 6 villains, 14 bordarers, and 10 servi belonged to it; there were then 4 carucates in demean, and 3 amongst the men, pannage for 20 swine, with 6 acres of meadow, &c. and 25 soemen, with 1 carucate, &c. valued at the survey at 6*l.* per ann. before that, at 4*l.*

Bigot also had half a carucate of land held by 4 freemen; Turstan, son of Wido, was enfeoffed of this by Roger; there was one carucate and an half, in King Edward's days, at the survey, two bovates, valued at 3*s.* per ann.<sup>9</sup>

MANOR OF CREAK.

The town takes its name from its site, on a small river or creak, and it is probable that Turston abovementioned was ancestor of the family of the de Crekes, who were lords of this town, and took their name from it; Sir Robert de Creke, son of Bartholomew, succeeded his father herein, who held 8 fees of the old feoffment in the reign of Henry II. of Roger Bigot, father of Hugh Bigot Earl of Norfolk. Sir Robert married a daughter and heiress of the Glanviles, by whom he had a son, Bartholomew, who in the reign of Henry III. gave lands to the monastery of St. Osyth in Essex, for the soul of Hervey de Glanvile, his mother's grandfather; and died about the end of that King's reign.

In the 7th of King John, Bartholomew de Glanvile granted to Robert de Creck and Agnes his wife, 2 carucates of land in Combs in Suffolk, and to the heirs of Agnes; and in the 10th of that King the Countess Gundreda sued the said Robert for a reasonable dower in a free tenement, &c. late Roger de Glanvile's, her husbands, in Middleton, Yokesford, and Bacton; and in the 13th of King Henry III. Joan, prioress of Campes in Suffolk, released to Bartholomew de Creke and his heirs, the manor of Helmingham in Suffolk.

There was a precept in the 16th of that King to the sheriff of Norfolk, to deliver to Richemania, widow of Robert de Creke, 10*l.* per ann. in land, for her support, till Bartholomew de Creke, son and heir of

Robert, should return out of Ireland, and assign her a dower; this Bartholomew was a knight, and married Margery, daughter and heiress of Geffrey de Anos, of Hillington; and in the 19th of Henry III. Richemania aforesaid brought her action for being disseized unjustly of part of her capital messuage here. Sir Bartholomew died about the 36th of Henry III.; he had by Margery his wife, 3 sons, Robert, who succeeded his father, and was lord of this town, in the 38th of the said reign, but dying without issue, enfeoffed Margery his mother, in this lordship. Jeffrey was the second son, and John, the third son, and Sarah, a daughter, married to Roger Fitz Peter Fitz Osbert.

In the 41st of Henry III. the bailiffs of Margery de Creke received stallage, in the fair at this town; and in the 43d of that King, she gave the advowson of the church of Flixton, in Suffolk, with lands there to Alianora the prioress, by fine, (of which priory she was the foundress; and in the 3d of Edward I. she had free warren here, with the assise of bread and beer.

Margery de Creke, by her deed sans date, granted to John her son, and his heirs, her manor of Creke, with all its appertenance, saving to herself all foreign fees; and to her nuns of Flixton, the advowson of that church which they had of her gift; and if the said John should die before her, then to return to her and her heirs: witnesses, Robert de Valoins, Robert Fitz John, William de Calethorpe, and Roger de Thoftes, Knts. Bartholomew Marsh de Stanhowe, John Adelwald de Suthcreke. The witnesses to her grant of the advowson of Flixton, were Sir Robert Valoins, Sir Roger de Rattliden, Sir Walter de Redesham, Knts. Sir John de Stowe, rector of Helmingham: her seal, quarterly, in the 1st and 4th a bend over all between 2 roundles, (or bezants, quære,) and in the 2d and 3d, three of the same, and this legend, Sigillum Margerie de Crec.

She was daughter and heir of Jeffrey de Anos, lord of Hillington, and these were probably his arms.

In the 9th of Edward I. John de Creke was lord, and had then by letters patent, dated at Shulldham, (Norfolk), January 18, to him and his heirs, the grant of a weekly mercate here, on Tuesday, and a yearly fair on the eve, day, and morrow of St. Michael; witnesses, R. Bishop of Bath and Wells, William Bishop of Norwich, Gilbert de Clare Earl of Gloucester and Hertford, Roger de Clifford, Anthony Bek, Archdeacon of Durham, Hugh Fitz Otto, Robert Fitz John, Peter de Chaunprent, Richard de Boseo, &c.

Sir John de Creke died in or about the 11th of the aforesaid King; the eschaetor gave an account of 26*l.* &c. of the issues of the lands of the said John, at Aketon in Suffolk, from November 25, to June 16, following, in the said year; and Sarah his sister, wife of Roger Fitz Peter Fitz Osbert, was his heir, and she dying sans issue, about the 20th of the said reign, Roger her husband held it by the courtesy of England, on whose death in the 34th of the said reign, this lordship was found to be held by one fee of the Earl of Norfolk, valued at 40*l.* On his death, the descendants and heirs of Margaret, one of the sisters of Sir Bartholomew de Creke, and aunt of Sarah, and the descendants of Isabel, another of the sisters of Sir Bartholomew, and aunt to Sarah, were coheirs to this lordship.—Margaret, married Sir John de Thorp; and in the 18th of Edward II. Alice, widow of John de Thorp, (grandson of Sir John), had the King's writ directed to John de Blomvill, eschaetor of Norfolk and Suffolk, Cambridge, &c. dated April 18, at Beauliau, for dower to be assigned her, out of certain knight's fees, viz. one in West Thorp, in Suffolk, held by Adam Coniers, valued at 8*l.* one in Wynston and Croffield, held by Ralph de Boeking, of 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* the moiety of one in Stanhow, Norfolk, held by Roger de Calthorp, of 60*s.* and the fourth part of a fee in Ryburgh Parva, and Stybberd, held by Thomas de Snetterton, the prior of Pakenham-Dam, the abbot of Creyk, and the prior of Binham, of 40*s.* per ann.; and by virtue of a mandate from the King, Richard de Haeford, the eschaetor's deputy, took an oath of Alice, that she would not marry without the King's license, and assigned to her dower, in full of her claim, in the manors of North Creak and Hillington, in Norfolk, and Combs in Suffolk, and two parts of the capital messuage of this manor, towards the north, containing one acre, 2 roods, 26 perches, with one grange, one granary, with a chamber next it, a stable with a chamber, a cart-house, bake-house, with a chamber, all valued at 6*s.* 8*d.*—Arable land demesns, six score and eleven acres, 2 roods, and 3 perches, valued at 6*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.* ob. q. per ann. meadow land, 7 acres, valued at 12*d.* per ann. per acre, and pasture, 1 acre, and 1 rood, valued at 2*s.* 11*d.* the moiety of the windmill, valued at 14*s.*; 16 acres and a rood of heath, with the barlings valued at 19*s.* 1*d.*; the coney warren at 12*d.*; 7 acres and 3 roods, in East Lyng, at 6*s.* 2*d.*; two parts of a barn, at 16*d.*; one faldstone, at 4*s.* 6*d.*; the moiety of the mercate 16*d.*; two parts of the fair, at 5*s.* 4*d.* per ann.; two parts of the free bull, and free boar, at 12*d.* per ann.; two parts of the pleas, and perquisites of courts, at 20*s.*; the service of Roger de Calthorp, for the manor of Stanhow, paying 4*s.* per ann. with the services of several free tenants, amounting to 28*s.* 6*d.* per ann.; also the rents, services and customs, of many tenants, called molmen, and of tenants called barlimen and havermen, amounting to 4*l.* 4*s.* per ann. the whole being about 17*l.* 10*s.* per ann.

Another of the sisters of Sir Bartholomew de Creke, and aunt to Sarah above-mentioned, sister and heir of Sir John de Creke, was Isabel, who married the Lord John de Valoines, from whom descended Robert Lord Valoines, who left 2 daughters and coheirs, Rohesia, who married Sir Edmund de Pakenham, and Cicely, the wife of Robert de Ufford Earl of Suffolk, and between the heirs of the two sisters of Sir Bartholomew, and aunts of Sarah de Creke, was this lordship divided. The Thorps of Ashwellthorp, as heirs of Margaret, holding one moiety, and the Pakenhams and the Uffords, as heirs to the other sister, Isabel, having the other moiety.

Sir Robert de Thorp was lord of a moiety, and Sir Edmund de Pakenham, and Rohesia his wife, of the other, in the reign of Edward II. Ufford, and his wife, Cecilia, having resigned to them their right in it; and in the 16th of Edward III. Hervey de Pakenham, rector of Hopton, conveyed by fine to Hugh de Saxham, and Roesia his wife, a moiety of this manor and advowson, settled on Hugh and Roesia, for her life, remainder to Thomas de Pakenham, son of Roesia, daughter and heir of Robert Lord Valoines; and in the 20th of the said King, Beatrix de Thorp, relict of Sir Robert de Thorp, Hugh de Saxham, and Roesia, were lords.

On an inquisition taken in the 35th of King Edward III. Mary de Pakenham, widow of Edmund de Pakenham, son of Sir Edmund and

Roesia, was found to die seized of a moiety; she was daughter and coheir of Edmund Comyn, of Fakenham Aspes, in Suffolk; and Eufemia was found to be her sister and heir, aged 50, married to William de la Beche, by whom she had Elizabeth, married to Sir Roger Elmragg; after this it came to the priory of Walsingham, as I shall show.

In the 36th of Edward III. Sir Edmund de Thorp, of Ashwell Thorp, was lord of a moiety, and Sir Edmund, son of Sir Edmund de Thorp, settled it in trust, August 13, in the 17th of Richard II. on Roger Davy of Middleton, William de Bumpsted, parson of Massingham Parva, and John Aslaek of Crostweyt; and on the death of Sir Edmund de Thorp, killed in the wars of France, in the reign of Henry V. it came to his 2 daughters and coheirs, Isabel and Joan, and on default of issue of the said Joan, Isabel, the wife of Philip Tilney, inherited it, and died possessed of it in 1436, whose son, Frederick Tilney, Esq. left it to his only daughter Elizabeth, wife of Sir Humphrey Bourchier, eldest son of John Lord Berners.

John Duke of Norfolk, by his deed dated Dec. 4, in the 35th of Henry VI. reciting that this lordship was held of him by knight's service, and that the wardship of Elizabeth, wife of Humphrey Bourchier, son and heir of John Lord Berners, with the custody of this manor, belonged to him; during the minority of the said Elizabeth, for 20 marks, paid him by the Lord Berners, he grants the custody of it to him. Sir Humphrey being slain at Barnet-Field, on the part of King Edward IV. in 1471, the Lady Elizabeth remarried to Thomas, son and heir of John Lord Howard, afterwards Earl of Surry, and Duke of Norfolk, who was lord in her right; and after their decease, it descended to Sir John Bourchier Lord Berners, son and heir of Sir Humphrey aforesaid and the Lady Elizabeth, on whose death it came to his two daughters, Mary and Jane; Mary was the wife of Alexander Unton, Esq. and dying without issue, Jane her sister became sole heir to her father; she married Edmund Knevet, Esq. second son of Edmund Knevet of Buckenham Castle, Esq. who with his wife, had livery of this lordship, July 5th in the 25th of Henry VIII. and was seized of all the estates of the Thorps. In this family it remained till Sir Thomas Knevet sold it, June 19th in the 33d of Elizabeth, to Richard Mansure of North Creke, for 1300*l.* The Mansures are said to descend from John Mansure, who farmed this lordship at 10*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann.<sup>1</sup> in the 14th of Edward IV. whose son, Richard of North Creak, married Catherine, daughter of John Beckham of Norfolk, Gent. by whom he had Henry, who died without issue; and John Mansure, who married first, Margaret, daughter and heir of Edward Archer of Wisbeach, in the isle of Ely, and had a son Henry, who died s. prole; his second wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Newton of South Creak, by whom he had Richard Mansure<sup>2</sup> (who took to wife Alice, daughter of Giles Seafoul of Waterden, Esq.) and Anne, married to William Armiger; and on the death of Richard, in 1592, it came to Anne aforesaid.

Creak, by his will, dated April 18, 1531, and proved April 26, left Joan his widow, and Alice his 1st wife, deceased, Henry Mansure his son, executor, Thomas Sydney, Gent. supervisor, and John his son.

In the 39th of Elizabeth, William Armiger and Anne his wife, sister and heir of Richard Mansure, levied a fine, September 3d, and settled their manor of Thorp-Hall, in North Creak, on William Miles, and Mansure Armiger, their sons; William the father died March 17, 1607, and Anne his wife, in 1610: William Armiger, the eldest son, by Catherine, sole daughter and heir of John Hare, Esq. had William and Clement; William married Mary, daughter of — Fernatti, and sister of Sir Philibert Fernatti, by whom he had William, his son and heir, who, having no children by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of — Lucy, was succeeded by Gabriel his brother, lord of this manor in 1698, and one of the attornies in the King's Remembrancer-office in the Exchequer. From the Armigers, it came to Surah, relict of John Duke of Marlborough, who left it to the honourable John Spencer, Esq. &c.

The Armigers are an ancient family; William Armiger of Bury had lands in Bury, given him by Hugh, abbot, in the beginning of Henry the Third's reign. Robert Armiger of Otley, in Suffolk, held a messuage and lands there, called Armiger's, and lands in Clapton, in 11th of Richard II. and 14th of Henry IV. William Armiger, his son, was living in the 37th of Henry VI. and by Maud his wife, daughter of Joyce, had a son John, of Oatley, living in the 5th of Henry VII. who married Agnes, daughter of Walter Blake of Huntingfeld, and left Thomas his son and heir, who made his will in 1517, and purchased the manor of Canewden; by Alice his wife, daughter of — Pell, and sister of Dr. Pell, rector of Hitcham, was father of John Armiger of Otley, who died in 1539; and by Isabella his wife, daughter of — Raynburgh, had Thomas his son, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Heyham, of Heyham-Hull, in Gasely, Esq. and was father of Thomas Armiger of Bury, and lord of Monewden, who, by Jane his wife, daughter and coheir of John Eyre, Esq. receiver of the revenues of King Edward VI. in Suffolk, had Thomas, his son and heir, of Thrundeston, in Suffolk, lord of Canewden, in Essex, and William Armiger, his second son, of Cagworth, in Suffolk, and afterwards lord of North-Creak, in right of his wife Anne, sister and heir of Richard Mansure, and died, as is above said, in 1607.

Armiger bore azure, two barrulets argent, between three helmets or, and quartered vairy, argent and sable, a bend over all, gules, Mansure; crest a lion sciant, gules, on a ducal coronet or.

WALSINGHAM-PRIORY MANOR.

Mary de Pakenham, widow of Edmund de Pakenham, who died possessed of a moiety of the manor of North-Creak (as I have above observed) in the 35th of Edward III. gave it by her will to the priory of Walsingham,<sup>3</sup> and Eufemia, her sister and heir, entered on it as a trustee, and conveyed it to Sir Ralph de Hemenhale, Sir John de Wingsfeld, Sir Gilbert de Debenham, and John de Bletso, &c.; and in the following year, Sir Roger de Ehrugg, Kut. and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William de Beche and Eufemia aforesaid, conveyed it by fine to Sir Ralph Hemenhale, and John Bletsho, chaplain: and the said Sir Ralph had license in the 40th of Edward III. to alien it to this priory, with the moiety of the advowson; but in the 44th of that King, the prior of Walsingham was sued in the Exchequer, and the Lady Margaret, Duchess of Norfolk, entered into the said manor; her license, as capital lady of the same, not being obtained; but in the 2d of Richard II. it was granted the prior, paying 100s. relief, it being valued at 5*l.* per ann. and performing homage for the same.

CREAK ABBEY.

In the year 1206, there was a church founded in a place called Lingseroft, containing about 400 acres of ling, or heath, lying between Creak and Burnham, in the meadows, and called from thence St. Mary de Pratis, by Sir Robert de Nereford, who married Alice daughter and coheir of John Pouchard, son of Sir William Pouchard; which 400 acres, Philip de Candois, of Burnham, gave in perpetual alms to the monks of Castleacre, in the time of King Stephen; and afterwards Roger, prior of Castleacre, and the convent, enfeoffed the said Sir William of the same. In the reign of Henry II. there was mass said in the said church, but Sir Robert Narford being constable of Dover castle under Hubert de Burgh, chief justice of England, and obtaining a victory at sea over the French, designing to invade England, with the consent of Alice his wife, built a chapel to St. Bartholomew, with an hospital for 13 poor lay brethren, and 4 chaplains, and a master or head. William de Geyst, with the consent of his patroness Alice, being the first chaplain, took upon him a canonical habit, with his brethren, and was called prior of St. Mary de Pratis by Creke, by whom the aforesaid land was manured in their own hands, and proper costs; and the said chapel and hospital were dedicated, 1221, by Jeffrey de Burgh Bishop of Ely, (nephew of the said Alice, and brother of Hubert de Burgh,) suffragan to Pandolf Bishop of Norwich, the Pope's legate.—After this the Lady Alice settled the advowson of this priory on King Henry III. and his heirs for ever; who made it an abbey, and confirmed his liberties, October 26, in his 15th year. She also, in her widowhood, confirmed by deed sans date, all their privileges: Witnesses, John de Burgo, Reynund de Burgo; and gave lands in North Creak; also confirmed to this hospital of St. Mary of Lyngseroft, situate between Burnham and Creak, and to the brethren, the patronage of the moiety of the church of Wreningham All-Saints, of which she was the lawful patroness, which Sir Robert her husband, had by his deed given them, with the church of St. Margaret of Hapton, when it should be vacant. Sir Robert also gave 40 acres to this hospital, which he bought of Robert Gedding, and 40 of the inheritance of his lady, with her consent.

SIR RALPH DE GATLE, son of Sir Ralph de Gatle, granted two pieces of land in the fields of Gatle, with the advowson of that church:—Witnesses, Sir Robert de Creke, Geffrey his son, Sir Robert de Burdon, Richard de St. Denys, Gilbert his son, Sir Roger Mortimer, Sir John Narford, &c.

In the beginning of the reign of King Henry III. 1228, there was an agreement between Robert the prior, and convent of Castleacre, and William, master of the hospital of St. Mary de Pratis, and the brethren, about 10s. rent, in North Creak, and Burnham Thorp, which rent the prior used to receive of John Pouchard and his heirs, out of 40 acres of land, in those towus, which the Lady Alice de Nereford, heir of the said John, gave in her widowhood, in pure alms to the said hospital, whereby the prior and convent released the said rent to the hospital for ever, in exchange for 40 acres of land, and 12d. rent, in South Creak, and the rents of 3s. and one capon, in North

Creak :—Witnesses, Thomas Bishop of Norwich, Martin de Pattishull, archdeacon of Norwich, justice of the King's Bench, Hugh, abbot of St. Edmund, Thomas de Heydon, justice, William de Insula, Warine de Monte Canisio, Herbert de Lemm, then sheriff, Robert de Creke, Nicholas Butler, John de Fleg, Reyner de Burgo, William de Gimingham.—Robert de Creke gave lands to them; William occurs abbot of Creak in the 31st of Henry III.

In the aforesaid reign, the abbot of Creak held in North Creak and Burnham Thorp, two parts of a fee of Roger Fitz Peter.

Sir John Marshall gave them lands in Bintre. — Godfrid, abbot, temp. Henry III.

In the 3d of Edward I, the prior was found to hold in capite, of the gift of Sir William de Bodham, a tenement in South Creak, and 10s. rent per ann. payable into the Exchequer, and 20s. per ann. to Dover castle ward, and had a view of frankpledge, assise, &c. of the gift of Henry III.

King Henry III, in his 10th year, May 23d, granted to the Lady Alice de Nereford, that the fair which her husband had procured to be held on the eve and feast of the annunciation of the Virgin Mary, at the hospital of Lingscroft, should be altered, and held on the eve and feast of St. Thomas the Martyr; and in his 15th year, made it an abbey, and confirmed all its possessions.

Sir Stephen de Hales, &c. aliened to them 145 acres and an half of land, and the rent of 10 marks, in North Creak, Burnham Thorp, Quarles and Holkham, in the 15th of Richard II.

In the 14th of Edward I, Bartholomew de Burgate was abbot, as appears from a pleading; and in the following year the jury present, that the abbot claimed to have four fairs in a year, at Creke, viz. on the feast of the annunciation of the Virgin, on the translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, on the feast of St. Bartholomew, and that of St. Nicholas, by the grant of King Henry III. The abbot in a suit for a corrody with the King, in his 9th year, pleads that the abbey was not a royal foundation, but that the Lady Alice de

Nerford, the foundress, granted the patronage to King Henry III. In the 32d of the said King, Sir Walter Calthorp gave them a meadow, and in the 39th year, Sir Oliver de Calthorp was a benefactor.

It appears by the will of Sir William Calthorp of Burnham Thorp, dated May 31, in the 10th of Henry VII. that many of his ancestors were here buried, in a chapel;<sup>1</sup> and he appoints that all the goods of Dame Sybill Boys should be employed towards making the quire, the presbytery, and repairing this abbey, and gives 7*4l.* for that purpose.

Giles, abbot in 1503, mentioned then in the will of Walter Aslake of Creak abbey, wherein he gives to this convent all those lands that he purchased of Sir Roger Strange, Knt. lying in the fields of Holme and Ringsted, so that they can get the lands in mortmain in three years, else to be sold, and the money to the profits of the said abbey, provided that the abbot and convent, and their successors, shall kepe his obit perpetually; giving to every chanon there 5*s.* per ann. and on the obit 4*d.* and provided that they shall seal a general release of 7*s.* yerely rent, to his attourneys or heirs, that shall have his manor of Bardolf, in Ryngsted, after his decease; Item. To the said abbey, a complete vestment of white damask; Item. I will, that the north side of the queer in the said abbey be made with tumber, workmanship, and nayles of my goods, and mete, and drink, sand and lime, at the cost of the abbot and convent.

In the 22d of Henry VII. a patent was granted to the Lady Margaret, Countess of Richmond, mother to that King, with license for her to give to Christ's college, Cambridge, this abbey, with all its lands; it being looked upon as dissolved, because the abbot died without a convent to elect another, whereupon all the lands and revenues became thus settled on Christ's College, by the Lady Margaret, the foundress, who are still in possession of the same.

The abbot and canons were of the order of St. Augustin. On the foundation of the hospital several orders were made for the government of it viz. that the brethren to be admitted, should at their entrance promise chastity, and obedience to the master; that none should have any property to himself; that a light should burn day and night in the church.

In the 14th of Edward I. the fair on St. Nicholas's day was changed, and was to be held on St. Michael's day.

BEAUFŌE'S MANOR.

It remained in the Crown till King Henry I. granted it to Ralph de Beaufoe, to be held by the service of half a knight's fee; in the 5th of King Stephen, Ralph de Beaufoe had a pardon for 10*s.* Dane's gelt, and in the said year, Agnes de Beaufoe accounted for 35 marks of silver, her son being then with the Earl of Flanders; and in the first of King John, Gilbert de Norfolk had a patent (for 100 marks and a palfrey given to the King) to enjoy the inheritance of Emme de Bellofago, or Beaufoe, his wife, niece of Ralph de Beaufoe, and in the 7th of that King, she had a charter for her own inheritance here, &c. and her dower of the estate which belonged to Gilbert de Norfolk, her husband, deceased, with a proviso that she should not marry without the King's license. About this time there appears to have been a contest between the said Emme, and Ralph de Beaufoe, a descendant of the aforesaid Ralph, who in the 1st of King John gave a mark to have an assise of D'Ancestor, for half a knight's fee in this town and Burnham, against Gilbert de Norfolk and Emme his wife, and was probably son of Thomas de Beaufoe, who confirmed the grant of his brother Ralph, of the church of South Creak, to Castleacre priory, in the 27th of Henry II. This Thomas came to the estate of Ralph his brother, in the 28th of the said King, and paid then a fine of 100 marks.

In the 10th of King John, Emme conveyed by fine to Hubert de Burgh Earl of Kent, this manor, with that of Ludham, in Nottinghamshire, granted him in reversion after her death; the said Emme had also the lordship of Fritcham in Norfolk;* and gave lands in Nottinghamshire to Thurgarton priory; but in the 17th of Henry III. it appears to be in the family of de Beaufoe, Ralph de Beaufoe then having 12s. per ann. settled by fine, payable for certain services and customs, for 96 acres of land here, and in Burnham, held by John son of Richard.

Ralph de Beaufoe claimed, as lord, a mercate here, on Friday, and tolls, in the 3d of Edward I. and the lete of South Creak and Holgate, paid to Gallow hundred, was 5s. 6d. per ann.

John Beaufoe died seized of this lordship, in the 10th of Edward III. and in the 20th of that King, Alice Beaufoe was found to hold half a fee in capite of the King, and paid 20s. on the knighting of the King's son, a whole fee being charged at 40s. William Beaufoe, son of John, died lord in the 23d of the said reign, and John was found his son and heir, aged 15: and in the 50th of Edward III. John Beaufoe died seized, and Thomas was found his son and heir, aged 5 years; Sir William de Burgh held it in his nonage, and it was extended at 106s. 8d. per ann. In the 3d of Henry VI. Sir John Beaufoe died possessed of it, and Sir William his brother was his heir.

The Lady Eleanor Townsend died seized of it, as appears by the eschaet-rolls, in the 17th of Henry VII.

In the 36th of Henry VIII. John Basset conveyed it to Roger Townsend, and Sir Roger Townsend, Bart. died lord of it in 1636, in which family it remains; the Right Honourable Charles Lord Viscount Townsend died lord, and his son, George Lord Viscount, now enjoys it.

Hugh de Montfort had a lordship in this town, given to him by the Conqueror, on the deprivation of Bond, the Saxon lord, who had 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, 6 bordarers, and 4 servi, with 3 carucates amongst the tenants, or men, and 2 in demean, &c. valued then at 60s. at the survey at 4*l.* and was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 4s. gelt.<sup>5</sup>

CREAK ABBEY MANOR.

The family of de Bodham was early enfeoffed of this lordship. Ralph de Bodham and Nicholas his brother released by deed sans date, all their right in the presentation of this church; Sir Ralph de Bodham was lord in the reign of Henry III. and in the 15th of Edward I. the jury present, that the said knight had 2 fees here, and paid 10s. per annum into the Exchequer, and 20s. per annum to Dover castle ward, and that he gave it to the abbey of Creak, then in possession of it. On the dissolving of Creak abbey, it was granted by King Henry VII. to his mother, the Lady Margaret, Countess of Richmond, who granted it to Christ's college in Cambridge, where it still remains, as in Creak abbey.

The lete fee of this priory to the lord of the hundred was 12*d.*

ROSE'S MANOR.

The Earl Warren's lordships in North Creak and Burnham Thorp extended into this town; Baldwin de Rosey, or de Roseto, who held considerable lands of the Earl Warren; confirmed by deed sans date, all the benefactions of his ancestors, with a mill in Creak, to the priory of Castleacre; and Roger de Rosey, in the reign of Henry III. possessed the 20th part of a fee, of the Earl Warren; <sup>6</sup> and in the said reign John de Cockfeld and William Athelwald, held a quarter of a fee of Walter de Calthorp, and he of the aforesaid Earl.

In the 14th of Edward I. it appears by an assise, that Richard, son of Robert Athelwald, had unjustly disseized Robert, son of Richard Athelward, of a free tenement, in Suthcrek and Waterden, with 2 messuages, 70 acres of land, a wind-mill, and 15s. per annum rent, &c.; and in the 29th of that King, Robert seems to convey it to Richard, with lands in Sidestern and Burnham; James Athelwald held, in the 20th of Edward III. a quarter of a fee, and paid 10s. scutage, formerly John de Cockfeld's, and William Athelwald's. Thomas Athelwald of Weston, passed by fine to James, son of Edmund Athelwald of South Creak, and Joan his wife, two messuages, a toft, and 80 acres of land, and to the heirs of James; in the 3d of Edward III. and in the 7th of Henry V. Richard Athelwald of this town was lord, who married Maud, cousin and heir of Beatrix Molebisse, and Mary de Bassing, foundresses of Spincey priory in Cambridgeshire.

On the 3d of April, in the 26th of Henry VIII. Edward Calthorp of Kirby-Cane in Norfolk, Esq. and Thomasine his wife, sold the manor of Roses in this town, Holkham, &c. which Mrs. Elizabeth Calthorp, widow of William Calthorp, Esq. held for life, with the reversion of all the lands held by her, to John Pepys of South Creak, merchant; she was daughter of Ralph Berney of Redham. Thomas Pepys his son, by his will dated October 1, 1569, desires to be buried in this church; bequeaths to John and Roger his sons, to Susan, Eliabeth, Anne, and Barbara his daughters 40*l.* each, to be paid by Farmer Pepys, his son and heir, and executor. This Thomas sold this manor, July 20th, in the 8th of Elizabeth; but his son Farmer bought it by deed, dated September 30th, in the 12th of Elizabeth, of Edward Goulding, and Mirabel his wife.

The PEDIGREE of PEPYS.

CASTLEACRE-PRIORY MANOR.

In the 3d of Richard I. William, son of Matthew de Candos, gave 17s. rent in Creie; Philip de Candos gave Ringulfwith his tenure, Uschettill with his tenure, Bond the priest, and Letstane his companion,<sup>7</sup> with their tenures, in this town, with several others here.—Witnesses, William his son, who consented to the grant, and laid the deed on the altar of St. Mary, in the sight of many, Ralph de Roseto, Ralph de Crec, &c.; and by another deed, wherein he styles himself Philip de Crec, he grants the same things for himself, and Ralph de Roseto, of whose fee it was, Andrew, son of Walter de Suthereke, Alice, daughter of Ulf de Creke, and mother of Robert, son of Andrew de Creke, granted lands here.

Bartholomew de Creke gave the monks a villain; Robert, son of Hyrdman of Creie, gave several pieces of land here to the convent.—Witnesses, Sir Hugh Bastard, Hosebert de Cailli, Yvan, son of Athelwold, and William his son.

Wiltiam, son of Philip de Bodham, gave a villain, with a croft, to hold freely, saving the King's service, and paying to the ward of Dover castle 9d. q.

Baldwin de Rosei a mill and land here; Osmund de Candos 5s. rent, &c.

At the Dissolution, Thomas, prior of Castleacre, and the convent, in Michaelmas term in the 29th of Henry VIII. convey it<sup>a</sup> to Thomas Regist. Castleacre fol. 42, 43.

Duke of Norfolk, with the appropriated rectory, and the patronage of the vicarage, of this church;  Ao. 15th of Elizabeth, license was granted to Francis Pepys to alien it to Richard Percy and Edmund Russel; and September 1, in 22d of James I. Robert Drury aliened it to Edward Fotherby.

By an inquisition taken October 23, in the 14th of Charles I. Henry Beke, Gent. was found to die August 21, 1638, possessed of this manor and impropriation, held of the lordship of Beaufoes in soccage.

The church was a rectory, valued in 1428 at 85 marks; Ralph, son of Ralph de Beaufo, gave it with all its tithes, lands, and homages, to Castleacre priory, for the soul's health of King Henry I. who brought him up, and that of his lord, King Henry II. his grandson, with the meadow at Barsham, and his wood at Stibberd. Witnesses, John, prior of Sporte, Henry, the dean of Fakenham, &c. Thomas de Beaufo confirmed, 29th Henry II. all his right therein for the souls of the said Kings, and his father Ralf:—witnesses, William de Bodham, Robert de Cherevill, &c. and Ralph de Beaufo, son of Thomas, confirmed the grant of Ralf his grandfather and Thomas his father, with all obventions:—witnesses, Simon de Puteshill, Henry, archdeacon of Sleaford, James de Poterna, Richard de Muchegross, Ralf de Stokes, Richard de Gosfeld, &c. they were itinerant justices in the reign of King Henry III. in Norfolk. Gilbert de Beaufo (reciting, that whereas there had been a controversy between him and the monks of Castleacre, about the said church) resigned all his right by the Bishop's advice, and sealed them a deed thereof:—witnesses, Roger, the archdeacon, Reginahl de Warren, Ralph de Roseto: and, by another deed, he gave them two parts of the tithes of the demean of his brother. It seems that Alexander, prior of Scheldford (in Nottinghamshire, as I take it) had some grant formerly from this family of the patronage of this church, and had the Pope's bull directed to the abbots of Leicester, of Geronden, with the official of the archdeacon of Leicester, as delegates or judges, who finding the invalidity of their title, released by deed, sans date, to the convent of Castleacre, all their right therein.—The abbot and convent of Creke quit-claimed all their right in the advowson,  Ao. 17th Edward II.

The CHURCH is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and was valued with the vicarage at 85 marks.

The vicarage is valued at 22*l.* formerly at 28 marks.

In the chancel is a mural monument:

In memory of Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Gawsell, Kt. wife of John Shene, clerk, who died 1653.

On a gravestone, with a brass plate, in the nave:

Hic jacet Johs. Felbrigg, Clericus, nuper pyebendarius de Wherwell, et persona ecclie. de Colleshale, q. obt. 1417.—

On another,

Orat. p. aiab; Johs. Norton et Christiane consortis sue, obiit 1509.

In the church formerly; p. pale, azure and gules, a lion rampant, ermin; Norwich.

Thomas Denys wills, March 28th, 1457, to be buried in the church.

The temporalities of Coxford priory in 1428, valued at 12*d.* per annum.

The priory of Hempton had 7 acres, which in the 43d of Elizabeth, Thomas Fermor, Esq. of East-Barsham, &c. demised to Richard Norton, Gent. of South Creke.

DUNTON AND DOKETON.

DUNTON, so called, as seated on a hill, was a beruite to the King's manor of Fakenham, at the survey, belonging to Herold in the Confessor's time, and when he was King of England. It then contained one carucate of land, six bordarers, &c. two servi, one carucate in demean, and one amongst the men; four acres of meadow, a mill, &c. Sixteen socmen had one carucate, and five bordarers, and there were then eight carucates, at the survey but one. This was valued under Fakenham, and was one leuca long, half a one broad, and paid 1 sd gelt.<sup>8</sup> In this account, Doketon, or Docton, is included as an hamlet, or part of the manor of Dunton, and so not mentioned in the survey, or Doomsday Book.

King Henry II. is said to have given this town, with Doketon and Kettleston, to Ralph de Hauville, to be held by petit serjeanty, the keeping of the King's hawks or falcons; and in another record, it is said by keeping of two ger-falcons for the King. This Ralph was a knight, and had a son Sir Ralph, who wrote himself sometimes De Hauville, and sometimes De Dunton, according to the practice and custom of that age; and by his deed sans date, granted to Roger, son of Gilbert de Dunton, lands here, to which Hugh de Pinkeny was witness, &c. His seal was of green wax:—party per pale; in chief, a label of 4 points, and was the founder of the priory of Mirmounde in Upwell, in the isle of Ely, to which he gave the churches of Dunton cum Doketon, and Kettleston, with lands in Lincolnshire, which grant was confirmed by King John, May 9th, in his fifth year. Of this family were Henry and Hugh de Hauville; and King John, in his 6th year, ordered the bailiffs of several ports to secure all the hawks and ger-falcons which should be brought beyond sea, till the said Henry and Hugh should chose what they thought fit for the King's use; and no one was allowed to buy any till this was done. About the same time lived Walter de Hauville, who held 60s. rent in land, at Hallingbury, in Essex, by serjeanty, and keeping the King's falcons.

In the 3d of King John, Sir Ralph had 10*l.* per ann. towards keeping the King's hawks; and in the 2d of Henry III. Henry de Hauvile was lord, son of Sir Ralph; in which year Ralph de Jernemue (Yarmouth) conveyed to him by fine all his right in the lastage of Norfolk, Suffolk, and Lincoln; and in the following year, Gilbert and Ralph de Hauvile had a mandate to bring the King's ger-falcons in their custody safe to court, signed by Hubert de Burgo, the chief justice; and in the said year a fine was levied between John de Derham, and Hawise his wife, late widow of Philip de Hauvile, and Ralph de Hauvile, of her dower here, &c. when Ralph assigned them lands in Bildeston, in Suffolk, for life, who released lands here to Ralph; and the said King, in his 5th year, directed his precept to the bailiffs of Dunwich, to deliver to Ralph, son of Henry de Hauvill, and Margaret his wife, all the lands and houses in that town which were Richard de Dunwich's, son of Robert, deceased, whose daughter and heir she was.

Hugh de Dunton impleaded, in the 34th of that King, Henry de Hauvile for taking his swans from his pool in Doketon, and carrying them to Dunton; and it was adjudged that he should make satisfaction, and permit Hugh to have the fishery in the water of Doketon, from Hugo's mill to the mill of Henry; Reiner de Dunton was found to be grandfather of Hugh, bailiff of Henry, and Ralph was father of Hugh. This Henry was found, in the 37th of the said King, to die seized of this lordship, that of Hacomby in Lincolnshire, Linsford Parva in Bucks, and that Henry his grandson was his heir, aged one year, son of Ralph: it appears that this Henry had two wives; by his first wife, Ellen, he had Ralph his son (father of Henry, a minor) also Thomas and Henry; and by his 2d wife a son, aged 7 years; to his son Thomas he gave the lordships of Rainham, and this town, who died seized of it in the 51st of the said King, and in the said year, Mr. William de Clifford, eschaetor, accounted for 15*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.* of the issues of this lordship with Doketon, &c.

In the 3d of Edward I. Thomas de Havyle was found to have the lete, and paid 20*l.* relief to the King;<sup>9</sup> and in the 30th of that King, he is said to have a capital messuage in Dunton, 378 acres of land, 6 of meadow, a fishery, with a watermill, &c.; and in the 8th of Edward II. Sir Thomas Hauvile enfeoffed Thomas his son in this lordship, and that of Rainham, valued at 20*l.* paying 18*s.* per ann. and keeping the King's ger-falcons at the King's cost.

Sir Thomas de Havile, Knt. by his deed dated in the 4th of Edward III. sold lands in Kettleston to John Temper, Gentleman, and Cecily his wife. I mention this, it being (as far as I remember) the first time that I have seen the addition of Gentleman in any deed.

After this it was possessed by James de Hauvile, son of Henry, in the 11th of Edward III. in which year he married Ann, daughter of Sir William, or James de Wace, and was then conveyed to James by Sir Robert Tyffour, and Maad his wife, late wife of Sir Thomas Hauvile; and in the 20th of that King, Sir James was with the King in Gascoine, and had letters of protection, and about this time is said to have sold this lordship to Sir Robert Tyffour, who aliened it to John de Wescobara, who conveyed it to Adam Chaunger, citizen of London, and he aliened it to Sir Robert Knollys, and Constance his wife.

<sup>9</sup> Sir Thomas, by his seal to a deed in dauncy, between 3 falcons; in allusion to the 11th of this reign, bore, a fess, his office of being falconer to the King.

Sir Robert had a grant of free warren in the 2d of Richard II. and on June 15th, in the 10th of that King, he enfeoffed Robert Braybrook Bishop of London, Sir John Cobham, Knt. John Drex, clerk, and John Seymour of London, of this and several other lordships, for settling it on his hospital at Pontefract in Yorkshire, as was accordingly performed, and the master of the said hospital, &c. presented as lord to the vicarage of Dunton cum Doketon.

On the dissolution of the said hospital, it was granted, May 17th, in the 3d of Edward VI. to Sir William Farmor, and Sir Richard Fulmerston, Knts. with the advowson of the vicarage and the impropriated rectory; and the said Sir William died seized of it in 1558. Thomas Farmor of East Barsham, Esq. had livery of it, in or about the said year, and on September 8th, in the 37th of Elizabeth, sold the same to Edward Coke, Esq. the Queen's attorney-general; and his immediate heir, the Right Honourable Thomas Coke Earl of Leicester died lord of Dunton cum Doketon.

In the chancel, a marble grave-stone:

In memory of Matthew Lancaster, of Dunton, Gent. eldest son and heir of Matthew Lancaster, descended from John Lancaster, the first of that race in England, and first founder of Lancaster, from whom issued 50, or more, Knights, Esqrs.; and Gentlemen of Quality, some dignified by their honourable marriages into noble families, the rest, or most of them, in their several marriages, equalizing, if not exceeding their own rank and pedigree, died———1658.

In the reign of Edward I. the prior of Meremoude had the rectory of this church, being appropriated to it; it had a manse, and 30 acres of land, and to the rectory of Doketon there belonged a manse, with half an acre, and the vicarage at 5 marks. Peter-pence 13*d.* ob.

Thomas de Havyle was then patron of the rectory of Doketon, or Doughton; the rector had a manse with half an acre of land, but was not valued. Peter-pence 4*d.* The present valor of both is 5*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

It appears from a curious record,<sup>2</sup> that Thomas de Havile, son of Sir Thomas, son of Sir Ralf de Dunton, or Havile, was lord of Dunton and Doketon, and patron of both these churches, and that Sir Henry his son, as lord, presented Henry de Taterset to the vicarage of Dunton, with the chapel (as then called) of Dokton annexed to it; and in the time of this lord, Henry, both these churches were endowed and separated, and the right of presentation granted to the said Henry; the pension that the prior of Miremound had of 10 marks per ann. in them, being excepted in this: his grandfather, Sir James de Havele, son of Henry, was lord and patron, who conveyed his right in the same to Sir Robert de Tyfford, who presented to the vicarage of Dunton, with the chapel of Dokton annexed. Tyfford aliened his right to John de Wescnham, as John did to Adam Chounger, citizen of London, and Adam, to Sir Robert Knolls and Constance his wife. The said Sir Robert settled it on his trustees, Robert Braybrook Bishop of London, &c. on his founding the hospital at Pontfract in Yorkshire. About this time the prior of Miremound, pretending the right of presentation to be in him, presented John de Cavenham, but the prior's right being set aside, Simon de Bodcar was presented by Bishop Braybrook, &c. and instituted to the said churches, by Henry Spencer Bishop of Norwich; and by an inquisition taken May 19th, 1411, it was found that the right of patronage was in the master and fellows of the college, or, &c. of the Holy Trinity of Pontfract, Knolles hospital or college; and that the vicarage of Dunton cum Doketon was valued at 5 marks per ann.

WAS the lordship of William Earl Warren, and held of him by Walter; Toke, a great Saxon thane, held it in the reign of the Confessor, who was dispossessed at the conquest. It contained 2 carucates of land, 29 bordarers, and 2 servi, there were 2 carucates in demean, and 4 amongst the men, &c. 16 acres of meadow, a mill, 1 runcus, or beast for carriage, with 5 cows, 180 sheep, 40 goats, 1 bees-skep, and a church not endowed with any land, valued before the conquest at 40s. and at the survey at 60s.; the whole was 4 furlongs long and broad, and paid 12*d.* gelt.<sup>3</sup>

The family of the Grancourts were early enfeoff of this manor: Walter, son of William de Grancourt, was lord in 11th year of King John, when he gave to the King a good hawk, to be exempted from being put on any assise, except between barons,<sup>4</sup> this Walter was probably descended from that Walter who held it at the survey; and in the 14th of that King, William de Bellomonte gave to the King 60 marks, to have the custody of Walter de Grancourt, who was indicted for killing a man, but was rectus in curia, in the 3d of Henry III. when he gave a mark to have a pone against William de Burham, and held in this town, Crokeston, and Clipstan, one fee and 3 quarters, of the Earl Warren; and in the following year he granted to Robert, the prior of Castleacre, &c. by fine, the advowson of this church, or rather confirmed it, being granted before by Hugh de Grancourt, his ancestor.

William de Grancourt was lord in the 45th of Henry III. and in the 52d of that king, was a witness to several writs, (being then, as I take it, chief baron of the Exchequer,) dated November 21, directed to the sheriff of Norfolk, and several other sheriffs, reciting, that whereas the King had great occasion for money, by reason of his foreign and domestic affairs, that as he would avoid corporal punishment, loss of his goods, and the King's anger, he should speedily pay 400 marks of the money, due on the summons of the last iter of the justices, in that county, otherwise he should know that the King would chastise his neglect in such a manner, that his punishment should teach others how to perform the King's commands.

In the 31st of Edward I. Edmund de Mumpinon was querent in a fine, and Thomas de Grancourt deforciant, of the 3d part of this manor, granted to Edmund with 6*l.* per ann. rent, and in the next year Thomas de Grancourt, and Agnes his wife, conveyed by fine to Walter de Langton Bishop of Coventry and Litchfield, 23 messuages, a mill, 5 carucates of land, 40 acres of meadow, 200 of pasture, 8 of wood, with 6s. rent in this town, Crokeston, Clypston, Kettleston, Woodnorton, Geyst, and Styberd, with two parts of the manor of Fulmodeston, and the advowson of the church of Kettleston, except 6*l.* per ann. rent here, all granted to the Bishop, who gave to Thomas and Agnes, the lordships of Aspal and Debenham in Suffolk; and in the 35th of the said King, Giles de Monpincun and Christiana his wife, conveyed to the said Bishop the 3d part of this manor by fine, with the 6*l.* per ann. rent.

In the 8th of Edward II. Humphrey de Bohun Earl of Essex and Hereford, and Elizabeth his wife, were querents, and John parson of Snoring Parva deforciant, of 21 messuages, 5 carucates of land, and 2 parts of this manor, settled on Humphrey and Elizabeth; and Walter de Langton Bishop of Coventry, &c. conveyed to the said Earl, in the 12th of the aforesaid King, 18 messuages, 2 carucates of land, with 10*l.* rent in this town, Chipston, Croxton, and Kettleston, with the third part of this manor; the Earl settling an annual rent of 30*l.* on the Bishop, for life. And Humphrey de Bohun Earl of Hereford, &c. in the 46th of Edward III. dying possessed of it, left 2 daughters and coheirs, Eleanor, afterwards wife to Thomas of Woodstoke Duke of Gloucester, 6th son to King Edward III. and Mary, wife afterwards to Henry Earl of Derby, who was King of England by the name of Henry IV. which Thomas Duke of Gloucester died lord in the 21st of Richard II. when it should have descended to Edmund Stafford Earl of Stafford, who married Anne,<sup>5</sup> one of the 2 daughters, and at length sole heir to the said Duke; but Henry Earl of Derby, &c. possessed it in right of Mary, his wife, and King Henry V. and VI. were also lords; it remained in the Crown till King Richard III. in his first year, granted it to Henry Stafford Duke of Bucks, on July 13th, who being soon after beheaded, (as a rebel against the said King,) at Salisbury, it was again in the Crown.

On the 7th of March, in the 1st of King James I. Sir Edward Coke had a grant to farm it at 37*l.* per ann. and the manor has been some time in that family, the Earl of Leicester being the late lord.

The tenths were 4*l.* deduct 40s.—This town and Croxton paid to the lord of the hundred, lette fee 2s.

The CHURCH of Fulmodeston is dedicated to St. Mary. In the reign of Edward I. the prior of Castleacre had the patronage; the rector had a manse in the village of Croxton, (which belonged to this parish,) with 20 acres of land, but the rector was subject to an annual payment of 13 marks, to that priory; the rectory, with the chapel of Crokstone, was valued at 15 marks, the prior of Castleacre had also a portion of tithes of 20s. Peter-pence 2s.

Hugh de Grancourt gave the patronage to Castleacre priory, and Henry I. confirmed it before the death of Bishop Herbert.

<sup>5</sup> It appears that Edmund Earl of Stafford held it in right of Anne his wife, and Sir William Bouchier, (who afterwards married the said Anne) in the 5th of Henry IV. but soon after it was in the Crown, on a partition of the lands of Tho. of Woodstock.

The patronage is now in Corpus Christi Coll. Cambridge.

C R O X T O N.

IN the reign of King Edward, this was a village held by Toke, who being ejected, it was granted at the Conquest to the Earl of Warren; it consisted of 1 carucate of land, and 4 freemen had a carucate and 4 acres of meadow, and was valued in Fulmodeston; here was also a church, but not endowed with any land; it was two furlongs long, and one broad, and paid 12*d.* gelt.<sup>6</sup>

It had always the same lords as Fulmodeston; William de Grancourt held it in the 3*d* of Henry III. and in that year, William, son of Roger de Huntingfeld, gave lands here to the priory of Castleacre, on his founding the monastery of Mendham in Norfolk.

It is now, and has been for many years, accounted as an hamlet to Fulmodeston, and the Earl of Leicester died lord.

Sir Walter de Grancourt signified to Pandulf Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of King John, by letters testimonial, that he had released to the monks of Castleacre, all his right in the church of Crockston, to be enjoyed by the parson of Fulmodeston, presentable by that convent.

On May 17, in the 3*d* year of Edward VI. Sir William Fermer, Knt. and Sir Richard Fulmodeston, had a grant of the advowson of Fulmodeston and Croxton.

THE CHAPEL, or CHURCH, is a single pile, with a chancel covered with thatch, without a steeple, and dedicated to St. John the Baptist, and the prior of Castleacre, as patron of the rectory, was patron of it; and the rector had a manse here, with 30 acres, and was valued with Fulmodeston. *Peter-pence 5*d.

On the north wall of the chancel, is a mural monument of white

CLIPSTON.

This was an hamlet to Fulmodeston, held also by Toke, and after by the Earl Warren, who had 4 socmen, who held lands of him; it went with the manor of Fulmodeston. Walter de Grancurt was lord in the 3d of Henry III. and in the 12th of that King purchased of Jeffery de Leonibus, one carucate of land here, by fine.<sup>7</sup>

Lete fee to the lord of the hundred was 6d.

FAKENHAM,

AT the compiling of Domesday book, was in the King's hands, Herold was lord of it in King Edward's reign, and also when he was King of England; but being slain in the battle of Hastings, it came to William the Conqueror. Two carucates of land belonged to it, 5 villains, and 20 bordarers, with 4 servi; there were 2 carucates in demean, and 4 amongst the men, &c. 5 acres of meadow, 3 mills, the moiety of a saltwork, &c. Several beruites belonged to it, or it extended into these following townships, &c. Alatorp, Torpaland, Stanhou, Stabyrda, Creik, Barsham, Snaring, Katestuna, and Norton, of which we shall treat in their place. In King Edward's time it was worth 8*l.* per ann. at the survey 43*l.* was 7 furlongs long, and 3 and a half in breadth, and paid 12*d.* gelt.<sup>8</sup>

Probably the river on which this town stands, might, in the Saxon age, be callen Fa; Ken always denotes a stream of water or river: thus Kennet, Kenfard; and frequently occurs, as Ham does for a dwelling. There are two towns in Suffolk called Fakenham.

Some ancient records say, that King William II. called Rufus, gave this great lordship to Hugh Capel, to be held by two knights fees, and that it descended to his son Hugh, and grandson Walter, and so to his daughters: Others say, that his name was Hugh Symered, that he was enteoffed of it by King Henry I. and that on the death of Walter Symered his son, it reverted or escheated to the Crown, and King John granted it to William de Albiny Earl of Arundel, who was lord about the 7th of that King.

In the 25th of Henry III. Hugh Earl of Arundel was summoned to restore to the King this lordship, with that of Whaddon in Buckinghamshire, as escheats belonging to the Normans; on which the Earl pleaded, that he held not Fakenham entire, but that Reginald de St. Martin held one mill and 7 acres of marsh, and that he also paid to the prior of Castleacre 4*s.* per ann.; he was ordered to give a second plea, when he pleaded that his father and brother were seized of it, that the King gave him also livery of it; and he added, that when Normandy was lost, the Earl his father, who was there with King John, lost all his lands there; who being willing to recompense him in part of his loss, gave him Fakenham and Whaddon, and received his homage, promising, that as soon as he was possessed of Normandy, to restore his lands lost there, or give him as many lands there to make up the value; and that he had letters of seisin of this manor, and that of Whaddon. The chancery rolls being searched, it appeared, that in the 9th of King John, the sheriff of Norfolk had a command to deliver to William Earl of Arundel, the manor of Fakenham, which Al. de Morvil, or Marhil had, and was committed to him to keep till the King could restore to him his land in Normandy; and in the same manner it was commanded the sheriff of Bucks; but it appears, that in the said year Beatrix Countess of Provence in France had a grant of it for life; and in the following year a grant of a fair here. From the Countess it came to Alianore, Queen Consort to King Henry III. It was found in the 3d of Edward I. that this village, before it came into the hands of the Countess, and Queen aforesaid, paid shire scot to Gallow hundred lete, and the bailiff of that lete received 35*d.* of the inhabitants here, with the homage of Althorp, Snoring Parva, &c. Alianore, the King's mother, held it at this time, had the assise, and other liberties.

King Edward II. on the 11th of October, in his third year, gave it to Gilbert Earl of Clare, who dying without issue in the 7th of the said King, it was granted in the following year to David de Strabolgi

Earl of Athol, with the advowson, till the lands of the said Earl, in Scotland, could be restored to him.<sup>2</sup>

On the 8th of February, in the 5th of Edward III. Robert de Ufford Earl of Suffolk had a grant of it; but soon after, about the 6th of that King, Isabel Queen dowager; who died seized of it in his 32d year.

In the 38th of this King, it was found on a pleading in Easter term, that the inhabitants of this town were not obliged to repair the causey, called Brig mill-dam, then broke down; and an assise was brought in the 43d of Henry III. on account of the mill-pool's being raised too high.

Sir Robert Knolles is said, with his lady Constantia, to have an interest herein, in the 45th of the said King, in which year the lady died.

But the King, in his 46th year June 25th, gave it to his son, John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, and on his death it came to his son Henry IV. King of England, and Duke of Lancaster, and continued in the Crown till granted about the reign of King Charles I. to the Farmers of Barsham-East, or the Calthorps.

Sir Christopher Calthorp died seized of it, and by his heirs it came to the L'Estranges, Sir Henry L'Estrange, Bart. being the late lord.

Sir Henry Spilman is surprised to find that a salina, or salt-pit, should, in Domesday Book, be mentioned as a part of this lordship, being six miles from the sea; but it is to be observed, that this salina lay in some place on the sea belonging to Herold, and after to him, when King; thus Necton, a town above 12 miles from the nearest part of the sea, had a salina, which lay at Lyn; Herold was lord of Necton, and had a fee in Lyn, which Ralph de Tony enjoyed at the survey.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. lands here belonging to Hempton priory were granted by the King, September 9th, to Sir William Fermor, and the Lady Catherine his wife.

In the 7th of James I. May 30th, Fakenham mill, and a parcel of land called Halthmore, and a warren there, &c. granted to Edmund Ferrers and Francis Philips, paying 5*l.* 10*s.* per ann.

Tenths were 9*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.*—Deducted 22*s.*

THE CHURCH is a regular large pile, having a nave, a north and south isle, covered with lead, and a chancel covered with tiles; at the west a tower with 6 bells, and is dedicated to St. Peter; the ancient valor was 100 marks, and the present valor of this rectory is 35*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and pays first fruits and tenths.

Round the cover of the font is;

Orate pro aia. Ade Ploewryte, et Alicie uxoris ejus, et omnium benefactor. suor. qui istud opus fieri fecerunt in honore Dei omnipotentis. Amen.

On the S sides of the stone bason or font are several religious emblems, viz. of an angel, ox, lion, and eagle, to represent the 4 Evangelists; also that of the Trinity, a cross, crown of thorns, the King's arms; also on the pillar of it, the letter H, or L, in an old character, and a crown over it, to represent it as being in the dutchy of Lancaster, or built in King Henry the VIth's reign.

In the middle isle lie several grave-stones disrobed of their brasses:

Margaret, wife of Isaac Payn, Gent. daughter of William Harridence, late of Fakenham, Gent. died November 10. 1699.

On the belfry, which was built and painted at the charge of one Salman, are the arms of Gourney; also, or three escutcheons, azure, each charged with a lion rampant, argent.

The east end of the south isle has been an old chapel; on the pavement lies a black marble:

In memory of Rice Gwin, Esq. and Mary his wife, she died June 13, 1727, aged 66;—and this shield, gules, a chevron, between three lions rampant, or; Gwin, impaling, as I take it, Hammond, on a chevron, voided three doves.

And in the said isle, a gravestone:

In memory of James Smith, secretary to the Lord Townsend, who died 1713; with this shield;—a fess, wavy, between three lions gambes erect, and erased.

At the east end of the north isle, being an ancient chapel dedicated to St. Mary, (so called 1441,) lies a gray marble stone:

Orate p. aia. Ric. Betteson Capellani, qui obt. x. die mensis Febr. Ao. Dom. M.CCCC.XCV.

On a black marble gravestone, with the arms of Calthorpe, in a lozenge:

Catherine, 3d daughter of Sir Christopher Calthorpe of East-Bursham, Kt. of the Bath, and dame Dorothy died 19th of September, 1717, aged 47.

Near this a gravestone:

In memory of James Calthorpe, Esq; eldest son of Sir Christopher, born June 9th, 1673, died June 24, 1696.

Also on a gravestone; quarterly, Calthorpe and Leukenor, argent, three chevrons, azure, impaling Spring, argent, on a chevron, ingrailed between three mascles, gules, as many cinquefoils, or:

In memory of Sir Christopher Calthorpe, Kt. of the Bath, and the last survivor of 68 knights, companions of that honorable order, eldest son of James Calthorpe, and Katherine his wife, daughter of Sir Edward Lukenor of Denham, in Suffolk, Kt. he died Febr. 7, 1717, aged 75 years.

Adjoining, one:

In memory of dame Dorothy, daughter of Sir William Spring of Pakenham in Suffolk, Bt. wife of Sir Christopher Calthorpe, from the 19th of September. 1664, to the 7th of February 1715; mother of 14 children, of which 6 daughters, and all the sons, deceased before her.

Against the north wall is a mural monument, with the arms of Calthorpe. Opposite to this monument, on the south side of the isle:

Lyeth the body of Christopher Calthorpe, Esq. grandson of Sir Christopher Calthorpe, Kut. of the Bath. The loss of a youth of such promising parts and ingenuity, and the last heir male of this elder branch of that antient family, can never be enough lamented: He died of a violent fever at the school of St. Edmund's, Bury, the 6th day of November, 1720, aged 13 years and one day.

In the middle of the chancel lies a large gray marble stone, whereon has been the portraiture of a priest in brass, and a rim of brass round; the upper part of the portraiture was lately remaining, with part of the rim, and these words: sexti, qui obiit die Sabbati:—There have also been 4 shields, one at each corner, of which the two lowest only remain, viz. a pelican vulning himself, and two cross keys in saltire, round which, Aperite mihi portas justitie. I take this to be in memory of Henry Keys, admitted rector of this church in 1405, rector also of Massingham Magna, clerk of the King's Chancery, keeper of the hanaper, archdeacon of Norfolk, who died in or about 1428.

On the south side of the chancel are 3 stalls, or arches of stone, for the Bishop, archdeacon, and rector.

The church porch, by the date thereon, appears to be built in 1497.

In the churchyard, on the north side, near the burial place of the Calthorpe family, is an altar tomb, inclosed with iron rails:

In spem beatæ resurrectionis, sub hoc marmore conduuntur, reliquia Christopheri Calthorpe, Armigeri, filii Ati Christoph. Calthorpe de East Basham, in comit. Norf. militis Balnei, qui post longam valetudinem minus firmam, desiderium amicis, et flebilis omnibus animam Deo reddidit 7mo die Aug. Ao. Dom. 1713, anno atat. 32. with the arms of Calthorpe, impaling De Grey; azure, a fess, between three chevrons, or.

On an altar tomb in the churchyard, on the south side:

Hic jacet Johannes, quem propè dilecta sua Catherina Wortley, quos amor et ecclesia conjunxit; separavit, et rerum, et hominum edax, tempus, et tumulus rapuit. Hunc anno Domini 1665, etate integram. Hunc anno Dni. 1695, senectute fractum vicit, facilis victoria. Veniet, veniet tamen dies, quæ raptam dabit, quæ victum, invictum reddet. Vis plura lector, scias honestis ortas parentibus, et quondam hujus loci, nunc beatioris incolas.

In this church were the lights of St. Peter in the upper cross, St. Paul, the Trinity of the lower cross in the nave of the church, of the Virgin in her chapel, St. John Baptist, St. James, St. Anne in the south part of the church, St. Mary de la Pity, St. Peter on the pillar, St. Osith, St. Christopher, St. Mary in the wall, the Trinity on the pillar against our Lady in the wall; St. Andrew, St. Erasmus, St. Catherine, St. Mary Magdalen, St. Margaret; and in 1492, here was the light of good King Henry, which I take to be of Henry VI. esteemed a saint, &c. and burning by his image.

Also the guilds of St. Peter, of the Trinity, St. Mary, St. Anne, St. Syths, St. James.

Also the chapels of St. Mary, St. Thomas the Martyr.

William Rawlyns bequeaths to the building, or work of the church, in 1455, 20s. and to that of the tower 20s.

John Coole, by his will dated 1494, desires to be buried in the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr, and gives his messuage in Fakenham mercate, with the garden, &c. 60 acres of lands, and a cottage, called Barbour's, to be sold with a close, called Fox-yerd, to find a priest in St. Thomas's chapel for his soul, &c.

I find the church porch to be used as a magazine for the hundred of Gallow in 1602; and on the 23d of June in that year, xxviii lb. of powder, xxix lb. and xxiii lb. to be lodged there, with quantities of matches, pickaxes, axes, &c.

Walter Symered, by deed sans date, gave to the monks of Castleacre his mill, called Brige-mill; and Odo, prior of Castleacre, granted it to Reinald de St. Martin, and his heirs, to be held at the yearly rent of 42s.

ALTHORP

WAS at the survey a beruite belonging to the King's manor of Fakenham, as it did in King Herold's time, containing one carucate of land, 3 bordarers, one servus; in demean, one carucate, two bovates, and two acres of meadow amongst the men, or tenants.<sup>9</sup>

This is now a small hamlet lying about two miles to the north-east of Fakenham, and continues part of that lordship at this time.

The inhabitants pay both great and small tithes to the rector of Fakenham, and come to that church; formerly I find there was a chapel dedicated to All-Saints, belonging to it, standing in 1419, and was charged separately for tenths at 20s. In Edward the First's reign, here were 80 houses with their families, and they baptised and buried here, and here was the gild of All-Saints.

THORPLAND.

THIS also at the survey was a beruite, belonging to the King's lordship of Fakenham, &c. and here was a carucate of land, and one carucate, and one servus.<sup>1</sup>

This little hamlet lies about two miles north of Fakenham; I meet with old evidences mentioning Thorpland-Hall, a small lordship, depending on that of Fakenham. Richard Dendenev of East Barsham, chaplain, confirmed to Margaret, relict of John de Thorpland, all his rent, homages of his tenants here, &c. in the 20th of Edward III.

In a record of the 10th of Henry IV. it appears, that by an inquisition taken before the eschaetor, Sir John Le Strange, Knt. it was found, that Roger de Lenne gave a messuage, 100 acres of land, 10 of meadow and pasture, and 10s. rent, with a foldcourse in Fakenham, Thorpland, and Althorp, to be amortised to Thorpland chapel; on condition to find a chaplain to pray for the soul of the said Roger, which was done (as said) without the King's license.

Afterwards the Farmers possessed Thorpland Hall, and Thomas Farmer, Esq. held it in fee farm of Queen Elizabeth, as part of the dutchy of Lancaster, as did Sir Christopher Calthorp, who lived here in 1680, as appears from several of his letters here dated, and so came to the L'Estranges.

In Register Hyrning, amongst the Will-Books at Norwich, it appears that this chapel of Thorpland was dedicated to St. Thomas, and that there was a cemetery belonging to it, in 1419. Robert Bateman, chaplain of Fakenham, gave in 1492, 6s. 8d. to the repair of it, and there was the gild of St. Thomas of Thorpland: the rector of Fakenham had obventions, great and small.<sup>2</sup>

On the 30th of July, in the 9th of King James I. the King grants to Francis Morice, of Westminster, Esq. and Francis Philips, of London, Gent. this chapel, then a barn, in the tenure of Jerome Alexander, Gent.; and in the said year, November 28, they conveyed it, with half an acre of land, whereon it stood, to Robert Bumpstead of Walsingham Parva; it was held then of the manor of East Greenwich, and in soccage, paying 2s. rent per ann.

The inhabitants of this hamlet go to Fakenham church, and pay great and small tithes to the rector.

In the reign of Edward I. it is said there were 90 parishioners in this hamlet, when there was a chaplain to serve the cure, but no sepulture, or baptism, belonged to it.

The rectory of Fakenham had a manse, with 40 acres of land belonging to it, in King Edward the First's reign, and paid Peter-pence 13d.

HEMPTON.

WILLIAM Earl Warren was lord of this village, at the survey, which was possessed by four freemen in King Edward's reign, who were ejected; half a carucate of land belonged to them, and they had 4 bordarers, who had a carucate; here was also a church endowed with one acre; the whole was valued then at 5s. per ann. at the survey at 8s.; it was 2 furlongs long and broad, and paid 4½*d.* gelt.<sup>3</sup>

The Britons called many rivers by the name of Anton, or Acon, and it is probable that the river, by which this town stands, was also so called; and the Saxons, retaining many of the said names, called them by corruption, or contraction, Au and Han; thus Hampshire, in Domesday Book, is wrote Hantshire, and thus South Hampton, &c.

Roger de St. Martin was lord in the reign of Henry I.

The ancient family of St. Martin were enfeoffed of it by the Earl Warren: Reginald de St. Martin, son of Richard de St. Martin, held here and in Tofts, a quarter of a fee of the Earl, in the 3d of Henry III.; Roger de St. Martin, son of Reginald, was lord in the 3d of Edward I.; of this family was Juliana, daughter of Richard de St. Martin, who married Richard, son of Eborard de Geist; and Richard de St. Martin occurs lord in the reign of Edward II.

In the 3d of Edward III. Sir John Bardolf and his parceners were found to hold one fee in this town, Waterden, Barsham, &c. In the said reign, Thomas de Milcham is said to have bought a little manor here, which by the marriage of his daughter and heir came to William Durant, Esq.

JOHN DE WOLVERTON of Barsham, &c. aliened in the first of Richard II. the manor of Hempton, with lands in Waterden, to the prior of Damsend, that is Hempton, so called, lying near to Fakenham river, or mill-dam, to the value of 10 marks, with the King's license; and the prior of Hempton was found in the 5th of Henry VI. to hold it, formerly Sir John Bardolf's.

On the 9th of September, in the 37th of Henry VIII. that King granted the prior's manor, with lands in Toftres, Sculthorpe, Fakenham, Pudding Norton, &c. to Sir William Farmer and the Lady Catherine, his wife, Thomas Farmer, Esq. his nephew, held it in the 6th of Edward VI. in capite, and sold it to Mr. Richard Benson, together with the priory, as may be there seen, &c.

The temporalities of Castleacre, in a mill called Brigg-Mill, were valued in 1428, at 42s. per ann.—The tenths were 2l. lete fee 6d.

A CHURCH, dedicated to St. Andrew, was standing in the 12th of Henry VII. and was a rectory appropriated to the priory, and granted with the manor; it was valued at 5 marks, and paid Peter-pence 5d. ob.

In the 4th of Edward I. Roger de St. Martin implicated the prior on account of the patronage of this church, and the prior pleaded, that William de St. Martin gave it to the priory.

HEMPTON PRIORY

Was at first an hospital, and afterwards a priory, founded by Roger de St. Martin, in the reign of King Henry I. for black canons of the order of St. Austin, and dedicated to St. Stephen. In the 2d year of King John, the archdeacon of Worcester (probably John de Brancaster) gave a palfrey to the King, for a fair to be held yearly on Tuesday in Whitsunday week, for the profit and use of the brethren of the hospital of St. Stephen, (as then called,) by the causeway of Fakenham; which fair is held at this time on Hempton Green, and is a considerable one.

PRIORS.

Simon was prior  Ao. 12th of Henry II.

Richard occurs prior, in the 54th of Henry III.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior had 2 marks per ann. rent, in Norton, alias Pudding Norton; and in the 27th of that King,

Guy Ferret occurs prior, and had divers tenements in Fakenham on the watercourse, down to the mill.

In 1301, Richard de Westacre, admitted prior.

Alan de Lenn, prior.

1339, Nicholas de Kettleston. Sir John Bardolfe of Maple Durham was patron of the priory in the reign of Edward III. and held (as it is said) the gross, or great manor of Hempton, late Richard de St. Martin's.

1386, John de Snoring, prior.

1393, John Pencthorp.

Robert Bernard of Sculthorp gave, about the 6th of Henry IV. to the chapel of St. Stephen, and the brethren serving God, lands in Sculthorpe, and they had the manor at Waterden.

John occurs prior in the 4th of Henry IV. and in 1428, their temporalities in this town were valued at 23s. 6d. per ann.

John occurs prior, about the 15th, and Richard occurs prior in the 17th and the 28th of Henry VI. when, on the feast-day of the conception of the blessed Virgin, he, with the convent, granted lands in Toftrys, under the common seal of the priory, in the chapter-house; which was of an oblong form, (of red wax,) as most religious seals, and the image of St. Stephen, standing in an arch, between 2 tapers, with this legend round it; Sigillum Commune Sancti Stephani de Hempton: and under this, the prior in an arch, kneeling.

Stephen Wighton, a canon of Westacre, was elected prior in 1451, and October 2d, confirmed by the Bishop.

By an indenture, made on Tuesday next after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, in 1461, between Nicholas, prior of Castleacre, &c. on one part, and Stephen, prior of the church of St. Stephen de Dammysende of Fakenham, on the other part.—Whereas the prior of Dammysende and his predecessors were seized of a water-mill, in Fakenham, called Briggemill, in demean, as of fee and right, &c. for which they paid to the prior of Castleacre, the yearly rent of 42s. it was agreed that the prior of Dammysende and his successors, should only pay the yearly rent of 20s.

In 1481, John de Lexham, alias Penton, admitted prior, and occurs in 1504.

King Edward IV. is said to be patron of the priory, in right of the duchy of Lancaster, held by him.

William Fakenham, prior.

John Sambrook occurs prior in the 21st of Henry VIII. and the priory then had lands at Upwell.

In 1534, Henry Salter occurs prior: he, with three canons, subscribed then, September 22, to the King's supremacy, and had a pension of 4*l.* per ann. and held it, 1553.

At the Dissolution it is said to be valued at 39*l.* 0*s.* 8*d.*; but in 1428, it appears that their spiritualities were valued at 68s. 8d. and their temporalities, at 29l. 2s. ob. per ann.—As Dugdale, valued at 32l. 14s. 8d. per ann.—As Speed, 39l. 0s. 9d.

Besides the fair abovementioned, another, on the vigil and feast of St. Martin, belonged to them, still kept, and remarkable for the sale of cattle,) and held in the 14th of Edward I. when the prior also claimed a mercate on Tuesday, at Hempton.

The site of this priory, with the rectory appropriated, and the manor, was granted (as abovementioned) by King Henry VIII. to Sir William Farmer, and the Lady Catherine his wife, and Thomas Farmer, his nephew, conveyed them to Richard Benson, Gent. in the 14th of Elizabeth, and Benson, to Matthew Gosnald, Gent. and he left it in jointure to his wife. Henry Gosnald, his son, sold the reversion to Sir Thomas Holland, of whom Nicholas Timperly, Gent. bought it.

The Lord Viscount Townsend is the present lord.

HELLOUGHTON, OR HELGHETON.

PART of this town was a beruite to the King's manor of Rainham, farmed of the King, at the survey, by Godric, of which Ulviet was deprived; six soemen held half a carucate of land, and there were 2 bordarers, with 2 carucates, and 2 acres of meadow; it was 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, paid 10d. gelt, and was valued with that of Rainham.<sup>4</sup>

HALGATUN, as this town was wrote, is compounded of Hal, or Al, and Ga, which signifies in Saxon, a town, all by the water.

This lordship remained in the Crown, till King Stephen gave it to William de Cheyney, in exchange for that of Mileham, on condition, that if he or his son liked Mileham better, he might then renounce this, which was soon after done; being thus again in the Crown, the said King granted it to the Hauvilles. See in Rainham, Hayvile's manor.

In the 2d year of King John, William de Hauville and Ralph de Erleham, came to an agreement, William giving it to Ralph, to be held of him and his heirs, by the service of paying 40s. per ann. William proving that his father and grandfather were seized of it in fee; and in the 30th of Edward I. Thomas de Hauville was found to die seized of it, as capital lord; in the 9th of Edward II. Juliana de Erleham, was returned as lady of this manor: in a computus of Nicholas Stokes, bailiff of this manor Ao. 21st of Edward IV. it was possessed by Roger Townsend, formerly by Sir John Snoring, Knt.; it came to the *Townsend*s probably on the marriage of the heiress of Hauvill, with the manor also of Rainham, and Sir Roger Townsend died possessed of it in 1551; in this family it continues, the Lord Viscount Townsend being the present lord.

ST. FAITH'S, OR HORSHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Peter Lord Valoine's manor of Snoring Parva extended into this, and there was one socman here, who held lands of him;<sup>5</sup> this came, as I take it, to Robert Lord Fitzwalter, by the marriage of Gunnora, daughter and heir of Robert de Valoines, who gave it to this priory; in the 9th of Edward II. the prior of St. Faith's was found to have a lordship here.

King Henry VIII. in his 35th year, December 3, granted it to Robert Townsend, serjeant at law, and Gyles Townsend, Esq. together with the appropriated rectory of this church, and the advowson of the vicarage; and on the 10th of that month, they conveyed it to Sir Roger Townsend, with the patronage of the vicarage, in which family it remains.

The Earl Warren had at the survey a socman here, who held 60 acres; with 8 bordarers, who held a carucate and an acre and half of meadow, the moiety of a mill, &c. valued at 5s.; this belonged to the fee of Frederic. The said Earl had also a socman, with 12 acres, and half a carucate: this is placed under Rudham, and Ralph, lord of Rudham, held this socman under the Earl.—Earl Warren had also of the fee of Frederic, a freeman here, on the same tenure as his predecessor, who could not leave his land without license, as the hundred could witness; and a certain man called Franco, belonging to Drogo de Beuraria, claimed his land as belonging to his lord Drogo's fee, delivered to him by the Conqueror; and that Heinfrid, his predecessor, held it in Frederic's time, and afterwards Drogo, as the hundred testifies; but the hundred could not judge of the right or delivery of it.<sup>6</sup>

A family who assumed their name from the town, was early enfeoffed of this, under the Earl Warren; Alan de Helgeton held part of a fee of the Earl, about the 18th of Henry III. and in the said reign, Walter Bernardeston had the 3d part of a fee. Henry de Helghton was returned as lord in the 3d of Edward I. and was then found to have made encroachments on the common; and Thomas de Helgeton occurs lord in the 14th of that King, and claimed view of frank-pledge, assise of bread and beer; and John de Helghton was lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Roger de Kerdeston died possessed of it, and of Sistern, in the 11th of Edward III. and Thomas de Shardelow, in the 14th of that King, held the 3d part of the fee, late Walter de Barnardeston's.

Sir William de Kerdeston died lord in the 36th of the said reign, and William was his son and heir; and Nicholas Payn, in the 50th of that King, had a lordship, and gave lands to John Chosele of Bruns-

But the principal manor, late Pain's, was in the Townsend's; and in the reign of Henry VIII. Sir Roger Townsend possessed it. It came, probably, into the family by the marriage of Sir Thomas Townsend, in the reign of Henry VI. with Agnes, daughter of William Payn, and in this family it remains.

Hugh de Monteforti had also at the survey a lordship, which belonged to Bond in King Edward's time; one socman held then half a carucate of land, and 8 bordarers a carucate, and two acres of meadow: this was valued and measured with his manor of South Rainham and was held afterwards by the families of Scales and Ingoldesthorp, as may be there seen; and came from them to the Townsend's, and is united to the other fees abovementioned.<sup>7</sup>

Walsingham priory temporalities were 3*s.* Hempton priory 2*s.* 3*d.* in 1428.

HOUGHTON,

So called from its situation, which signifies high town, was a beruite to the Earl Warren's manor of Rudham, and held of him by Simon, consisting of a carucate of land, held by 13 socmen, with all their customary dues; one carucate in demean, and one amongst the men, and 25 socmen in Rudham belonged to this lordship, with one carucate of land and an half, &c.; and in Houtone, one socman had 30 acres; there were under them 3 villains, and 3 bordarers, with one carucate, and a church, but not endowed.<sup>8</sup> This part was held by Ralph ———, ancestor of the family of De Caineto, or Cheyney, lord of Rudham. From the Cheyneys, it came by marriage to the Belets, and seems to be held under them first by the De Haveltons or Houghtons, and after by the Walpoles.

This ancient family of Walpole take their name from the town of Walpole in Mersland, in Norfolk, where they were enfeoffed of lands belonging to the see of Ely. Joceline de Walpole was living at Walpole in the reign of Richard I. and in the 1st of King John held the sixth part of a fee in Wisbeach, with half a knight's fee in Walpole, Walton, and Hakebeach, with an 100 acres of marsh land in Wisbeach (paying 10s. rent per annum) of the Bishop of Ely, and 6s. 2d. rent in salt; and Adam de Walpole paid the same rent in salt for lands, &c. Ralph, son of Joceline, and Roger his brother, held a virgate and an half in Walpole, paying 5s. 4d. and 26 combs of salt rent per ann. to the Bishop; and Adam de Walpole held half a virgate in Walpole, paying 12s.

Reginaldus de Walpole, who lived in the reign of Henry I. seems to be lineal ancestor of the present family, father of Richard de Walpole, who married Emma, daughter of Walter de Havelton, or Houton, son of William de Havelton, (who was lord of this town,) where this family of Walpole resided after this marriage; and Henry de Houton had an interest here about the end of Henry the Third's reign, and held one fee.

From Reginaldus descended Sir John de Walpole, Knt. who in the 14th of Henry III. on the King's sailing into Brittany, had letters of protection, being in the family or retinue of that King, was, by Isabel his wife, father of Sir Henry de Walpole, Knt. who held lands in Houghton, by the service of a quarter of a fee, of the Lord Bardolf, and that Lord of the Earl Warren, and other lands by the service of one fee (as said) of Blunminster fee. About the 50th of Henry III. he was a justice of gaol delivery, and sold lands by deed, sans date, to John de Spalding, (burgess of Lem.) in Tyrington, and sealed, as by his deed appears, with a fess, between two chevrons; the arms of the present Earl of Orford:—the witnesses were Sir William de Tyrington, and Sir John de Wygenhale, &c. He married Isabel, daughter of Sir Peter Fitz Osbert of Somerley town, sister and heir to Sir Roger Fitz Osbert, and was living in the 14th of Edward I. when a fine was levied between him and Asceline, daughter of Hugh Louud, or Lovard of Houghton, by Rulham:<sup>9</sup> and about the said time lived Ralph Walpole Bishop of Ely, who also bore the said arms.

In the 34th of Edward I. Isabella de Walpole was found to be one of the cousins and heirs of Roger Fitz-Peter Fitz-Osbert, and John son of Alice Negoun, was the other; she was afterwards (as it seems) the wife of Sir Walter Jernegan. Sir Henry de Walpole was his son: to him and Alice his wife, Mr. Robert de Saham, and others, trustees, granted two parts of this lordship, with lands in Walpole and Walton, and all the lands purchased by Sir Henry his father, of Asceline aforesaid, with the third part of this manor in reversion, which Isabel Jernegan, formerly the wife of Sir Henry his father, held in dower:—Witnesses, Sir Geff. de Colvile, Sir Walter de Calthorp, Sir Thomas de Snitterton, and Sir John de Fretton, Knts. dated November 30th, 4<sup>o</sup> Edward II. Sir Henry died about the 9th of Edward III. and Henry was his son and heir.

In the 11th of Edward III. William le Gross, parson of the church of Bentley Parva in Essex, as a trustee, settled this manor on Henry de Walpole, and Joan his wife, who was (as I take it) daughter of Sir Oliver le Gross of Crosthwick, or Sir John.

In the 7th of Richard II. Henry de Walpole, and Edmund his son were witnessess to a deed, and Henry was found to be cousin and heir of Sir John le Gross, Knt. and as such released all his right in his manors; and in the 3d of Henry IV. Henry, son of Sir Henry de Walpole, held one fee of the dutchy of Launcester, and one quarter of a fee of the Lord Bardolf. In 1407, Mo. 9, Henry IV. he was living, and styled Henry de Walpole, senior, Esq. and died about the 20th of Henry VI.

In the 10th of Henry VI. Henry de Walpole, his son, and Margaret his wife, were possessed of 10 marks rent issuing out of the manor of Hales-hall in Lodne; she was daughter of Sir John Harsike, Knt, of Southacre, and by the name of Henry Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, made his will on the feast of the Invention of the Holy Cross in 1442; " Gives to Catherine his daughter 40*l.* towards her marriage, and the " said sum to Alice his daughter, out of the profits of the manor of " Houghton; to Martin his son, under age, 4 marks per ann. for life, " and to have all the lands which Catherine his father's sister had of " the gift of his father Henry, deceased. Appoints Henry his son, " Edmund Percy, William Marchale, Esqrs. his executors, to hold the " manor of Houghton, to perform his will, and after the performance " of it, to Henry his son in tail-male, remainder to John his son; to " Henry his son, his manor in Walpole, with the appertenances, and " to John his son the manor of Istede in Suffolk." <sup>1</sup> He had three other sons, William Martin, and Thomas, and was buried according to his will in the church of St. Martin, of Houghton, by his wife; and his will was proved June 27, 1442. Henry, his eldest son, in the 34th of Henry VI. settled his manor of Walpole on trustees. He married, as I take it, an Etchingham, who bore, azure, fretty, argent; which arms, impaled by Walpole, were painted on the screens of this church, next to those of Walpole and Harsike. It is probable that he died without issue, his brother or son, John de Walpole, Esq. granting, in the 21st of Edward IV. to William his brother, the manor of Istede in Weybrede, Suffolk; and in the 9th of Henry VII. an inquisition was awarded into this county, and that of Suffolk, on the death of John Walpole, Esq. who was found to have died seized of this manor, held of the manor of Wirmegey by knight's service; and Thomas was his son and heir, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Robert Shawe, Esq. of Derby.

Thomas Walpole, Gent. son and heir of John Walpole, Esq. late of Houghton, deceased, gives, in the 12th of Henry VII. to Thomas Allen of Walpole, a messuage with 15 acres of land, also 7 acres, and a salt-work, with all the grain belonging lately to his father, John Walpole, Esq. lying between the land of the chantry of St. Mary, which his father had of the gift of John Walpole, late of London, son of Martin Walpole, late of Walpole, and the land of Robert Brandon, late of Newton, Esq. Thomas Hunston, Gent. and Philip Sutton, Esq. He married Joan, daughter of William Cobb of Saundringham, Esq. by whom he had John, his eldest son, who died before him without issue; Edward, and Henry.

By the name of Thomas Walpole of Lynne Bishop, Esq. he made his will, May 24, 1512, wherein he gives, " to his son Henry all his " purchased lands (his manor of Howeton to remain 10 years in his " feoffees hands, to perform his will) and his manor of Weybrede, 5 " years after the decease of his wife; his executors to receive the " profits of his lands, tenements, &c. in Walpole, 4 years and an half, " for the making of his tumber, and for making the north yld of " the parish church of Howeton, and that done, the said lands, " tenements, &c. in Walpole, to be delivered to the brodirhode of the " Holy Trinity in Lynne-Bishop, to the intent that the alderman and " skyveys of the said gyld shall find and pay yerly 8 marks to the " wages of an abil prest to synge mess perpetually for his soul, and

“ the sowl of Jone his wyfe, in the chapel of our Lady, in the chapel “ of St. Nicholas in Lynne. And more, I will that the said preste shall “ be at commons and lodging in the college of the Holy Trinity so
 “ that he be ordered by the statutes of the place, and to have 6s.
 “ 8d. of the said college yerly; and if the said alderman and skyvens,
 “ or successours, refuse to perform the same, &c. I will the said lands, “ &c. to be sold by my executor Jeff. Cobbe my brother-in-law, and “ my son Henry Walpole.”<sup>2</sup> This was proved April 7, 1513. He was found to die January 24, following, Edward his son being then aged 30.

Edward Walpole, Esq. his eldest son, married Lucy, daughter of Sir Terry Robsert, sister of Sir John Robsert of Sedestrand, and heir to Amy, first wife to Sir Robert Dudley, the great Earl of Leicester in Queen Elizabeth's time, daughter and heir of Sir John Robsart; of whom see in Sedestern.

Edward was buried January 1, 1558, and Lucy, February 1, 1559, at Houghton.

John Walpole, son and heir of Edward and Lucy, married Catherine, daughter and heir of William Calybut of Coxford, Gent. and was buried in Houghton church, March 29, 1588, and Catherine September 25, 1612, and left Edward Walpole, Esq. his son and heir, who was attainted for treasonable practices at Rome, and died abroad without issue, being, as some say, a Romish priest. Calybut Walpole, Esq. was his twin-brother and heir, who, by Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Edmund Bacon of Hesset in Suffolk, Esq. had several children.

To this Calybut, John Walpole, Esq. his father, by his will, dated,
February 28th, in the 30th of Elizabeth, gives the manor of Sedesterne, with that of Bircham Newton, after the decease of the Right Honourable Robert Earl of Leicester, with his foldcourse and lands, which he had of Roger Townsend, Esq. in Bircham Magna, and all the sheep going on the same; Catherine his wife to have all his lands in Walpole and Walton, to her and her heirs, towards the preferment of his daughter's marriage, and to hold the manor of Houghton for life.<sup>3</sup>
Edward, his eldest son and heir, (as above,) was indicted in the King's Bench for supposed treason, (in the 30th of Elizabeth, March 10,) done at Rome; and on May 26, 39th of Elizabeth, again indicted.
 After this, on August 3, in the said year, the Queen granted to ——— Hussey and ——— Goodman, the forfeited lands of Edward, and they grant them, September 27th following, to Calybut his brother.

Robert Walpole, Esq. son and heir of Calybut, married Susan, daughter of Sir Edward Barkham of Southacre, Knt. and died in 1663, and Susan in 1622, and buried at Houghton.

Sir Edward Walpole, Knight of the Bath, succeeded him as son and heir; and, by Susan his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Crane, Bart. of Chilton in Suffolk, left at his death, in 1667, Robert Walpole, Esq. his son and heir; who took to wife Mary, only daughter and heir of Sir Jeffrey Burwell, Knt. of Rougham in Suffolk, by whom he had Robert Walpole, Esq.<sup>4</sup> his 3d son, and heir to his father, the greatest statesmen of the age, prime minister to King George I.

and King George II. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Knight of the Bath, first commissioner of the Treasury, and created Earl and Viscount of Orford, February 8th, 1742.

In the year 1722, he began the foundation of a most noble hall, or palace, of free stone, which he finished and furnished in a most elegant taste, and sumptuous manner; the foundation stone was thus inscribed:

— HIC ME POSUIT

Fundamen ut essem domus in agro natali extruenda, ROBERTUS ILLE WALPOLE, quem nulla nesciet posteritas, die 24. mensis Maii, A. D. 1722, fecit Deus, ut postquam maturus ævi Dominus diu lectatus fuerit absoluta, incolumem tueantur incolumes ad summum omnium diem, et nati natorum, et qui nascentur ab illis.

By his lady Catherine, daughter of John Shorter, Esq. of Bybrook in Kent, (son and heir of Sir John Shorter, Kut. Lord Mayor of London) who died in August 1737, and was buried at Houghton, he had Robert, his son and heir, created Lord Walpole of Walpole, in 1723, and was Knight of the Bath 1725, and Earl of Orford on his father's death, who married Margaret, daughter, and heir of Samuel Rolle, Esq. of Heanton in Devonshire, by whom he had Robert, the present Earl, one of the lords of the King's bed-chamber, lord lieutenant of the county of Norfolk.

The arms of this Earl is, Or, on a fess, between two chevrons sable, three cross crosslets of the first;—the crest, on a wreath, the bust of a man side-faced, couped proper, with a long cap, gules, on it a Catherine-wheel, or; which was the crest of the Robarts:—supporters, an antelope, and a buck argent, attired, proper, gorged, with collars chequer, or and azure, each with a chain fixed to it, and hoofs, or.

It is to be observed, that this account of the family is taken chiefly from ancient records, and for a larger account, Mr. Collins, on the Peerage, may be consulted.

The tenths, 6l.—Deducted 10s.—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred was 2s.

The Church of Houghton is a regular pile, having a nave, a north and south isle covered with lead, and a chancel with tile, with a steeple; dedicated to St. Martin, and was appropriated to the priory of Coxford, who had a manse and 30 acres, valued at 15 marks, the vicarage, at 5 marks.—Peter-pence 16*d.*

At the west end of the nave is a monument, raised about a foot from the pavement, in form of a coffin; on the lid or cover, which is an entire piece of gray marble, is carved a curious antique figure of a prior, or abbot, in his robes, his hands spread on his breast, above them a cross, his head shaven, a daemon couchant at his feet. It appears to have been made in the reign of Edward I. in memory of a prior of Coxford, from whence, as tradition reports, it was brought here, after its dissolution.

Near to this, on a marble gravestone, with a plate of brass,

Orate p. aia.---Pyckard de Howeton, qui obt. xvii. Die Januar. A. Dni. M.VC.X<sup>o</sup>.

On the pannels of the screen, between the nave and chancel, are the arms of Walpole, impaling Harsike;—or, on a fess, between two chevronells, three cross crosslets sable, Walpole; and, or, a chief indented sable, Harsike: also Walpole impaling, azure, fretty argent, Echingham.

At the east end of the south isle lie several marble gravestones; viz. Walpole, in a lozenge, and,

In the chancel lie several marble gravestones:

The church was a rectory, the ancient valor 15 marks. In the 3d of Edward I. the jury find that Harvey Belet (of whom see in Rudham) gave it to Coxford priory; Hervey lived in the reign of King John, and gave them also lauds, or a manor here, which belonged to that of Rudham; and in 1428, the prior was taxed for his temporalities in rent, land, and a mill, at 65s. 3d.

The rectory was appropriated to the aforesaid priory, with 30 acres, and a vicarage was settled, the present valor of which is 5*l.*

The priory of Castleacre had a portion of tithes, valued at 36s per annum, and an agreement was made between the prior and convent of Castleacre, and that of Coxford, whereby the prior of Castleacre let to farm, to the prior of Coxford, two parts of the tithes of the demesans of Baldwin de Rosey, and William de Kailli, here, at the aforesaid rent; William Rufus of Northampton, quitclaimed to the monks of Castleacre all his tenement, which he held of them, late John de Cuilli's, which he held of them, on their paying him 18 marks:—witness, Herbert, prior of St. Edmund.

In 1612, the pension of 36s. was paid to the Earl of Northampton.

William, the third Earl Warren and Surry, before the year 1146, confirmed to the monks of Castleacre, the tithes of Wachelin de Rosei, granted by him; and Baldwin de Rosei confirmed the grant of his ancestors, by an agreement made before Walter Bishop of Norwich; Adam, the prior, and the convent, let for ever, to the prior and convent of Cokesford, two parts of the tithes of the demesans, of Baldwin de Rosey, of Hugh, son of Richard, and William de Kaylly, in this village, for 36s. per annum, who all appear by this to have had estates in the same. John, the first Bishop of Norwich, confirmed the grant of Rosey.

HAUVILE'S, OR POMFRET'S MANOR.

CALLĒD Ketestuna, and Kettlestuna, in Domesday Book. Kat, or Cat, is the name of a river, or water, thus Catwick in Yorkshire, Catworth in Huntingdonshire, &c. and Catter, or Catre, a river in Rutlandshire.

Part of this town was a beruite to the King's manor of Fakenham, at the survey, and held by King Herold, before the conquest, who had one carucate of land, with 3 bordarers, and a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, &c. and was valued in Fakenham.<sup>7</sup>

This was granted to Ralph de Hauvile by King Henry II. to be held of the Crown, by petit serjeanty, the keeping the King's falcons, together with Dunton, as may be there seen at large.

By the account of Richard de Rodney eschaetor, on this side of Trent, in the 15th of Edward II. Thomas de Havile had sold to Thomas de Mileham and Beatrix his wife, 15 messuages and tofts, one mill, 156 acres of land, 5 of meadow, and 25s. rent in this town Snoring, Parva, and Dunton, which were seized on by the said eschaetor. After this it was possessed by Sir Robert Knollys, and was settled on his hospital, or college, at Pomfret; and in the 3d of Henry V. John Stedman, &c. as master of that house, was seized of a moiety of this town, anciently royal demean, and no part of the dutchy of Lancaster, and the bailiffs of the hundred of Gallow and Brothercross having distrained for rent, as pareel of the said dutchy, on an inquisition taken at Walsingham, before Henry de Nottingham, the King's feodary, in this county, it was found that they had no right to demand 4s. per annum of this manor of Haviles, and that no lord of the hundreds aforesaid had a right to the same, the same manor being held in capite, by the service of keeping one gerfalcon, without paying any other service to the King, as Duke of Lancaster, or lord of the hundreds.

After the dissolution of the aforesaid hospital it was granted, May 17, in the 3d of Edward VI. to Sir William Farmor, and Sir Richard Fulmerstone, and Sir William died seized of it, in 1558; on whose death Catherine, his lady, possessed it, and brought it by marriage to Nicholas Mynne, Esq. and by an indenture dated October 1, in 21st of Elizabeth, it appears that Nicholas Mynne, Esq. held this lordship of Pomfrets, with that of Rochford, lying in this town, Snoring Parva, and Clipston, paying 100 comb of bailey rent.

Sir William Drury was lord in the 22d of Elizabeth, and aliened it with the Queen's license, to Thomas Taverner, who by his will dated April 10, 44th of the said Queen, grants the manor of Pomfrets to his wife Mary, for life, and dying June 11, in the said year, was found to hold it in capite, by the 100th part of a fee; and the manor of Rochford, by fealty of the manor of Hindringham; and Robert was his son and heir, aged 31, who dying September 5, 1612, left by Anne, his wife, a daughter and sole heir, Mary, being married to Francis Shouldham, Esq, son and heir of William Schuldham, Esq. who died April, 1655, aged 84, whose immediate heir and descendent, Robert Shouldham, M. D.<sup>8</sup> is the present lord, in 1764.

	Francis Shouldham, — Gent. died April 4, 1655, buried at Kettleston.	— Mary, daughter and heir of Robert Taverner, of Kettleston.
First wife, Catherine, daughter of John Thurston, of Hoxon, in Suffolk, Esq.	— Nathan Shouldham, — Esq. counsellor at law, of Fulmodeston.	— 2d, Dorothy, daughter of Robert Keddington, of Hockham.
	Robert Shouldham, — M. D. born Ao. 1653.	— Catherine, daughter of ——— Brady of Norwich.

Francis abovementioned was son of William Shouldham, Esq. and brother to Humphry Shouldham, Esq. the sons of John Shouldham, Esq. lord of Marham and Shouldham, which John died in 1551, and Humphry died lord in 1566; this William married Dorothy, daughter of John Smith of Blackmore in Essex, Esq.

ROCHFORD'S MANOR.

Part of this town belonged to the Earl Warren's lordship of East-Barsham, held by Toke, the Saxon lord; there were 8 socmen in this town, 2 in Snaring Parva, and 4 in Clipston, belonging to it, who had half a carucate of land, and was measured in Barsham; also 3 carucates, and two acres of meadow, a church, with 8 acres, valued at 40s. afterwards 3*l.* and paid 10s. gelt.<sup>9</sup>

The family De Hyndryngham had anciently an interest herein: Ralph and William de Havile confirmed by deed, sans date, to William, son of Hamon de Hyndryngham, all the rent which they were to receive of their tenants in Keteleston, with the homages, services, &c. — Witnesses, Sir Guy de Rocheford, &c. James, son of Richard Osborn of Clipston, confirmed to the said Hamon, his lord, 10*l.* rent here; and John Coury, and Helewisia his wife, daughter and heir of Hamon de Kaldewelle, released to William, son of Hamon de Hyndryngham by deed, sans date, several rents issuing out of several lands, with several villains; afterwards it was possessed by the Rochfords; and in the 28th of Edward III. Sir Saier de Rochford conveyed it to Ralph de Rochford, his son, and Maud his wife; from whom it came to the Welbys, &c. as may be seen in Rochford manor in East-Barsham. Sir William Farmer died possessed of it in the 1st of Elizabeth, and his lady Catherine brought it to Mynns, and so came to Taverner and Shouldham, as is above shown, being united to the manor of Havile's or Pomfret's.

The lordship of Fulmodeston extended into this town, and was held by the Grancourts. Thomas de Grancourt, in the 25th of Edward I. by his deed dated there, on Sunday next after the feast of St. Michael, confirmed to Hubert Bishop of Keteleston, lands here, with liberty to dig 3000 turfs, per ann. in Clipston moor, and common of pasture for as many beasts as belong to his tenement, at 12*d.* per ann.

It went with the lordship of Fulmodeston, and was in the Crown, on the death of Henry Stafford Duke of Bucks, in the reign of Richard III.

The tenths, with that of Clipstone, were 3*l.* 5*s.*—Deducted 10*s.*

The temporalities of Fakenham-dam priory were 6*d.*

The lete fee to the lord of the hundred was 10*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, a rectory, valued formerly at 21 marks, present valor 10*l.* and in the patronage of the Crown.

The priory of Castleacre had a portion of tithes, valued at 2 marks per ann.

In the 29th of Edward I. William Attechirche conveyed by fine to Thomas de Grancourt, and Agnes his wife, several messuages, 260 acres of land, 4 of meadow, 50 of pasture, 8 of wood, and 6*s.* rent, with the advowson of this church.

In the church, a grave-stone:

The present lord of this town is Robert Shouldham, M. D. son and heir of Robert Shouldham, by his wife, daughter and heir of ——— Brady of Norfolk, who is single, and has a sister married to ——— Edgar, of Watlington, Gent. another to Mr. Walter Rolf, rector of North Pickenham, and a third to Mr. Prithero, rector of East-Bars-ham.

Walter de Grancourt was patron in the reign of Edward I. when the rector had a manse, and 10 acres of land, valued, with the portion formerly Omers, at 21 marks; the prior of Castleacre's portion of tithe was valued at 2 marks. Peter-pence 12*d.*

NORTON, OR PUDDING-NORTON,

WAS an hamlet or beruite, at the survey, belonging to the King's manor of Fakenham, containing half a carucate of land, and a bordarer, and half a carucate, and half an acre of meadow, &c. There were also 7 socmen who held a carucate, and 20 acres; it was 3 furlongs long, and 2 and an half broad, and paid 6*d.* half-penny gelt; and here was a church endowed then with 8 acres, that were valued at 6*d.* per ann.<sup>1</sup>

Edmund de Lexham, son of John de Lexham, was lord in the 6th of Edward I. and in the 26th of the said King, John de Lexham, as lord, held a court baron, had free bull and boar, and the assise of bread and beer; Edmund de Lexham was his son, and held a court So. 7th, 15th, and 20th of Edward II. and Edmund appears to have a lete in the 5th of Edward III. Edmund de Lexham, and Matilda his wife, were living in the 7th of Edward II. and 21st of Edward III. In the 2d of Edward II. Ralph de Docking had 13 messuages, 15 acres of land, one of meadow, 2 of pasture, and 6 marks rent here, in Testerton and Tofts, settled on him by the said Edmund and Maud; and in the 9th of Edward III. John de Patesley, and Henry de Pagrave held a court, probably as trustees. In the 21st of that King, John Neuman of Puding-Norton grants to Edmund de Lexham, and Maud his wife, several homages, services and rents, wards, reliefs and eschaets here; and in failure of heirs of the said Edmund and Maud, to Osbert de Mundeford, and John his son. This John held his first court, after the death of Edmund de Lexham, without issue, on Monday before the feast of St. Alphage in the same year, held of the Lord Scales in free soccage, and that lord of the King, of the honour of Hawley. Osbert de Mundeford had a court and lete in the 46th of the said King; Osbert his son was lord in the 8th of Richard II. and dying about 1496, was succeeded by his son Osbert Mundeford, Esq. who occurs lord in the 12th of Henry IV. and of Hockwold, where the family resided; and by his will, dated in 1456, October 4. and proved December 20. following, was buried in the church of Hockwold, and gave legacies to that church, and those of Norton, Barrow in Suffolk, &c. By Margaret his wife, he left Osbert his son and heir, who married Elizabeth, daughter of — Berney, Esq. who being his widow in the 39th of Henry VI. held this manor, by whom he had Mary, his daughter and heir, who brought it by marriage to Sir William Tindale, Knight of the Bath, who died lord in the 12th of Henry VII. leaving Sir John Tindale, Knight of the Bath, who by Amphelicia his wife, daughter of Humphrey Canynsbe, Esq. justice of the King's Bench, had Sir Thomas Tindale, Kut. who had livery of this manor in the 31st of Henry VIII. and afterwards sold it (as it seems) to Richard Benson, Esq. in the 13th of Elizabeth, there being several law-suits between Sir Thomas Tindale, John and Henry Tindale, &c. concerning this lordship, then in the possession of Richard Benson: Sir Thomas, with his lady and sons, released on the 10th of June all their right to the said Richard for 100*l.* by whom it was sold, then valued at 100*l. per ann.* to Ferdinando Paris, Esq. of Little Linton in Cambridgeshire, in the 18th of the said reign, eldest son of Sir Philip Paris, (one of King Henry the Eighth's chief visitors of the abbies, &c. at the Dissolution,) by Margaret his wife, daughter and coheir of Thomas Bowes, Esq. citizen and mercer of London: Ferdinand, by Frances his wife, daughter of Thomas More of Whaddon in Cambridgeshire, had Philip Paris, Esq. his son and heir, who by Magdalen his wife, daughter of Charles Waldgrave, Esq. of Stanningfeld in Norfolk, left at his death, September 20, Ao. 13th of James I. several daughters; Frances, married to Francis Dame, Esq.; Eleanor to Edward Atslow, Esq. of Downham in Essex, son of Edward, a famous physician, &c.; and two sons; Charles Paris, the eldest, married Mary, daughter of Sir John Gates, but died without issue in the 15th of King Charles II. and was succeeded in his estate here by his brother, John Paris, Esq. who took to wife Ann, daughter and heir of Thomas Cocket, Esq. of Brunsthorp in Norfolk, (by whom he had issue,<sup>2</sup> a daughter and heir,) and afterwards was the wife of Sir Joseph Coulston, M. D. She held it in jointure, and on her death, about 1698, this lordship came to the descendants of the sisters and coheirs of Charles and John Paris, Esq. aforesaid, as this pedigree sets forth:

Sir Joseph Colston is dated February 2, 1673. Charles Paris, Esq. settled his estate, in default of issue male, on his sisters and their heirs.

Sir Francis Andrews, one of the coheirs, purchasing the rights of Mary, wife of Charles Hacon, of Frances, wife of Peregrine Short, and of Philippa, the wife of John Hastings, became lord of this manor, and lived there in the year 1700. Sir Francis descends from Thomas Andrews, Esq. who was high sheriff of Northamptonshire in 1587, and attended at the execution of Mary Queen of Scots, at Fotheringay. He was succeeded by Robert Andrews, Esq. of Harleston, in the said county, who, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William Gent, Esq. was father of Sir William Andrews of Denton in Northamptonshire, created Bart. December 11, 1641; who by Catherine his lady, daughter of John Flumstede of Denton, had two sons; Sir John, the eldest, dying without issue, was succeeded by his brother, Sir William,<sup>3</sup> who (by Eleanor, daughter of Edward Atslow, Esq. of Downham-Hall in Essex, and his wife Eleanor, daughter and coheir of Philip Paris, Esq.) left at his death, August 15, 1684, Sir Francis Andrews, Bart. who by his lady Bridget, daughter of Sir Thomas Clifton of Latham in Lancashire, had a son, William, a lunatic, and a daughter, Bridget, married to Philip Southcote, Esq. of Weybridge in Surry, a younger son of Sir Edward Southcote of Witham in Essex, who was the late lord, Sir Francis having resigned it to him. This lordship is said to be held in free soccage of the King's manor of Fakenham, by the payment of 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann.

HEMPTON-PRIORY MANOR,

Extended into this town; and in the 3d of Edward I. the prior held in Norton, and in Tofts, 2 marks rent per ann. purchased of William de Helveton by William de Waterden; the Lord Bardolf held it of the Earl Warren, who held it in capite. In 1428 the temporalities were valued at 22*s.* 4*d.* q. and after the Dissolution King Henry VIII. granted it, September 9, in his 37th year, to Sir William Fermier, and Thomas Fermour, Esq. his nephew, sold it to Richard Benson, Esq. from whom it came to the Paris's, &c. and was united to the capital manor abovementioned.

Here was also another lordship. Margaret, widow of Lambert of Pudding-Norton, in her widowhood, granted and confirmed to Henry, son of Lambert of Pudding-Norton, all her right in lands, meadows, pastures, homages, reliefs, with part of a foldcourse, &c. paying to her for life 2 quarters of barley, and after her decease to the chief lord of the fee, Sir Wydo de Ferreris, and to Elizabeth his wife, 3*s.* 10*d.* ob. and to the Earl Warren all his hundred court at Gallowe, 3*d.* —Witnesses, Sir Roger de St. Martin, John de Lechesham.

It is to be observed, that this is the first time that I meet with the additional, or adjunct name of Pudding, from its dirty site, most likely; thus Puddington in Devonshire, Pudlemore in Somersetshire, or from some little stream of water.

In the 24th of Edward III. Thomas Berte of Wadeton, and Elizabeth his wife, confirmed to Hamon de Wodenorton, and Joan his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, all the lands, tenements, and foldcourse, in Puding-Norton, which was the part or share that came to Elizabeth on the death of Hugh de Greston, her brother, with her part of the rents, services, &c. of the free tenants in Puding-Norton, Colkirk, Testerton, Oxwyk, and Wyssingset:—Witnesses, Osbert de Mundeford, lord of Norton, &c.

In the 5th of Henry V. it appears that there were 2 manors, called Newhall and Pekhall, and the site of Newhall was by the church. Henry Fermer bought, in the 4th of Henry III. a manor here of John Brigham, which in the next year he conveyed to William Shaa of this town; and in the 29th of that King, John Perne quit-claimed to Oliver Reynes of Burnham Utp all his right of this manor, purchased by Oliver of William Shaa, of Richard Banyard in the said year; Richard Ward, executor to Thomas Perne of this town, sold it, Mo. 11th of Henry III. to Banyard, who had married Agnes, the widow of Thomas Perne.

Michael Lamming had also a lordship, and paid suit of court every three weeks to the prior of Hempton; also every three weeks to the court of Fakenham, paying 2s. 9d. per ann. also suit of court to the hundred, and pays 2d.—Henry Lamming of Norton, in the 18th of Elizabeth, conveyed all his right in lands, messuages, and services, late his father's, William Lamming, to Richard Benson; and so this came also to the Paris's, &c. and to Sir Francis, and to Southcote, who was lord of the whole village, and is now in his widow.

The tenths were 1l. 2s. 3d.—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred 4d.

A patent was granted, April 11, Mo. 4th Edward VI. to Thomas Bishop of Norwich, and his successours, of the manors of Peterston and Norton, with land, called Dovehouse Close, in Norton, lately belonging to Walsingham priory. It is now a depopulated village, only a hall, or manor-house, with a farm-house remaining.

The CHURCH, which is now in ruins, was dedicated to St. Margaret, and there was her guild here; nothing now remains standing but part of a small four-square tower, and is a rectory valued at 6l.—The ancient valor was 15 marks. Peter-pence 10d. ob.

PENCETHORPE

TAKES its name from its site, a thorp, or village, by a river or water, called Pen; thus Penne in Bucks, Pcnneston in Yorkshire, &c. In Domesday Book it is wrote Penestorpa, and was then the lordship of Rainold, son of Ivo; Scula being deprived of it on the conquest; and Ranulf held it under Rainald, the capital lord. Here were 2 carucates of land, 13 bordarers, and 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, &c. 3 acres of meadow, a mill, &c. 240 sheep, 4 skeps of bees, valued at 40s. per ann. it was 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

Who this Rainald Fitz-Ivo was, does not appear; he was, no doubt, a Norman, and had many lordships granted to him by the Conqueror, all which came into the family of the Earls of Clare, probably on the marriage of Rohais to Richard Fitz-Gilbert,<sup>5</sup> one of the daughters of Walter Giffard, sister and coheir to Walter her brother, Earl of Buckingham; Walter the son dying possessed of it in the reign of Henry II.

Ranulf, who was enfeoffed of this manor by Fitz-Ivo, seems to be the ancestor of the family of De Penesthorpe. Simon de Penegisthorpe was lord in the reign of Richard I. son of Sir Richard de Penegisthorpe; and Simon was lord in the 18th of Henry III. Soon after this, Richard Fitz-Simon was found to hold one fee in this town of the Earl of Gloucester; and in the 41st of that King, Simon Fitz-Richard was sued by the prior of Coxford, for levying a market in Penesthorpe, to the injury of the prior's market in East Rudham; and in the said year, Simon was found to have raised the dam of his pool, to the damage of meadows in Ryburgh. In the following year, Simon agrees and covenants by fine, with John, prior of Coxford, that he will not hold his mercate on Tuesday, or Thursday, without his consent, for which the prior received him and his heirs as benefactors.

In the 3d of Edward I. Simon Fitz-Richard was found to have the assize of bread and beer, free warren, and a gallows; and in the 15th of that King, the jury present, that he claimed a fair in this manor, on the feast of St. Margaret; and Thomas de Holt of Fakenham was, in the 25th of the said reign, sued by him for entering into his manor, or free warren, taking and carrying away his hares, rabbits, and partridges, without license.

Simon Fitz-Richard, in the 8th of Edward II. was found to hold 12 fees, and the fourth part of a fee, in Dunmow, Finchingfelde Lacheley and Bolmer in Essex; in Pencethorp, Cley, Thrextun, Buke-ton, Stivkey, West Winche, Clenchwarton, Wigenhale and Fordham, in Norfolk; and in the 21st of Edward III. Richard Fitz-Simon granted this lordship and advowson to John de Ufford, with that of Letheringham in Suffolk, and the advowson of that priory: he was son of Simon, by Nicholaa his wife, one of the daughters or Sir William de Bovill, Knt. and this was in trust.<sup>6</sup>

In 1351, Sir Hamon de Felton presented to the rectory of this church, as lord.

JOHN SPOO was lord after this, in right, as I take it, of Nicholaa, daughter and heir of Richard Fitz-Simon; who in the 13th of Richard II. with Nicholaa, his wife, conveyed it by fine, quit of the heirs of Nicholaa, with the manor of Bawsey, to Sir Robert Carbonnel, Knt. John Spoo was also lord of Wood-Norton and Gestwick.

In the 21st of the said King, Sir Richard Carbonnel, as appears by the eschaet rolls, was found to hold it with Margaret his wife, and John was his son and heir, aged 14.<sup>7</sup> Sir Richard Carbonnel, by his will dated November 4, 1429, settled it in order to pay his debts; and Thomas Brigge, Esq. of Salle, lord of this town and Wood-Dalling, by his will dated May 6, in 1444, and proved May 29, following, died possessed of it.

JOHN HEYDON, of Baconsthorpe, Esq. seems to be soon after seized of it, and died lord in 1480: to him the prior of Walsingham released the rent of 12*d.* per ann. out of this manor, granted to that convent by Simon Fitz-Richard: in this family it continued many years. Thomas Heydon, Esq. a younger son of Sir John Heydon, was lord in 1572; in the 29th of of Elizabeth, William Haydon, had a præcipe to deliver it to Sir John Cotton, Knt. and in the 3d of that Queen, Thomas Croft, Esq. had one, to render it to Edmund Stubble, Esq.

By an inquisition taken at St. Edmund's Bury, September 10 in the 3d of James I. Edward Sulyard, Esq. son and heir of Sir John Sulyard, was found to die, May 10, last past lord of this manor and of Wetherden, Stratford-hall, Hawley, with the park, &c. in Suffolk, and left by Frances his wife, relict of Sir——Babthorpe, Sir John Sulyard, his son and heir, aged 30, married to Philipa, daughter of Ralph Sheldon, Esq.

In the 5th of James I. Dorothy Moor, widow, had a præcipe to deliver it to Thomas Corbet, Esq.; and by an inquisition taken at Norwich, May 29, in the 5th of Charles I. Francis Houghton was found to die seized of it, held of the honour of Clare, and Robert was his son and heir, aged 3 years.

In 1720, Anthony Hamond, Esq. of Wooton, was lord, and in that family it remains; Richard Hamond, Esq. his son and heir, possessed it.

The lete fee to the lord of the hundred was 12*d.*

Sir Simon Fitz-Richard was patron of this rectory in Edward the First's reign, when the rector had edifices here, and 30 acres of land, and was valued at 15 marks. Peter-pence 12*d.*

 R A I N E H A M,

OR Rainham, as it is wrote in the book of Domesday; takes its name from being seated near a running stream of water, or river; Ryc and Rey, signifying as much in the Saxon tongue; thus we find a town in Essex, in the hundred of Chafferd, Rainham, on a river near its falling into the Thames; and thus Braintre, in Essex, occurs in Domesday by the naue of Raine, being by a river. Thus the river Rhine, and Reineburgh, a city in Germany, on that river.

At the grand survey, it is placed in the hundred of Brothercross, but at this time (and for several centuries past) is accounted as a part of the hundred of Gallow; and great part of this town was then one of the lordships which the Conqueror bestowed on Hugh de Montfort, one of his Norman chiefs and barons. Bond, a noble Saxon thane of great possessions, held it in the Confessor's time, together with lordships in Bodney, Langford, Stanford, Marham, Islington, Middleton, Bilney, West Geyton, Gately, Bodham, &c. of all which he was deprived at the conquest, and succeeded therein by Hugh.

It consisted of two carucates of land, held by 4 villains, 14 bordarers, and 4 servi, 2 carucates in demean, and one amongst the men, pannage for 120 swine, 6 acres of meadow, 2 mills, a saltpit, &c. and 100 sheep, 2 bees-skeps, and 14 socmen held half a carucate of land, and 15 bordarers had a carucate and an half, with 7 acres of meadow.<sup>8</sup> This was what belonged to that part of the town now called East Rainham, and made up that parish, or lordship, as I take it, called now Rainham-Magna.

South Rainham was then a beruite, that is, a less manor, and depending on this; wherein the aforesaid lord had a carucate of land, 5 bordarers, and 2 servi, one carucate in demean, one amongst the men, &c. 5 acres of meadow, one mill, &c. and in Helgeton (Hel-loughton) one socman belonged to this manor, with half a carucate of land, and 8 bordarers, with one carucate and 2 acres of meadow, valued in Bond's time at 8*l. per ann.* afterwards at 6*0s.* but at the survey at 8*l. 10s.* to be paid under a great penalty. All South Reineham was 6 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 10*d.* to the gelt.

This lordship, held by Hugh de Montfort, was afterwards divided, and held by two different families, the Inglethorps, and the Scales.

INGLETHORP'S MANOR

Takes its name from its lords, who appear from ancient records to be seized of it in the reign of King John and Henry III. a family of great eminency in the county of Norfolk: the founder, and first that we meet with of it, is Robert de Ingaldesthorp, as he is called in the pedigree of the Sharnburns of Sharnburn, in Norfolk, published in Sir Henry Spelman's works, but in the register of the priory of Windham, is called Robert de Sutesham, who lived in the reign of King Stephen, and being enfeoffed in a manor at Sutesham, and in one at Ingaldesthorpe, wrote himself sometimes de Sutesham, and sometimes de Ingaldesthorpe; at this time, it was the custom for lords of manors to assume their names from the towns they held, according to the

Norman practice, so was it also (as I find by ancient evidences) the usual practice of those who held more than one lordship, to vary and change their names, as they thought proper, to show their different fees and tenures, and to pleasure their capital lords, as in the case of this Robert; which has been cause of confusion in ascertaining ancient pedigrees.

ALAN DE INGALDESTHORP, or Yggulvesthorp, (as he is wrote,) was the son of Robert, and married ———, a daughter of Jeffrey de Sharneborne, by Etheldreda his wife, daughter of Robert de Dersingham;<sup>9</sup> in a grant of the prior of Lewes to him of the lordship of Kenwick, in Tilney, in the reign of Richard I. he is also called Alan de Snetesham; and Donatus, prior of Windam, granted to this Alan, son of Robert de Snetesham, 5 acres of the demeans of that priory in Snetesham, and six acres there, which Cecily de Verlj gave to that house, with one acre, which the said Alan purchased of the fee of Roger de Paveley; all which Alan was to have for ever, paying 28*d.* per ann. to the priory, by deed sans date; and in the reign of Henry II. Richard, son of William Thomas, John and Geffrey de Ingaldesthorp were witnesses to a deed of Alan de Ingaldesthorp, son of Robert de Snetesham, of lands given by him to the priory of Castleacre. In 1203, Philip de Mortimer, prior, and the convent of Acre, grants by deed to Geffrey, son of Alan de Ingaldesthorp, and his heirs, all their land at Otringheith, with the appertenances, paying 17*s.* for all services.

SIR THOMAS DE INGALDESTHORP was son and heir of Alan, and is termed in old records the Red: he is mentioned in the Pipe Rolls of the 8th year of King John, and in the 3d of Henry III. and was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in or about the 8th or 9th of that King; as was Hubert de Ingaldesthorp, in the 5th of the said King; the aforesaid Thomas had a suit with Peter de Clay, about the right of presentation to the church of Santon, in Norfolk: this Sir Thomas was accessory in a murder in the 9th year of King John, as may be seen in Ingletthorp.

About this time, as I take it, or rather sooner, this family had an interest in, and seems to be seized of, this lordship.—Richard, son of William de Ingaldesthorp, by the advice and consent of Maud his wife, granted by deed sans date, to the priory of Normansbergh, in Reincham, two pieces of marsh land, one lying in Branches furlong, between the marsh of Thomas, son of Richard, son of William, and the marsh of Jeff de Reinham, and the homage, and service of William, son of Ralph de Gateley, for the tenement which he held of him, with the appurtenances, with one capon per ann. Witnesses, Alan son of John, Jeff. de Reinham, Bartholomew, son of William, John Poor, &c.<sup>1</sup> It is probable this Richard might marry one of the daughters and coheirs of Jeffrey de Lisewis,<sup>2</sup> or of his son William. William de Lisewis (of whom I shall afterwards treat) was the founder of the priory of Normansbergh, the name of his wife, and that of his son Geffrey's, was Maud; the Lisewises, father and son, appear to have held this manor, with that of Gateley, Islington, Clenchwarton, &c. under Hugh de Montfort, the moieties of all which came about this time to the Ingaldesthorps, and the Scales, who (as I conclude) might marry another sister and coheir. Richard grants this at the request of Maud his wife, who might have an affection for the above-mentioned priory, as founded by her relations; and Richard, probably, dying without issue, left it to Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, Knt. (son of Sir Thomas) who by deed sans date, gave 27 acres of land, in Sharburne, to the priory of Windham, as appears from the register of that house: and in the 12th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Thomas, son of Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and Robert de Scales, querents, and Robert, prior of Acra, (whom Simon prior of Normansbergh, called to warrant,) of the advowson of the churches of Great and South Reinham, Isyngton, and a mediety of Wigenhale St. Peter's, before Hugh, abbot of St. Edmund's, Martin de Pateshall, archdeacon of Norfolk, Stephen de Segrave, &c. the King's justices, when the said Thomas and Robert gave to the priory of Normansbergh, in pure alms, 40s. rent per ann. out of the mill of South Reinham, with a clause, that if the mill shall fail, then to pay it out of other lands. About the same time Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and Robert de Scales, held lands and tenements in Reinham, Pudding-Norton, Helgeton, Isyngton, and Gateley, in Norfolk, by the service of two knight's fees, and they held the same in the year 1233, when an aid was granted to the King, on the marriage of his sister Isabel, to the Emperor Frederick.

In 1235 a fine was levied between Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and Hermerus de Bekeswell, of one carucate of land in Marham, Norfolk, conveyed to Hermerus; by which it appears, that he married Sibilla, relict of Peter de Bekeswell, brother to Hermerus, she being called therein, "late wife of the said Thomas de Ingaldesthorp." In 1249, Sir Thomas Ingaldesthorp was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk; he seems to have married a second wife, Isabel, daughter of ——— Hamon; in 1255 she is called widow of Sir Thomas, and afterwards married Roger de Well:<sup>3</sup> Sir Thomas died (it seems) in 1251, when Thomas his son, was found to be of the age of 16 years.

In the pedigree of the family of the Jernegans Sir Hugh Jernegan is said to have married to his second wife, Ela, or Hellen, a daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and to quarter the arms of Ingaldesthorp, and might be a relation to the aforesaid Sir Thomas, if not his daughter.

Thomas, son (as some make him) of the abovementioned Sir Thomas, was also a knight, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in 1272, and died soon after; Thomas de Ingaldesthorp Bishop of Rochester was one of his sons, and Sir John de Ingaldesthorp was his son and heir; in 1275 he was found to hold the manor of Reinham in capite of the King, paying 20s. per ann. to Dover castle-ward, as appears from the rolls of the hundred of Brothercross, to which it then belonged. Sir John died in or about the year 1282, and the King's eschaetor, in 1288, accounted for the rents of the late Sir John before the delivery of them, to Thomas, his son and heir; Sir John had been summoned, amongst the barons, to attend the King in the Welsh wars. Reinham manor then contained 200 acres of land, 20 of meadow, a wind-mill, advowson of the church of East Reinham, with other parcels of land there, and the rent of assise, valued at 14*l.* per ann.

About this time, also, lived Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, who married Joan, a daughter and coheir of Fulk de Beaufoe, lord of Hockwold, &c. in Norfolk, by whom he had John, his son and heir, and Edmund de Ingaldesthorp, who held a lordship in Foulden in the 3d of Edward 1. and was father of Edmund, who married Alice, sister and heir of John de la Rokeley, son and heir of Sir Ralph de la Rokeley and Joan his wife. A quære may be made, if this Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, was not the same with him abovementioned, who died in or about 1272; it is probable that he was, and succeeded as a near relation.

On the death of Sir John de Ingaldesthorp, in or about 1282, Thomas was found to be his son and heir, aged 22. In the 13th of Edward II. he appears to be a knight and a commissioner for the banks and sewers of Marshland in Norfolk; in the 17th of that King, was lord of Wimbotsham, and Beatrice was his wife. In 1326, the jury find that it would not be to the King's loss if he granted license to Sir Thomas, to enfeoff the manor of Reinham, which he held in capite, by the service of paying 2*s.* per ann. to the honour of Hagheley, in Suffolk, and the rent of 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann. to Dover castle-ward, on John de Ingaldesthorp, his son and heir, and Joan his wife, and their heirs; and before this, in the 9th of the aforesaid King, he petitions, That whereas he held the moieties of this manor, and that of Ilsyngton, which hardly amounted to the value of 10 marks per ann. by the service of the moiety of a knight's fee, only of the honour of Hagheley, and not of the Crown immediately, and believing that he had held them of the Crown, had ignorantly done services in Scotland to the King's father, and to him, desires to be exempted from them; on which the King ordered his barons of the Exchequer to search Domesday Book, and other records of the Exchequer for the truth, and accordingly to discharge him, or to continue the service.* He died in or about 1327.

He was succeeded by his son Sir John, who married Joan, daughter of Sir William Weyland, and was found, on the death of his father, to be aged 33 years. He seems to have lived at Reinham, and the family before him, for many years. In 1330, he presented to the church of Rainham St. Mary, by the name of Sir John de Ingaldesthorp, son of Sir Thomas, and died in 1335, leaving two sons, Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and William.

Sir Thomas was aged 23 at his father's death, and died in 1337, sans issue, (as I take it,) leaving William his brother and heir, aged 21, at his death. In 1363, Sir William de Ingaldesthorp, and Ahanore his wife, settled the manor of Wilby in Norfolk, on Sir Thomas de Felton, Knt. during the life of the said Ahanore, who seems to be one of the daughters and coheirs of Miles, son of Philip de Hastings, lord of Quidenham. In 1355, John de Herling purchased a third part of the manor and advowson of Quidenham, of William de Furneant, who had married one of the daughters and coheirs of the said * Madox Hist. Exch. p. 445.—Lib. Remembr. Abbat. de Mark. penes Dom. Tho. Hare Bt.

Miles; in 1362, he purchased another third part of Sir William Ingaldesthorp, and Alianore his wife; and in 1371, he purchased the other third part of Thomas Caus, and James de Hegham. Sir William died in 1372, as appears from the eschaet rolls: she survived him many years, and lived and died in the abbey and nunnery of Marham, but as a pensioner, and not as a nun professed, as I am apt to think. Amongst the mortuaries received by that convent after the year 1401, and about the year 1407, (in which year she is said to have died) I find this:—Received for the lady Alianore's mortuary, late wife of Sir William Ingaldesthorp, a mantle furr'd with grey: and she was buried in the said abbey, which had this privilege of receiving mortuaries, (granted by the Pope,) from all who died in the convent, or in the precincts of it. Sir William, as heir to his brother, paid 100s. relief to this manor, and that of Usington, 1341.

Beatrix occurs widow of Sir Thomas in 1346, and held Ingaldesthorp's manor in Snetesham.

Sir John de Ingaldesthorp was son and heir of Sir William, and the lady Alianore, aged 11 years, in 1372, and proved his age in the 7th of Richard II. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John de Burgh, of Burgh-Green, in Cambridgeshire, and sister and coheir of Sir Thomas de Burgh, her brother; in 1403, was one of the executors of Sir William de Elmham, Knt. and presented the said year to the church of Westhorp in Suffolk.<sup>5</sup> His will is dated on Thursday after All-Saints, in 1419; names Elizabeth his wife, Sir John Colvile, Sir William Assenhull, Knts. and William Allington, Esq. his executors, and was proved July 8, 1420.<sup>6</sup> He gave legacies to the churches of Reinham, Tibney, Emreth, Ingaldesthorp, and Snetesham, in Norfolk; to Swaffham-Bulbeck, Burgh, &c. in Cambridgeshire, and 20l. to the chantry of Bergh; of all which manors he was possessed, with that of Freuge in Norfolk, and Somerton in Suffolk, and was buried, according to his desire, in the chancel of Bergh in Cambridgeshire; where, on the north side, he has a stately monument, with the statue of himself (and lady) in complete armour. I have seen a note of Le Neve's, Norroy at Arms, where he says:—"About his neck is a collar, " though more like a garter, with the buckle just pendant in the top " of his forehead, somewhat above, or at least his hair coming down " upon his forehead, above the garter."—This is an odd description of Le Neve's, and seems rather to be a chaplet, as was usual in that age. This will of Elizabeth, his lady, is dated on Thursday before the feast of St. Edmund the King and Martyr, (dated at Swaffham-Bulbeck, in Cambridgeshire.) 1421, proved February 12th following; she appoints Sir Walter De la Pole, Sir John Colvile, Sir William Assenhull, Knts. Thomas Ingaldesthorp, Henry Nottingham, Esqrs. and John Green, her executors; bequeaths to Thomas, her son, a bed of white and red; to Alianore, her daughter, a black mantle; to Margaret Ingaldesthorp a testour; to the lady Margaret Zouch, her sister, a gold chain; Dame Joan Assenhull, wife of Sir William, was also her sister: she was buried by her husband at Bergh.

Thomas Ingaldesthorp was aged 19 at the death of his father Sir John; the custody, or wardship of him was granted to his mother. He married Margaret, daughter and heir of Sir Walter De la Pole, lord of Sauston, in Cambridgeshire, of Meldreth and Trumpington, nephew of Michael De la Pole Earl of Suffolk. This Thomas died under age, in the 10th of Henry V. or 1st of Henry VI. His will bears date, January 14th, in the said year, wherein he orders all his goods to be disposed of by Sir Robert Clifton, and Sir Thomas Lovel, Knts. and Thomas Sorrel, Esq. his executors, and was proved May 22, 1422, and buried in the church of Burgh. Margaret, his widow, had in the said year the King's license to remarry, and also an assignment of dower, and died soon after in 1426, seized of the 3d part of this manor, and of Ingaldesthorp in Snetesham, and Bellasis in Emneth, &c. leaving Edmund her son and heir, aged 5 years; she had also her thirds in certain manors in Yorkshire; she brought a great inheritance into this family, as heiress to De la Pole, Bradston, lord of Winterburne, &c. On an inquisition taken at Berking in Essex, July 19th, 1433, it was found that Sir Walter De la Pole died on Friday after the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, last past, possessed of the manor of Alvethley, or Aveley, in Essex, with the manors of Sauston and Derneford in Cambridgeshire, &c. and Edmund de Ingaldesthorp was found to be his heir, who married Joan, second daughter of John Tiptoft Lord Powis, and sister to John Earl of Worcester.

The will of Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp is dated August 4th, 1456; he names Joan his wife, Sir John Prisot, Knt. chief justice of the Common Pleas, Laurence Cheyney, Esq. and Thomas Lockton, his executors; gives to his wife the manors of Kenwick in Tilney, and of Freng in Norfolk, Burgh, Meldreth, and Alvithley, for life; after to Isabel his daughter, and for default of her issue, to John Earl of Worcester, Lord Tiptoft and Powis; and in default of her issue, to be sold, to pray for the souls of Sir John Ingaldesthorp, Thomas Ingaldesthorp, his own, and that of Sir Walter De la Pole. He died seized of this manor, that of Freng, Wimbotsham, Clenchwarton, Sanston, the patronage of the priory of Crabhouse, Derneford, Bergh, Trumpington, Swaffham-Bulbeek, the patronage of St. Mary, Somerset, London, &c. and an annuity of 500 marks per ann. payable out of the Exchequer at Easter and St. Michael, which was granted by King Edward III. to Thomas de Bradston, his ancestor, lord of Winterbourne in Gloucestershire, in 1338, the heiress of that family, Elizabeth, being married to Sir Walter De la Pole.

He was buried in the midst of the chancel of Burgh, where a sumptuous monument was erected to his memory, with his portraiture in brass, and in armour; his head (without an helmet) resting on a bull's head, coupéd, in a coronet, (his crest, as I take it,) the inscription is, for the most part, broke off, and seems to have been in rude rhyming verse, according to the taste of the age:

— Uxorem Comitiss de Wyrcester ipse sororem,
Anno milleno quater X. C. X quoq; seno: Ecce dies bina Septembris quando anima
Militis hujus erat -----

By this it appears, that he died on the 2d of September 1456. In 1460, Sir John Prisot, one of his executors, had license, dated December 5,  Ao. 39th Henry VI. to found a chantry in the church of Burgh, for the said Sir Edmund, Sir Thomas his father, and Sir John his grandfather, Sir John de Burgh, and Catherine his wife.

The lady Joan, his relict, married Thomas Grey, younger son of John Lord Grey of Ruthyn, and brother to Edward Grey, the first Earl of Kent: this Thomas was created Lord Grey of Rugemont in Bedfordshire; and on the death of Edward Tiptoft Earl of Worcester, who died a minor, in the 3d year of Richard III. she, with her two sisters, Philippa, who married Thomas Lord Roos of Hamlake, and Joyce, who married Edmund, eldest son of John Lord Dudley, were found to be his aunts and coheirs; and dying on the 21st of June, 1494, was seized of the manors of Berklow in Cambridgeshire, and Horkesley in Essex, &c,

Isabel, only daughter and heiress of Sir Edmund Inguldesthorp and Joan his wife, was aged 15 on the death of her father: she married John Nevill, created Marquis Montacute, (and Knight of the Garter, second son of Richard Earl of Salisbury, and brother to Richard, the great Earl of Warwick;) and afterwards on the attainder of the Earl of Northumberland, had that honour also conferred on him by King Edward IV. which last title he was obliged soon after to resign, the attainder aforesaid being taken off.—This Marquis having raised 6000 men, and marching with them to join (as was pretended) the aforesaid King, when he was come near to the place where the King was, declared to his soldiers,—“How he had been ill treated by him, in the “ case of the earldom of Northumberland; and that the King, in “ creating him Marquis Montacute, had (as Stow in his Annals expresses it) given him a pie’s nest to maintain it withall; therefore he “ would leave to serve him, and take part with the Earl of Warwick, his “ brother.” Upon this the King, who was then at Nottingham, fled to Lynn, and thence beyond sea; and returning soon after, this Marquis, with his brother, the Earl of Warwick, were killed in the battle at Barnet, April 14th 1471, fighting against King Edward IV. Stow says, “He had privily agreed with the King, and had gotten on his “ livery; but one of his brother’s (the Earl of Warwick’s) men espy- “ this, fell upon him, and killed him.”—Hall, in his Chronicle, observes, “That King Edward was not so jocund, nor so joyous, for the “ destruction of the Earl of Warwick, but was more sorrowful and “ dolorous for the death of the Marquiss, whom both he knew, and it “ appeared to others, to be inwardly his faithful friend, and for whose “ sake only he caused both their bodies to be, among their ancestors, “ solemnly buried at the priory of Bisham in Berkshire.”

The Lady Isabel afterwards married Sir William Norris of Ricot in Oxfordshire, who, in 1479, presented to Raynham St. Mary’s church, in right of his late wife. By the Marquis, she had 2 sons and 5 daughters; John, the youngest son, died a minor, and was buried in 1480 at Sauston in Cambridgeshire; George, the eldest, was created Duke of Bedford by King Edward IV. Ao. 33, and on the 4th of December 1471, his mother had a grant from the King of the custody and government of him, then a minor: she died in 1475, and was buried in the priory of Bisham, where a tomb was ordered to be made for her; and the Marquis, by the will of Elizabeth Lady Scroop, one of her daughters, in the 4th of Henry VIII. leaving 20*l.* for the same. The Duke, her son, was degraded in 1477, in the 17th of the said King, by act of parliament, for want of maintenance (as was pretended) to support so great honours, which might be justly said, for we are to observe, that before this, on February 23d, in the 14th of the same reign, he had been also deprived of an immense estate that he was heir to, partly from the Earl of Warwick, his uncle, and his father the Marquis, and which was then given to Richard Duke of Gloucester, the King's brother. This unfortunate nobleman died in the year 1485, at Sheriff's Houton in Yorkshire, sans issue; and his five sisters and co-heirs were; Ann, who married Sir Will. Stoner of Oxfordshire; Elizabeth, who married, 1st, Thomas Lord Scroop of Upsal and Massam, and 2dly, Sir Henry Wentworth, of Nettlestead in Suffolk; Margaret who married, first, Sir John Mortimer of Essex, 2dly, Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, from whom she was divorced;<sup>7</sup> Lucy, married to Sir Thomas Fitz-Williams of Aldwark in Yorkshire, and afterwards to Sir Anthony Brown; and Isabella,<sup>8</sup> married to Sir William Huddleston.—Upon a division of the estate of the Ingaldesthorps, &c. which, was not till in or about the 11th of Henry VII. on the death of Joan their grandmother, this manor of Rainham, with that of Wimbotsham in Norfolk, Sauston, &c. in Cambridgeshire, came to Isabella aforesaid, who is said to have been relict of the Lord Dacres, before her marriage with Huddleston, and after the death of Huddleston, to have married William Smith, a third husband; and died November 12, in the 9th of Henry VIII. seized of this manor of Rainham, with the advowson of the church of St. Mary, Wimbotsham manor and advowson with the manor of Sutesham in Norfolk, the manors of Sauston Dernford, with Berklow manor and advowson, in Cambridgeshire, &c. and John Huddleston was her son and heir, aged 20, as appears from an inquisition taken at Cambridge, August 8th, in the 9th of the said King.

Sir John Huddleston, her son and heir by Sir William, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Edward Sutton Lord Dudley; and by an inquisition taken at Norwich April 30, in the 28th of Henry VII. it appears that he died seized of the manor of Ingaldesthorp in Reinham, had view of frank pledge, the advowson of the church of St. Mary, held of the King, in capite, by the fourth part of a fee: (he died at Sauston, some years before this, on October 6, in the 23d of the said King) and John was his son and heir, aged 14 years; he was afterwards a knight, and in 1543, sold this manor to Sir Roger Townsend, Knt. who had the King's license for that purpose.

This Sir John Huddleston descended from the ancient family of Millum-Castle, in Cumberland, and bore for his arms, gules, fretty, argent; and, in right of his grandmother, the lady Isabella, who brought this lordship into the family, he quartered these arms, gules, a saltire argent, and a file of three points, of the 2d, and azure, Gobone-Nevill Marquis Montacute. Argent, three fusils in fess gules, Montacute Earl of Salisbury. Or, an eagle displayed, vert, Monthermer Earl of Gloucester. England in a bordure argent, Holland Earl of Kent. Argent, a saltier ingrailed gules, Tiptoft Earl of Worcester. Gules, a cross ingrailed, argent, Ingaldesthorp. Argent, on a canton, gules, a rose, or, Bradston. Or, a lion rampant, gules, Charleton

Lord Powis. Azure, a fess between three leopards faces, or, De La Pole. Argent, on a fess indented sable, three bezants, Burgh

This lordship thus being conveyed into the family of Townsend, wherein it remains at this present time, 1764, it will be proper in this place to treat of the same from ancient records, and authentick evidences.

It is undoubtedly a family of great antiquity in this county: Collins, in his history of the peerage,<sup>9</sup> says, that Lodowic, or Lewis, a Norman, surnamed Townsend, soon after the conquest, married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Haywell, (rather Havile;) and was succeeded by Sir Walter de Townsend, who took to wife Maud, daughter of Sir Roger Scogan, Knt.—But this will appear to be a great mistake. The family is wrote in old deeds, &c. Ad Exitum Villa.—William ad Exitum Villa, that is Townsend, or Tunnesend, held considerable lands of the prior of Norwich's lordship in Taverham, in the reign of King John.—Stephen, son of Walter Atte Townsend, lived in the reign of Henry III. and, with Agnes his wife, purchased by fine of William de Denver, lord of Denver, and Maud his wife, a messuage and lands, in Downham; and about the same time lived Thomas Atte Townsend, of West Herling, possessed of a valuable estate, &c. and sealed then with a chevron, between three escallops, the arms of the family at this day.<sup>1</sup>

Thomas, son of William Atte Townsend, of Snoring Magna, lived in the said town, settled all his estates in that town, Snoring Parva, Thorpland, and Barsham, in Norfolk, on John his son and heir, by deed dated July 11, 1377, wherein he mentions Roger his brother. John, son of John aforesaid, was living at Snoring Magna in 1378 and 1396; he added much to the family estate, and held part of a fee in Rainham Magna and Parva, of Roger Mortimer Earl of March, of the honour of Clare, in 1398, and was the first of the family that settled at Rainham, or had an interest therein.

About the year 1400, Sir Walter de Townsend was living, son of Sir Lodowick de Townsend, whom Collins places at the head of this family, and says, that he married Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Thomas Havile, and to have lived soon after the conquest: that Collins is mistaken, in respect of the time that Sir Lodowick lived in appears from this proof; Sir Walter aforesaid married Maud, daughter of Sir Roger Scogan, Knt. by whom he had a son Roger.

Roger, son of Sir Walter, took to wife Catherine, daughter of John Atterton, Esq. of Sussex, and was father of Sir Thomas Townsend, whose wife Agnes was daughter of William Pain, Gent.

This Sir Thomas was buried in the choir of White-Friars church in Fleet-street, London;<sup>2</sup> and on the first of April, 1421, letters of administration were granted to Agnes, relict of Sir Thomas Townsend, and Roger Townsend, of Rainham, (son, as I take it, and heir, of Sir Thomas;) of the goods of Thomas Payn, probably brother of Agnes, (Collins says Eleanor;) which family held a lordship in Helloughton, and sealed with a fess between three birds; and their estate came to the *Townsend*s. The said Roger Townsend, Esq. was a feelee for the manor of Welborn, in 1444, and married Elianor, daughter of Sir Thomas Giggas, of Rollsby, who bore, sable, a fretted ermine, and a chief chequer, argent, and of the second.

In 1433, he, Sir William Oldhall, and John Briggs, Esq. were feoffees of Edmund Eshall, for lands in Hempton, Pudding-Norton, Tofts, &c.

John, his son and heir, succeeded: Joan, his wife, was daughter and heir of Sir Robert Lunsford of Rumford in Essex; his will is dated in 1465, proved January 4th, 1466, and was buried in the middle of the body of the church of St. Mary in Rainham, before the image of the crucifix of our Lord;<sup>3</sup> appoints one secular priest to celebrate for his soul, and that of Agnes his wife, for the space of 20 years, where the body of the said Agnes lies; to John, son of John Blakeney, his grandson, 20 marks; appoints Isabel his wife, and Roger Townsend his son, executors; to Roger and his heirs, his manors of Havills and Rouses, in Rainham, lands, &c. in Horningtoft, called Scarndels, lands, &c. in Titleshale, called Caldewets, with the wood called Grinstons, lands in Helloughton, with all his lands in Rainham and Willingham, except those which he lately gave to John Blakeney, Esq. with his daughter Joan, in marriage.

ROGER TOWNSEND, Esq. son and heir of John, and Joan his wife, was entered a student of Lincoln's-Inn, elected a governour of that society in the first year, &c. of King Edward IV. and Lent reader. In 1461, the third part of the manor of Haviles in Rainham, by fine levied, was conveyed to him by Henry Argenton, and Cecilia his wife; in 1468, was a trustee for James Arblaster, in purchasing the lordship a Wichingham St. Mary; in 1472, a feoffee for the Countess of Oxford's manor of Fersfield, and member of parliament for Calne, in Wiltshire; and in 1476, purchased by fine of Roger Oliver of London, Sherman, and Elizabeth his wife, their interest or part in Havile's lordship, so that the whole was now in this family; and about the same time, a commissioner to settle the disputes between the priory and the city of Norwich.

In the 17th of Edward IV. he was called to the degree of serjeant at law; in 1480, summoned to be an assistant to the house of lords in Parliament; in the 1st of Edward V. King's serjeant at law; and, in the following year, was appointed a justice of the Common Pleas, King Henry VII. renewed his patent, and knighted him, in his chamber at Worcester, on Whitsunday before his coronation.

He married Anne, daughter and coheiress of Sir William Brews of Stinton-hall, in Norfolk, who brought him that manor, and a great inheritance in land;<sup>4</sup> by this lady he had 6 sons and 6 daughters;—Roger, John, Robert, George, Thomas, and Gyles;—of the daughters, —Thomasine was wife of Sir Thomas Woodhouse, of Kimberley, Knight of the Bath; ———, to Anthony Castell, of Raveningham, Esq. Anne, betrothed to Philip Cressener, of Attleburgh, Esq. Susan, wife of Sir Edward Windham of Felbrigg; and Catherine, of Sir Henry Bedingfield, of Oxburgh.

COLLINS says, she died October 31, in the 5th of Henry VII.; the will of the judge is dated August 14, Mo. 8th of Henry VII. in which year he died, November 9 ; appoints his body (if he died at London to be buried in the church of the White-friars, in Fleet-street, before the crucifix ; but if at Rainham, in the chapel of St. Catherine, in St. Mary's church ; and makes Eleanor, his wife, sole executrix and guardian, to Roger his eldest son. Eleanore survived the judge ; her will is dated, November 9, 1499, and proved October 8, 1500. She orders her body to be buried by the high altar, before our Blessed Lady, in the chancel of Rainham St. Mary, and a new tomb to be made for her husband's and her bones ; upon which tomb to be cunningly graven a sepulchre for Easter-day, if a chapel be not made at her decease ; and if a chapel be made, then she would be buried in the same, and her husband's bones to be had home into the same chapel, and the tomb to be made there : names Sir Robert Clere, Knt. her executor.

Bloufield says, that Lady Anne (first wife of the judge) did not die till in the year 1551 ; if so, she survived the judge about 60 years : but it appears that the judge had a second wife Eleanore, who died in 1500, as aforesaid. I am inclined to think that the judge died at London, and was not buried at Rainham.

ROGER, eldest son of the judge, was bred to the law, and, among other gentlemen of worth and dignity of this county, was appointed a commissioner by act of parliament, for assessing, &c. a subsidy of one hundred, sixty three thousand pounds, by a poll-tax, in the 5th of Henry VIII. On the 20th of June, in the said year, Sir William Sydney of Walsingham, in Norfolk, to fulfil the will of the judge, his father, delivered and confirmed to him, all the lands, tenements, rents, and services of Scroby Rivet's manor, &c. in Spectushale, in Suffolk, which he held jointly with Sir Roger, the judge, William Gourney, Esq. &c. of the grant of John Hoo of Blythburgh, and Sir John Heveningham.

In the 10th of the said King, he covenanted to serve the King with 10 men at arms ; was thrice sheriff of Norfolk ; in 1525, received the honour of knighthood ; (Collins says, it was on the King's return from Bulloign, A<sup>o</sup>. 37th of Henry VIII.;) was one of the masters in the Court of Requests, in 1529 ; and in the said year, one of the King's council, with the Bishop of Lincoln ; and a feoffee of the manor of Kilverston, for the Duke of Norfolk, and had of the manor of Scales, in Rainham, from the king.<sup>5</sup>

In 1545, he purchased of Sir John Huddleston, the lordship of Ingaldesthorp, in this town, and in the following year, in commission with the Duke of Norfolk, the Earl of Surrey, and Earl of Sussex, Sir Richard Southwell, Sir William Paston, &c. to raise a benevolence for the King, and knight of that shire, in parliament, A<sup>o</sup>. 33d of the said King ; and by a letter from the Duke of Somerset, dated at the Tower, February 12th A<sup>o</sup>. 1st of Edward VI. required, with the Earl of Sussex, Sir William Paston, &c. on the death of King Henry VIII. to take care of the peace of the said county.

His will is dated July 31, 1550 ; he desires his body to be buried in the chancel of East Rainham church ; names George and Thomas, his brothers, executors, and Sir Henry Bedingfield supervisor of it ; mentions his lordships, lands, &c. in East, South, and West-Rainham,

P. November 30, 1551, his will was proved May 10, 1552.

Here it may be proper to mention what Leland the antiquary has said, who lived in the time of King Henry VIII.—"The grandfather of Townsend now living, (who was John Townsend, Esq. abovementioned, son and heir of Sir Thomas) was a mean man of substance; the father of Townsend, now living, got about hunderith pound of land by the yere, with much traveling yn the law.—Townsend now being first by enclining to the law, and good husbandry at home hath encreased his lande to the sum of another hunderith pound; and this Townsende, now lyving, by marriage of a daughter, heir general to Hansard of Lincolushire, had about 300 marks byside, of landes and yerely rents: he hath had fair issue by this woman, so that his sunne and heire, shaul be a man of a 600 markes of londe by the yere, yet cam not all the londes of the Hansards to Townsend, for there be yet left of the name."

In answer to this, it appears from unquestionable authority and proof above, that John Townsend, Esq. grandfather of Sir Roger, then living, was not a mean man of substance; he married Joan, daughter and heir of Sir Robert Lunsford, and was son and heir of Sir Thomas Townsend.

He died possessed of the lordships of Haviles and Rouses in Rainham, and of that of Helloughton; considerable lands in Horningtoft, Wellingham, &c. married a daughter, Joan, to John Blakeney, Esq. the said John, on his death, appointed a secular priest to pray for him, &c. for 20 years.

The father of Townsend then living, who got (as he expresses it) an 100*l. per annum* with much travelling in the law, was Sir Roger, a person of great eminency and dignity, made judge of the Common Pleas, by King Richard III. and in the reign of Henry VII.

SIR ROGER TOWNSEND, son of this judge, (whom Leland says, now living,) was also a gentleman of great honour and worth, both at home, and at court, where he had considerable posts, and was one of the King's privy council, &c. as has been shown.

The judge, his father, married Anne, daughter and coheir of Sir William Brews, a very ancient family, who held by descent a great estate, and not a Hansard; her sister and coheir, Thomasine, married Sir Thomas Hansard; so great and suprising is the mistake that Leland has made relating to this family.

JOHN TOWNSEND, Esq. second son of the judge, lived mostly at Brampton in Suffolk; by Eleanor his wife, daughter of Sir John Heydon of Baconsthorp, he had Richard, his eldest son. This John died August 4, 1540, before his eldest brother Sir Roger.

ROBERT, the third son, married Alice, daughter and heir of Robert Poppy, Esq. of Lincolushire; was serjeant at law, a knight, justice of Chester, steward of Pentuey priory, had a pension on its dissolution, lord of South-hall in Overe, and Neither-Geist, of Wood-Norton

Twyford, and Foxleys, had the rectory of Geyst, and advowson of the vicarage, seized also of the Augustine friary of Ludlow in Shropshire; died in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, leaving, Thomas his son and heir, (as was found by an inquisition taken at Salop, August 11, 1556,) aged 22: from him descended the *Townsend*s of Brakenash in Norfolk, of Gloucestershire, and Shropshire.

GEORGE TOWNSEND, Esq. was the fourth son, and married a daughter of Sir Richard Thurston, sheriff of London, in 1516, and had a son Gyles; George was executor to his brothers, Thomas and Giles, and living in 1554.

THOMAS, the fifth son, from whom descended the families at Tes-terton, Cranworth, and Wretham.

GILES was the sixth son; to him Sir Robert his brother, on Decem-ber 3d, in the 35th of Henry VIII. then serjeant at law, granted the rectories of Whitwell and Berwick, the manor of Geyste, the rectory and manor of Ryburgh Parva, with the manor and rectory of Hel-ge-ton in Norfolk, their court-leets, in all which (except Whitwell) they enfeoffed their brother Roger.<sup>7</sup>

RICHARD TOWNSEND, Esq. son and heir of John Townsend, Esq. (second son of the judge, Sir Roger, and brother to Sir Roger Towns-ent, who died in 1550,) was aged 22, at his father's death, in 1540; he married Catherine, 3d daughter and coheir of Sir Humphrey Brown of Ridley in Oxfordshire, a justice of the Common Pleas; died May 9, 1552, his will being dated July 20, 1551;<sup>8</sup> his wife survived him, and remarried John Roper, Esq. of Eltham in Kent, master of the King's Bench Office. Richard had by her, Elizabeth, married to Thomas Godsalve, Esq. of Buckenham Ferry, and a son Roger, his heir, and heir to his great uncle, Sir Roger, appointed by his will, in 1550. This Richard lived also, as his father, at Brampton.

This Roger, son and heir of Richard, was a minor at his father's death, and proved his age in 1564: in the year 1588, we find him in the English fleet, in the fight against the Spanish Armado; and on the 26th of July, in the said year, was knighted by the Lord High Admiral, Charles Howard, at sea, with the Lord Howards, Lord Sheffield, John Hawkins, and Martin Frobisher;<sup>9</sup> and as the aforesaid lords had a principal command in the said fleet and engagement, so no doubt had this Roger, who is named next to them, and before Hawkins and Frobisher. He died at Newington, by London, June 30, 1590, and was buried in the church of St. Giles, Cripplegate, at London.<sup>1</sup> By Jane his lady, youngest daughter of Sir Michael Stanhope of Shelord in Nottinghamshire, (ancestor of the Earls of Chesterfield and Stanhope,) he left John, his eldest son, and Robert, created a knight 1633;<sup>2</sup> and married Ann, daughter of William Lord Spencer, who died, s. p. Sir Roger's lady surviving him, remarried Henry Lord Berkeley.

John Townsend, son and heir of Sir Roger, married Ann, daughter and coheir of Sir Nathaniel Bacon of Stivekey, or Stukey, in Norfolk; was lord of that town, of Langham and Merston; in a duel with Sir Matthew Brown, died of his wounds on August 2d, 1603, leaving Roger, his eldest son, and Stanhope, his 2d son, who died also of his wounds, in a duel in the Low Countries, and unmarried. His lady survived him many years, dying May 20th, 1630, and was buried at Rainham. Ann, their daughter, married John Spilman, son and heir of Sir Henry Spilman. In 1591, I find John Townsend, Esq. of Norfolk, to give the senior proctor's staff to the University of Cambridge, of which he had been a member, in Trinity college; and probably was this Sir John, who was knighted for his valour by the Earl of Essex at Cales, in Spain, in 1596.

Roger, his son and heir, was a minor, aged 8 years, on his father's death, created a baronet April 16th, 1617; on the 20th of May, 1620, he had license to travel for three years, with three servants, and necessaries, but not to go to Rome, as appears by the council book.* He built the present seat of Rainham-hall; of this, see Spilman. By Mary his wife, daughter and coheir of Horatio Vere Lord Vere of Tilbury, of the noble family of the Veres Earls of Oxford, he had Roger and Horace, his two sons, and 5 daughters; Mary, married to Thomas Lord Crew of Stene in Northamptonshire; Jane, to John Windham, Esq. Anne, to William Cartwright of Aynhoe, in Northamptonshire; Elizabeth, who died single; and Vere, to Sir Ralph Hare, Bart. of Stow Bardolf. He died January 1st, 1637, aged 41, having granted three or four of his appropriations to the church.

By an inquisition taken at Thetford, June 8th, in 1637, he was found to have died possessed of the following lordships, &c.—Ingaldesthorp manor, in East-Rainham; Scales, in South-Rainham, held of the King, in capite, by knight's service, of the manor or honour of Haughley in Suffolk;—Sherborn's, in West-Rainham, held of Ingaldesthorp's manor in soccage, and the rent of 3s. 4d. per ann. with the lordships of Hall's, Monrehouse, and Pain's, in Rainham, held as aforesaid;—Hayvile's manor in West-Rainham, held of the King, as of his castle of Norwich, in soccage;—Staple's manor in Rainham, held in soccage of the manor of Haviles, paying 2s. per ann.;—a capital messuage, called Le Upper-house, &c. in South-Rainham, and West-Rainham;—divers lands and tenements in Normansbergh, South Rainham, Willingham, and Tittleshale;—divers lands and a tenement, with 20 acres in Rainham, and Helloughton, lately belonging to Hempton priory, held in capite;—the rectories of Helloughton, West-Rudham, —;—Kypton manor, held of the King, in capite;—messuages, lands, and tenements, in Wesenham, containing 107 acres, with Finzham's tenement; held in soccage of the manor of Wesenham, and paying 5s. per ann.—Helloughton, St. Faith's manor, and Helloughton manor, held of the King, in capite, by knight's service;—the manor of Pattlesly;—divers lands and tenements in Tofis, called Benson's, Odyham's, and Townsend's, held in soccage;—Stibberd manor, held in soccage of the manor of Fakenham, and paying 13s. 4d. per ann.—Paywell's manor in Ryborough, held of the manor of Sculthorpe, in free soccage;—St. Faith's manor in Ryborough Parva;—Stinton-hall manor in Salle;—two hundred acres of land, called Serbrigg's park, with a wood, &c. in Causton, held of Causton manor, in free soccage; the manors of Langham and Murston; the manor of Stewky, alias Stuky Tertevills, Irminglands and Carlew, Knights, &c. East-hall, alias East's tenements, held of the SIR ROGER TOWNSEND, Bart. son of Sir Roger aforesaid, was a minor at his father's decease; and dying in his minority, was succeeded in honour and estate, by his brother, Sir Horace, a minor also, in ward to the King, born in 1630, created Baron Townsend, of Lynn Regis, in Norfolk, April 20th, 1661, and Viscount Townsend of Rainham, December 11th, 1682, was in great favour with King Charles II. who paid him a visit at Rainham in 1671; was made lord lieutenant of the county of Norfolk, and city of Norwich, in 1660. He married in 1649 Mary, daughter and heir of Edward Lewknor, Esq. son and heir of Sir Edward Lewknor of Denham, in Suffolk, Knt. who brought into the family that town, and other valuable estates. She died in 1673, without issue, and was buried at Rainham, on May 22d. His second lady was Mary, daughter of Sir Joseph Ashe of Twickenham, in Middlesex, Bart. by whom he had his son and successour, Charles, and Roger Townscud, Esq. member of parliament for Yarmouth in Norfolk, who died unmarried, May 22d, 1709, and was buried at Rainham. His 3d son was Horace, member of parliament for Heytesbury in Wiltshire, and one of the commissioners of the Excise.

Charles Lord Viscount Townshend was born in 1675; King Charles, and the Duke of York were his godfathers; was a nobleman of great honour, worth, and ability, as the posts that were conferred on him testify; a governour of the Charter-house, one of the privy council, Knight of the Garter, sent ambassadour by Queen Anne to the States General, captain of the yeomen of the guard, a commissioner for the union, chose by King George I. one of the regency in his absence, principal secretary of state, appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland, which he declined; president of the council, and again secretary of state, in which office he continued, till he resigned it in May 1730; was also lord lieutenant, and custos rotulorum of the county of Norwich.

His first wife was Elizabeth, 2d daughter of Thomas Lord Pelham, by whom he had 4 sons; Charles, who succeeded him; Thomas, member of parliament for the University of Cambridge, one of the tellers of the Exchequer; William, aid-de-camp to King George I. member of parliament for Yarmouth; Roger, member for Yarmouth on his brother's death, and captain of a troop of horse; Elizabeth, the daughter, married the Lord Cornwallis. By Dorothy, his 2d wife, daughter of Robert Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, and sister to Robert Walpole Earl of Orford, he left George, lieutenant of a man of war; Augustus, captain of an East India ship; Horatio, commissioner of the victualling-office; and — Edward, rector of Pulham in Norfolk, deputy clerk of the King's closet, D. D. prebendary of Westminster, and dean of Norwich. This Lord died on June 21st, 1738. Dorothy, one of his daughters by this lady, married Spencer Cooper, dean of Durham, the other, Mary, married the Honourable Edward Cornwallis, Esq. member for Westminster.

Charles, his eldest son and heir, was summoned to parliament, May 24th, 1723, as Lord Lynn, in the life of his father; was gentleman of the bed-chamber to King George I. commissioner of trade and the plantations, master of the Jewel-office;—died at Rainham, March 13th, 1764. He married Audrey, daughter and heiress of Edward Harrison, Esq. Governour of Fort St. George in the East Indies, and of Balls, in Hertfordshire; by whom he had, 1, George; 2, Charles, who married the Honourable Countess of Dalkeith, relict of the Earl of Dalkeith, son and heir to the Duke of Buckleugh, member for Yarmouth, paymaster of the King's forces; 3, Roger, a colonel, killed at Ticonderago, in America; 4, Edward, died young; and Audrey, a daughter, unmarried.

SCALES-MANOR.

Another part or moiety of Hugh de Montfort's lordship came to the family of Scales, (as I conceive, and have above observed,) by the marriage of a daughter and coheir of Lisewisc; and this family was in possession of it in the reign of King John, and Henry III. this moiety, or lordship, was that of South Reinham. Robert de Scales was son of Roger de Scales, and left Maud his widow, in the 3d of Henry III. she being then remarried to William de Beauchamp, a fine was levied between her, and this Roger, her son, of the 3d part of 2 carucates of land, or the lordship of Middleton, and certain rents, as parcel of her dower; and it is to be observed, that this lordship of Middleton in Norfolk was also one of those which the aforesaid Hugh de Montfort held at the survey. See there. In the 33d of Edward I. this manor was found to consist of one capital messuage, 120 acres of land, 14 of meadow, 17 of pasture, a water-mill, &c. in demean, and was held of the honour of Haughtley. In the 5th of Edward III. it appears, that certain herbage belonged to it at Kipton. Inhams, and South Wadhirne, let to Sir John de Ingaldesthorpe, with a fishery, part let to Sir John Ingaldesthorpe, at 12d. per ann. and part to Sir Harvile, at 12d. and it paid 4s. 4d. per ann. castle-guard to Dover.

In a computus of the bailiff of this manor,  Ao. 5<sup>o</sup>. Edward III. I find wheat sold at 3s. 4d. per quarter, and about Lent at 8s. per quarter.—Barley at 3s. 4d.; pease at 6s. 8d.; oats at 4s. 6d.; a bushel of hemp-seed 2s.; six long hurdles, (claiis) 6d.; a seot, (bought in to fat) 6s. 6d.; for the making of 12 capons, 1d.; for 10 geese 2s.; four stone of cheese, 3s. 8d.; one bushel of salt, 4d.; paid for thrashing of wheat, 2d. per quarter, barley, 1d. ob.; oats, 1d.; pease, 3d.; for the fanning, or cleaning (ventilatione) of 9 quarters of corn, 2d.; for the mowing 22 acres of pasture, 9s. 2d. per acre, 5d.

Paid a carpenter for 3 days work, 10d.; a shepherd's, or neatherd's wages, (bercatoris,) for one year, 3s.; a carter's, 40d.; a swineherd's, 12d.; for the carriage of a swan, from this town to Wilton, by Brandon, with, &c. 2d.

For the farm of 21 new milch cows, and their calves, for one year, 6l. 6s. every cow valued at 6s. and 10 calves were excepted of the best for the lady of the manor, (Lady Scales;) and for the farm of 9 hens, 2s. 3d. each hen at 3d.

In this family of the Lord Scales it continued, till Elizabeth, the only daughter and heir of Thomas Lord Scales, the last of that ancient family,<sup>5</sup> brought it by marriage to Anthony Woodvile Earl Rivers, and Lord Scales, who being attainted, and beheaded in the reign of King Richard III. that King gave it, with many other lordships,<sup>6</sup> to his great favourite, John Howard Duke of Norfolk; but on the accession of Henry VII. to the crown, that Duke being attainted, it remained in the Crown till granted in 29th of Henry VIII. to Sir Roger Townshend, and so continues, being united to the other lordships in this town.

HAVILE'S, OR HAUVIL'S MANOR.

This was the next capital manor in this town; Ulviet held it in the time of the Confessor, but at the survey it was in the hands of the Conqueror, and Godric took care of it, or farmed it of him. In King Edward's time, it consisted of two carucates of land, eleven bordarers, two servi, and two carucates in demean, one carucate amongst the men or tenants, paunage for ten swine, four acres of meadow, a mill, &c. and 63 sheep. Helgetun was a beruite to it, of half a carucate of land; and two bordarers here held half a carucate, and one servus, one mill, an acre of meadow, a fishcry, and a salt-work belonged to it, &c. with 42 sheep. There belonged to this manor of Reinham, also, 16 socmen, who held one carucate of land, and two carucates and an half, &c. with six bordarers, paunage for four swine, and two acres of meadow. In Helgetun, six socmen held half a carucate of land, two bordarers, two carucates, &c. and two acres of meadow, valued in King Edward's time at 40s. at the survey at 6*l.* per ann.—Reinham was one leuca long, and three furlongs broad, and paid 20*d.* gelt; and Helgeton was four furlongs long, and three furlongs broad, and paid 10*d.* gelt.<sup>7</sup>

This lordship remained in the Crown many years, till King Stephen gave it, with the manors of Hingham, Stow, Rackheith, Erleham, &c. to William de Caineto, or Cheyney, in exchange for Moleham or Mileham,<sup>8</sup> on condition, that if he or his son should like Moleham better, that they might renounce it, which Cheyney did soon after, and so was again lodged in the Crown; and the said King granted it to the Haviles. In 1196, Sir Ralph de Havile was lord of Ertham, by Norwich: he was a younger brother of Humphrey de Havile,<sup>9</sup> de Alta Villa, or Hautville, as they styled themselves, and purchased this lordship of Humphrey, who probably was lord of this town. This Ralph hereupon changed his name to that of De Ertham; the river here appears by this to be called the Hier of Er.

In 1233, Henry de Havile was lord, and held it by grand serjeanty, as falconer to the King, and paying 40s. per ann. to the King, fee-farm rent.<sup>1</sup> He died in 1252, when the jury present, that he held this manor in capite, and gave it to Thomas, his younger son, Ralph and Henry being his two elder sons. This Thomas, and others, disseized Johu, son of Matthew, of his free tenement in Reynham Magna, in the 41st of King Henry III. At this time it appears, that the Haviles were a spreading family, and several of them had interests in this town. Alan, son of John de Havile, and Margery, lived at this time; he was uncle to John, and Elias de Havile, and brother to William, who had several sons; John, Roger, Ralph, Richard, and Geffrey. In the 14th of Edward I. there was a suit among these, to enquire if the aforesaid Alan, uncle of Elias de Hauvill, died seized in demean, and in fee of one messuage, 44 acres of land, two acres and three roods of meadow, 128 acres of pasture, with 9s. rent per ann. in Reinham.

In 1266, Thomas de Havile died seized of this manor, and that of Dunton, and Kettleston, in 1275. Thomas his son (as I take it) claimed the lete here, and in Downton: in 1277, a fine was levied between this Thomas and Henry de Havile, by which Thomas conveyed to him 10*l.* rent per ann. in Dunton and Ducton, and 3*l.* in Reynham and Kettleston, with divers lands in Lincolnshire, released to Henry, together with a tenement, late Henry de Haviles, (grandfather of Thomas;) this probably was by way of trust; for in 1286, that Thomas de Hauvile held a certain lastage in Lynn, of the King, in capite, valued at 100*s.* per ann. by the service of keeping a gerfalcon for the King;<sup>2</sup> and in 1296, Thomas de Hauvile gave 40*s.* relief to the King, for his lands, tenements, &c. in Reynham, Helgeton, Tofts, Oxwyke, Patesley, Norton, Gateley, Horningtoft, and Stanfield, held in capite, by paying 40*s.* per ann. castle-guard to Norwich.

In 1301, Thomas de Havile impleaded Thomas de Ingaldesthorp and about 60 others, of Reynham, for pulling down a pillory newly erected by him for the execution of justice, &c. Ingaldesthorp pleads, that he, and Robert de Scales, were lords also of the said town, and had view of frankpledge, &c. therein, and that Havile held only a third manor or part in this town, and that Havile having erected the pillory on the common ground, and not on his own proper soil, they pulled it down.<sup>3</sup>

In the said year Thomas de Havile died, (and Thomas was found to be his son and heir,) seized of lands, tenements, rents, &c. here, held in capite, paying 40*s.* per ann. blanch-farm to Norwich castle, the whole then valued at 6*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.* per ann. This Thomas paid to the King 40*s.* relief in 1306, for this manor, and held also the lordships of Tofts, Oxwyk, Pattesley, Norton, Gateley, Horningtoft, and Stanfield. In 1316, Thomas, son of Thomas de Hauvill, held by his father's enfeoffment, the manors of Dunton and Reynham, with the advowson of the church of Reynham St. Margaret, paying for Dunton 18*s.* per ann. (as it was then found,) and keeping the King's gerfalcon, at the King's costs, and paying 40*s.* per ann. (as above) into the sheriff of Norfolk's hands: and in the said year, he gave to the priory of Miremound the patronage of the aforesaid church, with one acre of land. In 1318, this manor was settled by John de Havill, and Joan his wife, on themselves, by fine; by this it appears, that this lordship was about this time divided; for in the year 1329, Maud, late wife of Thomas de Hauvill, paid 10 marks to the King, for license to keep to herself and her heirs, the manors of Reynham and Dunton:<sup>4</sup> and before this, in 1326, it was found that it would not be to the loss of the King if he granted to Thomas de Havile leave to infeof, in the manors of Reynham and Dunton, Maud his wife, and his heirs, together with the advowson of the churches of Reynham, Dunton, and Doketon: the manor of Dunton is then said to be worth 9*l.* per ann. and that of Reynham 40*s.* and no more; because (as it is expressed) though it was held for a manor, yet no profit was from it but the rent of the assise.

In 1330, James de Havile gave the King 10 marks, for license to have a fine to grant to Robert Tiffour and Maud his wife the manors of Reynham and Dunton, and that they might regrant them to the said James and Anne, daughter of James Wace, and the heirs of James and Anne; and in 1345, Sir James Havile was lord; and in 1354, Roger de Caston, who was rector of Rainham St. Mary, was found to hold it, in trust, as I take it.

Soon after, this lordship of Rainham Haviles came into the family of the *Townsend*s, by the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas de Haywell, or Havile, Knt. to Lewis de Townsend; as Collins, in his Peerage, observes; but this does not appear from any records or evidences that I have met with; and if an heiress of Havile was married, (as is above observed,) only some part or portion of this manor came to the *Townsend*s, by that marriage.

The SCOGGANS, a family of good account, were about this time possessed of the principal part of this lordship, and had their residence here; Robert Scoggan of Reynham was a witness to a deed of Sir Thomas de la Rivere, Knt. lord of Sporte, in 1361: Thomas Scoggan, Esq. was in the retinue of the great Norfolk commander, Sir Robert Knolles, in 1378, and attended John King of Castile and Leon, and Duke of Lancaster, in his expedition into Spain.<sup>5</sup>

JOHN SCOGGAN of East Reynham, clerk, was lord of Haviles in 1379, and manumised Godwyn Werp of Pudding-Norton, and John his son, his villains, as appears by this deed, — “*Omnib; Xti. fidelib; ad quos p̄sentis. In 1391, John Scoggan (capellane) aforesaid died seized of the manor of Haviles, and Henry his brother was found to be his heir, (as is proved by the eschaet-rolls;) aged 30; and the said Henry occurs lord in 1395, and held it by the service of paying 40*s.* per ann. to Norwich castle, at the feasts of Easter and St. Michael, by equal portions: this Henry died seized of it in 1407, and Robert was his son and heir aged 19 years. This was, as I presume, that Henry Scoggan, famous for his wit and humour in the time of King Henry IV. who wrote a ballad directed (as Stow informs us<sup>6</sup>) to Prince Henry, the King's son, Thomas Duke of Bedford, and Humphrey Duke of Glou- cester, at supper with the merchants of London; an author out of whom the said historian (as he tells us) gathered materials, and was buried in the cloisters of Westminster abbey. Robert Scoggan above-mentioned was lord of Haviles in 1409, and Rouses manor in Rainham, with a toft called Wards; and in 1414, released to Henry Maupas, clerk, &c. all his right in all his manors, lands and tenements here and elsewhere, in Norfolk, which formerly belonged to John Scoggan his uncle, and Henry his father.<sup>7</sup>

In 1420, William Champneys of Oxwyk confirmed to William Marchall, Esq. of East Reinham, Thomas Scoggan, &c. several lands in East Reinham field, and Oxwyk.—Witnesses, John Soper of East Reinham, John Barker and William Brown of East Reinham, &c.

About this time lived Walter de Townsend, who is said to have married Maud, daughter of Sir Roger Scoggan, who probably brought with her all Scoggan's right in this manor; after this I find no mention made of any of that family, as lords here; but in Edward the Fourth's reign, lived John Scoggan, descended most probably from this family, a celebrated poet: Bale says, he was by nature a jocose and a witty man, profited so much in philosophy, and other liberal arts, that he was A. M. at Oxford, and was so greatly esteemed for his smart and witty expressions, that he was sent for by King Edward IV. to court; where, as another Democritus, he turned all into jokes, mirth, and laughter; published certain comedies, and a book Ad Proceres Curia, &c. Sir Richard Baker, also, mentions him as a learned gentleman, and a student sometime at Oxford:<sup>8</sup> from him came the proverb, What says Scogane?

John Townsend, Esq. who lived in the reign of Henry VI. was undoubtedly lord of the manor of Haviles, died seized of it in 1465, from which time it has remained united to that of Ingaldesthorp, &c.

BIGOT'S, OR SHERBOURN'S MANOR.

Roger Bigot had also at the survey a small lordship here, which one freeman held in King Edward's time of the fee of Stigand, the Archbishop of Canterbury, consisting of one carucate of land, and Edwin held it under Bigot; there belonged to it 4 servi, with one carrucate, &c. 2 acres of meadow, valued in King Edward's time at 10s. at the survey at 5s. per annum; and in South Reinham, one freeman held 20 acres of land, held by Aitard, and one bordarer, and half a carucate always belonged to it, with one acre of meadow, valued before at 5s. now at 3s.<sup>9</sup>

This Roger Bigot was a principal commander under King William I. and attended him in his expedition into England, and was ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, of that name; but on the marriage of his daughter Maud, with William de Albiney, the King's chief butler, ancestor to the Earls of Arundel, it came to the said William and seems to be held of the Albineys, by the ancient family of Rainham, who took their name from this town; of this family was William, son of Bartholomew de Reynham, who in 1232, was summoned to make answer to the prior of Castleacre, in a plea of a certain debt of 69s. in arrear, for an annual rent of 3s. due to him, which Godfrey le Pover of Reynham Magna, by his deed granted to the said prior, out of a tenement of the said Godfrey, in the said village, called Scortheldestond, and out of a tenement which Roger Gos and Thomas le Carpenter held there, of the said Godfrey, and into whatever hands the said tenements should hereafter fall;<sup>1</sup> and the said William, for 23 years then last past, being possessed thereof, had detained the same: the prior on producing Godfrey's deed, and proving possession to be in William, recovered the said debt.

In 1249, Bartholomew de Reynham gave lands here, to Geffrey his son; and about the said time, Reginald and Hugh de Sprouton were found to hold lands, and tenements here, and in Kypton, &c. by the service of a knight's fee, of Robert de Tateshale, who was one of the heirs of the Earl of Arundel; and in 1268, Peter son of Roger de Reinham, had lands here, conveyed to him by fine, from Elfrid, of South Reynham.

OLIVA, late wife of Thomas, son of Giles de Reynham St. Margaret, sued ROGER de Vaux for the third part of a messuage, 18 acres of land, 3 of meadow, and 10s. rent, with appertenances in that parish, for her dower;<sup>2</sup> and in the said year, 1291, an assise was brought to know if Alan, son of John de Reinham, uncle of Elias de Havile, was seized of lands and rents in the 3 Reinhams, of which Thomas, son of Richard de Snetterton, William, son of Bartholomew de Reinham, Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and Robert de Scales, held parcels, (John Fitz Richard, brother of Alan, being heir to Alan,) before William de Giselham, and H. de Cressingham, the King's justices, at Norwich. And by a fine levied in 1306, it was agreed, that Robert de Reinham should hold certain tenements, and lands in Reinham St. Margaret, of Richard de Gemeston, and Alice his wife, by the rent of 20d. per annum for all services. Edmund de Reynham, Knt. was living in 1379.

After this I find no mention of the family of Reinham, in this town. In 1345, Thomas Neel, and Catherine his mother, (who probably might be of that family) were found to hold lands and tenements here, and in Kypton, by the service of half a fee, of the heirs of Robert de Tateshale, which Hugh de Sproustone formerly held; and in 1407, Henry Scoggan held a messuage, called Rainham-Hards, with lands here; and Robert his son, in 1409, held a messuage, formerly Edmund de Reinham's, &c. but the manor of Rainham was before this, in the family of Sherborne, who gave their name to it: Henry, son and heir of John Sherborne, conveyed it by fine, in 1495, to Thomas Gygges, and Thomas Curson, with the manors of Hedenham and Kelling.

In the reign of Henry VI. it came (as I take it) into the family of Townsend, Sir John Townsend held it in Queen Elizabeth's time, and was found to die seized of it in 1603; it being called in the inquisition post mortem, the manor of Sherborn's, in West Rainham, held of the manor of Ingaldesthorp, in soccage. and paying 5s. 4d:

rent per annum.—and it remains united with the other manors in the said family.

THE EARL OF CLARE'S FEE.

Rainald, son of Ivo, had also a lordship given him by the Conqueror, which Bond was a lord of in the Confessor's time, and Boteric held it under Rainald; it consisted of 4 freemen, one of them was claimed by Herold, but Rainald held him, who had half a carucate of land; there always belonged to this one carucate, 3 acres of meadow, formerly valued at 10s. at the survey at 5s. per annum; the sheriff laid claim to Herold's man, as belonging to the lordship of Fakenham, and the hundred witnessed that it did belong to it.<sup>3</sup>

In 1176, Pope Alexander III. by his bull, confirmed to John Bishop of Norwich, the lands which William Fitz Buteri, gave to him in West Rainham;<sup>4</sup> and in the reign of Henry III. when an aid was granted on the marriage of that King's sister to the Emperor, the heirs of William Boteri were found to hold half a fee, in Reinham Parva, of the honour of Clare.

WILLIAM DE BRUNNE was found, in 1314, to hold in this town, Wyveton, Snyterle, Cley Wichingham, Stiveky, and Grmstone, lands of the aforesaid honour; and in 1345, the tenants of the fee of Gloucester held one quarter of a fee here, of the Earl of Gloucester; and in 1398, John Atte Townsend was found to hold it of Roger Mortimer Earl of March; and in the family of Townsend it appears to be, in the years 1424 and 1459, and remains so at this time, being united to the other lordships.

Besides these lordships which were at the time of the conquest, there were also some other little ones, or free tenements, which arose afterwards out of these principal ones; viz. Hall's, Pain's and Morehouse, found on the death of Sir Roger Townsend, Bart. to be held of the manor of Ingaldesthorp; Staple's manor in Rainham, held of the manor of Parvles, by soccage, and paying 2s. per annum.

Here was also the manor of Rouse's: in 1357, Richard Gallows of East Reinham confirmed lands to Roger Barker, at Talbots, in the said town, by the lauds of John Champneys, and John Rouses; to which John le Rous, Robert Scogan, &c. were witnesses. In 1407, it was possessed by Henry Scogan; and in 1409, Robert Scogan enfeoffed certain persons in the manors of Rouses, and Haviles, and afterwards came to the Townsend's, together with Haviles; and John Townsend, Esq. died seized of them in 1465.

The township of East Rainham was taxed for tenths, &c. at 6*l.* per annum deducting 20s. remained payable 5*l.*—West Rainham 5*l.* 10s. remain 3*l.* 10s. 2*l.* being deducted.—South Rainham 3*l.* 5s. deduct 15s. remain 2*l.* 10s.; these deductions were on account of lands of the religious, and were paid by them.

NORMANSBURGH PRIORY.

At a place so called in South-Rainham, William de Lisewise founded a little priory, about 1160,<sup>5</sup> for the health of his own soul, that of Maud his wife, and Godfrey his son, dedicating it to the Blessed Virgin, and St. John the Evangelist; appointing it for a cell to the priory of Castleacre, endowing it with land, called Middleles, and Franscheshoe, with the hermitage of Wigenhale, &c.—Witnesses, Alan de Tilneia, and Adam, his son, Simon Norreis, Walter and Seman, Hugh Cook, William de Lechesham, William Waleis, and Geffrey de Swaffham.

Godfrey his son, with the consent of Maud his wife, William his son and heir, and all his children, confirmed the donation and grant of his father William, of this cell on his land or lordship, and all that he had given, viz. 60 acres of land, and 10 acres, which his father afterwards had added to his first grant; all the land at Middlele and Franscheshoe, with all the land lying between the croft of Seliva, and the land of Richard de Boit, in South-Reinham, and half an acre of land by Medeles, and the hermitage of Wigenhale,<sup>6</sup> which John, the hermit, held, with all its appertences, and the third part of a certain turbarry, which Alfric, son of Kideman held, which is by the said hermitage; all which the said priory was to hold freely in pure alms without any demand, custom, or secular service, for the health of his own soul, his wife's, and all his children's, and for the soul of his father, the souls of all his ancestors and successours; and for this grant he retains, or reserves nothing to himself, or his heirs, but the prayers that shall be in the monastery of Acre, and in the church of St. John de Normansberch; and on this condition, that the monks of Acre shall make divine service to be celebrated at Normansberch, by three monks at least; to whose sustenance and support the said Godfrey adds, and gives the church of South-Reinham, with all its appertences, and 9 acres of land in Gerdel; Richard, the herdsman, or shepherd, with all his family and goods, and John le Frere, with all his family and goods, and the tenement which he held of him; and warrants the same grant against the King, and all men, free from all service whatever:—witnesses, William, prior of Lewes, Richard Coleman, Alexander, the prior's notary, Philip de Mortemer, his socii, (that is, his monks,) William de Lechesham, Eustace, the clerk, John and Godfrey de Helet, Seman Cook, and Hamon, the Earl's servant, sans date.<sup>7</sup>

From this it appears, 1st, That Godfrey had a lordship in South-Reynham, and by this grant gave part of it to this priory, which became also a lordship: 2dly, we may have some knowledge of the time of this grant; Philip de Mortimer, who was at this time one of the chief monks of Lewes, was after prior of Castleacre, and occurs so in 1203, so that it is probable it was in the time of King Henry II. 3dly, it is likely Hamon, the Earl's servant here mentioned, was servant to the Earl Warren, whose ancestors founded the priories of Lewes and Castleacre. It is probable, that the family of Lisewise might hold some fees, or lands, under the Earl Warren. William, the founder of this priory, gave to the priory of Castleacre all the tithe of his woods, and assarts at Gateley, and of his demean lands there, as in Castleacre may be seen. It is certain that Gateley, and part of this town, was held by Hugh de Montefort; and as William de Lisewise appears to have a lordship there and here, it is highly reasonable to conclude, that he held a part of this under Hugh's family, and descendants, and came from the Lisewyses, by two daughters and coheirs, to the Ingaldesthorps and Scales.

By another deed, the said Godfrey granted to the priory of Castleacre 13 acres and one rood of land, 8 acres and a rood of which was called Caldewelleil, and 5 acres of which lay in the field of East-Gisrdele in South-Rainham, and all the liberties which they had to theicell of Normansberch; also a foldcourse in all the land belonging to the church of St. John of Normansberch, which are the lands beyond the water towards the south; and all the lands, tenements, and liberties which William, his father, granted to them: witnesses, Gerard, the priest of Barsham, Roger, priest, his brother, Richard de Fulden, William de Lechesham, Roger de Sengham, Simon Mareschal, &c.

Whether this Godfrey was of the family of Dodo de Lysures, Lord Lysures de Fletborough, who had a daughter and heir, Albredge, first married to Richard Fitz-Eustace, lord of Ilalton, and constable of Chester, of whom descended the Lacies Earls of Lincoln, and afterwards married Sir William Fitz-William, of whom descended William Fitz-William Earl of Southampton. and Sir William Fitz-William, Knt. &c. I cannot say; but this I may observe, that the Fitz-Williams were afterwards patrons of the hermitage, or (priory and nunnery of Crabhouse, as it was afterwards called, and converted into,) in Wigenhale, above mentioned. This Dodo lived in the time of King Stephen, and bore, or, a chief, azure. About the said time, in the reign of King Henry II. lived Fulco de Lysures, who married Alice, daughter of —, and sister of William de Aubervill, who was a widow in 1183, aged 30; and holding lands in capite, was de donatione Regis, that is, could not marry without the King's license and consent;<sup>8</sup> and had then two sons, who were knights, and three other sons, and six daughters, married and unmarried, which last were in the ward of their mother, who held Glaphthorp and Abington in Northamptonshire, valued at 14*l. per ann.*

Godfrey also gave, with the consent of Maud his wife, to the said priory, 12*d. per ann.* rent, due from Gilbert Pauvere:<sup>9</sup> Witnesses, Ivo, Capellane, William de Bec, William de Lechesham, Godfrey de Cambridge, John de Hellet, &c.

In 1199, a fine was levied between Godfrey de Lisewyz, and Gilbert Pauperem, (Poor, or Le Pouvre.) of lands, customs, and services in Reynham, granted to Gilbert, who gave 6 marks of silver to Godfrey, one talent to Maud his wife, and another to Maud his mother, and a third to William, son of Godfrey; by this it appears, that six marks of silver were more than one talent.

Aveline, daughter of Richard de Hoxewic, by deed sans date, granted to the said priory of Normansberch one penny rent, per ann. which Richard, son of Godofrid, Dean of Hoxewic, owed to her, and all her right in a tenement, which the said Richard holds of the fee of the priory of Normansberch: Witnesses, Sir Peter Buzun, Sir Ralph de Patesle, Hamon, his son, Godfrey, son of Hugh de Hoxewic, Richard, son of Thomas de Croft, Geff. de Croft, Richard Wade of Hoxewic, Adam Buzun, Robert Sparwe, Adam, his son, Robert de Hardele, Roger de Patesle, &c.

John Gunnild, by deed sans date, granted to Ralph, son of Osbert, and to his daughters, Agnes and Joan, of Suth-Reynham, a piece of ground there, paying yearly to the priory 1*d.* Roger, son of Giles de Patesley, chaplain, by deed, sans date, released to the priory his right in a tenement which he held of the priory in Godewic; viz. the tenement which Manser le Pauver of Brecham held: Witnesses, Sir Hamon Burt, Geffery de Longvil, Ralph de Hertum, William Fitz-Ralph de Hoxewic, Richard his son, William, son of Edrick de Title-shale, Giles de Patesle, Adam Buzun Wissenset.

Jeffrey de Longvile, brother of Roger de Lonvile, by deed, sans date, confirmed to this priory all the land which Roger, his eldest brother, gave them; viz. six acres and a rood of land in Godewic, lying at Gatewong, and an acre and half at Stiwong: Witnesses, Geff. de Medlers, Roger de St. Denyns, Reimer de Dunton, Roger le Strange, Wymer de Bradeham.

Richard, son of William de Ingaldesthorpe, by the advice and consent of Maud his wife, grants to this priory 2 pieces of marsh-land, one lying in Branches furlong, between the marsh of Thomas, son of Richard, son of William, and the marsh of Jeff. de Reinham, and the homage and service of William, son of Ralph de Gateley, for the tenement which he held of him, with the appertenances, with the rent of one capon per ann.: Witnesses, Alan, son of John, Jeff. de Reinham, Barthol. son of William, John Poor, &c. sans date.

This deed, in some measure, confirms what I have observed, that the manor of East and South Reinham came to the Ingaldesthorpes and Scales, by the heiresses of Lisewise. Here we find Maud to be the wife of Richard de Ingaldesthorpe, and to grant this at the request of his wife, being related to the founder, most probably, and daughter of William de Lisewise, grandson to the founder, whose mother's and grandmother's name was also Maud.

Gowline, son of Richard Derebout, granted by deed, sans date, land in South Reinham:—Witnesses, Sir Robert de Eschalers, (or Scales), Sir Jeff. de Medlers, &c.

Roger occurs prior in Henry the Second's time,<sup>1</sup> and styles himself as below.—Hugh, prior, occurs 1204.

Simon, prior of Normansberch, occurs, 1227, with the assent of his brethren, grants to Philip de Longvil, (by deed, sans date), rector of the church of Godewic, for his homage, &c. 4 acres and a half of land in the fields of Godewic, of the gift of Pagan de Longvill, paying 12*d. per ann.*—Witnesses, Sir Thomas Burt, Sir Gilbert de Fransham, Sir Richard de Butellers, Hamon de Patesle, Ralph de Ertham, Richard, son of Walter de Tittleshale, &c. — Gervase, prior.

Roger, prior of Normansberch, styles himself in the Pope's language and style, Rogerus, servus servorum Dei, prior humilie de Reynham.—They had no spiritualities, as it is said. The temporalities of this house, in 1428, in Reinham St. Mary, were 3*s. 6d. per ann.*; in St. Martin's, 4*l. 14s. 4d.* and all their temporalities in Norfolk then were valued at 6*l. 0s. 10d. per ann.* The Duke of Norfolk had a grant of it at the Dissolution, and in 1554, on March 4th, died seized of it; but in the 33d of Henry VIII. it was in the King's hand, and farmed of the King, called the manor of Lewsexis; afterwards it came to the *Townsend*s, and in 1564, Roger Townsend held all those, late the Duke of Norfolk's, called Normansburgh, and had livery of them in that year.

RAINHAM ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

In this town were 3 churches, of which this was the chief, called also East-Rainham, and is a rectory valued, in the reign of King Edward I. at 20 marks; paid Peter-pence 10*d. ob.* The present valor is 18*l. 13s. 4d.* and pays first-fruits, and tenths.

EAST RUDHAM

WAS the lordship of the Earl Warren; Toka, a Saxon thane, whom we have often mentioned, being deprived of it at the conquest, who had in King Edward's reign, 6 villains, 16 bordarers and 3 servi, with 3 carucates, and one carucate, and 3 acres of meadow belonging to his men, or tenants, 2 mills, one salt work, &c. 400 sheep, &c. 2 churches endowed with 60 acres, and 14 breeding mares, that pastured in the woods; this was held by Ralf, under the Earl Warren. It extended into Bagthorp, Houghton, Barmere, Sedistern, and Helgeton, valued in the whole, in King Edward's time, at 8*l.* and 10*l.* per ann. at the survey, with 20*s.* in demean; all Rudham being one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 4*s.* and 3*d.* gelt.<sup>3</sup>

This RALPH was the ancestor of the family of De Cainety, or Cheyney, of which was John de Cheyney, founder of Coxford priory; whose daughter, and heiress, Emma, as I take it, brought it by marriage to Michael Belet, about the year 1150. Of the family of this Ralph de Cheyney, see in Horseford, Taverham hundred.

The BELETS were a family of great honour and worth; Hervey Belet lived in the reign of King Henry I. was father of Michael Belet, cupbearer to King Henry II. who served under the Earl Warren, at the coronation of Alianore, wife to that King; (he served that day for Hugh Earl of Arundel;) and married Emma, daughter and heir of John de Cayneto, or Cheyney, by whom he had Michael and Hervey Belet, &c. his sons. This Michael (as I take it) was a judge in the 32d of Henry II. and high sheriff of Leicestershire, in the 29th, 30th, &c. of that King.<sup>4</sup> On the 28th of Dec. A<sup>o</sup>. 7<sup>o</sup> of King John, by a patent dated at Marlborough, he had a grant to himself and his heirs, of being the King's butler.—“*Johannes Dei gratia, &c. <sup>4</sup> He appears from a fine to be a judge, in the 2d year of Richard I.

In the 16th of King John, Hervey Belet was lord, and had a grant of a fair, to be held yearly, on the feast of St. Matthew, and the vigil of St. Matthew; this Hervey gave to the priory of Coxford to this lordship, as I shall here show.

COXFORD-PRIORY MANOR

Takes its name from its site, on a small stream, or rivulet, in this parish; Cock, or Cocker, occurs as the name of a river, as Cockermouth in Cumberland, Cockley, and Cockfield in Suffolk, &c.—William Chene founded in the church of St. Mary of Rudham, a priory, in the reign of King Steven, but was removed to a place more East, called Coxford.

JOHN DE CAINETO, QUERCETO, or de Cheyney, was a great benefactor, or founder of it, for canons of the order of St. Austin, and dedicated to God, and the Virgin Mary, who gave them the churches of East, and West Rudham, with their appertenancecs, and all the lay-land which Bruno and William, the priests, held, viz. what Ralph de Querceto, his grandfather, and Will. his son, held in perpetual alms; also the gardens of Freke, Godwin, Lambert, Wilmot, Warin, and Alman, the mill, and pool, of Cokeford Cadwellwang, the water of Taterset, and Kettleswang, and all Nowmerewang, Ralph Fitz Ulmar, and his land, Burstan, and his land, and this in exchange for the land of Abnar de Gartun, which Moses holds, and the service of Somerled, the priest, and his land, which his uncle William de Querceto gave to him, Godwyn, the scrivener, and his land, and Pocheswda, and all the land of Marham, of his fee, the mill of Thorp, at the pond, with the pond, and the service which the men of the town are to do about the repairing of the bank of the said pool, and two men living nigh the mill, Godwin, and Ulfing his brother, and their lands, half the wood of Besefen, which is without the park, for the souls of his grandfather Ralph, and his wife, of his father and his wife, of William de Querceto, his uncle, and his wife, and Roger and his wife, his sisters, and Waleran de Rochford, except only the service of the Earl, (viz. Warren), as free as his father held it: witnesses, Reinald de Warren, Ralph de Wiberville, Ralph, son of Osmond, Sibila, wife of Sir John, Peter de Caineto, and Matthew his brother, Nicholas Clerk, and Godwin his brother, Scul.—and William his brother, Ralph, parson of Saxthorp, Mr. Will. Matin, Will. the priest, Nicholas de Staveley, Watch.—the deacon, Geff. de West Rudham, Ralph Avis, Nicholas, clerk of Barsham, Walter Clerk, and Albert, and Rigolf, Warin, and Robert de Croft; this is sans date; but the grant was renewed before William Bishop of Norwich, by the founder, in person; witness, William archdeacon of Norwich: this William was William Turb, elected Bishop in 1146; and William Fitz Humphrey, archdeacon, who was succeeded in 1149, by Roger, so that this benefaction foundation appears to have been in or between the years 1146 and 1149.

HERVEY BELETH gave them the lordship of East Rudham, with lands in Geython, Marham, Sydistern, Beremere, and Croste, &c. for the maintenance of an hospital at Boycodeswade, built by him, and a secular chaplain to serve therein for ever, for his own soul, that of the Lady Emme de Kayneto, his mother,<sup>5</sup> and for the souls of his brothers, parents, and his ancestors, in pure alms. This grant or deed is sans date, but was in or about the 16th of King John, it was for a warden, and 13 poor people, to be under the government of the prior and convent of Coxford, and was dedicated to St. Andrew.

In the 11th of Henry III. the prior had a grant of a fair, on the feast of the translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, and the two following days, which was confirmed in the 35th of the said King, with pieceage, stallage, &c.

In the 17th of Henry III. a fine was levied between William, the prior of Cokesford, petent, master Michael Belet, impudent, of the homage and service of Roger de Cressi of his fee in West Rudham, acknowledged by Michael to be the prior's right, as belonging to the manor of Cokesford, (of the gift of Hervey Belet, brother of Michael,) who gave them the manor of Rudham, which manor was given in frank marriage by the ancestor of Mich. to the ancestor of Roger Cressi; and the prior released to Michael 11 marks, due by the wills of Michael Belet, Emme de Cheyney, and Emme de Tancy. This Roger de Cressi lived in the reign of King John, and was son of Hugh de Cressi, who married Margaret, daughter and heir of Will. de Cheney, uncle of Sir John de Cheney, the cofounder, who by this marriage had an interest here.

The prior paid 100s. on the aid granted to King Henry III. on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor of Germany, and held 2 fees of the Earl Warren, with tenements in East and West Rudham, with their churches, and that of Houghton, in pure alms, of Hervey Belet, with 30 acres of land in Bermere, of the gift of Nicholas de Bermere; and in the 41st of Henry III. the prior impleaded Simon, son of Richard de Pencethorp, for levying a mercate at Pencethorp to the injury of the prior's free mercate of East Rudham.

In the 3d and 15th of Edward I. the prior had the lete and free warren, with a free mercate on Monday, and a fair yearly on the vigil and day of St. Matthew the Apostle. In the 23d of that King, died William de Say, son and heir of Geff. Lord Say, and Alice his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir John de Cheney, which Geffrey confirmed to these canons all those grants which William de Cayneto, or Chency, or John de Cheyney, nephew of that William, had made unto them;<sup>6</sup> and for the soul of Alice his wife, and the souls of his ancestors, &c. did, of his own gift, add the church of St. Margaret at Thorp; and this William, on his death, was found to have the patronage of this priory.

In the 27th of the said reign, the prior had a three-week court in this manor, which extended into West-Rudham.

Sir Robert de Ufford gave them the mill of Thorp-Market, and Cecilia, his widow, daughter and coheir of Robert de Valoines, released her right in the pool and fishery, to William de Hempton, the prior, about the 10th of Edward II.—William de Hindringham gave 5 messuages, 16 acres of land, and 4s. rent, in East-Rudham and Houghton, in the 9th of Edward III. A fine was levied, in the 17th of Edward II. between Sir William Heron, Lord Say, and the lady Elizabeth, his wife, and Thomas Archbishop of York, &c. their footlees, of the advowson of this priory, and 12 knights fees, in East and

West Rudham, Cokesford, Houghton, Barmere, Siddistern, Marsham, Geyton, Middleton, Clenchwarton, Shouldham, Letton, Thorp-Market Stratton, Reedham, Taverham, Attlebrigg, Kettleston, Reopham, Salle, Heydon, Corpusty, Creke, Stanho, Choseley, &c. with many knights fees in Surrey, Sussex, Bucks, Northamptonshire, Suffolk, Hertfordshire, and 36 in Kent; this lady being the daughter of William, sister and heir of John Lord Say, and so lineally descended from Geffrey de Say, who married Alice, daughter and coheir of Sir John de Cheney, founder of this priory; and, dying without issue, Sir John Clinton Lord Clinton, and Roger Lord Fenys, were found to be her cousins and heirs, as appears by the close rolls of Henry VI. and the Lord Clinton resigned or released to Roger Lord Fenys, his right in the patronage, in the 6th of Henry VI.

In 1428, their temporalities, in this town, were valued at 85*l.* 12*s.* 11*d.* per annum, the whole of their temporalities, at 143*l.* 19*s.* 4*d.* and the whole of their spiritualities, at 78*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*—Total, 222*l.* 12*s.* 8*d.*

In this priory were an abbot, and 9 black canons.

John Matthew, prior, granted, April 30, in the 20th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, Kilverston manor, given to the priory by Margaret, (one of the daughters and coheirs of William de Cheyney,) wife of Hugh de Cressi, the Duke being collector of the subsidy granted by the clergy to the King, and the convent being in debt to the King, the Duke covenanted to discharge it, for which consideration they conveyed it.

At the Dissolution, it was valued, as Dugdale, at 121*l.* 18*s.* 10*d.* ob. as Speed, at 153*l.* 7*s.* 1*d.* which shows how low the visitors laid it from what is above said. King Henry VIII. on the 9th of May, in his 29th year, gave the manor of East-Rudham, with the site of the priory of Cokesford, the impropriate rectory, and patronage of the vicarage, to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk. In the 21st of Elizabeth, Philip Howard Earl of Arundel, son to the said Duke, had license to alien it to Sir Roger Townsend, whose immediate heir, the Right Honourable George Lord Viscount Townsend, is the present lord.

The abbey church was standing (as Sir Henry Spelman relates) in the reign of King James I.<sup>7</sup> and in part of the abbey lived Henry Cornwaleys, Esq. (in the time of Queen Elizabeth,) who married Anne, daughter and coheir of Roger Rookwood, Esq. of Euston in Suffolk; and, in a parlour here, were the arms of the Duke of Norfolk, in a garter; and in a chamber, azure, a chevron, between three crosses, pattée, or; Calybut, quartering, or, a saltire vert; crest, a greyhound passant, azure, pierced on the shoulder with a martlet, argent.—Anne Calybut, daughter and coheir of Edgar Calybut, serjeant at law, was second wife of the said Henry Cornwaleys.

Besides the benefactors abovementioned, I find that William son of Robert de Hingoldesthorp, Tiphania de Pavili, Thomas de Pavili, Anselm de Hillington, Geffrey, son of Anselm de Hillington, Robert son of Robert the merchant, of Hillington, Lewes, son of Roger de Hillington, Richard de Merley of Hillington, Richard de Senges, and William, son of Augustine de Congham, gave them lands, sans date; Albert Bond gave them half a mark rent out of Banseey mill, in the time of Adam de Dalling, prior, in the time of Edward I.

In the 19th of Edward II. the prior had a patent for 3 messuages 100 acres of land, and 10s. rent in Grimston, Congham, Rydon Wyveling, and Appleton, granted by Maud de Tony; and in the 9th of Edward III. William de Hindringham gave 5 messuages, 16 acres of land, and 4s. rent, in this town, and Houghton, and, in the said year, they had a patent for the manor of Thorp, in West-Wretham, given by Thomas de Nethergate.—A parcel of Roman coins, in a little pot, is said to be found in the ruins of the priory in 1719.

By a fine levied, it appears, that Thomas was prior in the 21st of Henry VIII. and John Adamson after him, as Willis says.—Robert Sharington, chaplain, left to every indigent person, in the hospital of St. Andrew at Cokesford, money, in 1491. This was most likely the hospital above-mentioned, called Boycodeswade.

The tenths were 6*l.* 10*s.*—Deducted, 13*s.* 4*d.*—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred, 2*s.*

I find the guild of St. Radegunds, of Cokesford; there was the chapel of that name in 1463, within the priory of Coxford, and a lady anchoress there in 1526.

The church of East-Rudham is dedicated to St. Mary, and was appropriated to the priory of Coxford: the present valor of the vicarage is 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

The rectory appropriated was valued at 20 marks, and was given by Hervey Belet; and the vicarage at 5 marks: the prior had a moiety of the obventions. Peter-pence, 18*d.*

In a south window of the chancel are the arms of John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, France and England, quarterly, with a label of 3

WEST RUDHAM.

RUDHAM, at the survey, included both East and West Rudham, being not at that time distinguished by the name of East and West, both which belonged to the Earl Warren, the capital lord. This part was held by Lambert, under the aforesaid Earl; a freeman was lord of it in the days of Edward the Confessor, and deprived of it at the conquest: He had one carucate, held by one villain, and 14 bordarers, 3 servi, with two carucates in demean, and one carucate, with an half acre of meadow belonging to the men, or tenants, four beasts for carriage, and a mule, &c. Also 18 socmen belonged to this manor, who had 2 carucates, valued at 20s.—at the survey at 30s.<sup>8</sup>—This was the account, (including what is above-mentioned in East Rudham,) of the land that the Earl had livery of, under the name of Rudham manor.

FERRER'S MANOR.

This lordship was in the family of de Caineto, or Cheney, and came by the marriage of Margaret, daughter and heir of William Cheney, son of Ralph de Caineto, to Hugh de Cressi, a Norman, in the reign of Henry II. whose son, Roger de Cressi, married Isabel, daughter and coheir of of Hubert de Ric, and widow of Jeff. de Chester. This Roger being with the barons, in arms against King John, his lands were seized, and given to Robert de Ferrers; and Henry de Ferrers was found to hold the fourth part of a fee in the reign of Henry the II. Sir Guy de Ferraris was living in the 15th of Edward I. as was Edmund de Ferrers, of West-Rudham, in the 31st of the said reign, and John de Ferrers in the reign of Edward II. and one of the same name occurs in the 20th of Edward III.

In the 14th of Edward VI. a fine was levied between William Berkham, &c. querents, John Batchelor of West Rudham, Henry Russell of the same, and Margaret his wife, deforciant, of the manor of Ferrers in West Rudham, &c. settled on John Batchelor for life, remainder to John Russell, and Margaret his wife, in tail. This Henry was son of William Russell, son of Thomas Russell of Littleport, in the isle of Ely, Esq. and married Margaret, daughter and heir of John Batchelor, of West Rudham, by Isabel his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Ferrers, Esq. lord of this manor by whom he had Henry, his son and heir, who, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of ——— Wallis, left William his son and heir. Henry is dated, December 19, 1318, and was buried in the church of St. Peter's, of West Rudham.

William Russell, Gent. lord of this manor, married Agnes, daughter of Thomas Walpole, Gent. of Houghton, and had by her Thomas, his son and heir; and by Edith his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Austin, of West Rudham, left Henry his son and heir, who took to wife Elizabeth, daughter of William Calybut of Coxford, Esq. and was living in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and lord.

In the 13th of King James I. Sir Robert Wynde, and Elizabeth his wife, aliened to Jane Berkeley, widow, the manor of West Rudham, April 1st, and by an inquisition taken, May 6th, in the 13th of King Charles I. Robert Daniel was found to die seized of the manors of Ferrers, and Northall, in West Rudham, on January 10th, 1636, and Robert was his son and heir, aged five years, by Anne his wife.

CASTLEACRE-PRIORY MANOR.

WILLIAM Earl Warren, the second of that name, by his deed, sans date, confirmed, as capital lord, in the reign of King William II. the land which William, the priest of Rudham, held of Lambert de Rosei, and one knight's fee of the grant of the said Lambert, and remitted the service of the said fee;<sup>9</sup> this was, no doubt, the same Lambert who was lord at the survey, and had been enfeoffed of the same by the first Earl Warren. William, the third Earl Warren, gave Alwin, in Rudham, with all his substance, and Godwin, the smith, with his wife and children.

John de Querceto, or Cheyney, released the homage of Jeffery, brother of Mathew, to the prior of Coxford.

Eustace, seneschal of Acre, granted the reversion of all his lands in Rudham, after his death, on condition of being admitted a monk, if he should desire it.

William, son of Roger de Gressenhale, gave two of his men, or villains.

Geffrey, son of Ordiner, gave also lands here, and Ralph de Necton confirmed to them 42 acres in pure alms.

It was agreed by deed, sans date, that the small tithes of this lordship should belong to the priory of Castleacre, but the tithes of the corn, lamb, and wool, and cheese, should belong to Coxford priory, with the weif and stray, and the assise of bread and beer:—Witnesses Sir Hervey de Stanho, Sir Henry de Ferrariis, which shows it was in or about the end of the reign of Henry III. and for this one mark was to be paid per ann. to Castleacre priory. Robert, prior of Castleacre, remitted to William, prior of Coxford, their right in the manor of East Rudham.

In the 18th of Edward I. Ralph de Duntun gave a messuage and 47 acres of land, in West Rudham.

In the 20th of Edward III. the prior held here half a fee in pure alms, and in the 3d of Henry IV. here, and in Bagthorp, of the Earl of Arundel.

King Henry VIII. in his 29th year; who, soon after, December 22d in the said year, conveyed it to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk; and Phillip Earl of Arundel, in the 21st of Elizabeth, had license to alienate it to Sir Roger Townsend, whose direct heir and successour, the Right Honourable Charles Lord Viscount Townsend, was lord, and now George Lord Viscount, his son.

NORTHALL, OR ST. FAITH'S MANOR.

PETER DE VALOINS held a manor also, of which Turgis, a freeman was deprived, who had half a carucate of land, with 3 bordarers, and one servus, and one carucate, and an acre of meadow, with four socmen, and six acres, valued at 10s.

From the family of Valoins it came to the Lord Robert Fitz-Walter, (by the marriage of Gunnora, daughter and heir of the Lord Robert de Valoins, who was lord of it in the reign of King John.) and he granted it to the priory of St. Faiths, of Horsham; and in the 3d of Edward I. the prior of St. Faith's had a lete. The prior, in the 20th of Edward III. held half a fee of the prior of Coxford; and their temporalities, in 1428, were valued at 9l. 18s. 10d.

King Henry VIII. on February 16, in his 35th year, granted it to his beloved councillor, Sir Richard Southwell, and Edward Elington, Esq together with the site of the priory of St. Faith's, in consideration of the nunnery of Demey, and the manor of Waterbeach, in Cambridgeshire, the manor of Wood-Norton, in Norfolk, &c. before granted to the said Edward, and which he had surrendered to the King, on March 16th, in the said year; and for 646l. 18s. paid to the treasurer of the augmentations, to be held by the 50th part of a fee, and paying for this manor, 1l. 10s. per ann.

Richard Southwell, Esq. was lord in the 8th of Elizabeth, and in the 15th of Elizabeth had a præcipe to render to Sir Thomas Cornwallis his manor of Northal, in West-Rudham.

It was afterwards united to the manor of Ferrers, and was possessed by Sir Roger Townsend in 1588, in which family it remains.

Sir Philip Calthorp, by his will, dated March 27th, 1532, and proved April 7th, 1535, appears to be possessed of a lordship in the towns of East and West Rudham, which was formerly held by Sir Edmund de St. Omer, whose daughter and heir, Sybilla, brought it by marriage to Sir John Wythe, and his daughter and heir to Sir John Calthorp, of Calthorp. From the Calthorps it came to the Parkers, and Sir Philip Parker had livery of it about the 20th of Elizabeth,

Alan Earl of Richmond had also a lordship here in the Rudhams, which was a beruite to his manor of Sedesterne, containing two half carucates of land, valued in Sedesterne.<sup>2</sup>

Robert Fitz-Roger held here, in Linge and Mileham, a fee and an half, of the honour of Richmond, and paid castle-guard there 25s per ann.

The temporalities of Coxford priory here, valued at 32s. 4d. per ann. in 1428. These were granted to the Duke of Norfolk, with the impropriated rectory, the patronage of the vicarage, and after came to the *Townsend*s, as above.

The tenths of West Rudham were 7l. 13s. 4d.—Deducted 1l. 13s. 4d.—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred, 3s. 6d.

The CHURCH of West Rudham is dedicated to St. Peter, and was given by Hervey Belet to the priory of Coxford, and appropriated thereto, who had a manse, with a carucate of land.

The rectory was valued at 26 marks; the prior of Castleacre had a portion in it, valued at one mark, and the prior of Binham, a portion valued at 2s. per ann. given by Roger de Valoins; and the vicarage at 5 marks.—Peter-pence, 12d.

The vicarage is now valued at 7l. 6s. 8d.

The chapel of All-Saints, in the churchyard of St. Peter of West-Rudham, is mentioned in 1493.

RYBURGH MAGNA,

So called from its site, by the river, as RYSING, &c. was at the survey the lordship of Peter de Valoins; Goerth, the Saxon lord, in King Edward's reign, being deprived of it at the conquest; here were 2 carucates of land, held by one villain, and 11 bordarers, and 4 servi, 2 carucates in demean, and one among the men, pannage for 40 swine, 6 acres of meadow, a mill, &c. and Ralph Facto was enfeoffed of it by his lord, Peter de Valoins. A beruit belonged to it, Toftes, and valued with that, was worth in King Edward's time 4*l. per annum*, now at 5*l. Ryburgh* was 7 furlongs long, and 5 broad and paid 9½*d. gelt.*<sup>3</sup>

GUERT, was Earl Guert, brother of King Harold, and slain with him at Hastings.

RALPH FACTO, or Facatus, was living in the reign of Henry I. and gave to Bynham priory, on the foundation of it by his lord,<sup>4</sup> (to testify his respect to him, and according to the practice of that age,) two parts of the tithes of his lordship, and leaving an only daughter and heir, Agnes, she brought it by marriage to the ancient family of Monpinzun; and in the 12th of Henry II. Fulguonus, or Fulke de Monte Pincernon, and Agnes his wife, were found to hold five fees of Robert Lord Valoines.

RALPH DE MONPINZUN was son of Sir Fulke, by Agnes, and left 2 sons, Peter, and Fulke, and Amabilia, a daughter, married to William de Cley.

PETER was father (as its said) of John de Munpinzun, who in the 56th of Henry III. granted to John de Ryseby, by fine, a messuage, 47 acres of land, one and an half of meadow, with a free fold in all his land, and common of pasture all the year, in all the pastures which lie between the pasture of Testerton, and the ditch of John de Munpinzun, on the south of the well, called Byvereswell, with liberty to dig turf, and cut grass in the moors, in the same bounds, and a free boat in all the waters lying before the said common, and the well called Rygenewell.

But it appears rather, that Giles de Monpinchun was father of Sir John, and probably a son of Ralph, the said Giles holding, in the 3d of Henry III. two knights fees here, and in Naring, that is, in Snoring Parva.

JOHN DE MUNPINZUN had a charter for free warren here, and in Ingaldesthorp, in the 9th of Edward I. and John Gyles de Montpinzun was his son and heir, and lord in the 18th and 27th of the said King, and father of William de Munpinzun, who in the 7th of Edward II. conveyed by fine this manor, with that of Ingaldesthorp, and the advowsons, to Robert de Walkfare, (certain lands being excepted, and messuages held by Fulco Monpinzun, and the 3d part of the said manor held by Christian, widow of Sir Gyles;) and in the following year he had a grant of free warren, in this town, Ryburgh Parva, Snoring Parva, Gately, and Testerton.

In the 18th of the said King, it was forfeited by Robert de Walkfare, (probably on his taking part with the Queen Isabel, and many of the barons, &c. against her husband King Edward II.) and in the said year a writ was granted, May 6, by the King, to enquire who gave the annual rent of 2 marks per annum out of the mills here, to the prior of Binham, which was of the gift of the ancestors of Sir Gyles de Montpinzun, this manor being seized by the King, on the rebellion of Robert de Walkfare; and Walter de Calthorp, with John de Claver, were assigned commissioners, and the inquisition being made in the 20th of that King, it was found that Sir John de Mounpinzun paid it, as did Sir Gyles his son; after whose death, the Earl Warren had the custody of this manor, and paid it also during the nonage of William son and heir of Sir Gyles; but they knew not whether Robert Walkfare paid it, because he was of the prior's family.

It appears that the said Robert was restored, most likely on the accession of King Edward III. and in his 6th year had a charter of free warren in Baladon, and Faruham in Essex, and Iselham in Cambridgeshire; he was son of John de Walkfare, and died before the 20th of the aforesaid King, when Margaret, his widow, held two fees in the Riburghs; Sir Richard de Walkfare was his son and heir, who by Euphenia, his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Morieux, of Suffolk, had Alianore, a daughter and heir, and also Joan, a daughter and coheir, (as it seems,) married to Sir Thomas Felton;<sup>5</sup> for in the 47th of Edward III. a fine was levied between Sir Arnold Savage, Sir Nicholas Gernun, Sir William Wingfeld, Knts. &c. querents, and Sir Thomas Felton, Knight of the Garter, deforciant, of the manors of Dersingham, and Ingaldesthorp, (which were found to be held by Sir Richard de Walkfare, by the eschaet rolls, in the 35th of that King,) also of the manors of Wilby in Norfolk, and of Barton in Suffolk, settled on them in trust. In the 8th of Richard II. a fine was levied between Joan, widow of Sir Thomas Felton, (who died in or about the 4th of that King) and Sir John L'Estrange, Knt. and Alianore his wife, daughter of Sir Richard Walkfare, of this manor, those of Dersingham, and Ingaldesthorp, who for 500*l.* conveyed the same to the Lady Joan, appearing by this to be a moiety of the said manors, &c.

SIR STEPHEN DE HALES aliened to the prior of Walsingham his right in this manor, in the 8th of Richard II. for the founding a charity for Sir Thomas Felton.

In the 6th of Henry VI. this lordship seems to be in the Cokerells; and Catherine, widow of John Cokerell, senior, of Ashfield in Suffolk, possessed it; whose son John dying before her, left a daughter and heir, Catherine: she died possessed of it, and the advowson, in the 10th of the said King, and on an inquisition then taken, her heirs were said to be unknown.

I find that Catherine, daughter and heir of Thomas Ickworth, Esq. of Ickworth in Suffolk, who bore quarterly, or, and gules, on a bend, over all vert, three martlets of the first, was married to John Cokerell, Esq. of Orford in Suffolk, who bore,—argent, a cross between four cockerells, gules.

THOMAS DE LA GRENE, cousin and heir of William de la Grene, vicar of East Dereham, in the 12th of Henry VI. released to Hugh, prior, and the convent of Walsingham, all his right in the manor of Ryburgh Magna, and Parva, with the advowson of the church of Ryburgh, and this manor and advowson, with a windmill, called Southmill, and liberty of foldage; with a manor in Riburgh Parva, lands and messuages there, and in Geist, Geistdale, North Elmham, Gateley, Snoring, Testerton, Pencethorp, and Styberde, on the payment of 4*l.* 7*s.* 1*d.* per annum.

On the Dissolution, King Henry VIII. on the 10th of March, in his 30th year, granted it to Sir William Butts, Knt. and Margaret his wife, daughter and heiress of — Bacon, of Cambridgeshire, for life.<sup>6</sup> He was doctor of physick, educated at Cambridge, chief physician to the King, one of the founders of the college of physicians at London; in whose records he stands highly characterized for his eminent learning and knowledge, singular judgment, and great experience, and is much extolled for his learning, by many authors, who lived, in his time, was knighted by the name of William Butts, of Norfolk, and dying 17th of November 1545, was buried in the church of Fulham, by London. He left 3 sons; Sir William, the eldest, was lord of Thornage, in Norfolk, who married Joan, the eldest daughter and coheir of

M. D. is said to be father of Sir William, Thomas, and Edmund, by a daughter of Sir Clement Higham, chief baron of the Exchequer, which is most probable.

Henry Buers of Aketon, or Acton, in Suffolk, Esq.; he was eminent for his valour, and had an augmentation of honour on a canton in his arms, and was slain at Musleburgh field, in the 1st of Edward VI. Thomas Butts, Esq. the 2d son, was lord of this manor, and married Bridget, second daughter and coheir of Henry Buers, Esq. aforesaid, but dying without issue, as his elder brother Sir William did, Edmund Butts, Esq. of Barrow, in Suffolk, the third brother, was his heir, and lord of this town; and by Anne, third daughter and coheir of the aforesaid Henry Buers, had Anne, his only daughter and heir; who brought this lordship by marriage, to Sir Nicholas Bacon, of Redgrave in Suffolk, eldest son and heir of Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper of the great seal, by Jane his 1st wife, daughter of William Fernley, Esq. of Cretynge, in Suffolk, who was created the first Baronet of England, May 22, 1611, and Sir Edward Bacon, Bart. his descendant, died possessed of it.

Sir Edmund Bacon bore, gules, on a chief argent, 2 mullets sable; his crest, a bore passant, ermine; motto, Mediocria Firma.

Butts bore, azure, on a chevron, between three estoils or, as many lozenges, gules.

Buers, ermin, on a chief indented sable two lions rampant, or. Lord Wotton, argent, a cross ingrailed sable. — Peyton, sable, a cross ingrailed or, and a mullet in the first quarter, argent. — Crane, argent, a fess between three cross crosslets, fitché, gules.

Munpinzun, argent, a lion rampant sable, on his shoulder, a martlet, or.

Walkfare, argent, a lion rampant sable, on his shoulder, a mullet, or.

Morieux, gules, on a bend argent, nine billets sable.

Chandler, fess way, between three de-lis — rather cheque, argent and gules, on a bend, engrailed over all, sable, three lions passant, or.

Besides the great lordship of Walsingham priory, in Ryburgh Magna, abovementioned, it appears that they had also another little lordship, or lands, which Fulco, son of Ralph de Monpinzun, and Amabilia his sister, wife of William de Cley, gave to them in Ryburgh Parva, and here.<sup>7</sup>

In the 39th of Edward III. the prior had a lordship here, and in the reign of Henry IV. is said to hold two parts of a fee of the barony of Falcons, and to do homage to the Earl of Arundel, for his manor of Ryburgh Magna, to pay an 100s. in the name of a relief, and for the manor of Wood-hall, in Riburgh Parva, to pay 6s. for a relief, to the prior of Binham but no homage to be done, they being manors purchased by the prior of Walsingham, and worth 40 marks per annum.

All this was included in King Henry the Eighth's grant to Sir Will. Butts.

WILLIAM ANDREWS of Ryburgh Magna, Gent. took a lease, dated October 4, in the 31st of Henry VIII. of all the lands lately belonging to the priory of Hempton in this town, for 18 years, at 20s. per annum granted him by Fran. Bedingfield, Esq. The temporalities of this priory here, were valued, in 1428, at 34s. 3d. ob. per annum.

ALAN DE MUNDHAM gave King John a mark, that the plea for one carucate of land in Rieburc, which he brought against William de Sperham, should be removed to Westminster,<sup>8</sup> which seems to imply, that such actions were tried in the county court usually, at that time.

The temporalities of St. Lazarus in this town, and Ryburgh Parva, valued in 1428, at 6s. per ann.; that is the hospital of Burton Lazars in Leicestershire.

The tenths of this town were 5l. 6s.—Deducted 1l. 6s. 8d.—Lete fee 2s.

The CHURCH of Ryburgh Magna is a rectory, dedicated to St. Andrew; the ancient valor was 28 marks, Peter-pence 12d. and the prior of Binham had a portion of tithes valued at 6 marks, in 1428, being 2 parts of the tithes of the lordship, granted by Ralph Factor, in the reign of Henry III.; the present valor is 14l. 17s.

Adam de Mota, prior of Binham, with the consent of the abbot of St. Albans, demised to Sir Edmund de Munpinzun, and his successors, rectors of Ryburgh Magna, with the consent of Sir John de Munpinzun the patron, 2 parts of the tithes of certain lands, &c. paying to the prior and convent 6 marks per annum at two payments, and it was confirmed by Roger Bishop of Norwich, and the chapter, in 1267.<sup>9</sup>

On the north side of the chancel, an altar tomb, with several arms, but no inscription; on a grave-stone near it,

RYBURGH PARVA.

THE Earl Warren had one socman here, and in Stabrigge (Stiberd), who held 30 acres of land, and a carucate, and one acre of meadow, with the moiety of a church, endowed with 3 acres, valued at 5s. and 4d. and seems to be held of him by Peter de Valoins, his name being set over the words, as below.

In Ryburgh also, Peter held under the said Earl 8 socmen, who held one carucate of land, and there were one villain, and 6 bordarers, with 2 carucates, paunage for 20 swine, 2 acres of meadow, a mill, valued at 20s. and was of the fee of Frederic, before it came to the Earl.<sup>1</sup>

PAVELI'S MANOR.

This seems to be held by the ancient family of De Paveli: Sir Philip de Paveli, of Riburgh Parva was witness to a deed, sans date; but in the reign of Richard I. Sir Ralph de Paveli was his son, who gave lands to Castleacre priory, witnessed by Prudence his wife: of the said family was Roger de Paveli, who had a lordship in Hillington, and was a benefactor to the said priory, and to the abbey of Derham, in the reign of King John. In the 12th of Henry III. Philip de Paveli granted, by fine, to Ralph, his son, 80 acres of land, with a mill, who regranted it to Philip for life, and Philip covenants, that he would not mortgage, alien, &c. or commit any waste in the woods, carrs, &c. belonging to the land.

Richard, prior of Binham, and the convent, granted to this Ralph, and his heirs, the liberty of building a chapel in this house, in the parish of Pyburgh Parva, saving all right belonging to their church; and that the chaplain should admit none of the parishioners to any sacrament, and shall swear to be true to the mother church; and if any chaplain should withhold any profit, then the prior to suspend him till a restoration.<sup>2</sup>

John de Paveli was son of Sir Ralph, had free warren here, and in Stiberd, in the 3d of Edward I. and witness to a deed in the 6th of Edward I. He is said to hold here two parts of a fee of the heirs of Comyn, and of the barony of Valoins, of which the prior of St. Faith held the fourth part.

In the 31st of Edward I. John, son of Ralph de Paveli, of Riburgh Parva, granted, by fine, to William, son of John de Paveli, 45 messuages, 2 mills, 362 acres of land, and an half, 12 acres of meadow, one of moor, one of wood, 8l. 0s. 3d. ob. rent, in this town, Stiberd, Testerton, Geyst, Gately, Pudding-Norton, Weston, Diddington, and Northwold, and William regranted them to John for life.

Robert de Paveley held here the 3d part of a fee of John de Norwich, and lic of the King, which John de Paveley formerly held of the Earl Warren's fee; and John de Paveley was found at the same time to have a thurd part of a fee of the said tenures, and John de Rattlesden also held 2 parts of a fee of the heirs of Comyn, of the barony of Valoins, which Simon de Rattlesden formerly held, and of which the prior of St. Faith's held the 4th part, As 20th Edward III.

In the 46th of Edward III. Elizabeth, wife of Richard Talbot, ancestor of the Earls of Salisbury, held in demean 8 fees, as appears from the eschaet rolls in this town, Sculthorp, Stiberde, Snetesham, North Barsham, Frenge Ingaldesthorpe, Dalling, &c. in capite; she was daughter of John Comyn, of Badenagh, heir to Valence Earl of Pembroke, and held them of the castle of Acre.

John de Paveley of Heynford, by his will, dated 12th of the calendrs of May, 1379, bequeathed his body to be buried in the church of All-Saints, of this town, and was proved July 23d following;<sup>3</sup> and John Paveley of this town, by his will, dated 1421, and proved the 15th of March, 1522, was buried in the churchyard of the said church of All-Saints. Suit of court was paid to Sculthorp manor 17s. per ann. and 4 capons, about this time.<sup>4</sup>

Besides the family of Paveley, the family of Wood-Dalling held a part of this manor of the Earl Warren, and had a right in the patronage of the church, as will afterwards appear.

In the 4th of Henry VII. Roger Townesend, Esq. and Anne his wife, held this lordship, 8 messuages, 4 tofts, 2055 acres of land here, in Stiberd, Wood-Norton, Fulmodeston, Geyst, Bathele, Gunthorpe, Barmere, Barwick, Stanhowe, North-Creke, Docking, and Chiphow: in this family it remains, the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Townesend being the present lord.

BINHAM PRIORY MANOR.

The Lord Valoins had a lordship also in this town, granted to him by the Conqueror, out of which a freeman was ejected; Tyrus held it of the said lord, consisting, in King Edward's time, of a carucate of land, and 9 bordarers, 2 servi; there was also one carucate in demean, and one belonging to the men, &c. 4 acres of meadow, a mill, &c. valued at 40s. and was 3 furlongs long, 2 broad, and paid 12d. gelt.<sup>5</sup>

Tyrus, who was enfeoffed of this lordship under the Lord Valoins, was ancestor of the family of Wood-Dalling, and is sometimes called (as I take it) Turold de Daling.

Ralph, son of Turold, and Roger his son, gave the church of this

Reginald de Warren gave to the said priory 3 acres to build a house, wherein to lay their tithes.

Roger, son of Ralph aforesaid, confirmed to them the church of Riburgh Parva:—Witnesses, Lady Juga his wife, Roger, and Roger his sons, William, son of Ralph, Peter his brother: also he gave them 10s. rent here:—Witnesses, Pagan and Roger, parsons of the church, Richard de Refham, Richard de Nugun, Geffrey, son of Gilbert of Laringsete.

In the 1st of King John, Thomas, prior of Binham, let to Ralph de Dalling 40 acres of land here, paying 6s. rent per ann. and the said Ralph, in the 4th of that King, released 10 acres of land belonging to the church.

Peter Fitz-Ralph de Wood-Dalling gave to this priory, with the assent of Thomas his son and heir, and Lefguena his wife, lands here, called Fenwong and Mulnewong, and elsewhere, in the fields, &c. Witnesses, Wimer, the sheriff, William de Kerdeston, Alexander his brother, William de Gunthorp, Reginald his brother, &c. and Lefguena, by another deed, confirmed it. Witnesses, Almer, the sheriff, &c.

Sir Philip de Pavylli confirmed to them the church of Ryburgh Parva: which he had impleaded them for, in the King's court, and levied a fine thereof, in the reign of Richard I.

Geffrey, prior of Binham, granted the church to Reginald and Philip, sons of Alan the priest of Riburgh Parva, with the tithes.

Roger, son of Andrew of Ryburgh Parva, gave all the land he held in this town of Sir Ralph de Dalling, and the lands held of Agnes, mother of the said Ralph, with the lands held of Ralph, son of Geffrey, of East-Barsham, &c.

The son of Peter Fitz-Ralph gave them lands here.

The prior demised to Richard the chaplain, for life, so long as he should keep the secular habit, s. s. per ann. all the small tithes of the demesns, formerly Ralph de Monpinzun's, and of his men in this town.

Henry, son of Ralph Sculting of East-Barsham, gave them 12d. rent here: Witnesses, Sir Gyles de Munpinzun, John his son, Sir Ralph de Pavely, John his son, James de Riburgh, &c.

The temporalities of the priory, in this town, were valued at 37s. and in Ryburgh Magna, at 36s. and 8d. in 1428.

At the Dissolution, it came to the Pastons of ———, and after to the Bacons; and Sir Edmund died seized of it.

ST. FAITH'S, OR HORSHAM-PRIORY MANOR.

In the 6th of Edward I. the prior held the fourth part of two parts of a fee of the barony of Falaines, probably granted by the Lord Robert Fitz-Walter, about the reign of King John, having married Gunnora, daughter and heir of Robert Lord Falaines.

WOOD-HALL MANOR.

Of this some account has been mentioned; it was in the priory of Walsingham, and extended into Great Ryburgh, if not a part of that manor.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prior held here 2 parts of a fee, and was part of the Lord Falvins.—At the Dissolution, it was granted to Sir William Butts, M. D. from whose family it came to the Bacons.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory were, in 1428,<sup>7</sup> valued at 10*s. 6d. per ann.* Ralph de Pavili gave 3*s.* rent, to whose deed Prudence his wife was a witness. The temporalities of the abbey of Creke 5*s. 5d. ob. q.*

The rectory was granted by King Henry VIII. in his 33d year, to Sir Thomas Paston, Knt. with the patronage of the vicarage.

SCULTHORP

WAS a lordship belonging to the Earl Warren, but Toke, a great Saxon Thane, held it of the fee of Frederick, in the reign of the Confessor, 3 carucates of land belonged to it, 12 villains, and 34 bordarers, with 6 servi, &c. 5 carucates amongst the men, paunage for 20 swine, 4 acres of meadow; 8 mills, with 4 runci, or beasts for burden. Thirty socmen also belonged to this manor, with their customary dues, with a carucate and an half, and 4 carucates; and two other socmen held 40 acres in Toffas, and under these were 12 bordarers, with an acre and a half, and 2 carucates, and a church endowed with 40 acres; the whole valued in King Edward's time at 6*l.* and after, at 10*l. per ann.* but farmed at 15*l.* but was not able to raise that sum. It was half a leuca long, and the same in breadth, and paid 6*l.* gelt; and there were 12 mares that went in the woods, valued at 12*s.* a church, with 60 acres.<sup>8</sup>

It is called in the book of Domesday, Sculetorpa, a thorp on a shole, or shallow stream, or water.

The family of De Pavili, or Pavilleys, were, soon after the conquest, enfeoffed of several lordships by the Earls Warren, and of Surrey, and, as I take it, of this. Ralph de Pavili lived in the reign of Henry I. and was a benefactor to the priory of Castlecre.<sup>9</sup> Thomas de Pavely, a Norman, held this lordship, with a moiety of that of Stiberd, in the 3d of Henry III. Eustachia de Pavely was in possession of it, in 34th of that King, as appears by a fine, and distreyned Alured le Merchant for suit of court; and in the 41st of the said reign John Earl Warren is said to hold it, by the grant of the King, on the death of Reginald de Pavely, a Norman, and was valued at 24*l.* per annum, held with Styberd, by the 3d part of a fee. This Reginald died in his journey to Jerusalem.

In 1262, John Earl Warren, by deed, granted to the monks of Castlecre, this manor, from the feast of St. Peter and Paul, for one whole year, for 242 marks, to be repaid by him on the said feast, in 1263; and, in default, to remain to them in perpetual alms. And the said Earl, in the 3d and 15th of Edward I. was found to have the assise, free warren, and other liberties, &c. with a moiety of Styberd, of the gift of King Henry III.

John Earl Warren and Surrey, by deed, dated at Lincoln, August 5, in the 10th of Edward II. gave to Sir Walter de Norwich, and dame Katherine, his wife, this manor and advowson, in exchange for that of Skredington, in Lincolnshire;* and the King confirmed the grant by letters patent, dated at Lincoln, Aug. 8th, in the said year. Sir John de Norwich, son of Sir Walter, settled it in the 4th of Edward III. on himself, and Thomas and Roger, his brothers, in tail; and Sir John was lord in the 20th of that King. This Sir John had, by Margaret his wife, a son Walter, who died before his father, leaving a son John, by Walema his wife, daughter of Sir Miles Stapleton, and heir to his grandfather.

By an inquisition taken at Walsingham, on Thursday next after the feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, in the 48th of Edward III. Sir John de Norwich was found to die seized of this lordship, with a messuage not valued, a pigeon-house, valued at half a mark per ann. a water-mill, at 20*s.* and 8*d.*; 260 acres of land, valued at 65*s.* per annum at 3*d.* per acre. Court and lete, at 15*s.*; of rent assise, 8 marks. He is said to have died on the feast of the circumcision, then last past, and Catherine Brews, daughter of Sir Thomas de Norwich, son of Sir Walter and Catherine, and brother of Sir John, was his cousin and heir; who by her deed at Loudon, on Saturday after the feast of St. Valentine, in the 49th of the said King, granted to John Daventre, parson of Broom, and Edmund de Lakyugheth, this manor, having paid to the King 20 marks license for so doing, on condition of their paying to her, and her heirs, 40*l.* per annum for the same. This Catherine was the widow of ——— Brews, of Salle, in Norfolk, and at this time had took the veil, being a nun, in the priory of Dertford, in Kent; on May 18, in the first of Richard II. she resigned all her right and claim thereto; and the said John and Edmund had license on June 27, in the 4th of that King, to enfeoff Sir Robert Knollys and Constance his wife, in the same.

As this Sir Robert was a person of remarkable merit and eminency for his conduct and valour in his time, and as he lived and died at his manor-house in this town, I shall take the liberty of inserting several occurrences of his life, that I have met with, from old evidences. He is by most authors said to be born of mean parentage in the county of Cheshire, though Dugdale seems to suggest the contrary, as if descended from a family of note, or account, in their times; he was at first however a person of low fortune, but betaking himself to a military life, he became an eminent commander under King Edward III. In the wars of France, from being a common soldier, and acquired great fortunes; had a grant of White-castle, and that of Fenchery, in Britanny, and in the 32d of that King, took the city of Auxerre, &c. for the King of Navarre. In 1360, Constantina his wife sailed over into Britanny, and carried to his assistance 20 men of arms, 14 archers, on horseback, &c. and had provided for him, at her own charge, 3 ships and 2 crays; and in 1365, John Duke of Britanny, for his services, gave him many lands, &c.—In the 44th of the said reign, he was retained to serve the King again, in the wars of France, for two years, from the nativity of St. John Baptist, in 1370, with 2000 men of arms, and 2000 archers; none of the men to be raised out of Northumberland, Durham, or Westmorland; and so great was the destruction he made, that the sharp points, and gable-ends of the houses, &c. that he overthrew, were called Knocles Mitres. In the 2d year of King Richard II. he was with John Duke of Lancaster in his Spanish expedition, and had letters of protection, then dated July 16, being a Knight of the Garter.

In the 4th of Richard II. he had a grant of the manor of St. Pancras in Middlesex, to him, and his wife Constantia,<sup>2</sup> and for his good services in subduing Wat Tyler's rebellion, was enfranchised a member of the city of London, in the said year; and having made a vow to go to Rome, had, in the 13th of that King, a license for himself and 12 persons, and for what money he would by a bill of exchange, and to stay there as long as he would, with protection for all his lands, tenants, and servants, during the time of his absence. In the 3d of Henry IV. John Gerneys released to him, and Sir Hugh Brown, Knt. 2 messuages, and 34 shops, in the parish of St. Mary, at Hill, in Billingsgate Ward, London, to be settled on Sir Robert's college, or hospital, at Pontefract in Yorkshire.

He died full of years, aged 92, at his manor-house in this town, (Grafton says at London;) on August 15, 1407, and was honourably buried in the body of the church of the Carmelite-friars, in Fleet-street, London, by his Lady Constantia. Who this lady was does not appear, from any historian that I have seen. In the church of Harp-ley and in this of Sculthorp, are arms of Sir Robert, who bore, for the most part, gules, on a chevron, argent, three roses of the first seeded, or, impaling argent, a fess dauncé, between three leopards faces, sable, bore by Beverly, a family of good account in Yorkshire, which I presume was her name, Leland says she was of mean birth, and born at Pontfract, in Yorkshire, and prevailed on her husband to found the college there, and not at Sculthorp, as he intended.<sup>3</sup> As a Knight of the Garter, he had supporters to his arms:—two naked savages, standing by two trees: the crest a ram's head, as appears from his seal.

SIR HENRY CHAUNCEY relates, that he left Thomas his son, who married Margaret, daughter of———, widow of John Chicheley, chamberlain of London, who had issue, Robert Knowles, heir to Sir Robert, who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of William Troutbeck of——— in Cheshire, and left a daughter and heir, Anne, married to Henry Frowyk;<sup>4</sup> but from a manuscript that I have seen, Margaret aforesaid, widow of John Chicheley, was the daughter of William Knowles, citizen and grocer, of London, by whom she had three daughters and coheirs; Christian, married to John Harvey; Agnes, to William Kenes; and Elizabeth, to Sir Thomas Kiriel. Dugdale says, that from this Sir Robert descended the Knowles Earls of Banbury, in the time of King Charles I. but this does not appear clearly and that family, is it certain, bore a different arms.<sup>5</sup> It seems more probable that he had a daughter and heir, Emme, or Margaret, married to John Babington, Esq. of Ardington, in Devonshire, 5th son of Sir John Babinton, and Bennet his wife, daughter and heir of Symon Ward of Combridgeshire. He had also a brother Thomas, who married Isabella, daughter and heir of Sir John Northcote, from whom descend the Knowles of Cold-Ashby, in Northamptonshire.<sup>4</sup>

He obtained in the wars of France such immense wealth, that King Richard II. pawned several of most valuable jewels, and silver vessels to him; and as his fortunes were great, so were his charitable acts and works equal to them. He built the stately bridge at Rochester over the Medway, with a chapel, and a chantry at the east end of it; the churches of Sculthorp, and Harpley, and re-edified the conventual church of the White-friars, for the most part. In the 4th of Richard II. he had license to amortise to the Carthusian priory, in London, 40*l.* per ann. out of the manor of Danstall in Kent. In the 8th of that King, license was granted to him, and Constantia his wife, to found the college of Pomfret, in a house of theirs, and the King then incorporated them; and on June 11, in the 10th of Richard II. Sir Robert granted to Robert Braybrook Bishop of London, Sir John Cobham, Knt. John Drew, clerk, and John Seymer, of London, all his manors, lands, tenements, advowsons, &c. in Norfolk;—Witnesses, Sir Robert Ineye, Sir Robert Mortimer, Sir John de Tudenham, Sir John de Clifton, Knts. and Jeff. Fransham, Esq. This was in order to settle them on the aforesaid college.

In the 8th of Henry IV. Sir Robert conveyed by fine to his trustees John Drew, and John Seymour, of London, this lordship, with those of Dunton Kettleston, Taterford, Taterset, and Burnham, &c. and by an inquisition, taken at East Rudham, in Norfolk, in the said year, on Tuesday after the annunciation of the Virgin, before William Roos the King's eschaetor, it was found that it would not be to the King's loss, &c. if he granted license to John Drew, parson of Harpley, and John Seymer of London, to give and assign to John Stedman, master, or custos, and the chaplains of the college of the Holy Trinity, called Knolles Almshouse, in Poufract, and their successors, the manors of Sculthorp, Dunton Kettleston, Tateford, Burnham Overy, with the appertences, and the advowsons of the churches of Dunton cum Duketon, Tateford, and Sculethorp, for their maintenance, and that of the poor men therein, serving God; and it was then found that this lordship was held in capite, by the third part of a fee, and valued at 20*l. per ann.* beyond all reprises.<sup>7</sup>

LILLAND observes that it was a college, with an hospital joined to it; in the college was a master, with 6 or 7 prestes, and in the hospital, 13 poor men and women, and was valued at 180*l. per ann.* Besides the messuages, &c. in London, &c. abovementioned; there was also one in Darlington, settled on the said hospital.

On the dissolution of the said hospital, this lordship, with the advowson of the rectory, was granted May 17, in the 3d of Edward VI. to Sir William Fermor, and Sir Richard Fulmerston; Sir William dying seized of it, it came to his nephew, Thomas Fermor, Esq. of East-Barsham, who in the 24th of Elizabeth, aliened by license 5 messuages, 6 tofts, 200 acres of land, 147 of pasture, in this town, and Fakenham, to Salathiel Kyndersley, clerk.—William Fermor, Esq. son of Thomas, was lord in 1627, whose daughter and heir, Mary, being married to James Calthorp, Esq. he was lord in her right, and she dying without any surviving issue, it came to his son, Sir Christopher Calthorp, who died seized of it 1717, and by his daughters and coheirs, to Sir Thomas L'Estrange, Bart. and on his death to Sir Henry, his brother, as in East Barsham, and on his death to his two sisters, and their heirs.

ALAN Earl of Richmond, at the survey, had 15 acres of land in this town, valued at 20*d.* which, as I presume, was also possessed by, and went along with, the lords of this manor of Sculthorp, as I find no further account of it.<sup>8</sup>

The tenths were, 4*l.* 7*s.* Deducted 7*s.* Lete fee to the lord of the hundred 18*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary or All-Saints, the ancient valor was 50 marks, and the prior of Lewes had a portion of 40*s. per ann.* out of it, of the gift of the Earl Warren, and valued in the rectory; William Earl Warren was patron, in the reign of Edward I. when the rector had a manse, with 80 acres of land, — Peter-pence 6*d.*

The present valor is 16*l.* and pays first fruits and tenths.

Six bordarers held of them 2 carucates, and 2 acres and an half of meadow; there was a church endowed with 12 acres, and was valued at 10s. but at the survey at 20s. per ann. was 3 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 9d. ob. gelt, and came to the Earl by some exchange at Lewes in Sussex.<sup>1</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. it appears, that there were two lordships in this town, one held in the 35th of that King, by Sir Hugh de Plays, and another by Thomas de Snitterton; Plays manor was held of the Earl Warren, as above-mentioned, but Snitterton's was the manor of Taterford, that extended into this town.

SIR RICHARD DE PLAYS and his tenants held here, in Toftes, &c. 3 fees of the Earl Warren, and by the marriage of Margaret, daughter and heir of Sir John Plays, with Sir John Howard, was brought into that family, who died possessed of it, in the 16th of Henry VI. and Elizabeth Countess of Oxford, his granddaughter, was his heir; and her grandson, John Earl of Oxford, dying without issue, it came to his three sisters and coheirs; Elizabeth, wife of Sir Anthony Wing-

S E D I S T E R N.

THIS town belonged principally to Alan Earl of Richmond, at the grand sarvey; Alpha, who was lord of it in King Edward's reign, being deprived of it. It contained 3 carucates of land, 14 bordaers, with 3 carucates in demean and 2 carucates of the tenants, with 4 acres of meadow, &c. then valued at 60s. per ann. It was 10 furlongs long, and 8 broad, and paid 13*d.* gelt, and Facion or Phanceon held it under Alan.*

This Alan was also Earl of Britany in France, a principal commander in the decisive battle near Hastings, and married Constance, one of the daughters of William the Conqueror: Dugdale says he had a younger son, Brian; Dugd. Baron. V. i. p. 53, but p. 46, says that the said Alan died without issue. Brian had issue Alan called Alan Fitz-Brian, father of Brian Fitz-Alan. By this family, the Kerdestons were enfeoffed of this lordship, (of whom see in Bircham Newton.) Fulco de Kerdeston was lord in the reign of Henry III. Agnes, his widow, held it by one fee, and paid 10s. per ann. to Richmond castle-guard, in the 10th of Edward I. and in the 16th Brian Fitz-Alan granted it to her in fee tail, by fine, excepting the advowson.

On Brian's death, 31st of Edward I. he was found to leave 2 daughters and coheirs; Maud, who became the wife of Sir Gilbert de Stapleton, and Catherine, of Sir John de Grey, of Rotherfield, who, (as appears from the Institution Books,) with their descendants, continued patrons of this church, as the capital lords. On the death of Roger de Kerdeston, in the the 11th of Edward III. Maud, his widow, had it assigned to her in dower, and William de Kerdeston held it in the 3d of Henry IV.<sup>3</sup> In the 5d of Henry VI. this manor was settled on Sir Thomas Kerdeston, and Elizabeth his wife, in tail, by Thomas Chaucer, Esq. and Maud his wife. In the 14th of that King, Sir Thomas held it of the honour of Richmond; and William de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Chaucer, Esq. late relict of Sir John Phelip, released to Sir Thomas all their right which formerly belonged to Sir William, son and heir of Sir Roger Kerdeston, in the 20th of the said reign; after this it was settled on Sir Thomas Kerdeston, and Philippa his wife, in tail, and remainder to William de la Pool, and Alice his wife, in the 24th of Henry VI.

In the 12th of Henry VII. May 25th, Edmund de la Pole Earl of <sup>3</sup> Margaret, wife of Sir Hamon de Felton, held it in the 4. d. of Edward III. and John, son of John de Bugheish, was her cousin; probably she was relict of William de Kerdeston.

Suffolk, granted to Elizabeth Robsert, widow of Sir Terry Robsert, for life, and to William Robsert, her son and heir, and the heirs of the body of Sir Terry, lawfully begotten, all his right and title in this lordship, and that of Bircham Newton, on the condition, that, on her death, and on the death of the lawful heirs of Sir Terry Robsert, they should return to him and his heirs; this Elizabeth being daughter of Sir Thomas Kerdeston, whose arms, impaled by Sir Terry, were to be seen in this church. He was descended from Sir Canon Robsert, a knight of Heynault,<sup>4</sup> a great commander under King Edward III. and attended John Duke of Lancaster into Spain, and sent by King Richard II. in his 3d year, with John Cotesford, L. L. D. to treat with the Duke of Juliers and Geldres about his doing homage, service, and giving aid to that King. He left 3 sons, Sir John Robsert, Sir Lewes, and Sir Terry Robsert. See Collins on the Peerage, vol. iii. p. 476, &c.

Sir Lewes Robsert, his 2d son, was standard-bearer to King Hen. V. with a pension of 100*l. per annum*, governour of Cruvey and Caudeler, and all the forests, woods, &c. in Normandy, installed Knight of the Garter Ao. 7<sup>o</sup>. and Ao. 8<sup>o</sup>. sent ambassador with the Earls of Warwick and Kyme, and the Lord Ross, to Philip Duke of Burgundy; was a great favourite of that King, attended him at his death, and at his funeral. He married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir Barth. Bouchier, and was summoned to parliament as Lord Bouchier, in the 3d, 4th, &c. of Henry VI. and dying in November, Ao. 9<sup>o</sup>. of Hen. VI. was buried in Westminster abbey.

Sir John Robsert, his eldest brother, attended King Henry V. Ao. 1<sup>o</sup>. on his first landing in France, had a patent for 100*l. per annum* for his great services, and a grant of the castle and lordships of St. Saviour's in Normandy, Knight of the Garter, Ao. 6th of Henry V. and keeper of the great seal of that order, and dying in the 29th of Henry VI. was buried in the Gray-friars church of London.

Sir Terry Robsert married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Kerdeston, and dying lord of this town, December 19, Ao. 12th of Henry VIII. left two sons, William and John, and a daughter, Lucy, afterwards the wife of Edward Walpole, Esq. of Houghton.—William being a minor, King Henry VII. December 11, Ao. 19<sup>o</sup>. granted to Margaret Carew, widow, and Thomas Blake, the wardship of all his lands, which, on the death of the said William, soon after descended to his brother, John Robsert. Sir Terry was retained, with his brother Sir John, to serve the regent, John Duke of Bedford, in France, and was captain of Hamby, and St. Saviour de Ive, in Normandy.—Dugdale observes,<sup>5</sup> that Sir John de Burghershe as cousin and heir to William Kerdeston, (his grandfather,) had livery in the 40th of Edward III. of the lands of his inheritance in Norfolk and Suffolk; but this being contested by William his son and heir, he recovered them.

The aforesaid Sir John died Ao. 19th of Richard II. leaving only two daughters, Margaret and Maud; Maud married Thomas Chaucer, and it is probable that contest abovementioned was renewed by Alice, (daughter of Maud;) who married to William de la Pole Duke of Suffolk, as heir to Sir John de Burghershe.

Sir Thomas Kerdeston's will is dated July 1st, 1446, and gives his body to be buried in the Augustine-friars church at Norwich,<sup>6</sup> appoints the 3d part of the passage of Bunkenham ferry, which descended to him in fee simple, and all his lands, common fishing, rents in Claxton, Ashby, Helgheton, Berghapton, Helveston, Yelverton, which he purchased of William Claxton, to be sold, and the money to be disposed of for his soul's health, and Elizabeth's his wife, (his second wife Philippa, daughter of Sir John Trussel, surviving him,) and gives to Elizabeth, his daughter, a missal, and was proved May 4th, 1443.

John Robsert, 2d son of Sir Terry, was lord of this manor, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 1st of Edward VI. I find that this John Robsert, called late of Windham in Norfolk, Esq. alias of Stanfeld, in the parish of Wymundham, to have a pardon from the said King, by the advice of Edward Duke of Somerset, the protector, and the council, for all treasons, &c. insurrections, rebellions, murders, felonies, before the 20th of January, in the first year of that King:—Witness, the King, at Westminster, the fifth day of May, in his first year.

Soon after this he died, leaving, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John Scott of Camberwell, Esq. in Surrey, a daughter and heir, Anne.

Anne, his daughter, married Sir Robert Dudley, afterwards Earl of Leicester, who had a grant of this manor, with that of Hemesby, and advowson of the vicarage, lately belonging to the cathedral church of Norwich, the manor of Newton, by Bircham, and the advowson, late ohn Robsart's? also the manor of Great Bircham, to hold Hemesby with Anne his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, in capite; and to hold Sidestern, Newton, and Great Bircham, to Anne and Robert, during the life of the said Robert, by a grant, dated January 30, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary.

This lady came to an unhappy death at Mr. Foster's house at Cummore, near Oxford, by a fall from the stairs, and was buried in St. Mary's, the University church at Oxford. The Earl is said not to be over kind to her, and that she was either thrown, or tumbled down a pair of stairs, and broke her neck; and the Earl held this manor for his life, dying lord of it in 1588, when it came to John Walpole, Esq. son and heir of Edward Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, and Lucy his wife, daughter of Sir Terry Robsart;<sup>8</sup> and in this family it remains, the Right Honourable Earl of Orford being lord.

The Earl Warren had a lordship, which Ralph held of him, with 4 socmen, and 48 acres, at the survey; and Lambert also held 30 acres, half a carucate, with 3 bordarers, valued then at 5s. 4d. after, at 12s.—This was a beruite to Rudham.<sup>9</sup>

SNORING PARVA.

THE King's manor of Fakenham extended into this village; there were here, and in East Barsham, 3 freemen, who held 3 acres of land, and one carucate, which was valued and measured in that manor.<sup>1</sup>

This was possessed by the family of De Haviles, by petit serjeanty, of whom see in Dunton, and in Kettleston; after them, Thomas de Mileham, and Beatrix his wife, in the 8th of Edward III. and afterwards by Nicholas de Attechirch.

The Earl Warren had also 2 socmen, with lands here, belonging to his manor of North Barsham.

But the principal lordship was, at the survey, in Peter de Valoines, and held under him by Ralph : Manna, a freeman, was deprived of it at the conquest, who had one carucate of land, with 24 bordarers, and one servus, one carucate in demean, and a carucate and 4 acres of meadow amongst the men, a mill, and 6 cows; and 6 socmen held 40 acres of land, and 2 bordarers, a carucate and 5 acres of meadow, valued at 40s. and was half a leuca long, and 3 furlongs broad, and paid 12*d.* gelt.<sup>2</sup>

WALCOTE AND BOLE'S MANOR.

Ralph, who held this lordship under the Lord Valoins, was probably the ancestor of the family of De Snaring, of this town; Philip de Snaring was found to hold three parts of a fee, and Geff. de Snaring half a fee, of the Lord Valoins, in the 12th of King Henry II.; of these lords see in Dersingham.

SIR GEFF. DE SNARING, by Basilia his wife, was father of Richard de Snaring. Maud de Snaring, widow, by deed sans date, gave her mill, and pond, of Wykeney, to the monks of Acre, after the death of Richard, her brother.

SIR PHILIP DE SNARING had several daughters and coheirs; Matilda, or Mabilia, married to — Bole, who in her widowhood granted lands to Reginald de Burgo;—Agnes, married to Philip de Styvekeys;—Beatrix, to Henry de Playford; and Basilia, to — Le Strange of Litcham. Matilda and Basilia were found to hold here, and in Stiberde, a fee, of Robert Lord Fitz Walter, in Henry the Third's time.

In the 6th of Edward I. John, son of Ralph Le Strange of Litcham, held lands here; and Adam Bole granted lands by fine, part of this manor, to Richard Bole, for life, in the 14th of that King: to this Richard, and John Le Strange, Henry de Warham, and Richard Le Rus, of Lexham, conveyed by fine the advowson of this church, in the 13th of the said reign; and on this, Bole and Le Strange had the alternate presentation of this church. In the 17th year of the aforesaid King, John, son of John Le Strange, and Clementia his wife, bought of John de Stoneham, and Roger de Neketon, several messuages and lands, with the homages, services, &c. of several persons, and had the moiety of the manor of Naring Parva. Ralph Le Strange was found to be his brother and heir, in the 53d of Edward I. or Ralph was rather heir to this manor, being settled on him by fine.

The jury, in the 15th of the aforesaid King, present that the bridge, called Wodebrig, in the way between Naring Parva and Crysford, was broke, and that John son of John Le Strange of Litcham, lord of Naring Parva, ought to repair it, and the sheriff was ordered to see it done. In the 9th of Edward II. William Bole, and Joan his wife, had a moiety. Sir William Bole, was lord in the 18th of that King, and John Bole and Agnes his wife, in the 20th of Edward III.

In the 10th of Edward II. Ralph, son of John Le Strange, conveyed by fine, to Alexander de Walcote, and Maud his wife, (probably daughter and heir of Ralph;) a moiety of this manor, with the advowson, except 4 messuages, 53 acres of land, 6 of wood, 3 of heath, 12 of wood, and 12s. rent, part of the said moiety, held for life, by Clementia, widow of John Le Strange, settled on Alexander and Maud, in tail, remainder to Elizabeth Mariot, and Margaret, daughters of Alexander; and in the 13th of Edward III. Alexander conveyed the said premises to Walter de Walcote, and Margaret his wife, and died in the 29th of that King, lord of this town, and of Gunton.

ROBERT DE BERNEY, and Margaret his wife,<sup>3</sup> one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Walter de Walcote, passed by fine, levied in the 6th of Richard II. to Margaret, widow of John Elys, senior, of Genemuth, the 3d part of the manor of Snoring Parva, called Walcotes, with the 3d part of the advowson; and in 11th of that King, Sir Symon de Felbrigg, Knt. Robert Hereward, and Margaret Elys, were querents, and John Dorward, and Catherine his wife, (another of Walcote's daughters and coheirs,) were deforcients in a fine, who passed to Margaret Elys, their 3d part: the other daughter and coheir was Elizabeth, wife, of Edmund de Wilton.

Catherine, widow of John Cokerell of Albergh Wykes, in Suffolk, died seized, the 6th of Henry VI. of the manors of Walcote's and Botes, in this town, the manors of Ickworth, and Weynford, by Brandon Ferry, in Suffolk, which she left to Catherine, daughter of John Cokerell, junior, her son, (by John Cokerell, senior,) who died before his father; and the said Catherine was in the 10th of the said King, found to die a minor, and the jury knew not who was her heir.

In the 29th of Henry VI. George Heath, of Mildenhale, released to Humphrey Duke of Bucks, all his right in Walcote's, and Bole's manor, but in the 18th of Henry VII. Christopher Congers, and Alice his wife, conveyed it to the Hcydons.

Roger de Valoins, son of Peter de Valoins, founder of Bynham priory, gave 2 parts of his tithes to that priory, and that rector had the third.

The portion of that priory was taxed at 1*l.* 10*s.*

ROBERT SMITH, rector, by his will in 1525, gave the house that he lived in, to the repair, and maintenance of the church, on the condition that the churchwardens keep yearly his exequies on the third Sunday in Lent, and on Monday after, a commemoration, with mass for his soul, and for his parents and benefactors.*

In the reign of King Edward I. Robert Bole, and John le Strange, were patrons, and presented alternately; the rector had then a manse with 50 acres.

STABERD, OR STIBERDE,

Called in Domesday Book Estanbyrda, and Stabyrda. At the survey, 3 freemen here, with 3 in Barsham and in Snaring, held of the King's manor of Fakenham, 3 acres and a carucate of land: it was 3 furlongs long, and 2 broad, and paid 12*d.* gelt, and was valued under Fakenham.<sup>5</sup>

Earl Warren had also here one, and in Ryburgh another socman, with 30 acres of land, and a carucate, and one acre of meadow, with the moiety of a church endowed with 3 acres, valued at 5*s.* 4*d.*

The family of DE PAVILLY was, soon after the conquest enfeoffed, by the Earl Warren, of this lordship, and was also seized of the King's manor here, belonging to Fakenham, as appears from a pleading in the 34th of Henry III. when Ralph de Pavilli pleaded his right to it, by the grant of Walter, son of Hugh Synirede, which Hugh being enfeoffed of it, by King William Rufus, the said Walter enfeoffed Ralph de Pavily his grandfather.

In the 3d of Edward I. Thomas de Pavilli<sup>6</sup> had free warren, and in the 8th of Edward I. Thomas de Snetterton had an interest herein.

In the 5th of Edward II. Robert de Repps was lord; and he, with Sibilla his wife, settled it, in the 10th of the said King, on Laurence de Repps their son, and Margaret his wife, (being then rented at 3*l.* 4*s.* 3*d.* per ann.) with the patronage of the church.

In the 9th of Henry IV. Henry Scogan was lord, and Robert was found to be his son and heir, aged 19; of these Scogans, see in Reynham Haviles manor; and in the 12th of Henry VI. Richard Bosoun, Esq. John Champneys, clerk, &c. release to Thomas Champneys, clerk, by deed dated July 10, all their right in this manor, and that of Tes-terton, which they had of the feoffment of John Conesby, clerk, &c.; and in the 17th of Henry VII. John Skenev, and Cecilia his wife, conveyed it with a foldcourse of 300 sheep, to Sir Roger Townsend, and Sir Roger Clere, Knts.

Roger Townsend, Esq. and Ann his wife, held it with the advowson of the church in the 4th of Henry VIII. and by an inquisition taken November 1, in the first year of King James I. Sir John Townsend was found to die seized of the manor of Stiberde, held of the King's manor of Fakenham, in soccage, and paying 3s. 4d. per ann. and that of Pavillys, held of the manor of Sculthorp, in free soccage, and in this honourable family it continues.

In this town was a wood, and lands, belonging to Ralph de Beaufoe, son of Ralph de Beaufoe, which wood he gave to the monks of Castlecre, with the church of South Creke, and Thomas de Bellofago is said to claim a weekly mercate here, in the 3d of Edward I.

The tenths of this town, were 2l. 10s.

TATERFORD,

So called from the river Tat. Humphrey de Bohun had a grant of it at the conquest, on the expulsion of Ulnoth, who held it in King Edward's reign, of Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury, who had a carucate of land held by 3 villains, and 11 bordarers, and 2 servi; there was one carucate in demean, and at that time 2 carucates among the men, with 3 acres of meadow; a mill, &c. and one beruite belonged to this manor, with half a carucate of land, and 3 bordarers, and a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, a mill valued at 40s. per ann. it was half a leuca long, and 3 furlongs broad, and paid 3*d.* and  $\frac{3}{4}$  gelt. Four socmen, with 40 acres, were taken from this manor, and William de Warren had them.<sup>7</sup> Ulnoth was brother of King Harold.

HUMPHREY DE BOHUN was a kinsman to William Duke of Normandy, and attended him on the conquest of this realm, and is called Humphrey with the beard, most of the Normans then shaving their faces. It does not appear that he was possessed of any other lordship in Norfolk, at the general survey, than this of Taterford; and was ancestor to the Bohuns Earls of Hereford and Essex. It is probable that this lordship remained not long in this family, as I find no further account of them relating to it.

In the 9th of King John, Henry de Hauvill was lord, (of which family see in Dunton;) who granted to Pagan de Taterford his right of presentation to this church, with a salvo jure. This Pagan had a considerable interest in this town, and confirmed to William Person of Taterford, and Margaret, daughter of Henry de Saham, and their children, 24 acres of land, paying 6*d.* per ann. to the King's scutage, with a foldecourse, a common of pasture where they pleased with his cattle, for which they did homage to him, paid him 5 marks of silver, and Maud his wife, 2 talents of gold, and acquitted him of his mortgage of 4 marks to Benedict the sewer:—Witnesses, Simon de Saham, Osbert, son of Roger de Stratesete, and William his brother, &c. the 5th of Henry III. Margery, widow of Pagan de Taterford, and John her son, were living.

Hugh de Dunton, alias Havile, by deed, sans date, released to Sir Thomas, son of Richard de Snetterton, all his right in 40*l.* issuing out of lands here, and 12*d.* per ann. of the serjeanty, which he received of Sir Thomas, for which he received money, and lands in Doketon.

In the 52d of Henry III. Richard Spike of Taterford, and Sabina his wife, granted, by fine, to Richard, son of Thomas de Snetterton, land, and 5*s.* rent, in this town, Tatersete and Dunton; and, in the 14th of Edward I. Richard, son and heir of Richard de Dockyng, granted to Richard de Boyland, and Maud his wife, this manor and advowson, with all his arable lands, meadows, pastures, homages, wards, mills, turbaries, &c. paying to him and his heirs, one clove per ann. and Thomas de Snetterton, granted for himself and heirs, that the said Richard and Maud might have liberty to fish, to dig turf, &c. as freely as Richard de Dockyng had ever enjoyed, or his grandfather Richard.

Thomas de Sneterton was, in the 7th of Edward II. deforciant in a fine, and Thomas de Gannock, clerk, querent, of 24 messuages, a mill, 522 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 4*l.* rent, and the rent of 4 quarters of barley, and a half, in Taterford, Tatersete, Shireford, Helgton, and Riburgh Parva, settled on Thomas de Sneterton for life, remainder to Simon Brake of Brandeston, for life, then to Edmund de Snetterton, and Alice his wife, in tail, remainder to John, Richard, and William, in tail.

In the 20th of Edward III. Roger Bretoun, and Alice his wife, held here, and in Shereford, one fee, which Thomas de Sneterton, and his parceners, formerly held. John de Wolteron, parson of Snoring Parva, William de Barsale, and Richard de Waterden, released to Henry Stockel of Taterford, clerk, William de Horning, &c. all their right in 2 messuages, lands, meadows, and pastures, fishery, turbary, with the services of several persons, and advowson of the church, which they had lately purchased of Sir Richard de Boyland, Knt. by deed, dated on Palm Sunday, in the 34th of Edward III.

Afterwards it was in Sir Robert Knolles, who had free warren here, in the 2d of Richard II. his right herein came from Sir James Havile, and Sir Robert Tyffour, with the manor of Dunton, as may be there seen, and was settled by him on his college, or hospital, of Pontefract in Yorkshire, with the advowson; when it was found to be held of the prior of Flycham, by knight-service, and the prior to hold it of the heir of Somerville, and he of the King, valued at 8*l.* per ann. and then 30 acres, part of the said manor, was held of the prior of Cokesford, by the service of 4*s.* 5*d.* rent, by the year.

On the dissolution of this hospital, it was granted, May 17th, in the 3d of Edward VI. to Sir William Fermor, and Sir Richard Fulmers-ton. Sir William Fermor mortgaged it to John Winter, Esq. and the lady Catherine Fermor, late wife of Sir William, redeeming it, it was conveyed to her, October 13, in the 5th and 6th of Philip and Mary, who gave it for life to Henry Spitman, Esq. remainder to Nicholas Fermor, Gent. a nephew of Sir William Fermor; and the said Nicholas, by his deed, dated November 3, in the 12th of Elizabeth, sold it, with lands in Gatesend, Dunton, &c. to Thomas Fermor, Esq. of East Barsham, his eldest brother, for 500*l.* and he sold it to Thomas Grave, Esq. of Lynn, whose daughter and heir brought by marriage to Henry Vilet, Esq. this lordship, with that of Tatersete, as may be there seen.—Vilet bore, argent, on a chevron, gules, three castles, or, on a canton, azure, a lis of the 3d.

The prior of Coxford had lands here, farmed by Henry Fermor, Esq. in the 7th of Henry VIII.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret, and is a rectory; the ancient valor was 10 marks; the present 6l. 6s. 8d. and is discharged from first fruits and tenths.

Richard de Dokkyng was patron in Edward the First's reign, when the rector had 40 acres of land, but no manse.—Peter-pence, 7d.

Richard de Boyland, in the 14th of Edward I. and Maud his wife, had the patronage, as appears from a fine, and presented in 1314, Ralph Howe.

T A T E R S E T E,

So called, as being seated on a rivulet, or stream, called anciently the Tat, and Gat; of this kind and derivation, is Taterford, Tatenhal, and Tatton, in Cheshire, Tatwell, and Tatershall, in Lincolnshire, &c. In ancient writings, it is frequently wrote Tatersete, alias Gatesend.

Remerus held it under the Earl Warren, the capital lord at the survey; Toke, a great Saxon thane, being deprived of it on the conquest. Fifteen bordarers, and one servus belonged to it, with one carucate in deimean, and one carucate, and an acre of the men, 2 mills, &c. there were then two churches, with 40 acres, and 14 soemen held 69 acres; there were six bordarers, with 2 carucates, and an acre of meadow, then valued at 10s. at the survey at 60s. it was half a leuca long, and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 13d. gelt.<sup>8</sup>

Remerus seems to be the ancestor of the family of De Pinkenye, lords of this town. Ralph de Pencheveia confirmed to the monks of Castleacre the church of St. Andrew, in this town, with the tenement which they held the day they received his father and mother into their church, (to be buried, as I take it,) and gave an acre and an half of his own gift, by deed, sans date, in the reign of Henry II. as it seems.

PINKENY'S MANOR.

William de Pinkeni, by deed, sans date, confirmed to Ralph, the priest, his kinsman, son of Hugh Ruffus, and to his brother John, the lands which his grandfather William, and father Ralph, had given them here. Ralph was to pay quarterly 4*s.* for this land, and 16*d.* when the scutage was at 20*s.* and once in the year to attend on, and ride out with, William, at his charge, and to perform 3 days work yearly with his cart, but to have provision then found him, and for one man for 3 days service in harvest.

In the 9th of King John, William Pynkeny sued Ralph, the priest, for giving lands here to Coxford priory: Ralph pleads, that he held them freely; William said, he held in villenage, and that he had sold one of his sisters for 4*s.*; but Ralph producing the deeds and grants of William, it appeared that he held them freely, and so it was determined.

Sir William de Pynkeny de Thatersett confirmed to William, son of Richard de Anglo, (that is English;) by deed, sans date, a croft:—witnesses, Sir Thomas de Begeville, Kut. John de Sengham. The seal to this deed is of green wax;—a crescent and a decrescent in chief, with one crescent in base.

Hugh de Pinkeny held in the 24th of Henry III. a knight's fee, and was not a knight: and John de Pinkeny was lord in the 10th of Edward II. and, in the 13th of that King, the said John was querent in a fine, and Thomas de Pinkeny, and Catherine his wife, deforciant, of 10 messuages, a mill, 100 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 2 of moor, and 11*s.* 8*d.* rent here, and in Sengham, settled on Thomas and Catherine, who granted an annuity of 60*s.* per ann. to John.

James de Pynkeny was lord in the 9th and 15th of Edward III. About this time, several of this family had an interest here. In the 19th of that King, Sir Hugh Peverel, &c. settled, as trustees, this manor, with that of Brunsthorp, on James de Pynkeney, and Joan his wife, in tail, remainder to Hugh their son, and Isabel his wife, in tail.<sup>9</sup> In the 3d of Richard II. Catherine Brews, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas de Norwich, a nun, at Dertford, in Kent, was found to hold one fee here, and in Sengham.

After this, it was possessed in part, (and the Dynnes, as I shall show,) by Sir Robert Knolles, who settled it on his college or hospital of Pontefract, as in Sculthorp; and, on the dissolution of that house, was granted, May 17, in the 3d of Edward VI. to Sir William Fermor, and Sir Richard Fulmerston; and Sir William Fermor died seized of this manor, with that of Begeville's, Lucy's, &c. in this town, in 1558; and Thomas Fermor, his nephew, had livery of them, who, in the 16th of Elizabeth, had license to convey them to Thomas

This Thomas Grave was a merchant of King's Lynn, and mayor of that town in 1567, 1574, and 1584, descended probably from William Grave of this town, who granted, in the 2d of Henry IV. a messuage here to John Scory, and Catharine his wife; and Nicholas Grave of Catfield had lands here in the 20th of Henry VII.

Catharine, daughter and heir of Thomas Grave, brought it by marriage to Henry Vilet of King's Lynn, merchant, and mayor in 1590, and 1599: Henry was son and heir of Richard Vilet, who died at his house in Thames-street, London, July 5, 1578, and was buried in the church of St. Buttolph's Billingsgate, by Dorothy his wife, daughter of Richard Herdman of Worcestershire, Gent. and brother to Robert, Richard, and Mary, who married Henry Pettit, Gent. of Kent.

Henry, by Catharine his wife, was father of Grave Vilet of Pinkeny-hall, Esq. who, by Jane, daughter of William Butts, of Shouldham-Thorp, Esq. and Jane his wife, daughter of ——— Cocket of Brunsthorp, had Thomas Violet, his son and heir; who, on an inquisition taken October 12, in the 6th year of Charles I. was found to die seized of the manors of Pinkneys, alias Tatersete, Begeville's, Luces, Morehall, and Wiskin's, in this town; and William was his son and heir, aged 17, by Susan his wife, daughter of William Thoresby, Esq. — Grave Violet, son of Thomas, married Frances, daughter of John Brown, of Brisley, Gent.

George Violet, Esq. was the last heir male of this family, and left, by Frances, several daughters and coheirs; Diana, married to Sir Robert Drury, Bart. who died without issue; Anne, married to Charles Wright, Esq. of Kilverstone, and Frances, to John Harris, Esq. of Burnham. The lady Diana Drury died possessed of this town in 17—, and then it came to the Wrights of Kilverstone, and John Wright, rector of Euston, is the present lord.—Sir Richard de Begeville was witness to a deed, sans date, of William, son of Hugh de Pynkeney, of lands; as was Sir Thomas de Begeville to a deed of William de Pynkeney, and Thomas, son of Thomas de Begeville, released to William de Hydringham of Taterset, and Margaret his wife, and their heirs, his right in lands here, in the 6th of Edward II. —Witnesses, Sir Thomas de Snetterton, John de Helgeton, John de Paveley, Thomas de Anglo, &c.

Ralph Messenger of Harleston, by his will, dated February 16, 1417, appoints that his manor of Begeviles, Lucies, &c. with his lands and tenements in Littleport, in the isle of Ely, should be in the hands of his executors, to enfeoff therein William his son and heir, when he was of age; and if his son died before, then to be sold by his executors, and the money to be disposed of in pious uses.

In 1493, John Dymne of Heydon, died seized of the manor of Pinkney-hall, or Taterset, with those of Begeville, Lucys, &c. as did Henry Dymne, Esq. in 1517, and his son Robert conveyed them to Sir William Fermor, November 20, in the 1st of Edward VI. whose nephew, Thomas Fermor, sold them to Thomas Grave, Gent. and so became united to the aforementioned manor.

Walter de Calthorp held the 3d part of a fee in this town of the Earl Warren, in the reign of Henry III. and in the 20th of Edward III. it was in the same family.

In the reign of Henry III. Roger de Aylesham held the 3d part of a fee, and Hamon de Pinkeney, and Alice his wife, held of Roger de Aylsham, and Joan his wife, by one knight's fee, a capital messuage, a watermill, &c. valued at 3*l.* 10*s.* per ann. in the 33d of Edward I. John de Hyndringham, and Idonea his wife, held this in the 20th of Edward III. John de Hyndringham, in right of his wife, Symon Payn, and Thomas Atte Ganock, held in Tatersete and Sengham one fee of the Earl Warren, and paid suit of court at Seulthorp.<sup>1</sup>

John de Helgeton had the 3d part of a fee in the reign of Henry III. and one of the same name held it in the 20th of Edward III.

The prior of Coxford had a manor here; and their temporalities in this town, and Brunsthorp, were valued, in 1428, at 6*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*; 78 acres of land, with a fold-course, were let, 7<sup>o</sup>. Henry VIII. by the prior, to Henry Fermer of East-Barsham. This was granted May 9, by King Henry VIII. in his 29th year, to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

The prior of Castleacre had also lands here, with tenements, &c. in the 3d of Henry IV. and in the 7th of Henry VIII. he held a messuage, and 20 acres, by knight's service. This seems to be what was called the manor of Lucys.

Concealed lands granted to John Herbert, and Andrew Palmer, September 22, in the 17th of Elizabeth.

S E N G H A M

WAS an hamlet belonging to Tatersete. In the 9th of King John the prior of Castleacre was impleaded by William de Pynkeny for commoning here, and in Tatersete, who pleaded that the common was not the sole property of William, but that many free tenants commoned there; and, in the 14th of Edward I. it was found that William Attehow, (father of Richard,) died in his journey, (or pilgrimage,) to St. James, seized of a mill, 14 acres of land, 2*s.* and 10*d.* in Sengham and Tatersete, which they held of Thomas de Begeville, and Joan his wife, by knight's service. Maud Edebyne, of Tatersete, confirmed to John, in the byrne of Tatersete, a messuage, with a croft in Tatersete, in a street called Sengham:—witness, James de Pynkeney, &c.

In this town were two churches. Ralph de Pincheneia confirmed the gift of his father to the priory of Castleacre by deed, sans date, the church of St. Andrew, as is before observed,—and was confirmed by Eborard Bishop of Norwich.<sup>2</sup>

Sir Maurice de Barsham gave to the said priory the advowson of the church of All-Saints, in the presence of Tyngrin, archdeacon of Norwich, (this was in or about 1171,) with a villain, Brunketel de Taterset, William de Bellomont, by deed, sans date, with Joan his wife, confirmed it: this Joan was daughter and heir of Sir Maurice, whose manor of East-Barsham extended into this town. Iwan de Duntun, and Alice his wife, released, by fine, to William de Bellomonte the 3d part of a fee here, and in Taterset,  Ao. 6<sup>o</sup>. Henry III.

The CHURCH of Ail-Saints was a rectory, in the patronage of the priory of Castleacre, in King Edward the First's reign; the rector had a manse, with 2 acres of land, valued at 13 marks and a half: the prior of Castleacre had a portion, valued at 15s. 2d.—Peter-pence, 20d.—Symon Bishop of Norwich, in 1265, confirmed to Castleacre priory an annual pension of half a mark of this church, of the tithes of the demans, late William de Bellomont's.

TESTERTON

WAS the lordship of Peter de Valoines at the survey, out of which Toka, a freeman, was expelled at the conquest; and Richard held it under Peter; 7 bordarers had half a carucate of laud, and one servus; there was one carucate in demean, and one amongst the men; but at the survey, half a carucate, with an half acre of meadow, valued at 10s.<sup>3</sup>

It is called, in Domesday Book, Estretuna, being seated by a running water, or river, that comes from Fakenham.

Christiana de Thorp held here the moiety of a fee in Henry the Third's time.

The family of De Snaring, lords of Snaring Parva, seem to have enjoyed it, under the family of De Valoines. In the 13th of Edward I. Richard Le Bule of Snoring Parva, and John Le Strange, of Litcham, conveyed to Henry de Wirham, and Richard Le Rus, by fine, the advowson of the church of Testerton. Richard Le Bule, and John Le Strange, married Matilda and Basilia, two of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Philip de Snaring, of whom see in that town; and in the 31st of that King, Fulk de Munpinzun and Jane his wife were querents, and Edmund de Munpinzun detorciant, in a fine, of a messuage, 30 acres of land, one of meadow, and 4s. rent in this town, Colkirk, and Padding Norton, settled on Edmund.

In the 14th of Edward II. Thomas de Grimston held the 4th part of a fee; but in the 9th of Edward III. the moiety of this lordship was settled by William de Hales and Catherine his wife, with the manors of Wicklewood, Warham, and lands in Kelling, &c. on themselves in tail, remainder to Stephen, Richard, and William, their sons; and this lordship, with that of Warham, &c. were to revert to the heirs of Catherine,<sup>4</sup> as her inheritance; and in the 20th of the said King, William de Hales, Richard Clerk, and Agnes his wife, John le Rous, and William Pavilly, held the moiety of one quarter of a fee, which Christiana de Thorp formerly held; and John le Rous of Reynham presented to this church in 1346, as Sir Stephen Hales did in 1351.

JOAN ROUS, one of the daughters and heirs of John Rous of Reynham St. Mary, quit-claimed to James de Billingford, Roger Rawlyn, of Norton, and John Champneys, her right in a messuage, and 32 acres of land, with the appertenance in Testerton, and the advowson of the church, late her father's, on the 16th of December in the 19th of Richard II. and on July 10, in the 12th of Henry VI. Richard Bosoun, Esq. John Champneys, clerk, &c. released to Thomas Champneys, clerk, all their right in it, with the manor of Stiberd, which they had of the feoffment of John Conesby, clerk, with the said Thomas.

ROGER RAWLYN was lord, in 1395, and presented to the church.

WILLIAM ROKEWODE, junior, of Warham, Esq. son of William Rokewode, Esq. by his will, dated October 21, 1474, bequeaths to Alice his wife, the moiety of this manor, remainder to his daughters, Agnes, and Margaret, remainder to his sisters, Margaret Wase, and Margery, wife of James Gresham, remainder to the right heirs of Elizabeth, his mother; proved November 8, 1474.<sup>5</sup>

AGNES, his daughter, married Sir Nicholas Appleyard, of Braken, in Norfolk, who died lord in 1511; and in the 9th of Henry VIII. being then a widow, settled this lordship, with that of Warham Hales, and Holt, on her son and heir, Roger Appleyard, and his heirs. Roger married Elizabeth, relict, as is said, of Sir Terry Robsert,<sup>6</sup> of Sedistern, in Norfolk: he died on the 8th of July, in the 20th of Henry VIII. leaving John, his son and heir, aged one year: his will is dated in 1528, and proved December 7, 1529, wherein he gives to each of his daughters, Anne, Frances, and Bridget, 200*l.* to be paid out of his manors of Warham, Holt, and Testerton-Hales.

JOHN APPELYARD, Esq. was lord in the 2d of Edward VI. and had livery of this manor, with those of Brukenash, East Charlton, Holt, Stanfield in Windham, Hethill, Newton, &c. in Norfolk, and Byron in Hertfordshire. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Hogan, Esq. of East Brudenham, was high sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in 1558, and bore for his arms, azure, a chevron or, between three owlets, argent. This John sold to Thomas Townesend, Esq. this lordship; and in 1572 John Stanley, gentleman, is said to hold it in right of his wife, (probably relict of this John,) the reversion being in Thomas Townesend, then a minor, son of Thomas Townesend, who purchased it of Appleyard, and was a younger son of Sir Roger Townesend, Knt. of Rainham, by Anne his wife, daughter and co-heir of Sir Thomas Brewse; which Thomas Townesend, Esq. married Elizabeth, daughter of John Calybut of Castleacre, Esq. and left Thomas, his son and heir, who by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Richard Catlyn of Hunningham, serjeant at law, had Thomas Townesend, Esq. and by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Richard Timperly of Hintlesham in Suffolk, Esq. left Dorothy, his daughter and heir, who brought this manor by marriage to Thomas Bedingfeld, Esq. whose son and heir, Anthony, married Anne, daughter of ——— who was his widow in 1621. Thomas Bedingfeld, Esq. his son, died in ———, and left Anthony Bedingfeld, Esq. lord of this town, and of Holm-Hale, and dying in 1707, Francis, his son and heir, sold it to John Curteis, Gent. Margaret, widow of Antony, died in 1722, and was buried by her husband, in the church of Hale; Anthony, brother of Francis, was a Jesuite, and a missionary in England.

MR. BENONI MALLET, of Dunton, is the present lord, 1757.

The tenths were 2*l.* 4*s.*—Deducted 14*s.*—Lete fee to the lord of the hundred 4*s.*

WILLIAM PRAT, and Beatrix his wife, conveyed to Sir Roger Townesend, the manor of Wrights, in Testerton, Riburgh, and Puding Norton, in the 19th of Henry VIII. This was united to the aforesaid lordship, and family, and so conveyed with it.

The CHURCH of Testerton, is dedicated to St. Remigius, and is a rectory, formerly valued at 8 marks; the prior of Bynham's portion was 10*s.*—Peter-pence 5*d.* q. The present valor is 5*l.*

TOFTES, OR TOFTREES.

PART of this town was a beruite to the Earl Warren's manor of Sculthorp, consisting of 4 carucates, and 2 socmen, with 40 acres, and under them were 12 bordarers, and an acre and half of meadow, &c. and a church with 60 acres;<sup>7</sup> this was accounted for, and valued under Sculthorpe.

It is called in Domesday Book, Tofsas and Toftes, and seems to take its name from toft, a dwelling, and sas or es, by the water:

<sup>7</sup> Tre. Willi. de Warema, Hundret. ipsis xii. bord. i. ac. et dim. pti. semp. de Galhou. Semp. iiii. car. et ii. al. soc. ii. car. i. ecclia. LX. ac. de xL. ac. manent, in Tofsas. et sub.

Some may conceive it to take the name of Rys, being called afterwards Toftrys, from a family that lived here: the first of that name that I meet with, was William Rys, who held some lands here in the reign of Richard II. but had no lordship to entitle him to impose his own additional name, as some considerable lords did, on their towns and lordships; that Rys bespeaks a river, or stream of water, appears from Ryburgh, Reynham, Rysing, Rysby, &c.

The noble family of De Playz were, soon after the conquest, enfeoffed of many lordships, by the Earl Warren.

SIR HUGH DE PLAYZ was lord in the reign of King John, and one of the rebellious barons against him, and held 7 knights fees in Sussex; he married Philipa, one of the daughters of Richard de Montefixo, or Mountfitchet, and sister and coheir of Richard Lord Mountfitchet, a great baron, of Stanstead in Essex, by whom he had Richard de Playz, his son and heir. Sir Hugh married to his second wife, Beatrix de Say, widow of Hugh de Nevill.

RICHARD DE PLAYZ, in the 53d of Henry III. as one of the nephews and heirs to the Lord Richard Mountfitchet, paid his relief for the third part of Mountfitchet's lands, and was lord of this manor, and of Leye in Kent, in the 40th of Henry III.; to this Richard succeeded Ralph, his son and heir, 9 years of age, in the 3d of Edward I. and in ward to Robert Aguilon; Isabel, or Alice, widow of Richard, being living in the 13th of that King.<sup>8</sup> Ralph dying without issue, left Richard his brother heir to the estate, to whom succeeded Sir Gyles de Playz, who had summons to parliament as a baron, in the 25th of Edward I. and in the 31st of that King, died seized of this lordship, and that of Weting, &c. held of the Earl Warren, leaving Richard his son and heir, 6 years of age; Joan, his widow, was living in 1313, Sir Richard had a summons to parliament, in the 11th, &c. of Edward II.; he had a lete, and paid to the hundred court of Brothercross 12d. per annum, and held 3 fees in Toftrees, Sherford, Geyton, Sparham, Bradenham, Felwell, Knapton, &c.; by —, sister and heir of John, and daughter of Roger de Lancaster, he left a son, Richard, found heir to John de Lancaster of Stanstede, in Essex, who died on Wednesday preceding the feast of All-Saints, in the 33d of Edward III. Richard, by his wife Margaret, daughter of Sir Walter de Norwich, left John, his son and heir, aged 18 years, who married Joan, daughter of Sir Miles Stapleton, of Ingham in Norfolk, and by her had a daughter and heir, Margaret, married to Sir John Howard, ancestor of the Dukes of Norfolk. The will of Sir John Plaiz is dated on Thursday before the feast of St. John Baptist, in 1385, at Ocle Magua, in Essex, and was proved July 16, in 1389; he bequeaths his body to be buried in the priory of Bromchill, in Weting, to which house he gives a whole suit of vestments, a cup, a thurable, two vials, an incense boat, and an osculatory of silver gilt; with legacies to several religious houses, 20s. to the church, and benefactions to many others; to Joan his wife, all his goods and chatels in this manor, &c.

SIR JOHN HOWARD, by Margaret, daughter and heir of Sir John Plaiz, had a son, Sir John Howard, who died in 1410, and by Joan his wife, daughter of Sir Richard Walton, left Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, who married John Vere, Esq. Earl of Oxford, behced in the 1st year of King Edward IV. whose grandson, John Earl of Oxford, dying without issue, this lordship came to this 3 sisters and co-heirs; Elizabeth, married to Sir Ant. Wingfield; Dorothy, to John Nevill Lord Latimer; and Ursula, to Sir Edward Knightly; and Ursula, dying without issue, one moiety of the manor was vested in the Lord Latimer, and the other in Wingfield.

The Lord Peter de Valoine's manor of Ryburgh extended into this town, and was a beruite to it, who had 30 acres of land held by 4 bordarers, one caruate in demean, and half a one among his men, valued at the survey, at 5*l.* was 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 15*d.* gelt,<sup>9</sup> and, together with Ryburgh Magna, was worth 5*l.* per annum.

HEMPTON-PRIORY MANOR.

Henry, son of Roger de Warham, released by fine to Richard, prior of Hempton, his right in a messuage, 17 acres of land, and 3*s.* and a half-penny rent in Toftlee-Rys, and in the tenement that the said prior held there, of the gift of Bertram, son of Nicholas Nuion, and of Margery his wife, sister of the said Henry, of the inheritance of Agnes, the mother of Henry, whose heir he was. In the 56th of Henry III. and in the 1st of Edward I. the prior had here, and in Norton, 2 marks per ann. rent, purchased of William de Helweton, who was enfeoffed hereof by William de Waterden, who held in capite.

RICHARD, prior of the conventual church of St. Stephen of Hempton, and the convent, in their chapter-house, granted to John Rys of this town, and Alice his wife, &c. lands here, called Cokys-Croft, paying 4*d.* per ann. dated on the feast of the conception of the Blessed Virgin, in the 28th year of King Henry VI. and about this time their temporalities were valued at 5*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* ob. q. per ann.

In the 20th of Henry VII. this lordship was charged with an annuity of 20*s.* per ann. payable to Henry Fermor, Esq. of East-Barsbam, for life, and on the 9th of September, in the 37th of Henry VIII. granted to Sir William Fermor, and the Lady Catherine his wife, and after, came with the patronage of the vicarage, and the rectory, from the Duke of Norfolk, to Rothwell, Clifton, and the Lord Townsend.

The manor of Haxiles in Reynham extended into this town; and Thomas de Hauvill held it in the 30th of Edward I. Henry Scoggan held it in the 9th of Henry IV.; soon after it came to the *Townsend*s; and in the 27th of Henry VIII. was possessed by Sir Roger Townsend, as may be see in Rainham, and so was joined to the capital manor; the whole town being now in the Lord Townsend.

The CLIFTONS of this town were a family of good account: John Clifton, and William Clifton, were living here in the reign of Henry VI. as was Nicholas Clifton, and Henry his son, in the 20th of Henry VII. Henry Clifton, by his will, dated April 20, 1548, desires to be buried in this church, and was proved December 1, 1554;<sup>1</sup> the will of Barbara, his widow, is dated — 18, 1558, and was here buried by

In the 43d of Elizabeth, one Evans took the son of one Clifton, a gentleman of Norfolk, who was taught to sing for his recreation, by virtue of a commission to take children for the King's service in his chapel, but he being a gentleman's son, Evans, for that offence, was grievously punished.<sup>4</sup> The heiress of this family is said to have married — Ruding, Esq.<sup>5</sup>

The tenths were 6*l.*—Deducted 1*l.*—The temporalities of Petreston priory were 18*s.* of Warden abbey 11*s.*

In this parish was a beacon.

The CHURCH of Toftes is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a rectory, valued at 28 marks, and being appropriated to the priory of Lewes, a vicarage was settled at 7*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* ob. anciently at 8 marks. Peter-pence 14*d.*—William, the second Earl Warren, gave it to the convent of Lewes, and it was appropriated in 1246, by Walter, Bishop.

PETER Lord Valoins, founder of Binham priory, confirmed to it, in the reign of Henry I. two parts of the tithes of this lordship, (which Richard de Spineto, held of Ralph Fucatus, who held it of Peter;) the church of Tofts having the third part, or sheaf: this portion of Binham priory was valued at 20*s.* per ann. in 1428, and was demised by the prior and convent, for ever, in the 7th of Richard II.

ROBERT, prior of Lewes, and the convent, granted the appropriated rectory, and portion aforesaid, with the patronage of the vicarage, to the King, by fine A<sup>o</sup>. 29th of Henry VIII. and the King, on December 22, in the said year, granted them to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

The guilds of the Holy Trinity, of St. Baptist, and St. Thomas, of this church, are mentioned in 1516.<sup>6</sup>

Also an old marble grave-stone, deprived of its cross flory, and letters of brass round the rim, and covered for the most part with a pew, from what can be seen of the incision made for the letters, it was in French, about the time of Edward I. probably in memory of some priest,

W A T E R D E N,

So called from its site, in a watery valley. Lambert was enfeoffed of it, and held it at the survey under the Earl Warren; two freemen, who enjoyed it in King Edward's reign, being dispossessed of it: it contained a carucate of land, 17 bordarers, 2 servi belonging to the demean, who had amongst them, 2 carucates, and a church with 5 acres, and this, with the Earl's fee in Creke, was valued at 20s. but at the survey at 17s. 4d. and was, with that, 3 furlongs long, and 2 broad, and paid 12d. gelt.<sup>7</sup>

In the 3d of Henry III. Reginald de St. Martin held in this town, and Hempton, by Fakenham, and East-Barsham, one knight's fee, of the Earl Warren, and Roger de St. Martin, his son, held half a fee, of Hugh Bardolf, who held of the aforesaid Earl; and the prior of Fakenham (viz. Hempton) held half a quarter of it in the said reign.

SIMON LE GRANT conveyed it, in the 12th of that King, by fine, to William de St. Martin, and Petronel his wife, and to her heirs; and in the 3d of Edward I. Roger de St. Martin had the assise of bread, &c.

In the 7th of Edward II. Sir Ralph Sefoule, and Beatrir his wife, were living, and sealed with vert, a cross patonce, or. In the 14th of Edward III. and in the 38th of that King, Edmund Sefoul had lands in Frenge in Norfolk.—George Sefoule purchased land of And. Castell, and Margaret his wife, in this town, 26th of Henry VI.—George and Thomas Sefoule were feoffees of lands in East-Barsham, in the 34th of that King; and George Sefoule of Waterden, according to his will, dated August 5th, 1469, was buried in the church of Waterden, All-Saints, and mentions therein, Margery his wife, Thomas his son and heir, his sons, William, John, and Edward,<sup>8</sup> Elizabeth his daughter, married to Thomas Davy, &c.

THE Crown had the lordship of this hundred, and King Henry I. directed his writ to Ralph Basset, and Aubrey de Fer, to the sheriffs and barons of Norfolk, certifying his grant to Eborard Bishop of Norwich, for life, of 100s. per ann. out of the profits and issues of this hundred, and that of Walesham.

Sir William de St. Omer farmed these two hundreds, in the 52d of Henry III. at 9*l.* per ann.; and in the 3d of Edward I. Sir William let them at 24*l.* per ann. together with that of Taverham and Walsham;—Nicholas de Castello of Raveningham farmed them at the King's pleasure, in the 10th of that King.

The jury, in the 15th of Edward I. find that John Blaber of Attlebrigg had took sanctuary in the church of St. Matthew in Norwich, in the liberty of the prior of Norwich, and that he confessed himself a thief; but the said church, though in the liberty of the prior, was in the precinct of Blofield hundred, and not in the city liberty, as appears from the records and rolls of Nicholas de Turri, and his associates, late itinerant justices; and that the whole parishes of St. Matthew, St. Hellen's, St. Martin's, and St. Paul's, in Norwich, were in Blofield hundred, and not in the liberty of the city; that Ratone-row, Tomb-land, and all the land to the river Wenson, Norman's land, or Paul's hospital, Holm-street, and St. Giles's hospital, were all in the said hundred, before the charters of the King granted them to the city, which had no hamlet or village belonging to it, out of its walls or suburbs, but Heigham. Sir John de Clavering held this hundred of the Crown in the 9th of Edward II. Bartholomew de Pyreyer had an annuity of 40*l.* per ann. January 24, in the ——— of Henry VII. for life, out of the issues of the hundreds of Blofield, East and West Flegg, Happing, Taverham, and Humbteyard; and King James I. by letters patents, dated December 22,  Ao. 4<sup>o</sup>, granted to Sir Charles Cornwallis, Knt. during the lives of Charles, eldest son of Sir William Cornwallis, Thomas Cornwallis, Esq. second son of Sir Charles, and Thomas Cornwallis, Esq. son of Sir William, the hundred of Blofield, with all the rights and profits, paying for the same the rent of 6*l.* 10s. 4*d.* per ann.

It appears from the register of St. Bennet's Abbey, that when an estate, which ought to do suit to the hundred court, came to be divided, by sale, descent, or inheritance, by divers persons into divers parts, yet but one suit was to be done.<sup>1</sup>

There was anciently a deanery with its proper deans, collated by the Bishop of Norwich. The deanery still retains the name of Blofield, but no deans have been collated for above two centuries past, (see in Blofield town,) and this hundred made part of the said deanery.

On an appeal of death, in the King's Bench, in the 38th of Henry III. the defendant pleaded, that he was a clerk, and would not answer; and J. R. then dean of Blofield, came into court on the behalf of the Bishop of Norwich, and demanded him, as a clerk of Norwich diocese, by letters patent of the Bishop, testifying that he constituted J. R. to require and receive him of the court as a clerk of his diocese, and he was delivered to J. R. the court speaking to him, that he should exhibit quick and full justice to him, in the court ecclesiastical, according to the laws ecclesiastical.—This shews the manner, at that time, of pleading the benefit of the clergy.

BLOFIELD.

THIS town was, at the survey, one entire lordship, possessed by William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, in his own right, as a lay fee. Almar Bishop of Elmham (Archbishop Stigand's brother) was lord in King Edward's reign, and part of the Conqueror's, till deprived in 1070. He is said to have been a married priest, and to have held it in right of his wife, being her portion. On this deprivation, it was granted to Beaufoe, and consisted of two carucates of land, nine villains, two servi, two carucates in demean, and half a carucate of the tenants, &c. four acres of meadow, &c. In King Edward's time there belonged to this manor 43 socmen, (who could not sell or grant their lands,) with three carucates of land, and four acres of meadow, and ten carucates, &c. William de Noiers, Rainald Baldwin, and Helias, held five socmen under Beaufoe; and, besides these, the Bishop, in the Confessor's time, had the forfeiture of six, but the hundred had not seen the writ, the seal, or grant of the King. It was valued then, in the whole, at 7*l.* at the survey at 8*l.* was one leuca long, and three furlongs, and in breadth one leuca and one furlong; paid gelt 30*d.* Almar had this manor with his wife, before he was a bishop, and held it afterward whilst he was a bishop. William Beaufoe, Bishop, is the present lord.<sup>2</sup>

On the death of this Bishop, it came to the episcopal see by his donation, and was esteemed the head of the barony of the see of Norwich, and held in capite of the Bishop by the ancient family of De Casteton, or Caston. Sir Robert de Caston appears to have held it in the time of Bishop Ralph, about the year 1236, and claimed, in the Bishop's right, to fish, to cut reed in any part of the town, and fen lying against Whitton, and sealed with the Holy Lamb.

Walter de Suffield, Bishop, had a charter of free warren, in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 49th, William de Newton complained against several particular persons, and against the townships of Blofield, Hasingham, &c. for being assaulted and beat there; and the townships were bailed, and obliged to appear at the King's Bench; <sup>3</sup> I mention this as a quere,—whether such a complaint would be good at this time.

In the 15th of Edward I. the Bishop claimed free warren in his demean lands, frank pledge, assise of bread, &c. weyf, &c. In the see it remained till the exchange of lands made between King Henry VIII. in his 27th year, and Bishop Rugg, by act of parliament, February 4, and then was vested in the Crown; and the said King, on June 20, in his 32d year, granted it to Sir Thomas Paston, in consideration of other lands, together with the patronage of the church.

The manor had court baron, and lete, which, with the patronage of the church, and the Bishop's palace here, were all conveyed; the demean lands contained 280 acres, besides as much land as was let for 20 marks per ann. Rent of assise, and quitrents, were 20*l. per ann.* In this family it continued many years, Edward Paston, Esq. being ord and patron in 1640.

In Domesday Book the town is wrote Blafelda, from its site near a river, and gives name to the hundred: thus we find Blakeney in Norfolk, Blakenham and Blaxhall in Suffolk, Blakesley in Northamptonshire, Blakenham in Cheshire, and Blaby in Leicestershire; all thus seated by some considerable water; also Blore in Staffordshire, and Blonorton in Norfolk.

The tenths were 5*l.* 3*s.*—Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*—Temporalities of Carhow-priory 4*s.* 5*d.*—This lordship was esteemed to be the head of the barony of his see of Norwich, consisting of five knights fees.

The Church is a rectory dedicated to St. Andrew: ancient valor 48 marks; Peter-pence 4*s.* carvage 4*d.* The prior of Norwich had a portion of tithe, valued at 10*s.* granted by Bishop John de Grey, and confirmed by Bishop Blomvile; the church was not visited by the archdeacon, being in the Bishop's manor:—the present valor is 28*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and pays tenths, &c.

BLOFIELD DEANERY

Was taxed at 13s. 4d.—In 1256, Robert ——— occurs dean; it paid synodals to the archdeacon of Norwich, at St. Michael, 25s. and the same at Easter:—Peter-pence, 25d. Carvage to the high altar of the cathedral church of Norwich, in Whitsunday week, with solemn procession, 5s.; to the sacrist for copes 4d.; to the clerks of the church for ringing 4d. It seems by this that it was part of the dean's offices to collect these dues from each church in his deanery.

BOKENHAM-FERRY

TAKES its name from its site on the river Yar, over which there is a ferry here. Bo and Ken bespeak a winding or bending stream of water. At the survey, there were three lordships in this town; the principal was in Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, who held it of the abbey of Bury, to which it belonged in the reign of the Confessor, and was enfeoffed of it by Baldwin, abbot of Bury, in the time of the Conqueror.—It consisted of one carucate of land, eight bordaers, with one carucate in demean, two carucates of the tenants, &c. and nine acres of meadow, two beasts for burden, &c. two cows, &c. twenty-one sheep, valued then at 30s. at the survey at 20s. It was eleven furlongs long, and six broad, and paid 20*d.* gelt. To this manor belonged ten freemen, who held in commendation 66 acres of meadow, and 5 carucates, &c. valued then at 10s. and at the survey, at 20s.<sup>5</sup>

At the survey, the King had in this town one freeman, with 8 acres, who, with many others in different towns, were valued at 13*l.* and belonged to the soc, or King's manor of Walsham. Godric was steward of it for the King.<sup>6</sup>

Ralph Water, or Guader, Earl of Norfolk, had this fee, but forfeiting it on his rebellion against the Conqueror, he seized upon it, and it was granted afterwards to Roger Bigot.

These two fees being thus in the Bigots Earls of Norfolk, the family of the Lords de Monchensi seem to be enfeoffed of them by the Bigots, and were held by many of the Monchensies.

Adam de Ratlesden held a moiety of them in the reign of Henry III. Emma his widow, in the 14th of Edward I. impleaded Dionysia, late wife of Warine Lord Monchensi, for the custody of the heir and lands of Adam. The said Emma presented to the church of Bokenham, having a third part of the advowson, there being three manors in the town, and each lord having a right. In 1319, Gilbert Lovel presented, and John de Ratlesden in 1337, who being a knight, presented in 1349; and before this, in the 17th of Edward III. Simon de Ratlesden was found to die possessed of a fee, held of the barony of Montchensi, lately the Earls of Pembroke, the Valences; and in the 43d of Edward III. William de Braham released to Adam de Hautbois, parson of Salle church, &c. feoffees, all his right in the manors of

THE Conqueror had a lordship, which Godric, his steward, took care of for him at the survey; of this Ralph Guader, late Earl of Norfolk, was deprived for his rebellion. Ralph Stalre possessed it in King Edward's reign, and it was held of him by six freemen; of one of these he had the soc, with 70 acres of land; one of them had also five bordarers. It was one leuca long, and four furlongs broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt—Of the two villains here, in King Edward's time, the King had the soc, as the hundred witnesses, and had it in Earl Ralph's time, and now Godric his steward.—The soc of these was in the King, as the hundred witnesses; but Ralph Guader held it after he was made Earl of Norfolk. At the survey, Godric held it as steward to the King.<sup>6</sup>

Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, had afterwards a grant of it from the Crown, and was held of that family, with the manor of Bokenham-Ferry.

The Bishop of Norwich had also a lordship here, his manor of Bokenham-Ferry extending into this town.

LIMPENHOE.

IN the time of the Confessor, sixteen freemen had a lordship, and Alsi held it under Ralph Earl of Norfolk, consisting of one carucate of land, and 13 acres of meadow, and one bordarer, in the whole three carucates and a half, was one leuca long, and ten furlongs broad, paid gelt 20*d.* and was valued in Frethorp, &c. On the forfeiture of Earl Ralph, it came to the Crown, and Godric took care of it for the King at the survey.<sup>7</sup>

This was granted from the Crown after the survey, and held by several lords, and the chief manor was given to Fluuld, lord of Mileham.

Richard de Dunham, in the 3*d* of Richard I. owed five marks to have his right for 10*l.* land here, and in Southwood (Southwood) against Reginald de Hastings:<sup>8</sup> see in Thorp and Southwood, in this hundred.

Roger Fitz-Peter, and Edward de Eynford had lordships in the reign of Henry III. as in Frethorp: Gerard de Eynford was lord, in the 14*th* of Edward II. when a marsh, which he had here, is said in a record to be bounded south on the river Wensum; this I mention, the general part of writers calling it the Yar, or Hier, at this place.

Dionysia de Clere enjoyed it, lately the heirs of Gerard de Eynford, of the heirs of Robert de Ufford; from the Cleres it came to the Berneys, and so to Sir James Edwards, Bart. and to Sir Lambert Blackwell, and his heirs, who were patrons of this church, and that of Southwood in 1742, and to Cartaret Leathes, Esq.

Arnold de Mounteny had also an interest here, as in Frethorp.

William de Scohies had a lordship, of which Harduin was deprived, who held two freemen under his protection only. Adarus held it under Scohies, at the survey, with 34 acres of land, and a bordarer, with five acres of meadow, and a carucate, valued at 10*s.* but at the survey at 24*s.*<sup>9</sup>

William, son of Matthew de Redham, was lord of this, in the 8*th* of Richard I. and conveyed the advowson of the church, by fine, to Robert Fitz-Roger; and, in the 31*st* of Edward I. John, son of Gerard, of Redham, granted, by fine, to John Fitz-John, a messuage, fourteen acres of land, two of meadow, six of pasture, and two of turbarry, in this town, Southwood and Frethorp; and, in the 9*th* of Edward II. Gerard de Eynford, Sir Hubert Fitz John, William de Redham, and the Earl of Arundel, were returned as lords of Limpenhoe and Southwood.<sup>4</sup>

The tenths were 3*l.*—Deducted 0. together with Southwood.

THE CHURCH is dedicated to St. Botolph. In the 8th of Richard I. William de Redham granted his right in this church to Robert Fitz-Roger, being then a rectory, and John Fitz-Robert gave it, by fine, to Hugh abbot of Langley, in exchange for the church of Eure in Buckinghamshire; the rectory, with the vicarage, that was settled, valued at 12 marks: Peter-pence 13*d.* carvage 2*d.* ob. the present valor 4*l.* and discharged.

Here was the guild of St. Botolph. The church is consolidated with Southwood, and is called a rectory in the institution books.

Under the invasions, we find that Rabell the carpenter, or artificer, as he is called, had seized on the property of 20 freemen, who held here, and in Thorp, in this hundred, one carucate, and 20 acres of land, with 7 of meadow, under the protection of Fincus. ## LINGWOOD.

THERE is no mention made of this town in the grand survey, it being a part and member of the Bishop of Norwich's great lordship of Blofield, and so valued, &c. under it, and was held of the see of Norwich, by the families of de Cateston, and de Lingwood.

In the 9th of Edward II. Joan de Cateston, or Caston, and William de Lingwood, were returned to be lords; and William de Lingwood was patron of the church, and lord, in 1349.

Margaret Countess of Norfolk aliened to Weybridge priory, a messuage, 92 acres of land, with 3s. rent, in this town, and in the Birlinghams, with the advowson of the church, belonging to the manor of Blofield, as was found in the 8th of Richard II.—Eschaet.

In the 32d of Henry VIII. the King granted to Thomas Paston, Esq. messuages and lands here, with the manors of Blofield and Beighton, and lands lately belonging to Langley abbey.

The tenths were 3*l.* 3*s.* Deducted 6*s.* 8*d.*

The CHURCH was a rectory, dedicated to St. Peter, valued at 4*l.* Peter-pence 4*d.* Carvage 2*d.* ob.

In 1557, Christopher Dandy was presented by the Bishop of Norwich, being, as I take it, in the Crown.

1559, Andrew Brown, by the Bishop, a lapse.

1590, Thomas Wynington, to the rectory, by the Queen, a lapse. In the 18th of Elizabeth, January 30, the rectory was granted to John Dudley, and John Ascough, in consideration of divers messuages, lands and tenements, in the isle of Shepey in Kent, sold to them by Henry Checney.

In 1609, Edward Hilton held it, and was the impropiator. It is a curacy, and was in the gift of Mr Hilton, in 1740.

In the church was the guild, and the light of St. Mary.

Concealed lands belonging to Weybridge-priory were granted August 7, in the 10th of Elizabeth, to Hugh Counsel and Robert Baker.

PLUMSTEDE MAGNA.

GUERT, brother of King Harold, and slain with him at the battle of Hastings, had a freeman, who possessed under him a carucate of land, which Godwin after held. William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford was lord, at the survey, in his own right, as a lay fee, by grant of the Conqueror. Five bordarers belonged to it, one carucate in demean, and half a one among the tenants, &c. and there were ten freemen, with 30 acres of land, who held under the protection of Godwin a carucate and half of meadow, then valued at 10s. at the survey at 40s.<sup>3</sup> After the Conqueror was King, Almar Bishop of Elmham invaded, or seized on this land, as forfeited, on account of the marriage of a woman who remarried within the term of one year expired after her late husband's death, probably Godwin abovementioned.

Bishop Beaufoe had three acres of land here, which a socman of Archbishop Stigand possessed; this was added to Plumstede manor by Ernast Bishop of Elmham; the socman ploughed it with 2 oxen, and paid 5*d.* in Stigand's time.—Ernast, or Arfast, succeeded Ailmar Bishop of Elmham, and removed the see to Norwich.

Earl Guert and Stigand had also 2 freemen, who possessed 50 acres of land, with 2 of meadow, and 2 bordarers had a carucate. Ralph, the Earl of Norfolk, had these before he forfeited, and Robert Blund afterwards; valued then at 5*s.* at the survey at 3*s.* Bishop Ernast had invaded these, and Beaufoe was then lord in fee, by the grant of the Conqueror.—And Bishop Almar had a freeman under his commendation, with half a carucate, and 16 acres of land, at the survey; 2 ox-gangs, valued formerly at 2*s.* but then at 16*d.* this was also granted to Bishop Beaufoe.

When the Book of Domesday was made, Plumstede was not divided into 2 townships; however it appears, that all these tenures were, at that time, in the possession of Bishop Beaufoe; and, at his death, he gave them to his see of Norwich, and, making one considerable lordship, was held of the see; but some time after, it seems to be divided, by some grant of a Bishop, to the priory of Norwich.

In the reign of Henry III. I find, in old writings, this town to be called Grimere-Homestede; and, in the — of that King, Walter Bi- shop of Norwich, as lord, had a charter of free warren. The family of De Cateston, or Caston, had an interest herein, held of the fee, as had John de Tofts in the said reign.

Robert de Tofts, and Agnes his wife, settled on themselves, &c. by fine 18 messuages, 160 acres of land, 5 of meadow, 10 of pasture, 20 of marsh, 10 of turbary, and 13s. 4d. rent in Greymerc Plumsted, Witton, Brundale, Breydeston, Plumstede, &c. in the 12th of Edward III.

The prior of Norwich appears to have a lordship in the 24th of Henry III. when a fine was levied before Ralph, abbot of Ramsey, William de York, provost of Beverley, Henry de Bath, &c. justices itinerant, between Simon (de Elham) prior of Norwich, patent, and Simon de Cateston, and Massa his wife, tenants, of 30 acres of land here, conveyed to the prior, who reconveyed it to them for life, and John their son.<sup>4</sup>—William de Leams, and Elizabeth his wife, in the said reign, grant to the prior lands for 100s. in Grimer Plumstede Magna, in the 14th of Edward I. and in the 3d of Edward I. the prior claimed the assise here, in Pockthorp, and Holm Street, with weyf, &c. In a survey made in the time of prior William de Kirkeby, about 1250, mention is made of 2 acres at the head of Grymere,<sup>5</sup> probably some mere, so called, and land at the chapel of St. Benedict, the abbot; of lands in Castle-Croft; and in the whole of eight score acres, &c. here, belonging to the prior.

In the 23d of Edward I. Rose, daughter of Reginald Bascley of Grimere Plumstede held 14 acres of heath.

The temporalities of the priory in 1428, were 9l. 8s.

In the 1st of Edward VI. Sir Thomas Cawarden had a grant of it, late the priory's (of Norwich's) manor, with a folcourse in this town, Plumstede Parva, Posswick, &c. and, in the said year, Cawarden had license to alien it to Henry Ward of Posswick, Esq. Thomas Ward, Esq. died seized in 1632, and Sir Randel Ward, Bart. of Bixley, died lord in 176-.

William de Scohies had, at the survey, 8 acres of land, which, in the Confessor's time, were in the hands of 2 freemen of Harduin; and Hugh held it of Scohies, and ploughed it with 2 oxen, always valued at 2s.<sup>6</sup>

From William de Scohies it came to Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, and from that family, by marriage, to the Earls of Clare.

Alan Hovel, son of Peter, held lands of this fee, which he granted to William de Kirkeby, prior of Norwich.

The tenths were 2l. 4s.—Deducted 10s.

The CHURCH, with the chapel of St. Eustachius, was appropriated by John de Grey Bishop of Norwich, to that priory, to find 2 chaplains, saving a pension of 10s. per annum to the cellarer, and a vicarage was settled.—The appropriated rectory was valued at 15 marks; Peter-pence 18d. ob. carvage 2d. ob. and was dedicated to St. Mary.

PLUMSTEDE PARVA.

To vi held in Plumstede, which was afterwards (as I take it) the principal lordship in this town, a carucate of land, and one villain, with half a carucate; Tovi was a freeman of Earl Guert; and there were 6 freemen at that time, and the moiety of one who had 20 acres of land, with 2 of meadow, and a carucate; which freeman, Ralph, a captain of the Conqueror's cross bowmen, (who had a grant of this lordship on the Conquest,) laid claim to, as delivered up to him. What belonged to the manor was, in King Edward's time, valued at 5*s.* at the survey at 10*s.* and what the freemen held, valued at 5*s.* It was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, paid 14*d.* gelt, whoever is lord.<sup>7</sup>

The Conqueror was possessed (when Domesday Book was made) of a carucate of land belonging to 2 freemen, and of 30 acres and a half, with one bordarer; 10 socmen held under them 7 acres of meadow, with a carucate, before the conquest; and, at the survey, 4 carucates, with paunage for 6 swine.—The Conqueror had the land late of one freeman, with 10 acres;—also of another, with 5 acres, with the soc; of them Godric was the King's steward

Also part of Plumstede was a beruite to Etton, (Eaton, by Norwich), and held by Edrick de Laxfield, in King Edward's reign, containing half a carucate of land, with 3 bordarers, one carucate in the whole, and 3 acres of meadow, and valued in Etton; this was also in the Conqueror, and Godric was his steward of it.

Most of, if not all, these tenures were granted by the Conqueror, soon after the survey, to Flaald, or Alan his son, ancestor of the Fitz-Alans Earls or Arundel, together with the great lordship of Milcham in Norfolk; and, under the lords of that town, several persons possessed the fees and tenures abovementioned, of whom I shall treat according to the series of time.

Richard de Dunham gave an account of 5 marks paid, to have right done him (in his lands held of Milcham manor, by the King's writ) in the first year of Richard I.<sup>8</sup> About this time, William de Mountency confirmed to Will. de Plumstede, lands; witnesses, Peter le Constable, Robert Elias and Hugh de Monteny, sans date. Adam de Plumstede, and John his son, held the fourth part of a fee, and exchanged lands with Will. prior of Norwich, in the 5th of King John; this family held the principal part of Tovi's lordship, of the lord of Milcham, and took their name from this town. Everard de Plumstede was living in the 10th of Richard I. it was held by grand serjeanty to find a cross-bow, or balista. William de Plumstede, son of Adam, had an interest here, as by deed sans date.

John de Plumstede had a lordship in the 20th of Henry III. and there appears to be a park here, in the 37th of that King.—William, son of John de Plumstede, held the 4th part of a fee, of the manor of Milcham, in the said reign.

Richard Gernun of Blofield, with the consent of Maud his wife, grants half his turbarry at Hayes-Brigg, in Plumstede, to John, son of William de Plumstede:—witnesses, Sir Thomas de St. Omer, Serlo Gernun, &c. sans date. Maud Gernun, and Gerard her son, grants to Sibil, wife of Sir John de Plumstede Parva, and William his son, a turbarry, which his father held of them, sans date.

Robert de Mountency gives to the priory of Norwich, by deed, sans date, his mill belonging to his fee, or lordship, in Plumstede standing on the river Ger, for the health of his own, and his wife's soul, and of all his parents, friends, &c. and in particular for the soul of his father, William de Mountency, and Roesia his mother, and Siwat, the priest of Plumstede:—witnesses, William Bishop of Norwich, Geff. the Bishop's sewer, Roger de Mounteny, Barth. de Martham, Hump. and Jordan de Plumstede. William, the heir of Siwat the priest, confirmed this grant, and lands to the priory, and William Bishop of Norwich gave Robert for this 100s.<sup>9</sup> This was in Bishop William Turbe's time.

In the 34th of Henry III. Richard de Witton held lands by serjeanty, in finding a cross-bow in the King's army, or a balista, at his own costs, valued at 5 marks.

Richard, son of William de Plumstede, was found, in the 15th of Edward I. to hold lands valued at 100*s. per annum* by serjeanty, and finding a balister in the King's army (when he went into Wales) for 40 days, at his own costs. The said King appointed, by writ, William de Barinton, and William de Pakenham, his justices, with others, whom they should associate to themselves to try the cause between William Fitz-John, son of Isolde, of Plumstede Parva, against ——— Fitz-Alan, lord of Mileham, about 4*l.* rent, &c. in Plumstede Parva and Magna;—witness, Edmund Earl of Cornwall; dated at Westminster, June 29, Mo. ———, Edward I.

In the 16th of Edward I. Isolda de Mounteny impleaded Adam de Creting for the patronage of this church; her plea was, that Ernold de Mounteny, as lord of Sprouston, was patron of this church, and had enfeoffed her; but Adam proving himself to be lord of Sprouston, he recovered it. The Mountenys held that part of this town which belonged to Edric de Laxfield, and was (as I have observed before) a beruite to Eton. Alice, widow of William de Plumstede, and John their son, was living in the 31st of the said reign. John was lord in the 8th of Edward II. and held a court, then, on the feast of Pentecost.

Sir Arnulf de Monteny, and John de Plumsted, returned to be lords in the 9th of Edward II. and Sir John de Plumstede, living also in the 3d and 6th of Edward III. on whose death it came to Sir Edmund de Illey, by the marriage of Alice his daughter and heir, Sir Edmund de Illey, and Ernulf de Monteny, lords in the 14th of that King. Sir Richard de Illey was son and heir of Sir Edmund, and living in the 37th of Edward III. by his will, dated at Plumsted Parva, October 21, 1366, he bequeaths his soul to the blessed Mary, and All-Saints, and his body to be buried where it shall please God; to the high altar of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, for tithes forgot, 13*s. 4d.* that of Plumstede Parva, 13*s. 4d.* that of Hale, half a mark, and to Alan his brother, if he survived him 2 years, his green bed in his manor-house here, which bed was woven with doves, roses, &c.; his great defzor for the hall, with 2 c---, 6 coussons, all the vessels of the kitchen and brewhouse, all carts, ploughs and instrumts belonging; one vestment, with a chalice and missal; his new vestment to be delivered to the parishioners of this town; and if Alan should die within the 2 years, then his executors to sell them for his soul's health: to John Lampole of Mersham, 50*s.* for all things forgotten; to John Cressingham 20*s.* to John de Hapsburgh, a monk of Norwich, 20*s.* to Robert Illey, his brother, all his bows, with the arrows, and 100*s.* to Jeff. Basseson, his servant, a cow, and 10*s.* and to each of his servants a cow; appoints Sir Edmund Cole, rector of Hale, Robert, his brother, and Jeff. Basseson, residuary legatees; gives to Sir Edmund Cole 40*s.* for his pains, and died without issue, as Alan his brother did, soon after him.

SIR ROBERT ILLEY, his brother, succeeded him, who with Catherine his wife were living in the 43d of the aforesaid King; he died before the 21st of Richard II. Catherine his widow confirming then to her trustees, Sir William Calthorp, John Drew, parson of Harpley, Henry Walpole, Edmund Berry, parson of Sculthorp, &c. her manor of Ficuge, in Norfolk.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the heirs of Arnold de Monteny were lords of a manor, held (as was found) of the Earl of Rutland.

Lady Catherine Illey, widow, on the day after the feast of St. Ambrose, the bishop, in 1417, made her will, which was proved on July 9, following, and thereby gives her manor of Frenge, for 10 years, to her executors in trust, for pious uses;<sup>1</sup> after that to Sibilla, her daughter and heir, provided she behaved herself civilly, and did not disturb her executors, but if she died before the 10 years were ended, then that manor to be sold, and the money to be disposed of in pious uses; and the lady Catherine was buried in the chancel of Plumstede Parva. She is said to be a daughter and heir of ——— Gymingham; Sybilla her daughter, then the wife of Sir Roger Boys.

SIBILLA, daughter and heir of Sir Robert Illey, and the lady Catherine, brought this manor by marriage to Sir Roger Boys; he died in 1421, and was buried in the priory of Ingham; Sibilla his relict was living in the 33d of Henry VI. and Robert Bois, Esq. her son and heir, inherited it; on whose death Sir Edmund Jenney of Knatsball in Suffolk, became lord, in right of Catherine his wife, daughter and heir of Robert Bois.—This came after to Frances Thurkell, who, in 1532, conveyed the manor of Illeys to Miles Hobart, Esq. with the advowson of the church.

The other lordship, called chaplain's, &c. was held, in the 19th of Edward IV. by Robert Lethum; by his will, dated about this time, he devised it to his executor, John Loveday, Esq. in trust, to the use of his will; this manor was to be his son John's, Witton manor to Margaret his wife for life, remainder to Robert his son, a minor, aged 4 years, and in custody of John Ratcliffe, and Lord Fitz Walter, but John the eldest son dying, Chaplain's manor was sold, in the 21st of the said King, by Robert Townsend, Esq. serjeant at law, and Richard Southwell, Esq. feoffees of Robert Lethum, and at the request of John Loveday, to James Hobart, Esq. by deed, dated June 20, for 200*l.*

He was descended from an ancient family, lords of Tye-Hall, in Essex. John Hobart, Esq. of Tye-Hall, was living there in 1389, and John his grandson in 1426;<sup>2</sup> his son married ———, daughter and heir of Atte church, by whom he had Thomas Hobart of Tye-Hall, who by Eleanor his wife, daughter and heiress of John Tayler, alias Amfrey, was father of James, who was a younger son, born at Monks Illey in Suffolk, student of the law at Lincoln's Inn, and was reader there in Lent term 1447; his first wife was ——— niece of Walter Lyhert Bishop of Norwich, sister and heir of John Lyhert, she died sans issue about the year 1470. King Henry VII. in 1486, made him his attorney general, was of his privy council, and, on the creation of Henry Prince of Wales, in 1505, was knighted; by Margery, his 3d wife, daughter of Peter Naunton, Esq. of Letheringham in Suffolk, relict of John Dorward, Esq. he had 2 sons, Sir Walter, the eldest, of Hales-hall in Loddon, and Miles, who was lord of this town; also a daughter Catherine. Sir James died at a great age in the 13th year (as I take it) of King Henry VIII. and was buried in the body, or nave of the cathedral church of Norwich, on the north side, between the 9th and 10th pillars, (in a chapel formerly inclosed,) as was Margery his widow, who presented to this church in 1517, as by her will, dated September 13, 1517, proved October 24, 1517.<sup>3</sup>—His 2d wife was

Reg. Briggs, Norw. p. 35.

Dorothy, daughter of Sir John Glemham of Suffolk, by whom he had no issue living in the 14th of Edward IV. Cambden says, that he deserved well of the church, the country, and the commonweal; and indeed he merited this excellent character, being a right good man, of great learning, wisdom, bounty, and generosity, as his public benefactions testify, of which I shall speak in the town of Loddon-Hales.

He died lord of many manors; Hales-Hall, and Lalleford's, in Loddon, Shadwell, and Cockerel's, in Morley, Easthall in Depeham, Dogeny's in Norwold, &c.

MILES HOBART, Esq. 2d son of Sir James, possessed his father's lordships in this town, and bought of Franc. Thyrykyl the manors of Illeys and Samchis, with 4 messuages and lands in Plumsted Magna, and Parva, Blofield, &c. A<sup>o</sup>. 24th of Henry VIII. as appears by a fine. He married Hellen, daughter and coheir of John Blennerhasset of Frense, in Norfolk, Esq. by his will, dated August 6, 1557, he appoints to be buried in the chapel on the north side of this church: had lordships, lands, and tenements in Plumstede, South Walsham, Ranworth, Panzford, Hemlington, Langley, North Walsham, Edingthorp, and Kirkby, by Norwich; gives to his wife the lordship of Plumstede Parva, Wylton, Brundale, in Norfolk, and the lordship of Heigham, in Melles, in Suffolk, for life; the lordship of Thwayt, in Norfolk, to John his 2d son; appoints his wife executrix, and John Corbet, Esq. supervisor of his will, proved February 22, 1557.<sup>4</sup> Anne, sister and coheir with Hellen, married Sir Henry Grey, Knt. of Bedfordshire.

THOMAS HOBART, Esq. his son and heir, married Audrey, daughter and heir of William Hare, Esq. of Beeston, in Norfolk, by whom he had 2 sons, Miles and Henry.

By an inquisition, he was found to die March 26, 1560; his widow remained Sir Edward Warner, lieutenant of the Tower of London, who dying November 7, 1565, she married William Blennerhasset, Esq. and in 1572, they presented to this church. Thomas died also lord of Beeston, in Norfolk, and Leigham, in Suffolk; she died in 1581.

HENRY, the 2d son, was lord chief justice of the Common Pleas, lord of Blickling in Norfolk, from whom the Right Honourable the Earl of Buckingham descends.

MILES HOBART, Esq. eldest son and heir of Thomas, was a minor at the death of his father; was living and lord in 1576, and 1595, Margaret, his wife, was daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhouse, Knt. of Waxham, in Norfolk.

SIR THOMAS, son and heir of Miles, presented in 1613 to this church, and married Willoughby, daughter of Sir Arthur Hopton of Westwood, and Blyburgh in Suffolk.

SIR MILES succeeded his father, Sir Thomas, created Knight of the Bath at the coronation of King Charles I. Margaret his wife was daughter of Edward Lord Dudley; it appears by a fine on his marriage, in the 4th of the said King, that he was then lord of this town, Whitton, Brundale, Skeyton, Cattes-hall, Empolis, Beeston, Leams, Edingthorp, Willoughby's, and Rowthings; she was buried in the church of St. Margaret's Westminster, in 16--.

In 1653, Sir Miles mortgaged this lordship to Edward Myleham, Gent. and ——— Dickson: in 1664, ——— Winter conveyed it to

Roger Smith, an attorney at Norwich; and Thomas Wise of Norwich was lord by the marriage of Smith's daughter.

WILLIAM HEWAR, Esq. of Clapham in Surry, presented, as lord, to the church in 1701; and the lordship, with the patronage, was in Samuel Edgerlye, clerk, &c. in 1716: in 1719, Hewar Edgerley Hewar, Esq. was lord and patron, but in 1745, William Blackbourn, Esq. and Ann Jackson presented.

Ralph de Beaufoe had a little fee, which a bordarer held under Godric, in King Edward's time, 9 acres of land ploughed by 2 oxen, valued in Wrixham.<sup>5</sup>—This came by the marriage of Agnes, daughter and heir of this Ralph, to Hubert de Ric, Castellan of Norwich, &c. and was after united with the manors aforesaid.

ROBERT DE HOLMESTEDE and Alice his wife conveyed by fine, in the 43d of Edward III. to Walter Bron of Norwich, before Robert de Thorp, John Moxbray, William de Fyncham, and William de Wy-chingham, the King's justices, a messuage, with 140 acres of land, 6 of meadow, 80 of pasture, 30 of heath, and 5s. rent, &c. in this town, Plumstede Magna, and Witton; and paid to Robert and Alice 20 marks of silver for this grant.

The tenths of the town were 1*l.* 2*s.*—Deducted 2*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to St. Gervase, and the ancient valor was 12 marks, present valor 7*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* and is discharged: it paid Peter-pence 12*d.* carvage 12*d.*

Gilbert Gernan of Blofield confirmed to William, parson of the church of Plumstede, and his 2 sons, John and Nicholas, a turbary by Baisbrigg, sans date.

This Eudo was sewer, or steward, of the Conqueror's household, who granted the abovementioned fees, united into one lordship, to him, who was a Norman, fourth son of Hubert de Rie; of whom see in Swanton Morley.<sup>7</sup> How long Eudo enjoyed it does not appear, but it came, we find, to the descendants and heirs of his 2d brother, Hubert de Rya, governor of Norwich castle; whose grandson, (as I conceive,) Hubert de Rya, dying in the 18th of Henry II. without issue male, left 2 daughters and coheirs, Oliva, and Isabel; this last married Roger de Cressi, after the death of her first husband, Jeffrey de Chester.

Besides this lordship, Eudo had, by the gift of the Conqueror, in the hundred of Shorpham-Rockland, Shropham, Roudham, and Brettenham manors;—in Walsham hundred, Tunstal;—in Humbleyard hundred, Intwood.

ROGER DE CRESSI had in right of Isabel his wife 17 fees and a half, being the moiety of the barony of Rye; by Isabel he had 2 sons, Hugh de Cressi the eldest, who died about the 47th of Henry III. sans issue, and Stephen de Cressi, who also dying without issue, the said King granted this lordship as an eschaet, to William de Valentia, and Joan his wife: William was brother, by his mother, to King Henry III. and Joan was daughter of William (sister and heir to her brother, William de Montchensy, a great baron of this realm. In the 3d of Edward I. William de Valentia Earl of Pembroke was found to have the lete, and assise, &c. and was succeeded herein by his son, Adomare Earl of Pembroke, who dying sans issue, it descended to Joan, (one of the daughters and coheirs of John Comyn, lord of Badenagh in Tyndale, by Joan his wife, sister and coheir of Adomare,) who being married to David de Strabolgi Earl of Athol, had livery of it on March 27, in the 19th of Edward III. in which family it remained till on the death of David de Strabolgi Earl of Athol, or of Athels, in Scotland, it came to his two daughters and coheirs, Elizabeth, and Philippa.

In the 47th of Edward III. Henry Earl of Northumberland gave the King 760*l.* to have the custody of the Castle of Milford, &c. in Northumberland, and of the 2 daughters aforesaid of David.—Elizabeth was married to Sir Thomas Percy; and Philippa, to Sir Ralph Percy, two younger sons of Henry Earl of Northumberland.

On a division of the estate, this lordship was assigned to her: she remarried Sir John Halsham of West Greynsted, in Sussex; and in the 19th of Richard II. it was found that John, son of Sir John, was heir to this lordship, in right of Philippa his mother.

SIR HUGH HALSHAM died possessed of it in the 20th of Henry VI. and Joan (daughter and heir of Richard Halsham his late brother) was his heir. This Richard had been a Celestin monk at Paris, but quitted his order, and married; Joan, their daughter and heir, brought it by marriage to John Lewknor, Esq. of Gring, in Sussex, with the lordships of Filby, Stiveky, West Lexham, and Holkam, and was sold by the feoffees of the said John Lewknor, and Joan, to Sir Jeff. Boleyn of Blickling, alderman, &c. of London.

In the 34th of Henry VIII. Sir James Bulleyn had license to alienate it to Henry Ward, Esq.<sup>8</sup> whose son Edward died possessed of it in 1583: and Sir Randal Ward, Bart. of Bixley, died lord in 176-, leaving Susan his sister and heir, who after married the Earl of Rosebury, in Scotland.

Under the invasions, we find that Eudo, the sewer, had at the survey, 2 freemen's lands, which they held in King Edward's reign, (whom Eudo's predecessor, Liswi, had seized on,) and were under the protection of Escule, being 60 acres, and a carucate, and 8 acres of meadow, valued at the survey, with its services, at 2s. but before at 5s.<sup>9</sup> This was joined to the other manors, or fees.

STRABOLGI'S PEDIGREE.

CATTON.

CATTON abovementioned (as part of Eudo's fees at the survey) appears to have been a town nigh to Posswick; and was a bernite belonging to, and united to, Posswick manor, held by Eudo. There was also another part (at that time) of the said town, which William de Beaufoe Bishop of Norwich held as a lay fee, granted to him by the Conqueror, of which a freeman was deprived, who held it under the commendation, or protection, of Earl Gert, consisting of 60 acres of land; (when Ervast, the Bishop, entered on this see, he gave it to Reinald, one of his men; (5 bordarers were here, a carucate in demean, and half a one among the tenants, &c. one runcus, 12 swine, with 7 acres of meadow, valued then, and always at 15*d*.<sup>1</sup>

This part of Catton which Bishop Beaufoe held as a lay fee, at his death, seems to have descended to his family; Ralph de Beaufoe, probably his son, whose daughter and heir, Agnes, brought it by marriage to Hubert de Rye, castellan of Norwich castle, whose descendant Hubert dying in the 18th of Henry II. his inheritance being divided between 2 daughters and coheirs; Roger de Cressi was lord of this town in right of Isabel his wife, daughter of the said Hubert, and thus the lordships of Posswick and Catton were united.

The priory of Norwich had, in the reign of Henry II. an interest in this town, Hubert de Seyncler gave to Tancred, the prior, by deed sans date, his lordship, in Posswyck with the appertenances held of the barony of Rye, which was confirmed by William Turbe Bishop of Norwich, and Thomas Becket Archbishop of Canterbury; <sup>2</sup> and in 1176, John Bishop of Norwich had a bull from Pope Alexander III. for lands, and meadows which the prior of Ely bought of Lecelina, and Beatrice, of the fee of Posswyke. Thomas de Blomvile, Bishop, confirmed to the priory the charter of Bishop John de Grey, of tithes in Posswyk.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior had the lete of his tenants, &c. and in the 10th of that King, William Butt conveyed lands by fine to the priory; and in the 14th, the prior sued Hugh le Scot, &c. for lands, &c. In the 19th of that King John, prior of St. Mary's of Walsingham, grants to Henry, prior of Norwich, 5*s.* rent here, late William Butts.

Adomare de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, released the lands and tenements that the priory held of him, from all payments, homages, &c. and made them free from all services, by deed, dated at Norwich, November 7, A. 3<sup>o</sup>. Edward II.—Witnesses, Sir John de Pakenham, Sir Anselm Marshal, Sir Adomare le Zouch, Sir Walter de Huntingfeld, Simon de Dallyng, Clement de Plumstede, and Andrew de Yelverton. In the 18th of that King, William, son of Egidia, daughter of Adam de Musters, gave lands to the prior, late Adam's, (his grandfather's) in Posswyk, with the homage of his villains.

After the dissolution of the priory, on the foundation of a dean and prebendaries, the priory manor was granted to that body, and so remains.

The tenths were 3*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*—Deducted 10*s.* 4*d.*

The church of Posswick is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a rectory, valued at 15 marks.—Peter-pence 10*d.*—Carvage 2*d.* ob.—The prior of Norwich had a portion of tithe, valued at 4 marks. Eudo, the sewer, lord at the survey, with Rohai his wife, granted to Herbert Bishop of Norwich, and to all his clergy (omni congregatione) of the Holy Trinity church of Norwich, the tithe of Posswyk in corn, money, and all things, as fully as they held it in the time of Serlon; <sup>3</sup> and they

STRUMPSHAW.

AT the survey; Godric, as steward for the Conqueror, had the care of a lordship, of which 2 freemen were deprived, who held it under Robert Stalre, consisting of 82 acres of land, &c. 4 bordarers: and there was a carucate among them and the tenants; also another freeman of Stalre had 30 acres of land, with 8 of mowdow, valued at 8*s.*

the soc and sac of the 2 freemen was in Ralph, and the soc of the other was in the King.<sup>5</sup>

The ancient family of De Danmartin were early enfeoffed of this lordship, by a grant from the Crown.—Odo de Danmartin held it in the reign of Henry II. Basilis, wife of Odo, gave, in the first year of that King, an account of 60 marks of silver to have her dower; and Odo, son of Odo, paid 100 marks for his father's lands at Mendlesham in Suffolk, &c.<sup>6</sup> It was a numerous family. In the said reign flourished Aubrey, Manasser, William, and Odo de Danmartin; and, in the 12th of King John, Odo held one fee in this town.

In the book of inquisitions, called Testa de Nevill, in the custody of the King's remembrancer, Odo held the same by one fee, said to be the King's demean, and given to Odo, his ancestor, by King Henry I. A mandate was granted, in the 9th of Henry III. to the sheriff of Norfolk, to deliver to Sir John de Wanton all the land belonging to his wife Alice, sister and heir of Odo de Danmartin, deceased; the King having received his homage; and a mandate also to the sheriff of Suffolk and Surry. Alice, after the death of Sir John, about the 16th of the said King, remarried Roger de Clare; on his death, she gave 200 marks to have the custody of his lands, and the marriage of his heir.

Guliena de Danmartin granted, by fine, in the 41st of Henry III. to Hugh de Maundevill the manor of Mendlesham; and Hugh, at the request of Guliena, granted it to Nicholas Leuknore, he paying 30s. per ann. for life, in exchange for lands in Braghing in Hertfordshire, and Taxed in Essex, granted to Hugh.

In the said year, Gerard Evermere, and Felicia his wife, released to Stephen de Strumshaw all their right in a marsh, called Destholm, quit of the heirs of Felicia. This Stephen had also an interest in this lordship, which seems to be divided about this time; and, in the 3d of Edward I. Stephen was found to have the lete, the assise, &c. of his tenants; and, in the following year, Sir Stephen de Strumshaw, and Margery his wife, conveyed the manor of Strumshaw, with lands in Redham and Tunstal, and the advowson of St. Peter's church of North Birlingham (reserving to Sir Stephen and his wife their lives therein) to William Lord Bardolf, and Julian his wife.

Nicholas Wancy, and Alice Danmartin his wife, were charged, in the 15th of the said King, with 130l. of the goods of Elias Bishop of the Jews.<sup>7</sup>

The family of Danmartin had still an interest in the lordship of Strumshaw; Hugh, son of Otto de Danmartin, had a lordship here and in Mendlesham, and a patent for a fair at Mendlesham; with a mercate, in the 9th of Edward I. he was master of the King's mint, and died sans issue.

Sir John de Botetourt, on the death of Hugh, had livery of this lordship, and of Mendlesham, in the 30th of Edward I. in right of Maud, sister and heir of Otto, father of Hugh:<sup>8</sup> Sir John was admiral of the Norfolk coast, in the 23d of that King, with whom he was in high favour; and was appointed, with Maud his wife, to attend at Ipwich on the King's daughter Elizabeth, with John Earl of Holland, on Monday the feast of the Epiphany. In the 29th of that King, he was one of those great lords, who sent to the Pope a letter, asserting that the kingdom of Scotland was not of his fee, and denied him all jurisdiction in temporal matters; and, in the 33d, as one of the King's counsellors, gave answer to the Bishop of Byblis, in partibus infidelium, that the preferring him to the priory of Goldingham in Scotland, by the Pope's bull of provision, would be to the prejudice of the King's crown and dignity, and therefore not grantable to him. In the said year he was a justice of Trayl Baston in several counties.

In the 4th of Edward II. the office of engraver of the dies for coin was in this family, and sold by Sir John to William Latimer. About this time the manor came to the Lords Bardolf, and so was united to his lordship above-mentioned.

In the 14th of Edward I. William, Lord Bardolf, and Julian his wife, called to warrant his right herein; James de Nicole, and Margery his wife, Eufemia, late wife of William de Billochy, Simon Payteyn, and Alice his wife, and Stephen, son of Christiana, (who was a minor,) they being the daughters and coheirs of Sir Stephen, their parts being conveyed to the Lords Bardolfs, (as in Wirmegay.) and so came to the Beaumonts, &c. and to Sir William Arundel Lord Matravers, and Anne his wife. Henry Earl of Arundel conveyed it to Queen Mary, &c. on January 2d, Av. 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary: the Queen granted it to Sir Nicholas Hare: his will is dated September 26, 1557, and died in Chancery-lane, London, October 3d following, seized of it, and of the abbey of Brusyerd in Suffolk, leaving Catherine his lady, who died soon after, on Nov. 22d; also three sons, Michael, aged 28, Robert, 2d son, William the 3d, and Ann a daughter, married to Thomas Rouse, Esq. In the 4th of Elizabeth, Robert Hare, Esq. was lord, and clerk of the pells, and died s. p.

In the 5th of James I. April 1, Sir Ralph Hare aliened it to Sir Thomas Berney of Reedham, in which family it remained, till sold with Reedham, &c. to Sir James Edwards, and after to Sir Lambert Blackwell, and now Carteret Leathes, Esq. is lord.

The Bishop of Norwich's lordship of Bradeston extended into this town, and was held by the Breidestons of that see, from whom it came to the Catstons, or Castons, the Carbonels and Berneys, as in Bradeston, and so conveyed to Sir James Edwards, Bart. (as in Reedham and Bradeston) by chancery, about 1700, on the sale of the estate of Richard Berney, Esq. In 1740, Sir Lambert Blackwell's heirs possessed the whole town, and were patrons; and in 1735, Carteret Leathes, Esq.

The tenths were 5*l.* 2*s.*—Deducted 12*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Peter; was valued at 10 marks;—Peter-pence 13*d.*—Carvage 2*d.* ob. the present valor is 3*l.* and is discharged.

THORP, BY NORWICH,

Called Torp in the survey. Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury was lord of it in the reign of the Confessor, in his own right, and held it as a lay-fee; on his deprivation, the Conqueror seized on it, and William de Noiers took care of it, or farmed it at the survey, as steward to him.<sup>1</sup> In Stigand's time, there were 3 carucates, with 24 villains, &c. and 5 borderers, 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, &c. and 4 carucates among the tenants, pannage for 1200 swine, and 40 acres of meadow, one runcus, 2 cows, &c. with 36 goats. Twenty-six socmen held 2 carucates of land, and one of them had 3 borderers, and there belonged to them 3 carucates and a half; of one of these, Ralph (late) Earl of Norfolk had a moiety, with 30 acres of land, and the soc was in Stigand. After Earl Ralph forfeited, who was lord of this town, and had the soc and sac; Robert Blund farmed it of the King, as William Nowers did, when it was charged and valued at 12*l.* one sextary of honey, and 2000 herrings; at the survey at 30*l.* quit-rent. It was 3 leucas long, and one leuca and 3 furlongs broad, and paid 8*d.* gelt. Here were also 3 socmen, and the moiety of another, with 32 acres of land, and 4 acres of meadow; and, among the tenants, a carucate, which Godwin Halden then held, with their soc and sac, by the grant of Earl Ralph, as the hundred testifies; but they belong to Thorp, with their customary dues; and besides there are 140 sheep, valued at 24*d.*

After Stigand's deprivation, Ralph de Walet, alias Guader, &c. being made Earl of Norfolk in 1075 had a grant of this lordship, and on his rebellion it came again to the Crown, where it remained till King Henry I. granted it, on the 3d of Sep. 1101,<sup>2</sup> [see opposite page,] to Herbert the Bp. and the monks of the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, and their successours for ever, with all its appertences, sac and soc, &c. in as ample a manor as he, or, &c. had ever enjoyed it.

* The grant of this King Henry I. is a curious piece of antiquity, beautifully wrote in Latin, made by him, as he declares, for his own soul, the souls of his father and mother, of King William, his brother, of all his ancestors and successors, in the presence of Queen Maud, daughter of the King of Scotland, and the illustrious men, ecclesiastical and secular, of all England, whose names are underwritten, that his gift may for ever remain; confirmed with the sign of the holy cross, and corroborated with the seal of his royal dignity, in the year of our Lord 1101, on the third, of the month of September.

The aforesaid King, by his mandate to Roger Bigot, Ralph Passelew, and all his barons, French and English, of Norfolk and Suffolk, commands, that Herbert the Bishop, and all the church aforesaid, should be free from all gelts and payments, as he himself held it;—witness, Robert Malet at Hereford; and by another mandate to Roger Bigot, and R. Passelew, &c. commands, that this lordship, with its appertenance, should be free from all aid, scots, &c. as it was when held by him;—witness Robert Bishop of Lincoln, dated at Norwich. And in a precept, dated at Rohan in Normandy, to his sheriffs, &c. of Norfolk, commands, that the Bishop have free warren here, and in Eton, and that no one should hunt, &c. herein, without his license on the forfeiture of 10*l.*—witness, the chancellor at Rohan.

In the 15th of Edward I. the Bishop of Norwich claimed here, and in Blofield, a gallows, view of frank-pledge, assise, &c. and was part of his barony, which was held by 5 fees: in the 20th of Edward III. the Bishop paid 10*l.* for the said fees, on the King's son, being made a knight. In the see it remained till the exchange made between King Henry VIII. and Bishop Rugg, of lands, &c. belonging to this see, &c. which were granted to the Crown by act of parliament, on Feb. 4, Ao. 27, Henry VIII.—The town of Blofield was the head of the barony.

On this exchange, this lordship came to the Crown, with the advowson of the rectory, the Bishop's house, or palace here: and was confirmed on Feb. 4, in the 27th of Henry III. by act of parliament. By an indenture under the great seal of England, dated Jan. 1, Ao. 35th of Henry VIII. this manor was granted to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, for life, remainder to Henry Earl of Surry, his son and heir, and the lady Frances, his wife, during her life, and their heirs, to be held by the 20th part of a fee, and the rent of 5*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.* per annum except 10*s.* for the reeve's fee. On the top of this grant was the King's mark, and signed underneath by the Duke of Norfolk, the Lord Russel, Richard Southwell, and Walter Henby, officers of the Court of Augmentation. Earl Henry, being afterwards attainted and executed, left Thomas his son and heir, who was Duke of Norfolk in Queen Mary's reign; but being restored in blood only, and the Countess of Surry surrendering it in her widowhood to King Edward VI. the said King, on June 25, in his first year, granted it to Sir Thomas Paston, with the advowson, a fold-course, lands and tenements in this town, Plumstede Magna and Parva, &c. with the toll and profits of Mawdelyn —, and Thorp wood, late the Bishop of Norwich's, to be held by the payment of 5*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* per annum; and the said King gave to the Countess the lordship of Earl's Soham in Suffolk. Edward Paston,<sup>3</sup> son of Sir Thomas, was lord in 1571, and his grandson Clement was living in 1643, in which year Nov. 7, in a court at Norwich, John Thacker, John Tooly, Adr. Parmenter, &c. justices, L. Sherwood, William Symonds, &c. alderman, it was agreed, that leave should be given to William Kettleburgh to buy of Mr. Clement Paston wood and timber at Thorpe wood, and grounds, in respect of the extreme scarcity of firing for the poor in this winter time; and the said William Kettleburgh hath undertaken to deliver to the poor of the city, ten thousand well-sized billets this winter, at 20s. per 1000; and 5000 two-band wood, in faggots, at 3d. per faggot; and the committee are content that he should pay the money, upon the bargain, to Mr. Paston, whose estate seems, at this time, to be sequestered.

From this, family, it came, by purchase to Rowland Dee, merchant of London, who presented as lord to this church in 1670; his son, Duncan Dee, Esq. inherited it, was serjeant at law, presented in 1706, and died May 30, 1720, but sold it, before his death, to Matt. Howard, Gent. of Hackney, in Middlesex; and, in 1742, Matt. Howard, Esq. was lord and patron.

The original grant of this manor, in 1728, was in Matt. Howard, and a copper-plate was engraven from it by Mr. Sturt.

THE PRIOR'S, NOW DEAN AND CHAPTER'S MANOR.

Bishop Herbert, lord of this town, by the grant of the manor above-mentioned, on founding the priory at Norwich, gave the best part of it to the said convent, and kept the least part of it for himself and successours, which division he thought necessary; otherwise his frequent coming to Norwich, as he had no land there, would be very troublesome; and he gave them for that part of Thorp, which he kept, the lordship of Gnatyudon, an hamlet of Sedgeford, with its fold-courses, the church of Thornham, with the land of Thurston, and a carucate of land at Gaywood, as appears from a pleading, in the 25th of Henry III.

In 1154, Pope Adrian the 4th by his bull, confirmed to the prior a moiety of Thorp wood, and all its profits, except the demean and right of hunting, which was in the Bishop; and, in 1156, he confirmed the heath, with all its wood, as Bishop William Turbe had granted it, there being a dispute between John of Oxford, the Bishop, and the priory, concerning a mill in Thorp, which was farmed of the Bishop at 20s. per annum the mill and ground were allowed to belong to the sec, with the water-course:—Witnesses, William de Leu, Mr. Robert de Gloucester, &c. in the 5th year of his pontificate.<sup>5</sup>

William de Raleigh, Bishop, and Simon the prior, agreed in 1236, that the part of Thorp wood, covered with oaks, should be divided into 2 equal parts, and that the part nearest to the manor-house of Thorp should be to the Bishop, and that the other part nearest to the Bishop's Bridge should be to the prior, saving to the Bishop his right in the said bridge; and that the heath should be divided into 3 parts; the Bishop to have 2 parts nearest to him, and the prior one part; and, for this agreement, the Bishop grants to the prior all his right in a moiety of Plunstede-wood; also free warren in the 3d part of the heath aforesaid: and if he had a desire to inclose and cultivate the same, he would assist, and support him in so doing; dated at Geywode, 8 calend. of Nov.—Witnesses, Peter de Raleigh, &c. by this grant of free warren, the prior had a manor, and so gave rise to, and was the original of, the prior's lordship, now called Poekthorp, and in the dean and chapter of Norwich at this time.

That the heath here was remarkable for plenty of timber and underwood, as appears from a compotus of William de Kirkeby, prior in 1283, wherein 37s. 4d. was received for underwood. In 1315, I find bark sold for 9s. 11d.—In 1335, in timber bark and faggots, received 6l. 16s. 9d.

The heath was called Mousehold; and, besides sheeps-walks, here was a netherd for the great cattle, and a swanberd, who had 26s. 8d. per annum wages. In 1428, the temporalities of the priory were valued at 3l. 8s. 2d. per annum, and was called the cellarer's manor; the lete of assise, &c. belonged to it.

On the dissolution of the priory, which was surrendered to King Henry VIII. April 1, 1538, by Will. Castleton, prior, &c. on May 2, in the said year, the King new founded it for a dean, six prebendaries, &c. and appointed Castleton the first dean; and the dean and chapter of Norwich holds it at this time

The tenths, with Pockthorp, were 2l. 7s.—Deducted 7s.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Andrew, and was valued at 8 marks: Peter-pence 10d. carvage 2d.—The present valor is 8l. and pays first fruits, &c. and is a rectory.

In the chancel lies a marble gravestone,

In memory of Mrs. Mary Chapman, relict of Samuel Capman, late rector. She founded the house called Bethell, in Norwich, for poor lunatics, and died in 1724.

Thomas de Middleton was vicar, and presented (as said) about 1200 by the prior paying 8s. per annum to St. Paul's hospital in Norwich, or Norman's Spittle.—The cellarer of Norwich had a portion of title of the same value.

William de Raleigh, Bishop, granted to the prior and convent, and to the hospital of St. Paul, the 3d part of the tithe of his assart lands in Thorp; and the dean and chapter have a portion of tithe, valued at 10s.

He lies buried in the chancel of this church, under a black marble, thus inscribed;

The perpetual advowson of this church was granted by Richard Bishop of Norwich, and confirmed by the prior and convent, to Thomas Godsalve, register of the diocese, and his heirs, on May 1, 1535.

In the church was the guild of St. Andrew.

Ralph de Beaufo had here at the survey a socman, whom he had invaded with all his customary dues, who held 8 acres of land, as he received it from Eudo, his predecessor, valued at 17*d.*<sup>6</sup> this was afterwards joined to the Bishop's lordship.

In this town, and in Limpenhoe, Rabel, the carpenter, had invaded the lands; 20 freemen had a carucate of land, and 20 acres, and 7 acres of meadow; and there were 2 carucates valued at 10s. in King Edward's time, and 3 at the survey, valued at 1*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.* and Rabel had seized on it. This also soon after came into the Bishop's manor.<sup>7</sup>

On Musholt-heath,<sup>8</sup> about a mile from the hamlet of Pockthorp, to the north-east, was a chapel dedicated to St. Catherine, said to have been an ancient parochial chapel, about the time of the conquest, and afterwards rededicated to the honour of St. William, commonly called St. William in the Wood, from a boy that was crucified by the Jews, at Norwich, in 1137; a cell of monks belonging to Norwich priory being near to it, and was much frequented by pilgrims, but at the Dissolution was demolished.

Near to this was the chapel of the Translation of St. Thomas of Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury.—Here was also the chapel of St. Michael, which stood on the brow of the hill, on the north side of the road, just out of Bishop's-gate; its ruins being still visible, and commonly called Kett's (the rebel's) castle, and was surrounded by Bishop Herbert.

There was also a priory dedicated to St. Leonard, standing opposite to St. Michael's chapel, built by Bishop Herbert, as a cell to Norwich priory) now in ruins. At the Dissolution, it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. granted it to Thomas Duke of Norfolk; his son Henry Earl of Surrey built a sumptuous house on the site, where he lived, and was called Moant-Surrey, and Surrey-house. On his attainder, it came to the Crown; and, in 1562, Queen Elizabeth granted it, with the prior's partible wood, to Tho. Duke of Norfolk, who having also forfeited it, King James I. conferred it, in 1702, on Thomas Howard Earl of Suffolk.

WITTON,

PART of this town is accounted for under the hundred of Walsham, and part under that of Blofield; that in Walsham was granted to Earl Ralph, on the deprivation of 2 freemen of Gert, who had 140 acres of land, 6 bordarers, and 10 acres of meadow, one carueate in demean, one among the tenants, valued at 15s. when Earl Ralph forfeited it. After this Blond had it, and, at the survey, Ulchetel, by the King's grant.<sup>9</sup>

Ralph Stalre had, before the conquest, 4 freemen, who held 60 acres of land, and 11 of meadow, with a carueate. On the conquest, it was seized on, and Godrick took care of it for the Conqueror; the soc of them was in the King's hundred of Blofield, and they held it of the King at the survey.<sup>1</sup>

Ulchetal had also the lordships of Rushworth in Gillcross hundred, and of Lerling in Shropham hundred. Ulchetal's lordships came after to the Crown, and both of them so remained, but part of them was granted to the family of de Vetula, alias de Veile, by King Henry I. in the Roll de Dominab; in the custody of the King's Remembrancer, it appears, that Richard de Veile held considerable lands here, &c. and died before the 30th of Henry II. leaving Roger his son, and 5 daughters, in the custody of Emma his mother, daughter of Guy de Botetort, and Thomas Basset his uncle; Emma, aged 30 years, and Roger 6, &c. and that the land here was worth 60s. per annum. In the 2d of King John, Roger de Veile held it with Fishley, by the service of being the King's falconer. Thomas de Veile was lord in the 17th of Henry III. son of Roger, was afterwards a knight, and paid 25s. relief.

In the 3d of Edward I. John de Veile was lord; and, in the 23d of that King, John his son had a messuage, 48 acres of land, 15s. and 7d. rent of assise, and died seized of it in that year, when it descended to Reginald de Dunham, son of Beatrice, sister of John his father; and, in the 31st of the same reign, Reginald was found to hold it by grand serjeanty, by keeping the King's hawks.

After this, Peter Burskyn was lord, in the 9th of Edward II. and in the 18th of Edward III. conveyed it to Roger Hardegrey, citizen of Norwich; and, in the 20th of that King, Roger held it by the fourth part of a fee, late Downham's, which Reginald de Downham, and Beatrice his wife, paid scutage for in the reign of Edward I.

Robert Letham, Esq. was lord and patron of the church in 1480; by his will, he gives his manor here, and advowson to Margaret his wife for life, remainder to Robert his 2d son, then in custody of John Ratcliff Lord Fitz-Walter, who dying a minor, it was in the following year sold by Richard Southwell, Esq. feoffee, and confirmed by John Loveday, Esq. executor of Robert Letham, to James Hobart, Esq. with a manor in Plumstede: he presented in 1508. Miles, his 2d son, was lord, and presented in 1531. In this family it remained till mortgaged by Sir Miles Hobart, Knt. about 1653, as in Plumstede Parva.

In 1700, William Hewar, Esq. was lord and patron, also one of the said name in 1742.

Nicholas le Boteler had a lordship in the reign of Henry III. which came to Adam de Brancaster, and William de St. Clere, in right of their wives, heirs to Nicholas. In 1272, St. Clere sold his part to William de Heveningham, and Brancaster's part was sold to Guy Botetourt; and Sir Guy Botetort was returned as a lord in the 9th of Edward II.

In the 7th of Richard II. license was granted to Margaret Countess of Norfolk, to alien to the nuns minoreesses of Brusyard, in Suffolk, the lordship of Witton, to pray for the soul of Anne, daughter of the said Margaret, deceased, late Countess of Pembroke, and for her own state whilst living, and her soul when deceased: but, in the 12th of the said King, another patent was granted to exchange for this manor, one messuage, 6 shops, with 200 acres of land in Sanston, Badburg-ham, and Pampeswoth, in Cambridgeshire: in the said year a fine was levied between the aforesaid Countess of Norfolk, and John Winterton, and Margaret his wife, who conveyed to her a manor here.

There was also another considerable manor in the see of Norwich, held by the family of De Breydeston, lord of Breydeston, (which was also held of that see,) and extended into this town. From the Breydestons it came to the Catstons, or Castons, and from them to the Carbonets, as in Breydeston, &c. and the patronage of the church was in this manor.

The tenths were 1*l.* 14*s.*—Deducted 4*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Margaret; was valued at 12 marks:—paid Peter-pence 1*2d.*—Carvage, 2*d. ob.*—The present valor is 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged.

Besides the towns here mentioned, there was, as appears from the book of Domesday, a town called Mora, in this hundred, granted, on the deprivation of Siricius, a freeman, to Rabel the artificer, containing at the conquest 2 carucates of land, 8 villains, 4 servi, a carucate and a half in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, and 10 acres of meadow, &c. one saltwork, &c. valued at 40s. was 8 furlongs long, and 5 broad, &c. and the soc and sac was in the King.<sup>3</sup>

Where this town stood is at this time unknown, probably the lands belonging to it are not included in Limpenho and Thorp, where Rabel held also lands, as will there appear; also lord of Filby in East-Flegg hundred.

CLACKCLOSE HUNDRED AND HALF.

LIES on the western part of the county of Norfolk, and adjoins to the isle of Ely. The Saxon king Edgar gave the lordship of it to the abbey of Ramsey, in Huntingdonshire, with 60 soemen in the towns of Wimbotsham, Hilgey, Dozenham, and its market, at the request of Oswald, a monk, who lived with him; and at the grand survey, made by King William I. we learn, that the aforesaid abbey had 70s. per ann. issuing out of the profits of the soc, or lordships of it.<sup>1</sup>

Soca hundr. et dim. de Clakeslosa habt. Scs. Ben. (that is, St. Benet's abbey of Ramsey) LXX. sol.—Domesday Book.

Sir Henry Spelman observes, that there were 60 monks in that convent, so that every monk had his soeman to maintain him, and that there were 4 other soemen to maintain the abbot.<sup>2</sup> Many and great were their privileges; in the 4th of King John, they were confirmed, as they had been by King Henry I. with the same liberties and pleas that belonged to the Crown.<sup>3</sup>

In the 3d of Edward I. the jury find, that it was valued, together with the lordships of Wimbotsham, Hilgey, and the Market of Dunham, at 10 marks per ann. and that the abbot had the taking out, and the return of all writs, &c. view of frankpledge, forfeitures, felons goods, the lete, a gallows, and a prison belonging to it; and that Roger Giffard was then the abbot's bailiff, together with Richard de Odiam, &c. The prison for it was at Wimbotsham; and in the 41st of Henry III. William Briton, the King's justice, by the King's writ made a gaol delivery of many robbers, &c. taken within and without the abbot's liberty,<sup>4</sup> and before this, in 1249, Robert de Benemere appears to be the abbot's coroner.

The abbot, in the 18th of Edward I. had a power of distraining for amerciements in his hundred court, and before the King's justices itinerant; and, in his 22d year, there was an agreement between William de Luda Bishop of Ely, and John de Sautry, Abbot of Ramsey, that the Bishop should have his court baron of his tenants in this hundred.

The hundred court, and sheriff's turn, was then held at Clackclose-

hill, on the common of Stradset, and all lords of manors within the liberty, their tenants, and all men of considerable estates were suitors to it, excepting the tenants of the Bishop of Ely, abbot of Derham, prior of Shouldham, &c.

On the Dissolution of religious houses, in the reign of King Henry VIII. it came to the Crown, when the hundred was separated from the half hundred; and on October 14, in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, the hundred was granted to Edward Lord North, and soon after was purchased by Sir Nicholas Hare; on his death, October 30, in the 3d and 5th of Philip and Mary, Michael his son and heir had livery of it.

At an inquisition taken in 1637, on the death of Sir John Hare, it was valued at 45*l. per ann.* and his descendant, Sir George Hare, Bart. was lord, who appoints his own bailiff, steward, and coroner, and died in 1764.

Several grants from the Crown have confirmed it, with all its rights and privileges to this family, and one in particular, in the 2d year of King James I. to Sir Ralph Hare.

The half hundred being separated from the hundred, and vested in the Crown, was granted on March 2d, in the 7th of Edward VI. to John Dudley Duke of Northumberland, who conveyed it the next day to Edmund Beaupre, Esq. of Outwell, to be held of the King in soccage, as part of the manor of East Greenwich in Kent; and, by the marriage of Dorothy, daughter and heir of Edmund, by his 2d wife, came to Sir Robert Bell, lord chief baron of the Exchequer, who was killed by a pestilent fume or vapour at Oxford assises in 1577, whose descendants enjoyed it till Beaupre Bell, Esq. on his death, about 1741, gave it, by will, to Elizabeth, his youngest sister, who, in 1742, was married to William Greaves, Esq. of Fulburn in Cambridgeshire, and is now lord in her right.

This half hundred extends itself into the isle of Ely, and great level of the fens, Well stream, or river, running through the towns of Upwell and Outwell, seems to be the boundary of the county of Norfolk, and the isle of Ely; the south side, or part, of the river being in Norfolk, and the north side in the isle.

The boundaries of this half hundred to the north, where it joined to the isle of Ely, (which belonged to the bishops of Ely,) were, in ancient days, well known, and remain upon record; but, through great length of time, the names of the places, and rivers, growing obsolete, and being much changed and altered by new drains, &c. by the adventurers on their draining, are at this time, it is to be feared, in a great measure unknown.

These boundaries were settled in the reign of Richard I. and appear in a register of the abbey of Ramsey, &c.<sup>5</sup>—There have also been disputes and law-suits about the rights, privileges, and boundaries between the lords of the hundred and of the half hundred in the last century. On the 8th of December, in the 36th of King Charles II. a robbery being committed near Shouldham Thorp and Stradset, the townships of Upwell and Outwell refusing to pay their proportion as charged, a suit of law commenced, they pretending to be in the liberty of the half hundred; but, on a full hearing, it was decreed by Sir Robert Atkins, lord chief baron, on July 9, in the 2d of William and Mary, that they should forthwith pay their shares, being members and parts of the said hundred.

In Domesday Book, this hundred and a half is wrote Clachelosa, Clacheslosa, and Clakeslosa, and is a compound of these three words, Cl or Clai, Chess or Kess, and Losa; Cl or Clai, and Cley, betokens a place surecharged with water, as Cley in Norfolk, by the sea, Clare in Suffolk, Clavering in Essex, &c.—Ches, or Kess, is a place seated near some river, as Cheswick, or Keswick in Norfolk and in Middlesex, Clacheston in Norfolk, Chesham in Bucks.—Losa sets forth its site, Le Ouse, on the river Ouse.

LOVEL'S MANOR.

Called Bertun by the Saxons, from its site by the hills; thus Barley in Hertfordshire, Barton in Suffolk, &c. Bergh or Bar signifying a hill. At the grand survey, made by King William I. in the year 1085, it was possessed by three great lords; one of these, Hermerus de Ferrys, or De Ferrers, was lord of this manor, by a grant of the Conqueror, on the deprivation of Turchetel. William was enfeoffed of it under Hermerus. In Turchetel's time, it consisted of 2 carucates of land, 5 villains, 3 bordarers, 3 servi, one only at the survey; there were always 4 acres of wood, and 20 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 among the tenants; at the survey but one, 3 cows, and 4 runci, (horses for draught,) &c.—thirty sheep; at the survey, 61; a church endowed with 12 acres, and was valued at 60*s. per ann.*<sup>6</sup> There also belonged to it 7 freemen, who held a carucate and an half, with 30 acres of land, but folded in the lord's fold, and were only under commendation or protection.

Hermerus had invaded, or seized on, the land of a freeman, who had half a carucate, and 12 acres, valued at 3*s. per ann.* which William aforesaid held under Hermerus, and was by that freeman held only by commendation, before this seizure:—also on the land of a freeman, who had 60 acres, with a bordarer, and half a carucate, and 8 acres of meadow, valued at 2s. Sd. per ann.

Turchetil was a Saxon thane, or nobleman, held many lordships in this hundred and county, most of which were granted to Hermerus.—William, who held it of him, was probably ancestor of the family of De Wormegey, which was also a lordship of Hermerus: he is styled a freeman. Godwin, father of King Harold, and his sons, are thus also called in the grand survey.

In the book of Domesday, we frequently meet with the word commendatio. Romulus, the first King of Rome, placed the Plebeians (as a trust) in the hands of the Patricians, allowing every Plebeian the liberty to choose any Patrician he thought proper for his patron. Terence, in his play called the Eunuch, says,—Thais patri se commendavit in clientenam, et fidem nobis se dedit.—It is probable, the Britons learned this of the Romans, and so came to the Saxons.

Another thing to be observed here is, that great Norman lords at the conquest, frequently invaded, or seized on the lands of many free-men and Saxon lords, without any authority or grant from the Conqueror, by force and violence.

About the reign of King Stephen, a family who assumed their name from the great Saxon dike, lying at the east end of this township, cast up (as it is said) as a boundary to this hundred, and called De Bendish, held it of the honour of Wirmegay, in this hundred, of the heirs of Hermerus, as may be there seen: the daughter of this family was married to Thomas Lovell, in the reign of King Richard I.

This family claim their descent from the Earls of Iberi in France. Andrew Lovell was living in the reign of Henry II. and father of Thomas, who married ———, the daughter and heiress of John Bendish aforesaid, who was with that king in the wars of the Holy Land, and had the King's protection for his lands.—William Lovell held one knight's fee here in the time of Henry III. and in the 54th of that King, John de Lovell was living, attended Prince Edward into the Holy Land, and had the King's protection, &c. lord here, and held lands in Boketon, Bitcham-Well, and Mateshale.<sup>7</sup>—John Lovell, son of John, died in the 2d of Edward III. seized of this manor, with the advowson of the church of St. Mary, a windmill, &c. held of the honour of Wirmegay. William Lovell was living in the 31st of Edward III. and father of Thomas, living in the reign of King Richard II. &c. and by the name of Thomas Lovell, senior, of Barton Bendish, dates his testament, August 16, 1421;<sup>8</sup> to be buried in St. Mary's church of Barton; to William his son, all his stuff in this manor of Wanford, to every of his daughters 100 marks portion. Alice his wife, Thomas his son, William Narburg, junior, Richard Baret of Hecham, and William his son, executors. His last will is also of the same date, whereby he wills all his manors, lands, tenements, &c. in Barton Bendish, Buketon, Fyncham, Bycham-Well and Mateshale Bergh, to remain in his feoffees hands till his debts were paid. Alice his wife to have a rent-charge of 20 marks yearly, issuing out of his lands in the towns aforesaid, which descended to him from his father William.—Thomas his son, and the heirs male of his body, to have those manors; but Alice, his daughter, a rent of 10*l.* yearly; Beatrix, his daughter, a like rent thereof; remainder to Nicholas, brother of Thomas, remainder to Ralph, remainder to William, remainder to John, all his sons, remainder to his own heirs: William his son to have the manor of Wangford. He had lands also at Cley, by Swaffham, which he gives to John, with like remainders. Nicholas his son to have his purchased lands in Fincham, with those in Wretton, Stoke and Wyrham; lands, called Colles and Collingtons, in Buketon; lands in Denver, Riston and Roxham; his manor in Tyrington, after several pious uses performed to God, to Nicholas his son in tail. Proved September 10 following.

This Thomas is said to have married, first, Joan, daughter and heir of Robert Muswell, or Mosell; and his 2d wife was Alice: King Richard, in his 9th year, exempted him from serving on any jury, or as an eschaetor, coroner, &c.

Thomas Lovell, Esq. son and heir of Thomas, by his first wife Joan, left Thomas his son, by Cecilia his wife, daughter of ———— Orrell; who by his deed, dated November 1, in the 28th of Henry VI. grants to Cecilia his mother, of Chesterton in Cambridgeshire, all his manors and lands aforesaid, with the advowson of St. Mary's church in Barton, and that of the chapel of St. Mary in Eastmore;<sup>9</sup> and Ralph Lovell of Beccham-Well, William Lovell of Chesterton, and John Lovell of Berton, released all their rights in the said manors, held by Thomas Lovell of Berton, late deceased, to the said Thomas and Anne his wife, for the life of the said Thomas and Anne. By this deed, it evidently appears, that this Thomas was not the son of Joan, as is represented in certain pedigrees; and it further appears, that Nicholas his uncle was not living at this time. This Thomas Lovell married Anne, daughter of Robert Tappes, alderman of Norwich, and merchant. Robert Tappes, in the reign of Edward IV. gives to Anne Lovell, his sister, and to his nephew, Gregory Lovell, her son, a manor in Melton Parva. The said Thomas, and his father, Thomas Lovell, Esq. presented several times to the church of St. Mary, from the year 1422, to the year 1463. In the 13th of Edward IV. a fine was levied, wherein this Thomas, and Anne his wife, convey to Sir Thomas Brews, William Yelverton, junior, Esq. &c. all his interest in this town, from the heirs of the said Anne; and died, as I take it, soon after, without issue.

In the year 1474, Gregory Lovell, Esq. presented to St. Mary's church, as lord of this manor; he was son and heir of Sir Ralph Lovell (as he is styled) brother of Thomas Lovell, Esq. aforesaid, lord of Well-Hall manor, of Beucham-Well, and patron of the church of St. John's in that town, to which he presented 5 times by the name of Ralph Lovell, Esq. the last presentation being in 1475, and died soon after. By Joan his wife, he was father of 3 of the most eminent knights in that time; Sir Gregory, the first son; Sir Robert, the 2d, was created a knight at Blackheath field, in 1497; Sir Thomas, the 3d, was Knight banneret, Knight of the Garter, chancellor of the Exchequer, president of the council, &c.; Gregory, the eldest, was also a knight, and presented to this church in 1496.

He married Margaret, daughter of Sir William Brandon, aunt to Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, and was father of Thomas Lovell, Esq. who presented as lord in 1510; and in 1518, then a knight; by

Catherine his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhouse of Kimberley, had Thomas his son, and a daughter Margaret, the wife of John Karssey of Reresby in Lincolnshire, Gent. This Thomas dying before his father, without issue by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Dethick, Esq. of Wirmegay, Sir Thomas Lovell conveyed it to Thomas Mono, whose son, in the reign of that Queen, sold it to John Dethick, who presented to the church of St. Mary in 1588, and Edmund Dethick presented in 1562, and in 1571; Edmund Audley, Esq. and Edward Dethick, Gent. guardians of Christopher Dethick. Christopher passed it to Franc. Woodhouse, Esq. in the 16th of Queen Elizabeth, who, in the 21st of the said reign, conveyed it to Francis Gawdy, Esq. serjeant at law, afterwards lord chief justice of the Common Pleas, who died possessed of it. By the marriage of Frances his grand-daughter, it came to Robert Rich Earl of Warwick, and so to Sir Thomas Cheek, who, in the 17th of King James I. conveyed it to Sir Ralph Hare of Stow Bardolf; and, on the 10th of October, in the 17th of King Charles II. was sold by Sir Ralph Hare, Bart. to Sir Richard Berney, Bart. in which family it remains; Sir Hason Berney of Kirby Bedou, Bart being the present lord.

BRANCASTER HALL.

The ancient family of Braucaster gave name to it; Robert de Braucaster was living, and lord, in the reign of Henry II.<sup>1</sup>

Bartholomew, son of Peter de Braucaster, gave by deed, sans date, (with his body,) the chapel of St. John Baptist, in Barton Eastmore, to the abbey of West Dereham, and Adam, son of Thomas de Braucaster, by deed, s. d. gave to Adam de Fincham, and Annabel his wife, one messuage, with the appertenances in Berton, called Braucaster Hall crofts, and 5s. rent per ann. of free tenants; 2 villains, with all their goods and chattels, with 2 acres of land, all the homages, wards, escheats, &c. of the free tenants.

John, son of Adam de Braucaster, by deed, on Thursday after the Decollation of St. John Baptist, in the 17th of Edward II. released to Adam, son of Thomas de Braucaster, all his right in land, rent, the moiety of a messuage, and Christiana, late wife of Thomas, in the said year, quit-claimed to Adam her son, all her right therein.

John Fincham and John Codington were found, by an inquisition, to hold in the 3d of Henry IV. one fee of the honour of Wirmegay; in the family of Fincham, (of whom see in Fincham.) it remained till William Fincham, Esq. in the 12th of Elizabeth, conveyed it to Thomas Heigham, Gent. and he to Edmund Guybon and John Mundeford, Gents. in the 32d of that Queen; and after came to serjeant Gawdy, and so to the Berneys, as in Lovell manor.

CURPELL, AND HERN HALL.

Roger Curpel was lord, and held half a fee here in the reign of Henry III. of the honour of Wirmegay, and left 4 daughters and coheirs: it came to the Caustons, and after to Nicholas de Massingham, who kept a court here, in the 9th of Richard II. and then to the Lovels. Sir Thomas Lovell sold it in the 26th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Monox, Esq. of Walthamstow in Essex. He died seized of it, Ac. 38. 300 acres of land, a messuage, called Grymes, 60 acres at Eastmore, a close, called Old Hern Hall, &c. held by the 4th part of a fee; soon after united to Lovel's manor, passed with it, and is in Sir Hans. Berney, Bart.

EAST-HALL.

One moiety of this was in the Lovels, the other in the Finchams, in the 26th of Henry VIII. held of the aforesaid honour. Sir Thomas Lovell, in the 26th of Henry VIII. conveyed it to Robert Trapps, goldsmith of London, and Trapps to Sir Roger Townsend, with Littlemore Close, in the 36th of that King; and Townsend to John Dethick, Esq. Christopher Dethick to Francis Woodhouse, Esq. in the 16th of Elizabeth, who, in the 21st of that Queen, sold it to Serjeant Gawdy, so was united to Lovel's manor, &c.

John Fincham, Esq. died possessed of a moiety, Ac. 33d of Henry VIII. and William Fincham, in the 12th of Elizabeth, sold it to John Highum, and so came to Gawdy, &c.

SNORE-HALL.

Michael de Snore held it in the reign of Edward I. John Atte Snore was lord in the 6th of Edward III. and witness to a deed in the 9th of Richard II. Robert Atte Snore kept his court at Snore Hall in Eastmore, on the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula.—Ralph Atte Snore, in the 14th of Edward III. was found to hold a messuage, 60 acres of land of the Lord Bardolf, and 39 acres of the abbot of Wcst Derham, paying him 22s. per ann. and the rest of John de Fincham. This also came to Gawdy, and so to the Berneys.

Rainald, son of Ivo, had a grant of the principal manor, and part of this town from the Conqueror, on the deprivation of Chetil, a freeman, lord in King Edward's reign;<sup>2</sup> this consisted then of one carucate of land, 4 villains, 2 bordarers, 20 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in domain, and one among the tenants, valued at 40s. at the survey at 30s. It was one leuca long, half a leuca broad, and 3 furlongs; and when the whole hundred paid 20s. gelt, this whole village of Barton paid 16*d*.

The said Rainald had also the lordship granted to him, which Turchill (or Turchetil) was deprived of, containing 3 carucates of land, 6 villains, 5 bordarers, 3 servi, &c. &c. 20 acres of meadow, with 3 carucates in domain, &c. one carucate among the tenants, and 67 sheep; and to this manor belonged 5 freemen to the soc only, with 30 acres of land, a carucate of meadow, and 4 acres of wood, valued in the whole at 10*l*. in King Edward's reign, after at 60s. at the survey 85s. and what the 5 freemen held, at 42s. and 8*d*. per ann.

Rainald had also a grant of a manor, of which Toli, a freeman, was deprived, who had 6 villains, &c. 5 bordarers, 5 servi, and 12 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in domain, &c. one of the tenants, &c. Five freemen belonged to the soc only, and under the lord's protection, and 2 paid all customary dues. These five had a carucate and 12 acres of meadow; 2 villains had 6 acres of the domain land; when he had the grant, there were 60 sheep, &c. 11 swine, &c. the whole valued at 80s. after at 60s. and what the 5 freemen had at 10s.

These tenures possessed by Rainald, came to the Earls of Clare, and constituted several lordships.

SCALES-MANOR.

The Lord Scales held this of the Earl of Clare, in the reign of Henry III. Robert Lord Scales was found then to have one fee; and, in the 3*d* of Edward I. that a gallows at Mickledick, between Barton and Bicham-Well, belonged to it, and was valued, in the 33*d* of Edward III. at 10*l*. 19s. 3*d*. per ann. By the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Lord Scales, it came to Anth. Woodvile Earl Rivers, who enjoyed it in the 4*th* of Edward IV. This lady dying without issue, it descended to Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir John Howard by Joan his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Richard Walton, relict of John Earl of Oxford, who was beheaded,  Ao. 1 of Edward IV. and, on her decease, was granted by King Richard III. on February 1,  Ao. 2, to John Duke of Norfolk.

On the accession of King Henry VII. it was restored to John Vere Earl of Oxford and Lord Scales, who dying s. p. it fell to two of his sisters share; Dorothy, wife of John Nevill Lord Latimer, and Elizabeth, wife of Sir Ant. Wingfield; the Wingfields being after possessed of the whole, Sir Robert Wingfield and his son Anth. on May 16. Ao. 33. Elizabeth, conveyed it to Serjeant Gawdy, and so came (as is above observed) to the present lord, Sir Hans. Berney, Bart.

OVERHALL AND NETHERHALL.

William de Berton held, in the 3*d* of Edward I. the 4*th* part of a fee; and in the 8*th* of Edward II. their heirs of the honour of Clare. The Lovells afterwards possessed it, and Thomas Monox died seized of these manors, held of the King, as of the honour of Clare, by knights service,  Ao. 30 Henry VIII. and Geo. Monox, and Elizabeth his wife, conveyed them to John Dethick, Esq.; his grandson, Christopher, sold them to Franc. Woodhouse of Beccles, Esq. and he to Serjeant Gaudy, and so united came to the Berneys.

DERHAM ABBOT'S MANOR.

The abbot was possessed of this, as appears in the 19th of Edward I. In the 12th year of Edward II. Richard Rigge, and Emma his wife, gave (and it was settled by fine) 38 acres of land, and 5 of meadow to it, held of the Lord Scales. In the 1st year of Henry VII. Thomas Lovel, Esq. held it of the abbot, paying certain rents. The site of it was at Eastmore, a hamlet in this parish. At the general dissolution, it was found leased to John Dethick, Esq. by Roger Firman, the last abbot, in the 29th of Henry VIII. for 60 years; on the expiration of it, was granted to Thomas Jones, by Queen Elizabeth, Aug. 15, Ao. 9, in consideration of his great charges in maintaining two ships well armed for some time for her service, paying 8*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* to the Crown per ann. This Jones was a burgesse of King's Lynn. Robert Cecil Earl of Salisbury held of it, and conveyed it to Sir John Rous, and Nathaniel Rich, Esqrs. and so came to Robert Rich Earl of Warwick, and to the Berneys.

Temporalities of this abbey, with Winwaloy priory, were valued, in 1428, at 11*l.* 11*s.* 4*d.* per ann.

BROMHILL PRIORY MANOR.

I find the prior to hold it in 1270; in that year, Richard de Longden gave 6 marks, and a fenn to Eastmore. In the 14th of Edward I. Cecilia, wife of John de Rungton, gave lands in Berton. It was suppressed, before the general dissolution, by a bull of Pope Clement VII. dated May 14, 1528, and granted by King Henry VIII. to Cardinal Wolsey on December 30th following, with all the messuages, lands, &c. in Berton and Eastmore; soon after, on that Cardinal's praemunire and attainder, was given January 2, Ao. 28 of the said King, to Christ college in Cambridge, and so remains.

In 1428, their temporalities were valued at 39*s.* and 6*d.* per ann.

BARTON BURIAL MANOR.

Was part of the possessions of Heringby college, in Flegg hundred, Norfolk; on its dissolution, was granted April 18, Ao. 36 Henry VIII. to Sir William Woodhouse, who alienated it, Ao. 2 Edward VI. to August. Steward, who sold it, Ao. 2 Elizabeth, to Robert Wood, alderman of Norwich, who passed it in the 10th of that Queen to John Gerard. In her 14th year, John Parker conveyed it to Richard Lucas, and so came to Judge Gawdy and Berney.

Besides these lordships, it appears, that Ralph de Camois claimed one knight's fee in Berton and Eastmore of Ralph de Roffu, or Rochester, which Ralph Wallensis, uncle of Stephen, father of Ralph de Camois, was seized of in the reign of Henry II. William de Roucester died possessed of it in the 33d of Henry III. son of Ralph, and it came to Sir Robert Tudenham, by the marriage of Eva, relict of Ralph de Roucester, son of Henry, brother and heir of William, who died s. p. This was also held of the Earls of Clare; and, in the 54th of Henry III. Sir Robert Tudenham, and Eva his wife, granted it, by fine, to Robert de Weston, and Hawisia his wife, sister of Ralph, son of Sir Henry, (which they held in dower of the inheritance of Hawisia,) in exchange for the manor of Ereswell in Suffolk; but, in the first of Edward I. the said Sir Robert, &c. conveyed it to Gilbert de Well, and Maud his wife.

BAINARD - HALL.

Ralph Bainard, a Norman lord, had, on the conquest, the grant of a capital manor, of which Ailid, a free woman, was deprived, consisting of 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, 7 bordarers, 4 servi, 20 acres of meadow; and when Ralph entered on it, there were 2 runci, 2 cows, 60 swine, and 140 sheep, valued at 80s. but at the survey at 60s. also a church, endowed with 24 acres, valued at 2s. per ann. Four men belonged to it, who paid all customary dues; and there were 4 other, who belonged only to the lord's soc, and held a carucate and 6 acres of meadow, valued in Ailid's time at 20s. at the survey at 30s.<sup>3</sup> Ralph had also seized on, in this town, 30 acres, held by a freeman in King Edward's time.

William Lord Bainard, rebelling against King Henry I. forfeited this lordship, and that King gave it to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz-Gilbert, ancestor of the Earls of Clare; from this Robert the family of the lords Fitz-Walters descended; and, in the reign of Henry III. Edmund de Lenn, and Richard Jeffrey, alias Jovene, held it of the Lord Fitz-Walter by one knight's fee. William de Lenn, rector of North Lynn, held a moiety of it in the 2d of Edward III. and conveyed it, Ac. 6, to Adam de Fincham, and Annabel his wife; and Ac. 20, John de Fincham held it, and John de Codrington the other moiety, to whom it was conveyed, Ac. 17, by William de Eton, and Joan his wife, late wife of John de Jovene. After this, the Finchams were possessed of it; and, in the 33d of Henry VIII. died lord of the whole. William Fincham, Esq. in the 12th of Elizabeth, granted it to Charles Cornwallis, Esq. who married his sister Anne, from whom it came, Ac. 32, to Thomas Gawsell, Jasper Blake, &c. and soon after to Serjeant Gawdy, and so to the Hares and Berneys.

The tete of the town was in Sir George Hare, Bart. The tenths were 10*l.* 7*s.* Deducted 1*l.* for the lands of the religious, who were charged, and paid it themselves. Tete fee, 2*s.* 8*d.*

In the 16th of Richard II. Thomas Moor, &c. aliened lands here, and in Beacham Well, to the prior of Ingham.—The temporalities of ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH is a single pile, built of flint stones, &c. in length about 53 feet, in breadth about 19, covered with reed, and has a square tower, coped with free stone, and three bells; on the top or summit is a cup or cover, with a weathercock. Over the entrance or arch of the porch, in a niche, stands a little antique figure of St. Andrew, with his shield, a saltire cross in his right hand; and on the sides of this porch are flint stones, worked in the form of saltires. Many churches had the image of the Saint to whom they were dedicated in such places.* Thus we read, that the image of Thomas Becket Archbishop of Canterbury was over the door of the Mercer's chapel in Cheapside, London, dedicated to him, and the bason for the holy water is still entire on the right hand as you enter.

On the pavement, within the rails of the communion table, lie 3 black marble stones:—On one,

Depositum Matthæi Novell, rectoris hujus ecclesie.—2, Depositum Mariæ conjugis Matti. Novell.—3, Depositum Matti. filii 2di. Matti. et Mariæ Novell.

The east window has been ornamented with painted glass; on the edging of it may be observed several leopards heads, or, jessant flowers de-lis, the arms of Cantilupe.—On the pavement of the chancel are several small antique pavements, and thereon are cinquefoils, stars, mullets, lozengys, . . . and ermine, and some with eagles and crescents, and are about 4 inches square: this chancel is about 33 feet long, and 15 broad, covered with reed.

In the churchyard are 3 altar tombs of brick, covered with stone slabs.

Belonging to this town of Barton. In the hamlet of Barton-Eastmore, was a chapel, which Bartholomew de Brancaster, son of Peter de Branneestre, gave by deed, sans date, with his body to the abbey of West-Derham, (which, by the said deed, seems to have been well endowed) to find two canons of that house to pray there for his soul, and the souls of his parents, &c. for ever, at the appointment of that abbot and convent.

In this deed, this chapel is called the chapel of St. John Baptist, and was in the patronage, &c. of Derham abbey; but in all the institution books at Norwich, I find it called the chapel of St. Mary, and not to be in the patronage of that abbey; so that probably the foundation was afterwards altered, and it was settled otherwise.

1st of Edward VI. was William Dicons, who was alive in 1553, and held then an annual pension of 3l. 7s. 6d. I find a messuage and 30 acres of land, to have belonged to it.—At the suppression, it was granted to Sir Thomas Woodhouse of Woxham,<sup>8</sup> and turned into a farm-house, having some additional buildings. It is still called the Chapel-house; part of the chapel, at the east end of the house, still remains, as appears by the old roof.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH stands at the west end of the town, and was beat down by the fall of the tower, in the reign of Queen Anne, and is rebuilt of the old materials; it is a single pile about 24 feet long, and 15 broad, covered with reed, as the chancel, which is about 22 feet long, and 14 broad, without any tower.

ALL-SAINTS. This church stands between the churches of St. Mary and St. Andrew, in Barton, and is built of flint and boulder; an ancient pile, supported by buttresses of brick; of a body, or isle, in length about 47 feet, and in breadth about 16; the top is camerated and impanelled with wainscoat, and covered with reed. Here seems to have been a little chapel on the north side of it, by the pillars, &c. This body or nave is separated by a screen from the chancel, which is about 31 feet in length and about 16 in breadth, and covered with thatch.

In the north window here is, gules, six escallops, argent, Lord Scales; and, in the upper window, on the south side, argent, on a bend, sable, three cross crosslets, fitchè of the first, Caston:

Here were anciently the arms of Lord Bardolf, the Earl of Clare siding or, a cross gules, in a bordure sab. Burgh Earl of Ulster.

At the west end of the nave is a four square tower of flint, &c. and quoins of free stone, embattled with brick. In this tower hang three large ancient bells. On the tenor,—Sit Nomen Domini Benedictum, and two shields;—on one shield, two keys in saltire, between a dolphin embowed, a wheat-sheaf, a bell, and a lamp, probably to represent the four elements.—On another shield, a quadrangular cross florette.—On the second bell, are the same shields, and Sancta Catharina Ora Nobis.—On the treble, the same shields, and Vox Augustini sonet in Aure Dei. The ancients used inscriptions on their bells; —Montfaucon mentions one with a Greek inscription, but in Latin characters; CHOVS. ARTEMIS. EPHESTION. AER. MENI. that is ΧΘΣ. ΑΓΓΕΛΙΣ ΗΕΦΑΙΣΤΙΟΝ ΑΥΓ. ΜΕΝΕΙ.<sup>4</sup> He makes ΧΘΣ to signify the earth, but it rather signifies water.—Bells in the Romish church were, and are, baptized, and have their godfathers and godmothers, and more ceremonies are then used, than at the baptism of a Christian.

Juga, sister, or wife rather, of Ralph Bainard, lord of this town, founded 1004, the priory of Dunmow in Essex, which her son Jeffrey enjoyed; but William Lord Bainard, on his rebellion in the reign of Henry I. was deprived; whether any of these gave the patronage of this church to the priory, does not appear. In the 13th of Edward I. a patent was granted to the convent of this advowson,<sup>5</sup> most likely by the Lord Fitz-Walter. In that year there was a suit between the prior and Edmund de Leon, and Richard de Jovene, concerning the patronage, and Edward released his right to the prior.

1585, Edmund Jones, A. M. rector also of St. Andrew's. About this time, I find in a MSS. that this church was not at that time seized. In 1603, he certified to the King, that there were 56 communicants in this parish; and was buried in the chancel of the church.

The pension of the priory of Dunmow in this church was 50s.—The regulars, in the time of Popery, to depress the seculars, when they got the advowson of a church, would not present a priest, but on a simoniacal contract of a pension, a grievance after complained of, but never remedied.

WELL-HALL.

HUBERT DE ST. PHILIBERT was lord in the reign of Henry II. and heldsit of the Earls of Clare, and was lord of Bray in Berkshire. In the 3d year of King John, a fine was levied between Hugh de Philibert, and Roger de St. Philibert, whereby Hugh granted to Roger, and his heirs a moiety of this manor, to be held of Hugh; and, in the 2d of Henry III. Albruda, widow of Hugh de St. Philibert, had her thirds assigned her herein. In the 13th of the said King, a fine was levied between Stephen de Scatariis, and Beatrix his wife, daughter and heir of Roger de St. Philibert, and Hugh de St. Philibert, of the moiety above-mentioned, granted to Hugh, reserving only the domain lands to themselves. In the 53d of Henry III. Nicholas de Cressingham, and Alice his wife, granted, by fine, to Gilbert de Well, and Maud his wife, a messuage, and 80 acres of land; and, in the 14th of Edward I. Peter de Well, son of Gilbert, had 5 messuages, a mill, 380 acres of land here, in Caldecot, Cley, and Oxburgh, for life, remainder to Alice, daughter of Roger de Swafham, for life, remainder to Joan, daughter of Peter, &c. by Robert Person of Overe.

About the end of Henry the Third's reign, part of this lordship we find held by William Belet, of the Earl of Clare. The Belets were a family of great worth and dignity.—Michael Belet was a judge itinerant in the reign of Henry II. and another Michael (if not the same) held the cup at the coronation of Queen Alianor, consort of King Henry III. Of the same family was also Hervey Belet, a great benefactor to (and by some accounted founder of) Cokesford abbey in Norfolk. After this, it was in the hands of Ingelram Belet, who was knighted in the 34th of Edward I. with Edward Prince of Wales, by bathing. This Ingelram married Avicia, daughter and heir of Robert Bardolph, by Avicia his wife, daughter and heir of John de Lounds, lord of Wyrham and Crimplesham. Robert Belet, son of Ingelram, by Avicia, died possessed of it about the 8th of Edward II. Before this, in the 3d of Edward I. the jury present, that the Earl of Clare, the capital lord, extended the bounds of his warren here, and that he had made warren of lands, which he purchased after the grant of the warren made to him; at which time the lete here belonged to that Earl, who had a gallows at Mickel-Dyke, between Barton and this town. Rot. Hund. 3d Edward I. in Cur. Recept. Scii.

In 1326, Robert de Well was lord, and presented to the church of St. John in this town, (the advowson of which belonged to this lordship,) who died about the 9th of Edward III. and soon after this, in the 20th of the said King, it was held by Richard de Walkfar, and John de Benstede, &c. which John presented to the church aforesaid, as lord, in 1349; but, in the year 1354, John de Denham was lord, and presented to the church of St. John. This John was son and heir of Avice Walkfare; and he appears to be lord, (or his son,) and presented to the said church in 1374.

In the year 1420, it seems to be in the hands of trustees, who presented that year to St. John's church; but, in the reign of Henry VI. it was purchased by the Locells; and Ralph Lovel, Esq. presented as lord in 1458, in which family it continued, till it was sold to the Athows, in the reign of King James I. and Thomas Athow, Esq. presented as lord in 1613, which Thomas was serjeant at law, son of Christopher Athow of Brisley in Norfolk, (by Dorothy, daughter of Thomas Jenison of Creak in Norfolk, by Ann his wife, daughter and heir of John Wingfield, Esq. 2d son of Thomas Wingfield of Dunham Magna, was father of Wingfield Athow, who died sane issue; and John Athow, who married Cecily, daughter of Sir John Lunsford, by whom he had Sir Christopher Athow, Knt. who, by Penelope, daughter of Sir William de Grey, of Merton in Norfolk, left 2 sons, Christopher and William, who both died sans issue. William sold this lordship to Sir Simon Tayler of Lyn. By his son, Samuel Taylor, Esq. it descended to Andrew Taylor, Esq. who dying unmarried, this estate came to William Forcks, Esq. by his wife, sister of the said Andrew:

ASHFIELD AND JOCES MANOR.

At the survey, Ribald, lord of Mildham, in Yorkshire, held under Alan Earl of Richmond, and lord of Swaffham, in Norfolk, 60 acres of land in Bycham. In the time of the Confessor, it consisted of one carucate; at the survey, but of half a one, valued at 5s.<sup>9</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. it was held by Richard de la More, of Mary, Lady Nevill, a descendant of Ribald, by the service of the 10th part of a fee; and William de la More was lord in the 3d of Edward I. In the 20th of Edward III. Roger de Dersingham; soon after it came to John Joce, who, with Agnes his wife, conveyed it with the homages and services of several persons, in the 50th of that King, to John Fitz-John, alias John de Thorp, and his heirs. This Joce was probably related to Sir Philip Joce, a retainer to Hugh Lord De Spencer the younger, in the reign of Edward II. John Ashfield, Esq. of Stow Langtoft in Suffolk, by his will, proved June 13, 1594, appears to die seized of it; wherein he bequeaths to Agnes his wife, the 3d part of all his goods; to Joan Bokenham, his sister, 40s.; to each of the churches of Bycham, 40l.; and names Robert his father executor. In the 5th of Henry IV. Sir John Strange, Knt. granted to John de Bohun Earl of Hereford, &c. the custody of all the manors, &c. late Robert Ashfield's, during the minority of Robert Ashfield, cousin and heir of the said Robert, in the towns of Bycham-Well, Shyngham, Berton, &c. and in 1459, Robert Ashfield of Stow Langtoft, Esq. by his will, dated Feb. 22, bequeaths his body to be buried in Stow Langtoft church, by Elleanor his first wife; to Cecilia (his 2d wife) his utensils in his manor of Bicham-Well, and for her life this lordship, with the appertinances in Shingham, Berton, Caldecote, and Cley, and lands which he purchased in Helgey, Southrey and Fordham; remainder to John Ashfield, junior, his eldest son, by Cecil, in tail; remainder to William his son, rector of Stow Langtoft, for life; remainder to Reginald his son, and his heirs. This Robert was son of John Ashfield, son of Robert, who died in the 3d of Henry IV. In the 21st of Edward IV. John Ashfield died lord; and, in the 22d of Henry VII. died his widow Florentia, daughter and coheir of John Botiler of Mepertishale in Bedfordshire. Thomas Jermyn of Rushbrook, in Suffolk, Esq. in the 11th of Henry VIII. bought of Thomas Earl of Surry, the custody of the lands, and the heir of George Ashfield of Stow Langtoft, named Robert, and married him to Maud his 4th daughter.

Soon after this, it came to the family of the Lovells, lords of Well-Hall, and became united to it, and so continues; being conveyed from the Athows, so to Sir Simon Taylor, and And. Taylor, Esq. and to William Folkes, Esq. the present lord, in right of ——— his wife, sister and coheir of the said Andrew.

CHERVILE'S MANOR.

On the deprivation of Alfeith, a freeman, Roger Bygot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had a grant of this lordship, and Robert de Faux held it under Bygot, at the survey. Two carucates, with 2 acres of land, 14 borderers, 4 servi, one carucate among the tenants, 6 acres of meadow, &c. belonged to it in Alfith's time, &c. There also then belonged to it 3 freemen under protection only, with 60 acres, and Herold had the sock, valued at 40s. Wihenoc had taken away 30 acres from the domain lands, and Bygot laid claim to them as the gift of the King; to this manor also belonged a church, endowed with 30 acres, valued at 2s. and 6d.<sup>2</sup> Herold, who had 3 men under his protection, &c. was King of England; and this land, on his death, was granted to Bygot.

This manor took its name from its ancient lords, the Cherviles; Roger Chervile was found to hold one fee here, &c. of John de Vaux, in the reign of Edward I. and, in the reign of Edward III. Roger de Chervile presented to the church of St. Mary, as lord, who then held it of Sir Thomas de Norford; to which family it came by the marriage of Petronella, one of the daughters and heirs of John de Vaux.

About the reign of Henry V. on the death of Roger Chervile, the last heir male of this family, (as I take it,) it was divided into parts, and came to his daughters and coheirs; one of which (Christian) was the widow of Richard Grace, and presented to the church of St. Mary in 1425: this Christian was afterwards (as it is said) wife to Thomas Rous of Walton; but the manor, with the advowson of the church of St. Mary, was in the hands of Thomas Mannyng of Elyngham Magna, who presented to that church in 1430;<sup>3</sup> but in 1476, Henry Spelman, Esq. of Narburgh, was lord, by the marriage of Christian, daughter and coheir of Thomas Mannyng, who died lord, and was found to hold the same by fealty of the manor of Well-Hall, and paying the rent of 13s. per ann. Thomas, son of Henry, left it, by will, in 1499, to Ann his wife, till John his son was 21 years old. Soon after the death of this John, who died sans issue, it came into the family of the De Greys of Merton, by the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Spelman, to William de Grey, Esq. in which it continued, till Thomas de Grey, Esq. sold it about the year 1722, to Mr. Robert Harvey, whose grandson, Edward Harvey, Gent. of Watton, has conveyed it to Andrew Tayler, Esq. lord of Well-Hall, who died lord in 1760, and his estate came to William Fowks, Esq. by the marriage of a sister of the said Andrew.

The tete of this town, with that part of Shingham, which is in the hundred of Clacklose, is in Sir George Hare, Barr.; the fee is 4s.

In the 16th of Richard II. Thomas More, and others, aliened lands here to the prior of Ingham.

In 1428, the temporalities of the abbey of West Derham, with the priory of St. Winwaloy, were valued at 4l. 10s. 8d. per ann.

The spiritualities of the college of Stoke by Clare, at 20s. being a portion out of the church of All-Saints; and the portion of the priory of St. Noets, in the said church, at 4s. 6d.

The town of Bycham is remarkable for an ancient Saxon dike, extending from it to the town of Narburgh, dividing the hundred of Clacklose (of which the abbey of Ramsey had the lordship) from the hundred of South-Greenhoe. Some conceive, that this town takes its name from this dike or ditch, and is called Bycham, quasi, By-Ditch-Ham: but as this dike is generally believed to be raised with its bank, by that monastery, as a boundary of their limits and liberties, in this open champaign country, it seems to me to be so called by the Saxons, before that abbey was founded, which was not before the year 974.—This dyke, in the 3d of Edward I. was called Mikeldick, (or the great dike,) and the Earl of Gloucester had a gallows here between Barton and Bycham.

The tenths were 10l.—Deducted 18s.

<sup>3</sup> This Thomas seems more probably by her, (Christian), who brought the to have married Christian, the widow of manor and advowson to Henry Spelman, Richard, and Grace to have a daughter Esq.

BEACHAM WELL, ALL-SAINTS. This church, which is now in ruins, stood about a quarter of a mile south of the town of Bycham, in a close near to Well-Hall. It was a single building, built of flint and boulder; the greatest part of the walls, both of the church and chancel, were lately standing, with the east gable of the chancel, and the west one of the church; whereon are the arms of Athow impaling Wingfield, and the year 1612. The length of the church was about 42 feet, and the breadth about 18; and, on the north wall is an old enarched stone monument wrought up with the wall, carved, and rising in the centre of the arch, with a floral pyramid; but no arms or inscription are remaining. The chancel, in length, about 34 feet, and the breadth the same with the nave; and a very neat arch of stone between the church and chancel, is still standing. Near the north-east end of the chancel wall stood, a few years past, a very stately altar monument of marble and alabaster, with a wall-piece of the same, now in entire ruins; but, in the year 1721, when I first viewed it, I found this inscription on the body of it.

*Nomina exituum prædict. Thomæ et Annæ,—1. Wingfield Athow, natus 18 Martii, 1590.—2. Johan. Athow, natus 20 Septemb. 1592, hic duxit in uxorem Ceciliam filiam seniore Johani Lunsford militis.—3. Under this inscription another; viz. the names by which the several coats are borne, in the highest two escutcheons; in the first Athow and Curson are quartered; in the escutcheon upon the same, 1, Wingfield; 2, Bovile; 3, Gowsell; 4, Albany Earl of Arundell. This church (as I have observed) is now in ruins ; weeds, briars, elders, &c. growing therein, and lies open for cattle, &c. to enter. Its fall was owing to this ; the lords of the manor of Well-Hall having the privilege of burial in the chancel, were obliged, by immemorial custom, to keep in repair that part of the chancel to which their burial-place belonged ; and, on the conveyance of the lordship to the late lords, this being contested, and not set aright in time, not only the chancel, but the whole church fell by this neglect ; and the aforesaid elegant monument, being by this means exposed to all injuries, is now ruined, and beat into pieces : and it is a matter of very great concern, that monuments set up in sacred places should be thus violated, when they serve also for many noble ends and services ; being the best of evidences to prove descents and pedigrees ; memorials to put men in mind of their own mortality, and examples, whereby men may be incited to imitate those virtues which have rendered others honourable and praise-worthy. This monument was in memory of Thomas Athow, Esq. serjeant at law,<sup>4</sup> who was buried here September —, 1630, and of Ann his wife, daughter and heir of John Wingfeld, Esq. who brought, by marriage, the above-observed noble quartered coats into the Athow family.—The Athows were a very ancient family.—William Atte Howe flourished in the reign of King Henry III. and died in his pilgrimage to St. James of Compostella in Spain, leaving Richard Atte Howe, his son and heir, under age, a ward to Thomas de Snyterton ; which Richard held lands in Seugham and Taterford, by knight's service. *Rot. ST. JOHN. This church (which is now in ruins) stands on the north-west part of the township of Beecham-Wells; part of the north wall of the nave is standing, as is part of the four-square tower, as high as the sounding windows; which tower and church was built of flint, &c. The church, as appears from the foundation, was about 66 feet in length; and, on the site of the church some poor people have made themselves little cottages. The patronage of this church seems to have belonged always to the lords of Welt-hall; and they who held that lordship of the capital lord, presented to it. Hugh de St. Philebert was patron about the beginning of Edward I.

1737, Robert Say, A. M. the present rector, (was the vicar also of Stcaffham.) on Ibbot's death, by the Bishop, a lapse.

Here was in this church, in 1420, the guild of St. John, and paid Peter-pence, 8*d.*

It is a rectory, valued at 5*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* discharged of first fruits and tenths, together with the rectory of St. Mary, to which it was consolidated in 1686, and is of the yearly value of 48*l.* 0*s.* 8*d.*

ST. MARY. This church stands at the east end of the township of Beacham-Well; it has a nave, with a south isle annexed, and a chancel, built of flint stone, boulder, &c. The nave is in length about 29 feet, and in breadth, with the south isle, about 26. On the pavement, near the east end, lies a gray marble, on which is a demi-portraiture of a priest, hands erect and conjoined; and, on a brass plate, this inscription:

Hic jacet Dns. Johes. Grimston quonda. rector isti' ecclie. qui obiit viii die mens. Novemb. anno Dni. m.cccc.xxx.cuj' aie. p'pitictur Deus, Amen.

In a north window, near the pulpit, is this shield; (see Plate I. fig. 2.)—azure, a lion rampant, or, bearing in his dexter paw a cross croslet bottony, fitché, argent, Beckingham, as I take it. This nave is covered with reed, and has a porch annexed to it, covered with tile. At the west end of the nave is a round tower of flint, &c. On this (which rises as high as the roof of the nave) is raised an octangular one, (and on that a shaft, covered with lead, is a weathercock) and one bell. There was a church here in the time of the Conqueror, as appears from the Domesday-Book; and Harold, as we there find, had the soc of that manor to which this church belonged. The south isle, which has been erected not many centuries, is covered with lead, and has served for some chapel to a chantry priest. On the pavement before the east-end, lies a gray marble, with the portraiture of a priest, vested for the altar; but the plate of brass, with the inscription, and other brass ornaments, are now reaved. The chancel is separated from the nave, by an old wooden screen, and is about 26 feet in length, and 13 in breadth, covered with reed. The communion table is railed in, and has an ascent of two steps. In the upper south window are the figures of St. Augustine, and St. Dunstan, the archbishops, painted in the glass. On the north side is a vestry, having a stone stair case, by which it appears here was formerly a room over it, but the floor is now taken away; this is covered with lead. Some years past, Mr. Ibbot the rector found under the pavement of the chancel two pieces of alabaster about two feet each in length; one piece had the effigies of two persons taking down our Saviour from the cross, that of the Virgin, and St. John standing by the cross; the other had that of St. Peter, with a key and a book in his hands; they had been curiously gilt and painted, were well carved, and no doubt were buried here, (about the time of the Reformation,) as are many other such-like figures, most probably in other churches.

That there was a church here, and endowed with 30 acres of land, at the conquest, appears from the general survey; the patronage of it was then belonging to that manor, which Roger Bigot held, which is now called the manor of Chervill's, and it continues in the said lordship at this day.

BUCKTON, OR BOUGHTON,

CALLLED Buchetuna in Domesday, from a winding water or rivulet, that divides it from Bartou and Óxburgh, or from that large pond on the hill, in the centre of the town, and then consisted of two lordships, Over-Hall and Nether-Hall. Thus Buxton, or Buckston, in South Erpingham hundred, is wrote Buchestuna in Domesday Book; also Buckworth, and Buckbroke.

OVER-HALL.

On Turchill's deprivation, this lordship was granted by the Conqueror to Rainald, son of Ivo; it consisted of a carucate, and 24 acres of land, 5 villains, 2 servi, 10 acres of meadow, and a carucate in demean, one runcus, 4 cows, &c. and 126 sheep; 5 socmen belonged to it, with 12 acres, and Ralph held it under Rainald; it was valued at 40s. at the survey at 62s. and 6d. All the town was 5 furlongs long, and four broad, and paid 8d. to a 20s. gelt.<sup>8</sup>

From Rainald, the capital lord, it came to the Earls of Clare; and, by inquisitions taken in the reign of King Henry III. Richard Fitz-Simon was found to hold the fourth part of a fee of the Earl of Clare; the said Richard had also a carucate of the King, paying 6 marks per ann. into the Exchequer.<sup>9</sup> This was the land of William Bygod, eschaeted to the King; which 6 marks seem to be granted afterwards to Miles de Brompton, who, with Beatrix his wife, in the 3d of Edward I. released all their right in the said land, and the rent of 6 marks per ann. aforesaid, to Richard.

After this, Roger, son of Hugh de Buckton, seems to be lord, who gave, by deed, sans date, to the abbey of West-Derham, lands in the field of Kyppehowe, and the liberty of half a foldcourse here, as appears by his deed, sealed with a de-lis.<sup>1</sup>

In the 9th of Edward II. Thomas de Hindringham possessed it; and, in the 5th year of Edward III. Margaret de Hindringham gave by her deed, dated on Sunday before the feast of St. Catherine, to her sister Agnes, and her heirs, the reversion of this manor, which Nickolau, relict of Sir Thomas de Hindringham, holds for life, they being sisters and coheirs to the said Sir Thomas. This Agnes was (as I conceive) the wife of John de Wyleby, or Wilbey, in the 17th of the said King. It appears, that a fine was then levied between John de Wylbegh, and

Agnes his wife, querents, and John his son, Robert de Wylbegh, parson of Ketelburgh, and Alexander, parson of Horsham, deforcients, of this lordship; and, in the 20th of the said reign, John de Wilbey was found to hold the fourth part of a fee of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare, which Richard Fitz-Simon formerly held.

In the 35th of Edward III. William de Wilbey, second son of John, kept his court as lord, on Monday before the feast of St. Michael; and, in the 3d of Henry IV. John de Wilby occurs lord. After this, Richard Tooth of Werham, and Mary his wife, grant it to Roger Davy, and Alice his wife, and John Davy, Esq. his son, of Tofls, by Bircham; on his death, it descended to Margery, wife of Alexander Marshall, one of the daughters and heirs of Alice Charles, daughter and heir of John Davy; which Alexander and Margery held a court here, in the 27th of Henry VI. ———. Her daughter and heir Elizabeth brought it by marriage to David Orrell, whose son, Sir Lewis Orrell, sold it to George Monox, Esq. citizen and alderman (afterwards Knt. and Lord Mayor) of London, who kept his court here, October 18, in the 18th of Henry VIII. as did Thomas Monox, Esq. in the 25th of the said King. After this it came to the Lovels, lords of Nether-Hall; and Sir Thomas Lovell of Herling sold it, in the 24th of Queen Elizabeth, to Francis Gawdy, Esq. serjeant at law, and afterwards lord chief justice of the Common Pleas, by the marriage of whose grand-daughter it came to Robert Rich Earl of Warwick. From this family it was sold, about the beginning of King Charles the First's reign, to Sir John Hare of Stow Bardolf, whose immediate heir and descendant, Sir Geo. Hare, Bart. was the late lord.

NETHER-HALL.

Ailed was lord of this manor in the Confessor's time, but at the survey, Ralph Baniard, a Norman baron. In Ailed's time, there was one carucate, 5 borderers, but Baniard had 7, one slave, one carucate in demesne, and one among the tenants; but at the survey, half a carucate, and 6 acres of meadow, &c. To this belonged a church, endowed with 20 acres, valued at 20*d.* the lordship was worth 40*s.* per ann. and 7 socmen belonged to it, who held lands, &c. valued at 10*s.* per ann.<sup>2</sup>

William Lord Baynard, rebelling against King Henry I. forfeited it, and that King gave it to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz-Gilbert, ancestor to the Earls of Clare. From this Robert, the noble family of Fitz-Walter, Barons of the realm, descended. By the inquisitions, in the time of King Henry III. John de Aula (or Hall) was found to hold the fourth part of a fee of Robert, Lord Fitz-Walter; and in the said family it was, in the 3d of Edward I.

In the 21st of Edward III. John de Aula son of Robert de Aula, gave to John de Well, citizen of Norwich, and John Hall, chaplain of Bukton, a messuage, with a croft, and all his lands, rents, reliefs, eschaests;

but, in the 21th of that King, Sir Rober de Caston was lord, his bailiff giving in his accounts for it, on the feast of St. Margaret.<sup>3</sup>

On the vigil of St. Bartholomew, in the 37th of said reign, Richard Fransham, rector of Aylmerston, kept his court as lord. Soon after this, it was in the family of the Lovels of Barton Bendish. Thoma Lovell, Esq. by his last will, dated August 16, 1421, wills this manor, &c. to remain in his feoffees hands till his debts be paid, which descended to him from his father William. In this family it remained till Sir Thomas Lovell sold it to Gaudy, and so came after to the Hares; Sir George Hare being the late lord.

The lete was in Sir Geo. Hare, Bart lord of the hundred.

The Church is dedicated to All-Saints, and is an ancient building, built of flint and boulder; the nave is about 35 feet in length, and about 23 in breadth, covered with thatch; at the west end stands a four square tower of the aforesaid materials, embattled, with quoins &c. ornamented with 4 pinnacles of free stone; on this a spire of wood covered with lead: this tower was erected about the year 1416, when John Elvered, rector of Oxburgh, left, by will, 3s. 4d. to the new tower here, in which hang 3 bells. The chancel is in length about 25 feet, and in breadth about 16, covered with thatch, &c. and the communion table is railed in. On the top of the spire was a cross, which, in 1644, was taken down, and the churchwarden then paid 3s. 4d. on that account, and charged in his rates, as he did 6s. 8d. for one Gully's taking a view of the church,<sup>4</sup> and charged 2s. for going to Lynn to take the covenant.

Soon after, taking part with the rebellious barons, his estate was taken from him by the King, and given to Jeff. de Scarijs;<sup>5</sup> but, in the 49th of the said King, he occurs lord, and Peter de Bekeswell is said to be his son and heir.—In the 3d of Edward I. the privileges above-mentioned, with wayfs, &c. and the lete here, and in Ryston and Fordham, were allowed to William de Bekeswell, and, in the 9th of Edward II. John de Bexwell was lord; and, in the 5th of Henry VIII. Richard Bexwell, alias Shordich.<sup>6</sup> In the 1st of Edward VI. John Bexwell, alias Shordich, died seized of it; in 1577, Frances Bexwell enjoyed it; and Henry Bexwell, Esq. dying in 1654, left it to his daughter and heir, Frances married to Robert Aprice, Esq. of Washingly in Huntingdonshire, who conveyed it to Sir John Holland of Quidenham, in Norfolk, Bart. and from that family, it came to John Holt, Esq. of Redgrave in Suffolk about the beginning of the reign of King George I. in which family it remains.

The other moiety seems to be held by Hermerus de Bekeswell, in the 4th of King John, when Thomas de Ingaldesthorp had the dower of Sibill his wife, assigned him here, she being the relict of Peter de Bekeswell.<sup>7</sup> This seems to be held by Richard de Albany and Gundreda his wife, and Matilda de Dean, in the time of Henry III.; and, in the 6th of Edward I. a fine was levied between Hugh Bishop of Ely, querent, and Stephen de Bekeswell and Gundreda his wife, deforcients, of the advowson of the church here, and an acre of land, granted to the Bishop, quit of the heirs of Gundreda. About this time, Stephen de Mushill, (who gave name to a house in the parish,) Stephen de Dunneby, and John de Deen, held a messuage, and 120 acres of land, with free tenants, villains, &c. of the Bishop of Ely, had free bull and boar, and assise of bread and beer of their tenants; but, in the 15th of the said King, a fine was levied between Robert de Benhale, querent, John, son of Henry de Deen of Deen in Northamptonshire, and Maud his wife, deforcients, of one messuage and lands here, in Fordham, Ryston, &c. (saving to John and Maud the capital messuage here, with the homages and services of the freemen and villains, and the dower of Alice, widow of William de Bekeswell, heid of Maud's inheritance,) the advowson of Ryston, with the advowson of a moiety of Fordham, being granted to the aforesaid Robert, to be held of John and Maud, and the heirs of Maud, paying a rose yearly, and Robert granted to them in exchange all his lands in Deen; and, in the 9th of Edward II. Henry de Dene was lord.

In the 3d of Edward III. a fine was levied between Hugh Catchare of Bekeswell, and Maud his wife, querents, and William Attemere, &c. deforcients, of fifteen messuages, 188 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 29s. per ann. &c. rents, here, in Ruston, Fordham, &c. settled on Hugh and Maud for life, remainder to Cecil, and Alice, the daughter of Hugh; and by the inquisitions made in the 20th of that King, John de Bexwell, and Henry de Deen were found to hold the moiety of a fee of the Bishop of Ely, held formerly by Richard de Albany and his wife, and Matilda de Deen.

After this, I find it possessed by Edward Batchcroft, in the time of Henry VII. and William Batchcroft of Bexwell, by his will, dated 8th of March, 1507, and proved 2d of July following, bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of Fincham St. Martin, and gives 13s. 4d. to repair the steeple of Bexwell;<sup>8</sup> this manor here, with that of Watersett, in Bexwell (which he bought of Sir Philip Tibney) to his son and heir Richard (and his heirs) when he cometh to the age of 24 years, with all his manors in Norfolk and Suffolk, which were not his wife Margaret's jointure; appoints his brother Gilbert Batchcroft, and John Fincham of Fincham, executors, and his cousin John Fincham of Outwell, supervisor. Richard, his son and heir, died (seized of this moiety, and the manor of Watersett, held of the Bishop of Ely) June 27, 1549, and left by his wife Margaret, Thomas his son and heir, aged 12 years, who was lord in 1572, and Richard Batchcroft in 1642. In 1658, Francis Batchcroft, Esq. dying lord, his sisters and coheirs sold it to Sir John Holland, from which family it came to the Holts, as is above showed.

Hermerus de Ferrers had also a manor here, which, in the Confessor's time, consisted of a carucate of land, held by 7 freemen, and 3 carucates held by 3 bordarers; half a fish-pool, 5 acres of meadow, with a church endowed with 24 acres of land, valued at 16*d.* the whole was 12*s.* per ann.<sup>9</sup> This the said Hermerus seized, but the lord before him had only the protection of these freemen, &c.—Roger Bigot had also at the survey a lordship. R. son of Erluin, who held 20 acres, valued at 2*s.* 8*d.* In the Confessor's time, a freeman held it of Herold. This lordship of Hermerus de Ferrers, and that of Bigot, came soon after to the Barons of Wirmegey, and made part of that honour, held by the Lords Bardolf.

In the 41st of Henry III. William de Bekeswell held half a carucate of William Lord Bardolf, and paid to him half a mark per ann. About the same time, Robert Catt, and Margaret his wife, held the 3d part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf.<sup>1</sup> About the beginning of Edward the First's reign, John de Mushill, and Nicholas de Stradsete held here in dower, with his wife, a messuage, 46 acres of land, and 5 of meadow in domain of the said lord, paying 5*s.* per ann. and in the 14th of that King, a fine was levied between Henry le Catt, querent, and Walter de Thorp, deforciant, of messuages, lands, rents, 2 pools here, &c. which Nicholas de Stradset, and Agnes his wife held in dower, now conveyed to Henry, and this was held by the heirs of Catt in the 20th of Edward III.

In the 16th of Henry VI. John Stourton, and others, were pardoned for purchasing without license of the dean of Wells, 300 acres of land and meadow here, and in Wroxham, &c. held of the honour of Wirmegeye.—This afterwards came to the Batchcrofts, and so was united to the aforesaid lordships.

Rainold, son of Ivo, is also found to have a lordship here; two freemen which he seized on, who held land in the time of King

Edward, one of them 15 acres valued at 2s. 8d. the other 3 acres, valued at 6d.<sup>2</sup> Before this, the protection only of the first freeman was in his predecessor.

This land of Rainold came soon after to the Earls of Clare, and was, as I take it, part of the manor of Crimplesham, which extended into this town. In the reign of Edward I. William Catchare held one messuage, one carucate, and 18 acres of meadow in Bekeswell, in domain of the prior of Shouldham, paying 30s. per ann. and had a free bull and boar, assise of his tenants; the prior held of Richard Lord Fitz John, and he in capite; and, before this, the family of Belet, in the 52d of Henry III. possessed lands here, held of the Earl of Clare, and paying a quit-rent for the same of 10s. per ann. Robert Belet died seized of it,  Ao. S. Edward II. This came to the Wesenhams, and was conveyed by them to John de Bekeswell, and so became united to the then manor of Bexwell. Robert Wesenham, brother and heir of Thomas, son and heir of Robert Wesenham of Bekeswell, in the 9th of Henry VI. was lord.

Ralph Lord Baynard had also the grant of a lordship here, consisting of a carucate of land, held by 12 freemen, and 4 villains, with 3 carneates and 10 acres of meadow, valued at 40s. One of the freemen who held 30 acres, was claimed by way of an exchange by the Earl Warren. All Becheswell is half a leuca long and half a one broad, pays 8d. towards a 20s. gelt.<sup>3</sup>

This Lord Bainard's manor lay principally in Fincham, and extended here, as I take it, and was forfeited by William Lord Bainard, in the reign of Henry I. The chief of this fee seems to have been united very early to the other manors. All the account I meet with is, that the Finchams of Fincham held lands here of the Earl Warren. About the beginning of Edward I. William Catchare held a parcel of arable land of Step. de Dunneby, and John de Deen, paying 2s. per ann. which Step. holds of Roger de Well, and Roger of the Earl Warren.<sup>4</sup> In the 23d of Edward I. a fine was levied between John de Fincham, and Nicholas his brother, querents, and Thomas de la Chambre, and Margaret his wife, deforcients, of messuages and lands here; and in the 45th of Edward III. Steph. de Talbot of Fincham was found to hold lands here; soon after, it is probable, the whole was united to the aforesaid manor.

The lete was formerly in the abbot of Ramsey, and was in Sir Geo. Hare, Bart. Lete fee sixpence halfpenny.

The temporalities of the prior of Shouldham here, were valued in 1428 at 30s.

The temporalities of the abbot of Ramsey, at 15s. and 2*d.*

The temporalities of the prior of Westacre, at 12*d.*

The prior of Pentney had lands held of the Lord Bardolf.

BEXWELL'S PEDIGREE.

The Bexwell's bore quarterly in first and fourth, argent and crmine, a cross, gules, over all a bend, sable, Shorditch;—and in the 2d and 3d, argent, 3, 2, and 1, annulets, sab. in a bordure ingrailed, gules, Bexwell.

BATCHCROFT'S PEDIGREE.

The Church of Bexwell is dedicated to St. Mary, and built of rag or car stone, dug out of the neighbouring pits; it has a nave and a chancel, both of equal height and breadth, and covered with lead. At the west end stands a round tower, and on that an octangular one; the quoins of every angle are of free-stone, and the upper part embattled; a work of later date probably erected on the decay of the old round tower about 1517, when William Batchcroft, of this town, by his will bequeathed to the stepyl 13s. 4d. In this tower hangs one bell. The nave is about 46 feet in length, and 19 in breadth. At the west end, on the pavement, lies a marble grave-stone:

Here lyeth the body of Henry Bexwell, Esq. born October, 17, 1581, buried July 8, 1654.

Higher up another:

Here lyeth the body of Gregory Bexwell, Esq. who was born the 19th of Febr. An. Dom. 1577, buried 15th day of March, 1644, with the arms of Bexwell on it.

On a third:

Here lyeth the body of Richard Batchcroft, Esq. who was born December 16, 1562, was buried March 1642.

Against the south wall of the nave is a mural monument of alabaster; on the summit are these three shields; Bexwell impaling, argent, on a chevron, between three pellets, two in chief charged with as many martlets, and one in base with a trefoil, argent, three mascles, or, Pratt; Bexwell alone, and Pratt alone. On a black marble in the centre:

In hac nave subposita sunt reliquie Henrici Bexwell in hoc agro Norfolk. armig. in quo gens illa nobilis et antiqua mascula desinit, ad senium vergens uxorem duxit Ursulam e proxima Prattorum de Riston nobili itidem prosapia oriundam, e qua tres habuit liberos, Gregorium Susannam, vivente patre mortuos, et Franciscam solummodo superstitem. Natus erat Henricus Octob. 17, 1581, obiit Julii 8, 1654. Mærens Ursula hoc sic fixum voluit.—On each side of this inscription is a lace or fillet by way of ornament; over that, on the right hand, is an hour-glass, and over that on the left, a book is carved. On the basis;—Tu temet lector lectites diesq; tuos numera, &c. Ut Psal. 90, 12.

Opposite to this, on the north wall, is another mural monument of black and white marble, with this shield; per fess, or and argent, a lion rampant, sable,—Batchcroft; impaling, gules, a saltire engrailed, or, on a chief, of the second, three cross crosslets, of the first, Longe; and thus inscribed:

Hic jacet Franciscus Batchcroft de Bexwell in agro Norf. armig. qui uxorem duxit Margaretam Roberti Louge de Foulden, armig. filium, adhuc superstitem. Sobolem nullam, cohæredes sorores suas charissimas, Annam, Elizabetham, et Aliciam, reliquit. Quæ memoriæ suæ sacr. hoc condiderunt monumentum. Obiit 13<sup>o</sup> die Novemb. Ao. ætat. suæ 42, Ao. Dni. 1658.

The chancel is in length about 24 feet. On the pavement are grave-stones thus inscribed:

Richs. et Maria proles Richi. Foster, cler. ex Eliza. conjuge nati sunt utriq; 3 id. Nov. alter 1712, altera 1717, sepulti cal. Maii, alter 1713, altera 1718. Johs. item qui natus est 5 id. Maii, obiit — 1719.— Here lyeth the body of John Foster, born May 8, and buried September 10, 1722.— Here lyeth Susan, daughter of Henry Bexwell, born April 26, 1645, buried September 20, 1646.

CRIMPLESHAM.

RAINOLD son of Ivo, had a grant from the Conqueror of the lordship that Ailed, a free woman, was deprived of, which she possessed in King Edward's reign, consisting of 2 carucates of land, 8 villans, 4 bordarers, 7 servi, and 8 acres of meadow. There were then in demean 3 carucates, and at the survey 4, one fishpond, one runcus, 2 cows, 2 swine, 240 sheep; at the survey 300. Twenty freemen also belonged to this manor, of whom the lord had the soc, with their protection, or commendation, with 60 acres of land; formerly they had a carueate and a half, at the survey one carucate.

In the same town Turchill held a carucate of land, with a bordarer, and one servus, 8 acres of meadow, a moiety of a fishery; 5 freemen also belonged to it, with 4 acres, who were under the commendation and soc only of Turchill. When Rainald had the grant of these, they were valued at 8*l.* per ann.

These freemen also had a carucate of land, with 4 bordarers, and 12 acres of meadow, and of these Turchill had the commendation, with all customary dues; this was granted to Rainald, valued at 16s. but at the survey at 9s.—All Crimplesham with Toimere (a town adjoining) was one leuca long, and a leuca broad, and paid 8*d.* to the gelt, when the hundred paid 20s. whoever was lord.<sup>6</sup>

Rainald was a Norman baron, attended William Duke of Normandy in his invasion; and, on the conquest of England, was rewarded for his services with this lordship; those of Fincham, Barton, Toimere, Werham, Stoke, Boughton, Shouldham, Bicham-Well, Foston, in the hundred of Clackclose;—those of West Winch, Wiche, and Massingham in Frebridge hundred—of Stanford in Grimsho hundred—of Caldecot Cley, Pickenham Houghton, in South Greenhow hundred—of Panworth, Ashley, Thrextan, in Weyland hundred—of Sutton, in Launditch hundred—of Yaxham, in Milford hundred—of Ponsthorp, in Gollow hundred—Rainham, in Brothercross hundred—Wiveton, in Holt hundred—Walsingham Magna and Parva, and Stukey, in North Greenhow hundred—of Carleton, in Loddon hundred—of Whitwell, Wichingham, Haverland, Norton, in Eynford hundred—Felthorp, in Taverham hundred—Scothow, Ingworth, Torton, Caston, Banningham, in South Erpingham hundred—Stoley, in Tunsted hundred. From Raynald, it came to the Earls of Clare.—Gilbert Clare Earl of Clare gave the church, as lord, in the reign of William II. to the priory of Clare.

This Gilbert is called in Domesday-book, Gilbert, son of Richer Earl of Briou in France, and attended the Conqueror into England; was ancestor of the Earls of Clare. He with Richard his son, and Rohaise his wife, were great benefactors to the abbey of Bec in Normandy; and as this Gilbert had the lordship of Clare in Suffolk in 1190, and was after a cell of Benedictine monks, to that abbey, so it is reasonable to conclude, that he was also lord of this town; and Gilbert, son of Richard, who died 1151, we are told by a French antiquary, was buried at Clare, a cell which Gilbert his grandfather had given to the monks of Bec.

STOKE-CLARE PRIORY, OR COLLEGE MANOR.

RICHARD DE CLARE Earl of Clare and Gloucester, is said to have removed the cell at the priory of Clare, to Stoke-Clare in Suffolk, in 1224, and to have endowed it with a lordship in this town; and in the 52*d* of Henry III. that prior had a park here.

John de Aula, or Hall, of this town, held a messuage, 72 acres of land, 8 of meadow, with 14*s.* rent of divers free tenants, of the prior,

PRIOR OF TUNBRIDGE'S MANOR.

RICHARD DE CLARE abovementioned, founder of this priory, endowed it with a lordship in this town: Walter, son of Adam Davy, held it in the reign of King Henry III. of the priory, by the eighth part of a fee; and, by a pleading in the 25th of Edward I. it was found that certain lands here, called Inglewith, Stafford, North and South field, belonged to this priory. In the 8th of Edward III. and the 3d of Henry IV. the heirs of Davy are said to possess it.

On the dissolution, it came to the Crown, and so remained, till on the 20th of October, in the 6th of James I. it was granted to Robert and Thomas Derham for the sum of 64*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.* with a capital messuage, and 115 acres of arable land, valued at 5*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* per ann. eschaets valued at 12*s.* twelve acres of mowing ground at 12*s.* 3*d.* of pasture at 18*d.* per ann. Rent of assise, due at St. Michael, 15*s.* at St. Andrew 15*s.* and the same at Easter, with one pound of cumin, valued at 1*d.* the hens at Christmas, valued at 9*d.* perquisites of court 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann.

CRIMPLESHAM'S, TALBOT'S, COLDHAM'S, AND WESENHAM'S MANOR.

Besides the two lordships above specified, several persons held of the Earls of Gloucester and Clare (the capital lords) certain lands, and had an interest herein. Gilbert de Crimphesham was lord, and witness to a deed of Sampson, abbot of Bury. King John, in his 18th year, October 11, grants to his beloved clerk, John de Pavilly, all his lands here, which were Roger de Crimphesham's, with the appertanances, and commands the good tenants to perform all that was incumbent on them; dated at Lyn,<sup>8</sup> and this but a few days before his death. Theodore de Crimphesham was lord in the 34th of Henry III. and in the following year, the Earl of Gloucester, as capital lord, had the privilege of a gallows, felon's goods, &c. frank-pledge, assise, the lete or his tenants, and would not permit the King's bailif to enter into his lordship. William Criketot, who married Maud, daughter of Peter de Crimphesham, held in her right 4 messuages, a carucate of land, 20 acres of meadow, paying 26*s.* per ann. and had free bull and boar.

Anselm de Lound had also the 8th part of a fee, which came by his daughter to Robert Bardolf, and so to Sir Ingegram Belet, as in Werham.—Ralph de Wyrlham held in the said reign of Henry III. a messuage, one carucate of land, 6 acres of meadow in demean; and

William de Bereford 2 messuagss, with 60 acres of land, and 10 of meadow, of the Earl of Gloucester, as appears from a roll, by the 8th part of a fee.

In the 21st of Edward III. Ralph de Stafford, and Margaret his wife, convey to John de Weseham, citizen of London, a lordship from the heirs of Margaret. Maud de Bereford, also, in the of 20th Edward III. the 8th part of a fee; and Stephen de Talbot held lands here, in Derham, &c. as by the escheats in the 45th of Edward III.

After this, in the 22d of Richard II. it was in the family of the Derhams. Ralph de Derham was found to have held at his death the 8th part, and the 6th part of a fee of Roger Mortimer Earl of March, in this town, Derham, &c.; and, in the 13th of Edward IV. Thomas Derham Esq. was found to die seized of the manor of Weseham, held by the 4th part of a fee; and Thomas was his son and heir, aged one year; and William Purchase had a grant of the custody of him, and his lands.

In the reign of James I. Thomas Derham, Esq. was lord of Weseham, Coldham, and Talbot manors, all which being united, were sold by the Derhams (of whom see in West Derham) to the Soames; and Colonel Edward Soame died lord in 1706, whose daughter and heir, Mary, brought them by marriage to Soame Jenyns, Esq. of Bottleham-hall in Cambridgeshire, (son and heir of Sir Roger Jenyns, Knt. by Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Peter Soame, Bart.) member of parliament for the town of Cambridge, and one of the honourable lords of trade and the plantations, who is lord of the whole town.

In the 32d of Henry VIII. Thomas Derham had the grant, December 8, of the messuage and lands here belonging to the abbey of West-Derham.

The tenths were 5*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.*—Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and was a rectory, Gilbert de Clare, Earl of Clare and Brion in Normandy, gave in the reign of William II. the lordship and the church of St. John of Clare in Suffolk, to the abbey of Bec in Normandy;* and this church was confirmed to them by Pope Alexander III. and was appropriated, the spiritualities being taxed at 20 marks, (a vicarage was settled, valued at 40*s.*) and there belonged to it a manor with 50 acres of land.

After this, I meet with no presentation, the great and small tithes being leased out by the Bishop of Ely to his tenants, and so is now served by a stipendiary curate, and still stands charged at 8l. as a vicarage in the Valor Beneficiorum.

In this church was the guild of St. Mary.—It is a single pile, with a chancel covered with reed, and built of coarse stone, found in the neighbourhood; has a square tower, embattled, &c. with 5 large bells. On the pavement of the church lie some old marble grave-stones deprived of their brasses, in remembrance, probably, of the Derhams. Baldwin Derham, Gent. of Crimplesham, by his will dated in Febr. 1527, requires to be buried in the church near the south door; and, in the reign of Henry VI. there was a chantry founded here for Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Derham, Esq. of this town, daughter and heir of Baldwin Vere of Denver, Esq. brother of Robert de Vere of Adlington in Northamptonshire, Esq.—Thomas Derham, Esq. buried here  Ao. 13th Edward IV.

Queen Elizabeth, on the petition of Henry Lord Wentworth, granted, August 8, Ao. 27, to Theophilus Adams, and Thomas Butler of London, Gent. certain messuages, with considerable lands, late belonging to the college of Stoke, held of the King, as of the honour of Clare, in soccage, by Thomas Crimplesham.

The town takes its name from a small creeping run, or stream of water, here rising, and proceeding to West-Derham.

T O I M E R E

WAS a town near to Crimplesham, and held by Rainald, son of Ivo. At the survey, there were 3 freemen who had the liberty of the lord's fold, and were under his protection, with other freemen belonging to the soc of St. Bennet (that is of Ramsey abbey) valued at 14*d.* and one freemen, with 40 acres valued at 2*s.* and was included in its length, &c. and gelt under Crimplesham, having the same lord.<sup>2</sup>

This lordship came with Crimplesham to the Earls of Clare. The town has been destroyed time immemorial; the site was in or near the closes, now called great and little Tombers, which are now in Stradset, and was standing about the reign of Henry III. by a deed sans date, John de Houghe de Wallington conveyed to Roger son of John Aylmer of Tomers in Torpe, for 10*s.* and paying homage and service to him, 3 roods of land in the field of Tomers:—witnesses, R. Russel, of Thorp, Hubert Hakun of Shouldham, John Trusbut of the same, &c. it also appears from an old roll, that the late fee was anciently 6*d.* and held by the abbot of Ramsey.

Great and little Tomers, in Stradset (that is, Shouldam-Thorp) closes, were sold by Charles Cornwallis, Esq. to Hugh Hare, Esq. Nov. 2, in the 17th of Elizabeth; and Sir George Hare possessed them as lord.

It took its name from two small meers, or stagnating waters.

D E N V E R,

CALLED in Domesday-Book Danfella and Danfala, seated in a valley by the water. Here were two lordships, one of which (afterwards named Westhall) was held by Hugh, under the Earl Warren, who had a grant of it on the deprivation of Alric, a freeman, who was lord in King Edward's reign, when it contained 2 carucates of land, and 3 acres, 2 carucates in demean, with 12 bordarers, and 3 freemen held 40 acres of land; there was also a carucate, &c. of meadow, and a fishery, valued then at 60*s.* at the survey at 40*s.* which was claimed by an exchange: the whole was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 8*d.* gelt. The Earl had also 2 carucates of land, held before the conquest by Hosmunt, a freeman, with 8 villains, one servus, 8 acres of meadow, and a fishery.<sup>3</sup>

WEST-HALL MANOR.

Hugh abovementioned, who was enfeoffed of this lordship by the Earl Warren, was ancestor of the family, who took their name, according to the custom of that age, from this town. Osbert de Denevela, lived in the reign of Henry I.<sup>4</sup> (probably son of Hugh) and gave tithe of his lands to the priory of Castleacre, founded by the Earl Warren. Walter de Denvere and Alice his wife were living in the 41st of Henry III; she was one of the aunts and coheirs of Henry, son of Osbert de Walpole, and had in her right a lordship in Walpole. Walter was lord of this manor, and in the said year had the assise of bread and beer, and other liberties. In the 52d of the said reign it was certified that he held one knight's fee; and, in the 3d year of Edward I he had the lete, paying 8*d.* to the bailiff of the abbot of Ramsay; and with Nicholas de Harpley, and Robert, son of Godfrey de Wygenhale, was fined for not being knights. Of this family was John de Denver, who was living in the 20th of Edward III. the heiress of the family was married to the Goddards of Walpole and Tyrington, who quartered the arms of Denver, as may be there seen.

In 9th of Edward II. Peter de Spalding was lord, and presented to the mediety of St. Michael's of Denver, as lord of this manor. John, son of the said Peter, was lord in the 13th of Edward III. and had 30 messuages in this town, with 500 acres of land, 30 of meadow, and in Hilgey, Downham, Fordham, &c.

By an inquisition taken in the 20th of that King, Richard de Bradenham, and John de Foxley were returned to be lords; and, in the 9th of Henry IV. John Gourney, Esq. died lord, and of West Barsham. In the 47th of Edward III. the convent of West Derham had a patent for this moiety, (as I take it,) but I do not find them possessed of it.

In 1395, Walter Goddard presented to the aloresaid mediety as lord; and in the 15th of Henry VI. Robert Goddard of Tirington, Esq. Thomas Clifton, Esq. and Joan his wife, and Thomas Dereham, Esq. senior, convey by fine, two messuages, with lands, a free-fold in this town, Ryston, Fordham, &c. to William Dalling.

After this, in 1452, John Bennet, Gent. was lord; and by the marriage of Joan his daughter, it came to Thomas Derham, Esq.

Sir Nicholas Hare presented as lord in 1554; and by his will dated Sept. 26, 1557, conveyed all his interest in this lordship and advowson (after such interests as his cousins Audrey Hobart, and Alice Rugge, her mother, claim therein for their lives) to his heirs; and Michael Hare, Esq. his son, by his will dated 1609, gives this manor, after the death of his brother Robert, to Nicholas Timperley, Esq. his nephew.

In 1617, Sir Thomas Hobart was lord; and Sir Miles Hobart, in 1637, and Edward Barber, Gent. presented as lord of this manor in 1660. About the year 1726, Mr. Towerson of Hadenham, in the isle of Ely, purchased it from the Barbers; and about the year 1730, conveyed it to Roger Pratt, Esq. of Ruston, the present lord; but the right of patronage was sold off before he purchased it.

EAST-HALL.

William Earl Warren, had also another lordship in this town, which Osmund held of the Earl, consisting of 71 acres, held by 4 freemen, with half a carucate, who were under the commendation only of Hermer. In the said village were five freemen, and the moiety of another, with 36 acres, and half a carucate; these were under the protection alone of Osmund; but the abbot of St. Bennet had the soc of two of them; and there were here 3 freemen, with 2 acres of land, and 2 bordarers, which Osmund holds; the whole valued at 40s.<sup>5</sup>

Osmund, who was enfeoffed of this manor, and held it of the Earl, was (as I take it) ancestor of the family of De Kailey, or Caley. John de Kailly, died lord about the 8th of King John, and his widow Margery in the following year, then the wife of Michael de Ponyngs, recovered dower from Adam de Kailly. Osbert de Cailly was lord in the reign of Edward I. and, in 1307, Michael de Cayli, conveyed it by fine to Adam de Cayli, and Edmund his son.

In 1324, Edmund, son of Sir Adam de Cayli, presented to a moiety of this church as lord of this manor; and Sir Adam de Clifton was lord and patron in 1349, &c. as heir to the Caillys, and succeeded<sup>2</sup> herein by his 2d son, Sir Adam, who presented in 1402, and 1409; Sir Robert de Clifton, his son and heir, was lord in 1430. In the 13th of Henry IV. Sir Adam was found to die possessed of it; and this Robert his son was aged 26 years. Thomas Clifton, Esq. was son and heir of Sir Robert; and in 1463, John Tillesley, Esq. presented in right of Joan his wife, late relict of Thomas Clifton; and in the following year, Robert Clifton, son and heir of Thomas, conveyed by fine all his right in this lordship and advowson, which Joan Tillesley his mother held for life, to Sir William Willoughby, and Joan his wife.

Edward Willoughby, Esq. was lord and patron in 1491, and by his will dated October 23, was buried in the chancel of St. Mary's church of Denver. Soon after, in the 2d year of Henry VIII. John Willoughby, Esq. his son, lord of this manor, and Hugh Willoughby of Risley in Derbyshire, Esq. serjeant at arms to the King, by deed dated April 22d, covenant that Elizabeth, late wife of Robert Willoughby, late son and heir apparent of the said John Willoughby, should take to her husband George Willoughby, son and heir apparent of Hugh; and John was to settle on them this manor, and those of Berkley, Newport, Dursley, &c. in Gloucestershire.

John Willoughby, Esq. son of Edward and Isabel, was lord and patron in 1543,<sup>6</sup> and dying in 1557, was buried in this church before the crucifix. He left by Mary his wife a son William, aged 4 months, &c. at his father's death. It came afterwards to the Gawssells; Thomas Gawssell, son of Richard Gawssell, Esq. of Wallington, married Mary, widow of John Willoughby, Esq. and they presented in 1558.

Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Robert Gawssell, Esq. brought it by marriage to Robert Barber, Gent. by whom he had 3 sons: 1st, Edward, lord and patron of this church in 1660, who married Alice, daughter and coheir of Richard Batecroft of Bezwell, Esq.; 2d, Thomas Barber, who had 2 wives; Martha, daughter of Robert Pearson, D. D. rector of Snoring Magna in Norfolk, and Joan, daughter and coheir of John Parlet of Lynn; 3d son, Gregory Barber, married Mary, daughter and coheir of Luke Constable of Swaffham, and left 2 daughters and coheirs. Edward Barber, who was lord of both the manors, and patron of both mediocities, left no issue (as it seems) so that the estate came to Thomas Barber, son of Thomas, brother of Edward, by Martha. This Thomas took to wife Mary, daughter of Robert Marsh, Gent. and was father of Edward, who married ——— daughter of ——— Hopkins of Wilberton in the isle of Ely, who is said to have conveyed it to Mr. Towerson of Hadenham, in the said isle, who was lord in 1726, and soon after sold it to Roger Pratt, Esq. of Ruston, the present lord.

The tenths were 7*l.* 4*s.*—Deducted 1*l.* 10*s.*—Temporalities of Ramsay abbey, 7*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and consisted of two mediocities, or rectories, one called St. Michael's, or West-Hall mediety, the other St. Peter's or East-Hall mediety. It is a single pile, built of rag-stone out of neighbouring pits, and camerated with pannels of wood, covered with reed; at the west end is a four-square tower, and on that an octangular spire of wood, covered with lead, with 5 bells.

Against the north wall is an achievement with the arms of the professors of physic in the university of Cambridge, and of Caius college, impaling argent, two bars, and in chief three lioncels, rampant, sab. Brady. On the pavement is a black marble grave-stone, with the said arms, and

This worthy gentleman gave a considerable paternal estate in the parish to Caius college, and 500*l.* towards the buying a perpetual advowson. Mr. Hearne, the Oxford antiquary, gives him this character,

—Rob. Bradus plerisq; omnibus sequioris ævi historicis nostris Anglicanis sit antefendus.<sup>7</sup>

Against the wall of the chancel rests a grave-stone, with the insignia of a Knight Templar. In the windows were chequy, or and gules, a bend ermin, with an annulet, gules, Clifton; also gules, a chevron ermin, between three cinquefoils argent; also on the right shoulder of a woman's vest; or, on a saltire gules, five lozenges; and on the left shoulder, barry of six, argent and vert, Poynings. On the outside of the east window of the chancel is a mural monument of stone:

In vicino pulvere depositæ sunt exuvie Francisci Jenny, A. M. 46. annos hujus ecclesie vigilantis et benigni pastoris, qui obt. Apr. 10, Ao. 1715, ætat. 70. and this shield:—ermin, a bend cottised, or.

In this parish is a noble bridge of stone, and a sluice over the great river Ouse.

From this place began a famous Roman way, extending to Peterborough, over the great level of the fens, about 24 miles. Dugdale says it was of gravel, &c. 3 feet thick, and 60 broad, now covered with the moor; that it went first to Charke, thence to March, Plantwater, and Eldernel, and so to Peterborough.<sup>9</sup>

King Henry VII. in his first year, on September 24, granted to Thomas Hatton the office of water-bailiff of Salter's lode, in this parish, during pleasure, with the annexed fees to be received by his own hands.

WEST - DERHAM.

WE learn from the Conqueror's book of Domesday, that there were at that time several fees, or lordships, in this town.

Hermer de Ferer, (or Ferrers), a Norman nobleman, who for his services was rewarded at the conquest with 25 lordships in this county, and had by his own power, (a practice common on the conquest,) seized on, and invaded the lands of 32 freemen here, who, in the reign of King Edward the Confessor possessed 120 acres: of 25 of these, the predecessor of Hermerus had the protection, with 2 carucates, valued at 35s. Bordin holds of Hermer 3 of them, and a moiety of the rest;<sup>1</sup> and 7 of the 32 were under the protection of the predecessor of Roger Bigot, (on these the predecessor of Hermerus had no claim; and this was valued at 5s.) Hermerus had invaded them also. Of this Hermerus, see in Wirmegay. Out of this tenure arose 2 lordships, that of Curple, and that of Timworth.

CURPLE MANOR, OR PENTNEY PRIORY MANOR,

ASSUMED its name from its lords.—Jeffrey Curple held half a fee in the reign of Henry III. (when an aid was granted on the marriage of that King's sister to the Emperor) of the honour of Wirmegay,

In the 9th of Edward II. Catherine and John Curpell were found to hold the same half fee in this town, Fincham, Roxham, and Fordham, of the Lord Bardolf, Baron of Wirmegay; and Roger Curpell was lord of it in the 3d of Henry III. This Roger gave it to the priory of Wirmegay, and his grant was confirmed by the Lord Bardolf.<sup>2</sup>

After this, when the said priory was united to the priory of Pentney, it was vested in that convent; at the dissolution of Pentney priory, it came to the Crown; and, in the 29th of Henry VIII. was farmed by John Dethick, Esq. at 4*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.* per annum of Thomas Earl of Rutland, who had a lease of it from the court of augmentation.

On April 11. Mo. 4 of Edward VI. it was granted to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, and is now held of that see by Simeon Stuart, Bart.; the site of it was in in a close, called Hall-Close, south-west of the abbey of Derham, and near to the fens.

This was most likely that lordship which John Houton Capellane gave to the priory of Wirmegay, held of the Lord Bardolf, by the 4th part of a fee, and payment of 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum to the manor of Wirmegey, Mo. 9 Edward III.

TIMWORTH MANOR.

This manor assumed its name from its lords. Sir William de Timworth, lord in the 2d of Henry III. and Richard de Timworth, held the fourth part of a fee of the honour of Wirmegay, in the said reign.

Thomas de Timworth was lord in the 14th of Edward I. and in the 5th of Edward II. this lordship was settled on John de Beccles, and Hawise his wife, probably daughter of Thomas.

After this, a fine was levied in the 10th of Edward III. when Robert, son of Ralph de Hemenhale, Knt. and Agnes his wife, settled a moiety of it on their trustees; and Robert Hemenhale, and Richard Bachecroft were found to hold it in the 4th of Henry IV. of the Lord Bardolf as part of the barony of Wirmegay.

John Badgecroft held it in the reign of Henry VI. and Richard Badgecroft held it in the reign of Edward VI. and left it to his son and heir Thomas, who was lord of Bexwell; and since that time has been enjoyed by the lords of that town, — Holt, Esq. of Redgrave in Suffolk being lord of Bexwell, and of this.

Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, had, at the survey, a lordship consisting of 9 acres of land, with 3 borderers, valued at 10*s.* of which 6 freemen had been deprived, which Hugh held of Roger — In the said town he had 16 acres, of which a freeman was deprived, valued at 12*d.* and Hugo held it. Susant had only the protection or commendation of this freeman, in King Edward's time.<sup>3</sup> Roger had also 60 acres of land, of which Godric, a freeman in the Confessor's time, was deprived, held by the said Hugh; but the predecessor of Roger had the protection only of Godric.

This came by some grant to the abbot and convent: and, in the 2d of Henry VI. it appears by the eschact rolls, that Elizabeth, widow of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk died seized of the moiety of one knight's fee in West-Derham. The estate of the Bigots came to the Mowbrays.—Of Roger Bigot, see in Pentney.

William Earl Warren had 30 acres of land given him on the expulsion of a freeman, and half a carucate<sup>4</sup> of this Earl; see in Castlere.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the abbot was possessed of this, (and then found, of the Earl Warren's fee lately) in pure alms, and the 4th part of a fee; before this, in the reign of Henry III. he held the same.

Rainald, son of Ivo, had 32 acres of land belonging to six freemen. Wiheoc had invaded and seized on them; and, in his predecessor's time, they held it only under protection.<sup>5</sup> Wiheoc was a dependent (and held lands) of Ivo; the lands of this Ivo came after to the Earls of Clare; see in Crimpleham. In the reign of Henry III. the abbot held the 6th part of a fee of the heirs of William de Narford, he of the Earl of Clare; and, in the 3d of Henry IV. the abbot held it of the Earl of March, heirs of the Earls of Clare.

Ralph Lord Bainard held at the survey, and Luvell under him, one carucate of land, and one villain, with a carucate: out of this the abbot of Ramsey had 20s. rent in King Edward's reign, as the hundred witnessed; and there belonged to this manor 50 acres of land, held by freemen in the aforesaid reign, with one carucate and an half, &c. valued at 10s. the abbot of Ramsey had the soc of these men.<sup>6</sup> This last seems to have been part of the Lord Bainard's manor of Stoke, and was measured with it.—On the forfeiture of William Lord Bainard's estate, for his rebellion in Henry the First's time, this came by the King's grant to Robert Fitz-Gilbert, a younger son of Richard, ancestors of the Earls of Clare, which Robert was father of Walter Fitz-Robert, one of the witnesses to the foundation deed of Derham abbey, and who probably granted it to the said monastery.

The abbot of St. Edmund of Bury had a socman, with 6 acres.—The abbot also of St. Bennet of Ramsey had 3 socmen at the survey, with 6 acres of land, and half a carucate, valued at 12d.

The lordships abovementioned being united, and belonging to the abbot and convent of West-Derham, came to the Crown on its dissolution, and so remained till granted to Sir Thomas Lovell of East Herling, in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary.

The site of the abbey, with the lands following, were granted on December 3,  Ao. 32 Henry VIII. to Thomas Derham, Esq. of Crimplesham, viz. Carter's Close, Great Moon-Shines, with Derham Grange, Bursales, East Brake Close, Fen Crofts, with the fishery in the waters of West-Derham and Roxham, &c. to be held by the 20th part of a fee, and the payment of 4 s. and 3 d. per annum, together with West Brake Close, Calf's Close, Oxclose, Heath Close, Old Tallow Beattles, New Tallow Beattles, Church-field, Redhill-field, Well-head-field, Dozenham wood, and lands in Feltwell, which the said Thomas died possessed of, August 29, 1554; and, about the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's reign, Sir Thomas Lovell conveyed to Thomas Derham, Esq. the lordships abovementioned; all which remained in the family of the Derhams till the death of Sir Thomas Derham, Bart. when the inheritance came to Sir Simeon Stuart, Bart. (by the marriage of Elizabeth, sister and sole heir of Sir Thomas Derham,) who dying in 1762, his son and heir, Sir Simeon Stuart, Bart. of Hartley Mauduit in Hampshire, is the present lord, and knight of the shire in parliament for Hampshire. Elizabeth, his eldest daughter, married Hewar Edgley Hewar of Clepham, Esq. and left no issue. Ann, the 3d daughter, married George Bourne, Esq. of Enfield in Middlesex, and left a son and a daughter; also Mary and Sophia, the 2d and 4th daughters.

Sir Simeon Stuart married Elizabeth, only daughter of Sir Richard Derham, Bart. of Derham abbey in Norfolk, by the honourable Frances Filliers his wife, eldest daughter of Robert Lord Viscount Purbeck, and Elizabeth, daughter of the late Sir John Danvers, brother to Henry Earl of Danby, and sole heir to her brother, Sir Thomas Derham, who died at Rome in January 1738-9, and by her had Elizabeth, married to Hewar Edgley Hewar of Fotheringhay castle in Northampton shire Esq.; he died Nov. 6, 1728, s. p. and Ann married to George Bourne, Esq. of Enfield in Middlesex; she died December 7, 1739, and Simeon, his only son, now living, Thomas and James dying in their minority, and other daughters, Mary and Sophia Derham.

The family of De Derham is of great antiquity.—Richard de Derham, Nicholas de Derham, and Elias de Derham were brothers, and witnesses to Hubert, the Archbishop's foundation deed of the abbey; and from this Nicholas, it is said, the family is descended. Jeffrey de Derham, and Alice his wife, impleaded Nicholas, son of Gervase, and John de Perchevaie for a free tenement in Riston, Ao. 10 R. Johs.?—Herwinus de Derham held lands of Ramsey abbey, and paid 7 d. rent per ann. to them, as lord of the hundred, sans date.

Ralph de Derham was found to die seized of lands in Derham, Roxham, and Crimplesham, of Roger Mortimer Earl of March and Clare, Ao. 22 Richard II. and Thomas de Derham was living in the said reign.

Thomas de Derham, Esq. (probably his son,) lord of Crimplesham, was an eminent lawyer in the 5th of Henry IV. a feoffee for the manor of West Herling, and sealed with a buck's, or deer's head embossed. In the 7th of Henry VI. he was justice of gaol delivery of East Derham, for the liberty of the Bishop of Ely, and married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Baldwin de Vere, Esq. of Denver, younger brother of Robert de Vere, Esq. of Addington in Northamptonshire, and was father of Thomas Derham, Esq. of Crimplesham, who by Alice his first wife,<sup>8</sup> daughter and heir of Gilbert Haltoft, one of the barons of the Exchequer, had John, who died a minor; and Elizabeth, who married John Fincham, Esq. of Outwell in Norfolk; and by his 2d wife, Joan, daughter of John Bennet of Bunwell in Norfolk, Gent. married in 1470, had Thomas, his son and heir.

Thomas, son and heir, a minor, by Joan (at the death of his father, who was buried at Crimplisham in the 13th of Edward IV.) married Isabel, daughter of John Paynell, Esq. of Boothby in Lincolnshire, by ———, daughter of Philip Tylney, one of the lords of the Close of Lincoln minster. He died in 1531, leaving Thomas his son, Dorothy, a daughter, married to Thomas Gawsell, Esq. of Wattlington, &c. Thomas, son and heir, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Audley, Kut. Banneret of Scaffham in Norfolk, and dying 1554, left by her a numerous issue.—Jane married Robert Lade, alias Baker, of Tyrington; Alice, to Humph. Guybon of King's Lynn, Thomasine, first to ——— Throgmorton of ———, Esq. next to John Repps, Esq. of West Walton, and after to John Heath, Esq. of London.—Also 5 sons, Thomas, son and heir, Robert, John, Baldwin, and Audley; Ela, their mother, surviving their father, married Thomas Guybon, Esq.

Thomas Derham, Esq. eldest son and heir, married first Amphillis, daughter of Sir Francis Lovell of East Herling; his 2d wife was Ann, daughter of Richard Catlyne, Esq. serjeant at law; but dying sans issue, Jo. 19 Elizabeth, was succeeded by Baldwin, his 4th brother and heir.

Baldwin, by his first wife Margaret, daughter of John Heath, Esq. of Durham, had a numerous issue; 1, Thomas; 2, Roger, rector of Branston in Leicestershire, and D. D.; 3, John; 4, Baldwin; 5, Robert, rector of Stukeley, in Huntingdoushire, and D. D.; and 6, Nicholas; and 5 daughters; Ann, married to ——— Prat, Esq.; Mary, to Sir Hugh Hamersley, Lord Mayor of London; Margery, to ——— Turfet, Gent.; Elizabeth, to Ant. Peninston, Gent.; Susan, to Henry Farington, Gent.; and by his 2d wife ———, daughter of ——— Booth of Cheshire, he had Jane, married to Thomas Coventry of London, Gent.; Thamasine, to John Edes, rector of Laxford in Essex.

Sir Thomas Derham, son and heir of Baldwin, and heir to his uncle, Robert, which Robert is by some said to have purchased the lordship of Derham of Sir Francis Lovell of East Herling, was knighted by King James I. at Newmarket, Dec. 1, 1617. By his first wife Catherine, daughter of Sir Henry Anderton of London, had Thomas, his son and heir; 2, Henry, who married Olivia, daughter and coheir of Jeffrey Kirby of London, Esq.<sup>9</sup> by his 2d wife Ann, daughter of Thomas Gooding of Bliburgh in Suffolk, Gent.<sup>1</sup> and relict of Richard Gotts, Esq. He had no issue.

Thomas, son and heir of Sir Thomas Derham, was created a Bart. June 8, 1651. By Elizabeth, his first wife, he had John Derham, who is said to have married ———, a daughter of ——— Codde, and died (as I take it) before his father, whom, by his marriage, or otherways, he had disobliged, so that Sir Henry Derham, Bart. was heir to Sir Thomas, by Elizabeth, his 2d wife, daughter and heir of Sir Richard Gargraze, Knt. of Nostell in Yorkshire; by Catherine his wife, daughter of Sir John Danvers. Sir Henry Derham, Bart. having no issue by ———, his wife, daughter of Sir John Maynard, and dying in 1682, was succeeded by his brother, Sir Richard, who wasted his patrimony, and died in foreign parts; so that this estate was conveyed to his relation and cousin, Sir Thomas Derham, Knt. who for many years was envoy at the court of the Duke of Tuscany; after that resided here, and built the stately superb edifice of Derham abbey, now standing; and dying in 1697 a bachelour, made Sir Thomas Derham, Bart. son of Sir Richard Derham, Bart. by Frances his wife, eldest daughter of Robert Villiers Viscount Purbeck, his heir; who being bred in the court of the Duke of Tuscany, resided there, lived a single life, died at Rome, January 16, 1738, and was buried there in the church of St. Thomas, belonging to the English nation.

On his death, the inheritance came to the honourable Sir Simeon Stuart, Bart. of Hartley Mauduit in Hampshire, in right of his wife Elizabeth, only sister and heir of Sir Thomas Derham, Bart. aforesaid; and their only son and heir, Sir Simeon, is the present lord, and knight of the shire for Hampshire, and one of the chamberlains of the Exchequer, as his father was, who died August 11, 1761.

The abbey of West-Derham is about a mile south of the parish church; the old gate-house or tower is still standing, and entire, and seems to have been built in the reign of Henry VI. It is a noble, lofty, four-square pile of curious workmanship of brick embattled; at each corner arises an octangular tower, with quoins of freestone, and over the arch of the gate, which is of stone, wide and lofty, is this shield: azure, three buck's heads cabosed, or; the buck's head in base was pierced with a crosier staff, and was the arms of the abbey: this staff has been cut out some time past; but in the bow window of the room over the arch it still stands painted in the glass. The common seal of the abbey was, in 1429, and in the reign of Henry VIII. of an oblong form, and red wax,—The Virgin Mary standing under an arch, holding in her arms the child Jesus; over her head a star, and on each side of her an angel with a palm branch: the legend, Sigillum abbatis et conventus Sce. Marie de Derham. On each side of this elegant gate or tower adjoining to it, Sir Thomas Derham, the envoy, built a long, stately, and lofty wing, with a quadrangle and a cloister on the south side, containing many grand rooms, galleries, &c. like the Italian palaces; and many offices, that it is capable of receiving any prince, and pleases the taste of the most curious judges.

In a wainscoted parlour are these arms over the chimney, the quartered coat of Derham; azure, a buck's head cabosed, or, Derham, quartering, argent, on a cross gules, an annulet, or, Vere in the 1st quarter; and gules, an eagle displayed, argent, Goddard in the 3d quarter; gules, three dexter gauntlets, argent, and a canton checque, or and azure, Denver in the 4th quarter, impaling Anderton, argent, a chevron between three crosses flory, sab. and about the room are the arms of several families that married with the Derhams; viz. Fincham, Audley, Lovell, Catlyn, Repps, Guybon, Carvill, Hammersley, Montford, Garesell, Pratt, Heath, Penniston, Painell, Booth, &c.

Derham impaling Scot; argent, three Catherine-wheels sab. in a bordure inrailed, gules; Derham impaling Heath; also Booth, Catlyne; also impaling Haltoft and Bennet, ermin, an escutcheon gul. surmounted with a bend, ingrailed sab. and Painell, gules, two chevrons in a bordure, argent.

In this parish, south of the town, near the fens, is a farm-house, called Barsale, accounted formerly as a lordship. Thomas de Barsale was living in the reign of Edward I. In the 11th of James I. it was settled on Thomas Derham, Esq. on his marriage with the daughter of Sir Henry Anderton.

Afterwards it was sold to the Harbords of Gunton in Norfolk; and, about 20 years past, conveyed by them to Mr. Say of Doxenham in Norfolk; and Captain Say of the militia now possesses it. William de Barsale was living in the 50th of Edward III. and sealed with . . . . a less dauncy, between six escallops, seemingly. In the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, Thomas Derham held it in capite, of the King, lately belonging to the abbey.

The tenths of West-Derham were 10*l.*—Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*—Ramsay abbey temporalities were 3*s.* 6*d.*—The tithes in Sir George Hare.

The town takes its name from the British word Dur, water, being near the fens, and the river Wissey; and also having three or four little rivulets or streams of water running through it. Thus Durham, Derly, &c.

DERHAM, ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH. There were in ancient days two churches in this town, that of St. Andrew, and that of St. Peter; that of St. Andrew is (as I conceive) the church now standing; and west of this church, in the churchyard, the site of that of St. Peter's may be perceived. In a small pannel at the summit of the present church may be seen the portraiture of St. Andrew painted on the glass.

It is a single pile, built of flint and other stone, in length about 52 feet, and in breadth about 20, with a chancel about 33 feet long, and 20 broad, covered with thatch. At the west end of the church is a large round tower of stone, found in pits in this neighbourhood, and called rag-stone, and on that is raised an octangular one of brick, embattled and coped with free-stone; on the decay of the old tower, in the reign of Henry VI. as I take it. On the summit is a cap or cover, with a weather cock; and in this tower hang 4 large modern bells.

On the pavement, at the east end, lies a black marble gravestone with these arms quarterly; in the 1st quarter, argent, a chevron az. between three squirrels sejant, gules, Lovell; 2d, sab. a cross argent, between four lions rampant, or, Bendish; 3d, vert on two chevrons, argent, six cinquefoils (3 and 3) gules, Muswell; and in the 4th quarter, barry of ten pieces, argent and gules, a lion rampant over all, or, crowned argent, with a ducal coronet, Brandon; the crest a plume of peacock's feathers.

—Here lyeth interred the body of Gregory Lovell, Esq. born in this parish, who departed this life the 29th day of Aug. Mo. Dni. 1693, in the 6d year of his age.

Against the north wall of the chancel is a neat marble monument; on it,

On the summit of this monument is Derham's quartered coat, viz. Ferc, Goddard and Denvere; on the right of this shield is Derham impaling Audley and Touchet quarterly; and on the left, Audley and Touchet quarterly. On the sides of the monument are several shields; Derham impaling Catlyne; Derham impaling Lovell; Derham impaling Booth; Throgmorton impaling Derham; Heath impaling Derham; Derham impaling Heath; Derham impaling, argent, three bulls caboshed, sab. attired, or, Waltrond; Repps impaling Derham; Gybon impaling Derham; Lude, alias Baker, impaling Derham.

On the basis of the monument are these verses, now almost obliterated:

Nam pater et patruus Christus, nos sanguine puro

Against the said wall is a most elegant, curious monument of marble, made at Florence in Italy, with a large quartered shield, viz. Derham impaling Fere, Goddard, Denvere, and lozenge, argent and sable, on a bend of the second, three crescents of the first, Gargrave. Under this in a lozenge, arg. on a cross gules, five escallops, or, with a mullet, sab. in the dexter quarter, for difference, Villiers. The ornaments of this monument are highly beautiful, and what is most curious is, that the field, with the bearings on each field and arms, is of marble, all in their proper colours, and inlaid.

Against the south wall of the chancel, enclosed with iron rails, is a sumptuous monument of marble and alabaster, rising to the top of the wall; on the summit is gules, a chevron between three mallets, or; the crest a hawk on the lure, Sòame; on the cornish, a Cupid mourning, with two lamps. On a basis of veined marble stands the effigies of Colonel Soame in full proportion, in armour of alabaster; the workmanship of an eminent Italian carver, who, from a curious picture of the said colonel, has taken a wonderful likeness. On the pedestal is this inscription:

In a vault near this place lies the body of the honourable colonel Edmund Soame, of Derham-Grange in this parish, son of Edmund Soame of London, merchant, and Mary his wife; which Edmund was one of the sons of Sir William Soame of Thirlow-Hall in Suffolk; and she the daughter of Simon Middleton of Huckney, in the county of Middlesex, Esq.—In the reign of King Wilham and Queen Mary, he went a volunteer into the wars of Ireland, and to their majesties and country's service dedicated the revenues of a plentiful estate, which he inherited; and having a captain's commission given him, behaved himself in all the wars during the reign of that king with such eminent courage and fidelity, that when Queen Ann came to the crown, her majesty first rewarded him with a lieutenant-colonel's commission, and afterwards with the command of a regiment; and being by his sovereign sent on an expedition into Spain, died as he was going, at Torbay in Devonshire, Sept. 8, 1706, in the 38th year of his age, being thus immaturity cut off, when he was in pursuit of, and ready to be rewarded with the highest military honours. In the time of peace, and during the recess of arms, he was several years a representative in parliament for the ancient borough of Thetford, in this county, where he approved himself to be as true and faithful a patriot in the senate house, as he was a brave and honourable commander in the field.

In the same vault, lies the body of his only sister, Margaret Green, who died Aug. 10, 1710, relict of Giles Green, Esq. according to her desire, between her husband and her brother; and in her last will, requested her executrix, Dame Elizabeth Jenyns, wife of Sir Roger Jenyns of Bottesham hall in Cambridgeshire, to erect this monument.

In the churchyard is an altar monument for

WEST-DERHAM ABBEY.

This abbey was founded in the reign of King Henry II. by Hubert Walter, then dean of York; the particualar year is not known, but was between the year 1168, when he was preferred to that deanery, and the year 1189,* when he was preferred to the see of Salisbury, having * Founded, as an old MSS. says, on Virgin, in 1188. the feast of the assumption of the Blessed bought the land on which it was built of Geffrey Fitz-Geffrey, and belonging to his own fee or lordship.

It was dedicated to God, and the Virgin Mary, for regular canons of the Premonstratensian order, who were to pray for his own soul, the souls of his father and mother, Ralph de Glanvile, justiciary of England, (who had the care of his education,) and of Berta his wife, as appears from the foundation of the charter.

— Omnib: sancte matris ecclesie filius p'sentib; et futuris Hubertus, Dei gratia Eboracensis ecclesie decanus, aeternam in Domino salutem.— Prudentis est hiis, que saluti anime proficiunt, dum potest intendere, et transitoria aeterna commutare. Quod quidem intelligentes in honore Dei, et gloriose Virginis Marie, matris ejus quoddam cenobium premonstratensis ordinis in feodo nostro apud Derham fundavimus, p. salute anime nostre, et patris et matris nostre, et Domine Radulphi de Glanvile, et Domine Berte uxoris ejus, qui nos nutriebant, et, p salute fratrum sororum, consanguineorum, familiarium, et omnium amicorum nostrorum et p. fate domui et canonicis dedimus, et concessimus, et p'senti charta nostra confirmavimus totum tenementum in eadem villa cum pertinentiis quod de Galfrido filio Galfridi emeramus, &c.

The witnesses were John Bishop of Norwich, Ralph de Glanvile, lord chief justice of England, Walter Fitz-Robert, Geffrey Fitz-Peter, Richard de Derham, parson of the church, Nicholas de Derham, and Elias de Derham, brethren.

Walter Fitz-Robert, one of the witnesses, was ancestor of the Lords Fitz-Walter, and had a grant of the lands forfeited by the Lord Baynard. He married Maud, a daughter and coheir of Sir Richard de Lucy, justiciary of England, &c. Geff. Fitz-Peter was afterwards Earl of Essex, and Elias de Derham was afterwards one of the founder's executors, Ac. 7<sup>o</sup> Johs.

The founder was a native of this town, son of Hervey Walter, brother of Theobald Walter, chief butler of Ireland, from whom the noble family of Butler Dukes of Ormond are descended.

The first preferment in the church that I find him possessed of was a fourth part or portion of the church of Felmingham in Norfolk;<sup>5</sup> after this he was dean of York, one of the barons of the Exchequer, Bishop of Salisbury, and Archbishop of Canterbury, legate to the Pope, lord chancellor, and chief justice of England; no clergyman, before or after him, had so great a power and authority, and no man ever used it with greater prudence and moderation, being the prime minister of King Richard I. and King John.

In the 3d year of King John, he had a grant of the custody of the castle and forest of Windsor, dated May 4, apud Aumort. viz. Albe-marle in France;<sup>6</sup> and in the said year, one to recover all his demesns that had been lately alienated, dated at Fernole.

King John, in his first year, granted to the abbot and convent a weekly mercate on Wednesday, and an annual fair for four days, viz. on St. Matthew's, and the three following days, with toll, stallage, and all liberties belonging to a mercate and fair; dated at Westminster, June 10. Witnesses William Bishop of London, Hubert Bishop of Salisbury, (the founder,) Geff. Fitz-Peter Earl of Essex, William Marshal Earl of Pembroke, Ilamel Earl of Warren, &c.

In the aforesaid year, King John, by his charter dated at Roan in France, Sept. 7, at the request of the founder, confirmed to this abbey all their lands, rents, services and advowsons, which had been given by the founder of his own fee, and which he had of Geffrey Fitz-Geffrey, in the town of Derham, and exempted them from the services which Walter Fitz-Robert did to Hubert, their founder, which shows that Walter was a benefactor, and to Geffrey Fitz-Geffrey, and the services which Hubert did to Walter Fitz-Robert.<sup>7</sup>

And, as far as belonged to his regal power, appropriated to them the church of Kirby Malgedale, which Adam Fitz-Adam gave the church of Katham, with the appertinances of the gift of Hugh de Dica. One knight's fee in Walton of the gift of Margaret, daughter of Alexander le Moine, and of Roger Buch, about which there had been a suit in the King's court, and they, by consent, gave up their right therein. The land at Iclington, which Hubert their founder, and Walter his brother gave, and which Hamo, son of Walter held, except 30s. rent per ann. belonging to the monks of Iclington. Land and tenements of the gift of their founder in Oxford, held of the priory of St. Frideswide, the rent of 40s. per ann. issuing out of a moiety of the fishery in Mersh-Fen, given them by Hamelin Plantagenet Earl Warren, and Isabel his wife, which William Curteis used to pay them at three terms in the year. What they held in Smalbregg, of the gift of Henry de Pomerai, and Walter de Marmion, paying to the said Walter 20s. per ann. Nine acres given by Simon Britton in the marsh, or sea-shore at Wrangle in Lincolnshire, to make salt-pits, with ground for a house, on the toft of William the priest, by Rythfleet bridge, with common of pasture for 36 cows or oxen.

Forty acres of land in Hillington in Norfolk, the gift of Roger de Pavilli out of his demean, with liberty of a fold, paying 2s. per ann.; the rent of half a mark in Playford, with certain homages, given by Hervey Fitz-Peter,<sup>8</sup> a moiety of the mill at Acton, which Walter, son of Peter de Warham, and the rent of 15s. in the mill of Ringland, which Julian de Swathfield gave; the rent of half a mark out of the mill of Titchwell, which William Luvel de Ibery gave: half a mark's rent given by Peter Fitz-Walter out of his mill at Irstede, to buy wine for mass in their church, &c. with soc, sac, tholl, and many other royal privileges, all granted by the King, under the hand of Hubert Archbishop of Canterbury: witness, Geffrey Archbishop of York.

Besides the benefactions here confirmed, I find the following persons to have been benefactors to this abbey.

Thomas de Burgh gave a messuage, many lands, quitrents, and a fishery at Upwell; and the abbot had a manor there.—Alan, son of John de Tilney, lands in Wigenhale, St. Mary Magdalen, and others of that name; lands at Lynn Seche, Tilney, Saddlebox, &c. and they had a manor at Tilney.—Hubert Ruffin, and Robert his son, lands at Oxburgh, in the reign of Henry III. and a several marsh in Stoke-fen.—Barth. de Brancaster, lands in Boughton, and at Barton Eastmore, where a manor belonged to them.—Sir Osb. de Stradeset, lands at Stradeset, with a fishery at Denver, Fordham, &c. in the river Ouse,

In the 3d of Edward I. the abbot claimed the lete here of his tenants, and the assise of bread and beer, a fair, toll, weif, &c. the amerements of his men, who were exempt from being impleaded in any court baron, or county court, but in the King's court alone, and a gallows.

Sir William Howard, the famous judge, ancestor of the Dukes of Norfolk, gave lands in Tirington and Tilney, anno 29 of Edward I.

In the 19th of that King, the abbot had a lordship, in Barton ; in the 12th of Edward II. license to purchase 38 acres of land and 5 of meadow in Berton over the ditch, and one messuage, with 12 acres of land in Tilney, of Richard Rigges and R. Goldy ; and in the 18th, it appears that the convent was obliged to pray for Adomare de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, as heir to the Lord Monchensy, who had been a principal benefactor. The convent had a manor or lands in East Walton, given by Amica, wife of Alexander de Buterwythe, and one in Hillington.

* Great part of these benefactions are an extract from the Leidger of West-Derham, taken by Robert Derham, and William Gybon, Esq. and now in the possession of Thomas Martin, Gent. of Palgrave in Suffolk. A stick, or stica, is said to contain 25 eels.

In the 16th of Edward III. the abbot certified to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer the value of their lands, &c. in Derham, Upwell, Riston, Stradeset, Stoke, Wretton, Cley, Oxburgh, Caldecote, Senghham, Fincham, Buketon, Barton, Bicham, Werham, Islington, Thorp, Lenn St. Peter's, and North Lenn, Clenchwarton, Bexwell, Fordham, Watlington, Holcham, Rigland, Weston, Thimblethorp, Carleton, Brocke, Aseby, Cleidon, North Tudenham, &c.

Henry de Wells, dean of Chapel field college in Norwich, archdeacon of Lincoln, &c. was a great benefactor, and at his death, 1431, buried here.

Besides the temporal possessions abovementioned, the abbot and convent had an interest in the following churches.

Derham, St. Peter's, given, as it seems by their founder, and appropriated to them, valued at 21 marks, and paid Peter-pence 11d.—Derham, St. Andrew's, given by Sir William de Timworth, Ao. 2<sup>o</sup> Henry III. and appropriated. The jury, in 3d of Edward I. found it to be the gift of that knight; that he held it of R. Curpel, he of the Lord Bardolf, who held it in capite, for this grant of Sir William Ralph, then abbot, and the convent covenant that he should be partaker of all their prayers, &c. valued at 21 marks, &c.—Kirkby Malondale, in Craven, Yorkshire, given by Adam Fitz-Adam, and appropriated.—Wretton in Norfolk.—One moiety granted by Peter de Narford, the other by Gilbert Buxi of Buckton, and Hugh Buxi, Ao. 16 Henry III. and appropriated.—Stradset in Norfolk, the gift of Sir Osbert de Stradeset, Ao. 34 of Henry III. for the relief of the poor and needy who shall come to the abbey gate; the rectory appropriated, and the abbot, &c. patrons of the vicarage.—Thorp St. Mary alias Geyton Thorp, in Norfolk, a moiety appropriated in the grant of Thomas de Hastings.—Ringland St. Peter's, in Norfolk, given by Julian de Swathfield (and appropriated) Ao. 2<sup>o</sup> of King John.—Holkham in Norfolk, consisting of two medieties, given by William Lord Montchensy, Ao. 2<sup>o</sup> of King John, and appropriated by John de Grey Bishop of Norwich. One of the medieties is said to have been wrested from them by a lay-hand, and the other was recovered and confirmed to them July 16, 1347; the Bishop of Norwich nominated to it, and the abbot, &c. presented the vicar.—Holy Trinity church in Cambridge, of the gift of William de Gernemutha (Yarmouth) called vineter (a vintner there) appropriated, and patrons of the vicarage.—Katham, given by Hugh de Diva, Quere, if not in Yorkshire?—St. John Baptist's chapel, in Barton Eastmore, Norfolk, given by Barth. de Brancastre, to find two canons of this abbey to officiate therein: see in Eastmore.—Oxburgh in Norfolk; the patronage of this church was granted by ———— de Gournay, and Hugh de Holland, in the reign of King Edward III. and that King, Ao. 50, granted license to appropriate it, but it had no effect.—King Edward III. in his 10th year, granted license to the Lady Elizabeth de Burgo, to give,

&c. to the abbot and convent 7 messuages, 112 acres of land, &c. to find a chaplain in the chapel of St. Wynwaloe at Werham: see there. —Grimston in Norfolk.—King Edward III. in his 48th year, gave leave to Simon, rector of Castre, and Nicholas de Massingham, to appropriate this church, which they had of John de Weseham, and of John, son of Benedict de Breecles, and that a vicarage should be settled, to be presented by the convent, and to which they presented in 1399. After this, the Earl of Arundel, who was lord of the fee, recovered it, being granted without his consent.

The spiritualities of this abbey, with the priory of Wynwaloy, were valued in 1423 at 81*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*—The temporalities at 138*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.* 9.—at the Dissolution. Dugdale says, it was in the whole valued at 228*l.* 0*s.* 0½*d.* Speed, at 252*l.* 12*s.* 11¼*d.*

In 1553, here remained in charge these following annuities or pensions to religious persons of this house :<sup>4</sup>

Thomas Hawe, 2l. per ann.—James Hawe, 1l. 10s. per ann.

John Jackson, 5l. per ann. This man was married and divorced from his wife in the reign of Queen Mary; he then lived at Werham and probably served the cure there.

This abbey being of the Premonstratensian order, it may not be improper to give here the genealogy of it, which was always religiously kept, and observed in all religious houses.

Premonstratum begat Liskes.—Liskes, a Norman Premonstratensian abbey begat Newhus.—Newhus in Lincolnshire, the first Premonstratensian abbey in England, begat Welbeck.—Welbeck in Nottinghamshire, the 3d Premonstratensian abbey in England, begat West-Derham.—West-Derham in Norfolk, the 12th Premonstratensian abbey in England.

In 1465, the 5th of Edward IV. the state of this abbey is thus represented in a MSS. Register of the Premonstratensian Order.<sup>5</sup>

1. Archiepiscopus Cantuar. est Fundator.
2. Abbas de Welbeck est Pater Abbas.
3. Quinq; habet ecclesias curati; quidam canonici perpetui, quidam seculares, quidam revocabiles.
4. Fundatum erat in honore B. Marie Virginis ad festum assumptionis, Anno Dom. M.C.LXXXVIII.

Hubert Walter, the founder, being afterwards Archbishop of Canterbury, all his successors in the see of Canterbury from him had the title, and in times of necessity were applied to, as founders, or patrons.

The abbot of Welbeck was father-abbot, because Derham had its first canons from Welbeck; and for this reason, when the abbot of Derham died, the canons always sent his seal to that father-abbot; and, at the same time, prayed him to fix a day when he would be at Derham to see them make a fair election of a new abbot, and himself install him; and it appears that the abbot of Welbeck presented the new abbot to the Bishop of Norwich for admission, &c.

In 1506, Thomas Wilkiuson, abbot of Welbeck, and commissary-general to the abbot of Premonstratum, went his progress to visit all the abbies of this order. He arrived here 20th of October at supper-time; on the 21st he visited this house; on the 22d he made an end, and lay that night at Ely, at the charge of the abbot of Derham.

D O W N H A M.

IN ancient accounts it occurs by the name of Downham Market, and Downham Hithe: Spilman says the market here was of such antiquity, that he finds it confirmed by Edward the Confessor. The town is seated on a hill to the east of the river Ouse, over which and the fens it has an extensive view and prospect, and takes its name from its site, a Ham or dwelling, on a Dun, Down, or Hill. The principal manor was given by King Edgar, with the hundred of Clacklose, to Ramsey abbey.

ABBOT OF RAMSEY'S MANOR.

The principal manor here was in the abbot, of which an account may be seen at large in Wimbotsham, it extending itself into this town, and he had the same privileges here as in that village. It appears that King John granted or confirmed a fair here to the abbot, in his 6th year, and the privilege of a gallows here, or hanging malefactors was allowed him in the time of Henry III.<sup>9</sup> On the dissolution of this abbey, it was granted by King Henry VIII. to Robert Miller, &c. as is mentioned in Wimbotsham, and so passed through several hands to the Hares, Sir George Hare, Bart. being the late lord.

INGALDESTHORP MANOR.

At the survey William Earl Warren had here 30 acres held by 9 freemen, and half a carucate of land, valued at 12s. 4d. St. Bennet, that is the abbey of Ramsey, had the soc and protection, but the Earl laid claim to it by an exchange.<sup>1</sup> This appears to be held under the Earls Warren, by the Ingoldesthorps, of whom see in Wimbotsham, and passed to the Hares, as is there shown.

BARDOLPH MANOR.

Hermerus de Ferrer seized on 13 socmen, (as appears from the Book of Domesday;) who held 40 acres and a carucate, valued at 10s. his predecessor had only the protection of them.<sup>2</sup> This descended to the Lords Bardolph, and was held by Blake, and Prat, as I take it, and came to the Hares, as observed in Wimbotsham, but anciently went with the manor which the Lords Bardolph had in Wimbotsham.

Rainold, son of Ivo, had at the survey the land late of 3 freemen who held 20 acres and an half, valued at xd. and were under protection only; also of one freeman with 7 acres, whose protection lately was in the predecessor of William de Warren, valued at 12d.<sup>3</sup>—This descended to the Earls of Clere, and in the time of Henry III. Edward I. &c. was held of that honour by the family of the *Narford*s by the 23d part of a fee. This tenure went along with another small one held of the aforesaid honour in Berwell.

Roger Bigot had at the survey a freeman's land, who held 12 acres valued at 10d.—Also St. Audrey (that is the church of Ely) had 2 villains here, who held 12 acres and one acre of meadow, valued at xiiid. All Dunham is said then to be 3 furlongs long, and 2 broad.<sup>4</sup> Bigot's part seems to have come soon after into the hands of the Lords Bardolph, or to be held by them of the heirs of Bigot, and that which belonged to the church of Ely was granted by King Henry VIII. 10 Sept. in his 33d year, to the dean and chapter of Ely.

It is an agreeable town, well paved, has a good market on Saturday, supplied with fish and fowl from the neighbouring fens, and a bridge over the Ouse leading to Well, Wisbeach, &c. Near to this bridge, on the town side, is a market kept for butter every Monday, where, in the height of summer and spring, about 3000 firkins are said to be bought up by several factors, and sent hence by water to Cambridge, and thence to London by land carriage, and called there Cambridge butter. This bridge anciently belonged to the Lords Bardolph; and I find that on the 1st of July, in the 32d of King Henry VI. John Trenthale, in the name and license of John Lord Viscount Beaumont, (a descendant of the Lords Bardolph;) leased to Peter Baker, Thomas Spencer, Robert Lyster, and John Chaunter of Downham, the bridge here, at the rent of 13s. and 4d. per ann. they being obliged to keep it in repair at their own charge, and to take the accustomed

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Edmund, consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, built of car or rag-stone, and covered with lead; at the west end, stands a low four-square tower of the same materials, embattled, and with buttresses, quoins, &c. of free-stone, wherein are 5 bells; on this is erected a small spire of wood, covered with lead. The vault of the nave is supported by pillars forming 10 arches, 5 on each side, of a different workmanship, and turn; the roof is of oak, and at the west end is a neat gallery finced, &c. and on the old octangular font, a shield on each angle, viz. two arrows in saltire, with a crown over them, to set forth the shield of St. Edmund,—three escollops, St. James's,—a cross, St. George,—two swords in saltire, St. Paul,—a saltire, St. Andrew,—two keys in saltire, St. Peter,—a cross with two spears in saltire, with a crown of thorns on the head of the cross, our Saviour's shield; the other is obscure. In this nave hangs on a piece of iron work a glass or crystal branch with 8 sockets; the nave is in length about 62 feet, and breadth with the 2 isles about 45. —The chancel is camerated, and covered with reed, in length about 34 feet, and in breadth about 16; the communion table is railed in, and is ornamented with the 10 Commandments, and the pictures of Moses and Aaron. Against the north wall is a stone thus inscribed;

South of the chancel and adjoining is a little chapel, about 18 feet long and 13 broad, covered with lead; on the pavement lies a gravestone with a brass plate; what remains is this, - - - - - Johis. Rouse,

It appears from Norwich Domesday Book, that in the reign of Edward I. the abbey of Ramsay had the patronage, the rector held 30 acres of land, with an house, valued at 11 marks, Peter-pence, 16*d.* a pension was paid by the rector of 4*s.* per annum to the sacrist of that abbey, now a fee farm rent paid lately to Mr. Pile.

The rectory is valued at 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged of tenths and first-fruits.

In 1428, the temporalities of Carhow nunnery here were valued at 4*s.* 5*d.* per annum.

The temporalities of Ramsey abbey at 3*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*  $\frac{1}{2}$  per annum with the fishery and their spiritualties at 4*s.* 5*d.* with the priory or cell of Modeney.

In this church was the isle of our Lady, and the altar of our Lady—St. Edmund's gyldc, and St. James's, and St. John Baptist's.

<sup>6</sup> This John Batcomb was one of the clerks of the King's chapel, and the abbot and convent of Ramsay paid him 100*s.* per ann. at the King's request: on this presentation that pension ceased. Regist. Abb. Rams.

On the other side of the bridge of Downham, near to the foot of the said bridge, stood an old hermitage, or cell; this was probably founded by a Lord Bardolph, the presentation thereto being in that family, as appears from the rolls of the honour of Wirmegay, the seat of their barony. In the reign of King John, there was an agreement made between the custos of this hermitage and William, then rector of Downham, in the presence of Robert de Redings, then abbot of Ramsey, the patronage of the church of Downham being in that abbey, &c.

FINCHAM.

THIS town, at the grand survey, was in the tenure of several great Norman lords; the Earl Warren had 2 carucates of land, of which a freeman belonging to the soc of Ramsey abbey was deprived, and Hugh held it under that Earl; also the lands of 24 freemen, with 6 borderers, 4 servi, 10 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and half a carucate of the tenants, valued at 60s. This was a very considerable manor, and took its name from the family of Talbot, who were soon after the conquest enfeoffed of the same by the Earl Warren, to this lordship and family, the patronage of the church of St. Michael in this town belonged. William Talbot gave it to the priory of Castleacre, founded by the Earl Warren, and was confirmed by John Bishop of Norwich, who ordained that the monks should receive a mark of silver yearly. granted to Robert le Bigod the lands of John Talbot in this town, who took part with the rebellions barons.

In the 14th of Edward I. John de Pgrave, chaplain, settled lands as a trustee on Adam Talbot, and Petronella his wife.<sup>6</sup> This Adam had a manor and free tenants, a messuage, 2 carucates of land, 10 acres of meadow, a windmill, free bull and boar, 16 customary tenants who held 50 acres in villanage, and 7 cottages, held of William de Wauncy, and he of the Earl Warren.—In the 9th of Edward II. Peter Talbot, and Cecilia his wife, held the same; in the 20th of Edward III. John Talbot was lord; and in the 35th of that King, on the 18th of June, the prior and convent of Castleacre, let to farm (as patrons of St. Michael's church) to Thomas Burkyn, rector of the said church, with the consent of Thomas Bishop of Norwich, two parts of the demesns, formerly of Nigell, and William de Spineville, Sampson Tolebot, Richard de Mayners, Richard de la Coumbe, and of John de Littlewelle in Fincham, containing in all 860 acres of land, at the rent of 7 marks per ann.<sup>7</sup>

Thomas Talbot, son and heir of Thomas, was lord in the 17th of Henry VI. and sealed with six dexter hands couped at the wrist, which was the shield of Wauncy, who bore them, argent, in a field, gules; and Thomas Talbot, Gent. died seized of it, March 18, 1477, leaving Christopher his son and heir, John his son, and Florence his daughter;<sup>8</sup> and appoints Catharine his wife executor, and John Fincham, Esq. supervisor.

In the 36th of Henry VIII. John Spring, Esq. conveyed it to Edmund Lunnour, and Rose his wife; and in the 7th of Edward VI. Lunnour conveyed it to Thomas Drury;<sup>9</sup> but most of the demesns were separated from it before this; and soon after it came to the Finchams; and William Fincham conveyed it, 12th of Elizabeth, to Charles Cornwallis, Esq. who married his sister; Cornwallis, on Nov. 1, in the 28th of that Queen, to Thomas Gawsell, Esq. &c. On Aug. 30, in the 32d of the said Queen, it came to Francis Gawdy, Esq. (afterwards a judge) and by the marriage of his grand-daughter to the Earl of Warwick; and on May 20, and in the 18th of James I. was conveyed by him, Sir Thomas Cheek, and the Lady Essex his wife, to Sir Ralph Hare of Stow Bardolf, in whose family it continues; Sir George Hare, Bart. being late lord.

LITTLE-WELL HALL.

William de Littlewelle was lord before the reign of Henry III. Sampson de Littlewelle, in the said reign, held one messuage, 60 acres of land, 2 of meadow, with free tenants and villains, free bull and boar of the Earl Warren, by the moiety of a fee.<sup>1</sup> In the 17th of Edward II. John de Littlewelle of Fincham conveyed it to Hugh de Holecwoton, alias Helgeton, and Maud his wife, and Simon their son; and Maud, widow of the said Hugh, gave it to Agnes her daughter, by deed, sealed with barry of eight. Gregory Attclathe held it in the 14th of Richard II. and after that Thomas Thoresby; but, in the 9th of Henry IV.

William Thurton and Margaret his wife conveyed it, by fine, to the Lady Alianore Inglethorpe, relict of Sir William, who, in the said year, gave it to John Allen of Fincham. After this, Nicholas Geyton was lord, who by his will dated Nov. 10, 1476, gave it to Thomas his son; and was buried in the midst of St. Martin's church here; but in 1489, this manor, with 2 fold-courses, free bull and boar, &c. with a right of fishery, and pools in Littleport, Southrey, Hilgey, Fordham and Well, passed from the Geytons into the family of Fincham. In the 32d of Henry VIII. John Fincham died lord of it; and in the 12th of Elizabeth, William Fincham conveyed it to John Heigham, from whom it came to Thomas Gawsell, Jasper Blake, &c. who in the 32d of that Queen, sold it to Edmund Guybon and John Mundeford, Gents. then to Judge Gawdy, &c. and in the 17th of King James, Sir Thomas Cheek, &c. conveyed it to William Rolph, and so came to Sir Ralph Hare, in whose family it continues, being united with their other manors here.

COMB'S MANOR.

In the beginning of the reign of Henry III. Richard de la Comb was lord; and Edmund de la Comb, son of Richard, in the 16th of Edward I. whose daughter and heir, Joan, relict of Simon de Harptegne, possessed it in the 3d of Edward III. as appears by her deed and seal, with a head (probably that of St. John Baptist) in a charger and a bird in chief. She had two sons, Simon and Edmund; Simon assumed the name of Comb, and was lord in the 21st of the said King, as appears by his deed sealed with 4 escutcheons, two in fess, each charged with two men's heads couped, and respectant; one in chief, with a lion rampant, and one in base, with a lion couchant. Edmund aforesaid held of the Earl Warren one messuage, 20 acres of land, one of meadow, several free tenants, and had 3 villains, who held 18 acres. In the 6th of Henry IV. the heir of Thomas Combe of Fincham, held the same of the duchy of Lancaster, and was then (being under age) in the king's ward. In the 16th of Henry VI. John Stourton, and others were pardoned for purchasing without license of the dean of Wells this manor; but in the 27th of that king, John Bexwell was lord; and Thomas Bexwell, in the 4th of Edward IV. In the 4th of Henry VII. Richard Bexwell kept his first court as lord; and on March 28, in the 20th of Elizabeth, Francis Bexwell, Esq. sold it to Charles Cornwallis, Esq. then it came to Thomas Gawsell, &c. as above, and to Sir Ralph Hare, &c. and so it was united to the other lordships.

BENEFELD'S MANOR.

John de Benefeld was lord in the reign of Henry III. William Benefeld his son (as I take it) married Agnes, daughter of Richard de Moyners; which Richard had also a lordship here, and gave the title of his demesns to the priory of Castlecreve. This Agnes being a widow, and Isabel her sister and coheir, wife of Philip Newland, came to a division of their inheritance about the end of the aforesaid reign, whereby Isabel was to have lauds in Marham, and her heirs; and

Agnes, and her heirs, lands in Halseton and Orlarswyk in Sussex; and both agree, that the land in Fincham, held in dower by Latitia, their brother Ralph's widow, should be equally divided after her decease; but the capital messuage there should be Isabell's. In the time of Edward I. Richard de Benefeld held it of the Earl Warren, by the 4th part of a fee; he had 60 acres of land, with a messuage, 6 of meadow, several free tenants and villains, free bull and boar. In the reign of Edward II. John de Benefeld was lord; the manor was then valued at 9*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.* ob. per ann. rent of assise of the free tenants, and the capons at 25*s.* and 4*d.* of the villains 7*s.* 8*d.* hens 5*s.* 2*d.* and the customary works, at 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. about the 6th of Henry IV. it was in the hands of Joan, widow of John de Benefeld. Afterwards it came to the Finchams, Gawdy, and so to the Hares, and is united as above.

NEWLAND'S MANOR.

In the reign of Henry III. Ralph Newland was lord; the said Ralph held of the Earl Warren a messuage, 6 acres of land, one villain, who held 6 acres of land, free tenants, and one cottager by the 4th part of a fee. Barthol. Newbant was lord of it in the 20th of Edward III. but about the 6th of Henry IV. John de Fincham was possessed of it; from which family it came, in the reign of Elizabeth, to Gawdy, &c. and so to the Hares, and is united to the other lordships.

NEW-HALL, AND NELESHALL MANORS.

John, son of John of Newhall, was lord in the 7th of Edward II. and John of Newhall, and Catherine his wife, in the 3d of Edward III. in the 17th of Henry VI. John, son of John de Benefeld, and Richard Say, conveyed the manor of Neleshall to William Isle, &c.; but in the 33d of Henry VIII. John Fincham died possessed of them; and in the 12th of Elizabeth, William Fincham sold it to John Heigham; from him it came, in the 32d of that reign, to Gawcell, so to Gawdy, &c. and the Hares, and is united to the other lordships with that of New-Hall also.

FINCHAM-HALL

Was a considerable lordship, held by a family that gave name to it under the Earl Warren. Nigellus de Fincham was lord in the reign of William II. and gave the title of his demeane to Castleacre priory. Osbert de Fincham lived in the time of Henry II. Reimer, eldest son of Osbert died s. p. Robert his brother had a son John, and Richard was son and heir of John, as appears by a pleading in the 43d of Henry III.

William de Fincham, and Julian his wife, occur in the 52d of Henry III. Adam was his son and heir, who married Annabel, daughter of David Denys. Adam was attorney-general to King Edward II.

Ao. 18. Thomas de Fincham was son of Adam, as by a fine, Ao. 22 Edward III. and sealed with a lion rampant, and a bend, ermine: John, and Christian his wife, called also son of Adam, were living in the 45th of that King; and in 48th, she was the wife of Simon de la Hay.<sup>3</sup> The first wife of this John seems to have been Alice, daughter and heir of Robert de Causton.

John Fincham, son of John, aliened lands in the 16th of Richard II. to the prior of Ely. Simon Fincham, son of John, married Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of John Tendring, Esq. of Brockdish in Norfolk. His last will is dated Nov. 25, 1458;<sup>4</sup> was buried in the church of St. Martin's of Fincham, and appoints John his son, and Elizabeth, his wife executors; he had a daughter Alice married to John Batchcroft, Esq.

John Fincham, Esq. son of Simon, was steward of the manors of the abbot of Ramsey, and took to wife Beatrix, daughter of Thomas Thoresby of Lynn; and dying September 6, 1496, was buried in St. Martin's church.

John Fincham, son and heir of John, died soon after his father, on April 30, 1499. He seems to have married two wives: in the church of St. Martin's, on his gravestone, were to be seen the arms of Fincham impaling, argent, a fess between three martlets in chief, and a chevron in base, azure, Tey of Essex; Jane, daughter and heir of Sir John Tey, was one of his wives; also Fincham impaling, lozengy . . . . on a chief, an eagle displayed . . . .

John Fincham, his son and heir, married to his first wife Alice, daughter of Thomas Bedingfeld of Osburgh, and to his 2d wife Ela, daughter of Gregory Edgar; he died Oct. 8, in the 32d of Hen. VIII. Ela, his widow's, will is dated Jan. 24, in the 32 of Henry VIII. mention is made therein of her son Thomas Fincham, and her daughter Ela, her father Gregory Edgar, her sister Calibut, her cousins Osbert Mundeford, and Richard Batchcroft;<sup>5</sup> Ela her daughter died a maid, Feb. 28, after her mother. In her will, dated Feb. 9, she desires to be buried in St. Martin's church; appoints her brother Thomas executor; Sir John Spilman, supervisor, mentions therein her aunts Newton, Skipwith, and Calibut by the father's side; her cousins Mary and Catherine Calibut, her cousins John Shouldham, Sim. Fyncham.

Thomas Fincham, son of John and Ela, married Martha, daughter of William Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham in Norfolk, afterwards married to John Heigham, Esq. His will is dated March 1, 1550, and proved 21 Dec. 1551;<sup>6</sup> mention is made therein of his son William, and daughter Ann, his brother Henry Yelverton, his uncle Calibutt, his cousins Fincham of Well, and Fincham of Westwynche; appoints his wife executrix, and her father Yelverton, supervisor. He died possessed of several manors here; manors, lands, and tenements in Barnham Depedale, B. Norton, B. Westgate, B. Sutton, B. Upe, Brancaster, Hunworth, Holt and Edgfield, in Barton Boudish, Stoke Ferry, Wretton, Werham, Buckton, Shouldham, Roxham, and Seche, in Norfolk. Of manors, lands, and tenements in Brantham, Caty-wade, East Bergholt, Capell, and Sutton in Suffolk.

William Fincham, his son and heir, succeeded, and married ——— daughter of ——— Lovell; and dying without issue in the 14th of Elizabeth, having conveyed this lordship, as is before observed, to Charles Cornwallis, Esq. who married his sister Ann, and conveyed it to Thomas Gawsell, whence it came to Gawdy, &c. so to the Hare family; and Sir George Hare, Bart. was the late lord.

BURNHAM, OR BRONHAM-HALL.

Philip de Burnham held also a lordship here, under the Earl Warren, as I take it.<sup>7</sup> He and Emma his wife, and William his son and heir, gave to the monks of Castleacre his mill in this town, with the site thereof, viz. five perches of land, which he exchanged with William, son of Osbert of the said town; witnesses, Frederick de Hakeford, Roger Spriggens, Rein. de Duntun, John de Watlington, &c. and Emma in her widowhood confirmed the same grant; witnesses, Frederick, &c. sans date: afterwards it came to the Grandcourts.

Roger Grandcourt and Joan his wife grant, in the 18th of Edward II. to Ralph de Keteleston, burgess of Lynn, &c. two parts of this manor in Fincham and Stradset;<sup>8</sup> also the 3d part which William de Atehaw and Agnes his wife held in dower; and in the 12th of the said King, Ralph de Keteleston held a court as lord; but in the 25th of Edward III. John de Fincham was lord, and kept his court, (Keteleston's right being conveyed to him,) and in the 29th of the said King, William de Barsale, Robert Eyle, and John Emmesson held a court in right of some part of the same; but soon after the whole was in the Fincham family, and came with their other lordships to the Hares.

The next capital and considerable lord at the survey was Hermicus de Ferrariis, who had 3 carucates of demean land, 3 villains, 15 bordarers, 7 servi, 13 acres of meadow, &c. and a right in the 4th part of a church, and 260 sheep; to this belonged a wood half a leuca long, and the manor was a quarter of a leuca broad, and a quarter long, valued at 8*l. per ann.* He had also seized on 20 freemen, who held in the Confessor's time 2 carucates of land, 2 carucates and 10 acres of meadow, valued then at 60*s.* after at 58*s.* and 4*d.*—Also 16 acres, valued at 10*d. per ann.*<sup>9</sup> Eight of these freemen were under protection, belonging to the lord's fold, in King Edward's time; the rest of these freemen held their land under protection only.

This afterwards descended (as may be seen in Wirmegay) to the Lords Bardolfs, and constituted also several lordships, as follows:

FARESWELL MANOR

Was part of the barony of Wirmegay, and seems to be held of it in the 20th of Henry III. by Waleran de Teyes. In the beginning of the reign of Edward I. Roger de Predetyn, son of Peter and Ascelina his wife, held it under the Lord Bardolf by the service of half a fee; it consisted of free tenants, 21 villains, who held 60 acres, and cottagers; 2 messuages, 2 carucates of land, 10 acres of meadow, free bull and boar. It came afterwards into the family of Trusbut; and Laur. Trusbutt, Esq. was lord in the reign of Richard II.—On the death of Will. Lord Viscount Beaumont, who died without issue in 1307, the barony of Wirmegay eschaeting to the Crown, King Henry VIII. on the 23d of May, in his 6th year, let to farm this manor, with the perquisites of court, to Sir John Tilney, Knt. and John Fincham, Esq. for 21 years, paying 8l. per ann. and in the 5th of Edward VI. it was granted to Thomas Horsman, who in the said year had license to alienate it to John Aysborough, to be held of the Crown, in capite, by knight's service.

In the 4th of Elizabeth, Sir Richard Sackville had license to alienate it to Thomas and William Guybon of Lynn; William Guybon was lord in 1570: he married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Drury, Esq. of Fincham; and ——— Guybon, Esq. of Thursford in Norfolk sold it about 1720 to Richard Warner, Esq. of Elmham in Norfolk, who soon after conveyed it to Dr. Rudd, rector of North Rungton; and, by the marriage of his daughter, came to Dr. Deck, M. D.

CURPLE MANOR

Was held by Jeffrey Curple, and Roger Curple, in the reign of Henry III. when an aid was granted to that King, on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor, (by the service of half a fee,) of the Lord Bardolf. This Roger appears to have had 4 daughters, Alice, Isabel, Catharine, and Agnes; and Catharine their mother, widow of Roger, granted lands in Sudbury, in Suffolk, &c. to Roger of the Exchequer, in the 42d of Henry III. John Curple, in the 16th of Edward I. held it, consisting of a messuage, one carucate of land, 4 acres of meadow, a windmill, free bull and boar, with free tenants, villains and cottagers. In the 12th of Edward II. Roger Curple conveyed to Maud, widow of John de Causton, messuages, lands, and a mill. This Roger died lord in the 3d of Edward III. his sister and heir married John Talbot, and their daughter and heir Alice married Robert de Causton: the said Robert and Alice, in the 16th of that King, settled lands on John de Fincham, and Alice his wife in this town, probably daughter of Robert, on her marriage; but in the 41st of the said reign, Nicholas Fastolf, and Joan his wife, held the 3d part of this manor; and in the 15th of Richard II. John de Wesenham conveyed a 2d part, with the appertinances in Buckton and Roxham, with the fishery of Redbeche, which he had of Hugh his father, to John de Fincham; and in the following year, Bartholomew Elys of Yarmouth, and Margaret his wife, conveyed their 3d part to the aforesaid John, so that the whole centered in him; and William Fincham (as is above observed) conveyed it to his brother Cornwallis, and so came to Gaw-sell, Richard Cheek, &c. to the Hares, in which family it continued, and is united to the other manors.

† Sir Thomas Guybon was son of this William, from whom descend the Guybons of Thursford.

GRANDCOURT MANOR.

Roger Grancurt was possessed of it about the beginning of King Henry the Third's reign, and William de Grancurt in the 45th of that King, who held it of William de Calthorp, and Cecil his wife, whose inheritance it is said to be, and she of the honour of Wirmegay; the said William had also then a grant of the reversion of the land which William de Wigenhale, and Isabel his wife held in dower of Cecil's inheritance here. Walter de Grandcourt held it in the 14th of Edward I. by the 3d part of a fee of the Lord Bardolph; it consisted then of a messuage, 80 acres of land, 2 of meadow, of free tenants, and 6 villains, who held 24 acres of land; but in the 20th of Edward III. Thomas de Keteleston was lord; and in the 3d of Henry IV. John de Fincham, in which family it continued till William Fincham, Esq. conveyed it to Thomas Heigham, in the 12th of Elizabeth; and in the 22d of that Queen, it came to Gaw-sell, who conveyed it to Guybon and Mundeford; so to Gawdy, Rich, Sir Thomas Cheek, and the Hares.

BROTHERS-HALL.

Simon de Brothers-Hall was lord, whose daughter Gumelda conveyed it by fine, with lands in this town, to John Talebot, in the 24th of Henry III. John de Causton held it in the reign of Edward II. and in the 19th of Edward III. gave to John de Brympton a portion of it. On the 1st of May, in the 12th of Elizabeth, John Carsey of Revesby in Lincolnshire sold it to Hugh Hare, Esq. in which family it remained, Sir George Hare, Bart. being late lord. I take this to have been held of the honour of Wirmegay, though the tenure does not appear from any evidences.

BAINARD-HALL.

A third great lord in this town was Ralph Lord Bainard, who at the survey was possessed of the manor that Alid, a free woman, held in the reign of the Confessor, and was deprived of, consisting of one carucate of land, 4 bordarers, 3 servi, a carucate, and 12 acres of meadow; and when Ralph entered on it, there were 2 runces, &c. 40 sheep, &c. valued at 50s. but at the survey at 40s.—St. Audrey, that is, the church of Ely, laid claim to it, as the hundred witnessed.—And in the said town there were 6 freemen who had a carucate of land, with 2 bordarers, and a carucate, and 9 acres of meadow, which Ralph had a grant of on their expulsion. He had also invaded the lands of 6 freemen, with 2 bordarers, a carucate, and 8 acres of meadow, valued at 20s. but at the survey at 40s. his tenants claimed it, by an exchange, but had not livery of it.<sup>2</sup>

This Ralph Lord Bainard had from the Conqueror, for his services, a grant of many lordships in Essex, Suffolk, &c. and in Norfolk of these following—Kerdeston and Refham in Einsford hundred—Skeyton in South Erpingham hundred—Crostwick and Berton in Tunsted hundred—Riston in Happing hundred—Hemenhale, Boyland, Hates-tun, Fritton and Hardwick in Depewade hundred—Raveningham, South-wood, Kirkeby, Norton, Jerpestuna, Hales, Whetacre, Hadesco and Thurton in Claveling hundred—Fincham, Barton, Shouldham, Gar-boisthorp, Tottenhale, Wiggenham, Boughton, Stoke, Fordham, Derham and Bekeswell, in Clacklose hundred—Starston in Grimshoe hundred—Bradenham in South Grenhoe hundred—Merton in Weyland hundred—Wilby in Shropham hundred—Titleshale, Wellingham and Scarning in Launditch hundred—Wicklewood and Dikethorp in Four-how hundred—Chatgrave and Carlton in Lothing hundred.

This lord by Juga his wife had Geffrey, his son and heir, who lived in 1106: unto him succeeded William Bainard, who taking part with Elias Earl of Mayne in France, against Henry I. lost his barony of Bainard's castle in London, which was given by that King to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz-Gilbert (progenitor of the Earls of Clare:) from this Robert the noble family of the Lords Fitz-Walters descend, who held this lordship in capite.

In the 44th of Henry III. William de Ireland conveyed to Robert de Cantilupe, and Ivetta his wife, a messuage, with a carucate of land, and 4s. per ann. with the land which Alice, wife of John de Risley, held in dower.<sup>3</sup> After this, John de Cantilupe his son held it of the Lord Fitzwalter, by the service of half a fee; it consisted of a messuage, a carucate and an half of land, 2 acres of meadow, free tenants, and 9 villains held 40 acres of land, and a free bull and boar.

In the 16th of Edward I. there was a suit commenced between Robert Lord Fitzwalter, Richard Bishop of London, and William de Boyton, about the right of the wardship of Isabella, daughter and heir of the aforesaid John, and Matilia his wife, who being then the widow of John, had the care of her daughter consigned to her till it was determined; but in the 33d of that King, it was settled by Robert Lord Fitz-Walter, on Adam de Waldingfeld for life.<sup>4</sup> In the 2d of Edward III. it was found to be worth 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. and in the 27th of the said King, John Lord Fitzwalter claimed a right of felons goods here.

In the reign of Henry VI. it came into the Ratcliffe family, by the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Walter Lord Fitz-Walter, to John Ratcliffe, Esq. and in the 21st of Henry VII. was settled by Margaret, widow of John Lord Fitz-Walter, and Robert her son, on trustees. After this, it came to the Finchams; and John Fincham, Esq. died seized of it, in the 32d of Henry VIII. In this family it continued till William Fincham conveyed, in the 12th of Elizabeth, to his brother Cornwallis, and so came to Gawsell, Gawdy, Rich, Check, and Hare; Sir George Hare being the late lord.

Rainald, son of Ivo, held also a manor here at the survey; 16 acres of land, and one of meadow, held by a freeman in King Edward's reign, valued at 2s. per ann. Wihenoc seized on this, and held it under Ivo; and Herluin, a dependant of Ivo, seized on 15 acres, which a freeman held, valued at 10d. and Mainard seized on one acre and an half, valued at 9d.<sup>5</sup>

This came afterwards to the Earls of Clare, and was given partly to Shouldham abbey by Jeff. Fitz-Piers the founder. In the 20th of Edward I. the prior of that house held it; and Gilbert de Clare Earl of Clare gave 10s. per ann. rent here to the convent of Stoke, by Clare in Suffolk.—The prior of Shouldham paid 20d. for his temporalities in 1426.

The church of Ely had at the survey 16 acres of land, held by 3 bordarers, and a carucate and 10 acres of meadow, valued at 10s.<sup>6</sup> In the reign of King Edward I. John Talebot was found to hold one messuage, 20 acres of land, a windmill, free bull and boar, of Simon de Lylde, and Sim. of the Bishop of Ely, by the service of 10s. per ann. He also held a messuage of the prior of Castleacre, and the prior of the Earl Warren, paying 2s. per ann. In the 16th of Richard II. John Fincham, and others gave lands here, and in Werham, &c. to the prior of Ely.

The abbot of Bury held 16 acres of land, and 4 of meadow, valued at 2s. 8d.<sup>7</sup> This was held by one socman afterwards, as appears from the Register Pinchbeck of that abbey, p. 180.

The tenths were 14l.—Deducted 3l. 6s. 8d.

The lete of this town was in the abbot of Ramsey; and on the dissolution of that house, was given to the Hares.—Lete-fee, 3s.

The temporalities of Derham abbey, with the priory of Winwaloy here, were valued at 15s. in 1428;—the temporalities of the priory of Wirmegay 11d.—the temporalities of the sacrist of Bury at 8s.—of the prior of Castleacre at 12s. and 1d.—the abbot of Ramsey for the lete, &c. 20s.—the prioress of Carhow, 5s. and the temporalities of Shouldham at 20d.

FINCHAM ST. MARTIN'S CHURCH. This is a large, regular, well-built church of flint, boulder, &c. consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, and a chancel at the east end of the nave, all covered with lead: at the west end of the nave is a very lofty, four-square tower of the same materials, with quoins and embattlements of free-stone, neatly worked; on the buttresses, and also on the battlements, may be seen the arms of Fincham, the founders or benefactors of this pile.

In this tower hang 4 bells; on the least is this inscription; Sancta Maria Ora pro Nobis; and on the tenor, Viventis Misere Pater Omnipotens Miserere. This bell was used on the death of any person, and was called the soul peal, or passing bell. The nave of this church, from the west door to the screen, is about 83 feet in length, and the breadth, including the north and south isles, is about 43 feet; the roof is of good oak, supported by principals, on the heads whereof are angels, and monks in their cowles and habits, but with heads like dæmons and furies. The vault of this nave is supported by 10 arches, 5 on each side, with a like number of windows over them. At the west end of the nave stands a large stone font, with a four-square bason about a yard square. On the south side, or square are the figures of three men, under three arches of stone, in a very rude and antique dress. (Plate I. Fig. 4.) On the west side, something resembling a crib or manger, and a child therein; over that two heads, (like oxen,) but broke; also above them something like a star, to set forth the birth of our Saviour, and the wise men with their offerings. (Plate I. Fig. 5.) On this square are also two figures, one much broken, the other like an ancient Druid, probably to represent John the Baptist. On the north side is the figure of a Bishop in his robes, and with a mitre, and crosier staff, and is likely to represent St. Augustine, the apostle of the English; the 2d figure is like that of a priest in a pulpit or desk, and the 3d figure is obscure.—On the east side is Adam and Eve, and another figure not to be seen, the font here joining to a pillar. This Gothic font, with its rude arches, figures, &c. in basso-relievo, is undoubtedly a piece of great antiquity. That the ancients used thus to adorn their fonts, may be seen from that curious one erected by Constantine the Emperor.—On the pavement, at the east end of the nave, lie several old marble gravestones, now deprived of their brass ornaments and inscriptions. On one is the portraiture of a woman in her shroud, with her hands across; but the legend is reaved. On another is the effigies of a woman in her shroud remaining: by the incision of the stone, it appears that here was also the portraiture of a man in his shroud between his two wives; part of the other woman is preserved in the chest. Here were also several shields, and a plate of brass, but they are all reaved. This, probably, was in memory of John Fincham, who died in the 23d of Henry VIII. and of his two wives. A modern author asserts,<sup>9</sup> that in the parish church here, were divers monuments for several of the family of Fincham, but all ancient, viz. the 14th century. Whereas what I have already observed is all the monumental remains of this family now in the church, and the brasses have been reaved time immemorial. Weaver, who took things upon trust, or else was negligent in his own survey, accounts only for three inscriptions on the many gravestones of this church.

On the pulpit:—Gregory Watson, servant to the right worshipful Sir Francis Gawdy Kt. made this at his own charge, Anno Dom. 1604. At the east end of the south isle is an ascent as to an altar, and in the east window is the effigies of some abbess or saint, probably St. Audrey, with her crosier staff, and crowned. The east end of the north isle has a like ascent, where there has been also an altar; and in the east window is the effigies of Mary surnamed Salome, the wife of Zeladee, with her two little children by her side, St. John and St. James; John in a blue gown, bearing in his hand a cup, with a dragon issuing out of it; and James in a green gown, and an escollop shell in his hand. In the window are these arms (Plate I. Fig. 6, 7.) Azure, an eagle displayed, or, beaked and membered, gules, Shouldham. Barry of six, argent and sable, a bend over all, ermine.—Fincham, azure, a fess between two chevron, argent, Tendring. Gyrony of eight azure and ermine, Trussbutt; and in the same window the arms of St. George, argent, a cross gules. The chancel is divided from the nave by a screen, (over which the Commandments and the King's arms are handsomely painted,) and is in length about 31 feet, and in breadth about 19. On the pavement near the lowest south window, lies a gravestone, to which was fixed a brass plate, which is now preserved in the church chest, but is much broken.

The south side of the chancel is embattled and coped with free<sup>m</sup> stone, as is the wall of the south isle of the church, and adorned with pinnacles: and on the north side of the chancel is a vestry covered with lead, on the wall a niche for a statue; and here seems to have been a place for an anchoret.

FINCHAM ST. MICHAEL. This church is built of flint and boulder, and consists only of a nave, or body, with a chancel covered with lead. At the west end of the nave stands a large square tower embattelled with quoins and copings of free-stone, and a pinnacle at each corner; and herein hang three bells. The length of the nave, from the west door to the chancel, is about 60 feet, and in breadth about 27. The roof is supported by oaken principals; on the head of which have been the effigies of religious persons in their habits; but their heads are broken off. In the upper window of this nave, on the south side, were these arms (Plate I. Fig. 8, 9,) argent, a lion rampant, gules, Bokenham of Norfolk; quarterly, azure three cinquefoils, or, in the 1st and 4th, Bardolph; and barry of six, or and vert, a bend over all gules, Poinings. The chancel is in length about 33 feet, and in breadth about 18; the upper part of the wall on the north side is of brick embattled, and coped with free-stone; also a little free-stone porch or passage into the chancel; in the centre of the arch there seem to be cinquefoils cut, the arms of the Lords Bardolfs.

On the pavement here is a gravestone thus inscribed:

Here lieth the bodies of Robert and Sarah (aged the one 8, and the other 7 years) the son and daughter of Arthur King, of Tilney, Gent. and Sarah his wife, who were buried, Robert on the 2d, and Sarah on the 15th of Oct. 1683.

*Hail happy souls, who like their angels were Young, active, chaste, and free from vice,
And now are called by God's indulgent care,
To dwell with them in paradise.
God grant we by repentance may obtain,
What you by innocence did earlier gain.*

On the communion table: William Hubbard died 1623, and gave this table. In the east window are the arms of Derham abbey.—Against the north wall is a little decent copartment of stone, and in the centre, on a black marble,

Sub felices resurrectionis spe Christi præstolans epiphaniam, hic juxta situs est Reverendus Vir Daniel Baker, A.M. hujus ecclesiæ per XL annos, rector orthodoxæ Christi ecclesiæ, dictis, scriptis, precibus exemplar et incomparabile propugnaculum: Divini Jobæ patientiæ quam poesi depinxit, verus vitæ imitator. Idem ex indefessa operâ in studiis, assiduâ pietate in Deum, rara amicitate in suos, spectata probitate in omnes, æternam admirandus. Annorum satur ad cælos migravit, Feb. 19. An. salut. M. DCCXXII. Ætat. 69.—Maria uxor mastissima hoc in perpetuum conjugatis amoris memoriam erexit.

Against the said wall, east from this, is an inarched monument of stone: in this arch is a raised tomb about 2 feet from the ground; on each side of this arch, on the summit, is a niche carved for some statue; there is no inscription or arms about it, and probably it was the Sepulchrum Domini, or the sepulchre of our Lord. Opposite to this, on the south side of the chancel, are three stone seats or stalls, raised within the wall, having 3 arches, one over each seat; which seats are about 2 feet in depth, and above 3 in height; on the summit of each arch rises a pyramid of stone, carved, and pointing to the cornice, which juts out from the wall about 3 inches. Such seats and stalls are still to be seen in many old churches, and were for the bishop, priest, and deacon, or the rector, curate, or chantry priests. The stalls here differ from others in this; that of the bishop or rector is about two inches higher than that of the priest; and the stall of the priest is the same, in respect of the deacon. Over the stall of the bishop are these two shields; quarterly, France and England; (Plate I. Fig. 10.) and quarterly, (Plate I. Fig. 11.) argent in the 1st and 4th; in the 2d and 3d, gules, a fret, or; over all, a bend, sable; in a bordure of the last, eight mitres of the 2d. Spencer's arms, Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of Edward III. and Richard II. when I conceive this church was built. Over the arch of the 2d stall, (Plate I. Fig. 12.) quarterly, checq. or, and azure, in the 1st and 4th quarter, Earl Warren and Surrey: in the 2d and 3d, gules, a lion rampant, or, Fitz-Alan Earl of Arundel. Azure, (Plate I. Fig. 13.) three cinquefoils, or, Lord Bardolf. Over the arch of the lowest seat, (Plate I. Fig. 14.) or, a fess between two chevronels, gules, Lord Fitz-Walter. Gules, 3, 2, and 1 escallops, argent, Lord Scales. These arms were all washed over with whitening, but no doubt were formerly painted in their proper colours. The lords above-mentioned held lands in capite in this town, as has been shown, except the Lord Scales, and he had a lordship in the adjoining town of Barton, which extended here.

Besides the arms above observed, here were anciently in the windows, the arms of Binston, as in St. Martin's, Fincham.<sup>1</sup> Azure, a bend, argent. Trusbut, as in St. Martin's, Fincham, and Bardolf. Tending and Braunch, as in St. Martin's church. Argent, six dexter hands, 3, 2, and 1. Wauucey and Talbot. Sable (rather azure) a cross compony argent and gules, borne by Cockfield and Felbrigg.

Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the prior of Castleacre two parts of the tithes of the demcans of Nigell, and William de Spinewill, Sampson Talbot, Richard de Meyners, Richard de Calcomb, and John de Littlewell, in 1261; these demcans contained 850 acres of land, and more: two parts of these tithes the prior let to Thomas Burkyu, rector, and his successour, for 7 marks per ann. in the year 1361.

In the 33d of Henry III. a fine was levied between John, prior of Castleacre, Peter, and Adam Talbot, tenant of the advowson of this church, granted to the prior.<sup>2</sup> By this it seems that the advowson of this church belonged to the Earl Warren's fee, and was held by the Talbots; but before this, it appears from the register of Castleacre, that John Bishop of Norwich confirmed to that priory this church, of the gift of William Talbot, patron; and that the monks should receive a mark of silver per ann. of the parson of the said church; and Sampson Talbot confirmed the donation of his uncle William. It was valued at 16 marks: Peter-pence, 14d.

RECTORS.

John de Pagrave occurs rector, and resigned to Derham, who was instituted in the 9th year of Bishop Walter Suffield.

Jeffrey de Derham, rector:<sup>3</sup> in the 37th of Henry III. a fine was levied between him and Roger Talebot of half an acre of land here, granted to Roger, who thereupon gave to the said Jeffrey a messuage, garden, and curtilage, to be held by him, and his successours, late Hugh's, father of Roger, at the yearly rent of 5d.;<sup>4</sup> he occurs also in the 43d of the said King.

Reginald de Cressenhale was rector of Fincham in 1293: he was dean of South Malting in Kent,<sup>4</sup> and rector of Upmonyngham in the said county, and died in the aforesaid year. In the 3d of Edward I. the jury for the hundred find, that the prior of Shouldtham held 9 acres here, of the gift of Philip Newland, and Richard de Enuebys, in the reign of King Henry III. and the abbot of Derham 12 acres, of the gift of Sampson de Littlewell, held of the Earl Warren.

1311, Adam de Saxham, presented by Walter the prior, and the convent of Castleacre.

1313, Jeffrey Brian, presented by the prior, &c.

1317, Mr. Steven de Kettleburgh, by the prior, &c.

F O S T O N.

THERE are now only 2 or 3 cottages, or houses, standing of this village, on the London road to Lynn, called Foston-Gap: in Domesday Book, it is wrote Fodeston and Fodesthorp. The chief lordship was in the church of Ely.

At the survey, there belonged to it a carucate of land, and 3 villains, with 2 bordarers, one carucate in demean, and half a one amongst the tenants, with 2 acres of meadow; 80 sheep, &c. valued at 20s. It was 4 furlongs long, 3 broad, and paid 4*l.* gelt. Ulchetel, the man (or vassal) of Hermerus de Ferrariis, lord of Wirmegay, a town adjoining, claimed it, as free to be seized on, not being church lands, and was ready to prove it by battle, ordeal, or any other legal manner; and there was another ready to prove, in the same manner, that it belonged to the church on the day that King Edward died; the whole hundred also witnessed, that it belonged to the church of Ely in King Edward's time.<sup>9</sup>

From this outrageous claim, we may perceive with what violence and oppression the Conqueror and his adherents behaved on the conquest, being not contented with the lands of the laity, that they seized on, but made such notorious false claims on the lands of the religious, so that they were by no means secure in their possessions.

However, the church maintained her right. In the 9th of Edward II. the prior of Ely was lord, and so continued till the dissolution, and was granted afterwards to the dean and chapter of Ely, where it continues, and was held of them by the late Sir George Hare, Bart.

Rainold, son of Ivo, had half a carucate of land, and a bordarer, with half a carucate, valued at 10s. and Ralph held it of him, and Wihenoc had invaded it.<sup>1</sup> This came afterwards to the Earls of Clare; Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex held it of them; and, on his founding the priory of Shouldham, gave it to that house, in the reign of King John; and the prior had a charter for free warren here, in the 33d of Henry III. At the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and King Edward VI. gave it with lands in Totenhill, &c. on May 6, Ao.

Hermerus de Ferrariis lord of Wirmegay, had seized on 40 acres, a carucate, and 3 acres of meadow, which 6 freemen held under protection only of his predecessor; and because they were in want of pasture, they paid rent to him for it; it was valued at 5s.<sup>2</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. Alexander le Moyne, or Monk, and his parceners, were found to hold the 4th part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf, as of the honour of Wirmegay; he was son of Sir Peter le Moyne, and gave rents to the sisters of St. Mary Magdalen in Norwich.

In the 3d of Edward III. Benedict Russell, &c. held lands, and in the 20th, John Russel had the 4th part of a fee here, and in Thorp, called Russel Moyns: afterwards, the Beaumonts being capital lords, and forfeited to the Crown, King Henry VIII. on September 10, Ao. 33, granted it to the dean and chapter of Ely, and is now vested in them, and held lately by Sir George Hare, Bart.

The tenths were 1*l.* 10s.—Deducted 6s. 8*d.*—In the 16th of Richard II. John Fincham, &c. aliened to Ely priory a messuage, 27 acres of land, 3 acres of meadow, 6 of pasture, with liberty of a fold here and in Garboysthorp. The temporalities of that priory were valued, in 1428, at 33s. and 4*d.*—The temporalities of Shouldham priory at 50s. and  $\frac{1}{2}$ .—Of Wirmegey, at 5s. 10*d.*

Here was formerly a church, but now no remains of it; it was a rectory, dedicated to St. Peter, valued at 8 marks; and paid Peterpence 10*d.* and in the patronage of Ely priory.

F O R D H A M.

THIS village lies east of the great Ouse, and north of the river Wissey; and here is a causeway over a fenny ground to Helgay, often overflowed, but fordable; from whence, it is probable, it takes its name.

Several lords at the survey were concerned in this town: Hermenus de Ferrariis, seized on 3 freemen, who held 24 acres in the Confessor's time, valued at 2s. of these only the protection was in his predecessor.<sup>3</sup> This, with other lands belonging to Riston, Beckswell, Derham, &c. which Hermenus held, (and after him the Lords Bardolf's) made up the manors of Riston, and of Helgton, or Hembleton Hall, in this town. In the reign of Henry III. the family of Stradset was found to hold a lordship of the Lord Bardolf, and of the honour of Wirmegay; and in the time of Edward III. Nicholas de Stradsete held here, in Stradsete, Barsale, &c. a knight's fee of the said honour. In the 9th of Edward III. Gilbert de Hethill, parson of the church of Tottenhall in Norfolk, gave to the prior of the Holy Cross of Wormegay a messuage, 40 acres of land, 5 of pasture and 5s. rent, in Fordham-Hithe; and Riston held, of the aforesaid Nicholas, paying 5s. per ann. and in the 16th of Richard II. John Davy, and others, aliened lands and tenements here, &c. to the said priory.

John Cavendish, and George Nessfield, as heirs to the Stradsets, held the same in the reign of Henry VI. of the Lord Bardolf. The part thus given to the prior of Wirmegay was called Hembleton-hall, alias Uphall.

The priory of Wirmegay being dissolved, and annexed with all its appertinances to that of Pentney, came, on the general dissolution, to the Crown; and Queen Elizabeth granted the manor here, with the advowson of a moiety of the church to William Barber, and John Jenkins, on the 3d of August, in her 7th year; afterwards it came to the Skipwiths, who possessed it in the 40th of the said Queen.

Jeffrey Carpell held also, in the reign of Henry III. a manor here, in Roxham, West-Derham, &c. of the Lord Bardolf; which Roger Carpell gave in the reign of Edward III. to the priory of Wirmegay: this also was granted, together with the abovementioned, at the said time, to Barber and Jenkins, and so came to the Skipwiths.

St. Etheldreda (the church of Ely) had, in King Edward's reign, 3 bordarers, who held at the survey 12 acres, valued at 2s. and the abbot of Ely had seized on 30 acres, which a freeman held, 3 borderers, and half a carucate, valued at 4s. of this his predecessor had the protection only.<sup>4</sup>

This went along with the abbot's manor of Berwell, and held in the reign of Edward I. by Stephen Berwell. In the 14th of the said King, John, son of Henry de Deen, held lands of the Bishop of Ely, as did Stephen de Dunmby; and John de Deen and Maud his wife, in the said year, conveyed a moiety of the church of Fordham, belonging to him, to Robert de Benhale, and Robert to Hervey de Stanton, and so came to John de L'Isle; afterwards it was in the Skipwiths.

William Earl Warren had 111 acres, which 2 freemen were deprived of.<sup>5</sup> This belonged to his manor of Denver that extended here.

Rainold, son of Ivo, had seized on 3 freemen, with 25 acres, and were under protection; the abbot of Ramsey had the soc; also on one freeman, with 5 acres, of whom the abbot of Bury had the commendation, or protection, in King Edward's time, valued at 5s.;<sup>6</sup> this came after to the Earls of Clare and Gloucester, and was held by Jeff. Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, in the time of King John, who gave it to his priory of Shouldham. On its dissolution, it came to the Skipwiths; and the priory's temporalities here, in 1428, were valued at 10s.

The abbot of Ramsey had, in the time of the Confessor, and at the survey, 24 acres, valued at 2s. 8d. also the lands of a freeman containing 24 acres, valued at 3s.;<sup>7</sup> this, with the manor of Snore, (as will appear,) was held of the abbey. Ralph; Lord Bainard had 30 acres, which 3 freemen, and a borderer held;<sup>8</sup> this was afterwards held of the Lords Fitz-Walter, and was part of the manor of Fincham, &c. and valued there.

Thomas Gawsell, Esq. of Watlington, by his will dated Sept. 14, 1500, gives to his younger son Richard a manor here; and Ellen Gawsell, Gent. of Watlington, by her will, dated on St. Clement's day, 1504, gives to John her son the manor of Woodleves in Fordham, which came to the Skipwiths.<sup>9</sup>

SNORE-HALL.

Snore was a village, in the Confessor's time; nothing of it remains, but part of an old hall, now a farm-house, lying east of Fordham. The abbot of Ramsey had in the Confessor's time, and at the survey, half a carucate of land, valued at 10s.<sup>1</sup> Ralph, son of Ralph de Snora, was lord in the reign of Henry III. William de Snora, son of Ralph, paid homage for lands to the abbot of Ramsey, in his chamber at Hilsey manor, on Sunday after the feast of St. Paul,  Ao. 21 Edward I. John de Snore lived in the reign of Edward III. and Robert de Snore in 1388. In the 8th of Edward IV. John Billingham, treasurer of the abbot, received of William Skipwith, Gent. on Feb. 23, 26s. 8d. an annual rent out of this manor, and lands at Snore in Fordham, late Thomas Bilyetter's, and Margaret his wife's. William Skipwith was lord in 1504, son, as I take it, of William aforesaid, and Margaret his wife, she dying in 1486. William Skipwith was lord in the 25th of Henry VIII. and by Margaret his wife left Edmund their son and heir, who died lord of Fordham and Snore-Hall in 1558. By his will, dated Nov. 12, 1557, he appoints William his son, and Catherine his wife executors; calls John Stornley, Gent. his brother. William occurs lord in 1588, and married Ellen, daughter of — Bachecroft of Bexwell: by his will, dated in 1588, he calls Thomas Bachecroft his brother-in-law. In the 17th of James I. Edmund Skipwith possessed it, who married Elizabeth, daughter of William Guybon, Esq. by his first wife, daughter of — Catelyne; and in 1651, Sir Ralph Skipwith, lord of Snore, and of Fordham. In 1616, Edmund Skipwith, Gent. paid an annual rent out of this manor to the lord of Swaffham manor in Norfolk. After this, Sir Thomas Viner, Lord Mayor of London, held it; from whom it came to the Smalls of Gloucestershire; and Viner Small, Esq. is lord, and of Fordham.

The old church was a small pile, and falling down in 1720, is rebuilt. There were two medietyes anciently belonging to it; one was appropriated to Wirmegay priory, to that of Norwich, and the church was dedicated to St. Mary. Wirmegey mediety was called the portion of John, who was rector in 1278. In 1306, Laurence de Massingham Magna, rector, presented by the prior of Wirmegey. It was appropriated in Febr. 1346, by Bishop Bateman, paying 20s. per ann. to the see of Norwich; this priory being annexed to that of Pentney, at the Dissolution, was granted Aug. 3, Ao. 7 Elizabeth, to William Barber and John Jenkins, and came after to the Skipwiths, &c. and to Viner Small, Esq. the present impropiator. Norwich mediety was called the portion of Goscelin, valued at 4 marks. John de Denver was rector in Edward the First's time. 1304, Matthew son of John de Stanton, rector, presented by Alexander de Walsoken, and Thomas de Briton. 1308, John de Ely, by Sir Hervey de Stanton. In 1603, it was certified that there were 41 communicants.

H I L G E Y

Is a village on a hill, (surrounded with water and fens,) on the south side of the river Wissey, near its fall into the river Ouse: at the survey it was a lordship of the abbey of Ramsey, by the gift of King Edgar, and contained 2 carucates of land, 8 villains, and 11 bordarers, 5 servi, and 8 acres of meadow; there were 2 carucates in demean, and 2 bovates amongst the tenants, or men, &c. valued at 80s. in King Edward's time, but after at 70s.—William Earl Warren, had deprived the abbot of 8 men of this manor, with their customary dues, and 43 acres of land, as the hundred certified. The manor was 5 furlongs long, and 4 and an half broad, and paid 8*d.* of a 20s. gelt.<sup>2</sup>

The abbot of Ramsey had also in this hundred of Clacklose, lordships in Wimbotsham, Snore, Derham, Fordham, and Outwell; in the hundred of Freebridge, Walsoken manor; in Docking hundred, Bran-caster manor; in Smithulen hundred, Ringsted; and in Brodecross hundred, Burnham manor.

WOOD-HALL MANOR.

The abbot of Ramsey had a charter for free warren here, in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 16th of Henry VI. the issues and profits of this manor amounted to 12*l.* 16*s.* as stated by John Berwell, Esq. steward to the manor.

On the Dissolution, this lordship, with the advowson of the rectory, was granted, Nov. 27, in the 38th of Henry VIII. to James Hawe, Esq. to be held of the King by knight's service. Henry Hawe, his son, built here a large manor-house of brick; and dying in 1592, left by Ursula his wife, daughter of Robert Holditch, Esq. of Diddington, a daughter and heir, Frances, who brought it by marriage to Sir John Willoughby, Knt. of Risle in Derbyshire, son of George Willoughby, and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Richard Neale of Wigenhale, St. Mary Magdalen.

Sir John left, by the said Frances, Sir Henry Willoughby, created baronet in 1611. His daughter Elizabeth married Sir John Wray, Bart. whose daughter and heir Elizabeth, married the honourable Nicholas Saunderson, Esq. eldest son of Sir George Saunderson, Bart. Lord Viscount Castleton of Ireland, and had Wray Saunderson, who dying s. p. at York, April 7, 1714, gave this lordship to Sir Cecil Wray, Bart. 2d son of Sir Drury Wray, Bart. and Anne his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Casey of Rathcannon, in the county of Limerick in Ireland, Esq. who succeeded his brother Sir Christopher in 1710. Sir Cecil was bred to arms, was a captain in General Farrington's regiment, and served in Flanders, Spain, and Portugal, and married Mary, daughter of Edward Harrison of Morely, in the county of Antrim in Ireland, Esq. by Johanna his wife, daughter of the Right Reverend Dr. Jer. Tayler Bishop of Down and Connor; and was succeeded in honour, and this lordship, &c. in May 1736, by his cousin, Sir John Wray, Bart. eldest son of William, only son of Cecil, 4th son of Sir Christopher Wray, whose son, by Frances, daughter of Nicholas Norcliffe of Langton, in the East Riding of Yorkshire, Esq. Sir Cecil Wray was late lord, whose arms are,—azure on a chief, or, three martlets, gules; crest an ostrich, or; motto, Et juste et tray.—A fee-farm rent of 1l. 14s. 8d. per ann. paid for it, and Captain Manby of Deuxer is the present lord.

MASSINGHAM, OR CURTEY'S MANOR.

In the 22d year of Henry VI. William Massingham, Esq. of this town, was lord of this manor, with its lands, tenements, rents, services, meadows, pastures, moors, marshes, a free fold, &c. held of the abbot of Ramsay; all which formerly belonged to Thomas Lovell, Esq. and after that to Nicholas Massingham, Esq.; and in the 3d year of Edward IV. Thomas Massingham, Esq. son of William, held the same, and sealed with a cross, ingrailed; crest, a griffin's head; on the right side of the helmet a lion rampant; on the left, a man, as supporting it. On December 16, 1468, John Astley, Esq. of Melton Constable in Norfolk, had a grant from the abbot of Ramsay of the custody and marriage of Thomas Massingham, son and heir of Thomas Massingham, Esq. This Thomas died possessed of it in 1492, his will being dated August 20.

Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury also held in his own right, as a lay fee, 30 acres, and one carucate, which a freeman under his protection enjoyed in King Edward's reign. At the Conquest, the Conqueror seized on it, and was held for him by William de Noyers, and after granted to William Earl Warren, who had 22 acres also, which belonged to 8 freemen in King Edward's time, valued at 7s. 6d. and belonged to the monastery of Ramsay, as the hundred witnesses.<sup>3</sup>

This belonged to the great lordship of Methwold, and extended here, and was possessed under the Earls Warren and Surry, by the families of Cailly and Clifton. Roger de Cailly gave to the priory of Castleacre all his rents of eels here; viz. 1000 and an half per ann. for the soul of Simon his father, Alice his mother, Joan and Beatrix his wives;<sup>4</sup> and Alice, by her deed sans date, gave a fishery called Poltscere, to find the house 1000 eels per ann. Ralph de Baliol, by his deed sans date, gave also for the soul of his lord, the Earl Warren,

The temporalities of Castleacre were, in 1428, valued at 20s.

These tenures made part of the dutchy of Lancaster in this town.

The abbot of St. Edmund's Bury had 58 acres of land held by 3 villains, with one carucate and 4 acres of meadow, which were valued with his manor of Suthrey, which extended here, and the temporalities of the cellarer of that abbey, in this town, were valued, in 1428, at 40s. per ann.<sup>5</sup>

Here were also at that time several other small tenures. Hermerus de Ferrariis, lord of Wirmegey, had seized on 6 acres of land: of this the abbot of Bury had only the protection valued at 8d. also on 2 acres held by 2 freemen, &c.<sup>6</sup> Roger Bigot had one acre and an half held by a freeman before the Conquest, valued at 3d.<sup>7</sup> and the church of Ely had 4 bordarers, who held 2 acres, valued at 6d.<sup>8</sup>

The temporalities of the priory of Wymondam were valued at 40s. per ann. The prior, by deed sans date, demised to Leoline Rok all his fishery in the parts of Helgey.

The abbot of West-Derham had a cottage, and part of a fishery granted by William de Githmei, in fee-farm for a mark of silver; and he confirmed the gift of Jeff. Fitz-Jeffrey of the other part, in the reign of King Henry III. This was given at the dissolution, Sept. 13, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, to Thomas Guybon, and William Mynn.

In the 12th of Henry III. Steph. de Tyeford, and Maud his wife, gave lands here to Margaret the prioress, and convent of Blackburgh.

The tenths of the town were 8l.—Deducted 13s. 14d.

The lete was in the abbot of Ramsey, and was in Sir George Hare, Bart. fee 2s.

MODENEY PRIORY.

In this parish, about a mile from the church, south-west, near the river Ouse, was the priory of Modeny, called now Modeny-Hall, and was a cell to Ramsey abbey. On the Dissolution, it was granted, with its appertanances, April 18, in the 35th of Henry VIII. to Robert Hogan, Esq. on his paying 39s. per ann. to the Crown; soon after, in the said year, Feb. 4, he had license to alienate it to James Hawe, Esq.; from the Hawes, it came to the Willoughbys; and by Catherine, a daughter of Sir Henry Willoughby, to the Parcfoys, and to the Greys, and the Astons, as in Southrey, and is now in Sir Robert Burdet, Bart.

The Church of Hilgey is dedicated to All-Saints, consisting of 2 isles, covered with lead, and a tower at the west end, built of rag-stone, Against the wall of the south isle, near the east end, is a mural monument, with the small effigies of a man, his wife, and a child, all on their knees, with a desk before them, thus inscribed:

*Hic jacet Henricus Hawe Armiger, et Ursula uxor ejus, una filiarum Roberti Holditche Arm. quorum gratuita in amicos, Elymosyna in pauperes, charitas in omnes, satis liquet. Fixere hi duo fidei conjuncti matrimonio annos 44, unicam tantum habentes filiam Franciscam nuptam Johi. On the pavement adjoining, lies a marble grave-stone, with a plate of brass, and thereon,

On the aforesaid monument are the arms of Hawe; sable, a fess humet, ermine, between three griffins heads, erased, argent; and of Holditch, ——— on a chevron, — three magpies proper.

On the pavement of the north isle lies a grave-stone,

In memory of Nicholas Spencer, S. T. B. Fellow of Trinity college, Cambridge, and rector of this parish, who died June 15, 1705, Ætat. sue 63.

Near to this another,

In memory of Margaret, wife of John Musson, rector, who died March 29, 1710, Ætat. sue 30.

At the east end of this isle is the communion table.

The roof of the south isle has been curiously painted, and thereon, &c. have been many arms of benefactors, owners of land here, &c. viz. of Spencer Bishop of Norwich: Thomas of Brotherton Earl of Norfolk; or, on a bend, azure, three rams heads cabosed, argent, armed or, Ramsay abbey; Norwich priory; Earl Warren; Lords Moxbray, Howard, Bardolf, Scales; or, on a chief, gules, three plates, Camois: Ingaldesthorp, argent on a bend, sable, three lis of the first, Thorp, Tilney, Lord Bouchier, Tatsall, Clifton, Ufford, and Beke quarterly, Clifford, Stafford, Ferrers, Dagworth, Erpingham; argent on chevron, sable, three lis of the first, Bardwell, Rainham, Strange, Ross, Narburgh, Foliot, Gorvill, Calthorp, Lowell, Wingfield, Caston,

In the north isle, in a window, was the portraiture of a knight in armour, kneeling, on his surcoat, gules, a saltire ingraided, argent, Kerleston; and that of his lady, with an orate for them. Sir Thomas Kerleston died seized, 29 Henry VI. of a messuage, and 14 acres of land here.

M A R H A M,

So called, from a large marsh or moor lying near to it, which being often overflowed, appears as a meer. The principal manor of this village was in the church of Ely, by the grant of King Edgar; and in the time of Leoffin, the 5th abbot of that church, the produce of it was set apart as a farm, and appointed for the entertainment of strangers who came to the said abbey, and to bring in provisions necessary for that purpose.<sup>4</sup> The Norman lords made encroachments on it at the Conquest, as appears. At the grand survey, it seems to have been the capital lordship of that church, in the hundred and half of Clacklose, and had 10 letes therein; and St. Etheldreda, or St. Audrey, the foundress of that church, is in the said survey, said to have had 4 carucates in demean, in the reign of the Confessor, and then but 3; in the aforesaid reign there were 6 carucates among the tenants, 19 villains, 13 bordarers, and 7 servi, 26 acres of meadow, one mill, 10 beasts (runci) for carriage, one cow, 131 sheep, 24 swine; the land was one leuca long, and 100 perches, and half a leuca broad, and one quarter; but the measure in the marsh was not known; it was valued at 10*l.* per ann. To this lordship there belonged in King Edward's time 27 soemen, with all their customary dues; but after King William came, Hugh de Montfort had all of them, except one, whom William de Warren had, which soeman held 6 acres of the church of Ely. This whole land paid 14*d.* gelt, when the hundred and half paid 20*s.* and it was the same at the survey.<sup>5</sup>

THE ABBEY MANOR.

This lordship was held by the Earls Warren of the church of Ely. In the 1st year of King John, there was a suit between the Bishop of

Ely, and Hamlen Plantaginet Earl Warren, when they came to this agreement, that the Earl acknowledged it to belong to the see of Ely, and the Bishop granted the Earl and his heirs to hold it of that see, by the service of one knight's fee; and the Earl 100s. rent per ann. in lands, in pure alms for ever to the church of Ely.<sup>6</sup>

William, the 6th of that name, Earl Warren and Surrey, on the marriage of his 2d daughter Isabel, gave it with her in marriage to Hugh de Albini Earl of Arundel and Sussex, who dying s. p. in 1243, she in 1249, on her founding a nunnery in this town, settled it on that house: about this time the rent of assise of the free tenants, &c. is said to have been 14*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.* ob. per ann.<sup>7</sup>

By the inquisitions taken in the the 3d of Edward I. the abbess was found to have the lete, assise of bread and beer, all forfeitures, a gallows, and other royal privileges, which she claimed as liberties belonging to the see of Ely; and in the 20th of that King, she held here one knight's fee in pure alms of the Earl Warren, the Earl of the Bishop of Ely, and the Bishop in capite; and it appears from a curious parchment roll, illuminated and made in this reign, that there were 2 carucates and an half of land, 8 acres of pasture in demean, a water-mill, free bull and boar, 26 villains, and many free tenants are mentioned, with the right of a gallows, tumbrel, &c.

In or about the 29th of Edward III. a rental specifies, that the abbess had 500 acres, and 3 roods of arable land here in demean, and 48 acres and a half of pasture, or meadow here, and in Shouldham; several turbaries, a water-mill, a fulling-mill, and a right in the river from Holmes, in the moor of Narburgh, to the pool of the said mill.

On the dissolution of this convent, it came to the Crown; and King Henry VIII. conveyed it on July 3, in his 38th year, with the site of the abbey, to Sir Nicholas Hare, Knt. and John Hare, citizen and mercer of London, on the payment of a fee-farm rent of 3*l.* 6*s.* 2*d.* ob. per ann. to the Crown, which on July 9, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, was also granted to the said Sir Nicholas, together with lands and tenements in Wimondham, Besthorp, Carlton, Kentford, Needham, Gasely, Heringswell, &c. in the tenure of Thomas Buckworth, belonging to the late nunnery of Marham, with the appropriated rectory of Didlington, the advowson of Saxmundham church, messuages and lands in Brigham, Roudham, Wichingham Magna, Bodney, Thetford, Bedingham, Okeholt, &c. and in this family it remains, the honourable Sir George Hare, Bart. being the late lord.

OLD - HALL.

This consisted of that part of the possessions of the see of Ely, which were alienated by Wilfrick, the 6th abbot of Ely,<sup>8</sup> to his brother, before Domesday Book was made; and at the Conquest, Hugh de Montfort was lord of it by an exchange; 26 soemen held it of the church of Ely in the time of the Confessor, when there were also 8 bordarers, 5 carucates, and 6 acres of meadow, valued at 80*s.* at the survey at 40*s.* This was measured, and accounted for in the lordship of St. Etheldreda;* (see in the priory manor,) and Walter held it under Hugh.

The socmen abovementioned were by their tenures, obliged to plough the lands of the abbot of Ely, to weed, bind, &c. their corn, and to bring provisions (when required) there, &c. all which services, &c. Hugh had, as their lord.—He was son of Thurstand Bastenbergh, a Norman, and was commonly called Hugh with a Beard (the Normans at that time being usually shaved,) and accompanying William Duke of Normandy into England, assisted him as a valiant and expert commander in the decisive battle of Hastings, afterwards was appointed to be an assistant in the administration of justice throughout the realm to William Fitz-Osborn and Odo Bishop of Baieux. For his great services he obtained a grant of many lordships in Kent, Essex, Suffolk, &c. and of 19 in this county, viz. Marham in this hundred, Islington, Middleton, Beneleai, (or Bilney,) and Geyton in Frebridge hundred.—Bodney and Langford in South Greenhou hundred.—South Creke in Gallow hundred.—Burnham, Rainham, and Helgeton in Brothercross hundred.—Rugaton and Beston in North Erpingham hundred.—Stanford and Buckenham in Grimshew hundred.—Wua in Gildcross hundred.—Gately in Launditch hundred.—Bodham in Holt hundred. This lord was killed in a duel with Wakeline de Ferrers, and left Hugh his son and heir, who had two sons, Robert and Hugh, by his first wife, and by his 2d wife a daughter. Robert was general of the army of King William II. in the 12th year of his reign, but favouring the title of Robert Curthose, the Conqueror's eldest son, against King Henry I. retired with his brother Hugh to Jerusalem, leaving his inheritance, &c. where they both died S. P. in their pilgrimage; so that their sister inherited it, who married Gilbert de Gaunt, by whom she had a son, Hugh, who assumed, from his mother, the surname of Montfort.

Walter, who was enfeoffed of this lordship, and held it under Hugh at the survey, seems to be the ancestor of the family of De Marham, from whom descended Marcus de Marham, who married Ermelina, widow of Osbert, mareschall of Robert de Vere, senior, constable to King Henry II. which Robert was father of Ermelina by a daughter of Hugh de Montfort. Walter de Marham, son of Mark, gave to the monks of Horton in Kent, a marsh called Marcheston, which had been given to his mother Ermelina by Robert de Vere, and his wife, in frank marriage, and Jeffrey, son of Walter, confirmed the same.<sup>1</sup>

Sir Walter de Marham, son (as I take it) of Jeffrey, was lord in the reign of Henry III. and held it by one fee of the honour of Hagenet or Haughley in Suffolk: his daughter and heir Margaret brought it by marriage to Sir William Belet, alias Bygot; in the 31th of that King he possessed it, and in the 41th being the King's valet, had a grant of five warren, a weekly mercate and a fair.<sup>2</sup>

In the 3d of Edward I. William Belet claimed the lete of his tenants, assize of bread, &c. a gallows, &c. as privileges belonging to the see of Lly, had a messuage with 120 acres of land, 5 of pasture, 60s. rent of assize, and performed suit to the King's court at Haughley from month to month, paying 10s. per ann. to Dover Castle. About this time, from a curious parchment roll, in the initial letter of which are the arms of Belet, argent, on a chief gules, two crescents, or, William Belet was lord; he and Margaret his wife claimed the patronage of the two churches in this town, the great tithes of which were appropriated to Westacre abbey, by the grant of Geffrey de Marham; and there belonged to this manor a carucate of land, and 10 acres of meadow in demean, 14 villains with their messnages and lands, and cottagers with 3 cottages, a windmill, free bull and boar. The freehold and copyhold tenants are mentioned with their services. Of this Belet's ancestors, see an account in Rudham and Corford.

Margaret, widow of Sir William Belet, was in the first year of Edward II. found to die seized of it, valued at 7l. 12s. 7d. and Sir Ralph Belet, alias Bygot, was her son and heir, aged 50, who gave 100 shillings relief for his lands here: he died in the 9th of that King, when a messuage, a pigeon-house, 120 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 3 of pasture, and 60 shillings rent of assize belonged to it, and Walter was his son and heir, 23 years of age.

By an inquisition taken in the 20th of Edward III. Sir Walter Bygot appears to be lord, and in the 4th of Richard II. Walter, son of Sir Walter; William Bygot, son of Walter, dying sans issue in the 14th of Henry IV. it came to his 3 sisters and coheirs; Catherine married to Robert Hunt, Margaret to William Galyon, and Elizabeth to Richard Fox; but Isabell their mother, who was married to John Dorward, Esq. held it for life. They had also their parts and shares in the manor of Tofts in Norfolk, Bacon's and Alfreton-Hall in Dunmow Magna, and the advowson of the chapel or prebend in the church of Dansey in Essex; but all came after to Hunt, whose daughter and heir, Isabel, married to Thomas Dayrell or Darrel, who died lord of the manor of Old-hall, in the 5th of Henry VII. as did Thomas his son in the 21st of the said King, leaving two sisters and coheirs; Beatrix and Anastatia; this last brought it by marriage to Thomas Jermin Esq. who was lord in 1517, and conveyed it in that year with his wife Anastatia, by fine, to John Spelman, Esq. with about 300 acres of land, pasture and moor, 40s. per ann. rent in Marham and Shouldham; and in this family it remains, John Spelman, Esq. of Narburgh, being the present lord.

BELET'S AND DENHAM'S MANOR.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS held at the survey 20 acres of land, which was Turchetel's in King Edward's reign, and belonged to the soc or lordship of St. Etheldreda aforementioned, and two villains who had then 3 bovates of land or oxgangs, and an acre of meadow, valued always at 3s. 4d. and this land was measured with the lordship of St. Etheldreda.<sup>3</sup> William Earl Warren had also half a carucate of land, which St. Etheldreda held in King Edward's time, 3 bordarers belonged to it with a carucate and 4 acres of meadow, valued then at

20s. but after, and at the survey, at 26s. and 8d. and Ralph held it under this Earl.<sup>4</sup>

Of these fees I shall treat together. The family of De Bekeswell had an interest herein in the 35th of Henry III. when William de Bekeswell settled lands by fine on John de Tudenham and Cassandra his wife, who seem to have held both the fees abovementioned; and before this, in the 20th of the said reign, Hermerus de Bekeswell was petent in a fine, and Thomas de Ingaldesthorp tenant of a carucate of land, which Thomas held in right of Sibila his late wife, widow of Peter de Bekeswell, brother to Hermerus.

William de Bekeswell, by his deed dated at Cambridge, in 1266, grants this lordship, which he held here of Sir Roger de Wimple, to Sir William Belet, to be held of him by the payment of a pair of white gloves on Easter day, or a penny, if asked of him;<sup>5</sup> to which deed Sir Walter son of Sir John de Wygenhale, Sir Nicholas de Stradesete, Sir Adam de Cokesford, Sir Adam de Verley, Walter de Thorp Hervey de Geyton, &c. were witnesses; and in the year following Sir William Belet quitclaimed to William de Bekeswell, all the land he held belonging to William, given him by the King, on the rebellion of the said William, excepting the tenements and lands in Marham, Shouldham, and Berton, which Sir William had purchased of Bekeswell, and for his grant Bekeswell was to pay to Belet 100 marks.

In the 3d of Edward I. William Belet, as lord, claimed to have the assize, &c. of his tenants, and to have built a castle to the King's prejudice, and that of his castle at Norwich; and that if war should happen (which God forbid) the King's enemies might have reception, destroy the country and the neighbouring religious houses. From the curious roll beforementioned, it appears that William Belet was lord, held a carucate of land, and 8 acres of meadow; that there were 13 villains with 9 messuages, &c. and 5 cottagers with their cottages and lands, &c. of the heirs of William de Bekeswell, by the service of one pair of gloves; the names of the free and copyhold tenants with their services are mentioned; the arms of Belet in the initial letter here are somewhat varied from the other arms, being, argent, on a chief gules, two cinquefoils, or. After this Sir Ingegram Belet was lord; he was knighted in the 34th of Edward I. at Westminster, with Edward the King's son, by bathing.

In the 6th of Edward II. Sir Ingegram seems to have died, and is said to hold a castle here, ditched in, in right of Lora his wife,<sup>6</sup> formerly belonging to William de Bekeswell, of the fee of the abbess of Marham, which William held 80 acres of land in demean of Roger de Wimple, and was afterwards purchased by Isabel Countess of Arundel, the foundress, and given to the abbey; out of this Ingegram paid 22s. per ann. to that convent, and the said convent paid for the same, 7s. per ann. to Coxford priory.<sup>7</sup>

This Ingegram was probably a younger son of Sir William Belet; he married Avice, daughter and heir of Robert Bardolf, and Avice his wife, daughter of John, and sister and heir of Anselm de Lound, lord of Crimplesham and Wyrham, by whom he had Robert his son and heir, who was found in the 8th of Edward II. to have held in this town, Beacham-Well, Wyrham, Crimplesham, &c. one fee and an half of the honour of Clare; he probably died s. p. anno. 16 Edward II. being 18 years old at his father's death.

In the 19th of Edward II. Robert de Well was lord, and in the 39th of Edward III. John de Denham and Maud his wife, held it of the abbey of Marham with the castle, late Sir Ingelram Belet's, paying 22*s. per ann.* the rent of assize of the free tenants, villains, &c. amounted to 12*l.* 12*s.* 2*d.* q. per ann. and besides the demean lands there were 372 acres and 3 roods held in villanage, 103 acres and 3 roods of aul'ond, 49 hens, 205 eggs paid yearly, and many reaping days of the tenants due in harvest, &c.

In the 9th of Richard II. it was in the hands of the abbess and convent, being aliened thereto by Richard Holditch and John de Clenchwarton, and Richard Earl of Arundel wrote in the same year to his steward, John Gourney, to enquire what damage would accrue in his consenting to it, (as capital lord of the manor of Belets;) and it was certified, it would be no damage, and yet the yearly value of it extended was 10 marks.<sup>8</sup> Holditch and Clenchwarton were trustees of John de Denham and Maud his wife, for this purpose; Richard de Holditch was appointed with others, a trustee in the 42d of Edward III. as appears from a fine; it remained in the abbey till its dissolution, and then granted as aforesaid to Sir Nicholas Hare, &c.

SHOULDHAM'S MANOR.

Of this lordship, which lay partly in this town, and partly in Shouldham, I have spoke at large in the said town, being held of the prior of Shouldham, by the family of Shouldham: I shall only observe that Walter Bishop of Norwich, about 1250, granted license to Simon de Shouldham, and his heirs for his own and his family's use, to found a free chantry in his chapel, with the consent of the priory of Westacre and the vicar of Marham.

WESTACRE PRIORY MANOR.

GEFFREY DE MARHAM gave to this convent lands, with the rectories of St. Andrew's church, and that of the Holy Trinity, about the reign of King John, which were appropriated to it, and had the patronage of the vicarages.

In 1428, their temporalities were valued at 4*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.* and their spiritualities at 16 marks here, per ann.

At the dissolution of this priory, or soon after, it came to the Spelmans; in 1607, Sir Clement Spelman was found to hold it in capite by the 40th part of a knight's fee, and John Spelman, Esq. of Narburgh, is the present lord.

In the 5th of Edward VI. a fen called Monks Fen was granted to

Thomas Darcy, on April 4, to be held in soccage, which probably to the said priory.

Many religious houses had lands here. In 1428 the temporalities of Castleacre priory were taxed at 5*ls.* 4*d.* and their spiritualities at 3 marks and an half.—Roger de Scultham, with the consent of Emma his wife, confirmed to them the rent of 7*s.* per ann. (given them by his ancestors) of Geffrey de Fonte, &c. and 1*s.* in Fincham of the sons of Turlack.<sup>9</sup> Roger son of Reincr de Scultham, gave Ulfketel, son of Aeldric, cum totâ sequelâ.—Geffrey son of Walter de Marham gave 40 perches of a turbary ;---also a furlong of a turbary.

William Earl Warren gave to the canons of Walsingham 6 furlongs of his marsh, and Isabell Countess of Arundel, his daughter, an acre. Sir Robert de Stradset gave 2 furlongs, confirmed by his brother Nicholas, &c. In the 38th of Henry VIII. October 21, Andrew Mansfield had a grant of the Canons marsh, &c. and in the said year had license to alien it to Elizabeth Spilman and her heirs.

The temporalities of Coxford priory were 4*d.*—Of Sporle in a turbary 2*s.*—Of Wendling abbey in a turbary, 2*s.*—Of Massingham in a turbary 4*d.* The 10ths of the town were 10*l.* 10*s.* deducted 2*l.*

Here were formerly two churches in this town, one dedicated to St. Andrew, the other to the Holy Trinity ; this last is still standing : they were rectories united and valued together at 16 marks, granted to the priory of Westacre, and appropriated thereto ; out of these the priory of Castleacre had a portion of tithe valued at 3 marks and an half ; it consisted of two parts of the tithes of the demean of Hermer de Bexwell, and a moiety of the tithe of the whole fee of Walter de Marham, which Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to them in 1265 ; and the prior of Westacre had a manse belonging to these rectories, &c. The patronage of the vicarages, which were consolidated, was in the priory of Westacre, and they were valued at 6 marks ; the vicar had a manse in King Edward's time. Richard de Walleys had a portion of tithe valued at 6*s.* 8*d.* and Peter-pence was 16*d.* The present valor of the vicarage is 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged.

The CHURCH now standing, of the Holy Trinity, has a nave, with a south isle and a chancel built of rag-stone, clunch or chalk, and covered with lead ; at the west end of the nave stands a lofty four-square tower of flint stones, &c. with quoins, embattlements, &c. of freestone, with 4 bells ; on the top of this tower is a wooden shaft or spire covered with lead ; the length of the nave is about 63 feet, and with the south isle about 30 in breadth : at the east end of the nave lie several marble gravestones for the Shouldhams, &c. ; their inscriptions, shields of brass, &c. all disrobed.

In the lowest window of the nave on the north side, are several arms ; quarterly on the first and fourth quarter, argent a bear salient sable, muzzled, or, Bernard of Isleham in Cambridgeshire : and in the second and third quarters, gules, three lucies, najant in pale, in a bordure engrailed, argent, Lilling ;—argent on a chief gules, two crescents, or, Belet :—azure, a cross or, Shelton :—p. pale, azure and gules, a cross engrailed ermine, Berney :—argent three owls, sable, beaked, &c. or, Brigge :—sable, on a chevron between three trefoils, or, as many

Here lieth the body of John Steward, and Ann his wife, which Ann was daughter of Humphrey Shouldham, Esq. the said Ann died the 28th day of January, Ao. Dni. 1603, and the aforesaid John died February 16, 1604.

1729, Edward Chappelow, A. M. by St. John's college.

The church of St. Andrew stood in the close, near to the vicar's house, the site is still to be seen, by the wall of flint in some places; Mr. Frost, vicar, making a ditch here, found several human bones and a stone coffin. This church was standing, as appears by a will, in 1428.

The appropriated rectories with 30 acres of glebe land, and the advowson of the churches, &c. on the Dissolution, came to the Crown, and so remained, as appears from the presentations. Sir Thomas Mildmay, farmed the rectories at 12*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann. in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and paid also 4*l.* per ann. to the heirs of the Duke of Norfolk for that portion of tithes which the prior of Castleacre had in this church which had been granted to the Duke. After this Sir Francis Gawdy, the judge, had a grant of it, and held it in 1603, from whom it came to Sir Robert Rich, (afterwards Earl of Warwick,) by the marriage of the Judge's grand-daughter, who presented in 1610; he sold it to Sir Ralph Hare, who presented in 1615. This honourable gentleman, being Knight of the Bath, gave to the master, fellows, and scholars of St. John's college in Cambridge, and their successors, all the rectory, parsonage and church of Marham in Norfolk, with all its rights, &c. glebe lands, tithes of corn and hay, advowson of the vicarage, the master and fellows to employ the profits for 3 years for the new erecting a spacious library in the said college, and then to go towards the maintenance of 30 of the poorest and best disposed scholars residing there; dated April 13, 1623.—The style and spirit of religion and devotion, whereby as a Christian he offers up this gift, is so exemplary that the reader I am persuaded, will excuse me, in here inserting it.

“ Sir Ralph Hare, in all humility doth humbly offer this his gift

“ hereafter mentioned unto our Blessed Saviour Jesus Christ, God and man, and in him to his beloved disciple, St. John, with all humility and penitency acknowledging and confessing himself a most unworthy being, a great and miserable sinner to offer this or whatsoever else, unto his divine majesty, and withal acknowledging, confessing, and saying, with the holy prophet David———Domine, tua est magnificentia et patientia et gloria, cunctu enim quæ in celo sunt, et in terrâ, tua sunt, tuum, Domine, regnum, et Tu es super omnes principes, tuæ divitiæ, et tuæ est gloria, tu dominaris omnium.——Quis ego nisi peccator turpis et miserrimus, ut hoc tibi promittere possim; tuæ sunt omnia et quæ de manu tua accepi. Do tibi cum omni humilitate in compunctione et contritione cordis mei. Oh ne me projicias a facie tuâ Domine, Deus Abraham, Isaac et Israel, custodi in æternam hanc voluntatem cordis mei, et semper in venerationem tuam mens mea permaneat.”

In the field of Marham, east of the vicar’s house, is a little hill called Chapel-hill, and a clay pit, part of the glebe; here a hermit had his station. This chapel was dedicated to St. Guthlake.<sup>3</sup> In the 20th of Richard II. a patent was granted for a chantry here, so that it is certain that chantries were allowed of in such chapels.

THE ABBEY, OR NUNNERY OF MARIHAM.

THE nunnery of Marham was founded by Isabell,<sup>4</sup> widow of Hugh de Albany Earl of Arundel, for Cistercian or White nuns, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, St. Barbara, and St. Edmund the King and Confessor, by Richard de la Wiche Bishop of Chichester, on the 27th of January, in the year 1249, for the health of the souls of William, late Earl Warren and Surry, her father, and Maud her mother, daughter of William Marshal the elder, Earl of Pembroke, Hugh Earl of Arundel, her husband, and all her ancestors deceased, &c. and as the foundation deed is to be seen in Dugdale’s Monasticon, beginning thus:—Universis Sancte Matris Ecclesie filiis, &c. I shall here omit it, and only observe that the witnesses to it (though sans date, according to that age,) were Walter de Suthfield Bishop of Norwich, R. de Wiche Bishop of Chichester, Master Walter de London Archdeacon of Norfolk, Roger Bigot Earl-Marshal of England, and Earl of Norfolk,

And on St. Bartholomew's day in the year of our Lord, 1252, this nunnery was incorporated into the abbey of Waverley in Surry, the principal, first, and mother-house of this order in England, by the abbots of Waverley and Beaulieu in Hampshire; this incorporation was, as I conceive, the reason that some authors assert this house to have been founded in the year 1252,<sup>5</sup> (“*Isabella Comitissa Arundel, morum quidem gravitate non mediocriter adornata circa salutem animæ suæ diligens et sollicita, divinâ ut creditur inspiratione prævenitæ, abbatiam monialium ordinis cisterciensis. —The said foundress also, afterwards, purchased of Sir Roger de Wymples of Thuringthon, knight,<sup>8</sup> for 15 marks of silver, 22 shillings yearly rent, with the homages, reliefs, escheats, &c. from William de Bekestwell, for lands and tenements which William held of him in Marham, paying to the said Roger and his heirs one pair of gloves, of the price of one penny, on the nativity of our Lord, yearly, and to the prior of Cokesford for the time being, 7s. yearly: and gave it by deed to the said house. Witnesses, Sir William Rusteyng, Sir William Belet, Sir Ralph de Wyrham, Hugh de Suldham, Alan de Suldham, Roger de Toftes, Geoffrey de Say, Ralph de Wells, &c. She also by deed gave them the messuage, land, and the whole tenement which Thomas de le Wro, chaplain, once held of her in Marham, with all the rents, services, homages, &c. which Ryngolf, son of Walter and his heirs; also all the rents, services, homages, &c. which William Boud of Narburgh used to pay and perform to Walter de Wyndysuere, wherewith the said Walter had enclosed her. Also all that tenement in Marham, and all the land, meadows, &c. in Suldham, which she had of Ralph de Waleys.<sup>9</sup>

King Henry III. confirms the foundation deed and grants of the foundress, on Sep. the 3d, in the 36th year of his reign. Witnesses, Walter Bishop of Norwich, Geoffrey de Lozingham, our brother, Roger Bigod Earl of Norfolk, Hugh de Fer Earl of Oron, Mr. William Kilkenny, archdeacon of Coventry, Bertin de Criost, Nicholas de Sco. Mauro, Eubel. de Montibus, William de Chaeny, Robert de Norcys.

Walter Bishop of Norwich, with the consent of the prior and convent of Westacre, and Nicholas, vicar of the churches of the Holy Trinity, and St. Andrew in Marham grants to this house free sepulture in their own church or chapel by their own priests, and a power to say mass there, and perform divine services, on condition that none of the parishioners of the said churches, be admitted to any holy sacrament, or there buried; and if any stranger should desire to be there buried, a salvo is made for the right of the said churches, dated the 9th of September, 1251;<sup>1</sup> this was again ratified in 1294 between the prior and convent of Westacre, and John, vicar of the said churches, and the abbess and convent; and it appears that the prior and convent had (on this account) granted to them by the abbess and convent a portion of tithes here, viz. the tithes of 17 acres and 2 roods, belnging to the said abbess, &c. and the said Walter Bishop of Norwich, with the will and consent of the foundress and patron, granted the said house to their proper use, all the great and small tithes belonging to her demean lands and lordship of Marham, which the secular clergy used to receive of the gift of the lords of the manor.

came to the house of Lancaster, by the aforesaid fine, and in the 34th of Edward III. it was settled by Henry Duke of Lancaster, on Maud his daughter, and coheir, married to William Earl of Hereford; and in the 40th of that King, his other daughter and coheir, Blanch, and her husband, John Duke of Lancaster, were possessed of it.<sup>2</sup>

Many of the Kings of England confirmed the grants and privileges of this house; as did King Richard II. in his 9th year; and in the 20th of that King, they had a patent for founding a chantry in the hermitage of St. Guthlac in Marham, and in the 18th year of the said King, a patent for 50 acres of land at Waysfleet in Lincolnshire.<sup>1</sup>

The abbess had the privilege of proving the wills of those that died within the precinct or jurisdiction of this house, granted to this order by the popes.<sup>2</sup> In 1401, a contest arose about this privilege, and it was allowed them by the Bishop of Norwich; Joan Narburgh, then lady abbess, and Margery Harsyke prioress; the abbess and convent received from the year 1401 to the year 1453, several mortuaries due from lay persons, &c. who died in their convent, and were probably there buried.

Breckley's*, a gown furr'd.—For Sir John Champency, priest, who had a chamber in the precinct of the said abbey, and died in the priory of Blackburgh, a book called Chochont, sold for 8 marks to Thomas Schudham, Esq.—For Mr. Thomas Rynstede's, a sorrel horse.—For Joan Pytty's, a gown.

About this time the temporalities of this house in the archdeaconries of Norwich and Norfolk amounted to 27*l.* 9*s.* 7*d.* ob. q. and the spiritualities are thus valued: Carlton Fourhow, 8 marks; Stow Bidon, 16 marks; Dodelyngton 20 marks; the portion of Ralph de Waleys in Marham, 8*d.* Total, 57*l.* &c.<sup>3</sup>

The abbess of Marham has the title of the domain belonging to her lordship of Marham, valued at 10 marks.—Norwich Domesday,

Barbara Mason occurs in 1511, and in the 25th of Henry VIII. and was the last abbess. Amongst the evidences of the Honourable Sir Thomas Hare, Baronet, is the seal of this house, affixed to some deeds and grants, and one to a deed of this abbess : the seal is oblong, the impress is the figure of a lady abbess in her proper habit,<sup>9</sup> standing in an antique arch curiously wrought, and holding in her dexter hand a crosier staff, and in her sinister hand before her breast, something resembling an open book, and on each side of the arch is a shield,—cheque, or and azure, the paternal arms of the foundress, being the arms of the Warrens Earls of Surrey, &c. and under these shields a lily : the upper part of the seal is broke, at the head of the abbess, as is the greater part of the legend beginning—Sigillum Abbat.

This order of the Cistercian nuns had many large privileges from the Pope, probate of wills within their precincts, exemption from paying of tithes, and procurations, and the liberty of bearing the crosier in processions.<sup>1</sup>

The lady sacrist of this house had 11 acres and 3 roods of land in Marham annexed to her office, and the lady hostillar, 7 acres 3 roods and an half.<sup>2</sup>

This house was dissolved in the 27th of Henry VIII. and stands thus differently valued ; by Dugdale, at 33*l.* 13*s.* and 5*d. ob. q.*<sup>3</sup> Stephens, in his Addition to the Monasticon, says that the abbey of Marham, St. Barbara, was valued at 42*l.* 4*s.* and 7*d. ¼*, the clear value, 33*l.* 13*s.* 6*d. ¾*.<sup>4</sup> and Specl has the same ; but Weaver says, at 13*l.* 6*s.* 1*d. ob.*<sup>5</sup>—It was certainly a religious house very meanly endowed, and on that account they were often pardoned and excused from the payment of their tenths, and particularly by King Edward I. in the 10th year of his reign.<sup>6</sup>

On the Dissolution the religious had these enormous crimes laid to their charge :

Elizab. Lightfoot semel peperit ex conjugato.

Elizab. Plumer peperit semel ex conjugato.

Joanna Manne peperit duas proles ex solutis.<sup>7</sup>

The site of this abbey, with the nuns church or chapel, bell-tower, and the appertenancees, with the manor of Marham, (as has been observed,) was given by King Henry VIII. on the 3d of July, in the 38th year of his reign, to Sir Nicholas Hare, and John Hare, citizen of London, in whose family it still remains. This nunnery stood a little westward of the present church of Marham, (the common way or road only being between them,) in a large pasture close, enclosed with walls of clunch or chalk stone, dug out of some neighbouring pits : in the said close is a farm-house with large barns, &c. which seem, by the materials, to be built out of the ruins of the said abbey. The most observable building now remaining, is a very lofty wall of clunch stone, running east and west, in length about 73 feet ; this was the south wall of the church or chapel of the said abbey ; near the summit of this wall were 4 oval windows, (as represented in Plate I. Fig. 15.) two of which are still entire : the whole length of this chapel was about 99 feet, the breadth, about 30, as appears from the foundation walls, and the space between them; the reason that the walls were so high, and of this form on this wall, was because the cloister here joined to it, which, with the area in the centre, was a square of 99 feet, as appears from the ruins and foundation stones; and from the projection of the stone work of the said chapel wall, which supported the timber, roof, &c. on this north side of the cloister. No doubt in the north wall of this chapel, the windows were large and lofty, but there are no remains of that, save the foundation. Near the west end of this wall is a little building of stone, &c. in which are two or three arches, (supported by pillars of free stone,) now worked up, and which are now used to lay turf and other firing in: and over this is a dove-house, probably part of some old cloister leading to the church, or the charnel-house.

WEST RISTON.

THE church of Riston is dedicated to St. Michael, and stands in a field by itself about a quarter of a mile from Riston-Hall; it is built of ragg, or carr stone, and is a single pile about 33 feet in length, and 22 in breadth. At the west end of the nave, stands part of a little four-square tower, with the quoins of free stone; the upper part of the tower lies open and is broke down to the roof of the church. The chancel is divided from the body by a screen, and is in length about 30 feet, and in breadth about 27; this chancel has a roof like the nave, cambered, plaistered and covered with tile. On the pavement lies a marble stone, with the arms of Pratt, argent, on a chevron between three pellets, two in chief, charged each with a martlet, and one in base, with a trefoil argent, three mascles, or, impaling, gules, three crescents, or,<sup>5</sup> Monins, and thus inscribed:

Here lieth the body of Sir Roger Pratt, lord of this manor of Riston, who married Ann, one of the daughters and coheirresses of Sir Edmund Monins of Waldershire in Kent, Kt. and Bart. he dyed the 20th of Febr. A. D. 1684.

*Untill the resurrection of the just.
My bones untouch'd will rest, I trust.*

Against the north wall is an altar monument of stone and alabaster on which lies the statue of a lady, at her full length in a cumbent posture, supporting her head with her right hand, which rests on a cushion all carved out of alabaster: the body of the monument is ornamented with flowers, fruit, &c. and thereon this epitaph:

Here lyes the body of the Lady Pratt, whose first husband was Sir

<sup>5</sup> The crest of Pratt is a wolf's head a collar with three plates counter-couped, per pale, argent and a sable, and changed.

Roger Pratt of this place, her second husband was Sigismund Trafford of Danton-Hall in Tydd St. Maries, in the county of Lincoln, Esq. who caused this monument to be erected to her memory : she died the 12th day of September, 1706, in the 63d year of her age.

And against the wall is a shield of marble, argent, a griffin, segreant, gules. Trafford, impaling Monins; the whole is enclosed with iron rails.

Jeffrey, rector of Riston, is mentioned in a deed, sans date, of Roger de Barshale, wherein he gives to the abbey of West Derham, a tene-ment, on the request, &c. of the said Jeffrey.

In Norwich Domesday book, wrote about the beginning of the reign of King Edward I. Robert de Benhale was patron, and the rector had a house with 30 acres of glebe land, valued at 12 marks, soon after it was appropriated to the priory of Norwich; Anthony Bishop of Norwich, October 24, 1342, appropriated it for the repairs of the church of Norwich, reserving a pension of 6s. 8d. per ann.<sup>9</sup> and the prior paying 6 marks per ann. for a curate to serve it. Peter-pence 15d.

1307, Mattheu de Santone, presented by Sir Hervey de Stanton.

1337, Thomas Wychard of Halvergat, by the prior and convent of Norwich.

1342, Bartholomeu de Wroxham . . . by the prior and convent of Norwich.

In the year 1428, the spiritualities of the prior, &c. of Norwich, for this church, were valued at 12 marks, and are said to belong to the cellarer of the church of Norwich.

On the dissolution of the priory and convent of Norwich, it was granted in the 1st of Edward VI. to the dean and chapter of that church, who are the present impropiators, and lease out the tithes of this, and Roxham, an hamlet adjoining, belonging to the lord of this manor.

In 1603, Mr. Robert Gunson was curate of Riston cum Roxham, and in his answers to the King, observes that there were then 53 communicants.

WEST RISTON MANOR.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS held the chief part of this town. One carucate possessed by Ketel, a freeman in Edward the Confessor's time. To this manor there belonged 7 villains, one border, two servi, with one carucate in domain, half a one amongst the tenants, 8 acres of meadow, half a fishery, &c. valued at 20s. Seven soemen also held 21 acres of land, 3 of meadow, with a carucate valued at 5s. The whole is 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and pays 4d. to a 20s. gelt.<sup>1</sup>

The said Hermerus had also seized on 3 free men who held 90 acres, who were before under protection only, valued at 5s.

This lordship descended from Hermerus to the Lords Bardolfs, as may be seen in Wirmegey, and was held under them by the family of Stradeset; <sup>2</sup> Sir Roger de Stradeset, was lord, when an aid was granted to King Henry III. on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor; several parts of this manor were held under the Stradesets, by several persons. In the 14th of Edward I. John, son of Henry de Deen, and Maud his wife, conveyed to Robert de Benhale a messuage, with lands valued at 60s. per ann. and the moiety of the church of Fordham. with the advowson of this church. After this Hervey de Stanton or Santon, (probably the founder of St. Michael's house in Cambridge,) conveyed the same to John de L'Isle of Tofts, and Mary his wife, in the 8th of Edward II. (the advowson of this church) Fordham church being excepted by Hervey for his life.

In the 10th of Edward III. license was granted to John de L'Isle to give the advowson of this church and the moiety of the advowson of Fordham, to the prior and convent of Norwich, to find a chaplain in the said church, to pray daily for the souls of the said John, and Mary his wife, Robert de Ujford, and Thomas Roscelyne, &c. Dated 3d April, at the Tower of London, and on Thursday in Easter-week, in the next year of the said King, Sir Robert de Benhale, Knight, quitted all his right and claim therein to the prior, &c. Witnesses, Sir Peter Attetye, Sir Edward de Cretyng, John de la Rokele, John de Berneye, William de Felmyngham, &c.

In the 33d of Edward III. Henry de Wetyng, capellane, and Stephen Talbot of Fincham, gave to the abbey of West Derham, a messuage and lands, here, held of John Hawkyn, by the payment of a shilling every 24 weeks, and the said John held it by the knight's service of the Lords Bardolf, having married Elizabeth, daughter and heir to the Stradesets.

After this, Adam Martyns, and John Mares had an interest herein; William Dalling, in the 21st of Henry VI. gave it to William Yelverton, serjeant at law, Sir John Clifton, Knight, Henry Grey, Esq. Osbert Mundeford, &c. in trust, to be settled on William Gylour and Margaret his wife, daughter of Dalling, intail, with lands in Fordham, Roxham, &c. Walter Gylour was lord in the reign of Henry VII. and by a daughter of Gylour it came to the Prats; William Prat was lord, and by his will, dated December 4, 1557, desires to be buried in the church of St. Edmund of Downham Market.

The Pratts derive from Robert Prat, whose son Edmund was lord of the manor of Cartes in Hockwold, and died in the 34th of Henry VIII.; this Edmund married the heiress of Walter Gylour, and John was his son and heir.

William Prat, son of John, by his will dated as above in 1557, gives this lordship, with lands, tenements, &c. in Roxham, Hilgcy, Fordham, Denver, Downham, Derham and Berwell, to Gregory Pratt of Hockwold, and his heirs male; <sup>3</sup> this Gregory was nephew to William, (who died s. p.) and son of his brother Edward Pratt, by Catherine, daughter.

of . . . Tassell; Gregory and Richard Prat, executors, and Edmund Beaupre, Esq. supervisor.

Gregory was lord in 1573, and married Ann, daughter and coheir of William Cocket, Esq. of Besthorp in Norfolk, by whom he had two sons, Gregory and Francis.

This Gregory married Theodosia, daughter of . . . Tyrell, and relict of Edmund West, of Marchworth in Bucks; and she was buried there in Januury, 1629. Sir Roger Pratt, their son, died lord in 1684, s. p.

So that we must return to Edward Pratt, 2d son of Edward, (brother to Gregory), by Catherine Tassell; this Edward was of Hockwold, and married Dorothy, daughter of William Cobb, Esq. of Sandringham, and father of Edward Pratt of Homningham in Suffolk, who by Ursula his wife, daughter of Rossington of Framingham in Suffolk, was father of Edward Pratt, Gent. of Yoxford in Suffolk, by Emma, his wife, daughter of . . . Tiffin of Crimplisham, widow of ——— Bezwell; he had Edward Pratt of Woodbridge in Suffolk, who married Mary, daughter of Anthony Appthwait of Ipswich, and was heir, as I take it, to Sir Roger Prat. By Mary he had a son and heir, Roger Pratt, Esq. now lord of Riston, who by Henrietta, daughter of Sir Robert Davers, Bart. of Rushbrook in Suffolk, has two sons, Edward and Jermyn; Edward, the eldest, is married to ———, daughter of Sir Jacob Astley, Bart.

It is to be observed, that Francis Pratt, second son of Gregory, by his wife, daughter of Cocket, married first, Temperance, daughter of ——— Mundeford of Feltwell, and died s. p. his second wife, Ursula, daughter of Anthony Gosnold of Ottley, in Suffolk, had by him Edward Pratt, Esq. who died s. p. in 1664, also Gregory, who died s. p.

I have seen a Prat, quartering, sable, three cups argent, Butler—and Cobb of Sandringham; also Pratt, impaling Cocket, and in Riston Hall.—Pratt and Gylours quarterly.

WALPOLE-HALL.

RALPH, son of Reginald, and Roger de Barsale, gave a messuage and lands, here, sans date, to Derham abbey. Thomas de Barsale held here a messuage, one carucate of land, 12 acres of meadow, of Nicholas de Stradsale about the reign of Edward I. by the service of the fourth part of a fee; and Nicholas, of the Lord Bardolf. In the 16th of Edward II. a fine was levied between Simon de Walpool, querent, William de Walpool, parson of Cheveley in Suffolk, and William de Norwold, chaplain, deforcients, of messuages, lands, &c. settled on Simon. From this family this lordship took its name. John Walshelff possessed it in the reign of Henry VII. In the reign of Queen Elizabeth, it was in the Prats, united to Riston manor.

At the survey, the abbot of Ely was found to have seized on three freemen who held 6 acres here, valued at 16*d.* per ann. under protection only;† the abbot of Ramsay had the soc.

† Invas. Abbat de Ely—In Ristuna non hab. nisi com'dat. et Sc'us Bened. iii. lib. ho'es vi. acr. val. xvij. in his soca.

This was held in the time of Edward I. by the family of Beckswell, and continued so, till united to Ryston manor.

John Eyre, Esq. had a grant of a messuage here, late belonging to West-Derham abbey, on September 12, anno 36 Henry VIII.

The temporalities of West-Derham abbey were assessed here, in 1428, at 5s. 6d. per ann. The spiritualities of the prioress of Carhow at 10s. and the priory of Norwich, in 1428, held the church of Riston, valued at 12 marks.

The tithes were in Sir Jeffrey Hare; fee 6d.

Riston is a depopulated village.—Ris gives names to many towns; Risby in Suffolk, and Yorkshire; Risborough in Bucks; Rissington in Gloucestershire; and Risbridge hundred in Suffolk.

ROXHAM.

A LITTLE village or hamlet, now consisting of two or three farm-houses, was held partly (at the survey) by Rainald, son of Ivo, and Hermicus de Ferrariis. Rainald seized on a freeman who held 9 acres of land, and was under protection only, valued at 8s. and 1d.;<sup>5</sup> this was held by the Derhams with other lands as part of his manor in Derham, which the said family held also of the Earls of Clare, who inherited the possessions of the aforesaid Ivo. In the said family it continued many years: Robert Derham had livery of the manor of Roxham in Queen Elizabeth's reign, and Thomas Derham was lord in the 21st of James I.; after this it came to the Pratts of Riston, where it now remains.

WALPOLE-HALL.

The Lords Bardolf held also lands in this place in capite: William, son of Hermicus de Berwell, gave by deed, sans date, to Henry, son of Joceline de Walpole, all his right in lands with a fishery of the Creek's end; this was possessed by Simon de Walpole, in the reign of Edward II. and was part of the manor of Walpole, in Riston, which extended into this township; William Barsale had also some part or share of it, as had John de Wesenham in the 15th of Richard II. who conveyed then to John de Fincham the fishery of Redebeach here, &c. John Walsheff, or Waltersheff, was lord in the reign of Henry VII. About the reign of James the first, Sir Thomas Lovell and Edmund Skipwith had a right here in; soon after it came to the Pratts, the present possessor being Roger Pratt, Esq.

The abbot of West-Derham had messuages and lands here, in the tenure of William Carter, given September 12, in the 36th of Henry VIII. to John Eyre, Esq. and in the 6th of Elizabeth concealed lands with tithes here, and in Barsale, were granted to Edward Dyer and H. Cressener, April 10.<sup>6</sup>

Lands also belonging to Pentney abbey, were granted September 6, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, to Francis Chalouer and William Butler.

The tete of this town, joined with that of West-Derham, was in Sir George Hare.—Fee 2s. 8d.

It is probable here was formerly a church or chapel; Riston cum Roxham rectories being mentioned as part of the revenues of the see of Norwich.

SOUTH-RUNGTON.

THIS village is sometimes called Rungton-Holme, and South-Rungton: it was given to the abbot and convent of Bury St. Edmund's, by Alfrick Bishop of Elmham,<sup>7</sup> in the reign of Canute King of England, and the abbot was lord in the Conqueror's time, as appears from this account in Domesday Book. In Rungton, St. Edmund held in the Confessor's time, 2 carueates of land; there were always 5 villains, 4 bordarers, and 2 servi, 12 acres of meadow, 16 of wood, one mill, one fishery, and 2 carueates in demean, then one among the tenants, now 2 oxgangs, one beast for burden, 8 cows, pannung for 30 hogs, 15 sheep; there belong to this manor, 27 freemen; the soc was in St. Edmund's; they had one carueate of land, and there were always 3 carueates, and 2 bordarers. There also belongs to the said manor half a carueate of land; there were always 4 bordarers, one servus, and one carueate in demean; also 30 acres belong to it with one villain, and 2 bordarers; it was always valued at 7*l.* and 4*s.* There belongs to this manor a beruwit called Isinghetun, which lies in another hundred. This whole manor is one leuca in length and 5 furlongs in breadth, and pays 8*d.* when the hundred pays 20*s.* to the gelt.—Under the invasions of the abbot, we find that he held 150 acres which five freemen held in the Confessor's time: there were then 2 carueates and an half, now two, and 4 bordarers, valued at 20*s.* and he claims it as the King's gift. In the same village one freeman had half a carueate, there were 4 bordarers, and 2 freemen who had 6 acres valued at 10*s.* there were also 46 acres which 3 freemen held; always one bordarer, 3 carueates, and 6 acres of meadow, valued at 10*s.* which the abbot had seized on.

In the 24th of Henry III. the jury find that the abbot of Bury held this manor in pure alms of the King, and that it had once been the demesns of several of the Kings of England. In the 3d of Edward I. the abbot claimed the lete, assise of bread and beer, gallows, weif of his tenants, and other privileges in his manors, here, in Holm, and Wallingham,<sup>8</sup> in the 30th of the said King, there was an extent made (during the vacancy of the abbey, then in the King's hands) by the free tenants and villains of this manor, who present that there was a capital messuage, curtilages, &c. with 198 acres of arable land, and 16 acres of meadow, value 16s. a messuage in Wigenhale, and a marsh called Homistode, land in Walington, called Pallingslod, a toft called Wanningslod, a windmill, 42 free tenants, several villains, with their rents and services named, a fishery valued 5s. In the 3d of Edward II. I find it wrote Suth Rungton, in a fine then levied of lands here, to distinguish it from a town in the neighbouring hundred, called North Rungton; and in the 9th of that King, the abbot had a patent to purchase a messuage, 11 acres of land, and several rents here.

It appears from ancient records, that the abbot of Bury had very large liberties and privileges, not only within the bailiwick or franchise of St. Edmund, which contained 8 hundreds and an half in Suffolk, but also in their foreign or outlying manors, viz. fines, amerciaments, the year-day, waste, felons, and fugitives goods, goods of felo de se, and outlaws goods, and that King Edward III. by his charter, dated 22 July, in the 4th year of his reign, granted the abbot, &c. to have all the liberties which he and his predecessors had used by virtue of any general words in any former grants of the kings, his predecessors. The several kings whose charters are there recited, are King Canute, Edward the Confessor, Henry I. Richard I. King John, Henry III. Edward I. &c.

The abbot and his tenants had a discharge from contributing to the repairs of the gutters, banks, &c. between Gering's dam and Fleming's hithe in Wallington, as he and his tenants of Rungton had no lands, tenements, or commonage in Wallington; dated December 10, anno 24 Edward III.

This manor in a lease (dated 1st of August, in the 8th of Henry VI.) of William Curteys, then abbot, to Peter Sewale, is called Rungton Roper; the rent was 27l. 13s. 6d. per ann. all knights fees, the advowson of the church, reliefs, escheats, wayfs, estrays, lete, profit of the church, &c. were excepted, and reserved to the abbot, &c.

After the dissolution of the abbey of Bury, it remained in the Crown, till King Philip and Queen Mary, in the 4th and 5th of their reign, on the 12th of February, granted it to John Cajus, doctor of physic, and it was given by him to Cajus college, in Cambridge, in which house it still continues; Cajus was master of the college, and physician to Queen Mary.

The tenths of this town were 7*l.* 4*s.*—Deducted 1*l.* 10*s.*—Remain 5*l.* 14*s.*

The tete of this town, Holm, Thorpland, and Wallington, was in Sir George Hare: tete fee together is 4*s.* The prior of Bromhill had lands or a little lordship here, and in Holme, given them by William, son of John of Rungton Holme, of which see in Weting. In 1428 their temporalities here, were valued at 15*s.* This is now in Christ's college, Cambridge, and held by Sir William Brown, M. D.

The CHURCH of Rungton is dedicated to St. Andrew, and was a rectory in the patronage of the abbot of Bury, given to that abbey with the manor, by Alfrick Bishop of Elmham; to this village there belongs the hamlet of Holm with its chapel, and into this the rectors of Rungton are instituted with the said rectory —The church appears to be a very antique pile, built of rag-stone, &c. dug in the neighbourhood, and lately repaired with brick in many places: it consists of a nave and a chancel covered with reed; the nave is in length about 47 feet, and in breadth about 21; at the west end near a window of the gable (here being no tower) hangs a small bell. At the east end of this nave, on the pavement, lies a marble with a brass plate:

Here under lyeth buried the body of Anye Neve, wife of Thomas Neve, gentelman, who departed this life, the twentieth day of March, An. Dom. M.DC.XXXVII.

Near to this lies another marble stone.

Here lyeth interred the body of Stephen Edgar, gent. who departed this life the eight and twentieth day of June, in the three and fourtie year of his age, and in the year of our Lord 1633.

On a third,

Here under lyeth buried the body of Ann, the wife of Stephen Edgar, who departed this life the eighteenth day of June, An. Dom. 1636.

Between this nave and the chancel is a Gothick arch of great antiquity, the chancel is antique and forms a semicircle, built of stone, but repaired with brick, it is in length about 24 feet, and in breadth about 17. On the pavement here, lies a marble stone thus inscribed,

Here under lieth interred the body of Ester Edgar, the second wife of Stephen Edgar, gent. and daughter of Robert Carter of Norwich, merchant, who departed this life the 11th day of September. An. salutis 1639, Annoq; Ætatis suæ 20. Here also lyeth buried the two daughters, Susan and Mary, who expired their lives the 28 of August, 1639, being the 5 day of their age.

On another,

Here under lyeth interred the body of Thomas Neve, gent. who departed this life the 18 day of July, An. Salutis 1639, Annoq; Ætatis suæ 65.

H O L M E

Is an hamlet belonging to Rungton, and to the lordship of the abbot of Bury, and takes its name from its low and moist situation. The rector had here 80 acres of land, here was baptism and burial, and was valued with Rungton.

PEDIGREE OF THE TRUSSBUTTS.

Richard Trussbutt (b), occurs in the 7th of Edward III.
 John Trussbutt, captain of the hobelars in the Scotch wars, Anno 16 Edward III.

Thomas Trussbut (e) of Rungton-Holme, Esq. by his will dated the last day of December, 1451, desires to be buried in the church of St. James of Holme-Rungton, by the grave of his father, Laurence; his son John and his heirs to have the manor of Tytelsale-Hall in Holme, and his manor of Shingham; his son William, to have his lands and tenements in Shouldham; to Alice his daughter, 100 marks; to Agnes his daughter, 40*l.* to Alianor his daughter, if a nun, 10*l.* but if she marry, 40*l.* Alice his wife, John his son, and John Fincham, executors. His son Hugh, when at age, to have his lands, &c. in Sechithe, West-wynche, &c. proved November 6, 1452. Regist. Aley. Norw. in Archiv. Regist. Norw. p. 2. fol. 163.

John Trussbutt (f) died in or before the 30th of Henry VI. in that year, Elizabeth, his widow, occurs wife of Nicholas Gyrtlyngton.

Thomas Colt, Esq. (g), who married Jane, daughter and heir of Trussbut, was a great favourite of King Edward IV. and one of his council, son of Thomas Colt of Carlisle; he died in or about the 13th of that King, and his widow Jane was soon after married to Sir William Parr, with whom she lived but a few months, dying on Monday before the feast of St. Laurence, in the 13th of Edward IV. and left John, her son and heir, in ward to Sir William, who in the first of Henry VII. had livery of the lordship of Titleskale in Holme, &c. Thomas Colt was of Greys-Hall, in Cavendish, in Suffolk.

William Trussbut of Erpingham, in Norfolk, a juror on an inquisition taken 19 Edward I.

The chapel of Holme is dedicated to St. James, and is an old building, having a nave and a chancel built of rag stone, and covered with lead; at the east end of the nave, which is about 52 feet in length, lies a marble grave-stone, but the brasses are all reaved, probably in memory of Laurence Trussbut, Esq.; at the west end is a four-square tower, the lower part of rag stone, and quoins of free stone, the upper part (where it has decayed) is of brick and embattled, in which hang three bells. The chancel is separated from the nave by an old screen, and is about 24 feet in length, and 15 in breadth; on the pavement, near the north wall lies a marble grave-stone, with this shield (Plate I. Fig. 16.) quarterly, argent, a cross patonce, azure, between, four stars pierced, gules, in the first and 4th.--- Webb. . . . . three pallets . . . . in a bordure . . . . eight roundles, in the 2d and 3d quarter. . . .

This, as has been observed, is a chapel in the parish of Rungton, but had anciently the privilege of burial and baptism. The image of St. Christopher in this chapel, is mentioned in the will of Simon Parch, alias Tyler, in 1442.<sup>3</sup>

Laurence Trussbutt, father of Thomas Trussbutt, Esq. was here buried, as appears from the will of the said Thomas, dated in 1451,<sup>4</sup> near the tomb of his father Laurence. The said Thomas gives a legacy to the light super le Rowell, appoints his anniversary to be kept on Monday in Easter week, and mentions a chapel in his own house at Rungton-Holme.

Roger Lane, rector of Rungton, buried here, 1488.

On the 3d of June, 1631, I find John Pollock instituted to this chapel,<sup>5</sup> or church, on the death of Joseph Allison, rector of Rungton, and presented by Robert Earl of Warwick; and on the 31st of May in the said year, Thomas Eales was instituted rector of Rungton, but I find only this single institution.

THORPLAND,

A SMALL hamlet now belonging to Rungton aforesaid, but formerly a village, or township by itself; in Domesday Book, called Torplanda, and Torp: the greatest part of it was in the hands of Hermerus de Ferraris, lord of Wirmegay, at the survey, and held before by Turchetel Bordinus held under Hermerus, one carucate of land, 5 villains, 2 borderers, 20 acres of meadow, always one carucate in domain, and formerly one amongst the tenants; at the survey, 2 oxgangs, &c. 80 sheep, paunage for 10 hogs, a church endowed with 6 acres, valued before the survey, in all, at 20s. but now at 20s.; it was one leuca long, and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 8*d.* to the gelt, when the hundred was assessed at 20s.—Hermerus had also seized on 8 freemen who held 20 acres, and 2 acres of meadow, valued at 12*d.*—In the same, were 8 customary tenants belonging to the lords fold, valued at 10s.—Also 28 acres valued at 2s. 8*d.* besides 50 acres which Godwin, a freeman, held, who afterwards became an outlaw. Hermerus had with this 3 acres of meadow, one carucate of land, 2 beasts for burden, 6 hogs, 40 sheep, 4 carucates of corn, &c. and has given surety for these and other effects.<sup>6</sup>

SYBETON-HALL.

The possessions of Hermerus abovementioned descended to the Lords Bardolfs, and became part of the honour of Wirmegey. In the reign of Henry III. when an aid was granted him on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor, Nicholas de Sybeton held the 9th part of a fee here, of the aforesaid honour, and Hamon de Sybeton granted by fine in the 44th of the said King, his manor here, and that of Wallington, with lands in Stow, &c. to Mr. William de Clare and his heirs, to be held of Hamon and his heirs.<sup>7</sup> In the 3d of Edward I. Geffrey de Thorpland held it, and claimed the lete, assize of bread and beer, gallows, all forfeitures, &c. but in the 9th of Edward III. Adam, son of John de Watlington, held a messuage and 40 acres of land here of John de Thorpland, by the service of 2s. per ann. In the 5th of Henry VI. Sir John Colvil was lord, and in the 17th of the said King, he settled this manor on a chantry which he founded in the church of Newton in Cambridgeshire.<sup>8</sup> At the Dissolution it was granted to Thomas Mildmay, and in the 30th of Elizabeth, Sir Thomas Mildmay conveyed it to Francis Gawdy, Esq. and so it came into the Warwick family, (as may be seen in Wallington,) and by the marriage of Essex, one of the daughters and coheirs of Robert Earl of Warwick, to Daniel Finch Earl of Nottingham, who sold it to Philip Bell, Esq. who gave it to his nephew, Philip Bell, Esq. (younger brother to Beaupré Bell, Esq. of Outwell,) whose son died lord, and left a son and heir, now a minor.

ESTON-HALL.

In the reign of Henry III. Sarah de Eston was found to hold lands here of the honour of Wirmegey, by the fourth part of a fee.<sup>9</sup> Jeffrey de Eston held it in the 20th of Edward III. and by a roll of the honour of Wirmegey, made in the said reign, it appears that he had liberty of a fold, a windmill, and a right of driving beasts into the fen, performing homage, and fealty, suit of court, castle-guard, and wayt fee, 12d. at St. Michael and Easter, to the said honour. Nicholas Beaupré, in the 11th of Richard II. aliened to the nunnery of Crabhous, a messuage and 33 acres of land here, and in Wygenhale and Tilney.—(Esch. 11. Richard II. N. 108.)—In the 3d of Henry IV. William Hunt was lord; after this it came to the Gawsels, and Thomas Gawsell of Wallington, Esq. died lord in 1500: from the Gawsells it was conveyed to the Coningsbys, Gawdys, &c. to the Earl of Nottingham, and Bell, as will be shown in Wallington.

Besides these two lordships, in the 3d of Edward I. the prior of Westacre, and the prioress of Crabhouse, were found to hold the 3d part of a fee, of the gift of Alexander, son of Reginald de Thorpland, of the honour of Wimegey: on the Dissolution, this was granted to Mildmay, who conveyed it to Gawdy, and so was united with the afore-said lordships. The temporalities of the prior of Westacre here and in Wallington, in 1428, were valued at 22s. 4d. per ann. and their spiritualities here, at 20s.

ABBOT OF BURY'S MANOR.

The abbot of St. Edmund's Bury, at the survey, had a freeman who held 4 acres, of whom he had the protection only. St. Bennet, (that is, Ramsey abbey,) had the soc, it was valued at 8d.<sup>1</sup> This was part of the abbot's manor of Rungton abovementioned.

The temporalities of the prior of Shouldham, here and in Wallington, in 1428, were valued at 14s. 3d. The tenths of this village and Wallington, were 1l. 13s. Deduct 6s. 8d. Remain 1l. 6s. 4d.

The church or chapel which was here has been in ruins two, or near three centuries; that there was one at the conquest and endowed, I have already observed; and that it was standing in 1434 appears from the will of Thomas Foston of Carboisthorp, who gives to the church of Thorpland 3s. 4d.; and in 1488, Roger Lane, rector of Rungton, bequeaths to the church of St. Thomas of Thorpland, the same sum; the chapel or church of Wallington, after this, served both places, for their publick worship, till about 140 years past. After that fell, the church of Rungton, and since the fall of that, these hamlets are obliged to go to the church of Holme. On the death of Sir Francis Gawdy it was found that he died seized of the rectory of Thorpland. It is said to be appropriated anciently to the priory of Westacre, and the prior had a manse with 12 acres: it was valued at 20s.; Peter-pence 9d.

WALLINGTON,

CALLED in Domesday Book, Wallinghetuna, (that is a town with mounds or walls of earth fencing it against the watery meadows.) Hermernus seized on it, being in the Confessor's time the possessions of Turstan, a freeman, who had an hundred acres of land, and 15 acres of meadow, valued at 12s. and was only under protection; here was a church with 26 acres, valued at 16*d.* In the same were seven freemen in the Confessor's time who held 60 acres, valued at 14s. per ann. of six of these Hermerus's predecessor had the protection only, and Guert the Earl<sup>2</sup> had it of the seventh, valued at 20*d.* and Hermerus seized on this freeman: the whole is 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 6*d.* to the gelt; over all these St. Bennet (Ramsey abbey) has the soc.<sup>3</sup>

Roger Bigot (Earl of Norfolk) had also 30 acres of land, which Husgarla, a freeman, held in the Confessor's time, and Hugh holds it of Roger, valued at 3s.; this part was soon after in the hands of the descendants of Hermerus, and held by the Bardolphs, lords of Wirmegey, and with the foregoing parts made up the manors of Sybeton-Hall, and Eston-Hall in this village.

SYBETON-HALL.

What has been said of this hall in Thorpland, will serve also in this town, being possessed by the same lords, and passed (as is there observed) through several hands, till it came to Philp Bell, Esq. as above.

ESTON-HALL.

This also passed (as has been mentioned in Thorpland) from the family of Eston, to William Hunt, who was lord in the 3d year of Henry IV. and afterwards came to the family of the Gawells. Thomas Gawsell, Esq. died lord of Eston-Hall, in this village and Thorpland, as appears from his will, dated September 14, and proved November 17, 1500;<sup>4</sup> with lands in Carboisthorp, Wymbotsham, Stow, Foston, Eastwinch, Wygenhale, &c. and gave lands in Fordham, Helgey, Denver, Riston, Roxham, Upwell, Outwell, and Tilney in Norfolk, and Littleport in Cambridgeshire, to Richard, a younger son. And Elena Gawsell of Wallington, widow of the aforesaid Thomas, by her will dated on the feast of St. Clement, 1504, and proved June 3, 1507, gives to John Gawsell, her eldest son, the manors of Wallington and Thorpland, and Woodleves in Fordham.<sup>5</sup> In the 16th of Henry VIII. Thomas Gawsell, (son of John,) and Catherine his wife, convey their manors of Wallington and Thorpland to William Conningsby, Esq.<sup>6</sup> (one of the justices of the King's Bench, in the 32d of the said King.) son of Sir Humphrey, who was made justice of the King's Bench, May 21, in the first of Henry VIII. descended from Roger de Coningsby, lord of Coningsby in Lincolnshire, in the reign of King John. Sir Humphrey was son of Thomas Coningsby, Esq. second son of Thomas Coningsby, Esq. of New Solers in Shropshire, who lived in the reign of Edward IV. William Coningsby, Esq. aforesaid (who first settled here) was father of Christopher Coningsby, Esq. who was slain in the first of Edward VI. at the battle of Muscleborough in Scotland, and left by his wife Ann, daughter of Sir Roger Woodhouse of Kimberley, 3 daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth, the eldest, was married to Francis Gawdy, Esq. who in her right became lord of this place, and Thorpland; he was the 3d son of Thomas Gawdy, Esq. of Harleston in Norfolk, by his 3d wife Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas, or (as some say) Olicer Shyres; in the 30th of Elizabeth, he was serjeant at law, and Queen's serjeant, May 17, 1582, and in the 20th of the said Queen, bought of Sir Thomas Mildmay, the manor of Sybeton in this town; in 1589, he was made a judge of the King's Bench, and August 25, 1605, chief justice of the Common Pleas, being then a knight: he died of an apoplexy at Serjeant's Inn, London, before he had sate a year in the station, and was buried in the neighbouring church of Rungton.—Sir Henry Spilman says, that having this manor, &c. in right of his wife, he induced her to acknowledge a fine thereof, on which she became a distracted woman, and continued so, to the day of her death, and was to him for many years a perpetual affliction;? he had by her an only daughter and heir, Elizabeth, married to Sir William Hatton, who died also without issue male, and left a daughter and heir, Frances, brought up with her grandfather the judge, and was secretly married, against his will, to Sir Robert Rich, (afterwards Earl of Warwick,) son of Robert Earl of Warwick. The judge being shortly after made Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, (at a dear rate, as was reported,) was suddenly stricken with an apoplexy, and died without issue male, ere he had continued in his place one whole Michaelmas term, and having made his appropriate parish church a hay-house, or a dog-kennel, his dead corps being brought from London to Wallington, could for many days find no place of burial, but growing very offensive, he was at last conveyed to the church of Rungton, and buried there without any ceremony, and lyeth yet uncovered (if the visitors have not reformed it,) with so small a matter as a few paving stones. And indeed no stone or memorial was there ever for him, and if it was not for this account it would not have been known, that he was there buried.

This village, with that of Thorpland, thus brought by Judge Gawdy's grand-daughter into the Warwick family, on the death of Robert Earl of Warwick, (who left 3 daughters and coheirs,) came by marriage of Essex, the 3d daughter, to Daniel Finch Earl of Nottingham, who sold it to Philip Bell, Esq. from whom it came to Philip Bell, Esq. his nephew, whose son was late lord, &c. The hall is the only house now standing; the town was depopulated by Judge Gawdy, who had a park here.

PEDIGREE OF THE CONINGSBYS.

Coningsby bore gules, three coneyes sejant, argent, in a bordure ingrailed, sable.—Gawdy, argent, a tortoise, passant, vert.

The Church of Wallington was dedicated to St. Margaret, and is now in ruins, nothing being standing but the tower, which is owing to its being profaned by Judge Gawdy; that it was standing in 1509, appears from the will of John Hale of Wallington, who bequeaths his body to be buried in the churchyard of St. Margaret.<sup>8</sup>—And Christopher Coningsby of Wallington, Esq. by his will dated July 20, in the first of Edward VI. and proved April 9, 1548, bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of Wallington. That it was formerly a distinct parish, appears from its endowment in the Conqueror's time, when there belonged to it 26 acres of glebe land; but in 1416, it is called a chapel belonging to Rungton. In Edward the First's time it was called a rectory in the patronage of the abbot of Bury, belonging to Rungton, valued with it, and paid Peter-pence, 7*d.*

† She is said to have brought to Sir Robert Rich 10,000*l.* per ann.

S H O U L D H A M.

So called from a shallow little stream of water, that runs through the town; thus Scole, Sculthorp, Scoulton in Norfolk.

Rainald, son of Ivo, had a grant of a lordship held by Turchill, in the reign of the Confessor, containing a carucate and 6 acres of land, 3 villains, 7 bordarers, 3 servi, 2 carucates in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, &c. 6 acres of meadow, &c. 4 cows, &c. 120 sheep, 3 skeps of bees, with the moiety of a fishery. Two socmen belonged to it with 10 acres, valued then at 60s. at the survey at 40s. and 6d. here were also, in the Confessor's time, 10 freemen with 30 acres, who were only under protection, and Rainald had them, with half a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, valued then at 6s. at the survey at 16. Wihehoe (a dependant of Rainald) had seized on them for his master, and Ralph held it under Rainald.<sup>9</sup>

This lordship, with others, came (as I have observed) to the Earls of Clare and Gloucester.

SHOULDHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Geffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex held it of the honour of Clare, in the reign of King John, and on his founding a priory in this town, settled it on that house, and the prior was found in the reign of Henry III. to hold here and in Watlington one knight's fee, and the moiety of a fee of the Earl of Clare.

In the 3d of Edward I. it appears that the prior claimed many royal privileges, and in his 9th year a writ was directed to the barons of the Exchequer, reciting that the master and priors of the order of Sempringham (of which order this convent was) had many privileges granted to them, by the King's predecessors, and had been disturbed in using them, on this account the barons are ordered to have their charters read, and allowed in court.

On the dissolution of this priory, it came to King Henry VIII. anno 1539, and remained there some time; in the 34th of that King, the rent of assise of this manor was 10*l.* 10*s.* per ann.—Perquisites of court 2*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.*—Lands farmed let at 18*l.* 4*s.* 3*d.*—Foldecourse—10*l.* per ann.

King Edward VI. An. 7, May 6, granted it to Thomas Myldmay,

Esq. of Moulsham in Essex, and Sir Thomas Myldmay, his son, sold it January 12, An. 30, Elizabeth, to Francis Gawdy, Esq. serjeant at law, &c. as in Wallington, and came by his grand-daughter to Robert Rich Earl of Warwick. In 1632, Sir Thomas Barrington, Bart. Sir William Marsham, and Sir Nathaniel Rich, trustees of the said Earl, conveyed it to Sir John Hare, Knight of Stow Bardolf, in which family it remains, Sir George Hare, Bart. being the present lord, in 1763.

TRUSSBUT'S AND COLT'S MANOR.

Ralph Lord Bainard, at the survey, had a grant of a lordship, on the deprivation of Ailid, a free woman, who was also deprived of many other manors.—This consisted of 2 carucates in demean, and 2 among the tenants, 14 villains, 2 bordarers, 4 servi, 10 acres of meadow, 3 parts of a mill, and a fishery, &c. 6 cows, 60 sheep, &c. two churches endowed with 73 acres, valued at 6s. 1d. the whole valued at 7l.—In the other Shouldham, which shows that here was Shouldham Magna and Parva, Ailid had 2 carucates in demean, 8 villains, 7 bordarers, 4 servi, 10 acres of meadow and a salt pit;<sup>1</sup> one carcate among the tenants, &c. 60 sheep, then valued at 100s. at the survey at 8l. 15 soemen belonged to it with 24 acres, and half a carcate, valued above. All Shouldham is one leuca long, and half a one broad, and pays 12d. at a 20s. gelt.<sup>2</sup>

This was the largest, or the chief lordship of this town, and on the rebellion of William Lord Bainard against King Henry I. being forfeited, came after to the Earls of Clare, and was held of them by Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, and so came to Shouldham priory.—Roger Trussbut had an interest in it in 1255.

By the inquisition taken in the reign of Henry III. Adam de Botefoy, John, son of Adam, Robert de Bokenham, &c. held lands by knight's service of the prior; after this John Trussbut had an interest, and gave the church of Shouldham All-Saints to the prior; and John, son of Adam de Fincham, and Thomas Rede, sell to Nicholas Trussbut of Shouldham, and Isabel his wife, lands and messuages; John Lok and John Rede, burgesses of Lynn, conveyed messuages to them with many lands, and 8s. rent. Thomas Trussbut, Esq.<sup>3</sup> dying in 1451, left it to his son William, who dying s. p. it came to Jane his niece, daughter and heir of John Trussbut, his elder brother, who married Thomas Colt, Esq. and George Colt, Esq. in the 29th of Elizabeth, sold it to Thomas Shouldham, Esq. who soon after conveyed it to

SHOULDHAM'S MANOR IN SHOULDHAM AND IN MARHAM.

About a mile south-east of the town of Shouldham, stands an antique hall of free-stone, the south part of it is in the parish of Shouldham, and the north part of it in Marham. This was the ancient seat of the old family of De Shouldham, lords of this manor; Sir William de Shouldham was lord in the 34th of Henry III. William de Sculdham gave by deed, sans date, with the consent of his son Richard, lands in Wigenhale to Bury abbey.<sup>4</sup> The abbey of Castleacre had 2 parts of the tithes of the demesons of Simon, son of Hugh, son of Roger, son of Jeffrey de Sculdham, confirmed to them by Simon Bishop of Norwich, about 1260. This Simon was a knight. Walter Bishop of Norwich, about 1250, gave license to him and his heirs to have a free chantry in his chapel, founded by consent of the prior and convent of Westacre, patrons of the vicarage, and rectors of Marham; by Claricia his wife, he was father of Hugh de Sculdham, lord in the reign of Edward I. From a curious roll in vellum, illuminated, and with the arms of Shouldham, azure, an eagle displayed, or, membered, &c. it appears that Matilda was then relict of this Hugh;<sup>5</sup> in 1301, she was buried in the church of Marham, and the prior of Shouldham received half a mark, (in right of his church of Shouldham All-Saints), as a principal (or mortuary) for her.

In the reign of Edward II. An. 9, Reyner de Sculdham was lord. Alice his wife died 1336, when the prior received of Richard, son of Reyner, for Alice his mother, (buried at Marham), an horse as a principal, she dying in the mansion house of Reyner, and in the limits or parish of the church of All-Saints, aforesaid, which limits (as is expressed) reach from a moiety of the said house, or messuage towards the south; and in the 29th of Edward III. the said Richard is called late lord of Shouldham, deceased, and left a son called Richard, son of Richard; Richard the father dying An. 18 Edward III.

In 1413, John Shouldham was lord, and performed homage to the prior, in the chapter-house of the priory, on Sunday, before the feast of St. Simon and Jude, in these words, "Her I become yoman from " this tyme forth, and truth shall you bear, and never arme again you
" in land of peace, nor of werr, for lands and tenements which I
" cleyme to hold of you be knyhtes service, so help me God and holy
" Dom." This John was one of those gentlemen of ancient coat-armour, who were returned to serve King Henry V. in his wars, An. 7.

Thomas Shouldham, Esq. was his son and heir, (by Beatrix his wife,) he lived at Wallington, and was there buried: by his will, dated August 30, 1467, he gives this lordship to Margaret his wife for life, with the manors of Burnhame Depedale, and Wallington, and on her death to Hugh his son, the manor of Wallington. Margaret, his wife, and

John Fincham executors.<sup>6</sup> Thomas Shouldham of Marham, Esq. his son and heir, married Ela, daughter and coheir of William Narburgh of Narburgh, Esq. who afterwards married Henry Spilman, Esq. and died lord: his will dated January 1471, proved in April 1472. Thomas his son, by Ela, married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Thurkington, Esq. of Huntingdonshire; by his will, made August 28, 1514, proved September 28 following, gives to his wife 10*l.* per ann. out of the manor of Narburgh for life, and the 3*d* part of his manor of Marham; appoints her, John Spilman his brother, and John Fincham executors, and Sir Philip Tilney, Kut. supervisor;<sup>7</sup> and was buried in the priory of Pentney.

John his son succeeded, who was found to die November 20, in the 1st and 2*d* of Philip and Mary, and was buried at Marham, leaving 3 sons, Humphrey, Edward and William; Humphrey, the eldest, aged 40.<sup>8</sup>

Humphrey married in the 3*d* and 4*th* of Philip and Mary, Anne, daughter of William Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham, and dying in 1566, left Anne, his daughter and sole heir, who married John Steward, Esq. son of Simeon Steward of Laknigheath in Suffolk, which John died in the 2*d* of James I. on February 16, lord of this manor, and left issue, John, lord of Braughing in Hertfordshire, aged 22; Francis his son married Roberta, daughter and coheir of Richard Hoo of Scarning in Norfolk, Esq. and was father of Hoo Steward, Esq. who conveyed this lordship, as I take, it to the Bedingfields.

The will of Humphrey aforesaid is dated March 20, 1560; proved March 23, 1566; mentions therein his brother Williams and uncle William Shouldham.<sup>9</sup>

Daniel Bedingfield, Esq. and Edmund Bedingfield, recorder of Lynn, were lords; Edmund dying, sans issue, gave it to his nephew, Christopher Bedingfield, Esq. of Wighton, who leaving 3 daughters and coheirs, conveyed it to Sir Thomas Hare, Baronet, of Stow.

In some old writings the town is called Market Shouldham, and there was a considerable grammar-school. In 1462, the Bishop granted to John Elvedon, L.L.B. the mastership of it. There are two fairs kept yearly for horses, cows, &c. on September 8, and Michaelmas day, old style.

The 10*ths* were 8*l.* 10*s.*—Deducted 2*l.* The lete was in the Hares of Stow, the fee 2*s.*

SHOULDHAM PRIORY.

The priory of Shouldham was founded by Jeffrey Fitz-piers Earl of Essex, and dedicated to the Holy Cross and the Blessed Virgin, for a prior, canons, and nuns of the order of St. Gilbert of Sempringham, who endowed the said house with the manor of Shouldham and its members in Caneham, Wyrham, Wrotton, Boketon, Stokeferry, Carboysthorp, Foston, Stradeset, Totenhille, Wattlington, Wallyngton, Bekeswell, Fordham, Welle, Wygenhale, Seche, Sadlebowe, Clenchwarton,

Loz, and Wrangle, excepting 100 acres of demean, arable lands, a capital messuage with gardens, a park, and pasture for 100 sheep, and 10 cows, the homage and service of his free tenants in Shouldham, which he kept in his own hands; and by the consent of John Bishop of Norwich, he also gave and appropriated to them the churches of All-Saints, and St. Margaret's in Shouldham, the churches of Carbysthorpe, Stokeferry and Wyrham, with their appertenancees, which he held of Richard Earl of Clare. The original deed of gift being in Dugdale's Monasticon Anglican. I shall not here transcribe, but only observe that the witnesses to it were Hubert Archbishop of Canterbury, Bishop of Norwich, Walter, abbot of Waltham, Roger Bigod, &c.<sup>1</sup> by which it appears that it was founded before the year 1201, in which year Walter the abbot died.

This Jeffrey married to his first wife Beatrix eldest daughter and coheir of William de Say, son and heir of William Say and Beatrix his wife, daughter of William, and sister to Jeffrey Mauderville Earl of Essex, in whose right the said Jeffrey Fitz-piers (the family of Mauderville being extinct) was, on the coronation of King John, created Earl of Essex, and held many great lordships, Maud, the other sister (and coheir) of the said Beatrix, being married to William de Bochand. This Jeffrey was a person of great power and authority in that age, and chief justiciary of England, and dying on the second of October, 1212, was buried in this priory, where, on the foundation of it, he had removed the body of his wife Beatrix, who died in child-bed, and was buried at first in the priory of Chicksand in Bedfordshire.—His character in history is agreeable to his station; his death is said to be the general loss of the whole nation, being a firm pillar thereof, generous and skillful in the laws, and allied to all the great men of England, either in blood or friendship, so that King John feared him above all mortals, for it was he that held the reins of government, and after his death, the realm was like a ship tost in a tempest without a pilot. Holingshed says that this epitaph was inscribed on his monument:

*Hoc in sarcophago sepelitur Regis Imago,
Qui moriens, multum sedavit in orbe tumultum.
Et cui correcta dum vixit probra manebant,
Hunc mala post mortem timor est ne fata sequantur
Qui legis hæc metuens, dum cernis te moriturum
Discito quid rerum pariat tibi meta dierum.*<sup>2</sup>

The said Jeffrey Fitz-piers Earl of Essex gave to this priory in pure alms, to find lights in the church of the priory, and wine to consecrate the body and blood of our Saviour, 12 shops with rooms over them, in the parish of St. Mary of Colechirch in London.<sup>3</sup> Jeffrey, son and

Roger Earl of Clare confirmed the same as capital lord of the fee, saving to himself and his heirs, the service of one knight's fee and an half, and suit of court once a year at Clare, after the feast of St. Michael, by the prior or his attorney.—Witnesses, Ralph Bucell, Geffrey son of Laurence, Matthew le Butler, &c.

Christiana de Maudeville Countess of Essex, widow of William Earl of Essex, gave to this house by deed, sans date, a marsh at Wlferton, and 13 acres and one rood of land called Schepe land.<sup>5</sup>

Hermerus de Bekeswell, son of William de Bekeswell, by deed sans date, gave to this priory a tenement, which Walter, son of Jeffrey de Marham held of him in Schuldham. Witnesses, Hugh, dean of Fincham, Jeffrey Fitz-peter of Shouldham, Osbert de Stradeset, Walter de Wyrham, &c. The patronage of this priory continued in the eldest branch of the founder's family, till the death of William de Maudeville Earl of Essex, second son of the founder, by his first wife Beatrice, in the 23d of Henry III. who was buried (as his elder brother had been) in this priory; and then it descended to the second branch of the founder's family, by his second wife Aveline, and his great grandson (by the said Aveline) Richard Lord Fitz-John dying, sans issue, in France, in the 25th of Edward I. it came to William de Beauchamp Earl of Warwick, who married Maud, eldest sister and coheir of the said Richard, as will appear more fully from the ensuing pedigree of the founder and his family.

In Wygenhale this house held 64 acres of pasture, which was given at the Dissolution, by King Edward VI. to Roger le Strange, and in Wygenhale, St. Peter's, they had a manor valued in 1428, at 10l 5s. 1d. per ann. which in 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary was given to John Perrot, Knt.

In the 12th of Edward I. a fine was levied by which Richard de Brandon and Agnes his wife, gave to the prior of Shouldham, lands in South Lynn.

William Wygenhale aliened to the prior of Shouldham, 6 acres of land in Wygenhale, 20 in Stokeferry, one acre and 3 roods in Wyrham, one in Shouldham, and the rent of 6s. with the manors of Wigenhale, Stokeferry, Wretton, Wyrham, and Shouldham, also a messuage, and 30 acres in Wyrham, and a messuage and 34 acres in Shouldham, Anno. 6 Edward II.

This *William Beauchamp (a)** Earl of Warwick, who married Maud, the eldest sister and coheir of Richard Lord Fitz-John, is said by Sir William Dugdale<sup>6</sup> to have two daughters, nuns, in this house, at his death: and the said author asserts that Guy, eldest son to Thomas Earl of Warwick, by his last will, dated 26 September, in the 33d of Edward III. gave the church of Necton in Norfolk, in his patronage, to be appropriated to the monastery of Shouldham, for the maintenance of Catharine and Elizabeth, nuns there, during their lives, and after their decease, the said house was obliged to find a priest to sing divine service, daily, for the souls of his father and mother, his own, his wife Philippa, daughter of Henry Lord Ferrers of Groby, and also for the souls of the said Catharine and Elizabeth; but this is a mistake.<sup>8</sup> Henry Duke of Warwick dying in 1446, and his daughter and heir Ann dying a minor, the patronage of this priory came to Richard Nevill, the great Earl of Warwick, by the marriage of Ann, sister and sole heir to the aforesaid Duke; and after the death of this Earl, Ann, his Countess, conveyed (as I take it) the patronage of this house, together with many lordships, to King Henry VII. in the 3d year of his reign, and it remained in the Crown at the Dissolution.

This priory being of the order of St. Gilbert, it may not be improper to give some passant account of the founder and order. This Gilbert was born at Sempringham in Lincolnshire, his father's name was Jocelinus, of Norman extraction, and having large possessions there, sent his son into France for the improvement of his learning; and on his return home was presented by his father to the churches of Sempringham in Lincolnshire, and Tirington in Norfolk. After this he was chaplain to Alexander Bishop of Lincoln, by whom he was ordained priest. About this time he became exemplary for his piety, despised all worldly honours, &c. and refused to be an archdeacon in the church of Lincoln. He flourished in the reign of King Henry I. and in that reign began his order in this manner: seven young virgins, moved by his devotion, voluntarily left the world, and confined themselves in a solitary habitation adjoining to the north wall of the church of Sempringham, submitted to his government, and direction.<sup>9</sup> Their apartment had but one door kept locked, their diet and relief they received in at a window; for the assistance of these, Gilbert appointed certain lay sisters, and for the outward service of the house, certain lay brothers; from this beginning, this order encreased to many monasteries: and Pope Eugenius appointed him the master or gover-nour of the order. To assist him in the office of superinspection, he appointed clerks who were to take part of the care of the government of his nunneries, and this was the original of the canons of this order. These canons were to live in a separate habitation and never to have any access to that of the nuns, unless for the administration of some sacrament, and that before many witnesses; but the same church was to serve for both.

Yet had they two rules; the canons that of St. Augustine, the nuns that of St. Benedict. This Gilbert is celebrated by monkish historians for his great abstinence, sanctity, and other austerities of life, but yet he could not escape the censures and scandals of some of his own lay brethren, which indeed were unavoidable in such a mixed society and order; but his innocency and merit was certified by almost all the Bishops of England, and by King Henry II. himself. He lived above an hundred years, and died in 1189, and was buried at Sempringham in the presence of all the priors and prioresses of his order, several other abbots, and noble persons, &c. Many miracles are by the Romish votaries said to be wrought through his intercession: an enquiry into the truth of them was made at Sempringham in 1201, before certain commissioners appointed by Hubert Bishop of Canterbury, and after that by papal authority; the result of which was the canonization of Gilbert, and the inserting his name in the catalogue of the Romish saints in 1202.

This order maintained its credit for some time, but at length, these epicene or hermaphrodite monasteries, (as they have been called,) of men and women, so degenerated, that a poet says of them

Vix mulier quævis sterilis reperitur in illis, Donec eis atas talia posse neget.

There's scarce a nun that's barren found,
Till sixty years she's stood her ground.

The founder Gilbert being thus canonized, his order grew great, and swelled with singular privileges from temporal princes as well as the see of Rome. King John took all the houses of this order, their men, servants, &c. into his immediate protection, made them free from all toll, tribute, &c. as appears by a very particular charter. Pope Innocent, by his bull, privileged them that they should not be carried above two days journey from their own priory, by letters from the see of Rome, on any cause or account whatsoever, and Pope Lucius exempted them from the payment of tithe.

The prior had a charter for free warren, in the 33d of Henry III. in all his demean lands. The nuns of the church of St. Mary of Shouldham, had a confirmation of their privileges 38 Edward III.

14 Edward I. Walric Le Merchant of Thorp, and Alice his wife, gave by fine to Benedict the prior, lands in Shouldham, and Garbois-thorp by fine.

Thomas, vicar of Fincham, aliened to the prior 28 acres of moor in Wolfreton, An. 15 Richard II. The nuns had temporalities in Norwich, and taxed 4*d.* ob. q. for tenths 1428

Alice Brown, late wife of Richard Brown, merchant, of Norwich, left by will to the repair of the nuns church, and place at Shouldham, in 1464, 5 marks. Regist. Cobald Norw. fol. 68.

But these mighty privileges could not screen them from that general dissolution in the reign of Henry VIII. for on the 15th of October, 1539, Robert Swift the prior, with 9 canons and 7 nuns, surrendered this house into the King's hands, valued then at 171*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann. as Speed, and as Dugdale, 138*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*<sup>1</sup>

On their dissolution John Holme, John More, and Richard Fuller, canons, confessed and were found to be incontinent. Joan Plumstead peperit ante introitum. Marg. Pemberton peperit ex presbytero. Compend. Comportor.

At which time the King was pleased to grant pensions to them for their annual subsistence, and in 1533, here remained in charge these, viz.

Laurence Russell, priest, dwelling in Great Bircham, Norfolk, a White-friar in Shouldham, unmarried, hath a pension of 4 marks paid him yearly, also 4*l.* per ann. for serving the cure of Bircham, besides his meat and drink.<sup>2</sup>

William Thorp, 2*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann.

Elizabeth Fincham, 5*l.* per ann.

Joan Plumstead, 2*l.* per ann. dwelling in the parish of St. Margaret in Norwich, lately supprioress of Shouldham, living contiuently; this pension is paid to her at two terms in the year by equal portions, and hath nothing besides the same pension to live upon, and is reputed and taken to be a good catholick woman.

Jane Dereham, 2*l.* per ann.

Margaret Pemberton, 2*l.* per ann.

Catharine Digby, 2*l.* per ann.

Margaret Skewer, 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. dwelling in St. Peter's at Manscroft, in Norwich; one of the sisters of Shouldham.

Fuyth Smith, dwelling in Fakenham, Norfolk, unmarried, lately a nun in Shouldham, hath 2*l.* per ann. paid her, and is a catholick woman.

This priory being thus surrendered into the King's hands, it remained in the Crown till King Edward VI. on the 6th of May in the 7th year of his reign, sold (as has been observed) the manor of this town, and the site of this dissolved priory, with all the messuages, granges, &c. belonging to it in Shou dham, for 1049*l.* 9*s.* 4½*d.* to Thomas Myldmay, Esq. and by Sir Thomas his son, it was sold in the 30th of Elizabeth, to Gawdy, and so descended to the Earl of Warwick, and came to Sir

Nicholas Feriby occurs in 1413:<sup>5</sup> a cause then depending between this prior and the rector of Fincham St. Michael, about a pension of 40s. per ann. due to the priory.

Thomas occurs prior, 1439.

Hugh Hull occurs in 14 of Henry VI. as appears from a deed bearing date on Sunday before the feast of St. Simon and Jude, in that year.<sup>6</sup>

John occurs prior in the 14th and 34th of Henry VI.<sup>6</sup>

John Wenham in the 34th of Henry VI.<sup>7</sup>

John occurs prior (5 of Edward IV.) of St. Mary's of Shouldham.

Thomas Stanton, occurs in 1479; and in 1493, Thomas prior presented to the church of Fincham St. Michael.<sup>8</sup>

John Edmond, on the 18th of February, 1502, he being then prior, was instituted into the rectory of Fincham St. Michael, presented by the prior and convent of Castteacre, and died in 1504.<sup>9</sup>

John Bray occurs in the 9th of Henry VIII. as appears by a deed dated 10 of July in that year.<sup>1</sup>

Anna, occurs prioress 1453.

The seal of this priory was oblong, of red wax, the impress was of the Blessed Virgin, (as I take it,) standing on the right side of the shield, and on the left an angel with his right wing elevated above his shoulder, and the left wing depressed, having a scroll before him, (probably the words of the salutation,) the legend, Sigillum prioris et conventus de Suldham.

Fincham St. Martin; the rectory appropriated to this house in 1350, and a vicar was settled, and a pension to be paid by the prior and convent of 26s. and 8d. per ann. to the Bishop, the vicar to be presented by the prior and convent;<sup>3</sup> this was, as I conceive, the gift of the Lord Bardolf.

Castor Holy Trinity, in Flegg, appropriated in 1387, on July 10, given by the Lord Bardolf, and a vicarage settled, to which the prior presented, and the Bishop nominated.

The temporalities of the prior and convent in Shouldham, were valued at 90*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.* ob. in the year 1428, and the spiritualities in Shouldham All-Saints, and St. Margaret, at sixteen marks and an half.

The sum of all their spiritualities and temporalities in the county of Norfolk, was valued in the said year at 181*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.* q.

The spiritualities of the abbot of Westminster, a portion of tithes here, in 1428, 1*l.* 10*s.*

Hugh, son of Roger de Suldham, by deed, sans date, gave to the prior and convent of Castleacre, an acre of meadow in Suldham, in a field called Midlehallmere, toward the west, near a field which was William Earl of Mandevile's.<sup>4</sup> Witnesses, Jeffrey, son of Peter de Suldham, Walter, son of Jeffrey de Marham. Simon Bishop of Norwich, 1165, confirmed to the priory of Castleacre, two parts of the tithes of the demean of Simon, son of Hugh, Roger, son of Jeffrey, Roger Trussbut, Thomas de Greville, William, son of Lambert, of the land of Theobald.

Nicholas, prior of Castleacre, and John, prior of Shouldham, agree on the 1st of November, in the 5th of Edward IV. that whereas formerly the house of Shouldham was wont to pay to that of Castleacre, the yearly rent of 4*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* for certain tithes as well great as small, in Shouldham, Wyrham, Buketon, and Stauford, which they had of the said prior of Castleacre, from the time that no man remembers; by this agreement, the house of Shouldham was only to pay the yearly rent of 4*l.* and to be exempt from paying the remainder, 13*s.* and 4*d.*

SHOULDHAM ALL-SAINTS. At this time there is but one church standing in Shouldham, at the east end of the town in the fields, which as I conceive, is the church of All-Saints. It consists of a nave, in length about 69 feet, and in breadth about 24, and on the south side of this nave is a small chapel, about 15 feet in length, and 10 in breadth, in a window there are some remains of this shield (Plate I. Fig. 18.) sable, a fess dauncette, between three mullets pierced, argent, Wesenham.—This chapel was probably dedicated to the Virgin Mary, for mention is made of that chapel in the church of All-Saints in Shulldham in 1504.<sup>5</sup> At the east end of this nave is the chancel, about 34 feet in length, and about 25 feet in breadth; the roof of this is of oak, as is that of the nave, which is boarded between the spars, and covered with reed. At the west end of the nave stands a four-square broad tower of rag stone, &c. with which the church is built, coped with quoins of free stone, and embattled with brick; in this tower hang four bells. On the top of the west wall of the churchyard, near the tower, lies several large grave stones, probably brought from the abbey, at, or since the Dissolution, and serving for coping stones to preserve the wall; on these are the insignia of a Knight Templar, the cross pattée on the head of a staff.

The church was appropriated, as has been observed, to the priory of Shouldham in the reign of King John; and in the beginning of King Edward I. reign, we find that the prior then held it and received all the tithes as well great as small from 60 houses belonging to it, the houses of Simon de Dulyngham and Stephen de Schulldham being excepted, out of whose demesnes the prior of Castleacre took two garbs, and the prior of Shouldham the 3d garb. Peter-pence, 8*d.*; it was then valued, together with the church of St. Margaret, and Castleacre portion, at 16 marks. In 1603, Richard Harison served the cure, when there were 192 communicants here, and in Garboisthorp, alias Shouldham Thorp.

ST. MARGARET'S SHOULDHAM. The site of this church is at present unknown; it is probable that it fell about the dissolution of the priory: that it was standing in 1519, appears from the will of John Ryches, who bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of St. Margaret at Shulldham, dated 1st March, in the said year.<sup>6</sup> This church was also appropriated to the priory and convent, who received all the tithes great and small. Both the churches were served by one of their canons, or some stipendiary priest, till the Dissolution, when they came to the Crown, and from King Edward VI. to Thomas Myldmay, after to Gawdy, Rich, and Hare; and Sir George Hare, as lord of Shouldham, &c. has both the impropriations, and finds a curate for the parish; it was valued with All-Saints. Peter-pence, 6*d.*

There were anciently in the church of Shouldham, (but which church is not mentioned,) these shields and arms:<sup>7</sup>

SHOULDHAM THORP.

IN the grand survey, or Domesday book, it is called Carboisthorp, from a clear stream of water or rivulet, arising here and running to Fincham, &c. thus Carbroke, and Bo Isse, a winding water, as Hobois, Boethorp, or Boesthorp, &c. Hermerus de Ferrariis (of whom see in Wermegay) had seized on 80 acres of land, and 5 of meadow, possessed by 11 freemen, and the moiety of another, with a bordarer and 3 carucates valued at 17s. and the moiety of the church endowed with 16 acres valued at 12d.<sup>2</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. Alexander le Moyne, or Monk, &c. held it of the Lord Bardolf, Baron of Wirmegey, and after them the Russels. In the 9th of Edward II. Nicholas Russel held it, and paid yearly, a pair of gloves. Ralph Russel was lord in the 20th of Richard II. Nicholas Seman and John Sewel kept their court here in the 19th of Henry VIII. after this it came to the Harpleys; Thomas Harpley, junior, of this town, and Dorothy his wife, sold it to the Gawsells. Thomas Gawsell and Richard Godbold, held their first court on April 10, An. 8 Elizabeth, and William Butts, Gent. son and heir of William, kept his first court September 27, An. 11 Elizabeth. William Butts, his father, married Ursula, relict of Richard Gawsell, Esq. of Watlington, and presented to that church in her right in 1563.

William Butts, Esq. by his will, dated March 21, 1624, was buried in this church near to his mother, his father being also here buried: on his death the estate came to his brother Leonard, who conveyed it to Sir John Hare, and lately possessed by Sir George Hare, Bart.

Another part of Hermerus's fee was held by a family that assumed their name from this town. In the 54th of Henry III. Walter de Thorp, conveyed to Gilbert de Thorp 2 carucates of land with lands in Bekeswell, and in the 11th of King John, Emma Belet sued Eda de Thorp for certain customs and services, &c. and for finding a man 3 days in harvest with meat and drink, to preside over the reapers with his rod or wand.

Martin de Thorp, and Reginald his son, in the 7th of Edward III. sold it to Adam de Fincham, with 2 messuages, 54 acres of land, 10 of pasture here, in Stradset, &c. 11s. 7d. with foldages, homages, ward, &c. and John Fincham was lord in the 16th of Richard II. and then alienated lands here to Ely priory. Afterwards it came to Judge Gawdy, so to the Earl of Warwick, Sir John Hare, &c. as above.

Rainald son of Ivo, had at the survey in this town called Thorp, one soeman, who possessed 2 acres valued at 3*d.*<sup>3</sup>

This came to the Earls of Clare, and was part of the priory manor of Shouldham.

Ralph, Lord Bainard, had a grant of the lands here and in Tottenhill, which 22 freemen and the moiety of another were deprived of, who held under Ailid, in the time of the Confessor, 110 acres, and a carucate in demean, valued at 40*s.* in the whole it was 4 furlongs long and 3 broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt, and Ralph claimed it by an exchange.<sup>4</sup>

Of this Ailid see also in Shouldham. On the rebellion of William Lord Bainard, against King Henry I. this lordship came after from the Crown by grant, to the Earls of Clare, and being held of them by Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, was granted to his priory of Shouldham. On the dissolution of that monastery it came with the priory to Thomas Myldmay, afterwards sold to Judge Gawdy, so came to the Earl of Warwick, and to Sir John Hare, Sir George Hare, Bart. being the late lord.

The tenths were 2*l.* 16*s.* Deducted 6*s.* 8*d.* Temporalities of Shouldham priory, 8*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.* Of Wirmegay, 12*s.* Lete in Sir George Hare, Baronet, fee 2*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, has a nave, and a chancel covered with lead, the tower was at the west end, with three bells, and fell down in 1724; at the west end of the nave (which is about 49 feet long, and 21 broad,) lies a large marble gravestone, and had a brass plate on it:

By his will he gave 12*l.* to buy a halle sowte of vestments to serve to the honour of God, and over blessed Lady.—I will that the image of our Lady in the church be new and gylted, and peynted with my goods, and at my cost, and to the making a vestry house in the church, 6*s.* 8*d.*—to our Lady's gyld 6*s.* 8*d.* to St. John Baptist's gyld 6*s.* 8*d.* and to All-Saints gyld 6*s.* 8*d.*

Against the wall of the nave, at the south-east corner, is a mural monument of stone, with the effigies of three children kneeling; over them, Blessed are the dead which dye in the Lord; and on the summit three shields; the first is azure on a chevron, between three estoils, or, as many lozenges, gules, Batts; impaling argent, a fess dauncette, and in chief, three crescents, gules, Tyndal of Hockwold in Norfolk; quartering in the 2d quarter, or, a lion rampant, vel sal. gules, Felbrigg, of Felbrigg, Norfolk. In the 3d, sable, an eagle displayed with two necks, gules, arms of the Duke of Thoise, as I take it: Sir Simon Felbrigg, Knight of the Garter, in the reign of King Henry V. married

Margaret daughter of the Duke of Silesia and Theise, and niece to the King of Bohemia, by whom he had Alaun, his daughter and heir, married to William Tyndal, father of Thomas, whose son William was knighted, at the creation of Arthur Prince of Wales, and declared heir of the kingdom of Bohemia, in right of Margaret, aforesaid. In the 4th quarter, gules, 3, 2, and 1, escallops, argent, Scales. In the 5th, argent, three flowers-de-lis, gules, Mundeford. In another shield is the quartered coat of Steward, of which see in Marham, impaling, quarterly, in the first and fourth Butts, as before, in the 2d and 3d, party per bend, argent and sable, three flowers-de-lis in bend, counterchanged, Cocket.

The 3d shield is Butts impaling Cocket, and on the monument this inscription :

In this chancel lyeth buried, Jane, Ann, and John, three of the children of Thomas Steward, of Little Barton in Suffolk, Esq; and Frances his wife, eldest daughter of William Butts of this town of Shouldham-Thorp in Norfolk, Esq. deceased; the said Jane was buried the 27th day of February, An. Dom. 1590; and the said Ann, the 19th day of November. An. Dom. 1591, and the said John, the 11th day of February, An. Dom. 1602.

At the end of the nave lies a gravestone, thus inscribed,

John Dawnes, Gent. born at Oterborne, in Hampshire, died June the 16th, 1722, in the 55th year of his age.

The chancel is divided from the nave by a screen, and is in length about 18 feet, in breadth, about 17. On the pavement lies a little marble stone :

Here lyeth the body of John Godfrey, the son of John Godfrey, Esq. late of Hindringham, who died the 28th of October, 1657, aged 3 months.

Against the south wall is a little plain black marble stone, in the centre of this is a small piece of white marble, wherein is delineated the portraiture of a man on his knees, with a desk before him, and the shield of Butts, impaling Coket, and this epitaph :

Here under lyeth buried until his Redeemer cometh, who lived in his fear and dy'd in his faith, the body of Thomas Butts, 3d son of William Butts of this town, deceased 1600.

The seats of this chancel are of good oak, and carved.

This church was given, together with the manor, by Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Esser, to the abbey of Shouldham, and appropriated to it on its foundation; it was then a rectory, and had one carucate of land, valued at 10 marks—Peter-pence, 6*d.* Hermerus (as Domesday Book informs us) had half of the church, &c. by which I understand an alternate turn in it, but his descendants quitted, most likely, their claim; for we find it given wholly to Shouldham, by the said Jeffrey Fitz-Piers, and the church was served by a canon of that house, or a stipendiary curate: the prior &c. paid, about 1349, 13*s.* 4*d.* for the tenth of this church, granted then to the King, the priory being then, as it is said, much impoverished by mortality, pestilence, and the leaving off of tillage; and the prior paid the same for tenths in 1424

On the dissolution of Shouldham abbey, this appropriated rectory

cam, to the Crown, and was given by King Edward VI. in his 7th year to Thomas Mildmay, Esq. to be held by him in free soccage of the manor of Greenwich. After this it came to Francis Gawdy, &c. and went together with the lordship, as is above shewn; and Sir George of Stow Bardolph, Bart. was impropiator and lord.

In 1603, Richard Harrison was curate, and certified that here were 98 communicants, and was served by him with Shouldham, for 13*l.* per annum.

T O T E N H I L L

WAS partly, as I take it, an hamlet to Westbrigg, and the manor of the Lord Bainard, of Garboisthorp, extended into it, as may there be seen; this came afterwards to the Earls of Clare, and Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, gave it to his priory of Shouldham. On the Dissolution, it was granted to Myldmay, then conveyed to Judge Gawdy, so to the Earl of Warwick.

But the principal part of this hamlet belonging to Westbrigg, and there accounted for, was held by Hermerus de Ferrariis, on the expulsion of Turchetel, and being part of the barony of Wirmegay, was held after of the Lord Bardolf.

On the rebellion of the Lord Bardolf, it came to the Crown, and was granted by King Henry IV. to Thomas Beaufort his brother, who was after Duke of Exeter, so to William Lord Viscount Beaumont; and after his death, was in the Crown, as in Wirmegay; and King Edward VI. in his first year, granted it to John Duke of Northumberland, who had license, in the 6th of the said King, to convey it to Thomas Mildmay, Esq. and his son, Sir Thomas, sold it in the 23d of Elizabeth to Judge Gawdy, and so descended to the Earl of Warwick, and was after conveyed to Gregory Gawsell, Esq. of Wattington, from whom it came to his niece Susan, wife of Sir John Davis of Bear Court in Berkshire. Gregory Davis, Esq. her son, inherited it, and dying in 1706, left 2 sons, Gregory, who died a minor in 1710, and John Davis, Esq. the present lord.

The inhabitants of this hamlet belonging to the parish of Westbrige, come to that church. In the beginning of the reign of King Edward III. Gilbert de Hethill, rector of Westbriggs, is called also Parsona de Tottenhull, and in the eschaet roll, an. 9, appears to have given to the prior of Wirmegay, 40 acres of land, 5 of meadow, and 5*s.* rent per ann. in Fordham, Hithe, and Riston, and at the same time he held also two carucates of land here of the Lord Bardolf, by the fourth part of a fee.

Tot, or Tut, is the name of a rivulet, and gives name to many places; thus Tottenhill, and Tuthury in Staffordshire, Tutwell in Warwickshire, Tottington in Norfolk, Tottenham in Middlesex, &c.

SHINGHAM.

RALPH DE TONY had the grant of a lordship here on the expulsion of two freemen, who possessed 80 acres of land, and a carucate, and was part of Tony's capital manor of Necton, in South Greenhow hundred.<sup>5</sup>

The ancient family of De Caldicote, lords of Caldicote, who held lands there of the aforesid Ralph's fee in that town, had an interest herein in the reign of King Stephen; and in the 16th of Edward I. William, son of Eudo de Caldicote, grants to Thomas, son of Stephen de Ware, several rents, services and homages, held of him and his ancestors, in Shingham, Caldecote, &c. in the 3d of Edward III. Stephen, son of Thomas de Ware, held rents here, of 44s. per annum in Oxburgh and Caldecote, and in the 10th of Richard II. Richard Holdich held a lordship; and Thomas Fykes, in the 10th of Henry IV. held a court, as Sir William Calthorp did in the 4th of Henry V. but in the 15th of Henry VI. Hugh Methwold, and Aliee his wife, conveyed by fine their right to Sir Thomas Tudenham, Knight, who being beheaded in 1461, and having no issue, Margaret, his sister and heir, inherited it: the widow of Edmund Bedingfeld, Esq. and Sir Edmund, her grandson, were found to hold it an. 13 of Henry VII. in this family it remained till conveyed by Sir Henry Bedingfeld, Baronet, to Samuel Tayler, merchant, of Lynn Regis, in the reign of King George I. Andrew Tayler, Esq. his son, died s. p. 1760, and left it to William Fowlks, Esq. who married his sister and coheir.

Besides this small fee, or lordship, there was another lordship that extended into this town, that of Well-Hall in Beacham-Well.

In the 10th of Richard I. William de Schengham appears, by a fine, to hold considerable lands here and in Well, and Sara, daughter of William de Scheingham, claimed part of it in the 8th of Henry III. as her inheritance.

Henry, son of Walter de Shengham, held a messuage, 33 acres of land, 2 of meadow, 3s. and 4d. rent per ann. in the 3d of Edward I. of Gilbert de Well, and Maud his wife.

About this time, I find, by an old parchment roll, that this village lay partly in two hundreds, and that there were 60 dwelling-houses, (habitabiles mansiones;) wherein persons dwelt or inhabited in the hundred of Clacklose, and 20 in that of South Greenhow, whereas at this time, there is only a farm-house, and a little tenement; the farm-house, being in the south part of the old village, is in the hundred of South Greenhow, and the church and tenement in the north part, in the hundred of Clacklose.

The Earls of Clare, being the capital lords of this town, had always the patronage of the church, but on the death of Gilbert Earl of Clare, who was slain at the battle of Bannocks-Burn in Scotland, in 1313, his great inheritance came to his 3 sisters and coheirs; Margaret, married first to Piers de Gaveston, and after to Hugh Lord Audley; Eleanor, to Hugh, Lord De Spencer; and Elizabeth, to William Burgh Earl of Uster.

In the 20th of Edward III. John, son of Peter de Wells, and Edmund his brother, were found to hold the 4th part of a fee of the Earl of Gloucester, and the Earl of the King, which Peter de Well fermely held.

After this it came to the family of the Trussbuts, of whom see in Runnton Holme, and in Shouldham; Thomas Trussbut, Esq. son of Laurence, by his will, dated December 31, 1451, gives to William, a younger son, his lordship of Shingham, who dying s. p. it came to Jane his niece, daughter and heir of his eldest brother, John Trussbut, who brought it by marriage to Thomas Colt, Esq. of Grey's Hall in Cavendish, Suffolk, one of the privy council to King Edward IV. in which family it continued, until conveyed to the family of the Lovels of Beacham-Well, who sold it in the reign of King James I. to Thomas Athow, Esq. serjeant at law, of Beacham-Well, and was conveyed by William Athow, Gent. to Sir Simon Tayler of Lynn.

Samuel Tayler, Esq. merchant of Lynn, his son, was lord, who by Mary his wife, daughter of Sir Robert Stewart, was father of Andrew Tayler, Esq. he dying a bachelor, in 1760, left it to William Fowtks, Esq. who married his sister and coheir.

Near to the church arises a fine spring, and from hence flows a stream or rivulet that separates the hundred of Clacklose, from that of South Greenhow, and empties itself into the river Wissey: probably its ancient name was Schin or Shen;—Shengay is a town in Cambridgeshire, Shenfield in Essex, Shenly in Hertfordshire, &c.

The CHURCH is a very antique building of flint stone, &c. all of an equal height, without any additional chancel; part of the east end of this church, being taken in with a screen, serving that purpose, and without any tower, having an arch of stone on the summit of the west gable-end, where formerly hung a bell. It is dedicated to St. Butolph, and is a rectory valued in the King's books, at 4*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and discharged. There belonged to it 20 acres of glebe, and a house, but that is now destroyed.

Richard Fitz-Gilbert, surnamed Crispin, a kinsman to the Conqueror, ancestor of the noble family of the Earls of Clare, having a grant of this lordship on the death of Rainald, son of Ivo, left it to Gilbert his son, who with Adeleidis his wife, grant by deed, sans date, for the redemption of their souls, and of their ancestors, to the priory of Castleacre, this church, the land of Edric the priest, the title of the mill of Welle, &c.<sup>6</sup> this was probably some portion of title.

SOUTHREY:

THE Saxon King Edmund, the elder, father of King Edgar, in his 3d year, gave this town to Theodred, who was Bishop of London, and of Elmham in Norfolk, (or of the East Angles;) and was called at that time Sutrea, or the South Island, in respect of Hilingeia, or Hilgey.<sup>7</sup>

The said Bishop, not long before his death, gave it to the secular clergy of Bury abbey, before the new foundation of King Canute for Benedictine monks. Theodore flourished about 940.

At the survey, we learn, that it then was the lordship of that abbey, consisting of two carucates of land, 13 villains, 7 bordarers, and 5 servi, with 24 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, 11 among the tenants, &c. a fishery, &c. 31 cows, &c. 80 sheep, 11 breeding mares, valued at 52*s.* at the survey at 4*l.* was half a leuca long, and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 3*d.* gelt.<sup>8</sup>

The abbot was also at this time lord of part of Hilgey, and of Fincham, Rungton and Thorp in this hundred—of Islington, and Middleton in Frebridge hundred—of Buckenham in Shropham hundred—of Quidenham, Norton, Gatesthorp, Snareshill, Herling, in Gilcross hundred—of Wending in Laundich hundred—of Marlingford in Fourhow hundred—of Buckenham in Blofield hundred—of Castor, Broc, Shotesham, How, Poringland in Hensted hundred—of Thorp, Brockdish, Mendham, Herleston, Starston in Earsham hundred—of Titshall

The abbot had here, and in all his manors, royal privileges, by grant from the Crown, and in Edward the First's time, it was appropriated to the office of the cellarer in the said abbey, by John de Northwold, then abbot.

At the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and was given by King Henry VIII. on July 5, in his 36th year, with the advowson of the church, to James Hawes, and so came to the Willoughbys, as in Hilgey, and on a partition of the estate of Sir Henry Willoughby, a moiety of it came to George Purefoy, Esq. by the marriage of Catherine, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Henry, and another moiety to Sir Henry Grey, by another daughter and coheir; and I find Knightly Purefoy, Esq. and Sir Henry Grey, charged with the fee farm rent, 1l. 4s. 8d. per ann.—and George Purefoy, Esq. presented, 1670. In 1689, Willoughby Grey presented to the church as lord, and in 1705, Mrs. Elizabeth Grey;—after this it came to Sir Thomas Aston, Bart. of Cheshire, the present lord.

The tenths were 5l. Deducted 6s. 8d. the lete fee, 3s.

The Church is dedicated to St. Mary, and is a very antique plain building, consisting of a nave about 50 feet long, and 20 broad, with a chancel, both covered with thatch; at the west end of the nave is a little four square-tower of rag, and car stone with 2 bells, and a cap to it covered with tile. On the pavement by the pulpit, lies a grave stone with this shield in brass, barry of, ten, argent and gules, a chevron over all, or, Stokes;—and on a brass plate:

Here lyeth the wife of William Stokes, late of Wyverston in the county of Suffolk, gent. she departed the 11th day of February, An. Dni. 1639, aged 81 years.

The chancel is separated from the nave by an old wooden screen, and is in length about 19 feet, and in breadth about 15; on the pavement lies a gravestone with these arms, (Plate I. Fig. 19.) quarterly, gules, and vairy, argent and azure, over all a bend, or, Constable, and thus inscribed:

Here lyeth the body of Robert Constable, who was rector of Southrey nineteen years and three months; he was the son of Thomas Constable, and Elizabeth his wife, late of St. Paul's, Covent Garden, London; he departed this life, the first day of October, 1689, in the 54th year of his age.

Against the south wall of the chancel, is a small mural monument with this shield; (Plate I. Fig. 20.) Nr. 3, argent, two chevrons, azure, in a bordure engrailed, gules, Tyrrell; and this epitaph:

*Here rests that just and pious Jane,
That ever hated all that's vain;
Her zeal for God, made her desire
To have dy'd a martyr in the fire;*

*Or into thousand pieces small,
 Been cutt to honour God with all.
 Her life right vertuous, modest, sober;
 Ended the 7th day of October, 1638;
 Her purest soul 'till the body rise,
 Enjoys heaven's peace in paradise.
 Her virtues hid from common sight,
 Enforc'd her husband these to write.

STOKE - FERRY.

THIS town stands on the river Wissey, which divides it from the hundred of Grimshoe, on the London, and post-road, to Lynn, Downham, &c.: in the book of Domesday, it is wrote Stoches, not taking its name (as is thought by some) from stock, that is some wood; but from stow, a dwelling or habitation, and Ches, by the water; thus Chess, or Kess, signifies, as Cheswick, Chesham-Bois, Cheston, &c. all which answer to such a site.

Rainald, son of Ivo, at the survey, had the grant of a lordship which 4 freemen held under protection, and 12 acres, with their customary dues, and one freeman two acres. Roger and Hugh, two socmen, had 74 acres, and eleven acres of meadow, valued in the whole at 20*s.*<sup>4</sup> This was measured together with Werham, and joined in the payment of the gelt. Rainald's interest herein came after to the Earls of Clare.

But the principal part of this town was held at the survey by Ralph Lord Bainard, which 13 freemen had held in soccage, and 6 bordarers, a fishery and 2 carucates, valued at 60*s.* the fourth part of the adwoson of a church endowed with 5 acres valued at 5*d.* and the right of another church endowed with 27 acres, valued at 27*d.* which he claimed by an exchange. All Stoke was 6 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 6½*d.* gelt.

The Lord Bainard had also seized on 100 acres, which Ulchetel, a freeman, possessed in King Edward's time, 4 villains belonged to it, with 4 bordarers, and a carucate and 10 acres of meadow, valued at 40*s.* this he laid claim to by an exchange.<sup>5</sup>

William Lord Bainard forfeited his lordship by his rebellion in the reign of King Henry I. after this it was in the Earls of Clare, probably by the grant of that King, to Richard Fitz-Gilbert, ancestor of that family.

Out of these 2 fees arose two manors, both held of the honour of Clare.

CAVENHAM MANOR,

Of which see at large in Werham. Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, who held considerable possessions in this town, Werham, Wretton, &c. gave on his foundation of the priory of Shouldham, in King John's time, his interest therein to that convent, to be held (as he did) of the Earls of Clare.

In the 32d year of Henry III. the prior had a mercate and a fair in this town,<sup>6</sup> and in the 3d of Edward I. the jury for the hundred present the prior for breaking down the bridge and disturbing the passage, to the great injury and grievance of the neighbourhood, and travellers: it is likely that the bridge was erected here about this time, and the old ferry being set aside belonging to the prior, from whence a certain toll was paid, and so might be to his disadvantage.

The mercate before mentioned, seems to have been neglected, or disused, King Henry VI. in his fifth year, confirmed both that and the fair.<sup>7</sup> There is now no mercate held but the fair (chiefly for peddling wares and goods) is kept annually on December 6. and belongs to the lord of the manor; which at the Dissolution was granted as in Werham, to Sir Edmund Bedingfeld, and is now in Edward Nightingale, Esq. of Kneesworth, in Cambridgeshire.

Besides the lordship of Cavenham, Robert de Stokes held, in the beginning of Henry the Third's reign, the fifth part of a fee of Thomas de Plumberwe, and he of the Earl of Clare; and John, son of Lambert, the eighth part. Stephen de Stokes, and Basilia his wife, conveyed two pools to Ralph, abbot of Derham. In the 32d of that King, in a fine, Roger de Stokes was querent, and Nicholas de Stokes deforciant; by this, all the lands which Basilia, daughter of Roger de Hulmo, held at her death in Stokes, Wyrham, Wretton, Buketou, &c. were to remain to Roger, and all that she held in Lutcheham, Beeston, and Kemeston, to Nicholas.

Roger de Stokes was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and presented by the jury to have extended the bounds of his warren; and in the 9th of Edward II. the heirs of John de Stokes, and the prior of Shouldham, were returned to be lords. The Stokes were also lords of Wirun Hall in Wretton, as may be there seen.

Ribald, lord of Midtcham in Yorkshire, held under Alan Earl of Richmond, at the survey, the land of four freemen, 7 acres of land, valued at 12*d.*<sup>8</sup> who were expelled at the conquest; this belonged to Ribald's manor of Bicham Well.

The tenths of this town, and of Wretton, were 5*l.* 11*s.* deducted 11*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a single pile of flint, chalk stone, &c. about 51 feet long, and 24 broad, covered with tile, with a four-square tower, embattled, and 4 pinnacles of stone, and a shaft with a weather-cock; this tower falling unexpectedly in 1758, beat down great part of the church. In this tower were 2 bells. At the west end of the steeple was a decayed little building, probably the station formerly of some hermit.

There was formerly a chancel, but that has been dilapidated many years past. By the grant of Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, of this church to the priory of Shouldham, it became appropriated to that convent, and was after served by a stipendiary curate. In the 14th of Edward I. John Le Rous, or Réd, son of Fincent Le Rous of Wretton, impleaded the prior for the right of patronage, proving that Ulchetel, his ancestor, in the reign of King John, presented one Peter, his clerk, to this church, who died rector; but the prior showing that the said church had been appropriated above 20 years to his priory, his right was confirmed. About the same time it appears that there was a rectory-house, with 30 acres of glebe; the priory of Shouldham was taxed at 10 marks for this rectory, and the Peter-pence was 1*l.*

At the Dissolution it was granted to Sir Edmund Bedingfeld, and is now held by Edward Nightingale, Esq. who names the curate. In 1603, it was certified that there were 80 communicants.

John Fyshere, of this town, by his will, in 1399, gives a legacy to St. Mary's image in the bellry,<sup>9</sup> and William Curteys, chaplain, by his will in 1417, desires to be buried in the churchyard of Stoke, All-Saints; gives to the fabrick of the chapel 20*l.* and to that of the church 2*s.*; by this it seems that there were at that time both a church and a chapel, and in the account of the Lord Bainard's fee, before mentioned, there appears then to have been 2 churches.

STOW-BARDOLPH.

ON the deposition of Turchetel, who was a great and powerful lord, in the reign of the Confessor, King William I. granted it with many other towns of that lord, to Hermers de Ferrers. Before the conquest there were three carucates of land held by 7 villains, &c. 15 bordarers, 8 servi, 40 acres of meadow, and one of wood. Three carucates in demean, a fishery, 5 beasts or horses for work, 26 breeding mares, 7 cows, &c. 240 sheep, &c. two skeps of bees, &c. and there belonged to this lordship, and soc, 5 free men, with all customary dues; there were also 17 freemen belonging to the lord's fold and protection, who had 24 acres, but the abbot of Ramsey, and Hermers, at the survey, had the soc of them. All this was valued then at 8*l.* and there was a church endowed with 53 acres of land, valued at 3*s.*

Hermers had also invaded, or seized on, in Stow, 34 acres of land, held in King Edward's time, by a freeman, and one carucate; and on 40 acres held by 4 freemen: the said freeman held in all 2 carucates, and the preceding lord (before Hermers) had only the protection of

The villages of Wimbotsham and Stow, were one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 16*d.* gelt to the King, when the hundred paid 20s.<sup>1</sup>

After Hermerus, William de Wirmegay, Reginald de Warren, and the Lords Bardolf, were lords of this town, which was a part of the barony of Wirmegay, as may be there seen at large.

William Lord Bardolf had a charter of free warren, granted him in this town, an. 38 of Henry III. then called Le Estow, and an. 42; but Dugdale says, an. 28, the grant of an annual fair on the day, and morrow after the feast of the Holy Trinity. In the 3d of Edward I. the lord was found to have the assise of bread and beer, and the lete of his tenants. In this family, Barons of Wirmegay,<sup>2</sup> this lordship continued till the attainder of Thomas, Lord Bardolf, in the reign of Henry IV. who granted it an. 9, to Thomas Beaufort, his brother, afterwards Duke of Exeter, who possessed it in the 5th of Henry VI. and had a ferry here, the bridge not being then erected. Sir William Phehips was the next lord, and was succeeded by the Lords Viscounts Beaumont. William Lord Beaumont dying, sans issue, it eschaeted to the Crown, and Sir William Arundel Lord Matrevers, with the Lady Anne, his wife, obtained a grant of it on June 5. an. 8 of Henry VIII. but by a fine levied an. 3 and 4 of Philip and Mary, was conveyed to the Crown, by Henry Earl of Arundel, and on the 2d of January, in the said year, granted to Sir Nicholas Hare, Knt. and John Hare, Esq. excepting two marshes or fens in this town, called Bardolf's fen, and Piers Dole, or Le Fence, they being granted December 22. in the said year, to Edmund Beaupre, Esq. rented at 4*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* per ann. and were parcels of this manor.

This family of Hare derive their pedigree from Jervis Earl of Harcourt, in France, who came into England with the Conqueror, and bore gules, two bars, or.—Sir John Hare, his son, married Anne, daughter of Eustace Crew Baron of De Monte Alto, (Monthaut.) he is said to have had a grant to bear, as an augmentation to his arms, the chief indented, or, and his Lady's arms were, azure, a lion rampant, argent. The other branch of Jervis Earl of Harcourt's family, from which the Harcourts, formerly Barons of Wingham, and the Lord Viscount Harcourt of Stanton Harcourt, in Oxfordshire, are descended, bear it, as Earl Jervis.

Sir John Hare, son of Sir John, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John de Ashton, who bore argent, a mullet, sable, and was father of

William Hare, Esq. who, by Ann, daughter of Sir Thomas Myddelton of Lancashire, who bore argent, a cross engrailed, sable, was father of John Hare, Esq. who by Agnes, his wife, daughter of Sir John Shirley of Wiston, in Sussex, (who bore paly of six, or and azure, a canton, ermine;) had Sir Thomas Hare. Nicholas was his son, by Julian, daughter of Hussey, who bore barry of six, ermine and gules.

Nicholas married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Thomas de Walsingham, whose arms were paly of six, argent and sable, a fess over all gules; Richard was his son and heir, by Elizabeth, daughter of John Seckford of Suffolk, who bore ermine, on a fess, gules, three escallops, or, and was father of John Hare, Esq. who by Jane, daughter of - - - - Nevill, whose arms were gules, on a saltire, argent, a mullet, sable, had Thomas Hare, Esq.; he married Joyce, daughter of John Hyde of Northburgh, who bore azure, a chevron between three lozenges, or; his son John, by Catherine, daughter of Richard de Anderson, had Nicholas Hare, Esq. of Homersfield in Suffolk, and by Margaret his wife, had John Hare, Esq. and Thomas Hare, L. L. D. chancellor of Norwich, rector of Massingham Magna, &c.

John married Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Fortescue, Esq. and had Nicholas Hare,<sup>3</sup> and John Hare, a mercer of London; Sir Nicholas was Speaker of the House of Commons, an. 31 Henry VIII. master of the rolls, and on the accession of Queen Mary to the Crown, lord keeper of the great seal; by Catherine, his wife, daughter and coheir of John Bassingborn, Esq. of Woodhall in Hertfordshire, was father of Michael Hare, Esq. his son and heir, who took to wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Hobart, Esq. of Hales Hall in Norfolk, and afterwards Mary, daughter of Sir John Brudenel of dean in Northamptonshire, and died sans issue, on the 30th of October, an. 4 and 5 of Philip and Mary.

Robert Hare, Esq. 2d son, was clerk of the Pells, some time a member of Cajus college, in Cambridge. About 1587, at the request and exhortation of Dr. Capcot, master of Corpus Christi college, and vice-chancellor, he collected in three large volumes, the chancellors and privileges of the University of Cambridge, and a fourth volume, containing the privileges of the town of Cambridge, compiled by him with great labour and expense, and presented by him to the University, to be carefully preserved in their publick chest, with a copy thereof for the use of the Vice-chancellor, and another for the Register, and afterwards conferred the like favour upon Oxford, to which University he bore no relation, and died sans issue, November 2, 1611.

The eldest branch, of this family being thus extinct, we return to John Hare, citizen and mercer of London, brother to Sir Nicholas, who by Dorothy his wife, had 8 sons; Nicholas, Ralph, Richard, Rowland, Edmund, Hugh, Thomas, and John.

<sup>3</sup> Sir Nicholas was twice chosen Speaker, also master of the Request, chief justice of Chester, one of the privy council to Queen Mary; in 1553, he purchased the liberty or franchise of the hundred of Clacklose.

Anderson bore argent, a chevron between 3 crosses, flurt, sable.—Fortescue, azure, a bend indented, between two bendlets, or.—Basingborn, gyrony of 12 or, and azure. Sir Nicholas was buried in Westminster abbey.

also a spacious dormitory adjoining to the chancel of Stow church, for depositing the remains of himself and family, and died in 1591, s. p. leaving his estate to his brother Ralph, who also died s. p. in 1601, and was succeeded by Richard, who married Elizabeth, daughter of John Barnes; she remarried to George Rotheram, Esq. and, after to Sir George Perient, and died December 2, 1655, aged 90, having two sons, by Richard her first husband, Ralph and Richard.

Rowland, 4th son of John Hare, and Edmund the 5th son, died s. p. — Hugh, the 6th son, was a bencher of the Inner Temple, and master of the court of wards, and dying s. p. left, by his will, dated December 25, 1619, above 99,400*l.* to be equally divided between his two nephews, John Hare, grandson of his brother Richard, and Hugh Hare, son of his brother John, &c. which John married first, Lucy, daughter of — Barlow, Esq. and to his 2nd wife Margaret, daughter of John Crouch, Esq. and by her left two sons Nicholas and Hugh; Nicholas, died s. p. and Hugh was created, August 3, 1625, Lord Colerain in Ireland, from whom, by Lucy his wife, daughter of the Lord Montague, descended the Lords Colerain, and the Hares of Docking in Norfolk.

Ralph Hare, Esq. eldest son of Richard, son of John Hare, Esq. abovementioned, was created Knight of the Bath, at the coronation of King James I. and married to his first wife, Mary, daughter of Sir Edward Holmden, alderman of London, by whom he had a son, John; his second wife was Anne, daughter of John Crouch of Cornbury in Hertfordshire, Esq. by whom he had no issue; she survived him and remarried Edmund Lord Montague of Boughton. Sir Ralph was remarkable for his extensive charity to the poor; in 1603, he erected six alms-houses at Stow, for 6 poor persons born in the parish, or had resided there for 10 years, and endowed them with lands for ever. In his lifetime he gave by deed to St. John's college in Cambridge, dated April 30, 1623, the rectory and glebe lands of the impropriate rectory of Marham in Norfolk, with the advowson of the vicarage, to be employed in erecting a library, and after in exhibitions for 30 poor scholars in that college, for ever; and dying in August 1623, was succeeded by his only son, John Hare, who was knighted in his father's lifetime, December 4, 1617, at Newmarket; he married Elizabeth, only daughter of Thomas Lord Coventry, lord keeper of the great seal, by whom he had 5 sons and 7 daughters, Ralph, the eldest, John of Bromsthorp in Norfolk, Nicholas of Harpham, &c.

Ralph, the eldest son, was created baronet July 23, 1641: by Elizabeth his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Crane, Bart. of Chilton in Suffolk; was father of Sir Thomas Hare, his successor; his 2d wife was Lere, sister to Horatio Lord Viscount Townsend, and his 3d was Elizabeth, daughter of — Chapman, Esq.; he was knight of the shire, in parliament, Burgess for Lynn, and died in 1671.

Sir Thomas Hare, Bart. his son and heir, married Elizabeth sister of Sir Robert Dashwood, Bart. of Northbrook in Oxfordshire, by whom he had 4 sons, Sir Ralph, Sir Thomas, and Sir George, and Richard, who died young; also 6 daughters; Elizabeth, married to Sir Thomas Robinson, Baronet, and Mary to Thomas Leich of London, Turkey merchant; the others died single; Sir Thomas was knight of the shire in parliament, and died in 1693.

Sir Ralph, the eldest son, by Susan his wife, daughter and coheir of Walter Norborne,<sup>4</sup> of Calne in Wiltshire, had no issue, and dying in 1732, was succeeded by his brother, Sir Thomas,<sup>5</sup> who married Rosamond, daughter of Charles Newby, of Hooton-Roberts, in Yorkshire, Esq. by whom he had 2 daughters and coheirs, Elizabeth, married to the Reverend Mr. Moor, and Mary, to Thomas Harris, Esq. of Finchly in Middlesex; he died in 1759, and Sir George Hare, Bart. his brother and successour, died unmarried.

Here is a stately manor-house with agreeable gardens, and a park adjoining.

There is a bridge about 2 miles from the town, over the river Ouse, near to this is a fair kept every year, on Saturday before Trinity Sunday, and is considerable for the sale of horses, cows, &c. and in the fens is a good decoy belonging to the lord. I find that the new podike in the fens was made an. 1 Henry VI. in the lands of the Duke of Exeter, then lord of Stow.

The tenths of this town and of Wimbotsham, were 7*l.* 1*2s.* Deducted 1*l.* 1*s.*

The CHURCH of Stow Bardolph is dedicated to the Holy Trinity, and consists of a nave and a chancel, and a broad, but low, four-square tower built of carr and rag stone, with buttresses of brick, in which hang five large tuneable bells.<sup>6</sup> The nave is in length about 47 feet and in breadth about 24; the roof is arched or cambered, plaistered, and covered with reed; at the west end is a neat stone font, with a cover of oak carved and painted, on which is this shield, (Plate I. Fig. 21.) In several places, gules, two bars and a chief indented, or, Hare; and this date, 1625; on the summit is a pelican vulued.

On the pavement here, lies an old stone, with a shield worn out, and an inscription scarce legible,

Here under lieth Thomas Cobb - - - - second son of Mr. Martin Cobb of Snettesham - - - - who died the 30 Novr. 1582.

On a grave-stone adjoining, this shield, (Plate I. Fig. 22.) - - - a chevron between three bunches of grapes:

*Here lys buried underneath this stone,
A willing friend to all, a foe to none,
A steward, true and faithfull, husband kind,
A father tender, one of right Christian mind,
His days consum'd with labour, care and pain,
His body rests in hopes to rise again.*

Samuel Renault, steward to the Honourable Sir Ralph Hare, the father, and to Sir Thomas Hare the son, Baronets, lys here interr'd, who departed this life the 19 day of August, 1678.

On another stone adjoining,

Here lyeth the body of Mr. John West, who was 20 years steward to the Honourable Sir Ralph Hare, Baronet, who departed this life the 26 day of March, 1727, aged 62 years.

<sup>4</sup> Narborne bore argent, a fess nebuly, gules, on a canton of the second, a ducal coronet, or.—Newby, - - a chevron between three crosses pattee.

*For many years he bore the trust consign'd,
Nor lost the credit of an honest mind,
This is true wisdom, this the way to live,
For nobler treasures, than the world can give;
When burnish'd gold is turn'd to common dust,
And all the shining mammon's lost in rust,
Happy the man, that's well prepared to go
Where inexhausted mines of truer riches flow.*

At the west end of the church is a large gallery, supported by 6 wooden pillars of the Ionick order. The nave is separated from the chancel by an handsome wooden screen; on the cornice are the arms of Hare, and on the summit in the centre of the screen, the King's arms, well carved and painted, fronting the nave; towards the chancel, a rose and crown, with the capital letters C. R. The chancel is in length about 30 feet, and in breadth about 16; it is cambered, plastered, and covered with tile. The altar is railed in, and has an ascent of three steps of free-stone, with which the whole altarspace is paved, except the passage as you enter leading to it, which is of oak finiered: the altar is of Derbyshire gray marble, with a slab of the same, and was part of the old altar monument of Sir Ralph Hare, Knight of the Bath, which was taken down on the erecting that of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart. On the body of it are two ovals; in one, a dove is painted; in the other I. H. S. Over the altar in two pannels, are the 10 Commandments, over that the tremendous name of God in Hebrew, with a glory, and cherubims about it; and on each side of this a pannel; in one is the Lord's Prayer, in the other is the Creed with cherubims over them, and the walls on the north and south sides within the rails, are neatly wainscotted and painted. The whole altarpiece is ornamented with four columns of the Dorick order, fluted, painted blue, and veined with gold, supporting an entablature of the same.

In the east window of the chancel there was lately this shield; (Plate I. Fig. 23.) argent, three mullets in bend, sable, between two bendlets, gules, impaling argent, a cross ingrailed between four crescents, sable, and a lis, or, for difference; Pigot impaling Bernham. Margaret Pigot was prioress of Carhow, and that convent held the rectory.

This window being new glazed when the altarpiece was erected, these arms are now lost. Against the north wall of this chancel, were lately several banners, before the beautifying of it, with the arms of Hare, (Plate I. Fig. 24.) and (girony of twelve, or, and azure) Besingbourne, quarterly.

On a stone fixed in the north wall,

Margaret, the wife of Walter Drury, vicar of this parish, died December 19, 1681, aged 22 years.

On the north side of this chancel is a chapel, or burial-place for the family of Hare, built of brick, embattled with copings of free-stone, in length about 36 feet, and 16 in breadth, covered with lead; at the west end are the arms of Hare with the crest, a demy lion, and these letters, I. H. M. L. Anno Domini 1624. On a little white marble stone on the pavement at the west end, is Hare impaling, party per chevron, argent and gules, a crescent counterchanged, (Plate I. Fig. 25.) Chapman. John Posthumus Hare, son to the Honourable Sir Ralph Hare, and Elizabeth his wife, 1672.—On a grave-stone, with the arms of Hare, this round the verge,

Here lyeth the body of the Honourable Sir Ralph Hare, Baronet, he departed this life the last of February, 1671.

*Although his body is turn'd to dust,
His soul lives ever with the just.*

At the foot of this, another, with the arms of Hare and Chapman impaled, and round the verge,

Elizabeth the last wife of Sir Ralph Hare, Baronet, liv'd his widow above 13 years, dy'd March 17, 1683, and lyeth here at his feet, in hopes with him of a joyful resurrection, The trump shall sound, and the dead shall be raised.

Against the south wall is a neat altar monument of veined marble, with a gray marble slab, on which stand two veined pillars of the Corinthian order, with their capitals gilt with gold, supporting an entablature of the same and gilt, on which is the shield of Hare, between two pyramids of marble, and on the wall a piece of marble ornamented with foliages, festoons, death's heads, and hour-glasses, gilt with gold, this epitaph in letters of gold:

In Obitum præstantissimi viri Radulphi Hare Armigeri.

*Octo fere novies (si demas quatuor) annos
Eregi vitæ, hinc morti succumbo mihiq;
Natalis Juli, fatalis June fuisti
Cura fuit patriæ prodesse, fovere quietem,
Tutari insontes, pacis defendere causam,
Legibus addici, moderatis moribus uti,
Corpore parvus eram, sed me vicinia dixit,
Corpore pygmaicum, benefactis esse gigantem.
Nepos Radulpho, hæres Radulphus, mortuo posuit, amato
Patruo et tanquam patri.*

On the north side, on a white marble stone, and veined, lies the statue of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart. in full proportion, cumbent on his right side, in the habit of a Roman, his arm resting on a cushion of alabaster, and is a curious and just piece of statuary; on it are the arms of Hare, with the distinction as a baronet, and a cherub on each side:

In memory of Sir Thomas Hare, Baronet, who departed this life the 1st day of January, 1693, aged 35 years, and left a lady and four sons and five daughters.

*The glorious sun which sets at night,
Appears next morning clear and bright,
The gawdy deckings of the earth,
Do ev'ry spring receive new birth,
But life when fled, has no return,
In vain we sigh, in vain we mourn,*

*Yet does the turtle justly grieve her fate,
When she is left behind without her mate,
Not less does she, who rais'd this tomb,
And wishes here to have a room,
With that dear He, who underneath doth lye,
Who was the treasure of her heart, the pleasure of her eye.*

Near to this is a mural monument of white marble, on the summit the arms of Hare; on the base a cherub gilt with gold, and on a black marble in the centre in letters of gold,

*Memoriæ Sacrum Hugonis Hare, Armigi. interioris templi socii, qui Johannem Hare, milit. filium Radulphi Hare, Mil. Balnei, filiu.

*Death, time and foul oblivion doth deface,
The goodliest things, that now the world doth grace,
Death ends our glory, time makes death forgot,
Oblivion all devours, as they were not.*

Adjoining is a white marble monument with two pillars of the same, veined, of the Corinthian order, their capitals gilt, and supporting an entablature of the same, whereon is the shield of Hare, and on each side a pyramid of marble, and on a wall-piece of black marble, in letters of gold,

The CHURCH was a rectory endowed with 53 acres of land at the survey, and was given by Reginald de Warren, 2d son of William, the 2d Earl Warren, and Alice his wife, to the priory of Carhow: she was daughter and heir of William de Wirmegay, lord of Wirmegay: William Turbe Bishop of Norwich appropriated it. William de Warren, son of Reginald, confirmed it, and gave, with Muriel, his sister, on being veiled a nun here, 40 acres of land and a messuage, which he held in capite.

In 1622, Sir Ralph Hare, Knight of the Bath, gave lands in Wygenhale, called John's Load, and Walsingham's Dole, to Thomas Fanshaw, Esq. &c. feoffees, &c. the profits to be for ever bestowed so as six poor inhabitants dwelling in Stow, in the alms-houses built by him, may have one shilling weekly given to each of them, every Sunday, in the parish church of Stow immediately after morning service; the overplus of the said profits (if there be any) to be bestowed in garments for the poor yearly, at the feast of the nativity of our Blessed Lord.

In this town, somewhat south of the church, and near to the high road, stands an ancient pile of flint and brick, &c. pointing east and west, and has been a chapel or hermitage; it is called at this day the Pool-house, and is now converted to a little farm-house belonging to Sir Thomas Hare: here seems to have been a gild belonging to it in 1467, called the gild of St. Botulph of Stow chapel,<sup>9</sup> and perhaps the chapel was dedicated to St. Botulph.

THIS town stands in a great valley, which Strath is said to signify; and several places in Scotland take their names from it, as Strathern, Strathavern, &c. and in England, Stradshall, Stradbrook in Suffolk, &c. At the survey, Fulber held 2 carucates of land of Hermerus de Ferraris, who had a grant of this town on the expulsion of Suartine a freeman, lord in the time of the Confessor, when there were also 6 villains and 2 bordarers, 1 servus, 8 acres of meadow, the moiety of a fishery, and 2 carucates in demean, 2 oxen, 1 runcus, 2 cows, &c. a church endowed with 30 acres, 140 sheep, &c.—In the said town were 13 freemen, who were deposed, and had 210 acres, and a church with 30 acres, 2 carucates and 7 acres of meadow, which were delivered to Hermer for one carucate, to make up one manor. The whole was valued at 4*l.* 15*s.* the protection of 2 of these freemen was, before this, in the Lord Bainard, his predecessor. The whole was 7 furlongs long, and 4 broad, paid 8*d.* to a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>1</sup>

Fulbert, who held this lordship of Hermerus at the survey, was probably ancestor of the ancient family of De Stradeseth, Richard de Stradeseth, by Latitia, daughter of Robert de Capravilla, was father of Robert.—Jeremy, son of Robert, was witness to a deed of William de Wirmegey, lord of Wirmegey, in the reign of King Stephen,<sup>2</sup> and Robert to a deed, in the time of Henry II.—Sir Osbert de Stradeseth (son of Sir Roger) and Maud his wife gave to Castleacre priory 26 acres of land in the moor of West Walton, late the land of Roger le Hare, for their souls health, except the payment of half a mark per ann. to the Bishop of Ely, and the work due to the castle of Wisbech, sans date;—witnesses Walter de Neishall, steward to the Earl Warren, Adam de Hackbeach, John de Fincham, &c.

Roger de Stradeset held one knight's fee, when an aid was granted on the marriage of King Henry the Third's daughter to the Emperor. Nicholas was lord in the 34th of that King, and was after a knight. In the reign of Edward II. Nicholas, son of Nicholas and Maud his wife, settled this lordship in tail, and by an inquisition taken A. 20 of Edward III. Nicholas de Stradeseth was a minor and in the ward of John Lord Bardolf, being part of his barony; he dying s. p. Elizabeth, his sister and heir, married John Hawkyns, Esq. serjeant at arms to King Edward III. who was lord in the 47th of that King. On his decease it came to their two daughters and coheirs, Alice, married to Sir Ralph Pooley, and Margery to — Nesfield, Esq. In the 9th of Henry VI. George Nesfield, Esq. son of Margery, was found to have held a moiety of this manor, and Rose Pygot, daughter of Alice, was his cousin and heir, then aged 40.<sup>3</sup> This Rose was the daughter and heir of Alice, by Sir Ralph Pooley: the said Alice married, to her second husband, Thomas Lathe, Esq.<sup>4</sup> who died in 1418, and was buried in Stradeset church, by whom she had children, and John Cavendish, Esq. was her 3d husband, by whom she had 3 daughters, and died his widow in the 6th of Henry VI. The abovementioned Rose married first Bartholomew Picot, Esq. lord of Framlingham Picot, and dying in the 11th of Henry VI. left Thomas, her son and heir, aged 26 years; this Thomas removed from Framlingham Picot, and settled here in 1437. He was succeeded by his son Thomas, who died on April 10, in the 3d of Henry VIII. and left John his son and heir, aged 30, who married Jane, daughter of Peter Bedingfeld, Esq. of Quidenham. This John made his will October 13, 1550, which was proved the 26th of May following, appointing his wife Jane, and Jasper Blake, Esq. his executors, and his body to be buried in Stradget church by his mother. His son and heir, John, had livery of this lordship, &c. in the 9th of Queen Elizabeth, and paid for this lordship to the Queen, 10s. 4d. per ann. and for lands late Robert Rowse's, and Edward Steward's, 2s. per ann. He was succeeded by John his son, by Alice, daughter of William Butts, Esq. of Shouldham Thorp, and his son Francis conveyed it to John Goldsmith, Esq. (son of John Goldsmith of Wilby in Suffolk.) who married Elizabeth, 2d daughter and coheir of Gregory Wood of Risby in Suffolk, Esq. after whose death she married Sir Henry Chauncy, Knt. serjeant at law, of Hertfordshire; by Goldsmith, she had a son John, and a daughter Elizabeth, married to Thomas Thurston, younger son of Nathaniel Thurston, of Hoxne in Suffolk.—John being a lunatick, the estate was in his

On the screen of the hall, or manor-house, are the arms of Pigot, a fess checq. — between three pickaxes, and on the ridge tiles, were pigs and goats, as a rebus to the name.

PARADISE MANOR.

This seems to be made up of certain lands, &c. taken out of the lordship of Stradset, by Alice, daughter and coheir of John Hawkins, Esq. abovementioned, and given to her daughters, Elizabeth and Emma, by Thomas Lathe, Esq. Elizabeth was married to John Curteys, and Emma to John Squirry, and in the 17th of Henry VI. a fine was levied between Curtis and his wife, querents, and Squirry and his wife, deforcients, of 12 messuages and several parcels of land here, and in Fincham.<sup>5</sup> After this, Elizabeth married, to her second husband, Thomas Styward, and by her will, proved August 20, in the 19th of Edward IV. she gives several lands, rents, and services here and in Fincham, and Crimplesham, to her husband Thomas Styward and his heirs, on condition that he and they keep yearly her anniversary, and that of her parents in the church of Stradset, where she desires to be buried. From this Thomas descended Francis Steward, Gent. whose daughter and heir dying under age, possessed of the manor of Paradise, in Stradset, Fincham, and Crimplesham; and in the 5th of Edward VI. Lawrence Steward, brother to her father, was found to be her heir, aged 40, and had livery of it.

Mr. Benn lately (as it is said) possessed it, and his daughter, married to — Randall, inherited it, but most of the lands, &c. are sold from it.

DERHAM-ABBAY MANOR.

Sir Osbert de Stradeset gave, in the 34th year of Henry the Third's reign, the patronage of the church of Stradset, with a manor thereto appertaining, to the abbey, and in the 5d of Edward I. the abbot was found to hold 42 acres of land the gift of the said Osbert, and 30 acres of the gift of Ralph de Barshole, or Barsham. It continued here till the Dissolution, when, with the advowson of the vicarage, it was granted, November 17, in the 38th of Henry VIII. to James Hawe and Henry Hawe, to be held in capite, though some lands in the tenure of John Derham, belonging formerly to the said abbey, were granted on July 23, in the 2d of Queen Mary, to Thomas Reeve and Giles Isham. Afterwards it came to the Stewards, and Francis Steward presented to the vicarage in 1556; in 1579, Thomas Parlet. In this family it continued, till a daughter and heir of Parlet brought it by marriage to Mr. Read, and his daughter to Edmund Saffery of Downham, Gent. the present possessor.

The tenths were 5*l.* deducted 1*l.*

The tithes were in the abbey of Ramsey, and in Sir George Hare, Bart. the fee 16*d.*

The temporalities of Derham abbey, with those of the priory of Winwaloy, were taxed at 9*s.* 8*d.* in 1428, and the spiritualities at 9 marks.

The temporalities of Shouldham priory at 8*s.* 4*d.*

In the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, Sir John Perrot had lands here and in Barton, given him July 27, lately belonging to the nunnery of Blackburgh.

At a little hill, on the common of this town, by the road from Norwich, Watton, Swaffham, &c. to Downham, called Clacklose hill, was the sheriff's turn, or hundred court, kept, as may be seen in the account of the said hundred.

The CHURCH of Stradset is dedicated to St. Mary, and is an ancient single fabrick of flint and boulder, or carr stone, having a body in length about 60 feet, and in breadth about 19, covered with reed; at the west end is a four-square tower, with quoins and embattlements of free-stone, wherein hang 3 bells: about the middle of the pavement of the church lies a very large gray marble grave-stone, whereon has been a cross florall, and at the foot of it a lion couchant of brass, near the rim, between two fillets of the same metal, was the inscription, all which is now reaved; by the incision in the stone, made to receive the brass letters, it appears to be in old French, and Saxon characters; viz.

ICI. GIST. DAME. EMMA. DE. MOVNAV. FEMME. DE. DEVX. BARONS. DIEV. PAR. SA. PITIE. AVEZ. MERCI. DE. SA. AME.

This Emma married, first, Richard Fitz-John, a baron, patron of Shouldham priory, who died an. 25 Edward 1. and after to Roger de Monte-Alto, a baron, lord of Castle Rysing in Norfolk. In the 26th of that King, she held in dower, the manor, chase, and park of Whaddon, the manors of Ailsbury, Burton, and Quarndon in Bucks, the manor of Schalford, and the park of Alford in Surry, &c.

In the south window at the end of the nave, has been the effigies of St. John the Baptist, the lower part of it still remaining; at the bottom of the window, S'ci Joh'is bapt'e q'i ista fenestra fieri fecerunt. At this window has been an altar; the place for the holy water is still to be seen, and a niche in the wall for a statue: here the priests belonging to the guild of St. John Baptist, in this church, officiated; the window opposite, on the north side, seems to have a large cinque-foil, or, in a shield, and the windows of the chancel are beautified with the same bearing; most likely in honour of the Lords Bardolf, the capital lords, who bore the same. Nothing was more practised in times of popery, than the beautifying and illuminating windows, especially those where any altar was annexed; thus we find that Mary de Valentia Countess of Pembroke glazed the seventh window in the church of the Gray-Friars at London, she caused it to be made and painted at her own expense, to the ancient altar under it.

The chancel is divided from the nave by a screen of wood, being of oak, neatly carved, with flower pots and pillars of the Ionick order; the breadth of the chancel is equal to that of the nave, and the length is about 26 feet; the communion table is railed in, and has an ascent of three steps. In the east window are the arms of the see of Ely, the arms of the East Angles, or Bury abbey, and the arms of Derham abbey. In the north window is a serpent twisting itself about the feet of a dove, and over it—Ut serpens, ut columba. On the pavement on the north side of the communion table lies a black marble,

M. S. Johan Scott, A. M. pastoris fidissimi, prudentissimi; et per annos 43 hujus ecclesie vicarii, qui tandem evadit corpore, senex et ceteris hic requiescit in Domino. obt. Octob. 24 an Sal. 1727, etat sue 67.

Against the south wall is an achievement, (Plate I. Fig. 26.) gules, a lion rampant, argent, Wood, impaling on the dexter side, gules, a cross patonce, argent, on a chief azure, a lion passant, or, Chauncy; and on the sinister side, sable, a fess between three crescents, argent, Goldsmith; it being the shield of a woman impaled between her two husbands. Henry Chauncy of Yardleybury in Hertfordshire, afterwards Sir Henry, married to his second wife, Elizabeth, relict of John Goldsmith of Stradset in Norfolk, Esq. one of the coheirs of Gregory Wood of Risby in Suffolk, Gent. by whom he had no issue; she was cut off by the spotted fever at London, 14 August, 1677, and here buried. On the pavement adjoining lies a black marble; on the summit are the arms of Goldsmith, and

John Gouldsmith, Esq. (son of John Gouldsmith late of Wilby in the county of Suffolk) was buried the 23d of January, 1669, aged 58 years; also here resteth the body of Elizabeth, the relict of the aforesaid John, who departed this life August 14, 1677.

Against the north wall is also an achievement (Plate I. Fig. 27.), sable, three bugle horns, or, stringed and garnished azure, Thurston, impaling Gouldsmith; and on a black marble on the pavement—

Here lyeth Thomas Thurston, the fourth son of Nathaniel Thurston of Hoxon in the county of Suffolk, Esq. who married Elizabeth, the 2d daughter of John Gouldsmith of Stradset in the county of Norfolk, Esq. by whom he had 8 children, Elizabeth, Mary, and John: he died October 30, 1683. Here lyeth John, the son of Thomas, who dy'd May 14, 1684, and Elizabeth the wife of Thomas, who dy'd the 30th of December, 1728, aged 74 years, she liv'd his widow 45 years.

On the said pavement lies a little gray marble, having the portraiture of a man in complete armour, his hands conjoined, and a lion couchant at his feet in brass, and on a plate

UPWELL AND OUTWELL.

THE greatest part of these towns with their lands, lie in Cambridgeshire, or the isle of Ely, but as the churches of both stand in Norfolk, I shall offer some particulars relating thereto. In the book of Domesday, Outwell in Norfolk belonged to the abbey of Ramsey, is said to have 16 borderers there, with lands valued at 5*s.* per ann.<sup>9</sup> the capital manor of these towns belonged to that abbey and lay in Upwell, and extended into Outwell, called Hella, as having their site on a river: Ailwin, a Saxon, Duke of the East Angles, on his foundation of the said abbey in 969, granted it to that house; there belonged also to it 20 fishermen with their manses and tofts, who were to find it with 60,000 eels yearly, &c. all which was confirmed by the Conqueror.

In the 4th of King John, Upwell was a town of such account, that it appears from the Pipe Rolls, that the abbot had, as lord it, a mercate.

In the 20th of Edward I. it was agreed between William de Luda Bishop of Ely, and John de Sautre, abbot of Ramsey, at Wiselyngham on Saturday before the feast of St. Mark, that the lete of Welle should for the future be kept by the bailiff of the abbot, in the presence of the Bishop's bailiff, if he so thought fit, as it used to be peacefully kept till the 14th of Henry III. and that the Bishop should have his court of his tenants without the hundred of Clacklose, of all pleas belonging to a court baron.

King Henry VI. grants to the Bishop of Ely, and John, abbot of Ramsey, one common and open mercate weekly, and a fair yearly, on St. Peter and Paul's day, at Upwell, with all the profits; dated the 5th of April, an. 1, at Lincoln; and in 1428, the temporalities of this abbey, in Upwell and Outwell, were valued at 19*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and their spiritualities here and Modene priory in Helgey, at 2*l.*; on its dissolution it was granted, on 20 of July, in the 38th of Henry VIII. to Edmund Beaupre, Esq. on the payment of a fee farm rent of 1*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.* per ann. which payment was made in the first of Queen Mary, on the 16th of June; and by Dorothy, daughter and coheir of the said Edmund, came by marriage to Sir Robert Bell.

BISHOP OF ELY'S MANOR.

That there was a lordship in Well, belonging to the church of Ely before the conquest, appears from ancient records, and seems to be part of the endowment of Ethelwold Bishop of Winchester, on the founding the Benedictine monastery therein, who purchased, about the 10th year of King Edgar, the whole isle of Ely free from all royal subjection, and gave it to that church;<sup>1</sup> but on the erection of the see of Ely, it became part of the Bishop's endowment. In the reign of Edward I. it appears from a register of the see of Ely, that the Bishop's manor here was in Cambridgeshire, or isle of Ely, in the hundred of Wichford, but extended into Norfolk; several tenants being in that county, and the hundred of Clacklose: the Bishop had foldage of his free tenants, weyf and stray, several fisheries and all royal fisheries in the Bishop's liberty belonged to him, giving 4*d.* to the finder; and the patronage of the church of St. Clement in Outwell, was in that see: the demesne was only 8 acres, called Hall-Croft. The lord may have a wind or a water-mill, but his tenants are not obliged to grind there: Sir Ste. de Marisco, Knt. held 4 messuages; the prior of Mirmound, 100 acres, which belonged to Henry de Atta Villa, 2*s.* per ann. the prior of Molycourt, a croft which belonged to John Supercure, at 6*d.* per ann. the canons of Thrilling, 24 acres at 6*d.* per ann. John de Walpole 1 acre by knight's service, which was Alan de Eumeth's.

In an account of Edward Pierpoint, receiver general of the revenues of this see, about 3 and 4 of Philip and Mary, the Bishop's revenues in Well amounted to 2*l.* 5*s.* 2*d.*; after this in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, it was vested in the Crown.

There being anciently several disputes and contests between the Bishops of Ely, and the abbots of Ramsey,<sup>2</sup> there were boundaries settled to their mutual satisfaction, which are still upon record.

BEAUPRE-HALL MANOR.

The site of this manor is in Outwell and in the county of Norfolk, and takes its name Beau-pré, or de Bello Prato, from the fine meadows that surround it. The first lord of this manor that I meet with on record is Sir Thomas de St. Omer, Knt. in an old deed about the end of the reign of Henry III. (but sans date,) in the court of the Exchequer. In a bag of deeds of the county of Norfolk, it is recited, that whereas there had been difference between the prior of Lewes, and Sir Thomas, Knt. of St. Omer, Symon le Curteis, and other parceners in Upwell marsh in Norfolk, in which the prior claimed common, and the others denied him; by this deed it was agreed that the prior should have right of common for all his own cattle belonging to his manor of West Walton, freely, but neither the prior, his tenants, or villains, &c. should bring cattle out of his other manors to feed there, and that the prior should be helping to them to maintain the liberty of common according to their quantity of their lands in Upwell. Witnesses, Adam de Hakebeche, Walter de Denevere,<sup>3</sup> Knt. Josceline, son of Nicholas de Walpole, &c.

This family of St. Omer is on the roll, amongst those persons of note and eminency who came over with William the Conqueror. (Hugh de St. Omer is mentioned as a baron of the realm; by Mat. Paris.) and no doubt was seated here, nigh the time of the conquest; and mention is made by Sir Henry Spilman of John de St. Omer, of Well, who wrote an answer to a monk of Peterburgh, who in the reign of King John, wrote a lampoon in Latin against the country people of Norfolk, and Sir John de St. Omer was keeper of the wardrobe to King Henry III. an. 33.—In the fourth of Edward I. 1276, Eveard, prior of Mullicourt, leased lands to Sir William de St. Omer. In 1274, he, with Thomas de St. Omer, and William de Rivers had the King's letters of protection, as proxies for him, then going to the council of Lyons; and in 1275, Sir Thomas was with Simon de Grey, justice itinerant in Cambridgeshire. Sir William de St. Omer lived at Well in the 42d, and in the 53d of Henry III. was judge of the assise at Cambridge, ——— and living an. 14 Edward I.

Sir Tho. de St. Omer was his son, and had large possessions left him by his father, being lord of Brundal, Mulbarton, &c. in Norfolk. In a north window of Mulbarton, was to be seen painted in the glass, an armed knight kneeling; behind him his lady kneeling, and behind her a young lady, her daughter, kneeling; on his armour and over his head, was his arms, azure, a fess between six cross crosslets, or; on his lady's vestments, and over his head, was gules, three sinister hands couped, argent, under them, this French legend, Priez pour les almes de Mounsicur Thomas Scutomeris et Dame Petrinelle sa femme, qui sit faire ceste fenestre. His lady Petronilla, was the daughter of Nicholas de Malmain;* this is to represent that Sir Thomas who was living in the reign of Edward III.

It appears that Sir Thomas, aforesaid, son of Sir William, left no issue male, and that this lordship became the inheritance of Christian daughter and heir of Sir Thomas St. Omer, who lived in the reign of Edward I. she married John, son of Gilbert de Beaupre, whose ancestors had considerable possessions in these townships. This John Fitz-Gilbert appears, by ancient deeds, to have inherited also from them a manor in Well;<sup>5</sup> to this John, Nicholas Durdant, rector of Lucham in Norfolk, for a certain sum of money, granted several villains, cum totâ sequelâ, and the lands they held of him by deed sans date; witness, John de Dunham, John de Arsicks, Ralph de Rothyns, Knts. and to the said John Henry de Hale, clerk, granted the advowson of the priory of St. Mary de Mulicourt, by deed dated at Utwell, on Thursday after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, in 1313, soon after which the said John Fitz-Gilbert died.

Richard de Beaupre, son and heir of this John, was lord, and married Catherine, daughter of Osbert de Mundeford, Esq.

Sir Thomas de Beaupre was his son and heir, who married Joan, daughter of Thomas Holbeach, Esq.; he lived in the reign of Edward III. and by a deed dated 1362, to which is his seal, it appears, that his arms were, on a bend, a pallet between two cross crosslets, and the same were to be seen in the east window of the chancel of Outwell.

Nicholas was his son and heir, who married Margaret,<sup>6</sup> daughter of Richard Holdich of Didlington, in Norfolk, Esq.; this Nicholas, by his will dated the 1st of September 1380, bequeaths his body to be buried in the chapel of St. Mary in Outwell, to the repair of the church 11s.; to the high altar 12d.; to the repair of the church of Welyngham 11s.; to the high altar 12d.; and the residue of his moveable goods, to Margaret his wife and Thomas de Walton, prior of Molycourt, to dispose of as they see good, for the honour of God and his soul's health. This Nicholas died in 1404.

The will of Joan, mother of Nicholas, and late wife of Sir Thomas, is dated on Sunday after the feast of St. Matthew, 1392, and bequeaths her body to be buried in the churchyard of St. Clement in Outwell, to the lights of every altar in the said church 12d. to the repair of it 13s. 4d. to the mending of two bridges 11s. and appoints Nicholas her son, and Thomas, rector of that church, executors.

This Nicholas had a son of his own name, who by his will dated 24th of September 1428, ordains his trustees in the manor of Wesingham, &c. to keep the same for the raising of 200 marks to fulfil his last will, to be disposed of in masses, &c. for his soul, and those of his ancestours; bequeaths vestments to the value of 20*l.* to the church of Outwell, to the prioress of Blackberge 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann.<sup>7</sup> out of his lands, &c. in South Lenn: xs. to be given amongst the poor of Outwell, to Elizabeth his daughter 10 marks, 10*l.* to be disposed of for his burial; to the guild of Corpus Christi 40*l.*: to that of St. Mary 6*s.* 8*d.* to that of St. Christopher and St. John in Outwell 40*l.* to be equally divided; to Margaret, his son Thomas's wife, 40*s.* for her own use; to Alice, wife of Martin Capper, 13*s.* 4*d.*; to each of his executors 40*s.* and to the monks of Malicourt 20*s.*; and to be buried in the church of Outwell, by Margaret his late wife; and proved by his son Thomas, the 9th of March 1429. Regist. Surfleete. pt. 2. fol. 52.

Thomas de Beaupre was his son and heir, who married Margaret, daughter of John Meers of Lincolushire, Esq.; she, by her last will, dated on Monday after the feast of Easter, 1439, bequeaths her body to be buried in St. Mary's chapel in the church of Outwell, before the image of St. John Baptist, gives to the guilds and church of Outwell, 8 marks, for a priest to pray one year for her soul, &c. and it was proved on the 6th of June following.—In the year 1452, the will of Thomas de Beaupre bears date on the feast of St. Dionysius, bequeaths to Margaret his wife the manors of Freyles and Southall in Welyng- ham, Norfolk, for life, and 40*s.* per ann. out of his manor in Outwell, and the said manors to Robert his son (on the death of Margaret) if he should so long live, and to his heirs male, and in default thereof, then to Thomas his son and heir, &c. to John Brigg, 10*l.* per ann. out his manor in Wesyham, (which John married Elanore, daughter of the said Thomas;) till he should receive out of it the sum of 50*l.* and then to his son Thomas, &c. by this it appears he married a second wife, Margaret, who was, as I take it, daughter of Osbert Mundeford, Esq. senior, and by a deed dated 1443, the said Osbert delivered seisin of the manors of Freyles and Southall in Welyng- ham, to the said Thomas and Margaret, which he had of the said Thomas; which was most likely on a marriage settlement.

Thomas de Beaupre, Esq. was his son and heir, who in 1459, his father being then alive, married Margaret, daughter of Robert Ashfield, Esq. of Stow-Longtoft in Suffolk.

Nicholas de Beaupre, Esq. was his son and heir, who in 1493, married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Thomas Fodryngey, as will appear from this following covenant.

The will of this Nicholas is dated on the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, 1513, wherein he bequeaths his body to be buried in the chapel of St. Mary in the church of Outwell amongst his ancestors;<sup>8</sup> to Henry his brother ces. per ann. out of his manors of Beaupre, Southall, &c. and his son Edmund to enter in the said manors, &c. when he comes to the age of 21 years, and to him and his heirs, and in default thereof, to Nicholas his son; to the said Nicholas his manor of Nor-thall in Wesingham; mentions his daughter Margery, cousin Fincham, and cousin Munford, proved the 24th of January 1514, and the said Margaret, died the 20th of February, in the 6th year of Henry VIII. seized of Brockley in Suffolk, and Edmund was her son and heir, 13 years old,<sup>9</sup> which Edmund married Margery, daughter of Sir John Wiseman, of Great Thornham in Suffolk, and Elizabeth, his wife, as appears from the will of the said Elizabeth, (then his widow,) dated the 4th of October, 1548, wherein mention is made of this Margery, and her four daughters, by the said Edmund; Catherine, Elizabeth, Mary, and Ann, who were then all alive, and was proved the last day of October 1551. His 2d wife was Katherine, daughter of Phillip Bedingfeld, Esq. This Edmund, died the 14th of February, 1567, and by the marriage (as it is said) of Dorothy, another daughter and coheir to Sir Robert Bell, this manor of Beaupre was vested in that family. In the will of Lady Wiseman abovementioned, this Dorothy is not mentioned, the daughters of Edmund Beaupre there mentioned, I find from several ancient pedigrees to be thus disposed of, Catherine, married Edmund Wright, ———; Elizabeth died young; Mary married Richard Berwick; and Ann married Nicholas Wright. Spitman says<sup>1</sup> that this Dorothy was by the late wife of Winter,<sup>2</sup> but does not further explain himself. It appears that she was married to Bell on the 15th of October 1559, which is about eleven years after the date of the Lady Wiseman's will. Sir Robert Bell was Speaker of the House of Commons A. 14 Elizabeth, was chief baron of the Exchequer, and died of the pestilential vapour, at Oxford, at the assizes there in 1577, which destroyed also the high sheriff, most of the grand jury, and above 300 more, and his widow was married to Sir John Peyton, lord lieutenant of the Tower of London.

In this family the manor of Beaupre continued till the death of Beaupre Bell, Esq. in 17 --, who dying unmarried, gave it by will to his youngest sister, Elizabeth, who married William Greaves, Esq. of Fulborne, in Cambridgeshire, who in right of his wife is the present lord. See the pedigree following of Bell.

I find also from an old record, that on the death of Edmund Beaupre, Esq. many of his lands came to Mary, late wife of Richard Berwick, Anne Wright, widow, Edward Wright, son and heir of Catherine Wright, and Christian, daughters and coheirs of Edmund Beaupre, Esq. but this lordship was given by the said Edmund, to Dorothy, his daughter, by Catherine, daughter of Philip Bedingfeld, Esq. who married Sir Robert Bell, and afterwards Sir John Peyton, lieutenant of the Tower of London.

WEST DERHAM ABBEY MANOR.

This consisted of parcels of lands, fisheries, rents and services, given by many persons: the principal persons were Thomas de Burgo, son of Walter, who in the reign of Henry III. gave to that abbey a messuage and 50 acres of land in Upwell; Alan, the merchant of Well; William le Curteis, who in 1237, bequeathed his body to be buried there; Ralph, son of Stephen Ruch; John, son of Osbert de Well, Albrict, son of Walter de Wells, &c. gave them lands here, &c.; and in the 19th of Edward I. the abbot of West Derham was found to have a manor here, which extended into Outwell and Emmeth. In 1428, the temporalities of the said abbey here were valued at 10*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.*

On its dissolution it came to the Crown, and on the 16th of June in the first of Queen Mary, was given to Edmund Beaupre to be held by knight's service, it being then farmed by him with lands thereto belonging in Outwell and Emmeth, in the tenure of Nicholas Steward;* and it passed (as is observed in Beaupre manor) from him to the Bells, &c.

William Earl Warren had at the survey 6 borderers in Outwell.<sup>5</sup>

In the 3d of Edward I. the Earl Warren was found to hold a manor here, after this I find no further account of it; being held by the Beaupres, as I take it, and united to their manor of Beaupre-hall.

LORD BARDOLPH'S MANOR, ALIAS CRIKTOTS.

At the survey, Hermerus de Ferrariis, ancestor of the Lords Bardolph, had six borderers here.<sup>6</sup>

In the 50th of Henry III. Thomas de Yford (Ufford) held it, and had a swan mark on the water of Well, he impleading divers for taking them, and the sheriff returned that the malefactors lived in the isle of Ely, or confines, and that he could not do his office by reason of those persons, who were disinherited, and lurked thereabouts.

Hugh, prior of Lewis, granted by fine in the 56th of the said King, to Robert de Oford, one messuage, 55 acres and 3 roods of land, and a moiety of a fishery here; but in the 27th of Edward I. Sir William de Criketot of Criketot in Suffolk was found to hold the same in soccage of Hugh, Lord Bardolph, in Upwell, valued at 5*s.* per ann. with the manors of Ashfield, Irworth and Ousden, in Suffolk, leaving William his son and heir.

In the 47th of Edward III. William Walsham and Thomas Ikerworth, released to Richard de Pakeham and Joan his wife, heir to the Criketots, all their rights in the manors of Upwell and Outwell, Criketots, and in all the lands, &c. in Ashfield Magna and Parva, Hun'ston, Langham, Walsham, Wyrcrston and Wetherden in Suffolk, and to the heirs of their body, excepting the lands that Atberick de Wyke gave to William Criketot and Isabel his wife. ## WALSINGHAM MANOR.

Walter de Burgo released by deed, sans date, all his right in the homages, reliefs, services, &c. of the lands given by Roger Godlomb to the canons of Walsingham in Norfolk, and held by him in Upwell, opposite to Mullicourt, containing in all 380 acres with the tithes.<sup>8</sup> Simon de Outwell, Jeffrey, his son, and Reginald, son of Jeffrey, gave them also several lands here; in 1428, the temporalities of this house were taxed at 1*l.* 10*s.*

On the Dissolution, it was granted 12 September, in the 36th of Henry VIII. to John Eyre, Esq.

The nunnery of Nun-Eaton in Warwickshire had also a manor here that extended into Elne, and Emneth, the temporalities of which were taxed at 2*l.* 11*s.* in 1428; this was granted 6 of June, in the 33 of Henry VIII. to Thomas Mannours Earl of Rutland, to be held in capite, and was then in the tenure of William Eyndon.<sup>9</sup>

Many religious houses had possessions here—Abbot of St. Noel's, was charged at 20*s.* per ann. for his temporalities given by the Earls of Clare.<sup>1</sup>

The prior of Lewes, was taxed in 1423, for his temporalities in Upwell and Outwell, 2 marks.

Abbot of Thorney, 7*s.* 6*d.*—Prior of Ely, 1*l.* 2*s.*—Monks of Thetford, 1*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.*—Abbot of Peterburgh, 4*s.*—Prior of Norwich, 2*l.*—Prior of Irworth, 2*l.* 8*s.*—Prior of Hempton, by Fakenham in Norfolk, 16*s.*—Bury abbey, 12*s.*<sup>2</sup>—Prior of Castleacre, 3*s.*—Priory of Crabhouse, 12*s.*—Simon Sevald of Upwell, with the consent of Maud, his wife, gave the monks of Castleacre the moiety of all his land. Witnesses, Hugh dean of Fincham, Sir Osbert de Stradsete, &c.<sup>3</sup>—Droge confirmed the grants made by his father, and gave all that he had in Wells to the said priory. Witnesses, Vaterian, canon of St. Mary de Sudwerk, Olo, priest of the parish, &c.—Alexander de Alzun gave, with his body, to that priory 40 acres, and 40 to the monks of Lewes. Witnesses, Ralph, prior of Castleacre, Eborard, capellan de Hagebech, &c.—Gilbert, son of Richard, the tithe of a mill in Well, and another in Wirham to that priory.—The prior of Lynn had lands here in 15 of Henry VIII. joining to Sheep Load, and 3 furlongs of that load was to be scoured by him. Amongst the manuscripts of Peter Le Neve, Norroy, was a curious discourse of the marshes and fens in Norfolk, Suffolk, and Cambridgeshire: by Francis Audley, 1604.

In the time of Adam de Boothby, abbot of Peterborough, there was an indictment at Northampton against a stoppage of the water at

Upwell, so that the river Nen could not have its course to Lynn; whereby the counties of Northampton, Lincoln, Bedford, Huntingdon, and Cambridge, were much endamaged; and a decree was procured from Geffrey Le Scroop, the King's chief justice, for clearing the passage. And it appears by a presentment of the jury, made in the 3d of Edward III. that the course of the water of the Nene, came from Peterborough, through the limits of Upwell, and that Walter de Langton Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, asurer to King Edward I. in order to drain his manor of Coldham in that neighbourhood, stopt the course of the river with earth and sand, to the great damage of the country. They say on their oaths, that the river Ouse, descending from Huntingdon, and the river Nene from Peterborough, met at Benwick, had used to run directly thence to the port of Lenn, by Outwell; and that by the said stoppage, no navigable vessels could afterwards pass to and from Lenn, as they had wont to do. And Dugdale observes that the river Ouse, whose current now discharges itself into the sea by Lynn, passed in King John's time, under the town of Littleport in the isle of Ely, and so on to Wellenhee, (Welney,) and through the two towns of Upwell and Outwell, whence it had the name of Well Stream, and so under Walsoken sea bank, through the washes between Lincolnshire and Marshland, into the sea; where the river Nene, that comes from Peterborough through Wisbeach, runs through those washes now, and slides into the sea.*

The Church of Upwell is dedicated to St. Peter, and is a large regular pile, consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, with a chancel, all of stone, embattled with brick, and covered with lead; the length of the nave is about 71 feet, and the breadth, including the isles, about 51. About the middle of the nave, lies a marble grave-stone, with this inscription on a plate of brass,

Orate p. aiab; Wilhelmi Damet et Clarisæ uxoris ej; qui quid' Wills. obt. ix. die Novemb. Ao. Dni. M. cccccxxvii. Quor aiab; p'pit. Deus, Amen.

Near the desk, on an old grave-stone, deprived of its old plate, is this modern inscription—

On several marble stones, here are the following inscriptions,

Here lyeth the body of Abel Butler, gent. who departed this life November the 8, 1702, aged 65, also Elizabeth his wife, who departed this life March the 5, 1683, aged 24 years.

On a brass plate,

Below this,

Under this stone also lieth the body of Sam. Audley, who departed this life the 7th day of November, Ao. D. 1727, aged 66 years.

The roof of this nave is ornamented with carved work, and angels, with their wings expanded bearing insignia relating to the crucifixion, bear up the principals; the whole is supported by neat pillars forming six handsome arches on each side, with as many windows over them. At the east end of this nave, on the south side, is a stone turret and staircase which led to the rood-loft; and on the north side is a table of the benefactors.

“Thomas Lamb of Upwell, by his will, December 27, 1562, gave to the poor of this parish in Norfolk, and the isle of Ely, a messuage and 3 acres of land in Plasfield, Upwell, to which was allotted by the adventurers a parcel of land in Neatmoor, abutting on Popham’s Eau north; rent to be distributed by the church-wardens at Christmas.”

“John Fox, by his will, April 15, 1626, gave to the poor of Upwell in the Isle, an house with two acres of land in the said Isle, in Upwell, abutting on the river Neen south, to which appertain a lot in Euximoor, abutting on the 16 foot drain; the rents to be distributed on Easter Monday.”

“Also to the poor of Upwell in Norfolk, one house, abutting upon Small Load Creak, to which appertains a Neatmore lot abutting upon Welney road, to be distributed on Easter Monday.—Also an house adjoining, abutting on the said Creak, with a lot in Neatmore abutting on the said Welney road, and Mumbrede Drove; the rents of these to the repair of the church.”

“There belong also to the poor of Upwell, 3 acres of land in or near Adcock’s hill in High Fen, given to the Isle.—Also 3 acres of land in a place called Shrewsnest, abutting upon the old river, and river Neen given to the Isle.”

“*John Boss, gave by his will 10*l.* to the poor in Norfolk, Upwell,* the interest or rent of the same, to be distributed in bread, yearly, at the feast of St. Thomas."

"Thomas Dixon, 20*l.* to the poor on both sides; to be distributed in money on Good Friday."

"Matthæw Batman, gave by his last will, 5*l. per ann.* out of his estate, for ever, to be distributed amongst the poor in the Isle side, in cloaths, at Christmas; the whole estate is security for this."

"John Bond and John Raper, Church-wardens, 1727.

The north isle has a neat oaken roof, with angels, &c. as the nave, and on the braces, are many swans carved. At the east end of this isle has been a chapel and altar; on the pavement there lies a marble grave-stone, with the portraiture of a priest; and on a brass plate,

Hic jacet D'ns. Willms. Whitemete quond' rector de Yaxham, qui obt. vii die mens. Septemb. Ao. Dom. Millo. ccccxxxii. cuj; a'e p'pit. Deus Amen.

Whitemete was also rector of Otburgh, which he resigned; his will is dated 4 September 1432; he thereby desires to be buried in the church of Upwell, before the altar of St. John the Evangelist.<sup>5</sup>

At the west end of this isle stands a tower, the bottom part is four-square, the upper octangular, of boulder, &c. embattled with brick; on this is a shaft or spire of wood covered with lead; in this tower hang 6 large bells, and here is a town clock; it has a porch of stone, covered with lead, and a room over it; on the old door are also several swans carved, as a rebus, likely, to some benefactor of that name, or as a compliment paid to King Henry IV. who had a swan for his badge or cognisance.

The south isle has also a roof of the same work, &c. with the north, ornamented with swans; at the east end of it has been an altar; on the pavement lies a marble grave stone, with the portraiture of a priest in brass, and on a plate,

At the west end of this isle lies a stone in form of a coffin, carved, &c. and adorned with crosses pattée.

On the screen that divides the chancel from the nave, has been painted, our Saviour bearing his cross, his ascension, the descent of the Holy Ghost on the Apostles, the Trinity, an altar with the cup and wafer, supported by two bishops, also several female saints now obscure. The chancel roof is also supported by angels, as the nave, but not of equal beauty; here also are the effigies of demons, grinning, horribly, as offended with the work. On the area of this chancel, which is in length about 44 feet, and about 20 in breadth, lies a marble stone, with a large portraiture of a priest in brass; it has been ornamented with curious canopy work, a rim round it, shields, and a plate of brass, but of these it is now deprived, and was, no doubt, in memory of a rector of this church, probably Moxbray. Here also lies a marble grave-stone, with a large plate of brass, and thereon the portraiture of a man and his wife, with a desk between them; behind

These following verses are alluded to Jane Bell, deceased, the last wife of Sinolphus Bell, Esq. who being aged 62 years, departed this life on Monday, being the 26 of February, 1621.

*Here lyeth buried of whome may be sayd

She married a Bell, and never delayed,

Above the screen fronting the chancel is a large piece of painting, in this the church of England is represented by a venerable matron, clothed in white, erowned, and seated on a throne, at her feet is wrote, The church of England; on her knees lie the Bible and Common Prayer-Book, Book of Homilies, and the 39 Articles; in her left hand, she holds a cup, by this is wrote, Drink ye all of this; her right hand points to a font, round which stand godfathers and godmothers, &c. and an infant in the arms of one, by this, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; over the head of the venerable matron, Many daughters have done well, but thou exceedest them all;

by her is the communion table spread, and communicants on their knees, under all, this poem;<sup>7</sup>

*I joy dear mother, when I view,
Thy perfect lineaments and hue,
Both sweet and bright.*

*Beauty in thee takes up her place,
And dates her letters from thy face,
When she doth write.*

Neither too mean, nor yet too gay,
Shows who is best.*

Allureth all in hope to be

*Hath kissed so long her painted shrines
That e'en her face, by kissing shines

*She in the valley, is so shie
Of dressing, that her hair doth lie,
About her ears.*

*While she avoids her neighbours pride,
She wholly goes on th' other side,
And nothing wears.*

*But dearest mother (what those miss)
The mean thy praise and glory is,
And long may be,*

*Blessed be God, whose love it was,
To double moat thee with his grace,
And none but thee.*

Nicholas de Beaupre, married Margaret, one of the daughters and heyres of Thomas Fodryngaye, Esq;—Hic jacet Nich. de Beaupre, Armiger et Margaretæ, uxor ejus, una filiar. et hæred. Tho. Fodryngaye, quond. de Brockley. in comit. Suffole. Armig. et consanguinea et heres Joh. Dorward militis, Joh. Harsyck, militis; et Will. Coggeshall, militis, qui obt. duodecimo, die Febr. An. Dni. millesimo, quingentcsimo, duodecimo, quor. animab. p<sup>o</sup>pitiet. &c.

The east window of this chapel, contains several figures of saints painted on the glass, St. Edmund the King, St. Edward the Confessor, St. Anthony, St. Laurence, &c. and on the summit is the profane representation of the Deity (as in the time of popery) vested in robes of blue, seated in a chair of gold, with an orb in his hand; but this will less surprise us, when we are told by Onuphris that “In the church of St. Latoryn, at Rome, behynd the high altar, there stands a chair, which God sat in, and who that sitteth therein, hath the third part of alle his synnes relesy’d.”<sup>5</sup> The shield of the five wounds, gules an heart, or, between a dexter and sinister hand, and a dexter and sinister foot couped, saltire ways, argent; and azure, a cup, or, with the wafer or panis, argent.

And in the south window the figures of St. Peter, St. Bartholomæw, St. Agnes, St. Margaret, St. Catherine, &c.; within the south wall is an old enarched monument, for the founder, without any date, arms or inscription; against the wall hangs an achievement, with the arms of

Bell, sable, a fess ermine, between three bells argent, and the same is carved on the roof. The south window aforesaid seems to have been thus beautified by Margaret, wife of Thomas de Beaupre, who died in 1439, and therein is still to be seen a lady on her knees.—This isle has a porch, with a room over it.

About the middle of the north isle, in the wall, is an arch, and passage to a chapel, which is in length about 18 feet, and about 15 feet in breadth, with a good oaken roof and painted, supported by angels, with the insignia of the crucifixion in their hand, and wings expanded, covered with lead. Against the north wall of this chapel is an altar monument, but the brass plate that was thereon, is gone: in the east window are the broken remains of persons on their knees, and this date, M.CCCCXX. and on the south wall over the arch, is the salutation of the Virgin Mary, painted; it is called Lynn chapel, and probably might belong to an ancient family of that name, of good account in Cambridgeshire.—On the roof may be observed some chevrons, gules.

At the east end of this north isle is a large chapel about 26 feet in length and 18 in breadth, coved with lead, the windows of this chapel are beautiful.<sup>6</sup>

On the summit of the east window, are the figures of our Saviour, St. Michael, with the triangular emblem of the Trinity on his breast, and slaying the devil, St. George, with the red cross on his breast, slaying the dragon, and that of St. Audrey, with a crosier staff in her hand, and the arms of the see of Ely.

In a north window near to this; the figures of St. Edward the King and Confessor, with the gold ring in one hand, and a sceptre in the other, St. Edmund the King and Martyr, with an arrow in one hand, and a sceptre in the other, St. Ethelbert, King and Martyr, with an orb and a sceptre, all these well executed, as large almost as the life, in their robes and crowned. Over St. Edward the King are the arms of Fincham, argent, three bars sable, over all a bend ermine—impaling, quarterly in the 1st and 4th, argent, a fess gules, between three eagles displayed, sable, Elmham, as I take it; and in the 2d and 3d, argent, three bars wavy, azure, Wells. Over St. Edmund the King, gules, a bend between six cross crosslets fitchée, argent, Howard, impaling, azure, a fess between two chevrons argent, Tending of Suffolk. In a garter, over St. Ethelbert, Fincham impaling Tending.—In the same window are these arms, Fincham, on the dexter side, or, on a cross azure, a torteaux between four bezants, in a bordure ingrailed of 2d; on the sinister, - - - - - sable, three lozenges, ermine, in a bordure, argent, Haultoft, azure, a buck's head cabosed, or, Derham.—In the lowest north window, gules, a chevron or, between three leopards faces, argent, Carvel, impaling Fincham, and Haultoft, quarterly, argent, on a chevron gules, three birds or, - - - - - , impaling Fincham, Haultoft and Derham, argent, lion rampant, sable, Stapelton, impaling Fincham and Haultoft, quarterly.—Fincham impaling Derham and Haultoft, quarterly.—Fincham impaling argent, a fess in chief, three martlets, and in base, a chevron azure, Tey of Essex.—In this window are the figures of the wise men, with their offerings almost as large as in life, and the Virgin teaching the child Jesus.—On the area lie a marble gravestone, with a brass plate,

<sup>6</sup> Gilbert Haultoft, or Hiltot, one of the barons of the Exchequer is said to have built this chapel, but John Fincham Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Derham, Esq. by Alice, his wife, 1st daughter and coheir of Gilbert, seems to be the founder by the arms.

It appears from the arms in the windows, and on the roof and stone work, that it was built by John Fincham, Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Derham, Esq. and Alice his wife, who was daughter and coheir of Gilbert Hauttoft, and his wife Margaret, which Gilbert, is also here buried, and gave certain lands to find a chantry priest to say mass in this church, for the souls of the said Gilbert and his wife, and Sir Robert Hakbeach, &c.—On a marble gravestone,

In memory of John Fincham, Esq. who dyed March 24, 1709, in the 80 year of his age; here also lye his wives Mary and Susan, by whom he had 2 sons and 7 daughters, all here buried, Mary, Frances, Jno. Jane, Catherine, Christian, the last Elizabeth, wife of Matt. Hardy, gent. who departed, &c. August 2, 1731, aged 61; with the arms of Fincham.

The chancel is in length about 42 feet, and about 20 in breadth, and is covered with lead. In the east window are the arms of Beaupre, and St. Omer, and in a small pannel transposed quarterly in 1st and 4th sable, a chevron between three spear heads argent; in the 2d and 3d, argent on a bend, sable, three roses, argent; as I take it, Morgan Bishop of Ely.

On a beam, Orate p, a'ia. Robti. Bottler quond. hujus eccles. rectoris; and on the roof, S. R. B. to shew it was repaired or erected at the said rector's charge. Within the rails of the communion table, on a grave-stone,

In the south window of the chancel there was formerly this antique piece of painting, A matron in a white robe and blue mantle, on her knees, between four men; at her feet, a fox hanging on a tree, wounded in the neck with two arrows, behind and before two monkies with bows, shooting at the fox.

In this church, there appears from old wills, to have been these guilds, Corpus Christi, St. Mary, St. Christopher, St. John, and St. Clement.

And these lights, Corpus Christi, Holy Cross, Our Lady in the chapel, Lady of Pity, St. John Baptist, St. Christopher, St. Erasmus, St. Nicholas, St. Thomas, St. Margaret, St. Elyn, St. Ann, St. Michael, St. James, St. Catherine, and Holy Trinity.

The feast of the dedication of this church was kept on the 21st of November, and changed by Walter Heart Bishop of Norwich, about 1470, and enjoined to be kept on the 24th of September.

In this parish was the hermitage of St. Christopher. In the 22d of Edward III. a patent was granted for building a chapel to it.<sup>8</sup>

MULICOURT PRIORY,

CALLED ALSO THE CHAPEL OF ST. MARY DE BELLO LOCO.

In the parish of Outwell, and county of Norfolk, on the right hand of Well-Creek, on the bank as you go from Downham to Outwell, stood this little old priory, founded in the time of the Saxons, (as is said,) of the order of St. Benedict.<sup>9</sup> In the reign of Henry III. Adam, son and heir of Sir John de Brancastre, granted Robert de Hale, rector of Aylington, the patronage of this priory, of St. Mary of Molicourt, with one acre of land in Brancastre, for 10 marks sterling paid him in his urgent necessity. Witnesses, Martin de Suthmere, Gilbert de Titchwell, Philip de Bintre, John de Walpole, Walter de Deuvere, John de Cappel, knights, &c. Sans date. And Henry de Hale, clerk, by his deed, dated at Utwell, on Thursday after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, in the 7th of Edward II. granted it to John, son of Gilbert de Beaupre of Utwell. After it became so poor, through the great inundations of water, fresh and salt, the sterility of the lands on that account, the great expenses and charges in repairing the lands and houses, that there was not (as was represented) maintenance left, sufficient to support one monk; so that it was by license of King Henry VI. united and appropriated to the priory of Ely. "Henry by the grace of God, King of England, &c. know, &c. that we have granted and given license to our beloved the prior and convent of Mullicourt, that they may give and grant to the prior and convent of Ely, one messuage and 24 acres of land in Wygnal, called Towtes, and 8 messuages in Outwell, Upwell, and Downham, in Cambridgeshire and Norfolk, and 7 acres of land in Emneth, and all other lands and tenements, rents and services, which the aforesaid prior and convent of Mullicourt now have in the towns of Outwell, Emneth, Walsoken, Downham, and Lenne, in Norfolk, and in the towns of Outwell, Upwell, Wysbeach, and Leveryngton in Cambridgeshire, to have and to hold to the aforesaid prior and convent of Ely, and their successors for ever. And likewise we have granted, &c. to the aforesaid prior and convent of Ely, that they with the assent and consent of those that have interest, may unite, annex, incorporate and appropriate the priory of Mullicourt with all its rights, &c. to the said church of the prior and convent of Ely, also license to the prior of Ely to receive or purchase 10 marks per ann. in mortmain, so that the lands given or purchased, be not held in capite of the Crown; dated at Westminster, 7 August, 24, an.

regni. Witness, Myself at Westminster, the 7th of August, in the 21 year of our reign." Accordingly it was appropriated by Walter Hart Bishop of Norwich, 4 December, 1441, the church of Ely paying to the see of Norwich an yearly pension of 3s. 4d. Before this, on 23 Feb. 1385, the Bishop of Ely granted 40 days of pardon to all benefactors to this priory, on account of its poverty.

Edward occurs prior in 1276.

Simon occurs prior 32 Henry III.

Robert, prior in the 25th of Edward I. as appears by a fine then levied.

Andrew occurs prior 34 Edward I.<sup>1</sup>

6 October 1316, William de Merston, collated by the Bishop of Norwich, his election by the convent being set aside.<sup>2</sup>

About this time, in the 13th of Edward II. the prior paid 18s. 4d. for his tenths in Outwell and Upwell.

1 May, 1320, John de Malteby admitted prior.

2 November, 1333, David de West Derham, elected on the death of Malteby, confirmed and admitted by the Bishop.

10 April, 1365, John de Derham, elected on the death of David, admitted on the presentation of Sir Thomas Beaupre; no election was made for the want of monks.

9 July, 1390, Thomas de Walton, admitted, &c. by the Bishop, on the death of John de Derham, the election of the convent being set aside.

3 June, 1427, Stephen Wyse admitted on the death of Walton. It appears from the Institution Books, that he was the only monk in the convent on the death of Walton; so that the Bishop (gratiosè) out of pure favour admitted him.

The site of the priory and lands here, are in the dean and chapter of Ely, and now held by lease of that body; the last prior seems to be Robert de Temisford.

MIRMOUND PRIORY

Was in the parish of Upwell, but in the Isle and county of Cambridge, of the order of St. Gilbert of Sempringham, founded in the reign of King Richard I. with the leave of Eustachius Bishop of Ely, by Sir Ralph Hauvyle, or de Altá Villá, who gave to this poor house 300 acres of fine pasture, lying in Upwell and Outwell, on both sides of the water, to have the prayers of 3 priests in the said house, the feeding of sixty small beasts in the said pasture, and 5s. annual rent.<sup>3</sup> Sir Thomas, his son and heir, confirmed the same, and granted liberty of pasture for four mares with their foals; also 4 couple of swans, paying 5s. rent per ann. In the 11th of Edward II. Thomas de Hauvill, lord of Rainham Parva, Norfolk, gave the advowson of that church to this priory, and av. 10, the manor of Dunton in Norfolk.

In 1428, the temporalities of this house in Upwell and Outwell, were valued at 11*l.* 8*s.*—In the 21 of Henry VIII. Peter Church was prior.—I have by me a small parchment roll, by time much obscured, of the state of this house in 1520, which manifests its meanness and poverty.

Pensions of 2*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* were paid to some religious of this dissolved house in the 1st year of Queen Mary, as appears from the auditor's account, John Eyre, Esq.

At the Suppression, it was valued, according to Speed, at 13*l.* 6*s.* 1½*d.* and 10*l.* 7*s.* 7*d.* as Dugdale.

Roger Walker in 1555, is called late prior of this cell, and occurs prior 1539: he surrendered it with one canon or monk, and had a pension of 2*l.* 13*s.* per ann.

On the 8th of April, in the 9th of King James I. messuages in Upwell and 5 acres in Plozfield, Upwell, of the priory of Mirmond in the county of Cambridge, were granted to John Eldred, and George Whitmore, Esq.

John Eyre, Esq. in the 36th of Henry VIII. had a great close in Outwell, called Wadingstowe, belonging lately to Walsingham abbey, granted him by the King, Pt. 18.

In the 10th of Elizabeth, this priory was granted to Percival Boxes, and John Mosyer.

In this parish of Outwell, on the King's highway, was the hermitage of St. Christopher, with a chapel thereto belonging, near to the church, as appears by a patent of King Edward III. in his 22d year.

WATLINGTON.

BRUSSYERD'S MANOR.

its name from its site, lying by the water, and a wet soil, thus Watton, Watford, &c.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs was the capital lord of it, and of Wirmegay, &c. and from him it came to the Lords Bardolph Barons of Wirmegay, and was held of them by a family that assumed their name from it.

Sir Robert de Watlington lived in the reign of King Stephen, and Sir Peter, in that of Henry II.—William his son dying in the 17th of Henry III. left Robert his son and heir, whose wardship was granted to Robert le Moine, who gave the king two palfreys, &c. as a fine for it, and in the 34th of that King, he was of age, held a whole knight's fee, but was not a knight.

Of this family was Ralph, son of Basilia de Wathelington, who by deed sans date, granted, with the consent of his heirs, and confirmed, to the infirm brethren of the hospital of St. Mary Magdalen, on the causey between Lynn and Geywode, lands here, to be held of him and his heirs, paying 8d. per ann. and for this, the said brethren gave to him in Gersumia (as a present) 3 marks of silver, and to his wife Basilia 2s. to his eldest son 1s. &c.—Witnesses Dno. Robto. (Sir Robert.) mayor of Lynn,<sup>7</sup> Ralph Kelloc, Robert Fitz David, John de Geywode William Parlet, Ralph, minister of the hospital. &c.

In the 3d of Edward I. William de Watlington was lord, claimed the lete, had the assize of bread and beer, gallows, &c.—Robert de Watlington and Agnes his wife, settled it with lands in Thorplaud, Holm, &c. in the 7th of Edward II. on their sons George, Richard, and John, &c. in tail, and in the 1st of Edward III. Geffrey de Brussyard and Agnes his wife, late wife of Robert de Watlington (as I take it) held it of the Lord Bardolph.

The said Geffrey and Agnes his wife presented to this church in the 15th of Edward II.

After this it was in the Bartholomews, and in the 20th of Edward III. John, son of Bartholomew, occurs lord of Tussard's, or Gussard's manor in Watlington, (so called corruptly for Brussyard, from Geffrey de Brussyard aforesaid,) as appears from a roll of the honour of Wirmegay, with the appertenaices in Totenhill, Sechithe, &c. the advowson of the church of Watlington, liberty of a fold course, free bull and boar, doing suit to the three week court, and other services. John Bartholomew, lord in the 33d of the said King sealed with a bend, between 2 goats heads, and in 1392, Catherine, relict of John Bartholomew, presented to the church of Watlington.

In the year 1407, 1412, 1413, and 1418, John Glemsford, Esq. of Watlington, presented, in right of his wife Margaret, daughter (as I take it) of John Bartholomew, to whom the manor called Bartholomews belongs (as the institution register has it) by right of inheritance. This Margaret had a sister and coheir (as I take it) Catherine, the wife of Robert Drew, who had part of Bartholomew's inheritance here, &c.

In the 11th of Henry VI. it was found that Catherine, late wife of Robert Drew, held 24 acres of land here, in tail, of the honour of Wirmegay, a messuage, 30 acres of land, 9 of meadow, and 10s. per ann. rent here and in Wington, Thorp, and Seche, by the service of the 40th part of a fee, with 40 acres of pasture in Sadlebova, and

John de Glemsford, Esq. outlived his wife Margaret, and held this lordship by the courtesy of England: he died in the 15th of Hen. VI. leaving by Margaret, two daughters and coheirs, Agnes, and Catherine: (and a son Charles, by a former wife, who had no interest here:) Catherine, the eldest, was married to Thomas Hawdekyn, Esq. who presented in her right to this church, in 1425, and 1427, and after his death to Will. Bolton, and died sans issue. Agnes, her sister, married John Curteis, and dyed before her father Glemsford, leaving Catherine her daughter, and sole heir, aged at the death of her grandfather 6 years and on the death of her aunt, Catherine, was found her heir, and proving her age in the 22d of Henry VI. had livery of this manor, and in 1451, presented to this rectory.

Soon after this it was possessed by the Shouldhams, and Thomas Shouldham, Esq. of this town, by his will dated August 30, 1467, bequeaths his body to be buried in this church: he gave this manor to his wife Margaret for life, after her decease, to his son Hugh, which descended to him by heirship, on the death of his father, John Shouldham, proved April 30, 1468, which Hugh presented to this church, as lord and patron, in 1487, and 1497.

Soon after it came to the Gawwells, Thomas Gawwells, by Catherine, his wife, daughter and coheir of Humphry Kerville, of Wigenhale, St. German's, was father of Rich. who married Ursula, daughter of Robert Walbut, of Otburgh, this Richard Gawwells, Esq. held a court here on Friday the feast of St. Hillary, in the 11th of Henry VIII. and presented to the church in 1531. By an inquisition at Lynn, post mortem, it appears that he died on May 31, in the 30th year of Henry VIII. that he held this manor and advowson of the King as of the honour of Wirmegay, by half a knight's fee, but the service of castle guard, was unknown, and John was his son and heir, aged 6 years.

Thomas Gawwells, Esq. died lord, January 2, 1600, and left by Susan, daughter of Gregory Pratt, Esq. 2 sons, Gregory, and Edmund; Gregory died unmarried March 5, 1656, and this lordship came to Susan, daughter and heir of Edmund, which Susan, was married to Sir John Davis, of Berecourt, in Berkshire, by whom she had Gregory Davis, Esq. lord, who died in 1706, leaving 2 sons, by Bridget, daughter of Hatton Berners, Esq. Gregory, who died a minor, in 1710, and John Davis, Esq. the present lord, who married Susan, daughter and coheir of Philip Beddingfeld, Esq.; she died s. p.

Another part or lordship in this town, was held by Thomas de Watlington, and his parceners in the reign of Henry III. by the fourth part of a fee, of the honour of Wirmegay, which was in the hands of William, son of Richard de Watlington, in the 5d of Edward I. in the 20th of Edward III. John son of William de Watlington, held the same with his parceners. <sup>1</sup> Rot. hundr. 3 Ed. I.

<sup>2</sup> The seal of this John, to his deed, is the side face or head of an old man, with a prolix beard, a thick cap, covering great part of his head and neck, his forehead bare, in his mouth he holds a sprig or small branch, with leaves, bending up to his forehead, the seal is round, of brown wax, about the bigness of a shilling, and the impress is rude and obscure.

William, son of Thomas de Watlington, (probably of the same family.) by his deed dated at South Lenne, on Sunday before the feast of St. Philip and St. James, conveyed all his right, &c. in a messuage, 140 acres of land and meadow, and the appertinances, lying in the marsh of South Lenne, and West Wynch, on the east of Sechythee, which he had of Alice, daughter of Matthew Herlewynne, of South Lenne, to William Duraunt, of Sechythee, and John his son: witnesses, Thomas Attelathe, of Wygenhale, Edmund Kervile, and Thomas de Reynham of the same, &c.

From the family of the Watlingtons it came to William Steward, by the marriage of Joan, daughter of William, and sister of John de Watlington, who on Sunday before the feast of the circumcision, in the 16th of Richard (II. being then a widow) conveyed the same to Laurence Trussbutt, Esq. and Nicholas his son, but in the 5th of Henry VI. Robert Kervile, was found to hold it, by the fourth part of a fee of the honour of Wirmegey.

In the year 1434, November 19, the said Robert made his will and testament, which was proved in the following year, by the name of Robert Kervile, of Watlinton:<sup>3</sup> he bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of St. Peter and St. Paul of this town, on the south side; gives to Richard his son, this manor, formerly John, son of William, son of Thomas de Watlington; legacies to Geffrey, Katharine, and Hawis his children, and Agnes his sister, and appoints Elizabeth his wife, and Richard his son executors. Richard died s. p. and Geffrey his brother, by Margaret his wife, daughter to Thomas Holditch, Esq. had Thomas his son.

The Kerviles or Carvills of this town, were (as I take it) a younger branch of a very ancient family, that had large possessions at Wigenhale St. Mary's (their seat) and other parts in this neighbourhood. In the 11th year of King Edward III. it appears they held lands here, when Robert, son of Walter de Kervile and Agnes his wife, conveyed lands here to John, son of William of Cleuchwarton.<sup>4</sup>

Thomas Kervile, of Watlinton, lord of this fee, made his will January 31, 1532; his body to be buried in this church, his manor here to Robert his grandson, son of Thomas deceased, with lands in Rungton, Holm, Seehe, Wigenhale, and South Lynn, and one foldage and an half in this town, appoints his son Humphrey his executor;<sup>5</sup> (Catharine his wife survived him,) proved October 4, 1535.

Thomas his son, who died before him, made his will November 9, 1522: he held lands in the towns before mentioned and in Totinghill and Watlinton, appoints his wife Joan and son Robert, executors;<sup>6</sup> it appears that he had 2 brothers, Humphrey, and Simcon a priest; sisters, Ursula Newton, and Ela Valenger.

From the Kerviles, it came to the Gawcells, and so was united to the manor of Bartholomews, &c.

Thomas Gawcell of Watlinton, Esq. by Ellen his wife, had John his son and heir, living A<sup>o</sup>. 1501, father of Thomas, by Margaret his wife; he married Catherine, daughter and coheir of Humphrey Kervile, of Wigenhale, St. German's.<sup>7</sup> Richard his son, by Ursula his wife, was father of John Gawcell, Esq. and the said Ursula, was daughter of Walbut, as abovesaid.—John had Thomas Gawsell, Esq. his son and heir, who by Susan, daughter of Gregory Pratt, Esq. had 2 sons; 1st, Gregory, who died s. p. - - - -, and Edmund who by - - - - -, daughter of - - - - Gray, had Susan his daughter and heir, married to Sir John Davis, whose grandson, John Davis, Esq. is the present lord.

The abbot of West-Derham had a lordship here, which on its dissolution was granted August 29, A. 37, Henry VIII. to Richard Gawsell, Esq. and so was united to the rest.

The prior of Shouldham had a small fee in this town; the temporalities of that house were valued here at 4s. per ann. in the year 1428.

This was given to it, on its foundation, by Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, who held it of the honour of Clare, and in the 3d of Henry IV. the Earl of March, (a descendant of the Earls of Clare,) held here, in Shouldham, Stradset, Foston, Wallington, Thorp, Stoke, Wretton and Wercham, one fee and a quarter in capite, but this at the Dissolution came to the Gawsells, and so to the Davis's.

The prior of Westacre had also lands in this town, valued in 1428, at 7s. per ann. Robert Smith held this (which was 54 acres) of the prior, and died seized thereof in the 9th of Henry VII.

West Derham temporalities were valued at 3l. 4s. 1d. ob.

The abbot of Bury had lands here valued in 1428, at 6s. per ann.

The abbot of Ramsey had lands then valued at 5s. 8d. per ann.

And the prior of Petriston lands then valued at 12d. per ann.—All which it is likely came, on the Dissolution of those houses, to the Gawsells, &c.

In the reign of Henry III. Alexander le Moyne, and his parceners, held here, and in Wallington, Sechehith, Foston, Hardwick, &c. a knight's fee of the Lord Bardolph; this was held in the reign of Edward III. by Benedict Russell, the prioress of Blackburgh, Edmund de Monpiuzoun, &c. of this Alexander le Moyne, and Benedict Russell, see in Foston, Shouldham, Thorp, &c.

Robert de Watlington by deed sans date; confirmed to the monks of Castleacre, all his tenements, lands, meadows, pastures, &c.<sup>8</sup> which his ancestors and himself had given to them, viz. the land which Olyketel Stoke held, the land which Richard, son of Godr. held, the land that Alfric Ruffus held, and a gara of land in the moor of Watlington, the new land which Alone his brother gave them, and a messuage in Dierham, two colts in Wretton, and the men who held the same, their children, &c.; witnesses, Reginald de Warren, the Lady Alice his wife, William de Warren, master Clement, Ralph, the clerk, Peter de Wineberga, Robert de Stradset, Robert de Capravill, William de Waltona, Robert, son of Hugh de Nereburgh, John de Nereburgh, Alone de Watlington, Walter Tussard, Leverede de Marham, William de Binham, William de Wigenhall, Ebrard de Tomeston, &c.<sup>9</sup>—Reginald de Warren, at the request of Sir Robert de Watlington, Knt. confirmed to the monks of Castleacre, all the grants which the aforesaid Robert or his ancestors had made to them; witnesses, Alice his wife, William his son, Gilbert de Blewill, Ralph de Crakefeld, Robert de Hera, &c.—Ralph, son of Godfrey of Tilney, by deed sans date, gave to the said monks, the service of William de Fodestun, and William his brother of Watlinton, which they owed him, for land, which was Rem, their father's, and for half the land which was Walter their uncle's, and their homages, &c. Witnesses, Walter de Wissham, John, clerk of Watlinton, Alan, clerk of Southacre, Godfrey de Tilney, &c.

The tenths of this town, were 10*l.* 14*s.*—Deduct 1*l.*—remain 9*l.* 14*s.*

The lete was in the abbey of Ramsey, and at the Dissolution came to the Hares of Stow Bardolf, as appears from the ancient rolls of the hundred.—Lete fee was 2*s.* 8*d.*

The CHURCH of Watlinton is dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul, it has a nave with a north and south isle annexed, all covered with lead, and built of carr stone and boulder, in length about 57 feet, in breadth, including the isles, about 43 feet; at the west end of the nave is a four square tower of the same materials, with quoins of free stone, embattled with brick but coped with stone, and 4 stone pinnacles, one at each corner, on this is a cap of wood, covered with lead, a weather cock thereon, and four bells are in the said tower.

In the lowest window of the north isle, are the remains of the figures of St. John Baptist. St. John the Evangelist, and that of our Saviour, but their heads are broke of.—In the next or second window as you ascend is the figure of St. Paul, and under him is the portraiture of a woman, in a yellow gown, on her knees, her hands erect, and under her, in old characters, these remains of an inscription: ----- et Cecilie uxor. ej.

In the highest window of this isle, in the upper pannels, are the remains of the figures of three women saints, but their heads, &c. are broken off; that in the middle seems to be the Virgin Mary, underneath her is the bust of a woman (the rest of her being broke out) holding a chain of gold, or string of beads in her right hand, in a blue gown, on her knees, and her hands erect, and in an old character, Orate p. aiab; Galfridi de Brusseyard et Agnetis uxor. ej. This window is edged with goats heads couped, argent, attired and barbed or.

The east window of the said isle has been finely illuminated, as all the rest have been, by particular benefactors, and here are now, parrots and bunches of grapes, painted; at the east end is an ascent, and this isle has been some chapel; on the pavement here lies a marble, the plate and label of brass, wherewith it was ornamented, together with the portraiture, is reaved, but by the incision of the stone it was no doubt in memory of some priest that here officiated.

At the west end of the nave is an old curious stone font, on the basin and pedestal are several niches, wherein stood the Apostles, &c. as appears by the remains; to this there is an handsome wooden cover with a pelican on the summit vulned, and this date, 1674, and as you ascend the nave on the pavement, lies a large marble gravestone, which had a stately cross floral, with 4 shields and a rim of brass round it, about which was the inscription in French, the letters were of brass, the stone being cut and fitted so as to receive them, all which are now sacriligeously reaved; by the incision, where the stone is not quite worn through, this may be made out —

S'AME. PRIE.----- D E V. D E S'AME. --- M E R C I ---

This seems to be as old as King Edward the First's time, and is probably in memory of Sir Robert de Watlington, who lived in that reign.

About the middle of the nave lies a marble thus inscribed,

Here lie the bodies of Elizabeth and Susan, all the daughters of Thomas and Mary Inglebright, Susan died Janu. 1st. 1702, aged one year, Elizabeth died Sept. 25, 1717, aged 19.—Here lyeth the body of Thomas Inglebright of Watlington, grocer, who died Feb. 2d. 1702, aged 35; also the body of John his only son, who died May 23, 1716.

*To good for earth just God reassumes his own.
And calls her virtues to a heavenly throne.
In his short life, he unto us hath shown.
All the great virtues that mankind could own.*

On the back part of the pulpit, Given by Henry Panting, and augmented by Elizabeth his wife, 1616.—On a large marble stone, at the east end of the nave

Here lyeth the body of William Knipe, Gent: and Elizabeth his wife; he died April 25, 1654, aged 25; she November 29, 1672, aged 44, who had issue Peter and Mary.

And against the wall, at the south-east corner of this nave hangs an achievement, gules, two bars, and in chief, three griffins heads erased, argent, Knipe, (Plate I. fig. 28) and thus inscribed;

Nere this place lyeth interr'd the body of William Knipe, son and heir of Peter Knipe, of Westwinch, in the county of Norfolk, Gent: and Elizabeth his wife daughter of Thomas Cross, of this parish, who departed this life April 25, 1654.

The roof of this nave is supported by several octangular pillars, forming 8 arches, 4 on each side, and the like number of windows over them.—The upper part of the south isle has been some chapel, part of the screen which inclosed it is still remaining, as also the place for the holy water: over this part is a handsome gallery-pew belonging to the lord of the manor, and thereon are the arms of Davis and Gawsell, quarterly impaling Bernars, quarterly, in 1st and 4th, vert, a griffin segreant, argent, Davis; in 2d and 3d barry of six or, and gules, a canton, ermine, Gawsell; impaling quarterly or and vert, Bernars, (Plate I. fig. 29.) Against the north wall of this isle as you ascend to this pew, is a little mural monument, with the effigies of a man in armour, with his wife, on their knees upon cushions; the monument is adorned with 2 fluted columns and a cornish, and the shield of Gawsell as before, impaling argent, on a chevron, between three pellets, two in chief, charged with as many martlets, and one in base, with a trefoil of the 1st, as many mascles or, Pratt, (Plate I. fig. 30.) and this epitaph,

Here lyeth the body of Thomas Gawsill, Esq; who married Susan the 2d daughter of Gregory Pratt, of Ryston, Esq; and had issue six sons and seven daughters, whereof there was two sons and six daughters living at his death, and the said Thomas dy'd the second of January, A. D. 1600.

This monument was erected at the charge of Thomas Wolriche, of Cowling, in Suffolk, Esq. and the above named Susan his wife.—This shield is on the bottom, gules, a chevron argent, between three wild-ducks, volant, proper, Wolriche, impaling Pratt, (Plate I. fig. 31.)

The chancel is of the same materials with the church, and is separated from the nave by a screen; it is in length about 46 feet, and 19 in breadth, is lofty and covered with reed. On the area here, lie several gravestones; at the west end, one with the arms of Davis and Gawcell, quarterly impaling, Berners.

Here lyeth the body of Gregory Davis, Esq; who dyed the 22d day of September 1706, in the 35th year of his age, leaving two sons, Gregory and John.

On the right hand of this lies another with the same arms,

Bridget, the wife of Gregory Davis, Esq; eldest daughter of Hatton Berners, Esq; of St. Mary's Hall, dyed 16, of June 1701, aged 27 years, leaving two sons, Gregory and John.

Dom. 1656, Ætatis suæ 70.*

As you ascend, lies a marble gravestone with this shield, gules, a fess chequered, argent and sable, between six crosses pattée fitché of the second, Boteler, impaling Gawcell, (Plate I. fig. 32.) and on a brass plate,

Requiescunt hoc sub marmore reliquiæ Thomæ Boteler, Armigerj, antiquæ Botelorum familie in comitatu Hertfordiæ oriundj, auspiciatæ contraxit nuptias cum Annâ Gawcell, filia secunda Thomæ Gawcell, Armig. quibus nati fuissent 6 filij et una filia, tandem plus octo et viginti annis cum illâ sanctè, piq; transactis, sitomagj moriturus, sacris hisce penetralibus legavit corpus, suum Jesum ad morandum, an. salutis 1657, Ætatis suæ 67.

Here lyeth the body of Gregory Davis, Esq; eldest son of Gregory Davis, Esq; and Bridget his wife, who dyed the 9th day of July 1710, in the 12th year of his age.

An. Dom. 1656, Ætatis suæ 68.*

A little higher lies a marble stone with this shield, party per chevron, or and azure, in chief, two flower-de-lis, gules, and in base, on five lozenges in fess of the 1st, as many escallops of the 3d, Edgar, impaling Spelman of Narburgh, (Plate I. fig. 33.)

At the east end lie these gravestones, argent, three roses, and a chief, gules, Sparrow, (Plate I. fig. 34.)

Here lyeth the body of Robert Sparrow, Esq; alderman, and twice mayor of the corporation of King's Lynn, one of the sons of Robert Sparrow, B. D. late rector of this church, and of Jane his wife, he departed this life the 13th day of Dec. 1716, aged 75.

King of France, she dyed March 8, 1682, and left two daughters, Magdalen and Elizabeth, Aetatis sue 45.*

*If women all were like to thee,
We men for wives should happy be*

Against the south wall, near the west end, is a small marble mural monument, with the effigies of a clergyman in his gown, as A. M. kneeling on a cushion, in an arch, supported by two pillars of the Ionick order, with their capitals gilt with gold, a desk before him and hands erect, on the summit these arms, per pale, argent and azure, a fess between three flowers-de-lis, counterchanged, Freak, (Plate I. fig. 37.) on the basis

This rectory is valued in the King's books at 14*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* and pays tenths, &c.

W E R M E G A Y.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS, a powerful Norman baron, had the grant of this lordship, on the expulsion of Turchetill, who had large possessions before the conquest; Hermerus takes place in the survey before the abbots, &c. and had manors given him in the following towns;—Marham, Fincham, Barton, Westbrigg, Wallington, Foston, Downham, Stow, Wimbotsham, Riston, Derhum, Fordham, Thorpland, Bexwell, Stradset, and Well, in the hundred of Clackclose;—East-Winch, Tilney, Islington, North-Rungton, West-Winch, Wigenhale, Walton, Geyton, Thorp, and Lynu, (including what he had also seised on, and invaded,) in the hundred of Frebridge;—Ellingham in Shrop-ham hundred; Litcham, Longham and Rougham in Launditch hundred;—Whinburgh, Garveston, Shipdam, Yaxham, North and East Tudenham, Reymerston, Mateshale, Letton, Torvestuna, Bicherston in Milford hundred;—Wreningham in Humbleyard hundred, including, as I have observed, what he had seized on, as the survey sets forth.

In Turchetil's time this lordship consisted of one carucate of land, 8 villains and 2 servi, with 8 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, the 4th part of a mill and 3 fisheries, 3 cows, &c. 4 skeps of bees and a church; the whole valued at 60s. per ann. was 5 furlongs long, and 2 broad, and paid 2d. to a 20s. gelt.

Hermerus had also seized on 4 acres held by 2 freemen, and his predecessor had all customary dues from them.*

Hermerus's descendants, according to the Norman custom, took the name of De Wirmegay, from this lordship, which was the head manor of a barony. The first that I meet with (and probably son of Hermerus) was Richard de Wirmegay, father of William de Wirmegay, who in the 7 or 8th year of Henry II. accounted for 20l. 10s. belonging to his barony, and in the 12th of that King, was found to hold 14 knights fees and a half in capite, also 2 knights fees of the old feoffment, of Hugh Bigot.<sup>5</sup> Soon after this William died,  Ao. 14 Henry II. (as I take it) in which year Reginald de Warren, second son of William 2d. and brother of William 3d. Earls Warren and Surry, accounted for 9l. 10s. for this barony, (and had a good part of his scutage pardoned,) on the marriage of Maud, the King's daughter, to Henry Duke of Saxony. This Reginald married Alice, daughter and heir of William de Wirmegay, in the 14 and 15 of that King; he was a justice itinerant in Norfolk, Suffolk, Surrey, &c. and in the 20th, one that was appointed to levy tallages in the King's demcans of England; and with the consent of Alice his wife, gave to the canons of Southwark the church of Plumpton in Sussex.

Reginald, by Alice, had William de Warren, who paid scutage for this barony in the 31 of Henry II. and in the 14 of Richard I. paid 14*l.* 5*s.* to the King's redemption. In the Register of Bury abbey is an agreement between this William, and Sampson, then abbot, who claimed 65*s.* rent, and 2000 eels, for the mills between Wermegay and Westbrigg, the gift of William's ancestors, who on a grant of lands, here, in Totenhill, &c. released the said rent in the court of Exchequer, before Richard, the King's treasurer, Joceline, archdeacon of Chichester, Hubert Walter, Rt. de Inglesham, Thomas de Hasseburn, &c. barons of the Exchequer, &c.

He married, first Beatrice, and secondly, Millecent, widow of Richard Lord Montfitchet and gave in the 5 of King John, 400 marks for license to marry her, and dying  Ao. 11 of that King, left Beatrice his daughter and heir, by his first wife, and then relict of Donn or Dodo Bardolf, son and heir of Thomas de Bardolf, by Rose his wife, daughter and heir of Ralph Hanseline, lord of Shelford in Nottinghamshire, which Thomas was son of William Bardolf, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk,  Ao. 16 Henry II. The said Beatrice, in the aforesaid year, gave 3000 marks to have her dower of Bardolf's lands, and seizin of her inheritance, and that she might not be distrained to marry again, and that the debts owing to the King from her father, should be paid out of the goods and chattels belonging to her father, and of Milicent his wife, which he died possessed of.* William, her father, was a benefactor to the canons of Southwark, in which he was buried, for the souls of Reginald and Alice, his father and mother, and the souls of Beatrice his wife, and Reginald his son, and Isabel his wife, and Beatrice his daughter. Reginald his son dying before him, s. p.

In the 13th of King John, Beatrice, widow of Dodo Lord Bardolf, was the wife of Hubert de Burgh, the King's lord-chamberlain, and after Earl of Kent, and in the 17th, Hubert held it in right of his wife, lately deceased.

In the 27th of Henry III. William Lord Bardolf, son and heir of Dodo and Beatrice, had livery of his honour, which the Earl of Kent held late for life, and the sheriff had authority to deliver it to him, and in the following year, the grant of a mcreate every Munday, and a fair.

On the marriage of the King's daughter to the Emperor, he answered for 14 knights fees and an half, belonging to his barony; in the 88 of that King, had a grant of free warren, for all the manors belonging to it, and in the 55 it was found that 700 acres of fen, marsh, &c. in this town, Totenhill, &c. belonging to this lord, were drowned by the raising of a causeway. This seems to be now what is called Sechie Causeway, and made about this time.

In the 3d of Edward I. he claimed the lete, assise, weyf, pillory, fairs, trebuchet, and held 15 knights fees and a half in capite, and in the following year died, leaving by Nichola his wife, William his son and heir, who married in his father's life, Juliana, daughter and heir of Hugh de Gourney, a baron of the realm; who bore paly of six, or, and azure; and in the 43d of Henry III. William Bardolph, junior, and Juliana his wife, paid 18*l.* and 2 hogsheads of wine, for debts due to that King, and the manor was extended at his father's death, at 45*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* per ann.

This lord had several summons as a baron to serve that King Ao. 5, and 10, &c. and in the 15th to a parliament at Gloucester, by Edmund Earl of Cornwall, during the King's absence, and died in 1289; Juliana survived him, and on her death, in the 23d of the said King, Hugh was found to be her son and heir aged 40 years.

Hugh Lord Bardolf took to wife Isabella, daughter and heir of Robert Aguilon of Addington in Surry, a parliamentary baron: he was the 22d peer, who subscribed the letter to the Pope in the 29th of Edward I. signifying that the kingdom of Scotland was not of his fee, and that the Pope had no jurisdiction in temporal affairs; on his death, in the 32d of that King, it was found, that he paid 7*s.* monthly for castle guard to the castle of Norwich, and that Thomas was his son and heir, by Isabel, aged 22. Isabel survived him, and in the 6th year of Edward II. released by deed to Sir Michael de Poynings, Knt. and Margery his wife, all her right in the manor of Bures, in Suffolk, dated at Bercamp, in Sussex, on the feast of the annunciation; the seal is of red wax, the impress a cinquefoil, each leaf of it charged with a lis, the cinquefoils being her husband's arms, and gules, a lis argent, her paternal arms.

The Lord Bardolf, son and heir of Hugh, or, as some say, son of William Lord Bardolf, son of Hugh, was created Knight of the Bath, in the 34th of Edward I. with the Prince of Wales; in the 15th of Edward II. &c. had, with Sir John de Thorp, and Sir John Haward, the guard of Norfolk and Suffolk, and of the sea coasts; he married Agnes, daughter of the Lord Grandison, and dying in the 3d of Edward III. was buried in the priory of Shelford in Nottinghamshire, leaving John his son and heir, aged 17, who, in the 10th of that King, married Elizabeth de Burgo, or Burgh, 3d daughter and coheir of Gilbert Earl of Gloucester and Clare, by his wife Joan de Acres, sister of Edward I. called de Burgh, from her first husband, John de Burgo, Lord of Connaught in Ireland.

This John Lord Bardolph, and his lady Elizabeth, appointed John de Lasceles, jun. to deliver, in their name, to the lady Avice, late wife of Sir Robert Constable of Halsham, seisin of the fourth part of the manor of Kirkby under Knolle in Yorkshire, by deed dated at Wirmegay A<sup>o.</sup> 13th of Edward III.; to it are 2 seals, one of the Lord Bardolf, azure, three cinquefoils, or; the other, a large and round seal,—in the centre the arms of Bardolf, in the summit and the base, or, a plain cross, gules, in a bordure, sable, the arms of her first husband, Burgh; on the right side of these, are three shields of arms; 1st, sable, a lion rampant, argent, the arms of Thcobald de Ferdon, her 2d husband; the 2d, or, three chevronells, gules; the arms of her grandfather, Earl of Clare; the 3d, a castle, triple-towered, on the left side is 1st, the said castle, 2d, barry of six, argent and gules, nebuly, a bend over all, azure, the arms of her 3d husband, Roger Damorey, Baron of Armoiy in Ireland; and the 3d Ferdon.

This lady styled herself, in grants made in her widowhood, Elizabeth de Burgh, Lady of Clare, and dying in 1360, was buried in the nunnery of the Minorites, without Atgate.

King Edward III. in his 19th year, sent his writ, witnessed by Lionel his son, then custos of England, to this Lord John, then a banneret, to attend him beyond sea, with all his retinue, and in his 21st year, June 14th, he had a summons to repair immediately to the King, at the siege of Calais, not to stay till his horses were shipped, but to be there before the French raised the siege, which they daily threatened.

Several genealogists make Elizabeth, the wife of this John Lord Bardolf, not to be the daughter of Gilbert Earl of Clare, by Jean of Acres, who married John de Burgo, but to be the daughter and heir of Roger D'Amory, an Irish lord, 3d husband of Elizabeth de Burgo, daughter of the Earl of Clare aforesaid, and what seems to confirm this, is the grant of King Edward II. on December, 1st A<sup>o</sup>. 12 at York, (in the parliament there,) of divers manors, to this Roger and Elizabeth, his wife, and niece to that King, and the heirs of her body, and after his death they went to Elizabeth, daughter of the said Roger, who married John Lord Bardolf; as appears from the eschaets rolls in the 3d of Henry VI. and this Elizabeth died in the 51st of Edward III. 1377.

In 1353, this lord had a grant from Pope Clement, of a portable altar to perform mass at, which, as a curiosity, I have here annexed;<sup>7</sup>

In the 28th of the said King, he was one of those barons of parliament who signed the letters of proxy to Richard Wymundesold, &c.<sup>8</sup> to agree on their parts to what should be accorded before the Pope, between the envoys of England and France, about settling their differences, and in the 33d, he was appointed by the King to meet at Westminster on Sunday next after the feast of St. Martin, to be of counsel to Thomas of Woodstock his son, (Earl of Gloucester), whom the King, being then at Sandwich in Kent, ready to embark for France, had named custos of England. In the 45th of Edward III. on the 3d of August, this John Lord Bardolph died, when it appears that he held the manor of Wyrnegay, a water-mill there and a pool called Le Ley, with the appertenuances, &c. together with the honour of Wyrnegay in capite by barony, paying to Norwich castle yearly 7s.

This William Lord Bardolf married Agnes, daughter of the said Sir Michael, and on the 13th of June, in the 8th of Richard II. was summoned by writ to meet the King, with his horses and arms and whole service, on the 14th of July following, to march into Scotland, against the Scots; he died in the following year, and was buried amongst the Carmelite friars at Lynn, in the quire; his will bears date at Cathorpe in Lincolnshire, the 12th of September, 1384, and on his death, Thomas was found to be his son and heir, aged 17 years; Agnes his wife survived him, and was afterwards married to Sir Thomas Mortimer, Knt. and in the 21st of Richard II. he was found to hold this manor, &c. in her right. Secij. in Baga quo Warr. Com. Nor.

Thomas Lord Bardolf, son of William and Agnes, gave his vote with some other lords, for the safe custody of the late King Richard II. in the 1st of Henry IV.; his wife was Avice or Anne, daughter of Ralph Lord Cromwell of Tatsall in Lincolnshire; being in arms against King Henry IV. in his 9th year, and wounded in an engagement at Bramham-moor in Yorkshire, he was beheaded, and attainted in parliament; he left two daughters and coheirs, Anne and Joan; Anne married first Sir William Clifford, and after Sir Reginald Cobham. Joan was the wife of Sir William Phelip, son of Sir John Phelip of Denyngton in Suffolk, treasurer of the household, and chamberlain to King Henry V. whom he attended in the wars of France, and had the chief conduct of that King's melancholy funeral. Sir William was Knight of the Garter; by his will dated December 1, 1438, he requires to be buried in the chapel of St. Margaret in Denyngton, where he founded a chantry for 2 priests, but by a codicil, orders his body to be buried in the churchyard, and died in the 19th Henry VI.

On the attainder of the aforesaid Thomas Lord Bardolf, A<sup>o</sup>. 9, of Henry IV. May 8, this lordship or barony was granted, with all its knights fees, to Thomas Beaufort, the King's brother, afterwards Duke of Exeter, who dying s. p. in the 5th of Henry VI. the said King, on the petition of Sir William Phelip, and Joan, afterwards gave it by patent to them, and he died Lord Bardolf.

Anne, the other daughter and coheir of Thomas Lord Bardolf, dying without issue A<sup>o</sup>. 32 of the said King, this honour descended to John Viscount Beaumont, who married Elizabeth, only daughter and heir of William Phelips Lord Bardolph, and Joan his wife, whose arms were, quarterly, gules and argent, in the first quarter, an eagle displayed, or.

This John Lord Beaumont was the first Viscount in England, and in great favour with the King, and for his continued services had many privileges allowed him in this town, &c. with the grant of a capital messuage in St. Bennet's Paul's wharf, (Thames-street, London;) called New Inn, in the 27th of Henry VI.; and in the following year created (June the 8th) lord great chamberlain; but at the battle at Northampton on July 9, A<sup>o</sup>. 38, was slain, leaving William his son and heir, who married first Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Richard Scroop, brother to the Lord Scroop of Bolton in Yorkshire, and after her death, Joan, daughter of Humphrey Stafford Duke of Buckingham, and being engaged in the same royal cause as his father, was taken prisoner at the bloody battle of Towton in 1460, but making an escape on the 14th of November in the 1st of Edward IV. was attainted, and this manor was granted, in the 5th of this King, to John Nevill Marquis Montacute, who being slain in the battle of Barnet, it was given to Anthony Woodvill, the Queen's brother, who possessed it, till he was beheaded at Pomfret castle.

William Lord Beaumont abovementioned, on the accession of Henry VII. to the crown, was restored in blood, and on December 11, 1495, John de Vere Earl of Oxford had a grant, by letters patents, of the custody of the person of this Lord, honours, manors, &c. during his life.

This William Viscount Beaumont, Lord Comyn, Bardolph, Phelip, and Eppingham, (as he is styled,) died December 20, 1507, sans issue, and lies buried under a noble monument at the east end of the chancel of Wyvenho in Essex, with his effigies in armour, where also his second lady, who remarried the Earl of Oxford, was interred on her death, June 16, 1537,<sup>2</sup> when this manor came to the Crown.

King Henry VIII. on July 3, in his 32d year, conveyed to John Dethick, Esq. many pastures, marshes, and lands, with foldage, in the tenure of John Fincham, and a fishery in the water of Eye, in the tenure of the prior of Pentney; by which it appears that the river here was called the Eye, and not the Nar. The said King, in his 36th year, May 5, grants to him, the park of Wormegay, lands called the Hall-yard, with the myll, part of the said manor, and in the following year license from him to alienate the site of the manor called the Hall-yard, the Hall-croft, and the Hall-fen, to Bartholomew Plumstede and his heirs.

On an inquisition taken a Norwich, September 10, A<sup>o</sup>. 8 of Elizabeth, Edmund Dethick, son of John Dethick and Ann his wife, was found to die April 6, 1565, seized of a capital messuage, park and lands held of the King in capite, by the 20th part of a knight's fee; a messuage called le House at the Oak, with lands and marshes held by the 40th part of a fee; and Christopher was his son and heir, by Elizabeth his wife.

In the 15th of Elizabeth, B. Plumsted alienated the site of the manor, &c. to Richard Wilcocks and William Guybon, but the manor was in the Crown, till King Edward VI. granted it, November 16, A<sup>o</sup>. 5, to John Duke of Northumberland, who had license to alienate it to Thomas Myldmay, Esq. whose son, Sir Thomas, was lord in the 9th of Elizabeth, and conveyed it, in the 23d of that Queen, to Francis Gawdy, afterwards chief justice of the Common Pleas, and so came to Sir Robert Rich, who conveyed it to Sir John Peyton, in which family it was in the 18th of King James I. After this it was purchased by Dr. John Warner, who died Bishop of Rochester in 1666, and was settled by his trustees to pay certain annuities to 20 poor widows of the clergy in his hospital at Bromley, &c. John Lee Warner, D. D. archdeacon of Rochester, son of Thomas Lee of London, Gent. by Anne his wife, sister to the Bishop, was his heir, and lord in 1630, and in that family it continues, Henry Lee Warner being the present lord.

Here is a good decoy belonging to this manor.

The tenths were 4*l.* 12*s.*—Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*—The lete is in the lord of the hundred, fee with Totenhill 2*s.*

John Fincham, &c. in the 16th of Richard II. aliened to the prior of Ely a messuage, 27 acres and one rood of land, 3 acres, &c. of meadow, and 6 of pasture, with liberty of a foldage here, in Foston, and Garboisthorp, and lands in Fincham, Wyrham, and Shouldham.<sup>3</sup>

THE PRIORY.

In this town was a priory founded by William de Warren, in the reign of Richard I. who died in the 11th of King John, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, the Holy Cross, and St. John the Evangelist, for canons of the order of St. Augustin. No remains of it are visible at this time ; it was in a close, opposite to the castle of Wirmegay, on the left hand, as you enter into the town ; the priory being on the north side, the castle on the south.

PRIORS.

Ralph occurs prior Ao. 18 Henry III.

1300, John de Boylound canon of Wyrmyngey, was admitted prior ; presented by Hugh Lord Bardolph,<sup>5</sup>

1302, Nicholas de Elme, elected by the convent, but admitted by the Bishop by lapse.

1315, Robert de Craneworthe, canon, &c. admitted.

1330, John de Cauntely, canon, admitted on the death of Crane-worthe.

1349 Simon de Leverington, on the death of Cunteley.

Michael de Thornham.

1370 Robert de Fordham, or the resignation of Michael de Thornham.

1383, Hugo de Fincham canon of Wyrmegey, on the death of Fordham appointed by the Bishop of Norwich, the election of the convent being set aside, as insufficient.

1416, Hugo Watlyngton.

1447, Robert Walsyngham, canon of St. Mary, Westacre, on the death of Watlyngton, 1461, John Methelwold on the resignation of Walsyngham ; this convent then granting license to the Bishop of Norwich to present, and pleading great poverty ; and in the year 1468, this priory was annexed, with all its members and appertences to that of Pentney, an adjoining priory.

John Nevil Earl of Northumberland, and his Countess, giving their consent, to which Earl King Edward IV. (on the attainder of William Lord Viscount Beaumont, lord of this manor and patron of this priory, as heir to the Lords Bardolph,) had granted this manor, &c. the convent of Pentney engaging to pray (as that of Wirmegay had done) for ever, for the soul of this Earl, &c. patrons of this priory.—On the dissolution of Pentney priory, the lands, &c. of that house, came to the Crown, and amongst them, those which belonged formerly to this priory ; and in the 29 of Henry VIII. the site of this priory, with the house, garden, &c. meadows, and pastures belonging to it were leased out February 14, in the said year, to Thomas Earl of Rutland, by the court of augmentations, &c. for 21 years, and were farmed under the said Earl by John Dethick, for 21l. per ann. King Edward VI. in his 4th year, 11 of April, gave the site of this priory of Wirmegay, and manor, together with the rectory, which was appropriated thereto, to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich,<sup>6</sup> but Edmund Scambler, who was made Bishop of Norwich, in the 27 of Elizabeth, and doing, as Sir

Henry Spelman observes,<sup>7</sup> as much as well he might to impoverish his church, made a lease of most of the manors and lauds thereof, and amongst them of the lands belonging to this priory of Wirmegay, and the nunnery of Blackburgh adjoining, to Queen Elizabeth for 80 years, at the lowest rent he might, which Bishop Godwin, in like cases, termeth sacrilege; after this it came to the see of Norwich again.

The temporalities of the prior of Wirmegay, in the said town, were, in 1428, taxed at 6*l.* 9*s.* his spiritualities for the church of Wirmegay at the said time, taxed at 6 marks and an half, Peter-pence, 8*d.*

The sum of the spiritualities of the said prior amounted then to 19*l.* excepting the rectory of East Tudenham in Norfolk.

The sum of the temporalities of the said prior, to 37*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

At the Dissolution, this priory annexed to (and together with) Pentney, was valued, as Speed, at 205*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.* the clear value 170*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.*<sup>1</sup> as Dugdale.

Roger Cuspell gave to the prior and convent here, the manor of Derham Cuspel in the reign of Edward III. which was confirmed to them by the Lords Bardolph, of whom it was held. Gilbert Hethill, in the said reign, gave to this prior, a messuage, 40 acres of land, 5 of pasture, and 5*s.* rent in Fordham and Riston.<sup>2</sup>

John de Houlton, 9 of Edward III. gave a manor in West Derham.

John de Cantele, the prior &c. held 5 acres of land in Seche, of the manor of Hogh, in the 12 of Edward III.<sup>3</sup>

In the 16 of Richard II. John Davy and others aliened to the prior of Wirmegey, of Holy Cross and the blessed Mary in Wirmegey,<sup>4</sup> 17 acres of land and 13 acres of meadow in Totenhill, Westwynch, East-Tudenham and Sechithe Magna, together with tenements in Wyrrham, Tofts, Wyrmegeye and Fordham.

The prior and convent held lands at Thorp in Suffolk, and were taxed for them (temp. Edward III.) at 20*s.* 10*d.* also lands then at Stow Langtoft, Suffolk, taxed at 3*s.* 4*d.* and for their temporalities at Westwinch in Norfolk in 1428, at 6*l.* 5*s.*

These churches following were in this house:

Wermegay, appropriated to it (as I conceive) on the foundation of the priory.

East-Tudenham in Norfolk, granted  Ao. 15 King John, and appropriated to them in the year 1339;<sup>2</sup> here was a vicarage then, settled in the patronage of the said priory.

A mediety of the church of Fordham in Norfolk, to which they presented in 1306;<sup>3</sup> this was appropriated to them the last day of February, 1346.

Westbrigg and Totenhill in Norfolk, appropriated to this priory 18 July, 1416, given them by Thomas Beaufort Earl of Dorset on condition they supply it by one of their canons, or to find a sufficient chaplain.

A modern author calls this a cell to Pentney; and Stephens says that neither the Monasticon nor any other that he hath met with, gives us the least account of this monastery, whose name he only met with in Sir Henry Spelman's History of Sacrilege.*

The CHURCH of Wirmegey is dedicated to St. Michael, as appears from the will of John Martyn, dated 16 December, 1488.<sup>5</sup> It is an ancient single building, of ear-stone, flint, &c. covered with reed; at the west end of the nave is an ancient font; on the basons are 9 shields, now defaced; at the end of the south wall near to the screen, has been an altar; the bason for the holy water is still remaining. The tower, at the west end of the nave, is chiefly of ear-stone, in which hangs one bell; the chancel is divided from the nave by a wooden screen, and is covered with Holland gutter-tiles.

This church stands near a mile east of the present village, (which is now a very mean one) in the fields by itself. It was (as has been observed) appropriated to the priory, and afterwards to that of Pentney on the union of the two priories; at the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and was given by King Edward VI. in his 4th year, to the Bishop of Norwich and his successors for ever, and is leased out at this time by the said Bishop.

In 1603, we find, from the account of Robert Geyton, then curate, that there were 107 communicants;<sup>6</sup> and the stipend was 6l. per ann. but Bishop Reynolds, upon the renewal of the lease of the impropriate rectory,<sup>7</sup> expressly reserved an augmentation for the curate of 20l. per ann.

In the 13th of Queen Elizabeth, 40s. per ann. was paid to the serving curate here, out of the lands belonging to the priory of Pentney, by the Queen's receiver general, from the augmentation office, and is said to be a perpetual grant.

Wermegay is environed with water and low grounds, fens and marshes; the chief and most safe entrance, is by a causey on the west side, where on the right hand, stood formerly a castle. Here the Bardolfs lived and resided at times, being the head, or site of the barony of Wermegay. Wire is the name of a river in Lancashire; hence Werhale in Cheshire, Werlingham in Suffolk, Surrey, and Wermelai, now called Wormley, in Hertfordshire, also Wermenhala, now Wormhale, in Bucks.

WIREHAM, OR WEREHAM,

IN the book of Domesday, called Wigreham, taking its name from a stream or run of water, issuing out of a pond in the midst of the town. In the reign of the Confessor, Toh was lord, who being deprived at the conquest, King William granted it to Rainold, son of Ico, one of his Norman adventurers, with many other lordships in this county; when Toli was lord, there were 2 carucates of land, 15 villains, 8 bordars, and 6 servi, with 20 acres of meadow, and pannage for 12 swine, two carucates in demean, with one and an half among the tenants, the moiety of a mill and a fishery, one runcus, 28 mares with 25 foals, 2 cows, &c. 90 sheep, at the survey, 260, valued at 100s. It was half a leuca long, and the same in breadth, (and paid six pence half penny to a 20s. gelt;) it had paid 8*l.* with all customary dues, and 4 freemen belonged to it with 12 acres.<sup>8</sup>

The great possessions of Rainold, came to the noble family of the Earls of Clare, who were the capital lords of the town.

CAVENHAM MANOR.

Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex held it in the reign of King John, of the Earl of Clare, and on his founding the priory of Shouldham, gave a moiety of this town to the said priory; in the 33d of Henry III. the prior had a charter for free warren; by an old parchment roll, sans date, it appears that he had a moiety of the town, with several free tenants, villains, &c. held by the fourth part of a fee of the honour of Clare, one carucate of arable land, 10 acres of wood, free bull and boar, was patron of the church, which was appropriated to the priory, with 5 acres of glebe land; had the amercements of brewers and bakers in his homage, and owed once a year, suit of court at Clare. He had also 3 carucates of arable land, 10 of meadow, in pure alms, and freely of the gift of the aforesaid Jeffrey, with free tenants and villains, &c. and there belonged to him 2 windmills, the moiety of a water-mill, also a messuage, with 30 acres of arable land, formerly of the fee of William Say, who held in capite.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to have the lete, a gal-lows, &c. After the Dissolution, it was granted, March 2, in the 50th of Henry VIII. to Sir Edmund Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, knight, and Grace his wife, by the name of the manor and grange of Cavenham, with the great tithes of Wereham and Stoke, to be held by the 40th part of a fee, and the payment of 3*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.* rent per ann. and in this family it remained till about the year 1718, when Sir Henry Bedingfeld conveyed it to Edward Nightingale, Esq. of Kneesworth in Cambridgeshire, and Edward Nightingale, Esq. his grandson, is the present lord.

Cavenham grange is about a mile north-east of the town of Wereham, and in the said parish; in 1570, the rent of assize of the free tenants, was 4*l.* 4*s.* 10*d.* of the customary ones, 10*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.* ob. q.

The temporalities of the priory of Shouldham, in 1428, for this manor here, and extending into Stoke and Wretton, were 32*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.* ob.

WEREHAM-HALL MANOR,

Was anciently in separate tenures. In the 20th of Henry III. Robert Bardolf and Thomas Rede, held the fourth part of a fee, of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare: Robert married Avice, (or, as some say, Lora,) daughter and heir of John de Lound, son and heir of Anschm de Lound, lord of this manor, and by Avice, daughter and heir of Bardolf, it came by marriage to Sir Ingelram Belet, knight of the bath, who died in the reign of Edward I. and it descended to Robert his son.

In the 31 of that King, John de Bures and Clementia his wife, Ralph de Alemania, and Ann his wife, conveyed lands by fine in this town, Crimplisham, Stoke, West Derham, Boketon, &c. to Robert Bardolf.

William, son of Theodore de Wyrham, passed by fine, messuages and lands in the said towns, &c. in the 7th of Edward II. to John of the Hall at Frenge, and Mary his wife, and in the following year, Robert Belet was found to die seized of a fee and an half held of the honour of Clare, in the said towns, &c. This William was probably descended from Walter, and Ralph de Wyrham, who had a lordship in Henry the Third's time. In the 15 of Edward I. Robert de Long was lord.

In the 23 of Edward III. John de Bensted, and Maud his wife, conveyed a moiety of this manor to John de Wesenham, and in the 31st Ralph de Hinton, and Beatrix his wife, sold to Richard Tooth 2 messuages, 100 acres of land, 16 of meadow, with 7s. rent per ann. in this town and Stoke, from the heirs of Beatrix.

Sir Richard Walkfare held it in the 40th year of the said reign, for life, as part of the inheritance of John de Denham, son and heir of Avice Walkfare, daughter, probably, and heir of Belet, married, first to Denham's father, and in the 50th of that King, this part was conveyed on Wednesday after the feast of St. Faith, by the trustees of John de Denham, to Richard Tooth and Mary his wife, together with the manor of Wyrton Hall in Wretton, &c. and before this, John de Denham and Maud his wife, granted in the 44 year, to Robert de Fransham, clerk, &c. in trust, a moiety of this lordship.

From Tooth it came to Roger Davy, and Alice his wife, and from them (as in Boughton Overhall manor) to Sir Lewes Orrell, who with Elizabeth his mother, convey this lordship with that of Wyrton Hall, to Sir Thomas Lovell, Knt. of the Garter; and in or about 1615, Sir Francis Lovell of East-Herling, conveyed it to Sir Thomas Derham: from that family it came to Stephen Edgar, Gent. of Watlington in 1652; his son Thomas, sold it to Benjamin Dethick, Esq. in 1682, whose son, John Dethick, Esq. conveyed the manor and demean lands in 1751, (but not the hall) to John Heaton, Esq. of London.

The family of Dethick was originally of Dethick-Hall in the hundred of Winksworth in Derbysire.

WYRUN-HALL

Stood in a close at the eastern part of Werham, on the west side of the lane that leads to Wretton, commonly called Stoneaks Close, but more probably Stokes-Close; it takes its name from a run or stream of water, here arising, and the manor extends into Wretton and Stoke. In the 16 Henry III. Stephen de Stokes and Basilis his wife held it, and granted, by fine, the advowson of the church of Wretton, to Angerius, abbot of West Derham, who had a moiety only, as it seems. Warine Goseman and his barons, held also, about the same time, another moiety: Stokes held his by a quarter of a fee, and Goseman his, by the 40 part of a fee, the capital lord being the Earl of Gloucester and Clare: John de Stokes, son of Roger de Stokes, held it in the reign of Henry III. of Peter de Narford, and he of the honour of Clare, by a quarter of a fee.

In the 15 of Edward II. Robert de Sale had an interest herein, and in the 8 of Edward III. Walter, parson of Dodington, as trustee, granted by fine, to Nicholas Gamage, and Alianore his wife, a moiety of this manor, which Guy de St. Clare. and Margery his wife, held in dower.

John Fynn, in the 20 of Edward III. was lord of the part which John de Stokes formerly held, and paid 4s. towards the making that King's eldest son a knight: in the 24 of the said King, John Bray, and Catharine his wife, daughter of John Fynn, and Christian, sister of Catharine, passed it, by fine, to John de Wesenham, citizen of London; after this, the trustees of John de Denham, &c. convey it to Richard Tooth, of Wygham, and Mary his wife; from Tooth it came to Darcy, &c. (as in Wercham Hall) and John Heaton, Esq. is the present lord.

The tenths were 6l. 16s. deducted 1l. 10s.

The Church is dedicated to St. Margaret, has a nave that is came-3d, by whom, and by his first wife, he had no issue surviving; he died at Tottenham in Middlesex, where he had a country-seat, in 1671, and was buried in the church of St. Andrew, Undershaft, London.—Smallpiece bore, sable, a chevron between three cinquefoils, argent; Travers, argent, a saltire between four butterflies, sable.—Sir John had by Martha, two daughters, Elizabeth, married to Sn John Banks, and Susan to Edward Rudge of London, merchant.

eated, plaistered, and covered with reed, with a south isle covered with and, a four-square low tower, with 4 pinnacles of free stone, and one bell; it is about 40 feet long and 40 broad; at the west end of the nave lie several gravestones in memory of the Adamsons; and at the east end, 2 gravestones, on which have been the effigies, on brass plates, of persons in their winding sheets, now reaved; at the east end of the south isle, is a mural monument of marble, &c. with the arms of Adamson, argent, three cross crosslets, fitchée, gules, impaling Clark, or, a bend ingrailed, vert.

In a vault, near this place, lies interred the body of Christopher Adamson, of this parish, gent. who died September 25, 1744, aged 71 years.

“ In the same vault lies the body of Martha, the wife of John Heaton of London, gent. and daughter of the above-named Christopher Adamson, and Martha his wife, who died 15 December, 1743, aged 33, years. — In the same vault lies also the body of Susannah Adamson; the daughter of Mr. John Crutchfield, citizen of London, and Susannah his wife, and wife of Benjamin Adamson, one of the sons of the above-mentioned Christopher Adamson, and Martha his wife, who died March 25, 1742, aged 27 years.”

On this are also the arms of Heaton, argent, on a bend ingrailed, sable, three bucks head caboshed, of the first impaling Adamson; and Adamson impaling, azure, a cross cheque gules and or, between four plates, Crutchfield.

The chancel is about 26 feet long, and 17 broad, covered with lead; on the pavement lies a stone in memory of John D'Artigues, late of this church, who died in 1744.

The rectory, with the manse and 4 acres of land, were valued at marks. Peter-pence, 13*d*.

Gilbert Earl of Clare, lord of this town, gave the tithe of his decessan lands in the reign of King Stephen to the priory of Clare in Suffolk; this portion was valued in 1428, at 40*s. per ann.*<sup>4</sup> Jeffrey Fitz-Piers, lord, on his founding the priory of Shouldham, gave the advowson of the church (then a rectory) to the said priory, which being also at that time appropriated thereto, became a curacy, served by a canon of that convent. On the Dissolution, the great tithes were granted, with the manor of Cavenham, to Sir Edmund Bedingfield of Oxburgh, from which family they passed to Edward Nightingale, Esq. as is above observed. The small tithes continued in the Crown, till granted September 14, in the 18th of Elizabeth, to Adam Bland, &c. whose son conveyed his right to Francis Mundeford, Esq. in the reign of King James I. 43 communicants were returned to be in the parish. Lionel Life held these vicarial tithes in the reign of King William III. after him, Mr. Warren, who conveyed them to Roger Prat, Esq. of Riston, who names the curate.

William de Say, and Beatrix his wife, father and mother of Beatrix, wife of Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, in whose right he was lord of this town, gave lands here, to Castleacre priory, and the rent of 5*s.* out of a mill; Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the said priory, the 3*d* part of the tithes of Arnold de Meysey, and Philip Engleys in

In the 16th of Richard II. John Davy aliened lands and a messuage to the priory of Wirmegey, and John Fincham, lands to the prior of Ely.

William Wigenhale, in the 6 of Edward II. aliened 300 acres of land with a messuage to Shouldham priory; and in 1428, the spiritualities of the abbot of Westminster, were valued at 13*s.* 4*d.*

In the church was the guild of St. Margaret, and by the town pond is a well dedicated to that saint. Wi or Wye, is a British word, signifying water; in Wales, and in Derbyshire, &c. are rivers of that name, also a considerable town in Kent.

THE PRIORY AND MANOR OF WINWALOE.

It was founded by the family of the Earls of Clare, and stood about a mile north-east of Wereham town. He was a British saint, and flourished about the year 550, an abbot, and canonized.<sup>6</sup> The first account I meet with of it, is in the 7th year of King John, when the Earls of Clare and Gloucester were found to hold a court here, (apud Scu' Wynewalam,) and in the reign of King Henry III. Margaret de Strageset, daughter of Rober de Strageset, gave (as appears) and released to West Derham abbey, all the lands which were her father's, lying in the fields surrounding the church of St. Winwaloch, computing on the common of Werham? it was a cell to the abbey of Monnstroll, or Musterol in the diocese of Amiens, in France, of the order of St. Bennet: the patronage of this cell was in the Earls of Clare; and the prior, about this time, held 60 acres of land here, in pure alms, of the gift of the Earls of Gloucester and Clare.

The Earls of Clare had a prison in their lordship here, for the honour of Clare; many actions and suits were here tried, and was looked on as a grievance; and the jury in the 3d of Edward I. presented it, being to the prejudice of the King, and county of Norfolk. The abbot and convent of Mustrol sold and conveyed it, in 1321, to Hugh Scarlet of Lincoln, and he conveyed it to the Lady Elizabeth de Burgo.

King Edward III. granted license April 9, Ao. 10, to the Lady Elizabeth de Burgo, sister and coheir of Gilbert Earl of Clare, to give and assign 7 messuages, 112 acres of land, 8 of meadow, 10 of pasture, with 10*s.* 8*d.* $\frac{1}{2}$  rent, in Wyrham, Boketon, Stoke, West Derham, Berton, and Narford, the fair of St. Wynewale, in Norfolk, to the abbot and convent of West Derham, to find a chaplain to celebrate divine service in the chapel of Winwaloe, for the soul of Gilbert Earl of Clare, and the souls of Elizabeth, and her ancestors, daily, for ever.<sup>8</sup> The deed of the said Elizabeth bears date on Sunday before the feast of St. Gregory the Martyr, in the said year; witnessed by Sir John Bardolf, Sir Robert de Scales, Sir John Howard, Robert de Well, Peter Talbot, Peter de Wells, and Robert de Dersingham.

Edmund de Mortimer Earl of March, &c. confirmed the said grant, with this proviso, that the chaplain aforesaid be a secular chaplain, and not a regular, and that the service in the abbey of West Derham be still continued, and not set aside on account of this service in the chantry of the chapel of St. Winwaloe, for the souls of Gilbert, &c. dated Mo 45. Edward III. John Lynge, abbot of West Derham, kept a court here, in the 17 of Henry VI. and 2d of Edward IV.

At the general dissolution of religious houses, it came to the Crown, and on 13 of September, in the 4 and 5 Philip and Mary, was granted with all its appertinances to Thomas Guybon, Esq. and William Mynn, to be held in free soccage of the honour of East Greenwich. William Guybon, Gent. conveyed it in the 9th of Elizabeth, to Francis Mundeſford, Esq. of Werham. Thomas Methwold of Thomson-College, Gent. sold it, in 1633, to Sir John Hare, who kept a court here, in the said year, and Sir George Hare, Bart. his immediate heir, died lord.

What remains of this ancient priory is a building chiefly of free stone, about 35 feet long, and 30 broad, and from its site (standing east and west) seems to be the old chapel; in a writing about 1570, I find it wrote Wynhold Capella; it is now a farm-house, and here is annually a fair kept on the 3d of March, St. Winwaloe's day, of note for the sale of many horses, cows, &c. and this being generally a cold, and coarse season of the year, the storms at this time are commonly called Whinwall-storms, and this old rhyme becomes frequently quoted in the neighbourhood :

*First comes David, next comes Chad,
Then comes Whinwall, as if he was mad.*

The temporalities of West Derham, with this priory, in Wyrham Wretton and Stoke, were valued at 7*l.* 2*s.* 8*d.* for lands and a mill &c. in 1428.

A little to the west of the church of Wyrham, is a well called St. Margaret's Well; in time of popery, on the day of that Saint, people diverted themselves with cakes and ale, musick and dancing; alms and offerings were brought, and vows made at such like sainted wells, and called, well-worship

W R E T T O N,

OR Wireton, from a stream of water running through it. This town is not mentioned in the book of Domesday, being accounted for under the manor or Cavenham; Wyron-Hall, &c. in Werham, which were in, and had their site in Werham, and there being no capital lordship that had its site in this town, is the cause of that omission.

In the 24 of Henry III. there was a suit carried on by the prior of Shouldham, whose manor of Cavenham extended therein, the prior claiming merchettam (for a marriage) from William de la Lerte of this town, who proving himself a freeman, and no villain, was acquitted. Merchetta was the fine of a mark, paid to be free from a savage custom in many manors, for the lord to lie the first night with the bride of his tenant. The lord of Cavenham, and the lord of Wyron-Hall and Werham-Hall, are lords here.

The tenths of this town, and of Stoke Ferry, were 5*l.* 11*s.*—Deducted 11*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, has a nave and a south isle, the nave covered with reed, and is about 54 feet long, the isle with lead, and together are about 28 feet broad; at the west end of the nave is a low four-square tower, and a small shaft; herein are 2 bells, on one, Hæc sit Sanctorum Campan'la Laude Bonorum; on the other, Celi Regina - - - - - Semper sis Medicina.

At the east end of the south isle, lies a marble grave-stone, with part of a brass plate,

Orate p. a'ia. Johs, Bl. - - -

The chancel is about 25 feet long, and 17 broad, covered with reed; against the east wall, a large pedestal of stone, for imago principalis.

A moiety of the patronage of this church was in the lord of Wyrn-Hall, and given by Peter de Narford, by deed, sans date, to West Derham abbey; the other moiety was granted to the said abbey, by Gilbert Buxi of Boketon, (Boughton), and Hugh Buxi, and appropriated to the convent by Simon de Wanton Bishop of Norwich, in his sixth year, 1263; the last rector was Roger de Holkham.

On this appropriation, it was served by one of the canons of that abbey; on the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and was granted with the rectory-house and glebe lands, &c. September 14, ao. 18 Elizabeth, to Adam Bland. In the reign of Edward I. here was a rectory-house, and 10 acres of glebe. From Bland it came to Mundeford, Lise, and Warren, and so to Roger Prat, Esq. the present impropiator, who by settling certain lands on this church, and that of Werham, has procured Queen Ann's bounty, so that both these curacies are now, together, worth 70*l.* per ann. and he is patron.

The spiritualities of West Derham, for this church, were 6 marks per ann.

Nicholas Lovel, Esq. of Wrotton, buried in this church, 1453. Richard Cowell, buried in the churchyard, 1515, gives legacies to the guilds of our Lady, Trinity, St. James, and St. John's.

Mrs. Forby, widow, about 1710, gave in land 4*l.* 10*s.* per ann. for the poor; and there is other land for the said use, of 1*l.* 6*s.* per ann. also 5*s.* per ann.

The learned Roger Gale, Esq. concludes, that as there are an infinite number of ancient villages, whose names are not mentioned in the book of Domesday, "That only those are mentioned who held either of the King, or of the church, who also held of the King in capite; and that those lands which were held by the English, who were not in arms, or by their council acted against King William, were not accounted for, or assessed in that book."<sup>9</sup>

But, I take this not to be the real case, those townships which are not mentioned, or accounted for in the aforesaid survey, stand charged in some manor, held of the King, or other lord, in some adjoining town, and so extending into these towns that are not mentioned. As for example; this township of Wretton, having the site of no manor in it, is not mentioned, but stands charged and assessed, under the manors of Werham-Hall, and Wiron-Hall, the site of both these lordships being in Werham, and also under Catenham manor, in Wirham. It is certain, that all lands, both of the laity and clergy, were at the survey held of the King, directly in capite: and no land whatever, or township, was excepted, from the account then taken; and from the assessment then made, all were held under the Conqueror by military services, agreeable to its quantity, and quality: and since those towns that are not mentioned in Domesday, (nor having any manor in them,) are yet accounted for in the towns where their manors stood, and there assessed: it would have been improper to repeat, and charge again, what had been so properly and justly accounted for, where their site was.

WESTBRIGGS.

THIS little, and now almost depopulated, village adjoins to Wirme-gay; in the survey it was wrote Westbruge. Turchetill was lord in the Confessor's time, but the Conqueror gave it to Hermerus de Ferrers. Turchetill had two carucates of land; there were always 9 villains and 7 bordarers, and 4 servi, with 2 carucates in demesne, and half a carucate amongst the tenants, 6 acres of meadow, and half an acre of wood, with one mill, &c. In the Confessor's time, there were 2 beasts of burden, at the survey, one; then 10 cows, at the survey 13; always paunage for 6 hogs, one church with 3 acres of land, then 120 sheep, at the survey 60: it was always valued at 60s. This village is 5 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and pays 2*d.* to the gelt, when the hundred is assessed at 20s.<sup>1</sup> Under the invasions of Hermerus, we find that in Westbruge, he had seized on three freemen, who had half a carucate, valued at 5s. of these his predecessors had only the protection; and St. Benedict (of Ramsey) had the soc; also in the same village, on 3 freemen, who were under protection, the soc, and foldage of the lord, with 10 acres, valued at 9s.<sup>2</sup>

This town, after the said Hermerus, was held by William de Wirme-gay, Reginald de Warren, and the Lords Bardolfs, or whom see in

Wirmegay, of which barony it was a member. In the 38 of Henry III. William Lord Bardolph had a grant of free warren here, &c. and in Wormegay. On the attainder of Thomas Lord Bardolph, King Henry IV. in his 9th year, gave it, with the barony of Wirmegay to Thomas Beaufort, his brother; after the death of this Thomas (Duke of Exeter) it descended, as is related in Wirmegay; when on the death of William Viscount Beaumont, who died sans issue, and his lady, it came to the Crown, and King Edward VI. gave it in his first year to John Dudley Duke of Northumberland, who in the 6th year of the said King, had license to alienate it to Thomas Mildmay and to his heirs; his son Thomas was lord, 9 Elizabeth, and sold it ao. 23 of the said Queen, to Francis Gawdy, Esq. afterwards lord chief justice of the Common Pleas.

In the 16th of Elizabeth, concealed lands and tenements in the tenure of H. Patrick, W. Butts, I. Drake, and William Portler, in this town, Seche, Row, Totenhill, Foston, and Shouldham Thorp, were granted to Ed. Dyer, and H. Cressiner.<sup>3</sup>

The CHURCH of Westbriggs is dedicated to St. Botolph; it is a small edifice, with a nave and chancel; the nave is covered with lead, the chancel with tile; at the west end of the nave is a little four-square tower of rag-stone, &c. embattled with free-stone, a shaft covered with lead, but here is no bell; over the door, on the south side, as you enter the church, is a cross like that of a Knight Templar. In the chancel, on the pavement, within the communion rails, lies a marble grave-stone, with this shield; (Plate I. Fig. 44.) ermine, on a chief, sable, a ducal coronet, or, between two escallops, argent, Taylor, impaling, or, a fess, cheque, azure and argent, Stewart, quartering, in the 2d quarter, vert, three boars heads couped, argent, Burley, in the 3d argent, a lion rampant, sable, on his shoulder a mullet, of the first, Walkfar; and in the 4th quarter, Stuart, as in the first; over all, in an escutcheon of pretence, argent, a lion rampant, gules, bruised with a staff regulé, or, Stuart.

In memory of Mary, wife of Samuel Taylor, Esq. of King's Lynn, the youngest daughter of Sir Robert and Dame Elizabeth Steward, mother of eleven children, four of them died before her, and are buried in St. Margaret's church, King's Lynn; Sarah, the youngest, living but 5 days was buried with her in this grave, she died 11 March, 1709, in the 40 year of her age.

Adjoining to this, lies another marble grave-stone, with the quartered coat of Steward, as before, in a lozenge, and Elizabetha, xiri ornatissimi Roberti Stuarti, equitis aurati, dotaria, et antiquissimâ et clarissimâ Stuartarum prosapia, stirpe verè regîâ, Insula Eliensi oriunda, obt. 19 Nov. An. Salut. 1692.

On the right side of this, another marble grave-stone with the quartered coat of Stuart in a lozenge,

In memory of Sarah, eldest daughter of Sir Robert, and Dame Elizabeth Steward, who died September 23, 1710, aged 58 years.

Another,

In memory of Edward Miller, steward to the Lady Steward, 45 years, who died 12 November, 1715

On the pavement of the said chancel, lie also two marble grave-stones; one thus inscribed:

On the 18th of July 1416, this church was appropriated to the priory of the Holy Cross and St. Mary of Wirmegay, on the gift of Thomas Earl of Dorchester, on condition they supply the cure by one of their canons, or find a sufficient chaplain; and a yearly pension of 20*d.* was paid by the prior, &c. out of it, to the prior, &c. of Norwich. In 1468, when the priory of Wirmegay was united to the priory of Pentney, on account of the fires, inundations, wars, pestilences, poverty of the land, and repairs of the banks, this church, as part of the possessions of the priory of Wirmegay, came to that of Pentney, and a pension of 10*s.* per ann. was granted to the Bishop of Norwich. On the dissolution of Pentney, this rectory came to the Crown, and so continued till the reign of Queen Elizabeth, when it was granted to the Bishop of Ely and his successors, on an exchange of lands, &c. between that Queen and the see of Ely, of which see in Stanford, and is held of the said Bishop by leave; Andrew Taylor, Esq. of Beachamwell, being the late impropriator.

WIMBOTSHAM.

AT the general survey called Winebotesham and Winebodesham, from its site, a dwelling by the water.<sup>6</sup>

ABBOT OF RAMSEY'S MANOR.

King Edgar gave this manor, with one in Downham, into which it extended, to this abbey;<sup>7</sup> in the Conqueror's time it consisted of 2 carucates of land, to which there belonged 13 borderers, 2 carucates also in domain, &c. valued at 4*l.* per ann. but at the survey at 3*l.*<sup>8</sup>

In the 35th of Henry III. the abbot had a charter for free warren in all his demesne lands. At this town the gaol for the hundred of Clacklose, which belonged to the abbot as lord of the hundred, was kept; and in 1258, William Brito, one of the King's judges, held by the King's writ a gaol delivery of many robbers, &c. taken in and without the abbot's liberty.<sup>9</sup> In the 3d of Edward I. this manor, with that of Helgey, the market of Dunham, and the hundred and half of Clacklose were found to be of 10 marks per ann. value to the abbot, and afterwards this manor alone was valued at 20 marks per ann.

In the reign of Henry V. John Bekeswell, steward to Thomas Botterwick, abbot of Ramsey,<sup>1</sup> accounted for 14*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.* per ann. the issues thereof. On the dissolution of abbies it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. in his 36th year, gave it, with the advowson of the rectory of Downham, to Robert Miller, Gent. and Elianor his wife, to be held by the 40th part of a knight's fee;<sup>2</sup> and in the first of Queen Mary, Miller had license to alienate it to John Walpole of Colkirk in Norfolk, afterwards serjeant at law; and on May 16, A<sup>o</sup>. 16 of Elizabeth, William Walpole (of Fittleworth in Sussex, and of Gray's-Inn, London) and Mary his wife convey it to Francis Gawdy and Elizabeth his wife, which Francis was afterwards a knight, and chief judge of the Common Pleas, whose daughter and heir, Elizabeth, being married to Sir William Newport, alias Hutton, had by him Frances, daughter and heir, married to Sir Robert Rich, (afterwards Earl of Warwick), from whom it came by purchase to Sir Ralph Hare of Stow Bardolph, in or about the 9th of King James I. in which family it remains, Sir George Hare, Bart. being the late lord.

INGALDESTHORP'S MANOR.

William Earl Warren had on the conquest, one carucate and an half of land, also one carucate and an half with 10 acres of meadow, valued at 40s. which 24 freemen held in the Confessor's time, by soccage, of the abbey of Ramsey, and constituted this manor here and in Downham.<sup>3</sup>

About the reign of Henry II. Baldwin appears to have an interest herein, and payed one mark per ann. rent, for lands of Richard Balliol. In the 13th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Roger de Frevil and Hamon Lanvese, of one carucate of land here, conveyed to Roger;<sup>4</sup> after this, in the 41st of the said King, it appears to be in the family of Ingaldesthorp, Isabella, widow of Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, being then found to hold the fourth part of a fee of the Earl Warren. In the 11th of Edward I. John de Ingaldesthorp died seized of it, as did Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, in the 1st of Edward III. and his widow Beatrix held it in the 20th of the said King; and in the 46th of Edward III. Sir William de Ingaldesthorp died possessed of it, valued then at 10*l.* per ann. and in the 3d of Henry IV. it was held by the Lady Eleanor Ingaldesthorp.

Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp was by the last heir male of that family, who was lord, and on his death it came to Isabell his daughter and heir, who was married first to John Nevill Marquis Montacute, and after to Sir William Norris, Knt.; and in the 2d year of King Henry VII. mandamusses were awarded to find out the lands whereof the aforesaid Isabell died seized in the 16th of Edward IV. when her 5 daughters, by the Marquis, were her heirs;<sup>5</sup> Ann, married to Sir William Stoner, Elizabeth, to the Lord Scroop of Upsall, Margaret, to Sir John Mortimer, Lucy, to Sir William Fitz Williams Earl of Southampton, and after to Sir Anthony Brown, and Isabell, to Sir William Huddleston of Sawston in Cambridgeshire, who in her right was lord of this manor; and in the 22d of Henry VIII. Sir John Huddleston died lord.

In 1574, Nicholas Hare, Esq. was possessed of it, and presented to the church; and in this family it continues, united with Ramsey manor.

TONWELL MANOR.

length, and half a one in breadth, and to pay 16*d.* at a 20*s.* gelt. The possessions of Hermerus descended to the Lords Bardolph of Wormegrey, and became part of that honour or barony, and William Lord Bardolph, in the 38th of Henry III. had a grant of free warren here. In the reign of Henry VI. John Tonwell, senior, was lord, and held it of the aforesaid honour, and paid a quitrent for lands which he held here of the abbot of Ramsay.<sup>6</sup> In 1500, Peter Blake died possessed of it, and by his will, dated 21st of October, bequeaths it to his nephew Jasper Blake; Elizabeth his wife, Thomas Blake, Esq. William Skypwith, Esq. executors. Jasper died lord, as appears by his will dated 17th of July 1547. In the 18th of James I. Roger Pratt, Gent. held it; after this I meet with no further account of it, being soon after (as I conceive) joined to the above mentioned lordship.

The temporalities of the abbot of Ramsay were, in the reign of Henry VI. valued here at 18*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* the spiritualities of the said abbot at 20*s.* being a portion out of the rectory; this was given September 15, in the 3d of Elizabeth, to Edward Warner and Ralph Shelton.

The Church of Wimbotsham is dedicated to St. Mary, is a single pile of rag-stone and bolder, covered with reed, with a broad square tower of the aforesaid materials, embattled and coped with free stone, with a carved pinnacle at each corner, in which hang three bells; round the Crown of the first is the name of the Virgin Mary in a cypher, with this motto, Ora pro nobis;—on the 2d, Celesti: Manna: Tua: Proles: Nos: cibis: Anna. It is in length about 52 feet, and about 22 in breadth, the roof is cambered and impanelled with oak, on the mitres of which are several small antique heads of saints, kings, &c. and at the east end the bust (as it seems) of the Virgin, with a legend.

On the head of an old seat of oak are the arms of Spelman of Narburgh, impaled by Blake; ermin, on a pile indented sable, bezanty, between two lions gambes erect and erased, gules, and an orle of escollops of the 2d, a bendlet over all, vert.

In the church were formerly the arms of Inglethorp, gules, a cross engrailed, argent, impaling sable, a fess dauncy, and three mullets in chief, pierced, argent.

The chancel is about 25 feet long, and 17 broad, the communion table is railed in, the whole is covered with reed.
